MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs William Coleman, Benjamin Gonzalez, and Shaun Rogers (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $500,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Edges Electrical Group LLC (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”). The Class Action and PGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 398 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Hon. Daniel Buckley (Ret.), over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom and after subsequent negotiation and formal discovery. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s defenses during mediation and after mediation and after further litigating this matter, the Parties executed the settlement agreement in May 2025. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiffs’ Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiffs and the putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant has been in operation since 1948 and “is the largest electrical wholesale distributor in Northern California” with 12 locations throughout the state of California spanning from Susanville to Monterey. (Declaration of Benjamin H. Haber in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Haber Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant failed to pay for all hours

1 worked. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendant failed to: provide employees with legally 2 compliant meal and rest periods; and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based 3 on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert related claims for failure to pay wages during employment, 4 failure to pay all final wages at termination, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure 5 to keep requisite payroll records, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA.
6 (Id. at ¶ 3.)

7 On August 25, 2021, Plaintiff Coleman filed a putative wage and hour class action 8 complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor 9 Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 10 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to 11 authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code § 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at 12 termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements 13 (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); 14 and (8) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.). (Haber 15 Decl., at ¶ 4.) On June 14, 2024, Plaintiff Gonzalez filed a representative complaint against 16 Defendant in San Joaquin County for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff Gonzalez sent a 17 notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) 18 alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA on April 9, 2024. (Id.) On 19 November 13, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint against Defendant adding a 20 claim for civil penalties under PAGA and adding named Plaintiff Benjamin Gonzalez. (Id.) On 21 August 7, 2025, Plaintiffs filed a Stipulation to File a Second Amended Class and 22 Representative Action Complaint to add Plaintiff Shaun Rogers. (Id.)

23 B. Discovery and Investigation

24 Following the filing of the initial complaint, the Parties engaged in formal and informal 25 discovery and exchanged documents and information before mediating this action. Defendant 26 produced a sample of time and pay records for class members. Defendant also provided 27 documents of its wage and hour policies and practices during the class period, and information 28 regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses.

1 (Haber Decl., ¶ 5.)

2 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant's wage and hour policies and practices 3 and analyzing Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate 4 the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum monetary 5 exposure for all claims. (Haber Decl., ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law 6 regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these 7 records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) This extensive investigation 8 and discovery allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently and effectively in negotiating the 9 Settlement.

10 C. Settlement Negotiations

11 On November 28, 2022, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced 12 class action mediator Hon. Daniel Buckley (Ret.). (Haber Decl., ¶ 7.) The mediation was 13 conducted via Zoom, but the Parties were unable to reach a resolution following the mediation.
14 However, the Parties continued to conduct formal discovery and continued to negotiate 15 following the mediation, ultimately, reaching a settlement on May 14, 2025. The settlement 16 negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 17 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement 18 of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal 19 if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and discussions 20 regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs' claims and Defendant's defenses, the 21 Parties reached a settlement, the material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement.
22 (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1, Settlement Agreement.)

23 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 24 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 25 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 26 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 27 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 28 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 14.)

1 Indeed, the $500,000.00 Settlement represents approximately 51.7% of the realistic
2 maximum recovery of $967,662.06. (Id. at ¶ 23.) Although Class Counsel estimated that 3 Defendant’s maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $10.9 million, when 4 the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel 5 believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was $967,662.06, meaning the Settlement achieves 6 a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 14-27.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at 7 class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Indeed, 8 because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and 9 will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

10 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

11 The Settlement’s key terms include:

12 1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of 13 a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all persons employed by 14 Defendant in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee who worked for 15 Defendant at least one workday during the Class Period in which a prior settlement agreement did 16 not cover the claims at issue in this Agreement.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

17 2. Class Period: “means the period from August 25, 2017 to June 21, 2024.” (Settlement, 18 § 1.12.)

19 3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and 20 timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.35.)

21 4. Aggrieved Employees: “means a person employed by Defendant in California and 22 classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee who worked for Defendant during the PAGA 23 Period.” (Settlement, § 1.4.)

24 5. PAGA Period: “means the period from April 9, 2023 to June 21, 2024.” (Settlement, § 25 1.31.)

