16 chain of restaurants on behalf of non-exempt employees. On July 22, 2024, the court granted
17 in part the plaintiffs' motion for class certification and certified a class. The San Francisco
18 Superior Court Case Number is CGC-20-582809.

19 THE LAWSUIT

20 8. Defendant provides shipping, transportation, and warehousing services in 21 California (among other places). Plaintiff Shawn Taplin is a former employee of Defendant in 22 California.

23 9. Plaintiff has satisfied the prerequisites under California Labor Code section
24 2699.3(a), including, and not limited to, providing the California Labor and Workforce
25 Development Agency ("LWDA") and the employer with written notice of the specific 26 provisions of the California Labor Code that are alleged to have been violated, including the 27 facts and theories to support the alleged violations, by way of written correspondence on behalf of Plaintiff that was dated April 23, 2024 (“PAGA Notice). The PAGA Notice was sent by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant and submitted to the LWDA by way of online submission on the LWDA’s website. Aside from confirmation of receipt of the PAGA Notice, the LWDA did not respond to the PAGA Notice. A true and correct copy of the PAGA Notice is attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 2.”

10. On June 28, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. (“Operative Complaint”) against Defendant in the Los Angeles County Superior Court (“Court”), Case No. 24CMCV00997 (the “Action”). Plaintiff’s core allegation is that Defendant has violated the California Labor Code by engaging in a uniform practice and procedure, with respect to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, of, inter alia, failing to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premiums, failing to pay timely wages during employment and upon termination of employment, failing to provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements, failing to keep complete and accurate payroll records, and failing to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs.

11. On August 23, 2024, Defendant filed an Answer to the Operative Complaint. Defendant maintained, and continues to maintain, that it had, and continues to have, legally-compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time period at issue. Defendant denies that it ever violated any provision of the California Labor Code, including, but not limited to, those sections for which Plaintiff seeks penalties under the PAGA.

THE SETTLEMENT REACHED IN THE ACTION

12. Marked and attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 1” is the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”), entered into between Plaintiff, for himself and on behalf of the State of California with respect to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act, and Defendant California Sierra Express, Inc. (“Defendant”). The parties have also drafted and agreed to the form and content of the proposed informational cover letter (“Cover Letter”) for mailing to Aggrieved Employees when Individual Settlement Shares are distributed to them, in substantially the form attached as “EXHIBIT A” to the [Proposed] Order and Judgment Granting Approval of Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release, Award of Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Individual Release Fee, and Settlement Administration Costs. The Court is respectfully requested to approve the proposed Cover Letter.

13. The Settlement pertains to the following allegedly aggrieved employees: all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who were employed by Defendant in the State of California during the PAGA Period (the “Aggrieved Employees”). The “PAGA Period” means either: the period between October 9, 2023 (for PAGA Members who released PAGA claims through October 8, 2023 in Baquiring v. California Sierra Express, Inc. [Alameda County Superior Court Case No. RG21106254] (the “Baquiring Action”)), or April 23, 2023 (for PAGA Members whose PAGA claims were not released in the Baquiring Action), through the earlier of the following two dates: the date the Court signs the Order approving the Settlement, or the Alternate End Date¹. Based on information provided by Defendant, it is estimated that during the PAGA Period there are approximately 253 Aggrieved Employees who worked 6,021 Compensable Pay Periods.

14. Defendant has agreed to pay the gross amount of $125,000.00 (“Total Settlement Amount”), to settle this matter. The Settlement Agreement provides that the “Net Settlement Amount” will be the Total Settlement Amount less the following amounts: (1) Attorneys’ Fees and Costs of 35% of the Total Settlement (i.e. approximately $43,750.00) for attorneys’ fees and up to $20,000.00 for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses to Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Plaintiff’s Counsel”); (2) Individual Release Fee in the amount of $15,000.00 to Plaintiff; and (3) Settlement Administration Costs of up to $7,000.00 to the PAGA Settlement Administrator (though actual costs are expected to be $3,850). Plaintiff’s Counsel only seeks an award of reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $8,583.14 and

¹ If the actual number of Compensable Pay Periods during the PAGA Period is more than ten percent (10%) above 6,623, the PAGA Period shall end on the date that the total number of pay periods reach 6,623 Compensable Pay Periods, and such date shall be referred to as the “Alternate End Date. (Settlement Agreement, §3(b).)

1 assuming that the requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Individual Release Fee, and Settlement
2 Administration Costs, are approved by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be
3 approximately $53,816.86. The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed to the LWDA and
4 the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(i). 75% of the Net
5 Settlement Amount will be distributed to the LWDA, which is estimated to be $40,362.63
6 ("LWDA Payment"), and 25% of the Net Settlement Amount, which is estimated to be 7 $13,454.22 ("Employees' Portion"), will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro
8 rata basis, based on the number of pay periods they are each credited with having worked during 9 the PAGA Period ("Compensable Pay Periods"). The parties have agreed to retain ILYM Group, 10 Inc. ("ILYM" or "PAGA Settlement Administrator") to handle the administration of the 11 Settlement, and the Court is respectfully requested to appoint ILYM to serve as the PAGA
12 Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administration Costs are estimated to be $3,850.00
13 (the Parties agreed in the Settlement to allocate up to $7,000.00) and will be paid out of the Total
14 Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the Court.

15 THE LITIGATION AND WORK PERFORMED BY PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL

16 15. The effectiveness of Plaintiff's Counsel, Lawyers for Justice, PC in prosecuting
17 this case has translated into tangible monetary benefits for Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, and 18 the State of California in the following respects: (1) their recoveries over a reasonably short 19 period of time as opposed to waiting additional years for the same, or possibly, a worse, result;
20 (2) a guaranteed result that compares favorably with other similar representative action
21 settlements; and (3) significant savings in fees and costs which would have only increased 22 significantly had the case progressed through trial and/or appeals.

