DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff AREANA TROCHE (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and all others similarly
2 situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint
3 (“Complaint”) against Defendants U LVP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; U LVH,
4 LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; U LVL, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; U
5 LVA, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; and U LVS, LLC, a Delaware limited liability
6 company; and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as 7 follows:

8 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this 10 Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions
11 Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558,
12 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission
13 (“IWC”) Wage Order 7-2001 (“Wage Order 7”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory
14 relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §
15 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount 16 in controversy exceeds $25,000.

17 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 18 agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Alameda County, and some of 19 the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Alameda County. Furthermore, Plaintiff
20 was employed by Defendants within Alameda County.

21 PARTIES

22 3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of 23 eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to 24 each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee.
25 Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of 26 herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et 27 seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 28 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Order 7.

1 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 2 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
3 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
4 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Alameda County, and the State of California and,
5 therefore, were (and are) doing business in Alameda County and the State of California.

6 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 7 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
8 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 9 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed,
10 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
11 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
12 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 13 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

14 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 15 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
16 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
17 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 18 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

19 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
20 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 21 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 22 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
23 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 24 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

25 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 26 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 27 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

28 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and

1 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 2 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

3 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

4 10. Defendants own and operate automobile dealerships in Livermore, California.
5 Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 6 September 2022 to February 2024 as a service advisor at Defendants' Honda dealership in 7 Livermore, California.

8 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
9 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 10 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly 11 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 12 belief, Defendants failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary 13 remuneration, including commissions and piece rates, into the regular rate of pay. As a result, 14 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not compensated for all earned minimum and 15 overtime wages.

16 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 17 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 18 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
19 and/or missed meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees
20 were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled, Defendants
21 failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal period
22 premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation at the regular rate of compensation
23 because Defendants failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary 24 remuneration, including commissions and piece rates, as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.

25 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 26 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 27 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
28 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest

1 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other
2 non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods
3 to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period
4 premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.
5 Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period
6 premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest
7 period was not authorized and permitted to their non-exempt employees.

8 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 9 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, Defendants
10 failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including 11 commissions and piece rates, into the paid sick leave pay rate.

12 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages, failure to pay all meal
13 and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as alleged above,
14 Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage statements to Plaintiff
15 and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime
16 wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed to timely pay 17 all final wages to Plaintiff and other former non-exempt employees upon their separation of 18 employment from Defendants.

19 16. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to use 20 their personal cellphones to communicate with shuttle drivers by text messaging. Despite requiring 21 employees to incur these necessary business expenses, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and 22 other non-exempt employees for the cost of these expenses.

23 17. Labor Code § 226.2 applies to employees who are compensated on a piece-rate basis 24 for any work performed during a pay period and requires employers to establish compensation and 25 wage statement requirements for rest and recovery periods and "other nonproductive time" for 26 piece-rate employees. During the relevant time period, Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.2 by 27 failing to properly compensate aggrieved employees for non-productive time and rest/recovery
28 periods and failed to properly incorporate piece rates into the regular rate of pay for rest/recovery

1 periods.

2 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

3 18. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and the following
4 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 5 a. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 6 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 7 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during 8 the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 9 b. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 10 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours;
11 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years
12 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 13 c. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 14 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the 15 four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 16 d. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
17 in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year
18 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 19 e. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the 20 Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class 21 during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the 22 present.
- 23 f. Expense Reimbursement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of 24 Defendants in the State of California who were not reimbursed for all necessary 25 business expenses, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this 26 action through the present.

27 19. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that 28 joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

20. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime Class;
- b. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- c. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- d. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226;
- e. Whether Defendants reimbursed members of the Expense Reimbursement Class for all necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code § 2802; and
- f. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

21. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)

1 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
2 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all overtime wages owed due to Defendants' 3 timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, was not provided all required meal periods, was not 4 authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal and 5 rest periods, was not paid all final wages upon separation of employment, was not provided with 6 accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements, and was not reimbursed for all necessary business 7 expenses.

8 22. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
9 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
10 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
11 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 12 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 13 members of the Classes.

14 23. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
15 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 16 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 17 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 18 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this 19 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 20 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 21 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 22 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited 23 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

24 24. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
25 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 26 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 27 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
28 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution

1 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

2 25. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
3 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
4 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 5 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 6 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest
7 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 8 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified
9 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

10 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

11 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 26. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
14 fully set forth herein.

15 27. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 16 Wage Order 7, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages
17 and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure 18 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

19 28. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-
20 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours
21 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 7. Wage Order 7, § 3 requires an employer
22 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay
23 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime
24 Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours 25 actually worked.

26 29. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and 27 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
28 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§

1 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
2 3287 and 3289.

3 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

4 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

5 (Against All Defendants)

6 30. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
7 fully set forth herein.

8 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
9 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 10 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 11 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 7, § 11.

12 32. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 13 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 14 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

15 33. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 16 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
17 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
18 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 7, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 34. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
23 fully set forth herein.

