1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Daimen Wagner (“Wagner” or “Plaintiff”) moves for an award of attorneys’ fees 4 and costs, approval of the claims administrator’s fees, as well as approval of an enhancement 5 payment to the Class Representative in connection with the final approval of the class and 6 representative action settlement of this action. As discussed in the Motion for Final Approval 7 submitted concurrently herewith, Plaintiff and Defendants Park Place Asset Management, A 8 California Limited Partnership, and Barcelona Apartments Investors, A California Limited 9 Partnership (collectively, “Defendants”) (the “Parties”) have settled the Class Members’ Released 10 Class Claims and Released PAGA Claims as defined in the Parties’ Amended Settlement 11 Agreement and Release of Claims (“Settlement”) for a settlement package worth $87,500.00.

12 The Parties have agreed upon a settlement class defined as: “all non-exempt employees of 13 Defendants Park Place Asset Management, A California Limited Partnership, and Barcelona 14 Apartments Investors, A California Limited Partnership, in California at any time between July 5, 15 2020 and February 18, 2025.”

16 The Settlement is “direct distribution” – there is no claims process, and all Qualified 17 Settlement Class Members who do not submit an opt-out request will automatically be mailed a 18 settlement check when the Settlement is granted final approval.

19 The Settlement Administrator has calculated pro rata settlement payments to Class 20 Members from the Net Settlement Amount based on the total number of Qualified Workweeks 21 worked by each Qualified Settlement Class Member during the applicable class period. The 22 average settlement share to be paid to the 15 participating Class Members is approximately 23 $2,458.99 and the highest settlement share to be paid is approximately $8,820.30. Declaration of 24 Jarrod Salinas of Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions (“Phoenix”) (“Salinas Decl.”) ¶ 25 13.

26 No Class Members have requested exclusion from the Settlement, and no Class Members 27 have submitted an objection to the Settlement. See id. ¶¶ 8, 9.

1 The Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) shall be paid $6,000 (75%) of 2 the $8,000 total allocated to settle the Class’s claims brought pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et 3 seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), and the remaining 25%, or $2,000, will 4 be included in the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed among PAGA Members based on their 5 total Qualifying Work Weeks during the PAGA Period. Settlement at ¶ C(1)(e).

6 Because the Settlement achieves outstanding results for the Settlement Class and the State 7 and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve his request for 8 attorneys’ fees and costs, an enhancement payment for serving as the class representative, and the 9 Settlement Administrator’s fees.

10 Plaintiff seeks the Court’s approval of an attorneys’ fee award of $30,625, plus the 11 reimbursement of $4,350.13 in litigation costs. The attorney fee request equals 35% of the Gross 12 Settlement Amount of $87,500. Class Counsel’s request for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs is 13 reasonable and appropriate in light of the outstanding work performed by Class Counsel in the case, 14 the contingent nature of this action, and the results achieved under the Settlement. Lealao v.
15 Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19.

16 Plaintiff also requests the Court confirm the amount of the enhancement payment award 17 agreed to be paid to the named Plaintiff in the amount of $5,000. The amount proposed to be 18 awarded to the representative Plaintiff is fair and reasonable. Courts approve incentive awards to 19 plaintiffs when justified and appropriate to compensate plaintiffs for their time, effort, and 20 inconvenience. See e.g., Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294, 21 299.

22 Finally, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the payment of $2,975 to Phoenix as 23 compensation for the claims administration services it has and will provide in connection with this 24 settlement.

1 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

2 A. Case Summary and Procedural History

3 On July 5, 2024, Plaintiff filed his Representative Action Complaint pursuant to Labor 4 Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) alleging representative claims seeking 5 civil penalties. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 8.

6 This Complaint followed April 29, 2024 and May 1, 2024, letters to the Labor and 7 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) to exhaust Plaintiff’s remedies pursuant to the PAGA.
8 Gaines Decl. at ¶ 9.

