1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff, under the Labor Code's Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), 4 respectfully move this Court for an Order granting approval of the proposed Settlement of the 5 above-captioned lawsuit against Defendant Affinity Group LLC d/b/a Affinity Recovery
6 ("Defendant"). The proposed Settlement will dispose of the Released Claims asserted by Plaintiff, 7 on behalf of the State and approximately 115 individuals who currently and/or formerly worked for 8 Defendant in California as hourly and/or non-exempt employees at any time from April 4, 2023
9 through March 6, 2025 (the "PAGA Release Period") (the "Aggrieved Employees"). See Settlement 10 Agreement at I.13.

11 This case addresses claimed violations of employee protections embodied in the California 12 Labor Code and penalties stemming therefrom for the violation of PAGA. Plaintiff alleged on 13 behalf of himself and all Aggrieved Employees that Defendant (1) failed to pay all wages due to 14 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 15 558, and 1194; (2) failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant 16 meal periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 17 1174, 1174.5, and 1194; (3) failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with legally 18 compliant rest periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code § 226.7; (4) 19 failed to issue accurately itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, in 20 violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226.3; and (5) failed to timely pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved 21 Employees all wages due at the separation of their employment, in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-22 202. As a result of Defendant's alleged violations of the Labor Code, approximately 115 employees 23 are claimed to have suffered Labor Code violations for up to 3,071 aggregate pay periods at the 24 rate of $100 each based on PAGA's penalty provisions. Gaines Decl., ¶ 26.

25 In deciding whether to grant approval of the proposed Settlement, the primary issue to be 26 decided is whether the Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable. As set forth herein, the proposed 27 Settlement embodies all of the features of a settlement that is fair, reasonable, and adequate, as it is 28 the product of (1) arms-length negotiations, (2) negotiated by attorneys experienced in wage and

1 hour issues, (3) subsequent to undertaking sufficient investigation necessary to evaluate the relative 2 strength and value of the PAGA claim, and (4) it reflects a reasoned compromise based directly on 3 the relative strength and value of the PAGA claim, as well as the risks, expense, complexity and 4 likely duration of further litigation.

5 The value achieved by the Settlement may be gleaned from the fact that the Labor and 6 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and the approximately 115 Aggrieved Employees 7 encompassed by the Settlement will receive no less than $22,642.84 under the terms of the 8 Settlement, which, pursuant to the operative statute, shall be allocated “75 percent to the Labor and 9 Workforce Development Agency . . . and 25 percent to the Aggrieved Employees.” See Cal. Lab.
10 Code § 2699(i). This is a reasonable recovery, not only because further litigation may have resulted 11 in a net-zero recovery based on the defenses available to Defendant, but because the amount secured 12 by Plaintiff is sizable and in line with similar settlements of these types of claims under PAGA. It 13 is also important to underscore that all penalty amounts paid to Aggrieved Employees will be an 14 unexpected windfall, as employees typically do not bring individual lawsuits asserting only PAGA 15 penalties.

16 For these reasons, as set forth more fully herein, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this 17 Court enter the Order submitted herewith.

18 II. STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND THE SETTLEMENT

19 A. The Parties

20 Defendant provides group home recovery services in Orange County, where Plaintiff 21 worked. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 6.

22 Defendant employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee from approximately from 23 September 2022 to March 2024. The Aggrieved Employees are all current and former non-exempt
24 employees who worked for Affinity Group LLC in the State of California at any time from April 25 4, 2023 through March 6, 2025. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 7.

26 B. The Claims Asserted

27 Plaintiff asserts claims that Defendant failed to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff and 28 Aggrieved Employees, failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant

1 meal and rest periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, failed to issue accurately itemized wage
2 statements to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, and failed to timely pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved 3 Employees all wages due at the separation of their employment. Plaintiff asserts these claims under 4 PAGA, on behalf of himself, individually, and on behalf of the State of California and other 5 Aggrieved Employees, and civil penalties for the alleged Labor Code violations for Plaintiff and 6 Aggrieved Employees. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 8.

7 C. Procedural Posture

8 On April 4, 2024, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff gave written notice by 9 online filing with the LWDA and by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Defendant, of the 10 specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories 11 to support the alleged violation. Gaines Decl., ¶ 9; Exhibit B (LWDA Letter).

12 On April 30, 2024, Plaintiff filed a supplemental letter with the LWDA that alleged an 13 additional claim for failure to pay all wages due. Gaines Decl., ¶ 10; Exhibit C (Supplemental 14 LWDA Letter).

15 Thereafter, on June 10, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Representative Action complaint in this Court 16 alleging claims individually and pursuant to PAGA on behalf of himself and Aggrieved Employees 17 alleging the claims in the LWDA Letter. Gaines Decl., ¶ 11.

18 On July 5, 2024, and after the LWDA declined to take action within the statutorily
19 permissible time with respect to Plaintiff's April 30, 2024 Supplemental LWDA Letter, Plaintiff 20 filed a First Amended Representative Action ("FAC") that added the claims, allegations, and 21 compliance with the April 30, 2024 Supplemental LWDA Letter. Gaines Decl., ¶ 12.

22 D. Plaintiff's Counsel's Investigation

23 Counsel for Plaintiff engaged in targeted, informal discovery of Defendant's alleged Labor 24 Code violations, which specifically evaluated the strength and value of the PAGA claims in 25 preparation for a resolution of this Action. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 13.

26 Plaintiff's Counsel obtained and reviewed (i) relevant policy documents relating to the 27 employment of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees; and (ii) excel payroll and time data relating to 28 the number of alleged violations, including the Aggrieved Employee size. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 14.

1 Based on the information received, as well as through discussions with Defendant's 2 Counsel, Plaintiff's Counsel was able to (i) determine the total number of distinct individuals falling 3 within the definition of "Aggrieved Employee" for the relevant statutory period and (ii) construct 4 a damage model that calculated the maximum amount of PAGA penalties that could be levied
5 against Defendant within the PAGA Release Period based on employee time and pay period data 6 produced by Defendant. At all relevant times, Defendant has disputed Plaintiff's claims and 7 contested both the existence of, and extent of liability as alleged by Plaintiff. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 15.

