1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This Court preliminary approved the Settlement on or about June 3, 2026. (James Hawkins 4 Decl., Exhibit A: Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement).
5 Plaintiff Shannen Garner (“Plaintiff”), now respectfully requests that this Court grant Final 6 Approval of the Settlement Agreement attached to the Hawkins Declaration as Exhibit B, which 7 seeks to resolve claims against Defendant Strategic Security Services, Inc. (“Defendant”) in 8 exchange for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of (“GSA”) of One Hundred and Fifty-9 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($150,000.00).

10 The Class Members overwhelmingly supported the Settlement, as there is a 100%
11 participation rate, with zero objections and zero opt outs, resulting in 95 participating Class 12 Members out of the total 95 Class Members. (Administrator Decl. of Nathalie Hernandez-13 hereinafter Hernandez Decl. ¶¶ 11-13). The highest Individual Settlement Amount to a 14 Participating Class Member is currently estimated to be approximately $3,067.65. (Id at ¶ 14). The 15 average Individual Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be approximately $605.79, while 16 the lowest Individual Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be approximately $22.98. (Id).
17 These amounts are subject to employee-side tax and withholdings. (Id).

18 Additionally, there are 95 Aggrieved Employees (or PAGA Members) who worked a total 19 of 2,540 pay periods during the PAGA Period. (Hernandez Decl. ¶ 5). The highest individual 20 PAGA payment to an Aggrieved Employee is approximately $131.89, the average individual 21 PAGA payment is approximately $26.32, and the lowest individual PAGA payment is 22 approximately $0.98. (Id at ¶ 15).

23 Plaintiff also moves for Final Approval of attorneys’ fees in the amount of $50,000.00.
24 As will be demonstrated herein, Class Counsels’ Attorney Fee request is supported using the 25 percentage fee method and the Lodestar method. Plaintiff also moves for Final Approval of 26 payment of the litigation costs in the amount of $20,000.00, all of which were incurred in litigating 27 this matter. Additionally, Plaintiff seeks Final Approval of the Class Representative Service 28 Payment to the named Plaintiff in the sum of $6,500.00 to compensate the Class Representative

1 for his service as the Class Representative and providing a general release of his claims against 2 Defendant – a release significantly greater than the Class Members provided – and for the risks
3 absorbed and time spent litigating the case. Plaintiff played a vital role in representing Class 4 Members in this case and spearheading the lawsuit to seek monetary relief on behalf of all Class 5 Members. Plaintiff moves for Final Approval of the payment of $5,950.00 in administrative fees
6 to ILYM Group, INC. Finally, Plaintiff seeks Final Approval of the $10,000.00 PAGA Payment 7 and the payment to the Labor and Work Development Agency (“LWDA”) for its share of the 8 PAGA Payment (of which $7,500.00 or 75% will be paid to the LWDA and the remaining 9 $2,500.00 or 25% will be paid to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis). (Settlement 10 Agreement ¶ 3.2.5).

11 This case required many hours of attorney and Plaintiff’s time who sought relief on behalf 12 of 95 potential Class Members within the State of California, defined as “All current and former 13 non-exempt employees of Defendant who worked for Defendant in California during the Class 14 Period.” (Settlement Agreement. ¶ 1.5).

15 This litigation involved the review and analysis of documents, policies, and practices, as 16 well as a full day of mediation. Most importantly, the Settlement and all its terms received 17 overwhelming support from Class Members, as stated above. There were no objections and no 18 requests for exclusion. Therefore, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant Final Approval of 19 the Settlement, requested attorneys’ fees, litigation costs, Class Representative Service Payment, 20 Settlement Administration Costs, and payment to the LWDA in the amounts preliminarily 21 approved by the Court and as fully disclosed to Class Members.

22 II. BACKGROUND, INVESTIGATION, DISCOVERY

23 a. Procedural History

24 On April 10, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a letter to the California Labor Workforce 25 Development Agency (the “LWDA”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorney General Act 26 of 2004 (the “PAGA”). (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 3).

