SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF ORANGE

JOHN MARGARITIS, JR., individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated, Plaintiff, v. AAA OIL, INC. DBA CALIFORNIA FUELS AND LUBRICANTS, a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, Defendants.	Case No.: 30-2024-01383304-CU-OE-CXC (lead); 30-2024-01416794-CU-OE-CXC Assigned for all purposes to: Hon. David Hoffer, Dept. CX103 NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT Date: September 12, 2025 Time: 10:00AM Dept.: CX103 Reservation No.: 74587663

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on September 12, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard in Department CX103 of the above-entitled Court, located at 751 West Santa Ana Boulevard, Santa Ana, California 92701, Plaintiff John Margaritis, Jr. ("Plaintiff") will and hereby does move this Court for an Order:

1. Granting preliminary approval of the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Settlement" or "Agreement");
2. Conditionally certifying the proposed Class for settlement purposes only;
3. Appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative for settlement purposes only;
4. Appointing Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel for settlement purposes only;
5. Appointing Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions as the Settlement Administrator; and
6. Setting a final approval hearing date.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), this Motion is made on the grounds that the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for preliminary approval and falls well within the range of reasonableness. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm's length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral, and Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel will fairly and adequately represent the Class.

This Motion is based on this Notice of Motion, the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of John G. Yslas, the Declaration of John Margaritis, Jr., and on all records and documents on file, together with such oral and documentary evidence that may be presented at the hearing on this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims, including representative claims brought under the Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), against Defendant AAA Oil, Inc. dba California Fuels and Lubricants ("Defendant"). The proposed Class is defined as all persons currently or formerly employed by Defendant as hourly-paid, non-exempt employees in the State of California ("Class Members") during the Class Period of February 29, 2020 through December 17, 2024 ("Class Period"). The main terms of the Settlement are as follows:

1. A Gross Settlement Amount of $530,000.00, which will be distributed to approximately 138 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the total Workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period;
2. Attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $176,666.66) and reimbursement of actual litigation costs to Plaintiff's Counsel;
3. A Class Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 to Plaintiff;
4. Costs of settlement administration of up to $7,250.00; and
5. Allocation of $50,000.00 to PAGA Penalties, seventy-five percent (75%) of which ($37,500.00) will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"), and twenty-five percent (25%) of which ($12,500.00) will be paid to Class Members who were employed by Defendant during the PAGA Period of May 29, 2023 through December 17, 2024 ("Aggrieved Employees").

The Settlement meets all criteria for preliminary approval and falls within the range of reasonableness given the risks and expenses of further litigation. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm's length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral. As such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel for settlement purposes only, appoint Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions ("Phoenix")

WILSHIRE LAW FIRM, PLC

Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to administer notice of the Settlement to the Class, and set a final approval hearing date.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 29, 2024, Plaintiff filed this action as a putative class action against Defendant alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failure to produce requested employment records; and (9) unfair business practices. Declaration of John G. Yslas in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Yslas Decl.") at ¶ 3.

On May 29, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant of his intention to file a PAGA claim (LWDA-CM-969048-23). Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4. The LWDA did not notify Plaintiff that it intended to investigate within 65 days of this written notice. Id. Therefore, on August 2, 2024, Plaintiff filed a separate action alleging a claim under PAGA, Orange County Superior Court Case No. 30-2024-01416794-CU-OE-CXC (the "PAGA Action"). Id. On November 15, 2024, the PAGA and Class Action cases were consolidated. Id. at ¶ 5.

The Parties subsequently participated in a private mediation with mediator Lisa Klerman, Esq. on October 18, 2024. Id. at ¶ 6. The mediator made a proposal, which was accepted by both Parties. Id. The Parties negotiated the terms of the Settlement over the next few months, which was finalized in December 2024. Id. at ¶ 7, Exhibit 1 ("Settlement Agreement"). On June 5, 2025, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. Id. at ¶ 8, Exhibit 2.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

A. Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Parties have agreed to settle the claims alleged in this case and the related PAGA Action for a Gross Settlement Amount of $530,000.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.1. Subject to Court approval, the following payments will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) a Class Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 to Plaintiff; (2) attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $176,666.66) and

WILSHIRE LAW FIRM, PLC
3055 Wilshire Blvd, 12th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

reimbursement of litigation costs of up to $25,000.00 to Plaintiff's Counsel; (3) costs of settlement administration of up to $7,250.00 to Phoenix; (4) Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members; and (5) PAGA Penalties in the amount of $50,000.00, which will be allocated 75% to the LWDA ($37,500.00) and 25% to Aggrieved Employees ($12,500.00). Id. at § 3.2. After all requested deductions are made, the remaining Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $263,583.34. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 7. The estimated average Individual Class Payment is $1,910.02, the estimated lowest Individual Class Payment is $14.98, and the estimated highest Individual Class Payment is $3,745.00. Id.