24 35. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 7, § 12 and establish the right of 25 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period
26 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 27 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
28 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals

1 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 2 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

3 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 4 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
5 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
6 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 7, and Civil Code §§
7 3287 and 3289.

8 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
9 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES
10 (Against All Defendants)

11 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
12 fully set forth herein.

13 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff
15 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements
16 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay
17 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay 18 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 19 Labor Code § 226.

20 39. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class 21 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 22 to, among other things, the non-payment of overtime wages and meal and rest period premium 23 wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies in 24 Defendants' reported payroll data.

25 40. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and 26 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable 27 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

28 ///

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAITING TIME PENALTIES
(Against All Defendants)

41. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

42. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit, said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last date of employment.

43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their separation from employment, including unpaid overtime wages as well as unpaid meal and rest period premium wages.

44. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

45. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

46. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 203.

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 47. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
5 fully set forth herein.

6 48. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 7 states that “an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 8 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his 9 or obedience to the directions of the employer.”

10 49. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and 11 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class all necessary business expenses they incurred in the 12 performance of their job duties.

13 50. As a consequence of Defendants’ unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 14 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable 15 attorneys’ fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

16 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 UNFAIR COMPETITION

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 51. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
20 fully set forth herein.

21 52. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business 22 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 23 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
24 b. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
25 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
26 wages due;
27 c. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest
28 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium

- 1 wages due;
- 2 d. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of
- 3 the Wage Statement Class;
- 4 e. failing to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time
- 5 Penalty Class; and
- 6 f. failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses to Plaintiff and members of the
- 7 Expense Reimbursement Class.

8 53. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived

9 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally

10 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over

11 Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to 12 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

13 54. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged

14 herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 15 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired

16 and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

17 55. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately

18 preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

19 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 56. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though

23 fully set forth herein.

24 57. Plaintiff, an "aggrieved employee" within the meaning of Labor Code §§ 2698, et

25 seq., acting on behalf of herself and other aggrieved employees (collectively, "Aggrieved

26 Employees"), brings this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties due

27 to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant

28 to Labor Code §§ 558 and 2699(a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial

1 violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent violation or willful or 2 intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210 and/or 225.5 for each failure to pay each 3 employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and 4 $100 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3)
5 $100 for each initial violation and $250 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code §
6 1197.1 per employee per pay period; (4) $250 for each initial violation and $1,000 for each
7 subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; (5) pursuant to 8 Labor Code § 256, a civil penalty in an amount not exceeding 30 days per former employee as 9 waiting time under the terms of Labor Code § 203; and/or (6) $100 for each initial violation and 10 $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor
11 Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided, based on the following Labor Code 12 violations:

- 13 a. Failing to pay minimum wages for all hours worked to Aggrieved Employees in 14 violation of Labor Code § 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198;
- 15 b. Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation 16 of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;
- 17 c. Failing to provide all legally required meal periods, and failure to pay meal period
18 premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of compensation in 19 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198;
- 20 d. Failing to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods, and failure to pay 21 rest period premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of 22 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198;
- 23 e. Failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage 24 statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- 25 f. Failing to timely pay all final wages and compensation earned by Aggrieved 26 Employees at the time of separation in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-202;
- 27 g. Failure to reimburse Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business expenses in 28 violation of Labor Code § 2802;

- h. Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all paid sick leave wages in violation of Labor Code § 246;
- i. Violating Labor Code § 226.2 with respect to compensation of piece rates to Aggrieved Employees;
- j. Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all earned wages at least twice during each calendar month in violation of Labor Code § 204; and
- k. Failing to maintain accurate records on behalf of Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1198.

58. On or about April 15, 2024, Plaintiff notified Defendants via certified mail, and notified the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via its website, of Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code and Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. with respect to the violations of the Labor Code identified in the preceding paragraph. Now that 33 days and 65 days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendants and the LWDA of these violations, Defendants have not cured any curable violations, and the LWDA has not provided notice that it intends to investigate the violations, Plaintiff has exhausted administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

59. Plaintiff has incurred attorneys’ fees and costs, which Plaintiff is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2699(g).

17 pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent violation or willful or intentional violation
18 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210 and/or 225.5 for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25% of the 19 amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and $100 for each subsequent 20 violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3) $100.00 for each initial 21 violation and $250.00 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 1197.1 per employee
22 per pay period; (4) $250.00 for each initial violation and $1,000.00 for each subsequent violation
23 pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; (5) pursuant to Labor Code § 256, a 24 civil penalty in an amount not exceeding 30 days per former employee as waiting time under the 25 terms of Labor Code § 203; and/or (6) $100.00 for each initial violation and $200 for each 26 subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which 27 no civil penalty is specifically provided;

28 12. Prejudgment interest on all due and unpaid wages pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6

1 and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289;

2 13. On all causes of action, for attorneys' fees and costs as provided by Labor Code §§
3 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699(g), and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and 4 14. For such other and further relief, the Court may deem just and proper.

5 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

6 Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on all claims.