23 16. After engaging in extensive investigations, formal and informal discovery, and 24 exchange of information, data, and documents, the parties participated in extensive settlement
25 discussions and negotiations to try to resolve the above-captioned lawsuit. These efforts
26 included participating in a formal full-day mediation on May 15, 2025, conducted by Hon. Bryan 27 F. Foster (Ret.), a well-respected mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and 28

1 employment matters. With the aid of the mediator, the Parties reached the Settlement described
2 herein. In the course of mediation and settlement discussions, the parties discussed all aspects
3 of the case, including the risks and delays of further litigation and proceeding with trial, as well
4 as the law relating to representative PAGA actions, off-the-clock theory, meal and rest periods,
5 meal waivers, regular rate of pay calculations, reporting time pay, Industrial Welfare
6 Commission Wage Orders, wage-and-hour enforcement, the evidence produced and analyzed,
7 and the possibility of trial and appeals, among other things. During all settlement discussions,
8 the parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.

9 17. Prior to reaching the Settlement, the parties investigated the veracity, strength, and 10 scope of the PAGA claim and allegations, and were preparing for trial. Plaintiff conducted 11 significant investigation and formal and informal discovery and exchange of information,
12 documents, and data regarding the facts of the case, including and not limited to, the review, 13 consideration, and analysis of a large volume of information, documents, and data obtained from 14 Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources. Plaintiff's Counsel propounded multiple sets of formal
15 written discovery requests onto Defendant (specifically, Requests for Production of Documents
16 (Set One), Requests for Admission (Set One), Special Interrogatories (Sets One and Two), and 17 Form Interrogatories – General (Set One)), and served a notice of deposition of Defendant's
18 Person Most Knowledgeable designees regarding organizational structure, wage and hour
19 practices, and affirmative defenses, along with requests for production of documents. The 20 information, documents, and data that were reviewed and analyzed by Plaintiff's Counsel
21 included, and were not limited to, Plaintiff's employment records; a detailed sampling of 22 Aggrieved Employees' time and pay data; various forms, agreements, and acknowledgments;
23 and Defendant's operations and employment practices, policies, and procedures, among other 24 documents. Counsel for the parties undertook significant investigation and evaluation of the 25 PAGA claim and related allegations, including, and not limited to, calculating the potential 26 monetary recovery under PAGA. Other work performed by Plaintiff's Counsel included, but 27 was not limited to: meeting and conferring with Defendant's counsel regarding the pleadings, case management, discovery, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other issues; case strategy and analysis; researching, drafting, reviewing, and revising pleadings, court filings, motion-related papers (e.g., with respect to settlement approval motion papers), briefs for settlement negotiations and mediation, and the settlement agreement; propounding written discovery requests and notices of depositions of Defendant's persons most knowledgeable designees; claims evaluation and analysis; preparing for and participating in settlement negotiations and the mediation; and appearing for court proceedings. Counsel for the parties have further invested time to research the applicable law, which is evolving as it relates to representative PAGA actions, off-the-clock theory, meal and rest periods, meal waivers, regular rate of pay calculations, reporting time pay, Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, wage-and-hour enforcement, Plaintiff's claims, and Defendant's defenses, as well as facts discovered.

18. Based on investigation and information discovered, Plaintiff's Counsel believes that there is sufficient evidence to support the allegations that Defendant violated the California Labor Code. While Plaintiff's Counsel believes that the PAGA claim has merit and that Plaintiff will ultimately succeed in this litigation and prevail at trial, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel also recognize Defendant's defenses, the costs of further litigation, and multiple risks to recovery. For example, although wage-and-hour actions are amenable to resolution as to a group of employees, some courts have also found that, for various reasons, the issues raised by Plaintiff, including, and not limited to, the issues of non-compliant meal periods, non-compliant rest periods, and unreimbursed business expenses, raise individualized issues and/or are not suitable for adjudication as to a group of employees.

19. Plaintiff and his counsel have also considered the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, including the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. In order to prevail on the PAGA claim, Plaintiff would have to prove that Defendant engaged in the alleged California Labor Code violations and demonstrate that Defendant's conduct warrants the imposition of penalties.

THE STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESSES OF THE PAGA CLAIM, AND THE RANGE OF POSSIBLE OUTCOMES

20. In order for Plaintiff to prevail on the PAGA claim, he would have to prove that Defendant engaged in the alleged California Labor Code violations and demonstrate that Defendant's conduct warrants the imposition of penalties. Furthermore, although wage-and-hour actions are amenable to resolution as to a group of employees, some courts have also found that, for various reasons, the issues raised by Plaintiff raise individualized issues and/or are not suitable for adjudication as to a group of employees.

21. From the inception of this litigation, Defendant indicated that it would aggressively litigate this case and contended that it would ultimately succeed in the action. Defendant maintained several defenses to Plaintiff's allegations, which, if successfully argued and proven, had the potential to eliminate or substantially reduce recovery. Throughout this litigation, Defendant maintained, and continues to maintain, that it did not engage in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against any of its employees, and that it had, and continues to have, legally-compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time period at issue. Defendant denies that it ever violated any provision of the California Labor Code. Defendant further denied, and continues to deny, that the lawsuit is appropriate for representative adjudication for any purpose other than the Settlement.