27 On April 10, 2024, Plaintiff filed his Class Action against Defendant in a case entitled 28 Shannen Garner v. Strategic Security Services, Inc., et al., San Bernardino Superior Court Case

No. CIVSB2412063 (the “Class Action”). On June 24, 2024, Plaintiff filed his PAGA Action against Defendant in a case entitled Shannen Garner v. Strategic Security Services, Inc., et al., San Bernardino Superior Court Case No. CIVSB2412063 (the “PAGA Action”). The Class Action and PAGA Action both allege that Defendant violated various wage and-hour laws, including: (1) failure to pay wages including overtime and minimum wages as required by Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194; (2) failure to provide meal periods as required by Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage orders; (3) failure to provide rest periods as required by Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512; (4) failure to pay timely wages required by Labor Code § 203; (5) failure to provide accurate wage statements required by Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3, 558.1; (6) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; (7) failure to provide a day of rest; and (8) violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 5-6).

The Parties thereafter agreed to privately mediate this action. In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with first- and last-time punch dates for all employees, time and payroll records and relevant policies for Class Members during the Class Period. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 7).

On May 21, 2025, the Parties participated in private mediation with Kevin T. Barnes, Esq., a respected mediator of complex wage-and-hour actions, and with the assistance of his evaluations, the Parties reached settlement. (S.A. ¶ 2.7). In reaching the proposed settlement, Plaintiff counsel’s negotiation efforts took into consideration relevant factors such as the size of the class, the information, data, and documents obtained in the litigation and/or otherwise exchanged pursuant to the mediation privilege; the experience of the named Plaintiff; the strengths and weaknesses of the case; the uncertain outcome and risk of litigating complex actions; the time and expense in litigating a case through trial; Defendant’s defenses; and the non-reversionary nature of the settlement. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 9-11).

On June 3, 2026 the Court issued an Order granting preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement. (Hawkins Decl., Exhibit A). Plaintiff now seeks Final Approval of the Settlement.

1 b. The Settlement Provides Reasonable Compensation to Class Members

2 As a result of the mediation, the Parties agreed to settle this matter for a Gross Settlement 3 Amount (“GSA”) of $150,000.00 (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 15, Hernandez Decl., ¶ 14). Based on their 4 own respective independent investigations and evaluations, and after taking into account the 5 sharply disputed factual and legal issues involved in this matter, the risks attending further 6 prosecution of the case, and the monetary benefits received under the Settlement despite the 7 questionable nature of the claims, Plaintiff’s counsel is of the opinion that Settlement for the 8 consideration and on the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement remains fair, reasonable and 9 adequate and is in the best interests of the Class Members. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 14-32).

10 Even without the presumption of fairness and reasonableness, the Settlement is clearly 11 within the range of reasonableness as thoroughly discussed in detail in the Motion for Preliminary 12 Approval, and as considered by the Court in granting Preliminary Approval. (Hawkins Decl., 13 Exhibit A).

14 Accounting for the risks of continued litigation and impediments to discovery, Plaintiff determined 15 that a settlement amounting to $150,000.00 was fair and reasonable and the Court preliminarily agreed.
16 (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 13-33). See, e.g., In re Warfarin Sodium Antitrust Litig., 212 F.R.D. 231, 256-58 (D.
17 Del. 2002) (recognizing that a reasonable settlement amount can be 1.6% to 14% of the total estimated 18 damages); In Re Armored Car Antitrust Litig., 472 F. Supp. 1357, 1373 (N.D. Ga. 1979) (settlements with 19 a value of 1% to 8% of the estimated total damages were approved); In Re Four Seasons Secs. Laws Litig., 21 LLP, 2014 WL 3610945, at *5 (N.D. Cal. July 21, 2014) (finding that settlement which amounted to 8% 22 of maximum recovery “[fell] within the range of possible initial approval based on the strength of plaintiff’s 23 case and the risk and expense of continued litigation.”); In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 24 1036, 1042 (N.D. Cal. 2008) (approving settlement of 6% to 8% of estimated damages).¹ (Id.)