8 Plaintiff's Counsel's experience in litigating similar "representative" wage and hour claims, 9 the degree of investigation that was conducted here, the amount of data that was obtained, and the 10 discussions guided by mediation was sufficient to determine the potential value of the PAGA claim 11 and to evaluate the strength of this claim for purposes of settlement. Defendant, however, disputed 12 Plaintiff's claims and disputed both the existence of and extent of liability as alleged by Plaintiff.
13 Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 2-5, 16.

14 E. Settlement Negotiations

15 On March 6, 2025, the Parties participated in a mediation session with an experienced and 16 reputable retired jurist and wage and hour and PAGA action mediator, Brandon Coen, Esq. During 17 the mediation, the Parties engaged in arm's-length negotiations and reached a resolution of the 18 PAGA claims asserted in this Action with the assistance of Mr. Coen. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 17.

19 F. The Proposed Settlement

20 The Parties jointly prepared and executed a Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code § 21 2698 et seq.) Settlement Agreement (the "Settlement" or "Settlement Agreement"). Gaines Decl., 22 ¶ 18; Exhibit D. The Settlement Agreement sets forth the terms of the Settlement reached by the 23 Parties, including the following key points:

24 1. Defendant agrees to settle the PAGA matter for the payment of $150,000 25 (hereinafter the "PAGA Gross Settlement Amount," payable by Defendant (see Settlement at III.2), 26 which shall be all inclusive, encompassing (i) all payments to the LWDA and Aggrieved
27 Employees, (ii) any and all costs of third-party administration of the settlement, and (iii) Plaintiff's 28

1 Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs of suit.² See Settlement Agreement at I.6; Gaines Decl., ¶ 19.

2 2. The total sum available for payment of PAGA penalties shall be calculated by 3 deducting from the $150,000 PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, the projected $50,000 for the 4 payment of Plaintiff's Counsel's fees, $6,528.64 for the payment of Plaintiff's Counsel's costs, and 5 the costs of administration not to exceed $2,900, which yields $90,571.36, and of which seventy-6 five percent (75%) or $67,928.52, shall be distributed to the LWDA, and the remaining twenty-five 7 percent (25%) or $22,642.84, shall be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees. See Settlement 8 Agreement at III.2-5; Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 21-22.

9 3. All Aggrieved Employees will receive a pro rata share of the $22,642.84 allocated 10 to them, which shall be distributed based on the number of pay periods each Aggrieved Employee 11 worked for Defendant in California during the PAGA Release Period. See Settlement Agreement 12 at I.7. Although these calculations will not be made until after approval, a rough estimation of the 13 value to the approximately 115 individuals falling within the definition of "Aggrieved Employee" 14 may be gleaned from the fact that an equal division would provide about $196.89 to each Aggrieved 15 Employee, net of payments to the LWDA, the Settlement Administrator, and attorney's fees and 16 costs. The LWDA will be paid a substantial $67,928.52. See Gaines Decl., at ¶ 23.

17 4. In exchange for the above settlement consideration, Defendant and the Released 18 Parties shall be entitled to a limited release as follows:³

19 Upon the Effective Date, Plaintiff, as an individual, and as the 20 representative of the PAGA Settlement Employees, the LWDA and 21 the State of California, hereby forever and completely releases and discharges the Released Parties of and from all of the Released

22 ² By a separate agreement, the Confidential Settlement Agreement and Release of All Claims, the 23 Parties have resolved all of Plaintiff's individual termination-related claims through a 24 comprehensive general release in favor of Defendant. Plaintiff's Counsel is not to be paid any 25 attorney's fees or costs from the individual settlement. The separate individual settlement 26 agreement provide an amount, separate from the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, to resolve Plaintiff's individual claims against Defendant. It is not an amount that is part of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount to be approved. Gaines Decl., ¶ 20.

27 ³ This comports with settled California Supreme Court authority. See Arias v. Superior Court 28 (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969, 986 (concluding that "with respect to the recovery of civil penalties, nonparty employees as well as the government are bound by the judgment in an action brought under the act . . .").

1 Claims, and thus, Plaintiff, the PAGA Settlement Employees, 2 LWDA and the State of California will be forever barred from 3 pursuing any of the Released Claims defined herein against Released
4 Parties which arose during periods of employment in a non-exempt
5 position in California during the PAGA Period. The Parties
6 understand and agree that this release is limited to the Released 7 Claims and does not otherwise impact the individual rights or claims 8 of the PAGA Settlement Employees. In accordance with Arias v.
9 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 985, a judgment in “a 10 representative action brought by an aggrieved employee under the 11 Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 . . . is binding not 12 only on the named employee plaintiff but also on government 13 agencies and any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding,” 14 which the Final Order shall so reflect. Pursuant to Arias and 15 Cardenas v. McLane Foodservice, Inc., 796 F.Supp.2d 1246 (2011), the Final Order and judgment in this Action shall be binding on the PAGA Settlement Employees, LWDA, State of California and its agencies as to the Released Claims which arose during the PAGA Period, regardless of whether their settlement checks are cashed or not. The Parties further understand and agree that the continued effectiveness of this PAGA Release is contingent upon Defendant’s payment of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount. If Defendant defaults on any of its payment obligations under this Agreement, the PAGA Release set forth in this paragraph shall become ineffective until such default is cured in full.

16 See Settlement Agreement at § III.6.

17 5. Settlement administration, which is to be paid from the PAGA Gross Settlement 18 Amount, is projected to be $2,900. See Declaration of Lisa Mullins (“Mullins Decl.”), ¶ 6; Exhibit
19 C to Mullins Decl. ILYM Group, Inc., a reputable settlement administration company, has agreed 20 to administer the settlement for this amount, submitting a competitive bid. Mullins Decl. at ¶¶ 2-21 6; Exhibits A and B.

22 6. As detailed herein, Plaintiff’s counsel seeks an award of attorneys’ fees of $50,000 23 (33 1/3% of the gross settlement amount) and litigation costs projected to be $6,528.64. See 24 Settlement Agreement at III.4.a.