22. Defendant also challenged Plaintiff's standing as an aggrieved employee and denied that any of its other employees whom Plaintiff seeks to represent are aggrieved. Also, multiple courts have taken an approach requiring a plaintiff to establish standing and face the possibility of bifurcation of discovery and/or trial of the PAGA claim. See Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Superior Court. (2009) 46th Cal.4th 993, 1001 (noting that PAGA "require[s] a plaintiff to have suffered an injury resulting from an unlawful action"); Stafford v. Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2014) 2014 WL 6633396, at *4 (finding that judicial economy supported bifurcation because of the difficulties and inherent uncertainties of being able to establish liability with respect to a large number of potentially aggrieved employees and noted that “PAGA’s public purpose would be ill-served if the court finds [the plaintiff] has not been aggrieved by a Labor Code violation”); Grappo v. Coventry Fin. Corp. (1991) 235 Cal.App.3d 496, 504 (Trial courts have “broad discretion to determine the order of proof in the interest of judicial economy”); see also Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 598 (The court may “when the convenience of witnesses, the ends of justice, or the economy and efficiency of handling the litigation would be promoted thereby, on motion of a party, after notice and hearing, make an order. . . that the trial of any issue or any part thereof shall precede the trial of any other issue or any part thereof in the case[.]”); Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 1048(b) (Court can separate trial of any cause of action or of any separate issue in the interest of convenience or to avoid prejudice); Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 2019.020(b) (Courts have the power to “establish the sequence and timing of discovery for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice”); Horton v. Jones (1972) 26 Cal.App.3d 952, 955 (stating that bifurcation and sequencing of litigation is allowed to avoid wasting time and money on trial when litigation of issues could be rendered moot).

23. Further, Defendant maintained that, in addition to its strong arguments against the underlying claims, taking the current unsettled state of law, it would be unjust to award the maximum potential PAGA penalties. There was also a dearth of law and guidance regarding trials and/or assessment of penalties under the PAGA statute, there is no clearly established methodology for the valuation and/or assessment of PAGA penalties, and case outcomes (such as those discussed below) have shown that the actual amount of civil penalties actually assessed by trial courts is far less than the amount sought.

24. Defendant also argued that an important feature of PAGA is that the Court retains discretion to lower the penalties if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2); see also Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1136 (holding that a court may reduce the amount of PAGA penalties awarded to an employee based upon discretionary factors).

Defendant maintained, and continues to maintain, that it had and continues to have, legally-compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time period at issue. Even if, arguendo, such violations occurred, which Defendant denies, Defendant contended that said violations would only be considered “initial violations” and thus heightened “subsequent violation” penalties were not warranted. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2); see also Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1208-09 (“Until the employer has been notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision [...], the employer cannot be presumed to be aware that its continuing underpayment of employees is a ‘violation’ subject to penalties.”). Defendant argued that it would be able to show a lack of willfulness in the violations, such that the alleged California Labor Code violations would not be considered “willful.” Defendant contended that, at best, even if a violation giving rise to a penalty was shown for each pay period, only the lower civil penalty associated with initial violations would apply. As discussed above, Defendant denied and continues to deny that it ever violated any provision of the California Labor Code. However, assuming, arguendo, that any violations occurred, Defendant argued the violations would not be viewed as subsequent violations giving rise to heightened penalties. Defendant also argued that the Court was unlikely to assess cumulative penalties for the maximum number of possible, separate California Labor Code violations, because it would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, and/or confiscatory—especially where certain conduct may be regulated by multiple provisions of the California Labor Code that are interrelated and work in tandem. As such, Defendant contended that cumulative penalties and heightened penalties would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, and confiscatory.

25. Plaintiff’s Counsel was also aware of case law indicating that courts have attributed little separate value to PAGA claims, for example, allowing them to be resolved for $0 where the other underlying California Labor Code claims are being (or have been) resolved, or, assessing much lower amounts of civil penalties against employers than are sought. See e.g., Magadia v. Wal-Mart Assocs. (N.D. Cal. 2019) 384 F. Supp. 3d 1058, 1100-1101, 1103-1104, 1111 (finding that, under Labor Code § 2699(e)(2), “the Court has broad discretion to award PAGA penalties the Court sees fit” and reducing the PAGA penalty award significantly from the maximum penalties possible); Morales v Bridgestone Retail Operations LLC, Orange County Superior Court No. 30-2017-00900244 (Aug. 2, 2018) (of $7 million PAGA penalties requested, the court awarded $425,000); Carrington v Starbucks Corp. (2018) 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 517, 529 (of $75 million in penalties sought, the court affirmed the trial court’s $150,000 PAGA penalty award based on 30,000 violations, which reduced the penalty rate to $5 per violation); Arnold v San Diego Second Chance Program, San Diego County Superior Court No. 37-2016-00018375 (Dec. 18, 2017) (no PAGA penalties awarded); Felczer v Apple Inc., San Diego County Superior Court No. 37-2011-00102593 (Sept. 13, 2017) (no PAGA penalties awarded); In re Taco Bell Wage and Hour Actions (E.D. Cal. Apr. 8, 2016) No. 1:07-cv-01314-SAB, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 48557 at *41 (the court declined to award PAGA penalties after trial); Allen v American Multi-Cinema, Alameda County Superior Court No. RG11585502 (July 24, 2016) (no PAGA penalties awarded); Atempa v Pama, San Diego County Superior Court (July 31, 2015) (of PAGA penalties of $456,133 sought, the court awarded $197,434.00); Driscoll v Granite Rock, Santa Clara County Superior Court No. 1-08-cv-103426 (Sept. 20, 2011) (the court declined to award PAGA penalties); Fleming v Covidien, Inc., No. ED CV10-01487 RGK (OPx) (C.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 154590 at 8-9 (of $2,800,000 PAGA penalties requested, the court awarded $500,000); Aguirre v Genesis Logistics, No. SACV 12-00687-JVS (ANx) (C.D. Cal. Dec. 30, 2013) 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 189820 at 6-7 (of $1,800,000 PAGA penalties requested, the court awarded $500,000); Halevi v Aroma Bakery Café, Inc., Los Angeles County Superior Court No. 468146 (Aug. 30, 2013) (the court declined to award PAGA penalties after trial awarding wages to class on the basis that, inter alia, the lawsuit was not prompted by availability of PAGA penalties, penalties were not necessary to remedy ongoing or future violations, corporate defendants corrected violations and were no longer in business, and plaintiffs did not offer evidence establishing imposition of penalties on individual defendants would not be confiscatory).