28 deducting attorneys’ fees and services awards, was valued at 7.5% or less of total possible verdict); Viceral v.
Mistras Grp., Inc., No. 15-cv-02198-EMC, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 140759, at *21 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 11, 2016) (granting preliminary approval to class action settlement representing “8.1% of the full verdict value” with net settlement amount representing approximately 5.3% of full verdict value); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc.,

1 III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AND THE CLASS MEMBERS' RESPONSE

2 A. Terms of the Settlement

3 The total number of workweeks worked by Participating Class Members during the Class 4 Period is 5,009. The Net Settlement Amount available to Participating Class Members is 5 estimated to be $57,550.00 and was calculated by subtracting the requested attorneys' fees 6 ($50,000.00), the amount requested for litigation costs and expenses ($20,000.00), the requested
7 Class Representative Service Award ($6,500.00), the requested Settlement Administration Fees 8 ($5,950.00), and the PAGA Penalties payment ($10,000.00) from the Gross Settlement Amount 9 ($150,000.00). (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 14).

10 The Settlement is a common fund settlement with no reversion to Defendant. Thus, each 11 of the participating Settlement Class Members will be paid his or her pro-rata share of the NSA.

12 B. Released Claims

13 Subject to approval by this Court, and in exchange for the consideration recited in the 14 Settlement Agreement, the Released Claims are all claims that have been or could have been 15 reasonably alleged or asserted in the PAGA Notices and as defined in the Settlement. (Hawkins 16 Decl., Exhibit B).

17 C. The Class Members Support the Settlement – Zero (0) Objections and Zero
18 (0) Opt-Outs

19 On June 3, 2026, the Court granted Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, conditionally 20 certified the Class for settlement purposes, appointed ILYM Group, Inc. to act as the 21 Administrator, approved the Notice to be sent to the Class, and directed that the Notice be mailed 22 to the Class via U.S. First Class Mail. (Hawkins Decl., Exhibit A). On or about July 24, 2026, 23 ILYM Group mailed the Notices to all 95 Class Members. (Hernandez Decl., ¶7). Out of the 95 24

25 No. 13-cv-02540-HSG, 2015 WL 3776765, at *4 (N.D. Cal. June 17, 2015) (granting final approval to settlement 26 with net recovery to Plaintiff valued at 7.3% of potential maximum recovery); Cruz v. Sky Chefs, Inc., No. 12-cv-27 02705-DMR, 2014 WL 7247065, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 19, 2014) (granting final approval where gross settlement 28 amount represented 8.6% of the maximum potential recovery from the class claims and estimated amount distributable to class after accounting for attorneys' fees and other deductions represented approximately 6.1% of maximum potential recovery); In re LDK Solar Sec. Litig., No. 07-cv-05182-WHA, 2010 WL 3001384, at *2 (N.D.
Cal. July 29, 2010) (granting final approving where "[t]he proposed settlement amount is [. . .] only about five percent of the estimated damages before fee and costs—even before any reduction thereof for attorney's fees and costs.").

1 Notices, only 1 was deemed undeliverable after attempts to ascertain the addresses. (Hernandez 2 Decl., ¶¶ 7-10). As a result of the mailing, there is a 100% participation rate and 95 Class 3 Members will be mailed a settlement check. (Id. ¶ 13).

4 If a Participating Class Member's or Aggrieved Employees' check is returned to the 5 Settlement Administrator, the Settlement Administrator will make reasonable efforts to re-mail it 6 to the Participating Class Member or Aggrieved Employee at the correct address. It is expressly 7 understood and agreed that the checks for the Individual Settlement Payments, including the 8 Individual PAGA Payments, will become void and no longer available if not cashed within 180 9 calendar days after mailing. The funds from uncashed and voided checks will be transferred to 10 the State of California's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Participating Class 11 Member/Aggrieved Employee. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 4.3.3).

