6. I strongly believe that the work HRW does in California, in the United States, and in the world, qualifies HRW to be a worthy cy pres non-profit institution eligible for the proceeds from the above-referenced case.

7. It is my understanding that California courts have acknowledged cy pres distributions to charitable organizations pursuant to CCP § 384 in its approval of class action settlement agreements. See In re Microsoft I-V Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 730 (2006) (court of appeals held that the trial court properly exercised discretion when it approved a cy pres distribution that was fair, reasonable, and “as near as possible” to accomplish the overarching purposes of the litigation); Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 384 (b) (“After the report is received, the court shall amend the judgment to direct the defendant to pay the sum of the unpaid residue or unclaimed or abandoned class member funds, plus any interest that has accrued thereon, to nonprofit organizations or foundations to support projects that will benefit the class or similarly situated persons, or that promote the law consistent with the objectives and purposes of the underlying cause of action, to child advocacy programs, or to nonprofit organizations providing civil legal services to the indigent.”) (emphasis added).

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 22th day of June, 2026 at Los Angeles, California.
