MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiff Shawn Taplin (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into between Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the State of California with respect to Aggrieved Employees, and Defendant California Sierra Express, Inc. (“Defendant”), pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2).¹ Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have agreed to resolve the above-captioned action, brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), for a Total Settlement Amount of $125,000.00.²

The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it represents a reasoned compromise of a disputed claim that has been reached through arm’s-length negotiations, in light of the risks, complexity, and expense of further litigation, and the strengths of the PAGA claim. The Settlement meets the requirements for Court approval based upon the relevant fairness factors. The Court is respectfully requested to approve the Settlement, award the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and Individual Release Fee, and to approve the LWDA Payment.

The Settlement Agreement and moving and supporting papers for this motion are being concurrently submitted to the LWDA and Plaintiff now moves for an order granting approval of the Settlement, in conformity with California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2).³

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts regarding this case, please see the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan at paragraphs 8 to 11.

¹ The Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement Agreement”) is attached as “EXHIBIT 1” to the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan.

² Settlement Agreement, § 3(a).

³ The Court is respectfully referred to the concurrently-filed Proof of Service, which confirms submission of the papers to the LWDA.

1 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

2 A. Scope of the Settlement

3 If the Court grants approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff and the State of California with respect to 4 Aggrieved Employees”)⁴ will release the Released Parties⁵ from the Released Claims⁶.

5 B. Funding and Distribution of the Total Settlement Amount

6 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay a Total Settlement Amount of 7 $125,000.00⁷, which is inclusive of the following: (1) Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to be paid to Lawyers
8 for Justice, PC (“Plaintiff’s Counsel”), (2) Individual Release Fee to Plaintiff, (3) Settlement
9 Administration Costs to be paid to the PAGA Settlement Administrator, and (4) Net Settlement Amount
10 to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Aggrieved
11 Employees. The Net Settlement Amount will be the Total Settlement Amount less the Court-approved
12 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and Individual Release Fee; the Net
13 Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be no less than $53,816.86.⁸ The Net Settlement Amount 14 will be distributed as follows: 75% of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $40,362.64 will be 15 distributed to the LWDA (“LWDA Payment”) and 25% of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately 16 $13,454.22) (“Employees’ Portion”) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis,
17 based on their Compensable Pay Periods.⁹

18 Within 30 calendar days of the Court’s order granting approval of the Settlement, Defendant will 19 transmit the Total Settlement Amount to a qualified settlement account established by the PAGA

20
21 ⁴ Settlement Agreement, § 3(a)(5), and Madoyan Decl., ¶13. The “PAGA Period” is defined in relation to an earlier
22 PAGA settlement that defendant had reached in another case, and thus the PAGA Period shall start on either (1) or (2) April 23, 2023 for PAGA Members whose PAGA claims were not released in the Baquiring Action. And the PAGA Period shall end on the earlier of the following two dates: the date the Court signs the Order approving the Settlement, or the Alternate End Date pursuant to the Escalator Clause in the Settlement. Id., § 3(a)(5) and 3(b).

25 ⁵ The definition of the “Released Parties” is set forth in the Settlement Agreement, § 8(a).

26 ⁶ The definition of the “Released Claims” is set forth in the Settlement Agreement, § 8(a).

27 ⁷ Settlement Agreement, § 3(a), Madoyan Decl., ¶ 14.

Settlement Administrator for administration of the Settlement.¹⁰ No later than 30 calendar days after the Court's order granting approval of the Settlement, Defendant will provide the PAGA Settlement Administrator with the Aggrieved Employees List, containing the contact information and other information required to calculate payment for each Aggrieved Employee.¹¹

No later than 14 calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved Employees List and Total Settlement Amount, the PAGA Settlement Administrator will calculate payments and mail the agreed-upon Cover Letter¹² and Individual Settlement Share¹³ checks (together, the "PAGA Settlement Package(s)") to all Aggrieved Employees by first-class United States mail.¹⁴ For each PAGA Settlement Package that is returned as undeliverable within 30 calendar days of the initial mailing, the PAGA Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt to locate an alternate, updated address for the Aggrieved Employee at issue, by using a skip-trace search and shall attempt one (1) re-mailing of the PAGA Settlement Package if an alternate address is located as a result of the skip-trace.¹⁵

The Individual Settlement Share checks issued to Aggrieved Employees will remain valid for 90 calendar days, and thereafter, will be canceled.¹⁶ Funds associated with canceled checks will be transmitted to the State Controller's Office Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Aggrieved Employee(s) at issue and in the amount of his or her respective Individual Settlement Share(s).¹⁷

C. Standards for Approval of PAGA Settlement

The PAGA allows an "aggrieved employee" to bring a civil action on behalf of the State of California to recover civil penalties that normally the LWDA can pursue on behalf of employees against an employer without employees' involvement or approval. Unnamed employees need not be given notice

¹⁰ Id., § 7(a).