25 7. Finally, under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the value of checks 26 uncashed more than 180 days after issuance shall be remitted to the Unclaimed Property Fund of 27 the California State Controller’s Office to be held in the name of the Aggrieved Employee. See 28 Settlement Agreement at IV.4. Counsel for Plaintiff attests that his office regularly receives calls

1 from class members or aggrieved employees years after a case has settled to inquire about 2 obtaining their settlement share because they did not cash their check in time, lost their check, or 3 never received their check. By remitting the unclaimed checks to the State Controller, the 4 Aggrieved Employees have a chance to receive their individual settlement payment after the 5 check cashing deadline. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 24.

6 Cy pres, expanded to its “full implication,” is cy pres comme possible, which means “as 7 near as possible.” Estate of Jackson (1979) 92 Cal.App.3d 486, 489. Cy pres “is the doctrine that 8 equity will, when a charity is originally or later becomes impossible, inexpedient, or 9 impracticable of fulfillment, substitute another charitable object which is believed to approach 10 the original purpose as closely as possible.” Id. Here, the nearest possibility for the Aggrieved 11 Employees to obtain their recoveries is to allow the uncashed checks to be remitted to the 12 Unclaimed Property Fund of the California State Controller’s Office to be held in the name of 13 the Aggrieved Employee.

14 As required by Labor Code § 2699(1)(2), concurrent with Plaintiff’s submission of the 15 Settlement to the Court, his counsel is transmitting it, together with this Motion, to the LWDA.
16 Gaines Decl. at ¶ 40; Exhibit G to the Gaines Decl.

17 III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

18 A. Standards for Approval of a PAGA Settlement

19 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval pursuant to the operative PAGA 20 statute, which states that the “[t]he superior court shall review and approve any settlement of any 21 civil action filed pursuant to this part.” See Labor Code § 2699(s)(2).

22 As with any settlement, the Court must be mindful in conducting its inquiry that 23 “[s]ettlement is a compromise, which balances the possible recovery against the risks inherent in 24 litigating further.” See In re TD Ameritrade Account Holder Litig., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 103222, 25 24 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 12, 2011). Indeed, “the very essence of a settlement is ... ‘a yielding of 26 absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes’” [Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com., 688 27 F.2d 615, 624 (9th Cir., 1982)], as “it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance 28 of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements.” See id., at 625. As such,

1 “the settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or rehearsal for trial on the merits” 2 or “judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the 3 negotiators.” See id.

4 Although the operative PAGA statute does not set forth the criteria on which a PAGA
5 settlement is to be judged, California law does state that some of the factors for review of a class
6 action settlement under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 (“Rule 23”), C.C.P. §382 and Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7 3.769, may be “useful in evaluating the fairness of a PAGA settlement” to the reviewing court. See 8 Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal. App. 5th 56, 77 (“Thus, while PAGA does not require 9 the trial court to act as a fiduciary for aggrieved employees, adoption of a standard of review for 10 settlements that prevents ‘fraud, collusion or unfairness,’ and protects the interests of the public 11 and the LWDA in the enforcement of state labor laws is warranted. Because many of the factors 12 used to evaluate class action settlements bear on a settlement's fairness—including the strength of 13 the Plaintiff’s case, the risk, the stage of the proceeding, the complexity and likely duration of 14 further litigation, and the settlement amount—these factors can be useful in evaluating the fairness 15 of a PAGA settlement.”). Courts within California have continued to approve settlements of PAGA
16 claims using Rule 23 criteria.⁴ However, it is important to underscore that not all Rule 23 factors 17 can be applied, as “a PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis . . . is not considered 18 a class action but a law enforcement action, and therefore does not have to meet the requirements 19 of Rule 23.” See Casida v. Sears Holdings Corp., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9302, 8 (E.D. Cal. Jan.
20 25, 2012); Thomas v. Aetna Health of Cal., Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 59377 (E.D. Cal. June 2, 21 2011); Mendez v. Tween Brands, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 66454 (E.D. Cal. June 30, 2010).

22
23 ⁴ As held by the Ninth Circuit, evaluation of a class action settlement under Rule 23 “[involves] a 24 balancing of several factors which may include, among others, some or all of the following: [1] the 25 strength of Plaintiff’s case; [2] the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further 26 litigation; [3] the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; [4] the amount offered 27 in settlement; [5] the extent of discovery completed, and the stage of the proceedings; [6] the 28 experience and views of counsel; [7] the presence of a governmental participant; and [8] the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” See Linney v. Cellular Alaska P'ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th Cir., 1998). “Not all of these factors will apply to every class action settlement” and “[u]nder certain circumstances, one factor alone may prove determinative in finding sufficient grounds for court approval.” See Nat'l Rural Telcoms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 525-526 (C.D. Cal., 2004).

1 Based thereon, a court's review of a PAGA settlement necessarily implicates the following unique 2 features that render the approval process completely distinct from approval of a class action 3 settlement under Rule 23 or C.C.P. § 382 and Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769.

4 First, in evaluating the adequacy of the settlement amount, the Court's focus is not 5 concerned with the amount which "aggrieved employees" are to receive, but rather, must focus on 6 the total settlement amount in achieving PAGA's objective.

7 While "[a PAGA] action is ... designed to protect the public and penalize the employer for 8 past illegal conduct" [Mendez, supra, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 66454, at 11], a reviewing Court must 9 take into account the fact that settlement of a PAGA claim – like any settlement – involves a 10 "compromise" that stops short of rendering findings of liability and damages. Moreover, the Court 11 must not lose sight of the fact that "[u]nlike a class action seeking damages or injunctive relief for 12 injured employees, the purpose of PAGA is to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties 13 for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state 14 enforcement agencies." See Ochoa-Hernandez v. CJADER Foods, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15 32774, 12 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010).

16 B. The Settlement Meets All the Criteria For Approval

17 Applying the Rule 23 fairness factors – limited to those compatible with the unique PAGA 18 considerations detailed above – the proposed Settlement embodies all of the key features of a 19 settlement that is fair, reasonable, adequate, and as such, meets all the criteria necessary for 20 approval.

21 1. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist

22 In conducting a review of a settlement, it is generally recognized that an "agreement . . .
23 reached through arms-length negotiation between experienced parties . . . is entitled to a 24 presumption of fairness." See Anderson v. Nextel Retail Stores, LLC, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 25 43377, 44 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 12, 2010).