9 Pursuant to the Parties Settlement, on March 12, 2025 filed an amended complaint adding 10 standalone class action claims asserting class claims against Defendants for (1) failure to pay all 11 wages due (Labor Code §§ 221, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 1194, and 1194.2); (2) failure to 12 provide meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC wage 13 order 4-2001); (3) failure to provide rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof (Labor Code § 14 226.7; IWC Wage order 4-2001); (4) failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement 15 provisions (Labor Code § 226(a), (e)); (5) failure to timely pay wages due at the separation of 16 employment (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) Violations of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 17 et seq.; and (7) civil penalties pursuant to PAGA for underlying violations of the Labor Code as set 18 forth in the Action. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 10.

19 B. Investigation and Settlement Discussions

20 Since the inception of the Action, the Parties have engaged in informal discovery. Among 21 other things, Defendants provided Plaintiff with copies of policies applicable to Class Members 22 and Plaintiff’s claims and relevant pay data for Class Members. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 11.

23 The Parties engaged in extensive discussions about the respective strengths and weaknesses 24 of their claims and defenses. On February 18, 2025, the Parties met with mediator Doug Leach, 25 Esq. to attempt to resolve the lawsuit, including individual termination-related claims brought by 26 Daimen Wagner. The Parties agreed, subject to approval by the Court, to the Settlement of the 27 lawsuit, as well as Plaintiff’s individual termination-related claims. The Parties further agreed to 28

1 enter into their Settlement Agreement to memorialize their settlement of the lawsuit. Gaines Decl.
2 at ¶ 12.

3 The Parties thereafter amended their settlement pursuant to the Court's concerns expressed 4 in its September 18, 2025 tentative ruling questioning the tax treatment of class member payments, 5 which the Parties adjusted. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 13.

6 The settlement discussions were conducted at arm's-length. Based on his own independent 7 investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion (and will so represent to the Court)
8 that settlement for the consideration and on the terms set forth in this Settlement Agreement is fair, 9 reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Settlement Class in light of all known 10 facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, the risk the Settlement Class will 11 not be certified by the Court, and the defenses asserted by Defendants. Defendants and their 12 counsel also agree (and will so represent to the Court) that this settlement is fair and in the best 13 interests of the Defendants and the Settlement Class. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 14.

14 The Parties thereafter jointly prepared the Settlement. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 15; Exhibit B to 15 the Gaines Decl.

16 C. Summary of Settlement Terms

17 1. Benefits to the Class and the Public

18 The Settlement provides that (a) the Court may certify the Settlement Class as described in 19 the Settlement on a provisional, non-mandatory basis for the purposes of this settlement only, 20 conditioned upon the Court granting final approval of the Settlement; and (b) Defendants shall pay 21 the total, non-reversionary sum of $87,500 (the "Gross Settlement Amount"). The Gross 22 Settlement Amount includes all attorneys' fees and costs/expenses petitioned by Class Counsel; an 23 enhancement award; costs of administration of the Settlement; and payment for settlement of 24 Plaintiff's representative PAGA claims asserted in his letters to the LWDA. In no event shall 25 Defendants be liable for the payment of any amounts exceeding the Gross Settlement Amount with 26 the exception of the employer's share of payroll taxes due and payable as a result of the Settlement, 27 which shall be paid separately from the Gross Settlement Amount. Settlement at ¶ C(1)(a).

1 The Parties have agreed upon a settlement class: all non-exempt employees of Defendants 2 Park Place Asset Management, A California Limited Partnership, and Barcelona Apartments Investors, 3 A California Limited Partnership, in California at any time between July 5, 2020 and February 18, 4 2025. Settlement at ¶ A(4).

5 2. Preliminary Approval, Notice, and the Claims Process

6 By Order dated November 21, 2025, this Court adopted its November 20, 2025 tentative 7 ruling and granted Plaintiff's unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the Settlement and 8 provisionally certified the Settlement Class, finding that the Settlement appeared to be within the 9 range of reasonableness of settlements that could ultimately be given final approval. See Gaines 10 Decl. at ¶ 18; Ex. C. The Court approved the distribution of the amended Notice of Proposed Class 11 Action Settlement and set the Final Fairness and Approval Hearing. Id.