¹¹ Id., § 7(c)(1).

¹² The Parties have prepared a simple Cover Letter for transmission to the Aggrieved Employees along with their Individual Settlement Share checks, substantially in the form attached as "EXHIBIT A" to the [Proposed] Order and Judgment and as "EXHIBIT A" to the Settlement Agreement. The Cover Letter informs the Aggrieved Employees about the Action and the Settlement.

¹³ Each Aggrieved Employee's share of the Employees' Portion ("Individual Settlement Share"), will be calculated by the PAGA Settlement Administrator based on their Compensable Pay Periods. Settlement Agreement, § 7(b). The payments to Aggrieved Employees for their Individual Settlement Share are considered 100% penalties to be reported on IRS Form 1099, if required. Id., § 7(b)(1).

of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.¹⁸ Before bringing a civil action under PAGA, an employee must comply with California Labor Code section 2699.3. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a). Plaintiff has complied.

The settlement of a PAGA action requires court approval. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2). However, a PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis and is not a class action but a law enforcement action.¹⁹ A court's review of a PAGA settlement involves consideration of unique factors that render the approval process distinct from, and simpler than the two-step court approval process for a class action settlement. A court reviewing a PAGA settlement need only "ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to those affected." Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 549 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2)). Although California Labor Code section 2699(l) does not set forth the criteria on which a PAGA settlement is to be judged, courts have approved settlements of PAGA claims.²⁰

In a PAGA case, the court's focus is not the monetary amount which aggrieved employees or the State stand to receive, but instead, whether the total settlement amount achieves the PAGA's objectives. The purpose of the PAGA is "to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement agencies." See Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 1340777, at *4 (citing Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 986). Penalties recovered under the PAGA are, in part, to "be distributed to the [LWDA] for enforcement of

IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement resulted from hard-fought negotiations, fulfills the objectives of the PAGA statute, is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets all of the criteria for approval for the reasons discussed below.

A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist

The Parties reached the Settlement after conducting extensive, arm’s-length settlement negotiations and the involvement of a neutral mediator Hon. Bryan F. Foster (Ret.)²¹ A settlement that is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial negotiations between the parties” is entitled to a presumption of fairness. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.

As discussed in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, the Settlement is presumptively fair because: (1) it is the product of adversarial non-collusive, and arm’s-length negotiations with the assistance of an independent mediator knowledgeable in complex labor and employment matters; (2) it was negotiated by counsel with significant experience in similar complex labor and employment matters; and (3) it occurred after counsel for the Parties engaged in significant investigation to evaluate the strength and potential value of the PAGA claim, and risks and expenses of litigating this claim through trial.²²

Based on all of the information available to the Parties, the Parties agree that this matter is well-suited for settlement given the strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim and the facts and circumstances of the case.²³ Plaintiff’s Counsel has extensive experience handling representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to achieve a settlement recovery for Plaintiff, the State of California, and the Aggrieved Employees.²⁴ Therefore, the Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion of counsel and the involvement of a

²² Id., ¶¶ 2-7, 15-28.

²³ Id., ¶ 32.

²⁴ Id., ¶¶ 2-7.

neutral mediator in assuring that the settlement is a product of arm's length bargaining.²⁵

B. The Relative Strengths and Weaknesses of the PAGA Claim and the Range of Possible Outcomes Strongly Favor Approval of the Settlement

For a discussion of the relative strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim and the range of possible outcomes in the litigation, see the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan at paragraphs 20-28.

C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Further Litigation

Courts favor voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276. Generally, unless the settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive litigation with uncertain results. Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526.

