CASE NO.: 24CV011429

REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

COMPLAINT UNDER THE LABOR
CODE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS'
GENERAL ACT OF 2004 FOR CIVIL
PENALTIES UNDER LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1
AND 2699

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $35,000.00]

1 Plaintiff LINDA CHRISTINE BROWN, as an aggrieved employee, brings this Action under 2 the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") to collect civil penalties under 3 PAGA for all other aggrieved employees, and, in doing so, alleges as follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General 6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against LIFE STORAGE LP, 7 and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("Life
8 Storage LP"); LIFE STORAGE, INC., and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies 9 within the State of California ("Life Storage Inc."), collectively, and with DOES 1 through 100, as 10 further defined below, "Defendants," as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
11 of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of all other current and former non-exempt 12 employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as 13 it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 14 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, 246, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 1102.5, 15 1197.5, 1198.5, 1527, 3366, 3457, and 8397.4, on behalf of all employees of Defendants working 16 within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

17 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 18 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

19 3. Venue is proper in Sacramento County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 20 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Sacramento County is where the causes 21 of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the 22 county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and 23 Defendants was due to be performed; and the county in which the employment contract, or part of 24 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged 25 herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in Sacramento County, and 26 because Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved Employees in Sacramento County.

27 4. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 28 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code

1 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 2 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
3 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 4 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for all other aggrieved current and former employees of 5 Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period. Plaintiff does not seek to assert his own claim for civil 6 penalties under PAGA as part of this Action.

7 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 8 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
9 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 10 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

11 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 12 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 13 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 210, 14 212, 213, 221, 223, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, 246, 404, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 15 432.8, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 11821.12, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 1527, 16 2699, 2802, 2810.3, 2810.5, 3366, 3457, and 8397.4, among others, California Code of Regulations, 17 Title 8, Section 3395, Business and Professions Code sections 16600, 16700, and 17200, 18 Government Code section 12952, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

19 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 20 on behalf of all other aggrieved current and former employees within the statutory period, to bring 21 a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 22 2699.3 without asserting a claim to bring Plaintiff’s own claim for civil penalties under PAGA.
23 (See, e.g., Balderas v. Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc.) Specifically, Plaintiff does not seek to recover 24 Plaintiff’s 25% share of civil penalties for the particular Labor Code violations Plaintiff experienced.
25 Rather, this is a purely representative PAGA action wherein Plaintiff seeks to recover all civil 26 penalties for the Labor Code violations experienced by third-party aggrieved employees (Aggrieved 27 Employees) and the State of California’s 75% of the civil penalties for the Labor Code violations 28 Plaintiff experienced.

1 8. On or around April 5, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code
2 section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' violation 3 of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as 4 by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

5 9. Plaintiff also provided Defendants, and each of them, with notice under Labor Code
6 section 2810.3, subdivision (d) that Plaintiff would seek to hold them liable for each other's wage 7 and hour violations under Labor Code section 2810.3 on April 5, 2024 by certified mail with return 8 receipt requested.

9 10. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 10 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65)
11 calendar days of the April 5, 2024 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff 12 to the LWDA and Defendants.

13 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

14 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 15 of failing to pay overtime wages to Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of 16 California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Aggrieved Employees working 17 over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a 18 workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to 19 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting 20 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain 21 on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-22 shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff 23 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make 24 phone calls or drive off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-25 discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the 26 regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation 27 was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee 28 time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked,

1 for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, and by attempting but failing to properly implement
2 an alternative workweek schedule (“AWS”) (including, without limitation, by failing to implement 3 a written agreement designating the regularly scheduled alternative workweek in which the 4 specified number of work days and work hours are regularly recurring; failing to adopt the AWS in 5 a secret ballot election, before the performance of work, by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the 6 affected employees in the work unit; failing to follow the notice/disclosures procedures prior to any 7 AWS election; and/or failing to register an AWS election with the State of California, as required 8 by Labor Code section 511 and applicable Wage Orders, to the detriment of Aggrieved Employees.

9 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 10 of failing to compensate Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or 11 otherwise under Defendants’ control as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track 12 and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring Aggrieved Employees: to remain on-call; 13 to suffer under Defendants’ control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift 14 tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff 15 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make 16 phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or 17 manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time 18 pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment 19 of Aggrieved Employees.

20 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
21 of failing to provide Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, timely, and complete 22 meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and ten (10) hours per day 23 without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal periods or 24 compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; not 25 providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 26 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 27 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 28 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 1 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

2 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 3 of failing to provide Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and complete rest periods of 4 at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions thereof, or compensation in 5 lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest periods all together; requiring 6 that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting them; requiring that employees 7 carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not providing them in a timely fashion; 8 and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest 9 periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

10 15. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 11 to permit Aggrieved Employees from taking cooldown rest periods as required under California 12 Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 3395, and have failed to pay premium pay in lieu thereof under 13 Labor Code section 226.7.

