MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Isabelita Samson (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into between Plaintiff and Defendant Sierra Circuits, Inc. dba Sierra Proto Express (“Defendant”) (together, with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). (Declaration of Alexandra Rose in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Rose Decl.”], Exh. 3). The Settlement terms are outlined as follows:

- Class Size: Approximately Three Hundred Fourteen (314) individuals.
- Gross Settlement Amount: One Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($1,750,000.00).
- Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: Attorneys’ fees of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount ($612,500.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $1,750,000.00) plus actual litigation costs and expenses not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($30,000.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
- Enhancement Payment: Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($7,500.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
- Settlement Administration Costs: Not to exceed Six Thousand Eight Hundred Fifty Dollars and No Cents ($6,850.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
- PAGA Amount: Forty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($40,000.00) from the Gross Settlement Amount, 75% of which will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and the remaining 25% to be paid to the PAGA Employees.
- Estimated Net Settlement Amount: One Million Fifty-Three Thousand One Hundred Fifty Dollars and No Cents ($1,053,150.00) to be distributed to Settlement Class Members.

As set forth herein, the Settlement is the product of informed discovery and arms-length negotiations, and provides a fair, adequate, and reasonable recovery for the Class. Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminarily approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class, approve the proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”), and set a hearing date for final settlement approval, among other requested relief.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Defendant is a fabricator of Printed Circuit Boards, which are used in electronic devices in industries such as healthcare, industrial manufacturing, and consumer goods. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Inspector from approximately June 2021 through approximately March 2024. (Declaration of Plaintiff Isabelita Samson in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Samson Decl.”], ¶ 2).

On April 17, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant (“PAGA Letter”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 10 and Exh. 2).

On April 18, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the action entitled Isabelita Samson v. Sierra Circuits, Inc. dba Sierra Proto Express, Santa Clara County Superior Court Case No. 24CV436002 (“Action”), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 11).

On June 24, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Enforcement Action Under the Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698 Et Seq. in the action entitled Isabelita Samson v. Sierra Circuits, Inc. dba Sierra Proto Express, Santa Clara County Superior Court Case No. 24CV441685 (“PAGA Action”), which alleged one cause of action under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 12).

On October 22, 2025, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Tagore Subramaniam (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex wage and hour matters, and with the assistance of the Mediator’s evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and representative basis. (Id., ¶ 13). The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the terms in a long form settlement agreement. (Ibid.).

On December 16, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Operative Complaint”) in the Action, which added the PAGA claims alleged in the PAGA Action. (Id., ¶ 14). The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant rest

1 periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure 2 to provide compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and failure to 3 reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code Section 4 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil penalties 5 under PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations.. (Ibid).

6 On March 19, 2026, pursuant to the request of Plaintiff, the PAGA Action was dismissed without 7 prejudice. (Id., ¶ 15).

8 On May 20, 2026, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 16 and Exh. 3).

9 III. THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

10 A. Class Definition

11 For purposes of settlement only, the Parties have agreed that the Class shall be defined as “all 12 current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of 13 California at any time during the Class Period, but excluding all employees who signed agreements to 14 arbitrate the claims asserted in this action on an individual basis” (“Class” or Class Member(s)). (Rose 15 Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.b). The Class Period is defined as the period from April 30, 16 2022, through January 22, 2026. (Rose Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.f). Based on information
17 provided by Defendant, it is estimated that there are a total of Three Hundred Fourteen (314) Class
18 Members. (Rose Decl., ¶ 17).

19 B. Amount of Settlement

20 The Parties have agreed to settle the class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative Complaint
21 for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of One Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars 22 and No Cents ($1,750,000.00), exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement 23 Agreement, ¶ 10.p).

24 C. Allocation and Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount

25 The Gross Settlement Amount is a common fund and therefore includes all requested costs, fees, 26 and other allocations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.p). The Gross Settlement Amount 27 includes: (1) Class Counsel’s fees in the amount of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement 28 Amount (i.e., $612,500.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $1,750,000.00)); (2) Class Counsel’s actual

1 litigation costs and expenses, not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($30,000.00); (3)
2 Settlement Administration Costs, not to exceed Six Thousand Eight Hundred Fifty Dollars and No Cents
3 ($6,850.00); (4) Enhancement Payment in the amount of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and No
4 Cents ($7,500.00); and (5) PAGA Amount in the amount of Forty Thousand Dollars and No Cents
5 ($40,000.00). (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.p, 13, 14, 15, and 16). After the above-6 estimated amounts are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net Settlement Amount that will 7 be available for Class Members is currently estimated to be One Million Fifty-Three Thousand One 8 Hundred Fifty Dollars and No Cents ($1,053,150.00). (Rose Decl., ¶ 18). Additionally, 25% of the 9 PAGA Amount (“PAGA Employee Amount”), which is $10,000.00 out of $40,000.00, will be fully 10 distributed to “all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for 11 Defendant in the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period” (“PAGA Employee(s)”). (Rose 12 Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.y, 10.z, and 15). The “PAGA Period” is defined as the period 13 from April 17, 2023, through January 22, 2026. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.aa).