12 Pursuant to the Court's Order, on December 12, 2025, Phoenix mailed Notice packets 13 containing the notice of the terms of the Settlement — including the terms relating to attorneys' 14 fees and costs — to 15 Class Members. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 19; Salinas Decl. at ¶ 5; Exhibit A to the 15 Salinas Decl. Class Members were given 45 days after the Notice was mailed to submit their opt 16 out form or objection to the Settlement. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 20. As of the date of this motion, all 17 Class Members will be issued their share of the Settlement and they will be paid, on average, 18 approximately $2,458.99 each; the highest-paid participating Class Member will be paid 19 approximately $8,820.30. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 21; Salinas Decl. at ¶ 13. No Class Members have 20 objected to the Settlement, and no Class Members have opted out. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 22; Salinas 21 Decl. at ¶¶ 8, 9.

22 D. Compliance with Procedural Requirements of PAGA

23 On August 19, 2025 and November 3, 2025, in compliance with Labor Code § 2699(1)(2), 24 Plaintiff's counsel submitted copies of the Settlement, and preliminary approval papers, to the 25 LWDA through its online submission interface. These final approval papers are also being 26 submitted to the LWDA concurrently with their submission to the Court, as evidenced on the 27 attached proof of service. The LWDA has not objected or otherwise responded to any of the 28 submissions thus far. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 70; Exhibit F to the Gaines Decl.

1 III. ARGUMENT

2 A. Class Counsel Request an Award Under the Common Benefit Doctrine

3 1. A 35% Fee Award Is Reasonable Here

4 Class Counsel respectfully requests that this Court approve the fees and costs to be paid in 5 this action. This Application is made pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769 which 6 requires court approval of the fees paid through settlement in a class action.

7 Class Counsel seeks attorneys' fees of $30,625, representing 35% of the settlement 8 consideration under the "common fund" doctrine. Courts have long recognized the "common 9 fund" or "common benefit" doctrine, under which attorneys who create a common fund or benefit 10 for a group of persons may be awarded their fees and costs to be paid out of the fund. Serrano v.
11 Priest ("Serrano III") (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, quoting D'Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners 12 (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees' Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 13 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167; see also Boeing Co. v. Van 14 Gemert (1980) 444 U.S. 472, 478; Mills v. Electric Auto-Lite Co. (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392.

15 The California Supreme Court has held that, "when a number of persons are entitled in 16 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all 17 results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded 18 attorneys' fees out of the fund." Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D'Amico, 11 Cal.3d 1; 19 see also Boeing, supra, 444 U.S. at 478 ("[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit 20 of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee from the fund as 21 a whole."); Mills, supra, 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common 22 fund approach in class actions). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter 23 Group) at § 17:172.3 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

24 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property 25 benefiting others as well as plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court has 26 inherent equitable power to order plaintiff's attorney fees paid out of 27 the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures 28 that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

1 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees 2 in traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a “certain or 3 easily calculable sum of money,” use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate.
4 Serrano III, 20 Cal. 3d at 35.

5 In Glendale City Employees’ Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 6 fn.19, the California Supreme Court upheld an attorneys’ fee award based on a percentage of the 7 common benefit obtained in a lawsuit by a city employees’ association for retroactive wages:

8 It is not necessary to find this suit a proper class action in order to 9 uphold the portion of the judgment awarding counsel for plaintiffs 25 percent of all retroactive salaries and wages received. That award may 10 be sustained under the rule that a litigant who creates a fund in which others enjoy beneficial rights may require those beneficiaries to pay 11 their fair share of the expense of litigation. (See Sprague v. Ticonic
National Bank (1939) 307 U.S. 161, 159; Estate of Stauffer (1959) 53 12 Cal.2d 124, 132).

13 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court 14 stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which 15 others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation 16 costs.” Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, 17 the California Supreme Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied 18 “consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other 19 persons are entitled to share.”

20 Numerous appellate courts have similarly found. See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 21 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a “contingent percentage” award of 22 attorneys’ fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court's broad equitable 23 powers); Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 11 Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys’ fees and 24 expenses properly awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); 25 Bank of America v. Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit 26 created by action compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts); Parker v. Los Angeles (1974) 27 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 567-568 (court upheld fee award equal to one-third of the damages to owners 28 of residential property in an inverse condemnation action).