Prior to reaching the Settlement, the Parties investigated the veracity, strength, and scope of the PAGA claim and allegations and considered a large volume of information, documents, and data relevant to Plaintiff's claim and Defendant's defenses thereto.²⁶ The Parties thoroughly and sufficiently evaluated the PAGA claim and related allegations, including, and not limited to, calculating the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.²⁷ Plaintiff's Counsel performed other work as well, which is discussed in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan.²⁸

Had the case not settled, the Parties would have conducted extensive additional formal discovery, including propounding additional written discovery requests as well as multiple depositions of party and percipient witnesses all over the State of California, to prepare the case for trial. From the inception of this litigation, Defendant indicated that it would aggressively litigate this case.²⁹ Even if Defendant failed on its defenses, litigating a complex PAGA action is inherently expensive, and the litigation could continue beyond entry of judgment if either party were to appeal adverse rulings.³⁰ Additionally, there is ²⁵ See Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal. 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight); Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-17, 622 (recommendations of plaintiffs' counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed. Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating that the "assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive").

³⁰ Id., ¶¶ 28, 32.

1 a real possibility that Plaintiff could recover nothing, either for himself or on behalf of the State of
2 California or other Aggrieved Employees after years of costly and labor-intensive litigation. Avoiding
3 these risks and the likelihood of future contentious litigation, which would involve significant costs,
4 favors settlement.

5 D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

6 The Settlement provides significant benefits to the State of California and the Aggrieved
7 Employees and falls well-within the range of acceptable settlements under the circumstances. “[T]he 8 very essence of a settlement is compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest 9 hopes.’” Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Comm’n (9th Cir. 1981) 688 F.2d 615, 624. “The proposed 10 settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been 11 achieved by the negotiators.” Id. at 625.

12 The Settlement is a compromise of highly disputed claims. Plaintiff and his counsel recognize 13 the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to pursue the matter through trial and any 14 possible appeals.³¹ Plaintiff and his counsel have also taken into account the uncertainty and risk of the 15 outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation.³² Plaintiff and his 16 counsel are also aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, both generally and in 17 response to Defendant’s defenses thereto, and the difficulties in establishing Defendant’s liability for, and 18 the right to recover, penalties on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and other Aggrieved
19 Employees.³³ Plaintiff and his counsel have also taken into account Defendant’s agreement to enter into a
20 settlement that confers significant relief upon the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.³⁴

21 Considering all of the facts in this case, Plaintiff and his counsel have determined that the 22 Settlement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the PAGA claim, and that it is in the 23 best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.³⁵

24 The result achieved in this case, and the monetary recovery provided by this settlement, are well-
25 within the range of an acceptable settlement under the circumstances, especially when compared to trial

1 court penalties assessments in contested cases and the settlement of PAGA claims in other cases. Here,
2 the value obtained for settlement of the PAGA claim is significant, and it will be distributed in accordance 3 with and in fulfillment of the objectives of the PAGA statute.

4 E. The Experience and Views of Plaintiff’s Counsel Favor Approval of the Settlement

5 Plaintiff’s Counsel is highly experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-
6 hour litigation.³⁶ In the view of Plaintiff’s Counsel, the benefits conferred by the settlement are eminently
7 fair and reasonable, and in the best interests of the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees in 8 light of the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation and the substantial monetary benefits
9 provided for by the Settlement.³⁷ Furthermore, courts have acknowledged that “the interests of plaintiff,
10 counsel and other potentially aggrieved employees are largely aligned. All stand to gain from proving as 11 convincingly as possible as many Labor Code violations as the evidence will sustain[.]” Williams, supra, 12 548 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1)(i)).

13 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES AWARD SHOULD BE APPROVED

14 A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate

15 The Settlement provides for attorneys’ fees in an amount of up to 35% of the Total Settlement
16 Amount, which is estimated to be $43,750.00, subject to approval and award by the Court.³⁸ The 17 requested attorneys’ fees award is commensurate with: (1) the risk that Plaintiff’s Counsel took in 18 bringing and litigating the case, (2) the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, (3) the skill and 19 determination that Plaintiff’s Counsel has shown, (4) the results that Plaintiff’s Counsel has achieved in 20 the case, (5) the value that Plaintiff’s Counsel has achieved in the case, and (6) the other cases that 21 Plaintiff’s Counsel has turned down in order to work on this matter.

22 Plaintiff’s Counsel is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs as a matter of right
23 under PAGA. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1) (“Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action
24 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs”). Plaintiff’s Counsel is also entitled
25 to fees and costs under California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, as the instant PAGA action is 26 by definition “for the benefit” of others and secures monetary recovery for a large number of allegedly aggrieved employees, as well as the State of California.³⁹ The settlement will also provide funds to the state labor agency, to enhance enforcement of labor laws and education of “employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under [the California Labor Code].” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(i).