14 The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed and paid to all Class Members who do not submit 15 a timely and valid Request for Exclusion (“Settlement Class Member(s)”) on a pro rata basis based on 16 the number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt
17 employee in California during the Class Period (“Workweeks”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement 18 Agreement, ¶¶ 10.mm and 10.nn). The pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that a Class Member 19 may be eligible to receive under the Class Settlement (“Individual Settlement Share”) will be calculated 20 by the Settlement Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Rose Decl., ¶ 19; 21 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.t and 18).

22 The PAGA Employee Amount will be distributed and paid to all PAGA Employees on a pro rata
23 basis based on the number of pay periods each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid 24 and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period (“Pay Periods”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 20; 25 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.aa). The pro rata share of the PAGA Employee Amount that a PAGA 26 Employee may be eligible to receive under the PAGA Settlement (“Individual PAGA Payment”) will be 27 calculated by the Settlement Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Rose Decl., 28 ¶ 20; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.r and 19).

Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as follows: twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 20). The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated to penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 20). The Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their net payment of their Individual Settlement Share ("Individual Settlement Payment"). (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.s and 20). The employer's share of taxes and contributions in connection with the wages portion of Individual Settlement Share will be paid separately and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.q and 20). Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 20).

The Settlement Agreement is a non-reversionary and non-claims made settlement. (Rose Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.q and 38). The Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed to Settlement Class Members and the PAGA Amount will be fully distributed to the LWDA and PAGA Employees, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Rose Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 10.v and 10.x). No money will revert to Defendant. (Rose Decl., ¶ 22).

Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and thereafter, shall be canceled. (Rose Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 38). Any funds associated with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to Legal Aid at Work (the proposed cy pres recipient) in accordance with California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384. (Rose Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 38). The Parties and their counsel each represent that they do not have any financial interest in, or otherwise have a relationship with, the proposed cy pres recipient that could create a conflict of interest. (Rose Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 38).

1 D. Released Claims

2 Upon the entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment, Plaintiff and all Settlement Class
3 Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, 4 and discharged the Released Parties of all Released Class Claims. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 39).

5 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State of 6 California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have fully, 7 finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of 8 all Released PAGA Claims. (Id., ¶ 40).

9 “Released Class Claims” means any and all claims which were alleged or which could have been 10 reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, arising during the Class 11 Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and 12 minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay 13 wages during employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage statements, and reimburse 14 necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 15 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, the applicable Industrial 16 Welfare Commission Wage Order, and California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.
17 (Id., ¶ 10.ff).

18 “Released PAGA Claims” means any and all claims arising from any of the factual allegations in 19 the PAGA Letter and the Operative Complaint, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under 20 the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., which shall 21 specifically include claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide 22 compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay wages during employment 23 and upon termination, provide compliant wage statements, maintain complete and accurate payroll
24 records, and reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code 25 Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 26 and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order. (Id., ¶ 10.gg).

27 ///

28 ///

1 “Released Parties” means Defendant and its current and former agents, owners, officers, 2 employees who are not Class Members, directors, members, insurers, shareholders, subsidiaries, 3 affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns and any other person or entity who could be deemed to 4 be a joint employer. (Id., ¶ 10.hh).

5 IV. STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

6 The settlement of a class action requires court approval. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.
7 App. 4th 1794 (1996)). “In general, questions whether a settlement was fair and reasonable, whether 8 notice to the class was adequate, whether certification of the class was proper, and whether the attorney 9 fee award was proper are matters addressed to the trial court’s broad discretion.” (Wershba v. Apple 10 Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-35 (2001) (disapproved on other grounds)).

11 The review and approval of a proposed class action settlement involves a two-step process. (See 12 Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(c)). First, counsel submit the proposed terms of the settlement and the 13 Court makes a preliminary assessment of whether the settlement appears to be sufficiently within the 14 range of a fair settlement to justify providing notice of the proposed settlement to class members. After 15 notice is provided to the class, the Court must conduct a second inquiry into whether the proposed 16 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Ibid).