26 A presumption of fairness exists here, as the proposed Settlement (1) is the product of arms-27 length negotiations brokered through a respected third party neutral (Gaines Decl. at ¶ 17), (2) was 28 negotiated by Counsel with significant experience in similar wage and hour litigation (Gaines Decl.

1 at ¶¶ 2-5, 33-34 and Exhibit A), (3) occurred after Counsel had conducted sufficient investigation 2 to evaluate the strength and potential value of the PAGA claim, as well as evaluating the risks of 3 litigating this claim through trial. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 13-16, 28-29. Based thereon, the Court should 4 give considerable weight to the competency and integrity of counsel in assuring itself that the 5 Settlement Agreement represents an arms-length transaction entered without self-dealing or other 6 potential misconduct.

7 2. The Relative Strength Of The PAGA Claim, And the Realistic Range of 8 Outcomes In The Litigation, Strongly Favor Approval of the Settlement

9 The relative strength of the PAGA claim brought by Plaintiff weighs in favor of the Court 10 finding that the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as Defendant maintained numerous 11 defenses to the theories of penalty-liability put forward by Plaintiff that, if successful, had the 12 potential to completely eliminate any recovery.

13 This case addresses violations of important employee protections embodied in the 14 California Labor Code – namely, that Defendant (1) failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 15 Aggrieved Employees, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558, and 1194; 16 (2) failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods, or 17 compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 18 and 1194; (3) failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant rest 19 periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code § 226.7; (4) failed to issue
20 accurately itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, in violation of Labor 21 Code §§ 226(a) and 226.3; (5) failed to timely pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees all wages
22 due at the separation of their employment, in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-202. See Gaines 23 Decl. at ¶ 25.

24 Defendant’s realistic maximum theoretical exposure in this Action, without stacking 25 penalties, totals approximately $307,100 computed by multiplying 3,071 aggregate pay periods by 26 $100 each. There is no California authority that expressly permits the practice of counting multiple 27 violations/penalties that occur within the same pay period, known as “stacking” penalties.
28 Plaintiff’s Counsel is aware of no court that has actually stacked such PAGA penalties for multiple

1 violations (meaning the “market” for PAGA settlements is based on no stacking of penalties) and 2 given the circumstances of this case, it is unlikely that this Court would impose a massive penalty 3 by stacking the PAGA penalty claims against Defendant. Although stacking penalties is not 4 unlawful, the majority of cases that address awards of PAGA penalties focus on the court’s 5 discretion to reduce awards. See Romo v. GMRI, Inc., 2014 WL 11320647, at *7 (C.D. Cal. Feb.
6 18, 2014) (“The court retains discretion over awards under a PAGA claim”); Cardenas v.
7 McLane Foodservice, Inc., 2011 WL 379413, at *4 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 31, 2011) (“The PAGA text 8 also provides the Court with the discretion to limit the amount Plaintiff may recover from the 9 employer.”); Bright v. 99c Only Stores (2010) 189 Cal. App. 4th 1472, 1480 n.8 (“The trial court 10 has discretion to award less than the maximum amount of the civil penalty”). Based thereon, 11 the non-stacking/one penalty per pay period is an appropriate evaluation for maximum potential 12 exposure in this case. See Gaines Decl. at ¶ 26.

13 Additionally, the Ninth Circuit has held that heightened penalties are not appropriate where 14 the Defendant were not notified by the Labor Commissioner or any court that it was subject to the 15 California Labor Code. Bernstein v. Virgin Am., Inc., 3 F.4th 1127, 1144 (9th Cir. 2021). See also 16 Gunther v. Alaska Airlines, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 334, 340 (reversing heightened penalties 17 awarded by trial court for Labor Code § 226.3 because “the plain language of the statute [Labor 18 Code § 226.3] provides that heightened penalties apply only where the employer fails to provide 19 wage statements or fails to keep required records.”) Further, courts are often hesitant to award a 20 heightened penalty where there is no prior citation by the Labor Commissioner. See Bernstein, 21 supra, 3 F.4th at 1144. See also Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1209 22 (holding that “[u]ntil the employer has been notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision...the 23 employer cannot be presumed to be aware that its continuing underpayment of employee’s is a 24 violation subject to penalties.”) (internal quotations omitted). Defendant was not notified by the 25 Labor Commissioner or any court that it was subject to the California Labor Code, and has not been 26 previously cited by the Labor Commissioner for Labor Code violations. Therefore, any violations 27 prior to Plaintiff’s April 4, 2024 and April 30, 2024 LWDA letters are not subject to heightened 28 penalties. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 27. See also Naranja v. Spectrum Security Services (2024) 15 Cal.5th

1 1056 (holding that (1) an employer’s good faith, but mistaken, belief that it provided adequate wage 2 statements precluded an award of civil penalties for a knowing an intentional failure to provide 3 accurate wage statements; and (2) an employer’s reasonable, good faith basis for believing it was 4 complying with California wage and hour law precluded the employer from being held liable for 5 civil penalties).

6 Furthermore, Defendant contends it acted within the requirements of California law at all 7 times as to all Aggrieved Employees. In particular, Defendant contend that it paid all employees 8 all wages due. Defendant also contends that it maintains compliant meal and rest break practices.
9 Defendant further contends that not every pay period at issue involved an alleged Labor Code 10 violation subject to civil penalties. Moreover, Defendant maintained that even if the Court did 11 award penalties, the Court could and would substantially reduce the penalties awarded based on 12 the discretionary factors contained in Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) (“In any action by an aggrieved 13 employee . . . , a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount specified 14 by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would 15 result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.”). See Gaines Decl., ¶ 16 28.

17 Based on these disputes, which had the potential to completely eliminate Plaintiff’s 18 recovery, the range of realistic “litigation outcomes” on the Plaintiff’s PAGA claim was defined 19 by a “maximum possible liability” amount of approximately $307,100, and a net-zero recovery 20 based on the defenses asserted by Defendant. Notwithstanding the existence of such issues, the 21 Settlement achieves a significant benefit – approximately 49% recovery of the maximum possible
22 liability. As such, this factor weighs very heavily in favor of resolution by way of the compromise 23 set forth in the Settlement Agreement. Gaines Decl., ¶ 29.