26 6. Gross Settlement Amount: “means $500,000.00 which is the total amount Defendant 27 agrees to pay under the Settlement except as provided in Paragraph 8 below. The Gross Settlement
28 Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA

PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, the Class Representative Service Payment, and the Administrator's Expenses." (Settlement, § 1.22.)

7. Uncashed Checks: "For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to a Court-approved nonprofit organization or foundation consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b) ("Cy Pres Recipient") Legal Aid at Work. The Parties, Class Counsel, and Defense Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the intended Cy Pres Recipient." (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

8. Release by Participating Class Members: "All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from any and all claims asserted or that could have been asserted based on the facts pled in the Operative Complaint, including but not limited to, state wage and hour claims for any violations of California's Labor Code and Unfair Competition Law based on Defendant's failure to pay all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages at termination, failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, and failure to indemnify employees for expenditures based on the alleged Labor Code violations, and all damages, interest, penalties, attorneys' fees, costs, and other amounts recoverable under said causes of action under California law, to the extent permissible, including but not limited to, the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period." (Settlement, § 5.2.) This Release will be deemed effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments. (Settlement, § 5.)

1 9. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, 2 on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, 3 heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA
4 penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period 5 facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice, including any claims involving any 6 alleged failure to pay minimum wages or overtime, failure to provide meal and rest periods, failure 7 to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to pay all wages due at separation, and failure 8 to reimburse business expenses, including Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 210, 216, 223, 9 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 245-248.5, 256, 432, 432.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1024.5, 1174, 1194, 10 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2699, 2699.3, 2802, 2810.5 during the PAGA Period.
11 Aggrieved Employees only release these claims for the duration of the PAGA Period.”
12 (Settlement, § 5.3.)

13 10. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.”
14 (Settlement, § 3.1.)

15 11. PAGA Allocation: “PAGA Penalties in the amount of $50,000.00 to be paid from 16 the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% ($37,500) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 17 25% ($12,500) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.) Class Counsel 18 submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary 19 Approval. (Haber Decl., ¶ 9.)

20 12. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following 21 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA 22 Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel 23 Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. The remainder is to be 24 paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.” (Settlement, § 1.28.)

25 13. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 26 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 27 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 28 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($12,500) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Period Pay Periods." (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

14. Tax Allocation: "20% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining 80% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interests and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms." (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

15. Class Representative Service Awards: "Class Representative Service Payments to the Class Representatives as follows: not more than $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Coleman; not more than $7,500.00 to Plaintiff Gonzalez; and not more than $5,000.00 to Plaintiff Rogers (in addition to any Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member)." (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

16. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: "A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than 35%, which is currently estimated to be $175,000.00 and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $30,000.00. Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments provided that do not exceed these amounts." (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

17. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service awards being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 4.4.1.) Apex Class Action Administration, the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Haber Decl., ¶ 10, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

1 III. DISCUSSION

2 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 3 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 4 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
5 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 6 through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 7 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors 8 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

9 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 10 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 11 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 12 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 13 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 14 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 15 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 16 that the class settlement is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 17 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 18 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 19 require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 20 prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy 21 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

22 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 23 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 24 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

1 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 2 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

3 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 4 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

5 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 6 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 7 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
8 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
9 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 10 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 11 to approve the settlement.”].)

12 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 13 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Hon. Daniel Buckley (Ret.). (Haber Decl., ¶ 14 7.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional 15 manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 16 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position 17 through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations 18 and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s 19 defenses, the Parties reached an agreement. (Haber Decl., ¶ 8.)

20 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted formal and informal discovery 21 concerning the claims set forth in the litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and 22 payroll records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the 23 provision of meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at 24 separation, as well as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of 25 current versus former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period 26 premium wages paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual 27 investigation, Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses 28 asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiffs and their counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 38-47.) Again, this supports the position that the terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this action.

2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ Respective Legal Positions

A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Haber Decl., ¶ 25.) While Plaintiffs are confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 24.) Plaintiffs also recognize that proving the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

The proposed settlement of $500,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to Plaintiffs’ reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 14-27.) Because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $500,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately

2 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

3 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
4 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 5 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 38-47.)
6 Although Plaintiffs and their counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, 7 they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

8 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

9 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 10 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 11 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 12 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 13 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 14 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

15 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

16 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 17 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $175,000.00, which is 35% of the Gross 18 Settlement Amount, and up to $30,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 19 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

20 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund" 21 Method

22 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 23 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 24 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 25 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 26 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 27 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

28 ///

1 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 2 fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all 3 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v.
4 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 5 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in 6 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 7 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 8 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 9 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 10 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

11 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 12 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 13 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 14 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 15 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 16 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 17 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 18 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—19 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
20 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

21 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

22 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on 23 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 24 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 25 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 26 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
27 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 28 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also

1 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 2 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 3 million].)

