1 TO THE COURT, DEFENDANTS, AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on August 27, 2025, at 11:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as 3 the matter may be heard in Department 6 at Spring Street Courthouse of the Superior Court for the 4 County of Los Angeles located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012, Plaintiff 5 Vicenta Emilia Barajas (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of herself and other similarly situated employees of 6 Defendant The Alfred E. Mann Foundation for Scientific Research, d/b/a huMannity Medtec 7 (“Defendant” or “huMannity”) (Plaintiff and Defendant are collectively referred to herein as “the 8 Parties”) will and hereby does move this Court for entry of an order: (1) approving the 9 representative action settlement embodied in the Parties’ PAGA Settlement Agreement 10 (“Settlement Agreement”); (2) approving PAGA Counsel’s application for attorney’s fees and 11 litigation costs and costs for the Administrator; and (3) entering judgment approving the Settlement 12 Agreement (the “Motion”).

13 The grounds for this Motion, as set forth in the attached Memorandum of Points and 14 Authorities and supporting Declarations, are that the settlement is fair and reasonable, benefits the 15 Aggrieved Employees and the State, and was the product of informed, non-collusive negotiations 16 by the parties who were represented by experienced and able counsel. See Wershba v. Apple

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Through this Motion, plaintiff Vicenta Emilia Barajas (“Plaintiff”) requests that the Court
4 grant approval of the parties’ PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement 5 Agreement”) reached between Plaintiff and defendant The Alfred E. Mann Foundation for Scientific 6 Research, d/b/a huMannity Medtec (“Defendant” or “huMannity”) (Plaintiff and Defendant 7 collectively referred to herein as “the Parties”) to resolve claims brought under the Private Attorneys 8 General Act of 2004, Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) seeking civil penalties for various 9 violations of the California Labor Code and Industrial Wage Commission’s Wage Orders. The 10 Parties’ PAGA Settlement Agreement is attached to the concurrently filed Declaration of Marta 11 Manus (“Manus Decl.”), as Exhibit 1.

12 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of 13 $100,000.00 (“Gross Settlement Amount”). (Manus Decl., Exhibit 1, ¶ 1.11.) The Settlement applies 14 to all “Aggrieved Employees,” defined as all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant 15 within the State of California from April 17, 2023, through May 11, 2025 (the “PAGA Period”).
16 (Manus Decl., ¶ 14, Exhibit 1, ¶¶ 1.5.)

17 As further explained below, Plaintiff and her counsel (“PAGA Counsel”) believe that the 18 Settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the State and the Aggrieved Employees.
19 Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court “review and approve” the Settlement pursuant to Labor 20 Code § 2699(1)(2). If the Court deems the Settlement fair and acceptable, Plaintiff requests that the 21 Court enter an order approving the Settlement in the form lodged herewith and ordering the Parties 22 and Administrator to carry out the terms of the Settlement Agreement and enter a Final Judgment 23 thereon.¹

25
26
27
28 ¹ Plaintiff has submitted the Settlement and this Motion to the LWDA by uploading it on the LWDA’s website concurrently with the filing of this Motion as required by Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). (Manus Decl., ¶ 44, Exhibit 5.)

II. RELEVANT BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. Litigation Overview and Procedural History

On April 16, 2024, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes of action against Defendant for: 1) failure to pay minimum wages for all hours worked; 2) failure to pay wages and overtime under Labor Code § 510; 3) meal period liability, Labor Code § 226.7; 4) rest break liability, Labor Code § 226.7; 5) violation of Labor Code § 226(a); 6) violation of Labor Code § 221; 7) Violation of Labor Code § 204; 8) violation of Labor Code § 203; 9) failure to maintain records required under Labor Code §§ 1174, 1174.5 and 10) violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. (“the Action”). (Manus Decl., ¶ 4.)

On April 16, 2024, Plaintiff filed a claim online with the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1) and gave notice to Defendant. (“PAGA Notice”). (Id. at ¶ 5.) The PAGA Notice sought civil penalties for the alleged violations of the Labor Code alleged in the Action. The PAGA Notice is attached to the Declaration of Marta Manus as Exhibit 2. The LWDA did not respond to the PAGA Notice and did not notify Plaintiff that it intended to investigate Plaintiff’s allegations. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

On June 20, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended alleging an eleventh cause of action for civil penalties under the PAGA, Labor Code § 2698, et seq. The First Amended Complaint is the operative complaint in the Action (the “Operative Complaint”). (Id. at ¶ 6.) On August 7, 2024, the Parties filed with the Court a stipulation in which Plaintiff agreed to dismiss causes of action one through ten of the Operative Complaint. Therefore, the only remaining cause of action in the Operative Complaint is for civil penalties under the PAGA. (Id.)

