Attorneys for Plaintiff

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF ORANGE

TIMOTHY ALAN YOUNG, on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiff,

v.

REFRIGERATION SUPPLIES DISTRIBUTOR,
a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 30-2024-01419531-CU-OE-CXC

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiff TIMOTHY ALAN YOUNG (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have 2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 3 further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant REFRIGERATION SUPPLIES 6 DISTRIBUTOR and DOES 1 through 10 (REFRIGERATION SUPPLIES DISTRIBUTOR and 7 DOES 1 through 10 are collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the 8 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”)
9 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (including minimum wages, 10 straight time wages, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and 11 permit rest periods, failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure to maintain accurate 12 records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish 13 accurate wage statements, and failure to indemnify for necessary expenditures or losses.

14 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and legislature have recognized that this 15 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
16 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his or 17 her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws so that 18 employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has required for 19 employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the Legislature has 20 criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter violations of these 21 underlying statutes—since Plaintiff is not seeking general and/or special damages, restitution, or 22 other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted the PAGA to permit an individual 23 to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise and sole nature of this action.

24 3. All California employees during the relevant statutes of limitations who are or were 25 harmed by Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved Employees 26 worked for Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the applicable statutory 27 period.

28 ///

4. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State of California. Plaintiff does not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that statutory violations are mentioned for wage violations, Plaintiff does not seek underlying general and/or special damages for those violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for himself and all Aggrieved Employees as permitted by the PAGA.

5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Orange County. As such and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff TIMOTHY ALAN YOUNG is a resident of Orange County, California who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt warehouse employee from approximately January 2021 to approximately November 2023.

1 B. Defendants

2 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief
3 alleges, that REFRIGERATION SUPPLIES DISTRIBUTOR is, and at all times herein mentioned, 4 was:

- 5 (a) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the 6 State of California, including Orange County; and 7 (b) The former employer of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of 8 the Aggrieved Employees because Defendant REFRIGERATION 9 SUPPLIES DISTRIBUTOR suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the 10 Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or 11 working conditions.

12 10. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued 13 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each 14 of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 15 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set 16 forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together 17 with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

18 11. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 19 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or 20 injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of 21 California.

22 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each 23 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the 24 other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff 25 is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the 26 principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, 27 affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of 28 the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise

1 for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable 2 for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 3 thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships 4 alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, 5 adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

6 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

7 13. Plaintiff TIMOTHY ALAN YOUNG worked for Defendants in Orange County, 8 California from approximately January 2021 to approximately November 2023. At all times, 9 Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime.

10 14. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 11 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was 12 typical and illustrative.

13 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum Wages, Straight 14 Time Wages, and Overtime Wages

15 15. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
16 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and 17 includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do 18 so.

19 16. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 20 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 21 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

22 17. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not 23 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation 24 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states 25 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

26 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 27 paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight 28 time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work

1 “off-the-clock”, uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 2 to perform work during legally required meals periods and after their work shifts ended. Some of 3 this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, 4 Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 5 Employees worked.

6 19. Throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and other Aggrieve Employees worked 7 regular shifts that lasted longer than 8.0 hours in a workday and resulted in non-exempt employees 8 regularly working more than 40 hours in a workweek. However, Defendants uniformly failed to 9 properly calculate and pay overtime wages at the proper legal rate due to Defendants’ failure to 10 include all forms of compensation/remuneration, including, but not limited to, non-discretionary 11 bonuses, and all other forms of remuneration in calculating the “regular rate of pay” for purposes 12 of overtime compensation as required under the applicable law.

13 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

14 20. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 15 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the 16 start of the sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, 17 duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in a workday. Further, 18 employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not 19 provided with a required meal period(s).

20 21. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff 21 and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free 22 meal period. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees routinely worked through meal periods “off-23 the-clock,” and Defendants frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than all 24 their work time. Much of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing 25 to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours 26 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked. Defendants also regularly, but not always, 27 required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day 28 without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of

1 work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were 2 not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants 3 continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, 4 or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu 5 of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 6 permission to take a meal period. Defendants also never informed Plaintiff of his right to, nor 7 permitted him to take, a second meal period when Plaintiff worked at least ten hours of work in a 8 workday. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to 9 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

10 22. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 11 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s).
12 Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional 13 wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided. Furthermore, 14 Defendants failed to include all forms of compensation/remuneration, including, but not limited 15 to, non-discretionary bonuses, and all other forms of remuneration in calculating the "regular rate 16 of pay" for purposes of calculating the meal break premiums as required under the applicable law.

17 C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

18 23. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 19 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 20 two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 21 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself 22 a violation of California's rest break laws.

23 24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to authorize and 24 permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods. Defendants 25 regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive 26 hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, 27 uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), 28 or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not

1 authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the 2 Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which 3 could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying 4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' 5 policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take 6 rest periods in compliance with California law.

7 25. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 8 additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required
9 rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 10 the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized 11 and permitted to take. Furthermore, Defendants failed to include all forms of 12 compensation/remuneration, including, but not limited to, non-discretionary bonuses, and all other 13 forms of remuneration in calculating the "regular rate of pay" for purposes of calculating the rest 14 break premiums as required under the applicable law.

15 D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

16 26. Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as 17 discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

18 27. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times 19 per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, 20 employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period 21 premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours 22 worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the 23 employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not 24 paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not 25 authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, 26 Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 27 Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

28 ///

1 E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

2 28. Plaintiff seeks penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to 3 California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully
4 fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject 5 to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall 6 keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods 7 and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded

8 29. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all 9 meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

10 30. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California 11 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the 12 ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the 13 accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the 14 Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which 15 resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the 16 Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use 17 and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in 18 seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective 19 damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to 20 comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the 21 Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, 22 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

23 F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

24 31. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 25 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 26 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 27 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-28 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled

1 to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

2 32. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 3 other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the 4 employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants 5 failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without 6 abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of 7 discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These 8 unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum wages, straight time wages, 9 overtime wages, rest and recovery periods, and other nonproductive time), missed meal period 10 premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

11 33. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 12 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 13 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and 14 at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for 15 more than thirty (30) days.

16 34. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 17 Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular 18 hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

19 G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

20 35. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her 21 employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, 22 including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-23 rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all 24 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated 25 and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the 26 employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security 27 number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name 28 and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect

1 during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 2 employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Labor Code
3 § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

4 36. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing 5 and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the 6 greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation 7 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, 8 not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award 9 of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

10 37. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 11 Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, 12 and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods 13 that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that 14 were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

15 38. Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved
16 Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff 17 and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 18 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate 19 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee.

20 H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

21 39. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her employees 22 for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct 23 discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause 24 of action, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses
25 that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 26 Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary business expenses, including, without 27 limitation, use of personal cell phones. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial 28 expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to 1 indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 4 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

5 40. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges all preceding paragraphs as though 6 fully set forth herein.

7 41. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 8 State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

9 42. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 10 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 11 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor 12 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 13 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 14 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former 15 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

16 43. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 17 Code § 2699.3. On April 16, 2024, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and 18 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 19 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and former 20 Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid 21 the filing fee on April 16, 2024. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-1022700-24
22 (Timothy Alan Young v. Refrigeration Supplies Distributor).

23 44. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative 24 remedies with California’s LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code 25 § 2699.3(d).)

26 45. More than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the 27 LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed
28 in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor

Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

46. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

47. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failing to timely pay final wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify for necessary expenditures;

2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of himself and all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA;

3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,

6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.