17 The initial evaluation of the settlement at the preliminary approval step “is not a fairness hearing.”
18 (Armstrong v. Board of School Directors of City of Milwaukee, 616 F.2d 305, 314 (7th Cir. 1980)).
19 Rather, the limited purpose of this initial inquiry is to determine, at a threshold level, only whether the 20 proposed settlement is within the range of possible approval and, as a result, “whether there is any reason 21 to notify the class members of the proposed settlement and to proceed with a fairness hearing.” A 22 presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) 23 investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel 24 is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (See In re Microsoft I-V 25 Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 723 (2006)).

26 Preliminary approval does not require a court to make a final determination that the settlement is 27 fair, reasonable, and adequate. Rather, that decision is made only at the final approval stage, after notice 28 of the settlement has been given to the class members and they have had an opportunity to object or

1 exclude themselves from the settlement. (See Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(g)). In considering a 2 potential class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law 3 which underlie the merits of the dispute and need not engage in a trial on the merits. (See Officers for 4 Justice v. Civil Service Commission, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982)).

5 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS PRESUMED FAIR

6 A. The Settlement Was Reached as a Result of Arm's-Length Bargaining

7 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 8 reached through arm's-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.
9 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties' settlement negotiations 10 were at all times made at arm's-length and were adversarial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 24). The Settlement was 11 reached following a full day of mediation with a highly respected mediator with substantial experience 12 mediating wage and hour cases. (Ibid).

13 B. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery by Experienced Class Counsel

14 Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement 15 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 16 Defendant produced all of the putative class members' time and pay data as well as Defendant's relevant 17 wage and hour policies, and information regarding the total number of putative class members, the 18 number of current versus former employees, and the total workweeks worked by the putative class
19 members. (Rose Decl., ¶ 25).

20 This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and analysis of the strengths and 21 weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Id., ¶ 26). Based on information 22 exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class certification and liability and provided 23 their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate the strengths and weakness of their respective 24 positions. (Id., ¶ 27). At all times, Plaintiff was willing and prepared to litigate this matter through class 25 certification and trial if the Parties had been unable to reach a favorable resolution. (Ibid). Additionally, 26 settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. (Id., ¶¶ 1-9).
27 Accordingly, Class Counsel had sufficient information and experience to act intelligently in negotiating 28 the Settlement.

1 C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ Respective Legal Positions
2 and Recovery Risks

3 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 4 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
5 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 6 must consider “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 7 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the 8 extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the 9 presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.”
10 (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

11 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal and 12 factual grounds for defending the Action. Based upon Class Counsel’s experience litigating similar 13 complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class certification 14 and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

15 1. Class Counsel’s Analysis of the Maximum Available Liability and Damages

16 Class Counsel analyzed all available data and estimated Defendant’s maximum potential exposure 17 to be approximately $10,465,153, assuming the litigation was successful at trial on all claims at issue and 18 every employee had a violation for each claim on every shift worked. (Rose Decl., ¶ 28). This maximum 19 potential analysis was then reduced based on the challenges facing the likelihood of obtaining class 20 certification, prevailing at trial, and other attendant risks. (Ibid). This estimate is based off an estimated 21 maximum liability for all claims at issue and the total aggregate workweeks during the relevant time 22 period, less interest, and based on the analysis of the data which was extrapolated out for all class 23 members across the entire putative class period, which included: $1,840,922 for meal period violations; 24 $5,235,293 for rest period violations at a 100% violation rate; $1,079,416 for unpaid off-the-clock work 25 for 1 hour per workweek of off-the-clock work; $146,418 in unpaid wages due to rounding; $14,200 for 26 unpaid overtime wages at the required regular rate of pay; $319,350 for unreimbursed business expenses; 27 $697,554 for waiting time penalties; and $1,132,000 for wage statement penalties. Plaintiff further 28 estimated that Defendant faced an additional exposure of $2,079,800 in potential, non-stacked (i.e., one penalty, per employee, per pay period during the PAGA statutory period) PAGA penalties. Together with the PAGA penalties, Defendant's maximum potential exposure totaled $12,544,953 in damages. (Ibid).