4 Here, Plaintiffs request attorneys’ fees equal to 35% of the Gross Settlement Amount, 5 which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic 6 literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 7 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method 8 or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 9 recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees 10 as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

11 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

12 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 13 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 14 section, Plaintiffs would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 15 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 16 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 17 Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 18 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class 19 Counsel. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 36-37.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 20 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the 21 Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class 22 ahead of all other concerns.

23 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 24 Requested Fee Award

25 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 26 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Haber 27 Decl., ¶¶ 38-47.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class 28 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and "there is no indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other" class members, such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement. (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].) Here, the amount to be paid to the LWDA is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g., Zubia v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, supra, 2008 WL 3385452, at *1 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.27%].) Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith amount of $50,000.00, 75% percent of which ($37,500.00) will be paid to the LWDA and 25% ($12,500.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 3.2.5.) The $50,000.00 settlement amount equates to

1 approximately 10% of the Gross Settlement Amount, which far exceeds amounts that are routinely 2 approved. The Parties negotiated to allocate 10% of the Settlement to PAGA penalties in good 3 faith and this amount is reasonable considering that the maximum PAGA penalties were estimated 4 at $1,765,700.00 (which assumed $100 per pay period). (Haber Decl., ¶ 22.)

5 E. The Service Awards to Named Plaintiffs Are Reasonable

6 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 7 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 8 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 9 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 10 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 11 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
12 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

13 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 14 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 15 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 16 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 17 work under substandard unlawful conditions” Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has 18 noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 19 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
20 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 21 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
22 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

23 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 24 Service Awards in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Coleman, $7,500.00 to Plaintiff Gonzalez, 25 and $5,000.00 to Plaintiff Rogers ($22,500.00 total). This amount is also in exchange for 26 Plaintiffs’ general release of all claims against Defendant. Courts routinely approve enhancement 27 awards in excess of $10,000.00 for plaintiffs represented by Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v.
28 Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of America, National Association (N.D. Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, at *4 [“The court approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].) Class Counsel represent that Plaintiffs devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and were frequently in contact with Class Counsel during the mediation. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 28-32.) This amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiffs generated for all class members. (Id.)

When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev. 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

A. Legal Standard

The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1)

[t]here must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device. (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

B. Plaintiffs Maintain That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for Settlement Purposes.

1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

The proposed class that Plaintiffs seek to represent is easily ascertainable and includes approximately 398 employees of Defendant.

Plaintiffs maintain that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

“The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable

1 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 2 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries
3 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 4 Cal.2d 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) 5 Therefore, Plaintiffs contend that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

6 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

7 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 8 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 9 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 10 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 11 Cal.App.3d 605.)

12 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 13 policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether Defendant had 14 legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether 15 Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees 16 to take rest periods; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether 17 payment of wages during employment was timely; whether final payment of wages was untimely 18 and excluded unpaid wages, including meal and rest period premium wages; whether wage 19 statements were consequently non-compliant; and whether Defendant failed to keep requisite 20 payroll records. Plaintiffs contend that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the 21 identified class members, including Plaintiffs. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek 22 redress for, the same alleged injuries.

23 3. Plaintiffs’ Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

24 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 25 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 26 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 27 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“[t]he only requirements are that 28 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly

1 situated” vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class if they 2 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 3 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendant; as 4 such, they allege that they were subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 5 employees.

6 4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

7 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 8 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 9 a named plaintiff’s interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 10 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

11 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiffs retained counsel 12 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 13 previously settled. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 38-47.) Class Counsel unquestionably is “qualified, 14 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 15 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiffs have no conflicts, and Plaintiffs have, with counsel, 16 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing their dedication.
17 Plaintiffs’ willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates her serious commitment to 18 bringing about the best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

19 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

20 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 21 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
22 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 23 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 24 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-25 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 26 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 27 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 28 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

VI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing.
