Attorneys for Plaintiff

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

OLGA LIDIA MARTINEZ, on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiff,

v.

SUBURBAN MOTORS, INC., a corporation,
and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 24CV012776

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiff OLGA LIDIA MARTINEZ (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have 2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 3 further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants SUBURBAN MOTORS, INC. and 6 DOES 1 through 10 (SUBURBAN MOTORS, INC. and DOES 1 through 10 are collectively 7 referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, 8 California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for 9 all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, 10 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure 11 to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, 12 failure to furnish accurate wage statements, and failure to reimburse business expenses.

13 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and legislature have recognized that this 14 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
15 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his or 16 her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws so that 17 employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has required for 18 employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the Legislature has 19 criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter violations of these 20 underlying statutes—since Plaintiff is not seeking general and/or special damages, restitution or 21 other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted the PAGA to permit an individual 22 to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise and sole nature of this action.

23 3. All California employees during the relevant statutes of limitations who are or were 24 harmed by Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved Employees 25 worked for Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the applicable statutory 26 period.

27 4. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties on 28 behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State of 1 California. Plaintiff does not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by 2 California Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that statutory violations are 3 mentioned for wage violations, Plaintiff does not seek underlying general and/or special damages

4 for those violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699, 5 declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for herself and all Aggrieved Employees as permitted by 6 the PAGA.

7 5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 8 establishment within the State of California, including Sacramento County. As such, and based 9 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are 10 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission 11 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

12 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 13 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 14 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 15 willful and deliberate.

16 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 17 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 18 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, 19 Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under 20 the doctrine of "respondeat superior".

21 THE PARTIES

22 A. Plaintiff

23 8. Plaintiff OLGA LIDIA MARTINEZ is a California resident who worked for 24 Defendants in Sacramento County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from 25 approximately August 2023 to approximately November 2023. Plaintiff was hired as a receptionist 26 and paid an hourly rate of $20.

27 B. Defendants

28 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief

1 alleges, that Defendant SUBURBAN MOTORS, INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

- 2 (a) A business entity to do business and actually conducting business in 3 numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in 4 Sacramento County; and,
- 5 (b) The former employers of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer
6 of the Aggrieved Employees because Defendant SUBURBAN MOTORS, 7 INC. suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work, 8 and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

9 10. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued 10 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each 11 of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 12 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to 13 set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, 14 together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

15 11. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 16 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or 17 injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of 18 California.

19 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each 20 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the 21 other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff 22 is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the 23 principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, 24 affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of 25 the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise
26 for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable 27 for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 28 thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships

1 alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, 2 adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

3 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

4 13. Plaintiff OLGA LIDIA MARTINEZ worked for Defendants in Sacramento County, 5 California from approximately August 2023 to approximately November 2023. At all times, 6 Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified her as non-exempt from overtime.

7 14. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 8 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was 9 typical and illustrative.

10 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, 11 and Overtime Wages

12 15. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
13 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, 14 and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to 15 do so.

16 16. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 17 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 18 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

19 17. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not 20 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation 21 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states 22 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

23 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of not 24 paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight 25 time, and overtime wages. Defendant required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work 26 "off-the-clock" but failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the work they 27 performed to benefit Defendant, for example, Plaintiff would often receive and respond to work-28 related messages after her regular shift but was never compensated for the time she communicated

1 with her supervisors and/or co-workers. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the 2 overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendant also failed to maintain accurate 3 records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

4 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

5 19. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 6 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal period by the end of 7 their fifth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-
8 free meal period by the end of their tenth hour of work. Further, employees are entitled to be paid 9 one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with a required meal 10 period(s).

11 20. Despite these legal requirements, Defendant wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff
12 and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free 13 meal period. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees routinely worked through meal periods “off-14 the-clock,” and Defendant frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than all their 15 work time. Much of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay 16 for all hours worked, Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and 17 the Aggrieved Employees worked. Defendant also regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff and 18 the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 19 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 20 compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by 21 the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendant continued to assert 22 control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them 23 to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory
24 meal periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal
25 period. Accordingly, Defendant’s policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiff 26 and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

27 21. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 28 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s).

Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

22. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendant has wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendant authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendant continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

24. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

25. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

1 D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

2 26. Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as 3 discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

4 27. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times
5 per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, 6 employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period 7 premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours 8 worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the 9 employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not 10 paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not 11 authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, 12 Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 13 Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

14 E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

15 28. Plaintiff seeks penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to 16 California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully
17 fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject 18 to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall 19 keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods 20 and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded

21 29. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all 22 meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

23 30. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California 24 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to 25 know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of 26 their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 27 Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an 28 unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved

1 Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment 2 of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel 3 Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts 4 according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the 5 California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 6 have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and 7 disputing the wage payments paid to them.

8 F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

9 31. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 10 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 11 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 12 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-13 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled 14 to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

15 32. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 16 other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the 17 employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants 18 failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without 19 abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of 20 discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These 21 unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime 22 wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

23 33. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 24 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 25 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and 26 at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for 27 more than thirty (30) days.

34. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

35. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Labor Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

36. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

37. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

38. Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved

1 Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff 2 and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 3 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate 4 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee.

5 H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

6 39. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her employees 7 for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct 8 discharge of his or her duties.

9 40. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, 10 Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they 11 incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendant. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 12 regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without 13 limitation, for the costs of personal cell phones that the employees use for work-related 14 communication. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct 15 result of performing their job duties for Defendant, but Defendant failed to indemnify Plaintiff and 16 the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

17 41. As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the 18 civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to indemnify Plaintiff 19 and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenditures.

20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys 22 General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

23 42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges all preceding paragraphs as though 24 fully set forth herein.

25 43. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 26 State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

27 44. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 28 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law,

1 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
2 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 3 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 4 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 5 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

6 45. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 7 Code § 2699.3. On April 19, 2024, she gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and 8 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 9 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and former 10 Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid 11 the filing fee on April 19, 2024. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-1023355-24 (OLGA 12 LIDIA MARTINEZ v. SUBURBAN MOTORS, INC.).

13 46. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts her administrative 14 remedies with California’s LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code 15 § 2699.3(d).)

16 47. The statute of limitations is also tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020 17 pursuant to Rule 9(a) of the Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19.

18 48. More than sixty-five (65) days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the 19 LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed 20 in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor 21 Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint.
22 These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 23 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

24 49. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award 25 of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of 26 Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 27 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

28 50. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs pursuant

1 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, “Any employee who prevails in any action shall be 2 entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”

3 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

4 Plaintiff, on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees, prays for relief and judgment
5 against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

6 1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California
7 Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), 8 failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned 9 wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, 10 failing to timely pay final wages, and failing to furnish accurate wage statements;

11 2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant 12 to PAGA;

13 3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

14 4. Attorneys’ fees and costs reasonably incurred;

15 5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and, 16 6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.