Moreover, at least eight federal courts of appeal-the First, Third, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh and the D.C. Circuit-have endorsed the “percentage fee” method for determining reasonable attorneys’ fees in common benefit cases. See e.g., In re Sumitomo Copper Litig. (S.D.N.Y. 1999) 74 F. Supp. 2d 393, 396-398 (describing the overwhelming weight of federal authority in favor of the percentage fee method); see also, Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 30-31 (describing same).

Attorneys’ fees awards in line with the amount sought here are frequently upheld. See e.g., In re Activision Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1989) 723 F. Supp. 1373, 1375.

The requested fee falls well within the percentages awarded in other class action litigation by this Court and numerous California trial courts. As the cases cited above demonstrate, attorneys’ fee awards in the amount sought here are well-established by California law and practice. Accordingly, Class Counsel’s fee request is fair and reasonable and is consistent with the awards in California and the Ninth Circuit. It is also reasonable given the history of this action and the results obtained by Class Counsel.

2. The Circumstances of this Case Support a 35% Fee Award

Given the significant results achieved under the circumstances of this litigation, the requested fee award is reasonable. As discussed in Sumitomo Copper Litigation, supra, 74 F. Supp. 2d at 396:

No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent on the success of his services to charge, when successful, as little as he would charge a client who in advance of the litigation has agreed to pay for his services, regardless of success. Nor, particularly in complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a fee depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

In that vein, this Court should consider the contingent nature of this case, the uncertainty of the outcome, the quality of the counsel, and the preclusion from other employment.

a. The Contingent Nature of This Case

From the outset of the case to the present, prosecution of this action has involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. Class Counsel has placed his own resources at risk

1 to prosecute this action with no guarantee of success. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 58 and 62. The risks of 2 this case are apparent in that class certification would likely have been a hard-fought issue, 3 especially given the uncertainty regarding certification of cases such as this. Moreover, even if 4 class certification was granted over Defendants' opposition, there was no assurance that Plaintiff 5 would succeed at trial. Despite such challenges, Class Counsel was able to persuade Defendants 6 that they faced significant liability exposure such that they were willing to pay $87,500 to settle the 7 Class Members' claims.

8 b. The Experience, Reputation, and Ability of Counsel, and 9 the Skill They Displayed in Litigation

10 Class Counsel has substantial experience in wage-and-hour and other class action 11 litigation, including litigation involving the novel legal issues in this action. See e.g., Gaines Decl.
12 at ¶¶ 2-5. Class Counsel's skill in developing a factual record and convincing Defendants of their 13 litigation exposure under California law were essential to achieving the Settlement. Through his 14 skill and reputation, Class Counsel was able to obtain a settlement that provides an outstanding 15 result for Class Members. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 6-7, 11-15.

16 c. The Results Achieved

17 The excellent results achieved by the Settlement support Class Counsel's request for 18 attorneys' fees. Class Members' support for the results achieved by Class Counsel is demonstrated 19 by the absence of any objections to either the Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for fees, 20 both of which were described clearly in the Notice. As of the date of this application, Class 21 Members will be paid, on average, approximately $2,458.99 each, which is intended to compensate 22 them for a host of alleged wage and hour violations. This is a significant benefit for the Class 23 Members here – it represents a recovery for highly disputed claims. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 43-44.

24 Furthermore, the efficiency with which this litigation was conducted and resolved should 25 be rewarded. After preparing and investigating the case prior to filing the complaint, Class Counsel 26 litigated and resolved the case in an efficient manner. The Class Members directly benefited from 27 the prompt and fair resolution of their claims. They will be receiving a significant award in a short 28

1 period of time as opposed to waiting years to recover some undetermined amount if they succeeded 2 at trial, which is an uncertainty in itself.

3 d. Preclusion of Other Employment

4 As California law recognizes, Class Counsel's commitment to this litigation should not be 5 assessed in a vacuum. See Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 49. A relevant factor in determining 6 attorneys' fees is whether the litigation required Class Counsel to forego other employment. See id.
7 Additional work was available that Class Counsel had to forego to devote the time necessary to 8 pursue this litigation. See Gaines Decl. at ¶ 67.