2. Class Counsel's Risk-Based Analysis and Risk-Based Adjustments

While Plaintiff believes that Defendant faced significant exposure, substantial barriers to a recovery existed. Defendant contended that Plaintiff's claims are not suitable for class certification because individual issues and affirmative defenses would predominate should this case go to trial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 31; See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004 (2012); Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat. Assn., 59 Cal.4th 1, 35-36 (2014); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 131 S.Ct. 2541, 2551 (2011)). While Plaintiff and Class Counsel disagree with Defendant's predictions, they also recognize that there is a significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Rose Decl., ¶ 31; see also, Findings of the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf> (finding that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion)).

For example, Plaintiff's meal period claims, which were based on Defendant's alleged failure to provide lawful meal periods, have been increasingly difficult to certify in recent years. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32; See Brinker, 53 Cal. 4th at 1034-35). Plaintiff's theory of liability for meal period violations was based on allegations that Defendant had failed to implement its policies and that its practices failed to allow Class Members to take meal breaks in the manner required under California law. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32; See Bradley v. Networkers Int'l, LLC, 211 Cal.App.4th 1129, 1150 (2012) (holding that "the lack of a meal/rest break policy and the uniform failure to authorize such breaks are matters of common proof.")). Defendant contended that its policies and practices at all times during the Class Period were lawful. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32). Indeed, Plaintiff's analysis revealed only a 36.9% violation rate for purported unique meal period violations. (Ibid). Defendant further argued that the rate of purported meal period violations reflected in the data would require individualized inquiry and that such inquiry would prohibit a class from being certified. (Ibid). Class Counsel also had to consider the risk that the Court would find validity in an individualized proof defense to certification of Plaintiff's meal period claim. (Ibid).

1 Additionally, a large portion of Defendant's overall liability lies in Plaintiff's rest period
2 allegations. (Id., ¶ 33). As with the meal period allegations, Defendant contended that it had a lawful 3 written rest period policy, provided compliant rest breaks, and relieved Class Members of all duties as 4 required under California law. (Ibid). Additionally, this claim was even more uncertain given the 5 difficulties associated with proving the alleged rest period violations, as Defendant was not required to 6 record these breaks. (Ibid). Given the lack of records demonstrating rest period violations, there were 7 legitimate concerns Plaintiff would not be able to certify these claims or prove substantial damages with 8 requisite certainty, which made the estimated value of this claim subject to much challenge. (Ibid).

9 Plaintiff also faced challenges certifying and proving liability for her minimum wage and 10 overtime claims. (Id., ¶ 34). These claims were largely based on Defendant's rounding and unrecorded, 11 off-the-clock work performed by the Class Members. (Ibid). Plaintiff argued that Defendant rounded its 12 employees' time in a manner which was entirely in favor of Defendant and to the detriment of the 13 employees. (Ibid). However, Defendant denied that any rounding occurred and contended that it 14 provided a grace period for employees to clock in and out, which would account for any alleged rounding.
15 (Ibid). Plaintiff's off-the-clock claims rested on unrecorded, off-the-clock work performed by the Class 16 Members after their shifts and during purported meal periods. (Ibid). For example, it was reported that 17 Plaintiff and Class Members were often required to stay for 10-15 minutes after clocking out to complete 18 their work. (Ibid). However, the individualized nature of why this work was performed and the 19 individualized nature of damages presented substantial concerns regarding the manageability of the case 20 and the risk the Court could find these issues prevented certification, and the estimated damages for this 21 claim were based on an assumption that all Class Members worked off the clock for at least one hour per 22 week. (Ibid).

23 Plaintiff also contended that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members 24 for necessary business-related expenses, such as the usage of personal cell phones for work-related 25 purposes. (Id., ¶ 35). Defendant contended that it had a policy and practice of reimbursing employees 26 for necessary business-related expenses. (Ibid). Defendant further contended that, with respect to the 27 alleged expenses for which Plaintiff and the other Class Members never requested reimbursement from 28 Defendant, it did not know and had no reason to know that alleged business-related expenses had been

1 incurred. (Ibid). Defendant further contended that the reason for why a Class Member undertook certain 2 expenses, while not others, and failed to receive reimbursement for certain expenses while not others, 3 would raise individual issues that could not be certified. (Ibid).