12 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

13 D. The Settlement Satisfies the Standard for Final Approval

14 California Rule of Court, Rule 3.769, requires court approval for class action settlements.
15 Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(g). California courts favor settlement. Stambaugh v. Superior Court (1976) 62
16 Cal. App. 3d 231, 236, Potter v. Pacific Coast Lumber Co. of Cal. (1951) 37 Cal. 2d 592, 602 17 ("[T]he law wisely favors settlements"). Accordingly, the Court must give "[due] regard to what 18 is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties." Wershba v. Apple Computer, 19 Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 245.

20 In deciding whether to approve a class settlement, a court evaluates whether the proposed 21 settlement is "fair, adequate, and reasonable." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 22 1794, 1801 (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n of City & Cnty. Of S.F. (9th Cir. 1982) 23 688 F.2d 615, 625). A court enjoys broad discretion to make its fairness determination. Dunk, 48 24 Cal. App. 4th at 1801. However, "a presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is 25 reached through arms-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow 26 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) 27 the percentage of objectors is small." Id. at 1802; accord Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 245. In 28 addition, a court should consider additional relevant factors, including the strength of the Plaintiff's case compared to the settlement amount; the risk, expenses, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; and the fair treatment of class members in relation to each other. Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

At the time of preliminary approval, the Court was provided with sufficient information to satisfy three of the four Dunk factors, leaving the fourth factor, the number of objectors, unknown until after the Class had an opportunity to respond to the Settlement as explained in the Notice. Subject only to the Class's reaction to the Settlement, the Court preliminarily presumed the Settlement was fair, adequate, and reasonable. Following dissemination of the Notice, and adequate time provided to the Class to object to the Settlement, no class member submitted objections and only one single Class Member excluded themselves from the settlement, resulting in a 100% participation rate from the Class. (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 13). Thus, the proposed Settlement is entitled to the presumption that it is fair and in all other respects proper and should be finally approved.

V. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE THE REQUESTED FEES AND COSTS

A. The Requested Fee Award is Fair and Reasonable, Calculated as a Percentage of a Common Fund

Class Counsel applies for an award of Attorneys' Fees in the sum of $50,000.00 of the GSA, and litigation costs and expenses of $20,000.00. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 41-43). When a settlement results in a common fund for the benefit of a class, class counsel may be awarded fees as a percentage of the common fund. See Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 254 (recognizing the "percentage of recovery" method). The California Supreme Court confirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. that "[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases." 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 (2016), in stating:

The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

Id. at 503 (internal citation omitted); see also e.g., Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977) ("when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action

1 brought by a plaintiff or Plaintiff for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that 2 fund, such plaintiff or Plaintiff may be awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.”); Serrano v.
3 Unruh, 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (1982) (in awarding a fee from the common fund obtained for the 4 benefit of all parties, the trial court acts within its equitable power to prevent the other parties’ 5 unjust enrichment.); Rawlings v. Prudential-Bache Properties, Inc., 9 F.3d 513, 516 (6th Cir.
6 1993) (the percentage of the fund method for calculating attorney’s fees more accurately reflects 7 the results achieved for the putative class than the lodestar method and “establishes reasonable 8 expectations on the part of Plaintiff’s attorneys as to their expected recovery; and it encourages 9 early settlement, which avoids protracted litigation.”); In re Rite Aid Corp. Securities Litigation, 10 396 F.3d 294, 300 (3d Cir. 2005) (“The percentage-of-recovery method is generally favored in 11 common fund cases because it allows courts to award fees from the fund ‘in a manner that rewards 12 counsel for success and penalizes it for failure.’”).²

13 The purpose of the common fund/percentage approach is to “spread litigation costs 14 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 15 burden alone.” Vincent, supra, 557 F.2d at 769. In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 16 162, 167, the Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a 17 fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share 18 of the litigation costs.” Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 19 105, 110, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine has been 20 applied “consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which 21 other persons are entitled to share.” The reasons for applying the common fund doctrine include: 22 “...fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit because his recovery 23 might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair advantage to the others 24 who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their share of the burden of its recovery;

26 ² Laffitte also held trial courts have discretion to assess reasonableness of fee awards with tools 27 such as the lodestar cross-check, although they need not do so. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 506 (“We hold 28 further that trial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee . . . they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee”).