26. Furthermore, the recent amendment of the PAGA statute enacted on July 1, 2024, adopting, inter alia, modified standing requirements, codifying a manageability requirement, capping civil penalties that can be assessed against an employer if an employer meets certain conditions, and allowing an employer to cure violations to avoid the assessment of civil penalties if an employer meets certain conditions, has created uncertainty regarding the future of claims for civil penalties under PAGA. The amended PAGA statute clarifies certain legal issues now but at the time this action was filed, there was even more uncertainty regarding PAGA claims.

27. While Plaintiff disagrees with Defendant's contentions and maintains that his PAGA claim has merit, in reaching the settlement, Plaintiff and his counsel took into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the uncertainty of how the case might have concluded as litigation continued, at trial, and/or upon appeal.

28. The parties had the opportunity to review extensive information, documents, and data regarding Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' employment with Defendant in an effort to determine the potential value and strength of the PAGA claim. Counsel for the parties invested time reviewing and analyzing the relevant information, documents, and data, and this information made it possible to calculate the potential value of the PAGA claim (as discussed below). Accordingly, the parties have conducted sufficient investigation and review of data, documents, and information to be sufficiently apprised of the nature and extent of the PAGA claim asserted in this lawsuit, and to enable both sides to fully evaluate the Settlement for its fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness. The parties have also considered the settlement negotiations and the recommendations of the mediator Hon. Bryan F. Foster (Ret.), who is highly experienced in mediation of complex labor and employment matters. The parties have agreed that this case is well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to the PAGA claim, as well as the costs, risks, and delays to both sides that would attend further litigation. The Settlement takes into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the uncertainty of how the case might have concluded as litigation continued, at trial, and/or upon appeal.

ATTORNEYS' FEES REQUESTED BY PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL

29. As set forth more fully in the accompanying Motion, Plaintiff's Counsel seeks attorneys' fees of 35% of the Total Settlement Amount (i.e. approximately $43,750.00). Pursuant to the contingency-fee agreement entered into by and between Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel, Plaintiff has agreed to a contingency-fee of at least thirty-five percent (35%) of the recovery. The attorneys' fees sought are commensurate with: (1) the risk that Plaintiff's Counsel took in commencing the case; (2) the time, effort, and expense that Plaintiff's Counsel dedicated to the case; (3) the skill and determination that Plaintiff's Counsel has shown; (4) the results that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved throughout the litigation; (5) value of the settlement that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved in the case; and (6) the other cases that Plaintiff's Counsel has turned down in order to devote its time and efforts to this case.

LITIGATION COSTS AND EXPENSES INCURRED BY PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL

30. The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $20,000.00. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks reimbursement of $8,583.14 for litigation costs and expenses incurred in this case, as reflected in the Case Cost Detail attached hereto as "EXHIBIT 3." It should be noted that Plaintiff's Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation to date and will not receive any compensation until a recovery is obtained in this matter. These costs and expenses were reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement. The amount sought for reimbursement is less than the maximum amount ($20,000.00) allocated under the Settlement Agreement for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses. The cost savings of $11,416.86 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount.

INDIVIDUAL RELEASE FEE TO PLAINTIFF

31. For his broader individual waiver and release of claims with a California Civil Code Section 1542 waiver (set forth in Section 8(b) of the Settlement Agreement), the Settlement provides Individual Release Fee to Plaintiff in the total amount of $15,000.00 to be paid out of the Total Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the Court. The requested Individual Release Fee is fair and appropriate. It is also worth noting that Plaintiff has undertaken significant efforts and work to spearhead the pursuit of this matter. By initiating and pursuing this matter, Plaintiff stepped into the shoes of the State of California and undertook the responsibilities of serving in a representative capacity. Plaintiff has spent a substantial amount of time and effort discussing his employment with his counsel, gathering and producing relevant documents and information, and providing the facts and evidence necessary to attempt to prove the allegations. Plaintiff was available whenever his counsel needed him and actively tried to obtain and provide information that would facilitate the pursuit of the PAGA claim. And perhaps most importantly, unlike every other PAGA Member in this case, Defendant required that Plaintiff provide a broad general release of all claims (with a Section 1542 waiver) in order to settle this action. Thus, the Settlement would not have occurred without Plaintiff's general release and the Release Fee provides the consideration for that general release. Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiff to receive the Individual Release Fee, in addition to any individual penalties payment he will receive as an aggrieved employee.

32. Plaintiff's Counsel submits that the Settlement fulfills the purpose of the PAGA statute, is within the accepted range of recoveries for this type of litigation, and is fair, reasonable, and adequate given the substantial monetary benefits provided for by the Settlement, the strengths and weaknesses of this case, and the inherent delay, costs, risks, and uncertainty associated with continued litigation.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 26th day of March 2026, at Glendale, California.

PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”) is entered into by and between Shawn Taplin (“Plaintiff”), for himself and as a representative of the State of California with respect to the Aggrieved Employees (as defined in Section 3(a)(5) below) and California Sierra Express, Inc. (“Defendant”), subject to approval by the Court. The term “Party” or “Parties” as used herein shall refer to Plaintiff, Defendant, or both, as may be appropriate.

1. Recitals. This Settlement Agreement is made with reference to the following facts:

(a) Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant from approximately August 2022 to approximately January 2024;

(b) On April 23, 2024, Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Plaintiff’s Counsel”), submitted a letter on behalf of Plaintiff to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant, to notify the LWDA and Defendant, pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) of Plaintiff’s intent to seek civil penalties under PAGA for Defendant’s alleged violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802 and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, including inter alia, Wage Orders 4-2001 and 9-2001, thereby initiating LWDA Case Number LWDA-CM-1024003-24 (the “PAGA Notice”);

(c) On June 28, 2024, Plaintiff filed his Complaint for Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. (“Operative Complaint”), commencing a representative action under PAGA against Defendant, entitled Shawn Taplin v. California Sierra Express, Inc., Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 24CMCV00997 (the “Action”). The Operative Complaint asserts a single cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA, for violations of multiple provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders;

(d) On May 15, 2025, the Parties mediated the Action with Hon. Bryan F. Foster (Ret.) and, with the aid of the mediator’s evaluation, the Parties ultimately reached the Settlement described herein to resolve the Action in its entirety;

(e) There has been no determination on the merits of the Action or the PAGA Notice but, in order to avoid additional cost and the uncertainty of litigation, the Parties desire to resolve the Action and Released Claims (as defined in Section 8(a) below).

