DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff GUSTAVO PENA RAMIREZ (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants STREAMLINE FINISHES, INC., a California corporation, and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order 16-2001 (“Wage Order 16”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.

2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Orange County, and some of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Orange County. Furthermore, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within Orange County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Order 16.

1 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 2 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
3 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
4 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Orange County, and the State of California and,
5 therefore, were (and are) doing business in Orange County and the State of California.

6 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 7 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
8 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 9 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed,
10 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
11 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, 12 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 13 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

14 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 15 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
16 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
17 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 18 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

19 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
20 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 21 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 22 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
23 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 24 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

25 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 26 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 27 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

28 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and

1 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 2 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

3 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

4 10. Defendants own and operate a painting contractor business based in Lake Forest, 5 California. Defendants has employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the 6 relevant time period as a painter.

7 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
8 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 9 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly 10 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 11 belief, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their 12 scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, including 13 waiting for up to 15 minutes per shift for their supervisors to take their photographs for purposes for 14 timekeeping, and failed to compensate employees for this time. Upon information and belief, 15 Defendants also failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary 16 remuneration into the regular rate of pay. As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees 17 were not compensated for all earned minimum and overtime wages.

18 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 19 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 20 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
21 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt
22 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed
23 by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiff's 24 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when 25 employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt 26 employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled,
27 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal
28 period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code

1 § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of 2 meal period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7 in the event that a legally 3 compliant meal period was not provided to their non-exempt employees.

4 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 5 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 6 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
7 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
8 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants and unlawfully combined their rest periods
9 with meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not 10 authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods to which they were entitled,
11 Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period premium(s) for each workday
12 there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief,
13 Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period premium payments as required
14 by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest period was not authorized and 15 permitted to their non-exempt employees.

16 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 17 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration into the paid 18 sick leave pay rate.

19 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 20 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as 21 alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage
22 statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees and failed to state the accurate number of 23 total hours worked. As a further result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime
24 wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed to timely pay 25 all final wages to former non-exempt employees upon their separation of employment from 26 Defendants.

27 16. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to use 28 their personal cellphones to communicate with Defendants regarding their job duties and taking

1 photographs of completed jobs for their supervisors. Despite requiring employees to incur these 2 necessary business expenses, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other non-exempt
3 employees for the cost of these expenses.

4 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5 17. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following
6 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 7 a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
8 in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll 9 policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 10 this action through the present.
- 11 b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 12 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 13 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during 14 the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 15 c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 16 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours;
17 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years
18 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 19 d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 20 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the 21 four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 22 e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
23 in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year
24 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 25 f. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the 26 Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class 27 during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the 28 present.

g. Expense Reimbursement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who were not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime Class;
- b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to members of the Minimum Wage Class;
- c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- e. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226;
- f. Whether Defendants reimbursed members of the Expense Reimbursement Class for all necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code § 2802; and
- g. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time

1 Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201
2 and 202.

3 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 4 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 5 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual 6 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

7 20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 8 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
9 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
10 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due
11 to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, was not provided all required meal 12 periods, was not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-13 compliant meal and rest periods, was not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage 14 statements, and was not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses.

15 21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
16 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
17 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
18 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 19 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 20 members of the Classes.

21 22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
22 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 23 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 24 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 25 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this 26 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 27 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 28 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily

1 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited
2 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

3 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
4 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 5 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 6 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
7 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
8 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

9 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
10 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
11 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 12 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 13 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 14 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 15 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 16 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

18 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 25. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
21 fully set forth herein.

22 26. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Order 16, § 4 establish the right of 23 employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law.
24 Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 25 minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with 26 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid 27 wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its 28 pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the

1 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were 2 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and 3 Wage Order 16.

4 27. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 5 conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 6 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 7 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount 8 equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

9 28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and 10 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including
11 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
12 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 13 3289.

14 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
15 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
16 (Against All Defendants)

17 29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
18 fully set forth herein.

19 30. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 20 Wage Order 16, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages
21 and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure 22 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

23 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-
24 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours 25 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 16. Wage Order 16, § 3 requires an 26 employer to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular 27 rate of pay for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of 28 the Overtime Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all

1 overtime hours actually worked.

2 32. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and 3 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
4 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
5 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
6 3287 and 3289.

7 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

8 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
11 fully set forth herein.

12 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
13 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 14 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 15 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 16, § 11.

16 35. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 17 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 18 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

19 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 20 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
21 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
22 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 16, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

23 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
27 fully set forth herein.

28 38. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 16, § 12 and establish the right of

1 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period
2 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that
3 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
4 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 5 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 6 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

7 39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 8 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
9 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
10 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 16, and Civil Code §§
11 3287 and 3289.

12 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
13 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES
14 (Against All Defendants)

15 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
16 fully set forth herein.

17 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
18 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff
19 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements
20 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay
21 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay 22 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 23 Labor Code § 226.

24 42. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class 25 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 26 to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period
27 premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies
28 in Defendants' reported payroll data.

1 43. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and 2 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable
3 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

4 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
8 fully set forth herein.

9 45. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an 10 employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the 11 employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their 12 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit, 13 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 14 date of employment.

15 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
16 to timely pay members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their separation
17 from employment, including unpaid minimum and overtime wages as well as unpaid meal and rest 18 period premium wages.

19 47. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 20 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay members of the Waiting 21 Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to the 22 requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

23 48. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor 24 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay members of the Waiting Time Class their 25 earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of daily wages up to 26 thirty days from the time the wages were due.

27 49. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, members of the Waiting Time
28 Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 203.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
5 fully set forth herein.

6 51. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 7 states that “an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 8 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his 9 or obedience to the directions of the employer.”

10 52. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and 11 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class all necessary business expenses they incurred in the 12 performance of their job duties.

13 53. As a consequence of Defendants’ unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 14 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable 15 attorneys’ fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

16 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 UNFAIR COMPETITION

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
20 fully set forth herein.

21 55. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business 22 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 23 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum 24 wages due;
- 25 b. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 26 c. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
27 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
28 wages due;

- 1 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest
2 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium
3 wages due;
- 4 e. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of 5 the Wage Statement Class;