1 encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to undertake 2 and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or recovery of the fund if he is assured 3 that he will be properly and directly compensated should his efforts be successful.” Id. Because 4 there is a defined and clearly traceable benefit to the Class, the Court can base an award of 5 attorneys’ fees using a ‘common fund’ approach to compensate Class Counsel.

6 1. The Requested Attorneys’ Fees is Within the Range of Fees Approved in 7 Comparable Common Fund Cases

8 Assessing an appropriate fee based on a percentage of the fund involves considering “all 9 of the circumstances of the case.” Appellate cases addressing fees arise almost exclusively where 10 awards were challenged by Defendants or objectors – the only parties with standing to appeal.
11 Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 236.

12 The requested fee falls in the mid-range of percentage class fee awards, which generally 13 range from 20% to 50% of a common fund, and it constitutes fair compensation for undertaking 14 complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation on a contingent basis and compensates 15 Class Counsel for their efforts, as well as the result achieved for the benefit of the Class. Numerous 16 courts in California routinely approve fee requests equal to or greater than 35% of the common 17 fund. See Martin v. Ameripride Servs., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, *22-23 (S.D. Cal. 2011)
18 (collecting cases); Birch v. Office Depot, Inc., USDC Southern District, Case No. 06cv1690 DMS 19 (WMC) (awarding 40% fee on a $16 million wage and hour class action settlement); Rippee v.
20 Boston Mkt. Corp., USDC Southern District, Case No. 05cv1359 BTM (JMA) (awarding a 40% 21 fee on a $3.75 million wage and hour class action settlement). In fact, the Sacramento County 22 Superior Court has awarded fees of 35% of the common fund in wage and hour class actions.
23 (McMahon v. Airco Mechanical, Inc., Case No. 34-2019-00259269; Uribe v. EcoGuard Pest 24 Management, Inc., Case No. 34-2021-00300650; Arroyo v. Epic Home Solar, Case No. 34-2021-25 00310634; Blair v. Clark Wagaman Designs, Case No. 34-2021-00313156).

26 In short, Class Counsels’ fee request of $50,000.00 is in line with awards in similar cases 27 in California and demonstrates that Class Counsels’ fee request is consistent with market rates and 28 is reasonable.

1 2. Class Counsel’s Hourly Rates are Reasonable

2 Class Counsels’ hourly rates are between $200 and $1,050 and are in line with rates 3 typically approved in wage and hour class action litigation and which rates have been approved by 4 Courts in California in the Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Alameda, Orange and San 5 Diego County Superior Courts. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 34-42); Children’s Hosp. and Med. Ctr. v.
6 Bonta, 97 Cal.App.4th 740, 746 (2002) (noting rates were reasonable where they were “within the 7 range of reasonable rates charged by and judicially awarded comparable attorneys for comparable 8 work”).

9 A reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing rate charged by attorneys of similar skill and 10 experience in the relevant community. PLCM Group, Inc v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal. 4th 1084, 1095.
11 When determining a reasonable hourly rate, courts may consider factors such as skill and 12 experience, the nature of the work performed, the relevant area of expertise and the attorney’s 13 customary billing rates. Flannery v. California Highway Patrol (1998) 61 Cal. App. 4th 629, 632.
14 Class Counsels’ skill and experience support their hourly rates. Our practices are limited 15 exclusively to litigation, focusing on the representation of employees in wage and hour and 16 consumer class action matters. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 34). As prominent attorneys in the field of wage 17 and hour class action litigation, Class Counsel continually monitors the prevailing market rates 18 charged by both defense and plaintiff law firms and set the billing rates of their attorneys and 19 paralegals to be consistent with the prevailing market rates in the private sector for attorneys and 20 staff of comparable skill, qualifications and experience. Other wage and hour attorneys working 21 as class counsel before California courts charge comparable if not higher rates. Therefore, as they 22 are in line with those of the relevant community, Class Counsels’ hourly rates are reasonable.