Courts may calculate and award attorneys’ fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480 at 486 & 506. Trial courts “retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and [may] use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee.” Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App. 4th at 253.

Courts award fees as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue litigation that will enhance and facilitate access to the judicial system for meritorious claims, deter wrongdoing, and address multiple similar alleged wrongs that would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been recovered and “the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified.” In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942. Where the amount of a settlement is a “certain easily calculable sum of money,” California courts may calculate attorneys’ fees as a reasonable percentage of the settlement created. Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, section 14:145; Dunk v. Ford Motor Co.(1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1808.

The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because “it better approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach.” Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys’ fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. See Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-50; Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement provides that the defendant will pay the plaintiff’s attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the settlement, use of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 32. Fee awards that are too small will “chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights and obstruct the representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately adjudicate numerous claims.” Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. “The ultimate goal . . . is the award of a ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation.” Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (quoting Apple Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th, 1253, 1270).

Plaintiff’s Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees in light of the facts and circumstances surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Courts have awarded fees as high as 50% of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of the case.⁴⁰

Plaintiff’s Counsel has performed significant work in this matter, as discussed in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan with the very real possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any kind.⁴¹ In the present case, Plaintiff’s Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁴² Plaintiff’s Counsel is experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a significant settlement recovery for Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.⁴³ Considering the amount of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and experience of Plaintiff’s Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys’ fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

B. The Requested Fee Award is Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards

The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all of which support the fee award requested by Plaintiff’s Counsel, are: the time and labor required; the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; the customary fee; whether the fee is fixed or contingent; the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; the undesirability of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

It should be highlighted that the percentage award sought is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, the contingent nature of Plaintiff's Counsel's representation and the risks taken in commencing the case, the skill and determination required, the results that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Plaintiff's Counsel has obtained on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California. For the reasons discussed herein, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of 35% of the Total Settlement Amount is reasonable.

1. Time & Labor

Plaintiff's Counsel has used its experience and skills in litigating complex wage-and-hour actions to bring this matter to a successful conclusion. Prior to commencing this lawsuit, Plaintiff's Counsel conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendant's business, and its operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁴⁴ During the litigation of the case, Plaintiff's Counsel interviewed and obtained information from Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources, conducted legal research, reviewed and analyzed a large volume of documents and data, prepared for and participated in mediation and robust settlement discussions, evaluated the PAGA claim, and calculated the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.⁴⁵ Plaintiff's Counsel also met and conferred with Defendant's counsel regarding the pleadings, case management, discovery, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other issues.⁴⁶ Plaintiff's Counsel performed other work including, inter alia, case strategy and analysis; and engaging in extensive settlement negotiations.⁴⁷

⁴⁴ Madoyan Decl., ¶¶ 7 & 17.

⁴⁵ Id., ¶ 17.

⁴⁷ Ibid.

Plaintiff's Counsel dedicated the full extent of staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute the case with maximum efficiency and has fully and actively participated in the litigation process. In light of the value of time expended and the carrying of costs involved in this litigation, the requested attorneys' fees award is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly

The skill required to properly litigate this case is evident not only in the results achieved, but in the steps necessary to reach the same. Defendant retained highly-respected counsel to represent its defenses. Plaintiff's Counsel's effort and skill were used to, among other things, investigate the allegations and gather facts, research the legal issues, analyze data, documents, and information obtained from Defendant, Plaintiff, and through other sources, to evaluate the PAGA claim and negotiate the settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, Plaintiff's Counsel used its extensive experience and skill in the handling of complex wage-and-hour matters to advocate for and obtain a recovery now, with maximum efficiency, as opposed to the possibility of recovery in the future, after significant expense and time.⁴⁸

3. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent

Plaintiff's Counsel has provided representation on a contingency basis, has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation, and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁴⁹ If Plaintiff's Counsel had not been successful, the time that they have devoted to litigating the case would have been for naught and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. Plaintiff's Counsel is well-experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a great result in this matter.⁵⁰ The skill and determination that Plaintiff's Counsel has shown throughout the prosecution of the case justifies the requested attorneys' fees and costs. Considering the amounts requested, work performed, and risks incurred, the requested fees and costs are reasonable and should be awarded.