(f) Unless otherwise specified, all citations and references to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) are to the version of the statute prior to the amendment effective July 1, 2024; the amended statute does not apply to the Litigation and the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(v), as amended, because the PAGA Notice was submitted to the LWDA before June 19, 2024.

2. No Admission of Wrongdoing. The Parties agree that neither this Settlement Agreement nor the furnishing of the consideration for this Settlement Agreement shall be deemed or construed at any time for any purpose as an admission by the Released Parties of wrongdoing or evidence of any liability or unlawful conduct of any kind.

3. Consideration.

(a) In consideration for Plaintiff signing this Settlement Agreement and complying with its terms, Defendant shall pay the maximum gross sum of One Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($125,000.00) (the “Total Settlement Amount”) to resolve the Action and Released Claims (as defined herein), which will be paid as follows:

(1) Attorneys’ fees in the amount of Thirty-Five Percent (35%) of the Total Settlement Amount, which is Forty-Three Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($43,750.00), and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of up to Twenty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($20,000.00) (collectively, “Attorneys’ Fees and Costs”) to Plaintiff’s Counsel, which Defendant will not contest.

(2) An individual release fee of up to the amount of Fifteen Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($15,000.00) (“Individual Release Fee”) to Plaintiff, which Defendant will not contest.

(3) Costs and expenses of administration of the Settlement up to the amount of Seven Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,000.00) (“Settlement Administration Costs”) to ILYM Group, Inc. (the “PAGA Settlement Administrator”).

(4) The amounts stated in Sections 3(a)(1) – 3(a)(3) above, once approved by the Court, shall be paid from the Total Settlement Amount. The balance remaining after these deductions is referred to as the “Net Settlement Amount.”

(5) Seventy-five percent (75%) of the Net Settlement Amount will be distributed to the LWDA (“LWDA Payment”); and the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) will be distributed to all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who were employed by Defendant in the State of California during the PAGA Period (the “Aggrieved Employees”). The PAGA Period shall start on either (1) October 9, 2023 for PAGA Members who released PAGA claims through October 8, 2023 in Baquiring v. California Sierra Express, Inc. (Alameda County Superior Court Case No. RG21106254 (the “Baquiring Action”), or (2) April 23, 2023 for PAGA Members whose PAGA claims were not released in the Baquiring Action, and shall end on the earlier of (a) the date the Court signs the order approving the Settlement, or (b) the Alternate End Date. The 25% portion of the Net Settlement Amount payable to Aggrieved Employees is referred to as the “Employees’ Portion.”

(b) The Aggrieved Employees are estimated to consist of approximately 253 individuals who were employed for approximately 6,021 Compensable Pay Periods. If the actual number of Compensable Pay Periods during the PAGA Period is more than ten percent (10%) above 6,623, the PAGA Period shall end on the date that the total number of pay periods reach 6,623 Compensable Pay Periods, and such date shall be referred to as the “Alternate End Date.”

(c) Because this is a settlement of PAGA claims for civil penalties only, no portion of the Settlement is allocated to unpaid wages. One Hundred Percent (100%) of the payments for Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Individual Release Fee, and the Net Settlement Amount to be paid to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees as described in Section 3(a) above will be treated and reported for tax purposes as non-wage payments and the PAGA Settlement Administrator will be responsible for issuing IRS Forms 1099 as required.

4. Court Approval is Required. Plaintiff understands and agrees that the State of California and Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, would not receive the consideration specified in Section 3(a) above, except for Plaintiff's execution of this Settlement Agreement, and the fulfillment of the promises contained herein, as well as Court approval of the Settlement. If this Settlement Agreement is not approved by the Court, it shall be null and void; provided that, if the Court does not fully approve the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, the Individual Release Fee, and/or the Settlement Administration Costs, such decision will not invalidate this Settlement Agreement.

5. Disbursal of Settlement Funds.

(a) Subject to Section 4 above, Defendant shall remit to the PAGA Settlement Administrator the sums described more fully in Section 3(a) above, after all of the following has occurred: (i) the Settlement Agreement is fully executed by all Parties and their counsel; and (ii) the Court has entered an order approving the Settlement Agreement.

(b) Upon complete distribution of the Total Settlement Amount by the PAGA Settlement Administrator in accordance with this Settlement Agreement, the PAGA Settlement Administrator will notify the Parties of distribution of the entire Total Settlement Amount.

6. Approval and Implementation of the PAGA Settlement.

(a) The Parties are aware that some courts have approved a PAGA settlement and entered an order approving the settlement and judgment and thereafter closed the case, while others have approved a PAGA settlement and entered only an order approving the settlement with later instructions to file a request for dismissal of the action. The Parties agree to cooperate and take any and all steps required by the Court in the Action to implement the settlement and terminate the Action pursuant to settlement (i.e., to terminate the Action by way of judgment or dismissal).

(b) The Parties further agree to cooperate in the drafting and/or filing of any further documents and/or filings reasonably necessary to be prepared and/or filed, and to take all steps that may be requested by the Court in order to obtain approval and implementation of this Settlement Agreement, and the payments described in Section 3(a) above.

(c) The Parties shall seek to obtain Court approval of this Settlement Agreement by way of an unopposed motion to be filed by Plaintiff's Counsel. Plaintiff's Counsel shall provide a draft of all documents to be submitted in connection with the motion to approve this Settlement Agreement to Steven D. Eheart of Holland & Hart LLP and Dora V. Lane of Ascent Law, PC ("Defendant's Counsel") for review; Defendant's Counsel will be given an opportunity to comment on the papers prior to their being filed with the Court, and such comments will be implemented to the extent reasonable.