B. Mediation and Settlement

The Parties met and conferred about the claims and issues in this case, including the existence of an arbitration agreement between the Parties, and agreed to explore the resolution of the representative component of the case through mediation with a highly respected mediator. On March 27, 2025, the Parties mediated this matter before Todd A. Smith, a well-respected employment law mediator. (Manus Decl., ¶ 7.)

1 Prior to mediation, Defendant provided data, numbers, and documents, including job
2 descriptions for positions the Aggrieved Employees held, various iterations of Defendant's employee 3 handbooks and onboarding documents provided to the Aggrieved Employees on their first day, such 4 as Defendant's wage and hour policies. Defendant produced timekeeping records and corresponding 5 payroll data for all non-exempt employees from April 17, 2023, through January 12, 2025, applicable 6 arbitration agreement(s), as well as information relating to the number of Aggrieved Employees and 7 PAGA Pay Periods. (Manus Decl., ¶ 9.) The information and data exchanged by Plaintiff and 8 Defendant prior to and during mediation and settlement negotiations were sufficient to reliably assess 9 the merits of the Parties' respective positions, to compromise the issues on a fair and equitable basis, 10 and to devise a formula for distribution of civil penalties among the Aggrieved Employees that took 11 into consideration the strength of the PAGA claims. (Id. at ¶ 10.)

12 During mediation, the Parties exchanged further information and discussed all aspects of 13 the case, including Plaintiff's claims, Defendant's defenses, procedural challenges in the case, and 14 the prospects of further litigation. (Id. at ¶ 11.) The Parties recognized that the issues presented in 15 the Action are likely only to be resolved with extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings 16 and that further litigation would lead to inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense 17 disproportionate to the potential benefits of litigation. (Id.) The Parties took into account the risk 18 and uncertainty of the outcome inherent in representative actions such as this one. (Id.) With the 19 assistance of a highly respected wage and hour mediator, the Parties agreed to the general terms 20 for settling this Action and negotiated and executed the long-form Settlement Agreement now 21 before the Court for approval. (Manus Decl., ¶ 12.)

22 The Parties believe and agree that the Settlement provides for a fair, adequate, and reasonable 23 resolution of the Action, and the Parties arrived at the Settlement after extensive, arm's-length 24 negotiations. (Manus Decl., ¶ 13.) PAGA Counsel believes that the Settlement confers real benefits 25 upon the State and the Aggrieved Employees and that an independent review of the Settlement by the 26 Court in the approval process will confirm this conclusion. (Id.)

27 ///

1 III. PAGA ACTIONS AND THE REQUIREMENTS

2 A. The PAGA Statutory Scheme

3 PAGA creates a means of “deputizing” citizens as private attorneys general to enforce the 4 Labor Code on behalf of the LWDA. Brown v. Ralphs Grocery Co. (2011) 197 Cal. App. 4th 489, 5 501, review den. (Oct. 19, 2011, No. S195850), cert. denied 132 S.Ct. 1910 (Apr. 16, 2012). A 6 plaintiff may not — and Plaintiff here does not — bring a PAGA claim simply on his or her own 7 behalf as an individual claim, but “as the proxy or agent of the state’s labor law enforcement 8 agencies.” Id., at 986; see also Reyes v. Macy’s, Inc. (2011) 202 Cal. App. 4th 1119, 1123-1124; 9 Iskanian v. CLS Transp. Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, 380. When an aggrieved employee 10 brings a PAGA claim, “the government is always the real party in interest.” Securitas Sec. Servs.
11 USA, Inc. v. Sup. Ct. of San Diego Cnty. (2015) 234 Cal. App. 4th 1109, 1119; Montano v. The Wet 12 Seal Retail, Inc. (2015) 232 Cal. App. 4th 1214, 1222 (“[A] PAGA action is a dispute between an 13 employer and the State agency.”) Accordingly, a plaintiff that brings a PAGA claim represents “the 14 same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement agencies,” in that the plaintiff seeks to 15 recover those civil penalties that the LWDA otherwise would assess and collect. Arias v. Super. Ct.
16 (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 986; Labor Code § 2699(a) & (f); Securitas, supra, 234 Cal. App. 4th at 1119; 17 see also Medina v. Vander Poel (E.D. Cal. 2015) 523 B.R. 820, 825 (holding “PAGA plaintiffs do 18 not have property rights in their cases.”), and Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v.
19 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 993, 1003.