9 B. The Requested Fees are Also Justified Under the Lodestar Method

10 Fee calculations under the lodestar method would result in a similar, if not greater, award, 11 demonstrating the fairness of Class Counsel's percentage fee request. Under the lodestar method, 12 a base fee amount is calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on the case and the 13 reasonable hourly compensation of the attorney. The base amount is then adjusted by use of a 14 multiplier in light of various factors. Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48.

15 Class Counsel's hourly rate is summarized in the Gaines Declaration at ¶ 60.

16 One difficulty in determining the hourly rate of attorneys of similar skill and experience in 17 the relevant community is the scarcity of hourly fee-paying clients in class action litigation. As a 18 practical matter, few if any employees or consumers pay attorneys' fees on an hourly basis for 19 such extensive litigation, and thus retainer agreements in such cases are based on a stepped-up 20 contingency fee (with the percentage increasing to forty percent or more if the case goes to trial).
21 Therefore, there is no customary hourly billing rate for work that is routinely based on a 22 contingent fee relationship, but the nature of class action work should be strongly considered by 23 the Court. In addition, wage and hour work presents a difficult area of law that is not within the 24 knowledge of many lawyers. This kind of class action work requires specialized learning and the 25 willingness to take large risks. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 62.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 Class Counsel has spent approximately 66.3 hours litigating this case to date.¹ Gaines Decl.
2 at ¶ 59; Exhibit D. Class Counsel expects to spend another 5 hours preparing for and attending the 3 Final Approval Hearing and dealing with claims administration issues. Id. Reasonable hours 4 include, in addition to time spent during litigation, the time spent before the action was filed, 5 including time spent interviewing the client, investigating the facts and the law, preparing the 6 initial pleadings and litigating the case. Webb v. Board of Educ. (1985) 471 U.S. 234. Further, the 7 fee award should include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys' fee claim. Serrano v.
8 Priest (1982) 32 Cal.3d 621, 639 ("Serrano IV").

9 In cases where a common fund analysis is not used, once the court establishes the lodestar 10 amount, it must adjust the fee award by a multiplier in order to make an appropriate fee award.
11 Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48. In applying the multiplier, Newberg on Class Actions states 12 that "[m]ultiples ranging from one to four frequently are awarded in common fund cases when the 13 lodestar method is applied. A large common fund award may warrant an even larger multiplier." 4 14 Newberg on Class Actions 4th (4th ed. 2002) § 14.6. If the class members paid the fees that the 15 market would bear, they would pay a fee of anywhere from one-third to forty percent of any 16 recovery. Since this is the market rate, the lodestar calculation should be enhanced to reflect what 17 the class members would pay on the open market. Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48.

18 In Lealao, the court held that trial courts should award lodestar fees by examining the 19 percentage-of-the-benefit and adjusting the lodestar calculation accordingly. Id. at 49, 53. The 20 court indicated that this is an upward adjustment and should be akin to a contingency fee recovery; 21 the court stated, "[a]n adjustment reflecting the amount of the class recovery is not significantly 22 different from an adjustment reflecting a percentage of that amount; and California courts have

23 24 ¹ In Martino v. Denevi (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 553, 559, the court addressed the issue of what 25 evidence is required in California to support a fee application. The court held: "Testimony of an 26 attorney as to the number of hours worked on a particular case is sufficient evidence to support an 27 award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time records." Id. There is no need to attach 28 the voluminous invoices prepared in a case as a basis for an award of fees and costs. Id. Through Class Counsel's declarations in support of this application, however, Plaintiff presents a thorough breakdown of all hours spent, and costs incurred, in prosecuting this class action. Pursuant to Martino, supra, this presentation is more than sufficient to support the amount sought.

1 evaluated a lodestar as a percentage of the benefit.” Id. at 46. The Lealao method appears 2 particularly appropriate because class actions generally are contingency fee cases for plaintiffs – 3 and the class action clients do not expect to pay an hourly fee.