24 3. The Risk, Expense, and Complexity of Further Litigation Balances
Strongly in Favor of Approval of the Settlement

25 Approval of the Settlement Agreement is also appropriate in light of the risk, expense, and 26 complexity of further litigation. As discussed above, the Settlement Agreement takes into 27 consideration the specific factual and legal hurdles faced by Plaintiff in establishing Defendant’s 28 penalty-liability in this case, which again, may have resulted in a net-zero recovery. Any recovery

1 on these claims is not certain. And even when liability is found, PAGA claims are discretionary, 2 such that the Court could decline to award their full value. Some of Plaintiff's claims are also 3 derivative, and as such, Plaintiff must prevail on their underlying Labor Code claims in order to 4 prevail on the derivative claims. These risks – when balanced with the fact that the settlement 5 achieved a very significant recovery (as demonstrated below), and that further litigation posed a 6 risk of diminishing such recovery by increasing litigation expenses – weigh strongly in favor of 7 settlement approval.

8 4. The Benefits Conferred by the Settlement Balance in Favor of Approval

9 The Settlement Agreement provides a significant monetary benefit that falls well within 10 “the range of an acceptable settlement” under the circumstances, which is the standard on which 11 the instant Settlement must be judged. As held by the Ninth Circuit, a settlement may be fair and 12 reasonable even where it only provides a fraction of what could have been obtained at trial:

13 The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or 14 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the 15 negotiators.” Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d at 16 625 (emphasis in original). Thus, “the very essence of a settlement is 17 compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest 18 hopes.’” Id. at 624 (citations omitted). As the Second Circuit has 19 pointed out: “The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount 20 to a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and of itself, mean 21 that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be 22 disapproved.” City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448, 455 & 23 n.2 (2nd Cir. 1974).

24 See Linney, supra, 151 F.3d at 1242.

25 Here, after all deductions are made for administration and attorneys’ fees and costs, 26 approximately $90,571.36 will be paid out, of which $67,928.52 (i.e. 75%) will go to the LWDA, 27 and $22,642.84 (i.e. 25%) will go to the Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 2699(i) 28 (“civil penalties recovered by aggrieved employees shall be distributed as follows: 75 percent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency . . . and 25 percent to the aggrieved employees.”).
Gaines Decl., ¶ 21; See Settlement Agreement at III.4.

This result is exceptional, as settlements of PAGA claims impacting thousands of individuals have been approved as reasonable for amounts far less than the payment in this case.

1 See e.g., Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 41-42 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2 2012) (“Defendant has agreed to pay $10,000 as civil penalties pursuant to the PAGA . . . Of the 3 $10,000, 75 percent ($7,500) will be paid to the State of California, and the remainder ($2,500) will 4 benefit the class . . . The Court finds that the PAGA payment is set at a reasonable amount, and it 5 shall be approved.”); Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, 21-22 (E.D.
6 Cal. Oct. 29, 2012) (“GTI agrees to allocate $10,000 to Plaintiff’s PAGA claims, and will pay
7 $7,500 to the LWDA, and $2,500 to participating Class Members on a pro-rata basis. This comports 8 with settlement approval of PAGA awards in other cases. . . Therefore, the Court will approve the 9 allocation of the Settlement to Plaintiff’s PAGA claim.”); Schiller v. David’s Bridal, Inc., 2012 10 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80776, 40 (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) (“Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the 11 parties have agreed to pay $7,500 to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency . .
12 . . The Court finds that the PAGA Payment is set at a reasonable amount, and recommends that it 13 be approved.”); Gong-Chun v. Aetna Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 96828, 45-46 (E.D. Cal. July 11, 14 2012) (“Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay $15,000 to the 15 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency The Court finds that the PAGA 16 payment is set at a reasonable amount, and it shall be approved.”).⁵

17 Thus, notwithstanding the existence of issues having the potential to completely eliminate 18 recovery on the PAGA claim, the Settlement Agreement not only achieves a recovery that exceeds 19 typical PAGA awards routinely approved by the courts, but it also recovers monies for Aggrieved 20 Employees which they otherwise would not receive. As such, this factor balances strongly in favor 21 of approval of the Settlement.

22 5. The Scope of the Release is Narrowly Tailored 23 As discussed above, the California Supreme Court has concluded that in the context of 24 PAGA “the nonparty employees, because they were not given notice of the action or afforded any 25

26 ⁵ Significantly, each of the above-cited actions involved a higher number of “aggrieved employees” 27 than at issue here. See Franco, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 14 (“2,055 Class Members were ultimately identified”); Garcia, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, at 12 (class comprised of 28 “approximately 1,869 individuals”); Schiller, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80776, 16 (“3,327 California
Class members were ultimately identified”); Gong-Chun, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 96828, 18 (“2,051 California Class Members were ultimately identified”).

1 opportunity to be heard, would not be bound by the judgment as to remedies other than civil 2 penalties.” See Arias, 46 Cal. 4th, at 987. Thus, the scope of the limited release provided in 3 exchange for the foregoing consideration is limited to the civil penalties asserted in the Action 4 under Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. See Settlement Agreement at III.5.

5 6. The Experience and Views of Plaintiff’s Counsel Favor Approval of the 6 Settlement

7 Plaintiff’s Counsel has a significant degree of experience in complex wage and hour
8 litigation. See Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 2-5, 33-35, Gaines Decl. at Exhibit A. In the view of Plaintiff’s 9 Counsel, the benefit conferred by the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate under 10 the circumstances, as it reflects a reasoned compromise which takes into consideration the risks
11 inherent in this case, which had the potential to completely eliminate recovery. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 12 13-17, 25-29, 34. As such, this factor balances in favor of approval of the Settlement.

13 7. The Extent of Discovery Completed And The Stage Of The Proceedings
14 Favor Approval of the Settlement

15 In evaluating this element, the Court should be mindful that “formal discovery is not a 16 necessary ticket to the bargaining table” (Linney, supra, 151 F.3d at 1239), as the relevant 17 consideration is “whether ‘the parties have sufficient information to make an informed decision 18 about settlement.’” See Sandoval v. Roadlink United States Pac., Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19 130378, at 26 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 9, 2011).