(d) The Parties expressly acknowledge that the Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement is a condition precedent to any payments described in this Settlement Agreement. Therefore, the Parties further acknowledge that, should the Court not grant approval of this Settlement Agreement and/or should the Court refuse to grant judgment or dismissal of the Action and close the Action based on the Settlement, the entirety of this Settlement Agreement shall be null and void; provided that, if the Court does not fully approve the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, the Individual Release Fee, and/or the Settlement Administration Costs, such decision will not invalidate this Settlement Agreement.

7. Payment of Total Settlement Amount / Notice to Recipients.

(a) Subject to Court approval of this Settlement Agreement, payment of the sums described in Section 3(a) above shall be made by Defendant by transmitting the required sums to a qualified settlement account established by the PAGA Settlement Administrator for administration of this Settlement, within thirty (30) calendar days of the Court's order granting approval of this Settlement Agreement. If the date by which payment by Defendant is due falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the State of California, then the due date shall be extended the next following day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the State of California.

(b) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of 25% of the Net Settlement Amount (i.e., the Employees' Portion) based upon the number of pay periods they each are credited with having worked between either (1) October 9, 2023 for PAGA Members who released PAGA claims through October 8, 2023 in the Baquiring Action, or (2) April 23, 2023 for PAGA Members whose PAGA claims were not released in the Baquiring Action through the earlier of (a) the date the Court signs the order approving the Settlement, or (b) the Alternate End Date ("Compensable Pay Periods"), based on Defendant's payroll records which will be calculated by the PAGA Settlement Administrator by calculating pay periods worked during the PAGA Period. Specifically, to calculate each Aggrieved Employee's share of the Employees' Portion ("Individual Settlement Share"), the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall: (i) for each Aggrieved Employee, divide the number of Compensable Pay Periods he or she individually credited with the total aggregate number of Compensable Pay Periods credited to all Aggrieved Employees, and then (ii) multiply this amount by the Employees' Portion to arrive at each Aggrieved Employee's Individual Settlement Share.

(1) One Hundred Percent (100%) of all Individual Settlement Shares are to be considered penalties and the PAGA Settlement Administrator will not undertake any deductions, withholding, or remittances for local, state, or federal taxes. If applicable, Aggrieved Employees' Individual Settlement Shares will be reported on an IRS Form 1099, as required by the IRS.

(c) The PAGA Settlement Administrator shall distribute each Individual Settlement Share by way of check, along with a cover letter ("Cover Letter") agreed to by the Parties and approved by the Court, in substantially the form attached hereto as "Exhibit A", in the following manner:

(1) No later than thirty (30) calendar days after the Court's order granting approval of the Settlement, Defendant shall provide the PAGA Settlement Administrator with a list of all Aggrieved Employees (the "Aggrieved Employees List"), containing the following information for each Aggrieved Employee: (i) last known first and last name; (ii) last known address; (iii) last known telephone number to the extent they are available; (iv) Social Security number; and (v) dates worked during the PAGA Release Period.

(2) The PAGA Settlement Administrator shall conduct one (1) National Change of Address (“NCOA”) search for all individuals identified on the Aggrieved Employees List, and update addresses for Aggrieved Employees to the extent updated addresses are located through the NCOA search prior to mailing the below-referenced PAGA Settlement Package.

(3) No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved Employees List and Total Settlement Amount, the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall mail the agreed-upon Cover Letter and Individual Settlement Share checks (together, the “PAGA Settlement Package”) to all Aggrieved Employees by first-class United States mail. For each PAGA Settlement Package that is returned undeliverable within thirty (30) calendar days of the initial mailing, the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to locate an alternate, updated address for the Aggrieved Employee at issue, by using a skip-trace search and shall attempt one (1) re-mailing of the PAGA Settlement Package if an alternate address is located as a result of the skip trace.

(4) The Individual Settlement Share checks issued to Aggrieved Employees shall remain valid for ninety (90) calendar days, and thereafter, shall be canceled. Funds associated with canceled checks shall be transmitted to the State Controller’s Office Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Aggrieved Employee(s) at issue and in the amount of his or her respective Individual Settlement Share(s).

(d) No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved Employees List and Total Settlement Amount, the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall transmit the LWDA Payment to the LWDA.

(e) No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved Employees List and Total Settlement Amount, the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall transmit the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to Plaintiff’s Counsel, unless instructed otherwise by Plaintiff’s Counsel. At the request of Plaintiff’s Counsel, the PAGA Settlement Administrator may purchase annuities, utilize United States Treasuries and bonds, or utilize any other attorney fee deferral vehicles, and any additional expenses associated with doing so will be paid separately by Plaintiff’s Counsel.

(f) No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved Employees List and Total Settlement Amount, the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall transmit the Individual Release Fee to Plaintiff.

(g) No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved Employees List and Total Settlement Amount, the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall transmit the Settlement Administration Costs to itself, only after the PAGA Settlement Packages have been mailed to all Aggrieved Employees.

8. Release of Claims by Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.

(a) Upon the date the Court has entered an order approving the Settlement Agreement and full funding of the Total Settlement Amount, and except as to the rights and obligations created by this Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff and the State of California with respect to Aggrieved Employees, will be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily released and forever discharged Defendant and any of its former and/or current parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and any other entities that could be considered to have jointly employed the PAGA Members as well as each of their officers, directors, managers, owners, executives, partners, executive-level employees, shareholders, agents, attorneys, and any other predecessors, successors, assigns or legal representatives (collectively, the “Released Parties”), to the full extent permitted by law, of and from the Action and from any and all claims, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) as well as any interest, fees, and costs available under PAGA, based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, including but not limited to, for failure to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and associated premiums, failure to provide compliant rest periods and associated premiums, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, failure to provide compliant and accurate wage statements, failure to maintain complete and accurate payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs, in violation of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802 and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, including inter alia Wage Orders 4-2001 and 9-2001 (collectively, the “Released Claims”).