Individual Class Payments will be calculated based on the number of Workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.4. For tax purposes, the Individual Class Payments will be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to penalties, interest, and reimbursement of expenses. Id. at § 3.2.4.1. Defendant will separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments separate from the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at 3.1.

Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved employees will be calculated based on the number of Pay Periods worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period. Id. at § 3.2.5.1. For tax purposes, the Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated 100% to penalties. Id.

Any deductions not approved by the Court will be retained by the Settlement Administrator in the Net Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.2.4.2. Funds from any uncashed checks will be transmitted by the Settlement Administrator to the State Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member. Id. at § 4.4.3. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Id. at § 3.1.

B. Proposed Settlement Administration

The Parties' proposed Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of Court, Rule 3.766(d). See Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement. It provides information regarding the nature of this lawsuit, a summary of the Settlement terms, the formula used for calculating Individual Class and PAGA Payments and instructions to dispute the calculations, instructions on how to opt-out of or object to the Class Settlement, the date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing, and the amounts sought for the Class Representative Service Payment, attorneys' fees and litigation costs, and Settlement Administration Costs. See generally, id. The Class Notice also notifies Class Members that they do not need to submit a claim in order to participate in the Settlement and receive a payment. See id. The Settlement Administrator will mail Class Members the Class Notice by first-class mail in English and in Spanish. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.2.

If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the Class Notice within 5 calendar days to the forwarding address provided by the U.S. Postal Service. Id. at § 7.4.3. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. Id. The deadline to opt-out of the Class Settlement or to submit an objection or dispute will be extended by 14 days for all Class Members whose Class Notice was remailed. Id. at § 7.4.4.

C. Proposed Release

All Participating Class Members release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, the Released Parties from any and all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Class Complaint during the Class Period. Except as set forth in Paragraph 5.3 of the Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period. Id. at § 5.2.

All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors and assigns, the Released Parties from any and all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative PAGA Complaint and the PAGA Notice during the PAGA Period. Id. at § 5.3. Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release and a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. Id. at §§ 5.1, 5.1.1.

IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MEETS ALL CRITERIA FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

Class certification is appropriate when there is: (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous class; (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members; and (3) substantial benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class superior to the alternatives. Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Although courts still need to review and consider each element for certification, a lesser standard can be used to provisionally certify a settlement class. Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal.App.4th 836, 859 (2003).

1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

"Ascertainability" is determined by examining the class definition and the size of the class, and may also involve examining the means available to identify class members. Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-981, 985-986 (2019). As the settlement eliminates the need for trial, "the case management issues inherent in the ascertainable class determination need not be confronted." Global Minerals, 113 Cal.App.4th at 859. Further, under California law, there is no minimum number of class members for maintenance of a class action. Hendershot v. Ready to Roll Transp., Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1222 (2014). Class sizes as small as 10 have been permitted. Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981), disapproved on other grounds by Noel, 7 Cal.5th at 986.

The Class here consists of all persons currently or formerly employed by Defendant as hourly-paid, non-exempt employees in the State of California during the Class Period of February 29, 2020 through December 17, 2024. See Settlement Agreement at §§ 1.5, 1.13. The Class is also readily ascertainable from Defendant's business records, because all Class Members are or were employees of Defendant. Id. Defendant's records show that as of the date of mediation (October 18, 2024), there are approximately 138 Class Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10.

2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists

The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1021.

a. Common Questions Predominate

In determining whether common issues "predominate," courts consider both plaintiff's legal theories and defendant's affirmative defenses. Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat'l Ass'n, 59 Cal.4th 1, 28-29 (2014). The "predominate common questions" factor does not require that all class members have identical claims. Ayala v. Antelope Valley Newspapers, Inc., 59 Cal.4th 522, 530 (2014). Rather, the focus is on whether issues shared by the class members are sufficiently uniform to permit class-wide assessment, and whether individual variations in proof on those issues are manageable. Id.