23 3. Costs of Litigation are Reasonable

24 Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of the litigation costs and expenses of $20,000.00.
25 These costs were reasonable and necessary to prosecute this case, and the results achieved are fair, 26 and reasonable. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 42).

1 B. THE NAMED PLAINTIFF’S CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE AWARD
2 IS REASONABLE

3 Class Counsel seek approval of a $6,500.00 Class Representative Service Award (or 4 Enhancement Award) to the named Plaintiff/Class Representative. The requested Award is 5 reasonable in light of the general release of all claims Plaintiff agreed to, greater than the release 6 given by Class Members, the benefits Plaintiff conferred upon the entire Class resulting in 7 payments to all Class Members, the time spent assisting counsel with the investigation and 8 prosecution of these claims and consenting to the proposed Settlement. Furthermore, in pursuing 9 this action on behalf of the Class, Plaintiff risked a judgment for attorneys’ fees and costs in the 10 event this matter had been lost. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 43-44; See also declaration of Plaintiff filed in 11 support of Motion for Preliminary Approval, attached hereto).

12 Courts routinely approve service payments, or incentive awards, to compensate named 13 Plaintiff for the services they provide and the risks they incur during class litigation. See In re
14 Cellphone Fee Termination Cases (2010) 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1393; see also Bell v. Farmers 15 Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal. App. 4th 715, 725-26 (upholding service payments to class 16 representatives); Manual § 21.62 n.971 (noting that service payments are warranted). Based on the 17 foregoing, the $6,500.00 Service Award to the Class Representative is fair, appropriate, and 18 justified as part of the overall settlement.

19 C. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE REASONABLE

20 The Parties agreed to hire ILYM Group, Inc. as the Administrator, and the Court approved 21 this choice. The Administrator was responsible for formatting, printing and mailing the Notice. It 22 was also responsible for updating addresses and re-mailing Notices returned as undeliverable, 23 responding to Class Member inquiries, answering questions from Counsel for the Parties, and 24 providing a declaration to document its duties and responsibilities under the settlement. Plaintiff 25 now requests that the Court approve the $5,950.00 fee to ILYM Group, Inc. for services rendered 26 and to be rendered. (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 16). Following the anticipated grant of Final Approval, 27 the Administrator’s duties will continue in order to calculate and mail the Individual Settlement 28 Payment checks to Class Members, perform tax reporting obligations, disburse other payments as ordered by the Court, and perform such other duties as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. The fee of $5,950.00 for services rendered and to be rendered is fair and reasonable and should be granted.

D. THE SETTLEMENT PENALTIES UNDER PAGA ARE REASONABLE

The PAGA penalties payment of $10,000.00 with 75% of the allocation to the LWDA and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees is reasonable under the circumstances. The Parties negotiated a good faith amount for PAGA penalties. The PAGA penalties allocation is not the result of self-interest at the expense of other Class Members. The LWDA was also provided notice of the Settlement with the concurrent filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval and the instant Motion. Plaintiff did not receive a response or objection to the Settlement from the LWDA. Thus, Plaintiff requests the Court finally approve the PAGA allocation in the amount of $10,000.00 with 75% being paid to the LWDA and 25% being distributed to the Aggrieved Employees.

VI. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Class Counsel respectfully requests the Court grant Final Approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement, award (1) Class Counsels' fees in the sum of $50,000.00 and litigation costs of $20,000.00; (2) award the named Plaintiff Class Representative Enhancement Service Award in the sum of $6,500.00; (3) award $5,950.00 to ILYM Group, Inc. for settlement administration services, and (4) approve the PAGA Payment of $10,000.00 with a $7,500.00 or 75% of that sum paid to the LWDA and the remaining $2,500.00 (25%) paid to the Aggrieved Employees.