1 4. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved

2 The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this lawsuit, given the uncertainty and risks
3 of further litigation.⁵¹ Had the case not settled, Defendant would have continued to vigorously defend the 4 case, and would have challenged manageability and liability, and also sought a reduction of any potential
5 amount assessed as civil penalties. Defendant, however, faced risks too, including and not limited to, the 6 risk of trial and the risk of having the Court assess civil penalties. Additionally, preparing for trial would 7 have been extraordinarily expensive for the Parties. At this stage, the settlement is preferred over 8 continued litigation because such resolution saves time and money that would otherwise go to litigation.
9 The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained
10 otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery and avoids an uncertain result in the future
11 and additional risk, expense, and delay (e.g., prolonged expert discovery, trial preparation, and appellate 12 review of those proceedings).

13 The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific 14 difficulties faced in this case, are considerable. Plaintiff's Counsel obtained a settlement that provides for 15 a Total Settlement Amount of $125,000.00, and it is currently estimated that the Net Settlement Amount 16 available for distribution to the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, is approximately 17 $53,816.86.⁵²

18 5. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys

19 Plaintiff's Counsel is a recognized class action and complex litigation law firm, and its attorneys
20 employed their knowledge, skill, and experience to bring the case to a successful conclusion. Plaintiff's
21 Counsel has years of wage-and-hour class action and complex litigation experience, has recovered
22 millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled
23 numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and representative action cases.⁵³

26 ⁵² Settlement Agreement, § 3(a). The Settlement Administrator's costs for purposes of calculating the Net
27 Settlement Amount is based on the estimated costs stated in the Declaration of Lisa Mullins, filed concurrently with 28 this Motion.

⁵³ Madoyan Decl., ¶¶ 2-6.

VI. REIMBURSEMENT OF PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL LITIGATION COSTS AND EXPENSES SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $20,000.00. As set forth in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, Plaintiff's Counsel seeks reimbursement of only $8,583.14 in litigation costs and expenses.⁵⁴ These expenses were reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement, and is less than the maximum amount allocated under the Settlement Agreement.⁵⁵ The cost savings of $11,416.86 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount.⁵⁶ Accordingly, the Court is requested to award reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses to Plaintiff's Counsel in the amount of $8,583.14.

VII. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS SHOULD BE APPROVED

As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Parties have agreed to retain, subject to approval by the Court, ILYM Group, Inc. to handle the administration of the Settlement. The fees and expenses of the PAGA Settlement Administrator are estimated not to exceed $7,000.00. These costs include, but are not limited to, expenses for preparing, printing, and mailing the Cover Letter and Individual Settlement Shares checks to the Aggrieved Employees (i.e., PAGA Settlement Packages); performing skip-trace searches; re-mailing the returned PAGA Settlement Packages; and handling inquiries from Aggrieved Employees regarding the Settlement, among other things. Based on the Declaration of Lisa Mullins, the actual estimated costs of Settlement Administration are $3,850, however out of an abundance of caution, the Parties in the Settlement Agreement agreed to allocate up to $7,000. Accordingly, the Court should grant approval of the Settlement Administration Costs in the amount of up to $7,000.00 to ILYM Group, Inc., a necessary third-party for handling the settlement process.

VIII. THE INDIVIDUAL RELEASE FEE SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for an Individual Release Fee to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount of $15,000.00 for his broader individual waiver and release of claims with a California Civil Code Section 1542 waiver (set forth in Section 8(b) of the Settlement Agreement).⁵⁷ It is reasonable and just for Plaintiff to receive this payment. Plaintiff contributed considerable time and effort to the litigation of this case in order to enforce the California Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and for the benefit of other Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff discussed his employment with his counsel, gathered and produced relevant documents and information, and provided the facts and evidence necessary to attempt to prove the allegations.⁵⁸ Plaintiff was available whenever his counsel needed him and tried to obtain and provide documents and information that would aid in the litigation of the PAGA claim and pursuit of recovery on behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved Employees.⁵⁹ And perhaps most importantly, unlike every other PAGA Member in this case, Defendant required that Plaintiff provide a broad general release of all claims (with a Section 1542 waiver) in order to settle this action. Thus, the Settlement would not have occurred without Plaintiff's general release and the Release Fee provides the consideration for that general release.

IX. CONCLUSION

For the reasons discussed above and in the accompanying declarations, the Court is respectfully requested to approve the Settlement, including the plan of allocation and distribution of the Total Settlement Amount.