20 Here, the extent of discovery conducted was sufficient to enable Plaintiff’s Counsel to 21 evaluate the strength and value of the claim for purposes of settlement. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 13-17.
22 As discussed above, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s investigation was sufficient to, among other things, 23 tabulate with precision the maximum number of alleged PAGA penalty violations at issue during 24 the PAGA Release Period and identify the total number of individuals falling within the definition 25 of “Aggrieved Employee” for the PAGA Release Period.

26 Based on Plaintiff’s Counsel’s experience litigating wage and hour claims, such 27 investigation was sufficient to determine the potential value of the PAGA claim, and to evaluate 28 the strength of this claim for purposes of settlement. See Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 2-5; 13-17, 25-29.

1 8. Additional Factors Weigh In Favor Of Finding The Terms Of The Proposed 2 Settlement To Be Fair, Adequate, And Reasonable

3 In addition to the factors presented above, the proposed Settlement does not possess any 4 obvious deficiencies. The Settlement contemplates entry of an Order (submitted concurrently 5 herewith) which approves the Settlement and dismisses the Action with prejudice. Section III.8
6 and V.9 of the Settlement Agreement and paragraph 8 of the Proposed Order authorize the Court 7 to retain jurisdiction to enforce the Settlement Agreement. This procedure effectively disposes of 8 the Action in its entirety, documents the Court's approval of the Settlement as required by PAGA, 9 and allows for Court intervention if necessary to enforce the terms of the Settlement Agreement.
10 In sum, under the applicable standards for approval of PAGA settlements in California, the 11 settlement in this case meets the standards for approval.

12 IV. PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL IS ENTITLED TO RECOVER THEIR 13 REASONABLE FEES AND COSTS

14 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, Plaintiff's Counsel seeks attorneys' fees of one-15 third (33-1/3%) of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount (projected to be $50,000) and 16 reimbursement of litigation costs in the amount of $6,528.64, falling within the bounds authorized 17 by the Settlement Agreement. See Settlement Agreement at III.4.a. Plaintiff's Counsel's entitlement 18 to an award of attorneys' fees and costs is warranted on multiple independent grounds. Further, 19 the amount of fees requested falls well within the range of reasonableness under applicable 20 standards, as the amount requested constitutes a "percentage of the fund" deemed reasonable in 21 similar wage and hour settlements of this size and approved by California courts, which is not only 22 warranted based on the contingency risk Plaintiff's Counsel has agreed to incur for the benefit of 23 the State of California and Aggrieved Employees, but also based on the significant results achieved, 24 as the Settlement obtains a recovery substantially above the range approved as reasonable by 25 California state and federal courts. Based thereon, Plaintiff's Counsel respectfully requests that the 26 Court enter an order approving the fee and cost amounts requested.

27 A. Plaintiff's Counsel Is Entitled To Recover Their Reasonable Fees And 28 Costs As A Matter Of Right

 Plaintiff's Counsel is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs under the "common fund" doctrines as a matter of right. As held by the U.S. Supreme Court, "a lawyer who recovers a common

1 fund for the benefit of persons other than herself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's 2 fee from the fund as a whole." See Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert (1980) 444 U.S. 472, 478.

3 Courts have long recognized the "common fund" or "common benefit" doctrine, under 4 which attorneys who create a common fund or benefit for a group of persons may be awarded their 5 fees and costs to be paid out of the fund. Serrano v. Priest ("Serrano I") (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 6 quoting D'Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees'
7 Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995)
8 15 Cal.3d 162, 167; see also Boeing Co., supra, 444 U.S. at 478; Mills v. Electric Auto-Lite Co.
9 (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392.

10 The California Supreme Court has held that, "when a number of persons are entitled in 11 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a Plaintiff or Plaintiff for the benefit of all 12 results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such Plaintiff or Plaintiff may be awarded 13 attorneys' fees out of the fund." Serrano I, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D'Amico, 11 Cal.3d 1; 14 see also Boeing, supra, 444 U.S. at 478 ("[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit 15 of persons other than herself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee from the fund as 16 a whole."); Mills, supra, 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common 17 fund approach in class actions). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter 18 Group) at § 17:172.3 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

19 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property
20 benefiting others as well as Plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court 21 has inherent equitable power to order Plaintiff's attorney fees paid 22 out of the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

23 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees 24 in traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a "certain or 25 easily calculable sum of money," use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate. Serrano 26 I, 20 Cal. 3d at 35.

27 In Glendale City Employees' Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 28 fn.19, the California Supreme Court upheld an attorney's fee award based on a percentage of the 1 common benefit obtained in a lawsuit by a city employee's association for retroactive wages:

2 It is not necessary to find this suit a proper class action in order to 3 uphold the portion of the judgment awarding counsel for Plaintiff 25
4 percent of all retroactive salaries and wages received. That award 5 may be sustained under the rule that a litigant who creates a fund in 6 which others enjoy beneficial rights may require those beneficiaries 7 to pay their fair share of the expense of litigation. (See Sprague v.
8 Ticonic National Bank (1939) 307 U.S. 161, 159; Estate of Stauffer 9 (1959) 53 Cal.2d 124, 132).

10 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court 11 stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which 12 others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation 13 costs." Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, 14 the California Supreme Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied 15 "consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other 16 persons are entitled to share."

17 Numerous appellate courts have ruled similarly. See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 18 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a "contingent percentage" award of 19 attorneys' fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court's broad equitable 20 powers); Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 11 Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys' fees and 21 expenses properly awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); 22 Bank of America v. Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit 23 created by action compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts); Parker v. Los Angeles (1974) 24 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 567-568 (court upheld fee award equal to one-third of the damages to owners 25 of residential property in an inverse condemnation action).

26 Moreover, at least eight federal courts of appeal—the First, Third, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, 27 Tenth, Eleventh and the D.C. Circuit—have endorsed the "percentage fee" method for determining 28 reasonable attorneys' fees in common benefit cases. See e.g., In re Sumitomo Copper Litig. 74 F.
Supp. 2d 393, 396-398 (S.D.N.Y. 1999) (describing the overwhelming weight of federal authority in favor of the percentage fee method); see also, Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 30-31 (describing same).

