DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COME NOW, Plaintiffs LORI COOPER and ROND NERI ("Plaintiffs"), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes" except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs took place in the State of California, County of Stanislaus. Defendants employed Plaintiffs within the State of California, County of Stanislaus.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff LORI COOPER is an individual residing in the State of California. Plaintiff ROND NERI is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Stanislaus.

1 6. Defendant ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC at all times herein mentioned,
2 was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company headquartered
3 in the State of California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose 4 employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus.
5 Defendant LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC. at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon 6 information and belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of California, and 7 at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged
8 throughout the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus.

9 7. At all relevant times, Defendants ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC and 10 LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC. were each the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of 11 all applicable California laws and statutes.

12 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC,
13 LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC., and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, 14 partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-
15 interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were 16 acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers,
17 joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators
18 and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification,
19 knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant
20 designated herein.

21 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 22 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs, who sue
23 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on 24 that information and belief allege, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
25 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 26 the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
27 Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 28 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. Defendant ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC, LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC., and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seek class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of this Complaint to final judgment.

14. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiffs have a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiffs have a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs
4 have no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;

28 ///

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to
2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiffs
6 and the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive
7 pay;
- 8 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class 9 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 10 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to California
11 Labor Code section 226.7(c);
- 12 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the 13 other class members for all hours worked;
- 14 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other 15 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 16 resignation;
- 17 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and 18 the other class members during their employment;
- 19 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 20 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 21 j. Whether Defendant failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
22 for Plaintiffs and the other class members;
- 23 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class 24 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 25 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 26 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 27 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

28 ///

n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and

o. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, and failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay related premium wages in lieu thereof, in violation of California law.

1 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 4 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

5 26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
6 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members the required meal and rest periods
7 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”)
8 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
11 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs’

14 proper meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when

16 28. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and other class members were entitled to receive 18 all timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at 19 Plaintiffs’ and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed,
20 late or interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all rest
21 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
22 was missed.

23 29. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
25 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 26 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

27 ///

28 ///

1 30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
4 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did
5 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

6 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 their wages within a specified time during their employment, and that Plaintiffs and the other 9 class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period during 10 their employment.

11 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
13 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
14 Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
15 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number 16 of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members.

17 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
18 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
19 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did
20 not keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

21 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 23 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

1 35. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class
3 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages,
6 all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay

24 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

25 43. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse
26 Plaintiffs and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses.

27 ///

28 ///

44. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

45. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC, LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC., and DOES 1 through 100)

46. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 45, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

47. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

3 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh 4 day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 11 willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

12 53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid
13 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 14 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

85. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

86. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

87. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to the thirty (30) day maximum as provided by Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC, LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC., and

DOES 1 through 100)

88. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 87, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 89. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section
2 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of their employees an accurate itemized
3 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee,
4 (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid
5 on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders
6 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 7 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 8 the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other

13 the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall 14 be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a
15 central location within the State of California.

16 90. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 17 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include
18 but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and 19 other class members.

20 91. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
21 Plaintiffs and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
22 protected rights.

23 92. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by 24 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 25 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
26 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

27 ///

28 ///

1 93. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants
2 the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California
3 Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 4 employee.

5 94. Plaintiffs and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 6 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

7 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

9 (Against ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC, LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC., and 10 DOES 1 through 100)

11 95. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
12 through 94, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set 13 forth herein.

15 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct 16 consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to 17 the directions of the employer.

18 97. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the 19 other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiffs and the 20 other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and 21 costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the 22 date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”))

(Against ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC, LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC., and DOES 1 through 100)

98. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 97, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

99. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themselves, and other current or former employees.

100. On March 4, 2024, Plaintiffs provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code they contend were violated, and the theories supporting their contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiffs believe that on or about May 8, 2024, the sixty-five (65) days’ notice period expired as to all Defendants and the LWDA, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies.

101. Plaintiffs and the other non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they all are or were non-exempt employees of Defendants employed in California at any time during the period from March 4, 2023, to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

1 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

2 102. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
3 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
4 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 5 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

6 103. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiffs and the other
7 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all
8 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

9 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

10 104. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to authorize and permit 11 their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or 12 major fraction thereof and were further required to provide their non-exempt employees with 13 a 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked, pursuant to the mandates of Labor
14 Code sections 226.7 and 512.

15 105. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other
16 aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks
17 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

18 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

19 106. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
20 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

21 107. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other
22 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time
23 period.

24 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

25 108. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
26 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to the mandates of Labor
27 Code sections 201 and 202.

28 ///

109. As a policy and practice, as a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Accordingly, Defendants owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

110. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records regarding their California employees, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 226 and 1174.

111. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved current and former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

112. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse their employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct consequences of the discharge of their duties, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

113. As a policy and practice, Defendants regularly failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owed to them within the required time period.

Penalties

114. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of other current and former aggrieved employees, request and are entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant, including but not limited to:

8 aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 9 c. Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and 10 entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the 11 California Labor Code in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for 12 each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two 13 hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for 14 each subsequent violation;
- 15 d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred 16 dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 17 violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved
18 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 19 e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or 20 other statutes; and
- 21 f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 1194, and 22 2699, and any other applicable statute.

Re: LUXURY LIMOUSINE INC. and ROCK STAR LUXURY LIMOS LLC

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Lori Cooper and Rondi Neri (collectively, "Claimants") against Luxury Limousine Inc. and Rock Star Luxury Limos LLC (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "LUXURY LIMOS").

Claimants are pursuing their California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Claimants may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Luxury Limousine Inc. is a California corporation located at 4400 Moore Road, Ceres, California 95307. Rock Star Luxury Limos LLC is a California limited liability company located at 4400 Moore Road, Ceres, California 95307.

LUXURY LIMOS employed Ms. Cooper as an hourly-paid non-exempt Driver within one year of the date of this letter (until or until around August 2023) in the State of California. LUXURY LIMOS employed Ms. Neri as an hourly-paid non-exempt Driver within one year of the date of this letter (until or until around August 2023) in the State of California. LUXURY LIMOS directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Claimants' and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Claimants do not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Claimants will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Claimants are informed and believe that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Claimants and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Claimants may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of LUXURY LIMOS within the State of California.

LUXURY LIMOS failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Claimants have standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all of the aggrieved employees at LUXURY LIMOS, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

LUXURY LIMOS has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Claimants and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. LUXURY LIMOS failed to compensate Claimants and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. LUXURY LIMOS also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and commissions into Claimants’ and other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Claimants and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, LUXURY LIMOS failed to pay aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, LUXURY LIMOS routinely required Claimants and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with LUXURY LIMOS's policies and expectations and serve customers. LUXURY LIMOS failed to provide coverage to Claimants and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, LUXURY LIMOS failed to authorize and permit Claimants and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, LUXURY LIMOS failed to compensate Claimants and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." LUXURY LIMOS required Claimants and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." LUXURY LIMOS required aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, LUXURY LIMOS failed to pay Claimants and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code sections 203 and 210.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, LUXURY LIMOS failed to pay Claimants and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, LUXURY LIMOS did not provide Claimants and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from LUXURY LIMOS were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Claimants and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Claimants and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Claimants and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Claimants and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Claimants and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Claimants and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, LUXURY LIMOS failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Claimants and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, LUXURY LIMOS did not provide Claimants and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Claimants and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by LUXURY LIMOS, including for purchasing clothing they were required to wear while working and using their personal cell phones for work-related purposes.

We believe that Claimants and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Claimants will seek these penalties on their own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of LUXURY LIMOS within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