14 16. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 15 to pay premium payments under Labor Code section 226.7 to Aggrieved Employees for non-16 compliant meal periods and rest periods, as well as the failure to provide cooldown periods, at the 17 proper regular rate of pay in violation of Labor Code sections 512, 226.7, and applicable wage 18 orders.

19 17. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of 20 unlawfully deducting wages due, or to become due, or as an advance on wages to be earned; an 21 order, check, draft, note, memorandum, gift card, or other acknowledgment of indebtedness, (unless 22 it was negotiable and payable in cash, on demand, without discount, at some established place of 23 business in the state), the name and address of which must but did not appear on the instrument, and 24 at the time of its issuance and for a reasonable time thereafter, which must be but was not at least 25 30 days, the maker or drawer did not have sufficient funds in, or credit arrangement, or 26 understanding with the drawee for its payment of any scrip, coupon, or other thing redeemable, in 27 merchandise, or purporting to be payable or redeemable otherwise than in money. Plaintiff is further 28 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that such wages were not compensated at the

1 “regular rate” of compensation as provided under Labor Code sections 226.7 and 510, subsection 2 (a).

3 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
4 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 5 Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; 6 total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in 7 effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by 8 the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity 9 securing the employer’s services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 10 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

11 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
12 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 13 Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment under Labor Code 14 section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records under Labor 15 Code section 1174, making it difficult for Aggrieved Employees to calculate their unpaid wages 16 and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Aggrieved Employees.

17 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 18 of failing to timely pay Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages owed as a result of 19 Defendants’ practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime wages at the regular 20 rate of pay, minimum wages, premium wages at the regular rate of pay, paid time off, paid sick 21 leave, and vacation time owed as required by Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

22 21. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 23 to pay Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon separation of 24 employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 and 25 applicable Wage Orders.

26 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 27 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 28 limitation, Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal vehicles (i.e., 1 mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, including, without limitation, for steel-toe boots, non-slip 2 shoes, and other safety and/or personal protective equipment (“PPE”), providing uniform and other 3 deposits, separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools, and for the purchase 4 and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the discharge

5 of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 6 2802.

7 23. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 8 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 9 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Aggrieved Employees with the 10 rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; allowances claimed as part 11 of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the name, address, and 12 telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier; information regarding paid sick
13 leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code 14 section 2810.5.

15 24. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved 16 Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to California law 17 (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not permit its use upon 18 request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Aggrieved Employees.

19 25. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had or have a policy or practice 20 of failing to reimburse deposits made, including uniform deposits, together with all interest owed at 21 the separation of employment in violation of Labor Code section 404.

22 26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 23 failing to pay Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code Section 204, which 24 requires that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month 25 shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, 26 and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any calendar month, shall be 27 paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

28 ///

1 27. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy
2 of failing to provide all working employees with suitable seats when the nature of the work 3 reasonably permits the use of seats. Defendants have also failed to place an adequate number of 4 seats in reasonable proximity to the work area and/or permitted employees to use such seats when 5 it does not interfere with the performance of their duties and employees are not engaged in the active 6 duties of their employment, and the nature of their work requires standing.

7 28. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy 8 of failing to provide all temporary workers with owed wages weekly by not later than the regular 9 payday of the following week.

10 29. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy 11 of failing to provide adequate and readily accessible sanitation facilities; a regular schedule for 12 servicing, cleaning, and supplying each facility to ensure it is maintained in a clean, sanitary and 13 serviceable condition; an adequate supply of suitable cleansing agents, water, single-use towels or 14 blowers; and a sufficient number of toilets to be used by each sex of employee.

15 30. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy 16 of failing to conducting unlawful background checks on prospective and current employees prior to 17 making a conditional offer. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 18 Defendants violated applicable laws by, without limitation: requiring job applicants and employees 19 to disclose their conviction history before Defendants made a conditional offer of employment; 20 inquiring into or considering the conviction history of applicants before Defendants made any 21 conditional offers of employment; considering, distributing, or disseminating information about 22 arrests not followed by conviction, referrals to or participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion 23 program, convictions that have been sealed, dismissed, expunged, or statutorily eradicated pursuant 24 to law, or any conviction for which the convicted person has received a full pardon or has been 25 issued a certificate of rehabilitation, while conducting conviction history background checks in 26 connection with any applications for employment; intending to deny an applicant a position of 27 employment solely or in part because of the applicant's conviction history; and asking applicants 28 for employment to disclose, through any written form or verbally, information concerning or related

1 to an arrest, detention, processing, diversion, supervision, adjudication, or court disposition that 2 occurred while the person was subject to the process and jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to the 3 detriment of Aggrieved Employees

4 31. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a practice 5 or policy of relying on the salary history information of an applicant for employment as a factor in 6 determining whether to offer employment to an applicant or what salary to offer the applicant in 7 violation of Labor Code section 432.3 by including, on Defendants' application for employment, an 8 inquiry regarding current and/or former salary history information, including, without limitation, 9 compensation and benefits of the applicant for employment.