20 Therefore, when a plaintiff brings a PAGA claim, he or she is properly viewed as a private 21 attorney general prosecuting violations of California’s labor laws on behalf of the state. An employee 22 may commence a PAGA action by fulfilling the requirements of California Labor Code § 23 2699.3(a)(1), which simply states: “The aggrieved employee or representative shall give written 24 notice by certified mail to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and the employer of the 25 specific provisions of this code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 26 support the alleged violation.” Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1). As explained above, Plaintiff complied 27 with the notice requirements and properly pled a PAGA claim. (Manus Decl., ¶ 5.)

1 B. The Court Has Discretion When Awarding the Amount of Penalties.

2 PAGA provides for penalties in the amount of $100 for each violation per aggrieved employee 3 per pay period for the initial violation and $200 for each violation per aggrieved employee per pay 4 period for each subsequent violation. Labor Code § 2699(f)(2). “PAGA penalties...are mandatory, 5 not discretionary” and must be awarded upon a showing that defendants violated the Labor Code.
6 Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1213. However, PAGA provides the 7 Court with discretion when it finds liability and awards these penalties as part of a judgment. Labor 8 Code § 2699(e)(2) states that “a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty 9 amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do 10 otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.”

11 C. PAGA Authorizes the Payment of PAGA Counsel’s Fees and Costs

12 PAGA provides for the recovery of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs. Labor Code § 13 2699(g)(1) (“Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable 14 attorney’s fees and costs, including any filing fee paid...”). The monetary settlement and 15 programmatic relief make Plaintiff a “prevailing party.” Folsom v. Butte County Ass’n of Gov’ts 16 (1982) 32 Cal. 3d 668,671; Santisas v. Goodin (1998) 17 Cal.4th 599, 621. Even if Labor Code § 17 2699(g)(1) did not authorize fees, Plaintiff would be entitled to fees as a Private Attorney General 18 under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 because Plaintiff brought this action to, and the action does, 19 benefit the public. Arias, 46 Cal.4th at 985–986.

20 IV. THE SETTLEMENT

21 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay the Gross Settlement Amount of 22 $100,000.00 on a non-reversionary basis. (Manus Decl., ¶ 16, Exhibit 1, ¶ 9.)

23 Pending Court approval, the Gross Settlement Amount will be allocated as follows: (1) 24 attorneys’ fees of one third of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is $33,333.33 (“PAGA Counsel 25 Fees Payment”); (2) actual litigation costs incurred in this matter in the amount of $16,920.11 26 (“PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment”), which is less than the $25,000 “not-to-exceed” 27 amount allocated in the Settlement Agreement; and (3) settlement administration cost payment of up 28

1 to $2,500.00 to be paid to the Administrator, Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions 2 (“Phoenix”), for sending notices and for calculating settlement shares and preparing all checks and 3 mailings (“Administrator Expenses Payment”). (Manus Decl., ¶ 16.) The remaining settlement
4 amount of $47,246.56 (“Net Settlement Amount”) is designated as the PAGA Settlement Payment
5 under the Settlement Agreement, with 75% ($35,434.92) allocated to the LWDA (“LWDA 6 Payment”) and 25% ($11,811.64) allocated to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro-rata basis.
7 (“Individual PAGA Payment(s)"). (Id.)

