DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff NATISHA WALLACE (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is citizens of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Solano. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Solano. Defendant employs Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Solano.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff NATISHA WALLACE is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Solano.

6. Defendant MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Solano.

1 7. At all relevant times, Defendant MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC. was
2 the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

3 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendant MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC.
4 and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 5 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and 6 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and 7 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
8 representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, and 9 all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge,
10 permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

11 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 12 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
13 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 14 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
15 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 16 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
17 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 18 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

19 10. Defendant MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC. and DOES 1 through 100
20 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

21 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 22 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 23 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers
24 liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

25 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26 12. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members
27 of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 28 Procedure section 382.

1 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

2 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants
3 within the State of California at any time during the period from August 6, 2020
4 to final judgment.

5 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

6 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 7 the litigation:

8 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
9 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 10 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 11 greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is 12 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

13 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
14 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect 15 the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined
16 community of interest.

17 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 18 each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of 19 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no
20 interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's 21 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 22 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 23 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, 24 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 25 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 26 each class member.

27 ///

28 ///

1 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the
2 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
3 of all class members is impractical.

4 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
5 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
6 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
7 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
8 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 9 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 10 their rights.

11 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 12 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
13 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

14 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 15 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

16 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
17 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;

18 c. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 19 the other class members who received meal premiums and earned
20 incentive pay;

21 d. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class 22 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 23 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to California
24 Labor Code section 226.7(c);

25 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 26 other class members for all hours worked;

27 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to class members within 28 the required time upon their discharge or resignation;

- 1 g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 2 the other class members during their employment;
- 3 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 4 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 5 i. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
6 for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 7 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class
8 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 9 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 10 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 11 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- 12 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 13 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 14 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 15 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

16 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17 17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff
18 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California,

21 exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Solano.

2 class members.

3 22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 4 State of California.

5 23. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
7 or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia,
8 failing to pay them for all hours worked, and failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest
9 breaks or pay related premium wages, in violation of California law.

10 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
12 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”)
13 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

14 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
16 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 17 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 18 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper

20 period was missed.

22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
23 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 24 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 25 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 26 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 27 missed.

28 ///

1 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 4 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that class members were entitled to receive the wages owed to 7 them upon discharge or resignation, including minimum wages and meal and rest period
8 premiums, and that class members did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the 9 time of their discharge or resignation.

10 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 their wages within a specified time period during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the 13 other class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period
14 during their employment.

15 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
18 Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
19 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number 20 of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

21 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that they had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for 23 Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not
24 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

25 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 27 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

28 ///

1 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
3 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
6 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 34. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide the 8 requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class
9 members and failed to compensate them the related premium wages.

10 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
11 Plaintiff and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

26 42. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
27 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty 28 due to him [or her] under this article."

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC., and DOES 1 through 100)

77. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of their employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

10 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
11 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

12 81. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 13 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
14 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 15 employee.

16 82. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 17 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

18 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

20 (Against MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC., and DOES 1 through 100)

21 83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
22 through 82, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
23 forth herein.

24 84. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 25 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct 26 consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to 27 the directions of the employer.

28 ///

85. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”))

(Against MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC., and DOES 1 through 100)

86. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 85, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

87. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themselves, and other current or former employees.

88. On May 30, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code she contends were violated, and the theories supporting her contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about August 5, 2024, the sixty-five (65) days’ notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted her administrative remedies.

2 defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they all are or were non-exempt

6 90. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
7 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked, pursuant to the mandate of Labor
8 Code sections 1194 and 1197.

10 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 11 minimum wages.

12 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

13 92. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to authorize and permit 14 their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or 15 major fraction thereof and were further required to provide their non-exempt employees with 16 a 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked, pursuant to the mandates of Labor
17 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

18 93. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
19 aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks
20 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

21 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

22 94. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees

25 current and former employees all wages due and owing within the required time period.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

2 96. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
3 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to the mandates of Labor
4 Code sections 201 and 202.

5 97. As a policy and practice, as a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations
6 alleged above, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved former employees their final wages,
7 pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Accordingly, Defendants owe
8 waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

9 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

10 98. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
11 regarding their California employees, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 226
12 and 1174.

13 99. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 14 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
15 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding
16 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 17 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 18 hours worked at each hourly rate.

24 101. As a policy and practice, Defendants regularly failed to reimburse Plaintiff and 25 the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owed
26 to them within the required time period.

Re: MEDIC AMBULANCE SERVICE, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Natisha Wallace against Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter referred to as "Medic Ambulance Service, Inc.").

Ms. Wallace is pursuing her California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Wallace may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. is a California corporation located at 506 Couch St., Vallejo, CA 94590.

Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. employed Ms. Wallace as an hourly-paid non-exempt Dispatcher within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around September of 2023) in the State of California. Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. directly controls the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Ms. Wallace does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. Wallace will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. Wallace is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. Wallace and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Ms. Wallace may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of Medic Ambulance Service, Inc.

Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Ms. Wallace has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all aggrieved employees at Medic Ambulance Service, Inc., regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to compensate Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to pay aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. routinely required Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with Medic Ambulance Service, Inc.'s policies and expectations and prepare orders. Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to provide coverage to Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to authorize and permit aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to compensate Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. required aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. required aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to pay Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code sections 203 and 210.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to pay Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. did not provide Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. did not provide Ms. Wallace and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Medic Ambulance Service, Inc.

We believe that Ms. Wallace and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Wallace will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Medic Ambulance Service, Inc. within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