4 There are also substantial risks associated with Plaintiff's waiting time penalties and wage 5 statement claims. (Id., ¶ 36). First, these claims were derivative of Plaintiff's claims for unpaid meal 6 period premiums, unpaid rest period premiums, unpaid minimum wages, and unpaid overtime wages, 7 and if certification was denied on those underlying claims, these derivative claims for penalties would 8 also likely fail. (Ibid). Further, even if Plaintiff prevailed on her underlying claims, she would still be 9 required to demonstrate that Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 203 were willful
10 violations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 36; See, e.g., Choate v. Celite Corp., 215 Cal App. 4th 1460, 1468 (2013) 11 (holding that "an employer's reasonable, good faith belief that wages are not owed may negate a finding 12 of willfulness")). Wage statement claims have also seen varying treatment at the appellate level because 13 such claims have an element of discretion attached to them rather than a pure calculation of damages after 14 liability is proven. (Rose Decl. ¶ 36; Jaimez v. DAIOHS USA, Inc., 181 Cal.App.4th 1286 (2010) with 15 Price v. Starbucks Corp., 192 Cal.App.4th 1136 (2011)). Accordingly, these derivative claims, which 16 comprised a substantial portion of Defendant's estimated liability, were therefore uncertain. (Rose Decl., 17 ¶ 36).

18 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 19 amount of wages due to Class Members would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain 20 proposition. (Id., ¶ 37). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel will need to request and 21 analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members' contact information, contact them, 22 and obtain their declarations at great expense. (Ibid). Obtaining the cooperation of current employees 23 would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit against a current 24 employer. (Ibid). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the cooperation of its 25 employees. (Ibid). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and trial, possible appeals 26 would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid).

27 ///

28 ///

1 Class Counsel also contemplated the risks of proceeding with the PAGA claims and potential 2 liability Defendant could face from these claims as part of the global resolution. (Id., ¶ 38). Existing 3 case law makes PAGA claims subject to the same defenses and risks as Plaintiff's underlying wage 4 claims. (Rose Decl., ¶ 38; see, Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC, 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-82 (C.D.
5 Cal. 2008) ("Plaintiff's claim under [PAGA] is wholly dependent upon her other claims. Because all of 6 Plaintiff's other claims fail as a matter of law, so does her PAGA claim")). Class Counsel also anticipated 7 that even if successful on the merits at trial, the imposition of cumulative civil penalties based on the 8 alleged wage and hour violations could be considered unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory, 9 and that Defendant would argue that it made a good faith attempt to comply with its legal obligations 10 warranting a reduction in penalties. (Rose Decl., ¶ 38).¹ Class Counsel also anticipated Defendant would 11 argue that the violations per pay period were low, warranting an additional reduction in civil penalties.
12 (Ibid.). Finally, Class Counsel was also mindful of the fact that PAGA is fundamentally not intended to 13 be compensatory in nature but is instead intended to facilitate enforcement of California's labor laws by 14 financing state activities and educating and deterring non-compliance. (Ibid.).

15 Accordingly, after considering this multitude of factors, Plaintiff and Class Counsel concluded 16 that it was in the best interest of the State of California and the PAGA Employees to enter into the 17 Settlement, and to allocate Forty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($40,000.00) of the Gross Settlement
18 Amount towards the PAGA claims, which represents approximately 2.29% of the Gross Settlement 19 Amount. (Id., ¶ 39). This percentage of the settlement is well within the range of wage and hour 20 settlements regularly approved in both state and federal court for cases that include both a class and 21 PAGA action. (Ibid.). Typically, such hybrid cases allocate only 1% of the gross settlement value to 22 resolve PAGA claims, and, indeed, settlements allocations as little as 0.22% of the gross settlement 23

24 ¹ See, e.g., Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc., 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1131 (2012) (imposition of both statutory 25 and civil penalties for same conduct is impermissible double recovery) (disapproved on other grounds); Aguirre v. Genesis 26 Logistics, 2013 WL 10936035, at *3 (C.D. Cal. 2013) ("duplicative effect" of penalties is a factor in favor of "reducing ...the 27 PAGA penalty"); Smith v. Lux Retail North America, Inc., 2013 WL 2932243, at *3 (N.D. Cal. June 13, 2013) (declining to 28 stack penalties based on the same conduct); Castillo v. ADT, LLC, 2017 WL 363108, at *4 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 25, 2017); Sanchez
v. McDonalds Restaurants of California, Inc., 2017 WL 4620746 (LA Super. Ct. July 6, 2017) (declining to stack penalties arising out of the same conduct); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., 2011 WL 756304718, at *4 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) (reducing PAGA penalties by 80%); Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F.Supp.3d 1030 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (indicating that a substantial reduction is warranted where good faith dispute exists in legal obligations); Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (2018) (approving reduction in penalties from $50 per pay period to $5 per pay period based on good faith attempts to comply with obligations and minimal violations).

1 amount have been approved as reasonable by courts. (Ibid). Moreover, the overall relief obtained by the 2 Settlement is significant, not only from a monetary perspective, but also because it fulfills the public 3 policy objectives of PAGA—to promote enforcement of California’s labor laws, provide funds to the 4 state, and deter future non-compliance by the employer. (Ibid).