4 The rationale of Lealao comports with the purpose of the multiplier. The multiplier is 5 “primarily to compensate the attorney for the prevailing party at a rate reflecting the risk of 6 nonpayment in contingency cases.” Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1138. The Lealao 7 court reasoned:

8 Given the unique reliance of our legal system on private litigants to 9 enforce substantive provisions of law through class and derivative 10 actions, attorneys providing the essential enforcement services must be 11 provided incentives roughly comparable to those negotiated in the 12 private bargaining that takes place in the legal marketplace, as it will 13 otherwise be economic for defendants to increase injurious behavior. It 14 has therefore been urged (most persistently by Judge Richard Posner) 15 that in defining a reasonable fee’ in such representative actions the law 16 should mimic the market.

17 In the class action context, that would mean attempting to award the 18 fee that informed private bargaining, if it were truly possible, might 19 have reached. The simplest way for the law to duplicate the bargain 20 that informed parties would reach if agency costs were low is to look to 21 fee award levels in actions brought by sophisticated private parties 22 under the same or comparable statutes.

23 Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47 – 48 (internal citations and quotations omitted). The court added:

24 [T]rial judges need the flexibility Serrano III provides, as it enables 25 them to relate fee awards to the economic realities that determine the 26 efficacy of the private enforcement contemplated by our civil justice 27 system.

28 Accordingly, we hold that, in cases in which the value of the class recovery can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty and it is not otherwise inappropriate, a trial court has discretion to adjust the basic lodestar through the application of a positive or negative multiplier where necessary to ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.

Id. at 49-50.

1 In looking at similar cases, including those set forth above, Class Counsel's requested fee 2 comports to the market. Based on the reasonable hourly rates suggested by Class Counsel, the 3 requested fee award would represent a negative multiplier of 1.63 below the lodestar of $49,910– 4 an amount well within the accepted range for class action cases. In this regard, decisions of other 5 courts in awarding attorneys' fees in class action litigation is persuasive evidence of the fair market 6 value of the services provided.

7 C. No Class Member Objected to the Attorney Fee Award

8 Counsel's intention to request payment of attorneys' fees was clearly disclosed to each 9 Class Member in the Court-approved Notice of Class Action Settlement. See Exhibit A to Exhibit
10 B to the Gaines Decl.; see also, Salinas Decl., Exhibit A to the Salinas Decl. As of the filing of 11 this brief, there has been not one single objection to the request for attorneys' fees. Salinas Decl. at 12 ¶ 9. Clearly, the Class approves of the award of attorneys' fees. Class Counsel requests $30,625 13 in attorneys' fees – representing 35% of the $87,500 Gross Settlement Amount.

14 D. Class Counsel's Request for Costs is Reasonable

15 In the course of this litigation, Class Counsel had to (and will) incur substantial out-of-16 pocket costs of more than $4,350.13. See Gaines Decl. at ¶ 69; Exhibit E to the Gaines Decl.
17 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement and the class notice, the requested cost award would not 18 exceed $8,000.

19 As demonstrated in the Gaines Declaration submitted herewith, the incurred costs included 20 among other things filing fees, photocopy charges, mediation expenses, service of process fees, 21 and mailing charges. See Gaines Decl. at ¶ 69; Exhibit E to the Gaines Decl. Such costs are 22 appropriate for cost reimbursement in these types of cases. See e.g., In re United Energy Corp. Sec.
23 Litig. (C.D. Cal. 1989) 1989 WL 7321 1, *6 (quoting Newberg, Attorney Fee Awards, § 2.19 24 (1987)); see also, In re GNC Shareholder Litigation (W.D. Pa. 1987) 668 F. Supp. 450, 452.

25 The costs incurred by Class Counsel in this litigation benefited Class Members. In light of 26 the litigation costs that Class Counsel needed to incur to prosecute this action and the positive 27 reaction of Class Members, Plaintiff's cost request is reasonable and should be granted.

28 ///

1 E. The Class Representative's Enhancement Payment is also Reasonable

2 Plaintiff seeks a modest enhancement payment in the amount of $5,000.² Gaines Decl. ¶ 54.

3 The enhancement payment is intended to recognize the time and efforts that the named 4 Plaintiff spent on behalf of the Class. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 54-56; see also, Declaration of Daimen 5 Wagner, submitted herewith.