(b) Upon the date the Court has entered an order approving the Settlement Agreement and full funding of the Total Settlement Amount, including as to the Individual Release Fee, and except as to the rights and obligations created by this Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of his heirs, executors, administrators, representatives, attorneys, successors and assigns, will be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily released and forever discharged Released Parties, to the full extent permitted by law, from any and all claims of every nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which Plaintiff has or may have as of the date the Court has entered an order approving the Settlement Agreement. This broader release includes, but is not limited to, all claims arising directly or indirectly from Plaintiff’s employment with Defendant and the termination of that employment, including without limitation claims arising under federal, state, or local laws and claims for unpaid wages, penalties, liquidated damages, breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, infliction of emotional distress, wrongful or retaliatory discharge, harassment, discrimination, defamation, impairment of economic opportunity, and violations of public policy, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the California Labor Code, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the California Business and Professions Code, the California Constitution, the Civil Rights Act of 1866, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. With respect to those claims released by Plaintiff in an individual capacity, Plaintiff acknowledges and waives any and all rights and benefits available under California Civil Code Section 1542, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Plaintiff understands and agrees that claims or facts in addition to or different from those which are now known or believed by him to exist may hereafter be discovered. It is Plaintiff’s intention to, upon the date the Court has entered an order approving the Settlement Agreement and full funding of the Total Settlement Amount, settle fully and release all claims he now has against the Released Parties, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected. Notwithstanding the above, the general release by Plaintiff shall not extend to claims for workers' compensation benefits, claims for unemployment benefits, or other claims that may not be released by law. Further, notwithstanding the above, the release in this Paragraph 8(b) shall be void and shall have no effect if the Court does not approve any Individual Release Fee. For clarity, the release in this Paragraph 8(b) will have effect if the Court approves the Individual Release Fee in any non-zero amount up to $15,000.

9. Governing Law and Interpretation.

(a) This Settlement Agreement shall be governed and conformed in accordance with the laws of the State of California. Should any non-material provision of this Settlement Agreement be declared illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction and cannot be modified to be enforceable such provision immediately shall become null and void, leaving the remainder of this Settlement Agreement in full force and effect.

(b) In the event of a breach of any provision of this Settlement Agreement, any Party reserves the right to institute an action specifically to enforce any term or terms of this Settlement Agreement or seek damages for breach. In an action to enforce any term or terms of this Settlement Agreement or to seek damages for breach of this Settlement Agreement, the prevailing Party in that action shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs from the non-prevailing Party.

10. Amendment. This Settlement Agreement may not be modified, altered or changed except in writing and signed by both Parties and their counsel, wherein specific reference is made to this Settlement Agreement, subject to approval by the Court.

11. Miscellaneous.

(a) The Parties agree to stay all proceedings in the Action, including with respect to California Code of Civil Procedure section 583.310, except such proceedings necessary to implement and complete the Settlement, pending approval of the Settlement.

(b) This Settlement Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which, taken together shall constitute the same instrument. A signature made on a faxed or electronically transmitted copy of the Settlement Agreement or a signature transmitted by facsimile or electronic mail shall have the same effect as the original signature.

(c) The section headings used in this Settlement Agreement are intended solely for convenience of reference and shall not in any manner amplify, limit, modify or otherwise be used in the interpretation of any of the provisions hereof.

(d) This Settlement Agreement was the result of negotiations between the Parties and their respective counsel under the auspices of mediator Hon. Bryan F. Foster (Ret.). In the event of vagueness, ambiguity or uncertainty, this Settlement Agreement shall not be construed against the Party preparing it but shall be construed as if both Parties prepared it jointly, and the Parties may present their disputes to the mediator to resolve any vagueness, ambiguity, or uncertainty.

(e) If Plaintiff or Defendant fail to enforce this Settlement Agreement or to insist on performance of any term, that failure does not mean a waiver of that term or of the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement remains in full force and effect anyway.

HAVING ELECTED TO EXECUTE THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT, TO FULFILL THE PROMISES, AND TO RECEIVE THE CONSIDERATION SET FORTH ABOVE, PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT, FREELY AND KNOWINGLY, AND AFTER DUE CONSIDERATION, ENTER INTO THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto knowingly and voluntarily executed this Settlement Agreement as of the date set forth below:

Re: Settlement Payment from Shawn Taplin v. California Sierra Express, Inc., Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 24CMCV00997

Dear <<First Name>><<Last Name>>:

Please find enclosed a check in the amount of <<amount of payment>> (“Individual Settlement Share”). This check is your payment from the settlement reached in the lawsuit entitled Shawn Taplin v. California Sierra Express, Inc., Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 24CMCV00997 (“Action”).

The lawsuit was filed on June 28, 2024 by Shawn Taplin (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of the State of California, with respect to himself and other alleged aggrieved employees, to seek recovery of civil penalties pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), for alleged violations of the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, including, inter alia, for failure to properly pay minimum and overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premiums, failure to pay wages during employment and upon termination, failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to maintain requisite payroll records, and failure to reimburse business expenses. Prior to filing the lawsuit, on April 23, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a letter to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), pursuant to PAGA, to provide notice of his intent to seek civil penalties under PAGA.

Defendant California Sierra Express, Inc. (“CSE”) denies all of Plaintiff’s allegations and denies any wrongdoing of any kind associated with Plaintiff’s allegations. Additionally, the Court has not made any determination as to whether the claims advanced by Plaintiff have any merit. In other words, the Court has not determined whether any laws have been violated, nor has it decided in favor of Plaintiff or CSE. Instead, Plaintiff and CSE have agreed to resolve the lawsuit with no decision or admission of who is right or wrong.