Thus, as Plaintiff's Counsel has expended a significant amount of time and money to secure 1 a $87,000 settlement fund for the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees [Schiller, 2012 U.S. Dist.

2 LEXIS 80776, at 43 (“A common fund results when ‘the activities of the party awarded fees have 3 resulted in the preservation or recovery of a certain or easily calculable sum of money-out of which 4 sum or ‘fund’ the fees are to be paid.”)], and in doing so, has exclusively borne the risk of loss for 5 such expenditures of time and expenses (as the LWDA elected not to take the case after receiving 6 the PAGA Notice), Plaintiff’s Counsel is entitled to claim reasonable fees from that fund under 7 applicable precedent.⁶

8 B. The Fee Amount Requested Is Reasonable

9 In addition to the forgoing, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees in the amount 10 of one-third (33-1/3%) of the $150,000 PAGA Gross Settlement Amount falls well within the “zone 11 of reasonableness.” It is important to highlight at the outset that the fee amount presently sought is 12 not extraordinary, but actually falls at the “average” fee deemed reasonable under California State 13 court authority, as it is recognized that “courts may award attorney’s fees in the 30-40% range in 14 wage and hour class actions that result in recovery of a common fund under $10 million.” See e.g., 15 Martin v. AmeriPride Servs., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, 23 (S.D. Cal. June 9, 2011). This fee 16 falls directly within that range.

17 Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel agreed to incur the contingency risk for the benefit of the 18 State of California (which elected not to take the case after receiving the PAGA Notices). Gaines 19 Decl., ¶¶ 30-37. The significant results achieved, and the underlying facts therefrom, justify 20 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s requested fee as reasonable under all applicable standards.

21 ///

23 ⁶ Plaintiff’s Counsel is also entitled to recover attorney’s fees and costs as a matter of right under 24 the PAGA statute [Labor Code § 2699(g)(1) (“Any employee who prevails in any action shall be 25 entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”)], and under C.C.P. § 1021.5, as the 26 instant PAGA action was by definition “for the public benefit” and secured monetary awards for 27 approximately 300 aggrieved employees. See e.g. Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package System, Inc.
28 (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17 (2007) (“Estrada’s personal motivation does not diminish the fact that he pursued this public interest class action not only for himself but on behalf of a class comprised of FedEx’s past and present drivers and ultimately obtained awards for 209 drivers. []
No more is required to satisfy the ‘significant benefit,’ ‘public interest,’ and ‘large class of persons’ requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.”).

2 C. The Fee Amount Allocated by The Settlement Agreement Is Within the 3 Zone of Reasonableness Under the “Percentage of the Fund” Method

4 The amount of fees requested by Plaintiff’s Counsel is reasonable based on standards 5 applicable to the “percentage of the fund” method. “When assessing whether the percentage 6 requested is reasonable, courts look to factors such as: (a) the results achieved; (b) the risk of 7 litigation; (c) the skill required, (d) the quality of work; (e) the contingent nature of the fee and the 8 financial burden; and (f) the awards made in similar cases.” See Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, 9 Inc., 266 F.R.D. 482, 492 (E.D. Cal. 2010).

10 First, the results achieved by Plaintiff’s Counsel are significant as Defendant have agreed 11 to pay $150,000 under the Settlement. This is a significant recovery given the risks associated with 12 obtaining any recoverable penalties. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 13-17, 25-37. Further, the settlement of 13 PAGA claims impacting a comparable number of individuals have been approved as reasonable for 14 between $7,500.00 and $15,000.00. See Section III.B.4., supra.

15 Second, such results were achieved in the face of significant risks. As explained above, 16 Defendant maintained defenses to Plaintiff’s PAGA claims that very well could have resulted in a 17 net-zero recovery at trial.

18 Third, notwithstanding this risk of loss, Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook representation of the 19 instant PAGA claim for the benefit of the State of California on a contingency basis. See Gaines
20 Decl. at ¶¶ 33-34. This required Plaintiff’s Counsel to personally assume the risk of nonpayment 21 in securing the substantial financial benefit the State of California stands to receive, and also 22 constitutes a “loan” on Plaintiff’s Counsel services – both of which are factors that warrant fee 23 enhancement under applicable California Supreme Court authority:

24 One of the most common fee enhancers . . . is for contingency risk.
25 We reaffirmed the propriety of a contingency risk enhancement in 26 Ketchum: “The economic rationale for fee enhancement in 27 contingency cases has been explained as follows: ‘A contingent fee 28 must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. The implicit interest rate on such a loan is higher because the risk of default (the loss of the case, which cancels the debt of the client to the lawyer) is much higher than that of conventional loans.’ (Posner,

Economic Analysis of Law (4th ed. 1992) pp. 534, 567.) ‘A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.’”

Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 579-580.

Finally, the percentage requested by Plaintiff’s Counsel falls within a typical range, particularly in light of the modest settlement size. Martin, supra, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, 23 (“[C]ourts may award attorney’s fees in the 30-40% range in wage and hour class actions that result in recovery of a common fund under $10 million.” See also Crandall v. U-Haul International, Inc., LASC Case No. BC178775 (awarding attorneys’ fees of 40% of a common fund).

Attorneys’ fee awards in the amount sought here are well-established by California law and practice. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fee request is fair and reasonable, and is consistent with the awards in California and the Ninth Circuit. It is also reasonable given the history of this action and the results obtained.

D. While the Requested Award of Attorneys’ Fees is Reasonable as a Percentage of the Common Fund, It is Further Confirmed by a Lodestar Cross-Check

The California Supreme Court confirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 506, that “[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases.” Specifically, the Laffitte Court held:

The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

Id. at 503 (internal citation omitted); see also e.g., Serrano I, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34 (“when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a Plaintiff or Plaintiff for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such Plaintiff or Plaintiff may be awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.”); Serrano v. Unruh (1982) 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (in awarding a fee from the common fund obtained for the benefit of all parties, the trial court acts within its equitable power to prevent the other parties’ unjust enrichment.); Rawlings v. Prudential-Bache Properties, Inc., 9 F.3d 513, 516 (6th Cir. 1993) (the percentage of the fund method for

1 calculating attorneys' fees more accurately reflects the results achieved for the putative class than 2 the lodestar method and "establishes reasonable expectations on the part of Plaintiff's attorneys as 3 to their expected recovery; and it encourages early settlement, which avoids protracted litigation."); 4 In re Rite Aid Corp. Securities Litigation, 396 F.3d 294, 300 (3d Cir. 2005) ("The percentage-of-5 recovery method is generally favored in common fund cases because it allows courts to award fees 6 from the fund 'in a manner that rewards counsel for success and penalizes it for failure.'").