6 When determining whether incentive awards are appropriate, courts consider a variety of 7 non-exclusive factors such as:

8 [T]he actions the plaintiff has taken to protect the interests of the class, 9 the degree to which the class has benefitted from those actions, and the 10 amount of time and effort the plaintiff expended in pursuing the 11 litigation . . . the risk to the class representative in commencing suit, 12 both financial and otherwise, the notoriety and personal difficulties 13 encountered by the class representative, the duration of the litigation, 14 and the personal benefit (or lack thereof) enjoyed by the class 15 representative as a result of the litigation.

13 Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (internal quotations 14 omitted), citing Cook v. Niedert (7th Cir. 1998) 142 F.3d 1004, 1016 and Van Vranken, supra, 901 15 F.Supp. at 299.

16 Plaintiff's proposed $5,000 enhancement award falls within a range deemed acceptable by 17 California courts. See also In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 18 1395.

19 As a result of the named Plaintiff's efforts, Class Members will receive significant 20 monetary settlement payments – approximately $2,458.99, on average, per Class Member who 21 participates in the Settlement.

22 In this case, the named Plaintiff performed the following tasks, among others: (1) assisted 23 Counsel in investigating and substantiating the claims alleged in this action, including multiple 24 interviews with counsel to review facts, documents, and Defendants' policies; (2) assisted in the 25 preparation of the complaint; (3) produced evidentiary documents to Counsel; and (4) assisted in 26

27 ² As discussed above, Plaintiff reached a separate agreement with Defendants to resolve his 28 individual termination claims and in exchange for a general release.

1 the settlement of this litigation. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 54-56; see generally, Declaration of Daimen 2 Wagner. Moreover, as with any plaintiff who files a civil action, the named Plaintiff undertook the 3 financial risk that, in the event of a judgment in favor of Defendants in this action, he could have 4 been personally responsible for any attorneys' fees and costs awarded in their favor.

5 The award of an enhancement payment to the named Plaintiff is especially warranted in a 6 case like this one. Enhancement payments are necessary to ensure that employees, like Plaintiff, 7 continue to bring claims like those brought here to enforce the rights of employees. Individuals like 8 the named Plaintiff (and most Class Members) would have little, if any, recourse without the class 9 action device. Most Class Members – like the named Plaintiff – would be fearful of retaliation in 10 response to filing any lawsuit, much less a class action one. Plaintiff must be commended for 11 pursuing his claims; modest enhancement payments like that sought here are an appropriate means 12 of doing so.

13 Not a single Class member objected to the enhancement payment requested on behalf of the 14 named Plaintiff, who brought this litigation on their behalf and who secured a benefit for them 15 worth $87,500. In light of the work that the named Plaintiff performed on behalf of Class Members, 16 and the Class Members' response to the Settlement, the requested enhancement payment is 17 reasonable and appropriate. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 54.

18 F. Approval of the Fees Incurred by the Claims Administrator

19 As part of the preliminary approval process, the Court approved the hiring of Phoenix as 20 the Claims Administrator. See Exhibit C to the Gaines Decl. In preliminarily approving the 21 Settlement, the Court also tentatively approved a payment of up to $3,000 to Phoenix to perform 22 all of the duties required to administer the Settlement. Id. Phoenix has performed all of its required 23 duties to date and is committed to completing the claims administration process. See generally 24 Declaration of Jarrod Salinas. Phoenix's fees are $2,975. Salinas Decl. at ¶ 16. Plaintiff requests 25 that the Court approve the payment of $2,975 to Phoenix to account for the costs of administration 26 as part of its final order approving the Settlement.

27 ///

28 ///

1 IV. CONCLUSION

2 For all the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff requests that the Court (1) approve Class Counsel's 3 request of $30,625 as an award of attorneys' fees, (2) approve the requested award of $4,350.13 in 4 litigation costs to Class Counsel, (3) approve the request of $5,000 as an enhancement payment to 5 the named Plaintiff, and (4) approve payment of $2,975 in administration costs to Phoenix.