10 32. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a practice 11 or policy of requiring Aggrieved Employees to agree in writing to confidentiality policies that 12 unlawfully restrain trade by prohibiting Aggrieved Employees from speaking with prospective 13 employers about their work with Defendants, including but not limited to their wages and working 14 conditions. Defendants also required Aggrieved Employees to inform prospective employers of 15 Defendants' restrictions of Aggrieved Employees' freedom to work.

16 33. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
17 of preventing Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge and experience 18 they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, without 19 limitation, preventing Aggrieved Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job 20 with a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 21 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 22 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 23 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 24 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

25 34. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Aggrieved Employees 26 from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or 27 outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and 28 Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. In addition,

1 Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies and/or practices
2 prevent Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working 3 conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

4 35. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Aggrieved Employees
5 from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling 6 employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, 7 Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Plaintiff is 8 informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of Aggrieved Employee's 9 constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty.

10 36. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity only, seeks civil penalties under Labor 11 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts on behalf of 12 only and all other Aggrieved Employees, which violate the California Labor Code as described 13 above.

14 PARTIES

15 A. Plaintiff

16 37. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 17 Linda Christine Brown is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 18 employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, 19 cleaning units, moving customers into units, sales calls, and facility checks. Plaintiff is informed 20 and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately November of 2022 through 21 approximately May of 2023.

22 B. Defendants

23 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendant LIFE
24 STORAGE LP is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited partnership organized and existing 25 under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the County of 26 Sacramento, State of California.

27 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendant LIFE 28 STORAGE INC. is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a stock corporation organized and existing

1 under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Maryland and doing business in the County of 2 Sacramento, State of California.

3 40. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 4 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 5 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
6 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 7 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
8 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 9 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 10 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 11 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 12 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 13 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 14 include Life Storage LP and Life Storage Inc., and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated 15 companies within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

16 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

17 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 18 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 19 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 20 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 21 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

22 42. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 23 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 24 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 25 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 26 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 27 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 28 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded,

1 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 2 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

3 43. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 4 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

7 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 8 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

9 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

10 45. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 11 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 12 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 13 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 14 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

15 46. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 16 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 17 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 18 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 19 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 20 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 21 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

22 47. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 23 failing to pay Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as per Labor Code 24 section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 25 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code section 204, in the amount of one 26 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation per employee, and 27 two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation in 28 connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

1 48. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the 2 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

3 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

4 49. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
5 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 6 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 7 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
8 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 9 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 10 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 11 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

12 50. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 13 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 14 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 15 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 16 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

17 51. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 18 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

19 52. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 20 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage 21 statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all 22 deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the corresponding number of hours worked at 23 each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and 24 address of the legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; 25 and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

26 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover 27 civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) in the amount 28 of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial

1 violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 2 subsequent violation.

3 54. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the 4 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

5 Violation of Labor Code § 558

6 55. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 7 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 8 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 9 penalty as follows:

10 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 11 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 12 to recover underpaid wages;

13 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 14 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 15 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

16 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

17 56. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 18 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 19 causing Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay 20 applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular 21 payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business as" names 22 used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier, 23 information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

24 57. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 25 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for 26 Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars ($50) for each 27 Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for 28 each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

1 58. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the 2 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

3 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

4 59. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 5 every person employing labor in California to "[a]llow any member of the commission or the 6 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 7 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 8 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 9 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 10 or papers of the person."

11 60. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 12 every person employing labor in California to "[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 13 all employees employed and the ages of all minors."

14 61. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 15 every person employing labor in California to "[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 16 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 17 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable 18 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 19 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 20 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 21 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 22 earned."

23 62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, "[a]ny person employing labor who willfully 24 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 25 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 26 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 27 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

28 ///

63. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records under Labor Code section 1174.

64. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

65. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

66. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203 as follows:

- (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.
- (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section

1 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

2 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 3 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 4 employee.”

5 67. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 6 Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without limitation, 7 routinely failing to pay Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise 8 under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to accurately track and/or pay 9 for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of time entries; paying straight 10 pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at the proper overtime rate of 11 pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, entitling Plaintiff and other 12 Aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

13 68. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
14 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties
15 for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one hundred dollars ($100) 16 for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred and fifty 17 dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

18 69. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff’s 25% share of civil penalties for the 19 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

20 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

21 70. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 22 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 23 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 24 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 25 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 26 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

27 71. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 28 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for

1 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person
2 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 3 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 4 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

5 72. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 6 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 7 the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, 8 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the 9 name of the employer, including "doing business as" names used, the name, address, and telephone 10 number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and 11 other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code section 12 2810.5, failing to provide Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be 13 provided pursuant to California and local laws.

14 73. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees within the State of California are entitled to an 15 award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with their herein-described claims for 16 civil penalties.

17 74. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the 18 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

19 PRAYER

20 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for judgment against 21 Defendants as follows:

- 22 A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 23 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for all Aggrieved Employees aside from Plaintiff;
- 24 B. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 25 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
- 26 C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
- 27 D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and