8 The Individual PAGA Payment for each Aggrieved Employee will be based on a pro rata 9 share of the 25% of the PAGA Penalties ($11,811.64) calculated according to the number of Pay 10 Periods each Aggrieved Employee worked during the PAGA Period. (Manus Decl., Exhibit 1, ¶ 16.) 11 Based on its records to date, Defendant represents that there are 54 Aggrieved Employees who 12 worked approximately 1,320 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Manus Decl., ¶ 15.) The 13 average Aggrieved Employee Payment Share to the Aggrieved Employees will be approximately 14 $218.73 ($11,811.64) divided by 54 Aggrieved Employees, which is the approximate number of 15 Aggrieved Employees based on the data given at the time of mediation). (Id. at ¶ 16.) If it is 16 determined that the total number of PAGA Pay Periods collectively worked by the Aggrieved 17 Employees during the PAGA Period is more than 10% greater than 1,320 PAGA Pay Periods that 18 Defendant represented there to be, then Defendant agrees to increase the Gross Settlement Amount 19 on a proportional basis to the extent the threshold is exceeded (e.g., if the total number of Pay Periods 20 during the PAGA Period is actually 12% more than 1,320 Pay Periods – the Gross Settlement Amount 21 will increase by two percent (2%)). (Manus Decl., ¶ 15, Exhibit 1, ¶ 8.)

22 V. ARGUMENT

23 A. The Court Should Approve the Settlement Agreement.

24 Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(l), the Parties must obtain Court approval of a settlement of a 25 PAGA action on a representative basis. However, as explained in Arias v. Superior Ct. (2009) 46 26 Cal.4th 969, the Parties need not follow the class action procedural rules in PAGA cases, and 27 therefore, need not obtain approval of the PAGA settlement through a motion for preliminary or final 28

1 approval. Nonetheless, to comply with the requirements of Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff submits 2 this Motion and the Settlement Agreement for Court approval.

3 B. The Risks of Moving Forward with Plaintiff's PAGA Claim

4 To assist the Court in evaluating the fairness of the Settlement, below is a discussion of the 5 risk evaluation made by Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel. They considered the arguments and defenses 6 asserted by Defendants at mediation and assessed the risks of moving forward to trial and what this 7 Court could do in awarding penalties even if Plaintiff were to prevail at trial.

8 Plaintiff estimated that the maximum potential exposure on the PAGA claim is approximately 9 $132,000.00, calculated by multiplying the total number of PAGA Pay Periods (1,320) by $100 per 10 violation. (Manus Decl., ¶ 21.) Plaintiff's calculation of the total potential exposure on the PAGA 11 claim was based on one PAGA penalty per PAGA Pay Period (i.e., Plaintiff did not stack the PAGA 12 penalties in her damages calculation). (Id.) Case law supports the notion that it is inappropriate to 13 "stack" penalties for multiple violations, particularly when those violations all stem from the same 14 alleged "injury." (Id.)

15 The Gross Settlement Amount of $100,000.00 is 75% of the maximum potential exposure of 16 $132,000.00. (Id. at ¶ 24.) The Gross Settlement Amount, therefore, represents a strong value at 17 approximately $75.76 per PAGA Pay Period. From PAGA Counsel's review of the facts, strengths, 18 and weaknesses of the case and the risks and delays posed by further litigation, PAGA Counsel 19 believes that the recovery for the State and the Aggrieved Employees is fair and reasonable. (Id.)

20 C. Trial of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Would Have Presented Many Hurdles.

21 Defendant denied and continues to deny all the claims made by Plaintiff in this Action and 22 contends that it acted at all relevant times in conformance with the law. (Id. at ¶ 19.) Defendant 23 contends that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were paid for all hours worked and that Defendant 24 did not require Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to work beyond their scheduled shifts; that 25 Defendant provided Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with compliant meal periods and rest breaks 26 and that any deviations were at the voluntary election of Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees and 27 not at the request of Defendant or due to work requirements; that Defendant paid all wages due on a 28

1 timely basis and using Labor Code compliant instruments; that Defendant's wage statements 2 complied with the law. (Id.) Defendant further contends that its above defenses are supported by their 3 written policies applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. (Id.) As a result, PAGA Counsel 4 had to appropriately discount the amount recoverable from Defendant in a settlement. (Id.)

5 D. The Court May Have Exercised Its Discretion to Reduce Civil Penalties.

6 "PAGA penalties...are mandatory, not discretionary," and the Court must award penalties 7 upon a showing that Defendants violated the Labor Code. Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 165
8 Cal. App. 4th 1157, 1213; Moreno v. Autozone, Inc. (N.D. Cal. June 5, 2007) No. C05-04432 MJJ, 9 2007 WL 1650942, at *3. However, PAGA does provide the Court with discretion when it awards 10 these penalties. Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) states that "a court may award a lesser amount than the 11 maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the 12 particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 13 confiscatory." (See also Thurman v. Bayshore (2012) 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112 (reducing PAGA 14 penalties by 30% under this provision).