On <<Date>>, the settlement was approved by the Court, with a portion to be paid to the LWDA and a portion to be paid to all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California during the period of either (1) October 9, 2023 for PAGA Members who released PAGA claims through October 8, 2023 in Baquiring v. California Sierra Express, Inc. (Alameda County Superior Court Case No. RG21106254 (the “Baquiring Action”), or (2) April 23, 2023 for PAGA Members whose PAGA claims were not released in the Baquiring Action through <<the earlier of (a) the date the Court signs the order approving the Settlement, or (b) the Alternate End Date>> (“Aggrieved Employees”). The period of either (1) October 9, 2023 for PAGA Members who released PAGA claims through October 8, 2023 in the Baquiring Action, or (2) April 23, 2023 for PAGA Members whose PAGA claims were not released in the Baquiring Action through <<the earlier of (a) the date the Court signs the order approving the Settlement, or (b) the Alternate End Date>> is the “PAGA Period”.

You are receiving a portion of the settlement (the enclosed Individual Settlement Share) because you have been identified as an Aggrieved Employee. Your Individual Settlement Share is based on the total number of pay periods that you worked for Defendant in California during the PAGA Period. The Individual Settlement Share is considered to be 100% penalties, which will be reported on an IRS Form 1099. You are responsible for paying any and all taxes that may be due as a result of any payment issued to you under the settlement and should consult a tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of such payment.

Under the settlement, as of <<the earlier of (a) the date the Court signs the order approving the Settlement, or (b) the Alternate End Date>>, the Released Parties were fully released and forever discharged from any and all Released Claims.

“Released Parties” means Defendant and any of its former and/or current parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and any other entities that could be considered to have jointly employed the PAGA Members as well as each of their officers, directors, managers, owners, executives, partners, executive-level employees, shareholders, agents, attorneys, and any other predecessors, successors, assigns or legal representatives.

“Released Claims” means any and all claims, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) as well as any interest, fees, and costs available under PAGA, based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, including but not limited to, for failure to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and associated premiums, failure to provide compliant rest periods and associated premiums, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, failure to provide compliant and accurate wage statements, failure to maintain complete and accurate payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs, in violation of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802 and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, including inter alia, Wage Order 4-2001 and 9-2001.

The enclosed check is valid for 90 days from the original date of issuance and mailing, and if it is not cashed, deposited, or otherwise negotiated within the 90-day timeframe, it will be canceled, and the funds associated with the canceled check will be transmitted to the State Controller's Office Unclaimed Property Division in your name and in the amount of your respective Individual Settlement Share.

Do not call or write the Court, Office of the Clerk of the Court, Defendant, or Defendant's counsel to ask questions about the settlement or to ask tax-related questions. If you have any such questions, you may contact ILYM Group, Inc. at [toll-free phone number].

Re: CALIFORNIA SIERRA EXPRESS, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Shawn Taplin against California Sierra Express, Inc. (including any and all affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, directors, officers, agents, and executive employees) (collectively referred to as “CSE”) for violations of California wage-and-hour laws. Mr. Taplin seeks penalties for violations of the California Labor Code, which are recoverable under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) and all other remedies available under PAGA.

Mr. Taplin seeks these remedies on behalf of the State of California and “aggrieved employees,” as defined herein. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

CSE employed Mr. Taplin as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 2022 to approximately January 2024, in the State of California.

The “aggrieved employees” that Mr. Taplin may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the above-referenced entities within the State of California.

Based on the following facts and theories, CSE has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and IWC Wage Orders including inter alia, Wage Orders 4-2001, and 9-2001.

CSE required aggrieved employees to perform work before their scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, during off-the-clock meal breaks, and/or during rest breaks and failed to compensate aggrieved employees for this time. Such work included, but was not limited to, responding to work-related inquiries.

California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates at one-and-one-half times or double the regular rate of pay, including additional remuneration. During the relevant time period, Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Therefore, Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each meal or rest period that is not provided. During the relevant time period, CSE required Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees to work during meal and rest periods and failed to compensate them properly for non-compliant meal and rest periods including, inter alia, short, late, interrupted, and missed meal and rest periods.

California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. During the relevant time period, CSE failed to pay Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed above.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, CSE failed to pay Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed above.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, CSE did not provide Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from CSE were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include the total hours worked by Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees, including time spent working off-the-clock and during meal and rest periods as discussed above.

California Labor Code sections 551 and 552 require that every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest in a seven-day workweek, that no employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in a workweek, and that an employer shall pay a civil penalty in the amounts of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. During the relevant time period, Mr. Taplin and the aggrieved employees were required to regularly and/or consistently work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek. During the relevant time period, Mr. Taplin and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of thirty (30) hours in a week and/or six (6) hours in any one (1) day thereof, during workweeks in which they were required to work in excess of six (6) days. During the relevant time period, Mr. Taplin and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek without accumulating or being provided the opportunity to take at least one (1) day of rest, and when Mr. Taplin and the aggrieved employees accumulated days of rest, they were not actually provided the opportunity to take the equivalent of one (1) day's rest in seven (7) during each calendar month.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, CSE failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the actual hours worked daily and the wages earned by Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed above.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, CSE did not provide Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled for work performed "off-the-clock."

California Labor Code section 1198 provides that "The employment of any employee ... under conditions of labor prohibited by the [Industrial Wage Orders] is unlawful." The applicable Industrial Wage Orders, including inter alia, Wage Orders 4-2001, and 9-2001, require that for each workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee's regular rate of pay. Further, if an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting, said employee shall be paid for two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay. During the relevant time period, CSE failed to pay Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees half the usual or scheduled day's work in an amount no less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay for workdays in which Mr. Taplin and the other aggrieved employees reported to work and were furnished less than half the usual or scheduled day's work. During the relevant time period, CSE failed to pay Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees for two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay on days in which Mr. Taplin and the other aggrieved employees were required to report for work a second time in one workday and were furnished less than two (2) hours of work upon the second reporting.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During the relevant time period, Mr. Taplin and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by CSE.

Therefore, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, Mr. Taplin seeks all applicable penalties arising out of the above-referenced wage, hour, and payroll practices, or which could be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, for violation of the California Labor Code pursuant to PAGA, including civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 558.