5 Therefore, taking into account how each of the above risks potentially effected Plaintiff’s ability
6 to first obtain class certification, and then prove the underlying violations, the Court’s broad discretion
7 in civil penalties, plus the cost and delay in recovering the alleged potential damages, Class Counsel
8 discounted Defendant’s estimated liability based on the challenges facing her ability to succeed on class
9 certification by 65% to $4,390,734. (Id., ¶ 40). The merits-based risk factors further reduced Defendant’s 10 estimated liability by an additional 60%. (Ibid). This resulted in an adjusted estimated liability of 11 $1,756,294. (Ibid). In light thereof, the settlement amount of $1,750,000 is a significant settlement.
12 (Ibid).

13 Class Counsel therefore submits that the Settlement is in the best interest of the Class Members, 14 the PAGA Employees, and the State of California and is within the accepted range of recoveries for this 15 type of litigation given the inherent risk of litigation, the risk of obtaining and maintaining class 16 certification, and the costs of further litigation. (Id., ¶ 41).

17 VI. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

18 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 provides that three basic requirements must be met in order 19 to sustain any class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class; (2) there must be a well-defined 20 community of interest in the question of law or fact affecting the parties to be represented; and (3) 21 certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., proceeding as a class action 22 is superior to other methods. (See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Plaintiff contends that the Action, 23 which is based upon Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices, satisfies the class certification
24 requirements under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Defendant denies Plaintiff’s 25 allegations, but for purposes of the Settlement only, Defendant has stipulated to certification of the Class.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 A. An Ascertainable Class Exists Which is So Numerous That Joinder of All Members is 2 Impracticable

3 Whether an ascertainable class exists turns on three factors: (1) the class definition, (2) the size of 4 the class, and (3) the means of identifying the class members. (See Miller v. Woods, 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 5 873 (1983)). In this case, all three considerations strongly favor class certification. Here, the Class is 6 defined as “all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant
7 in the State of California at any time during the Class Period, but excluding all employees who signed 8 agreements to arbitrate the claims asserted in this action on an individual basis.” (Rose Decl., ¶ 17; 9 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.b). This provides a clear and definite scope for the proposed class.

10 Next, the Class is sufficiently numerous. There is no magic number that satisfies the numerosity 11 requirement. Courts have certified classes with as few as ten or twenty-eight class members. (Rose v.
12 City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981); Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal. 2d 574 (1995); 13 Hebbard v. Colgrove, 28 Cal.App.3d 1017, 1030 (1972)). Here, the estimated Class size of Three 14 Hundred Fourteen (314) individuals meets the numerosity requirement.

15 Finally, the question of whether class members are easily identifiable turns on whether a plaintiff 16 can establish “the existence of an ascertainable class.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co., 67 Cal.2d 695 at 706 17 (1967)). The existence of an ascertainable class in this case can be established through Defendant’s 18 payroll records, and the Class definition is sufficiently specific to enable the Parties, Class Members, and 19 the Court to determine the parameters of the Class. (See Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp., 191 20 Cal.App.3d 605, 617 (1987)).

21 B. The Class Shares a Well-Defined Community of Interest

22 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant questions of law 23 and fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives
24 who can adequately represent the class. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Here, all three requirements 25 are easily satisfied.

26 The commonality criterion requires the existence of common question of law or fact and is 27 generally established with the issues of predominance and typicality. (See Daar, 67 Cal.2d 695, 706).
28 What is required is that a common question of fact or law exists which predominates over issues unique

1 to individual plaintiffs. The existence of individual issues or facts—generally present in any case arising 2 from employment—is not a bar to class certification as long as they do not render class litigation 3 unmanageable or predominate over the common issues. (See B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v. Owens-Illinois, 4 Inc., 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1354 (1987)).

5 Here, Plaintiff’s claims present common issues of law and fact that predominate and warrant class 6 certification. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant denied compliant meal and rest periods to employees, 7 required employees to perform work off-the-clock, and failed to fully compensate employees for all time 8 actually worked. These policies and practices meant that Defendant allegedly failed to pay minimum and 9 overtime wages, and other related claims. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s policies and practices were 10 uniform as to all Class Members. Thus, class treatment is appropriate.