7 Laffitte also held that trial courts have discretion to assess reasonableness of fee awards with 8 tools such as the "lodestar cross-check," whereby the trial court calculates class counsel's lodestar 9 (hours worked multiplied by hourly rate) and determines whether the "lodestar multiplier" needed
10 to bring the lodestar on par with the percentage of recovery is reasonable. Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 11 at 503-06. While a trial court may utilize the lodestar cross-check, it need not do so. Id. at 506 12 ("[w]e hold further that trial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage 13 fee, as the court did here; they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other 14 means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee.")

15 Here, Plaintiff's Counsel's fee request of one-third (33-1/3%) of the PAGA Gross 16 Settlement Amount is fair and reasonable based on a percentage of the recovery, and as well as 17 when confirmed with a lodestar cross-check. First, "regardless whether the percentage method or 18 the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery."
19 Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, fn. 11. This is also consistent with Plaintiff's 20 Counsel's experience in similar wage and hour class action matters. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 2-5; 33-37.
21 Thus, the percentage sought by Plaintiff's Counsel here is reasonable.

22 Next, as stated, under the lodestar method the court computes the "lodestar" amount by 23 multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by 24 their reasonable hourly rates. See, e.g., Serrano I, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48. The court then enhances 25 this lodestar figure by a "multiplier" to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty and 26 difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of success achieved. Id. at 49; Ketchum
27 v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36; Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank (2001) 92 Cal.App.4th 819, 28 834 ("There is no hard-and-fast rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of judicial 1 discretion to increase or decrease a lodestar calculation”).

2 Under California law, lodestar multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher. See, e.g., 3 Chavez, supra, 162 Cal.App.4th at 49-50 (approving multiplier of approximately 2.5); City of 4 Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78 (approving multiplier of ~2.34); Coalition
5 for L. County Planning etc. Interest v. Bd. of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (approving 6 multiplier of ~2.04). In representative actions such as this one, where the value of the benefit 7 conferred to the class “can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty,” a court may “adjust 8 the lodestar in comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is 9 reasonable and within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable 10 litigation.” Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557. In doing so, “the court 11 determines, retrospectively, whether the litigation involved a contingent risk or required 12 extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate 13 the fair market for such services.” Id. at 556; see also Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 503-05.

14 In this case, Plaintiff’s Counsel is submitting an attorney fee request equaling $50,000.
15 Based on a projected final lodestar of $52,990, this yields a “multiplier” of approximately 1.06 over 16 the $50,000 fee request. Gaines Decl., ¶ 30; Exhibit E to Gaines Decl. The billing rate used to 17 compute the lodestar are reasonable in view of the evidence submitted herewith. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 18 2-5; 30-37; Exhibit E.

19 Plaintiff’s Counsel is sharing Attorney’s fees with two separate firms as follows: 66 2/3% 20 to Gaines Law Corporation; 16 2/3% to Gaines & Gaines, APLC, and 16 2/3% to Law Offices of 21 Alex P. Katofsky, APC. Gaines Decl., ¶ 38.

22 Based thereon, and for the reasons discussed above (the significant risk in continuing to 23 litigate this matter and in seeking to obtain penalties based on the claims asserted; the risks and 24 burden involved in representation on a contingency basis; the knowledge and experience of 25 Plaintiff’s Counsel; and the value obtained by Plaintiff’s Counsel for the Aggrieved Employees), it 26 is fair and reasonable to account for these risks and compensate Plaintiff’s Counsel with a fee award 27 of one-third of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, projected to be $50,000.

28 ///

1 E. Plaintiff's Counsel's Request for Costs is Reasonable

2 In the course of this litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel incurred out-of-pocket costs of $6,528.64.
3 See Gaines Decl. at ¶ 39, Exhibit F. As demonstrated in the Gaines Declaration submitted herewith, 4 the incurred costs included filing fees, future costs, postage, and mediation fees. Id. Such costs 5 are appropriate for cost reimbursement in these types of cases. See e.g., In re United Energy Corp.
6 Sec. Litig. (C.D. Cal. 1989) 1989 WL 7321 1, *6 (C.D. Cal. 1989) (quoting Newberg, Attorney Fee
7 Awards, § 2.19 (1987)); see also, In re GNC Shareholder Litigation 668 F.Supp. 450, 452 (W.D.
8 Pa. 1987).

9 The costs incurred by Plaintiff's Counsel in this litigation benefited Plaintiff, Aggrieved 10 Employees, and the State. Plaintiff's cost request is reasonable and represents the costs that 11 Plaintiff's Counsel was required to incur to prosecute this action and should therefore be granted.

12 V. CONCLUSION

13 As shown herein, the Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate and reasonable, as it represents 14 a reasoned compromise obtained through arms-length negotiations. For all the reasons set forth 15 above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court, as set forth in the proposed Order Approving 16 Settlement, do the following:

- 17 1. Grant approval of the Settlement Agreement, pursuant to California Labor Code § 18 2699, subparts;
- 19 2. Appoint ILYM Group Inc. as the Settlement Administrator and approve its 20 administration fees up to $2,900 for payment out of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount;
- 21 3. Approve the award of attorneys' fees of one-third of the PAGA Gross Settlement 22 Amount (projected to be $50,000), and costs of $6,528.64, to Plaintiff's Counsel, payment of which 23 shall come from the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount;
- 24 4. Direct disbursement of the Net Settlement Fund to the LWDA and all Aggrieved 25 Employees as provided for in the Settlement Agreement; and
- 26 5. Dismiss the Action with prejudice, subject to the Court's retention of jurisdiction 27 pursuant to California Labor Code, including Code of Civil Procedure § 664.6 and California Rules 28 of Court 3.769(h).