15 In departing from the $100/pay period calculation to arrive at the $100,000.00 Gross 16 Settlement Amount in this case, Plaintiff considered what the realistic potential exposure could be 17 and why the Court may reduce any eventual recovery at its discretion, including Defendant's defenses 18 to the claims and the potential manageability issues with PAGA claims at trial. (Manus Decl., at ¶ 19 23.) Based on those considerations, Plaintiff concluded that a discount would have to be applied to 20 the maximum potential exposure to arrive at the settlement amount. (Id.)

21 VI. THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

22 A. The Court Should Approve the Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs

23 PAGA Counsel is requesting a PAGA Counsel Fees Payment in the amount of $33,333.33 for 24 attorneys' fees and a PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of approximately $16,920.11 for 25 litigation costs incurred. (Manus Decl., ¶ 25.)

26 Prior to the enactment of PAGA, when the State had the resources to seek civil penalties on 27 behalf of the public, it paid its employees (including their attorneys) their salaries and benefits for pursuing such penalties. The Legislature enacted PAGA because the Labor Commissioner and other agencies were hampered in their enforcement of civil penalties by inadequate funding and staffing constraints. Iskanian, supra, 59 Cal.4th at 379. To facilitate broader enforcement, the Legislature enacted PAGA, authorizing “aggrieved employees” to pursue civil penalties on the state’s behalf. Labor Code § 2699(a). In creating PAGA, the Legislature expressly provided that the private counsel retained by the Plaintiff to represent the public’s interest can recover fees if the Plaintiff is the prevailing party. Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

1) PAGA Counsel Are Entitled to Fees from the Civil Penalties Recovered

As previously indicated, this is not a class action. However, like a class action, it is a representative action where, instead of a class, the Plaintiff represents the State and the public. As a matter of law and substance, counsel’s client is the public at large and the State of California. The Plaintiff is simply a “proxy” for the State. On August 11, 2016, the California Supreme Court decided Laffitte v. Robert Half International, which addressed, in a class action context, the correct methodology for awarding fees in a representative action settlement. Laffitte v. Robert Half Intern. Inc. (2016) 205 Cal.Rptr.3d 555, 573. The Laffitte Court approved awarding fees as a percentage of the settlement fund.:

We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards Class Counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created.

Id. at p. 573. Here, the $100,000.00 common fund created for the benefit of the public is, with Plaintiff as a proxy for the State, not unlike the fund created in class action settlements, with the public the equivalent of the class referenced in Laffitte.

The Court, in Laffitte, pointed out several reasons why the percentage-of-the-fund method is preferred over the alternative lodestar multiplier approach in California courts:

The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging

1 the litigation [citations]—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that 2 should not be denied our trial courts.

3 Id. at 573.

4 An award of one-third of the civil penalties realized in the Settlement is appropriate here under 5 the “substantial benefit” theory. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1810; 6 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 254. That theory permits a litigant 7 who has sued in a representative capacity to recover fees from the beneficiaries of that representation.
8 Courts exercise their inherent equitable powers to assess attorneys’ fees against the entire fund, 9 thereby spreading the cost of those fees among the public who benefit from PAGA actions. Serrano
10 v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 35 (Serrano III). As this approach “better approximates the workings 11 of the marketplace than the lodestar approach,” there is “a greater judicial willingness to evaluate a 12 fee award as a percentage of the recovery.” Lealao v. Beneficial Calif., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal. App. 4th 13 19, 31, 48.

14 2) The Attorneys’ Fees Request Is Within the Range of Reasonable Fees

15 PAGA Counsel at D.Law, Inc. are experienced employment attorneys with expertise in wage 16 and hour class and representative actions. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 35-41.) Throughout this case, PAGA 17 Counsel have borne, and continue to bear, the entire risk and cost of litigation associated with this 18 Action on a purely contingency basis. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 27-28.) As a result, PAGA Counsel have yet 19 to receive any compensation for the amount of time and money invested in the case to date. (Id.)
20 Moreover, courts in this county and others have approved attorneys’ fees awards in other PAGA 21 settlements on a common fund basis at higher percentages than the one-third Plaintiff is requesting 22 here. (Id.)

23 For these reasons, PAGA Counsel’s requested fee of one-third of the Gross Settlement 24 Amount is well within the range of reasonableness and is fair compensation for undertaking this 25 complex and risky litigation on a contingent basis.