11 To satisfy the typicality requirement, California law does not require that plaintiffs’ claims be 12 identical to the other class members. Rather, the test of typicality for a class representative is whether 13 other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on conduct which is not 14 unique to the named plaintiff, and whether other class members have been injured by the same course of 15 conduct. (See Seastrom v. Neways, Inc., 149 Cal.App.4th 1496, 1502 (2007)). The typicality requirement 16 for a class representative refers to the nature of the claim or defense of the representative, and not to the 17 specific facts from which it arose or the relief sought. (See Ibid).

18 Here, Plaintiff alleges that her claims are similar to that of the other Class Members and that 19 Plaintiff’s claims arise out of the same alleged course of conduct giving rise to the claims of the other 20 Class Members. Because Plaintiff’s claims are based upon the same alleged conduct and business 21 practices as those of Class Members, the typicality requirement has been satisfied.

22 Finally, the question of adequacy of representation “depends on whether the plaintiff’s attorney 23 is qualified to conduct the proposed litigation and the plaintiff’s interests are not antagonistic to the 24 interests of the class.” (McGee v. Bank of America, 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 450 (1976)). Here, these 25 considerations are satisfied. Class Counsel is well-regarded and is qualified and experienced in 26 employment-related, class-action litigation. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 1-9). Plaintiff will vigorously, adequately, 27 and fairly represent the interests of the Class. Plaintiff has, at all times, throughout the course of the 28 litigation considered the interests of the Class and understood that she must take steps to adequately

1 represent the Class and their interests. (Samson Decl., ¶ 10). Because Plaintiff's claims are typical of 2 other Class Members and are not based on unique circumstances, there is no antagonism between the 3 interests of Plaintiff and the Class.

4 C. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

5 Under the circumstances, proceeding as a class action is a superior means of resolving this dispute, 6 as the Class Members and the Court will derive substantial benefits. Class certification would serve as 7 the only means to deter and redress the alleged violations. (See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal.4th 429, 8 434 (2000) (relevant considerations include the probability that each class member will come forward to 9 prove his or her separate claim and whether the class approach would actually serve to deter and redress 10 the alleged wrongdoing)). Further, individual actions arising out of the same operative facts would 11 unduly burden the courts and could result in inconsistent results. Therefore, class action proceedings are 12 superior to individual litigation.

13 VII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS REASONABLE

14 Plaintiffs in class action lawsuits are eligible for reasonable incentive payments as compensation 15 “for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz 16 v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 (2010)). Courts routinely grant approval of 17 class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representative, which are 18 necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class
19 representatives help to bring about for the class. (See In re Online DVD Rental, 779 F.3d 934, 947-948 20 (9th Cir. 2014) (approving incentive award 417 times larger than individual payments where incentive 21 award made up a mere .17% of the settlement); Gaudin v. Saxon Mortgage Servs., Inc., 2015 WL 22 7454183, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 23, 2015) (finding service award of $15,000 to be “fair and 23 reasonable”)).

24 Plaintiff initiated this litigation on behalf of her former co-workers who will now be entitled to 25 receive payment from the Settlement. Plaintiff invested substantial time and effort into litigation, 26 including her own research, reviewing documents, and extensive discussions with Class Counsel.
27 (Samson Decl., ¶¶ 3-5). Further, the requested amount for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the average 28 award and the benefit gained by other Class Members. For these reasons, Plaintiff requests that an Enhancement Payment of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($7,500.00) to Plaintiff be preliminarily approved by the Court. (Rose Decl., ¶ 42; Samson Decl., ¶ 12).

VIII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE

Trial courts have “wide latitude” in assessing the value of attorneys’ fees and their decisions are “not to be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal, Inc., 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 41 (2000)). California law provides that attorney fee awards should be equivalent to fees paid in the legal marketplace to compensate for the result achieved and risk incurred. (Id. at 47). In cases where class members present claims against a common fund and the defendant agrees to a percentage of the fund as part of the settlement, use of the percentage method is appropriate. (Id. at 32).

Here, the requested attorneys’ fees of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $612,500.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $1,750,000.00) is disclosed to Class Members in the proposed Class Notice. (Settlement Agreement, Exh. A). The requested fee was freely negotiated, is common in the legal marketplace, and is not opposed by Defendant. The Motion for Final Approval will elaborate on the nature of the legal services provided and will also support Class Counsel’s request for the reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses not to exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($30,000.00). (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 43 and 45). The Attorneys’ Fees and Costs that are not ultimately approved by the Court shall instead be included in the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Settlement Class Members. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 13).

IX. THE CLASS NOTICE AND THE OPT-OUT AND OBJECTION PROCESS MEETS DUE PROCESS REQUIREMENTS

The Parties have jointly drafted the Class Notice, which will be mailed to the Class Members. (Id., Exh. A). The Class Notice will include information regarding the nature of the Action, a summary of the terms of the Settlement, the Class definition, information on how to object to and/or opt-out of the Class Settlement and to dispute Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and the date of the Final Approval Hearing. (Ibid.). The Class Notice will list each Class Member’s total Workweeks and their estimated Individual Settlement Share and each PAGA Employee’s total Pay Periods and their estimated Individual PAGA Payment. (Ibid.).

1 Within twenty-one (21) calendar days after entry of the preliminary approval order, Defendant
2 will provide a list in a formatted readable Microsoft Office Excel spreadsheet to the Settlement
3 Administrator containing the following information for each Class Member and PAGA Employee: full 4 name; last known mailing address; Social Security number; dates worked for Defendant during the Class
5 Period; and total Workweeks and Pay Periods (collectively referred to as the “Class List”). (Id., ¶¶ 10.d 6 and 27). Within ten (10) business days after receiving the Class List from Defendant, the Settlement 7 Administrator will perform a search based on the National Change of Address Database or other similar 8 services available, such as provided by Experian, for information to update and correct for any known or 9 identifiable address changes, and will mail a Class Notice in English to all Class Members and PAGA 10 Employees via First-Class U.S. Mail, using the most current, known mailing addresses identified by the 11 Settlement Administrator. (Id., ¶ 28.a). The Parties have agreed to use ILYM Group, Inc. as the 12 Settlement Administrator. (Rose Decl., ¶ 46; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.kk).

13 In determining whether to approve a settlement of a class action, a trial court has virtually 14 complete discretion as to the manner of giving notice to class members, and review on appeal is governed 15 by the abuse of discretion standard. (See In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380 16 (2010)). Here, Class Counsel is not aware of an alternative method of providing notice to the Class which 17 would result in a higher likelihood of actual notice. (Rose Decl., ¶ 47). The original source of the mailing 18 addresses is from Class Members, who provided the information to Defendant. (Ibid).

19 Class Members will have sixty (60) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice by 20 the Settlement Administrator to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or Dispute 21 (“Response Deadline”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.jj).

22 Any Class Notice returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable on or before the 23 Response Deadline will be sent promptly via First-Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding address affixed 24 thereto and the Settlement Administrator will indicate the date of such re-mailing on the Class Notice.
25 (Id., ¶ 28.b). If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt 26 to determine the correct address using a skip-trace or other search, using the name, address, and/or Social 27 Security number of the Class Member and/or PAGA Employee, and perform a single re-mailing within 28 five (5) calendar days. (Ibid). In the event that a Class Notice is re-mailed to a Class Member, the

1 Response Deadline for that Class Member shall be extended fifteen (15) calendar days from the original 2 Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 10.jj).

3 Class Members will have an opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods
4 to which they have been credited, as reflected in their respective Class Notices, by submitting a timely 5 and valid letter (“Dispute”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before the 6 Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 10.j and 29). A Dispute must: (a) contain the case name and number of the 7 Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name and signature; (c) clearly state that the Class Member 8 disputes the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to the Class Member and what the Class 9 Member contends is the correct number; and (d) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at 10 the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 10.j).

11 Any Class Member wishing to be excluded from the Class Settlement must submit a timely and 12 valid letter (“Request for Exclusion”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before 13 the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 10.ii and 30). A Request for Exclusion must: (a) contain the case name 14 and number of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name and signature; (c) clearly state that 15 the Class Member does not wish to be included in the Class Settlement; and (d) be returned by mail to 16 the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline.
17 (Id., ¶ 10.ii). Notwithstanding the above, all PAGA Employees will be bound by the PAGA Settlement 18 and will be issued their Individual PAGA Payment, irrespective of whether they submit a Request for 19 Exclusion. (Id., ¶ 30).

20 To object to the Class Settlement, Settlement Class Members must submit a timely and complete 21 written objection (“Notice of Objection”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or 22 before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 10.w and 31). A Notice of Objection must: (a) contain the case 23 name and number of the Action; (b) contain the objector’s full name and signature; (c) contain a written 24 statement of all grounds for the objection accompanied by any legal support for such objection; (d) 25 contain copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents upon which the objection is based; and (e) be 26 returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the 27 Response Deadline (Id., ¶ 10.w). Settlement Class Members, individually or through counsel, may also 28 present their objection orally at the Final Approval Hearing, regardless of whether they have submitted a

1 Notice of Objection. (Id., ¶ 31).