26 3) PAGA Counsel’s Fee Request Is Reasonable Under the Lodestar Crosscheck.

27 PAGA Counsel’s fee request is reasonable when calculated using the lodestar method. Under 28 the lodestar method, a base fee amount is calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on

1 the case and the reasonable hourly compensation of the attorney. Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 2 25, 48. The court then may enhance this lodestar figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of 3 factors, such as the novelty and difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of success 4 achieved. Id. at 49; see also Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36; Thayer v. Wells
5 Fargo Bank (2001) 92 Cal. App. 4th 819, 834, (“[t]here is no...rule limiting the factors that may 6 justify an exercise of judicial discretion to [adjust the] lodestar”). Here, the factors warranting a 7 modest multiplier were apparent in this case.

8 Here, the lodestar cross check establishes that the fees requested are significantly less than the 9 amount warranted by lodestar analysis; therefore, the factors warranting positive multipliers do not 10 come into play, even though they were apparent in this case.

11 PAGA Counsel worked at least 79.55 hours on this matter and calculated the base lodestar at 12 $56,452.50 at rates reflecting those currently earned in the marketplace. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 31-32.)
13 Senior Attorney Alvin B. Lindsay’s records indicate at least 30 hours on this matter with an hourly 14 rate of $800. (Id.) Senior Attorney Enoch J. Kim’s records indicate at least 5.6 hours on this matter 15 with an hourly rate of $750. Associate Attorney Jean Power’s records indicate at least 18.40 hours on 16 this matter with an hourly rate of $500. I have invested at least 25.15 hours on this matter with an 17 hourly rate of $750. Associate Attorney Antonia Bliznets’ records indicate 0.4 hours on this matter 18 with an hourly rate of $475. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 31-32, Ex. 4.) Thus, consideration of the lodestar 19 method as a cross-check to the percentage figure sought strongly supports the reasonableness of the 20 requested fee award. (Manus Decl., ¶ 33.) As such, PAGA Counsel respectfully request that the Court 21 grant their request for $33,333.33 in fees.

22 4) The Court Should Approve the Reimbursement of PAGA Counsel’s Costs.

23 The litigation expenses incurred by PAGA Counsel in this Action are also to be reimbursed 24 under the Settlement Agreement. (Manus Decl., ¶ 15.a.) PAGA Counsel incurred $16,920.11 in 25 expenses in litigating this case. The lion’s share of these costs was incurred in connection with 26 mediation, and the others listed were all reasonably incurred and necessary to the prosecution of this 27 Action. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Thus, PAGA Counsel respectfully request that the Court approve their request

1 for reimbursement in the amount of $16,920.11. (Id.)

2 VII. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE THE COSTS OF ADMINISTRATION AND 3 NOTICE

4 The Parties agreed to use Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions as the third-party 5 settlement administrator in this case. (Manus Decl., ¶ 14.) Phoenix will be responsible for updating 6 the addresses of Aggrieved Employees, mailing a notice of Settlement, and calculating and 7 distributing the settlement checks, among other duties. (Id.) (Declaration of Jodey Lawrence, filed 8 herewith). Phoenix capped its fees at $2,500.00 for administering the Settlement and based on PAGA 9 Counsel’s experience in other class and PAGA settlements, Phoenix’s costs for administering this 10 Settlement are fair and reasonable. (Id.)

11 The Settlement Administrator will mail the Aggrieved Employee Payment Share along with 12 a letter providing notice of the Settlement and release of claims to the Aggrieved Employees (“PAGA 13 Notice of Settlement”). (Id. at ¶ 43.) The PAGA Notice of Settlement includes, among other things, 14 an explanation of PAGA, a description of the allegations in the Action and the scope of released 15 claims, and a statement of the Gross Settlement Amount and payment allocations from the Net
16 Settlement Amount. (Id.)

17 VIII. CONCLUSION

18 Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel submit that the proposed Settlement, as documented in the 19 Settlement Agreement, is fair, adequate, reasonable, and in the best interest of the Aggrieved 20 Employees and the State of California. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the 21 Settlement and order the Parties to carry out the Settlement according to the terms of the Settlement 22 Agreement and the Amendments to the Settlement Agreement and enter the concurrently filed 23 [Proposed] Order Granting Approval and Judgment to that end.