Plaintiff has alleged that Defendant maintained common employment policies and/or practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal period, rest periods, reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, and timely payment of wages upon separation of employment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. These allegations present common factual and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies to all Class Members, whether these policies and practices resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendant's conduct was intentional, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved using Class Members' time records, payroll records, testimony from Defendant's designated representative(s), and Class Members' testimony. Id. Therefore, the Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes.

b. Plaintiff is Typical of the Class

Typicality does not require that the representative plaintiff's claims and those of the class members be identical or perfectly aligned. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228 (2001), disapproved on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc., 4 Cal.5th

WILSHIRE LAW FIRM, PLC
3055 Wilshire Blvd, 12th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

260, 269-280 (2018). Typicality does not require that a plaintiff's claims be identical to those of other class members, only that their claims and the defenses applicable to them are sufficiently similar to those of other class members that a named plaintiff is able to adequately represent the class and focus on common issues. Medrazo v. Honda of North Hollywood, 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 99 (2008).

Plaintiff has alleged that he and Class Members were employed by the same Defendant and injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant's scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. Through informal discovery, including the production of thousands of documents by Defendant, Plaintiff confirmed that these challenged policies and practices applied to Plaintiff as well as other Class Members. See id. at ¶ 9. Therefore, Plaintiff's claims and Class Members' claims arise from the same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal theories.

c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class

Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative and of the proposed class counsel. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. "Only a conflict that goes to the very subject matter of the litigation will defeat a party's claim of representative status." Richmond v. Dart Industries, 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 (1981). Only conflicts that are "irreconcilable" can defeat adequacy. Nat'l Solar Equip. Owners' Ass'n v. Grumman Corp., 235 Cal.App.3d 1273, 1286 (1991). The proposed representative Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel present no such conflict.

Plaintiff's interests are coextensive with Class Members' interests. Declaration of John Margaritis, Jr. in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval ("Margaritis Decl.") at ¶ 6. Plaintiff has demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of Class Members by initiating this lawsuit, gathering documents and information, being available on the day of mediation to answer questions, meeting with his attorneys to understand the claims and theories of liability at issue, assisting his attorneys in preparation for mediation, and reviewing the proposed Settlement. Id. at ¶ 7.

Likewise, Wilshire Law Firm has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Yslas Decl. Therefore, Plaintiff should

WILSHIRE LAW FIRM, PLC
3055 Wilshire Blvd, 12th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

be appointed Class Representative, and his counsel should be appointed Class Counsel, for purposes of settlement.

3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

Courts have held that class treatment of wage and hour claims is clearly "superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy." Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. v. Superior Court, 211 Cal.App.3d 758, 772-773 (1989). This is so because "[p]ublic policy has long favored the 'full and prompt payment of wages due an employee.'" Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 (2004). Here, a class action is superior to a multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of each Class Members' claim, Class Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweighs any potential recovery. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10. Therefore, a class action is the superior method for seeking relief.

B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

The moving party must demonstrate that "the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable." Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 126 (2008). "In determining whether a class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, such as the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement." Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-245 (internal quotations and citations omitted).

1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

A settlement is entitled to "a presumption of fairness . . . where : (1) the settlement is reached through arm's length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).

WILSHIRE LAW FIRM, PLC
3055 Wilshire Blvd, 12th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

The Settlement here satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at final approval after Class Members have been notified of the Settlement and provided with an opportunity to object.

a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm's Length Negotiation

Courts have recognized that the involvement of a respected mediator provides a high degree of assurance that the settlement is the result of arm's length bargaining. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-53 (2008). The Settlement in this matter was the product of a full-day mediation session with a respected mediator. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id.

b. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery Have Been Conducted

Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Id. at ¶ 9. Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value to the class claims using the documents and data Defendant produced in informal discovery, including class data providing the number of Class Members, the number of Workweeks in the Class Period, and the number of Pay Periods in the PAGA Period, Plaintiff's personnel file, Defendant's employment handbook and written policies, and a 20% random sampling of Class Members' time and payroll records. Id.

c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

Plaintiff is represented by Wilshire Law Firm. Id. at ¶ 1. Plaintiff's Counsel has extensive experience litigating wage and hour class actions on behalf of employees. See id. at ¶¶ 21-29. Plaintiff's Counsel have been involved as counsel in numerous class actions that have resulted in millions of dollars in recovery. See id.

2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims and the Risks and Expense of Further Litigation

A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered fair and reasonable. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Although the exposure Plaintiff's Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks at succeeding at class

3055 Wilshire Blvd, 12th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for settlement purposes. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 12.

Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiff's unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims were largely based on the allegation that Defendant required Class Members to perform work duties before clocking in. Id. at ¶ 13. Based on Plaintiff's estimate that he worked a total of 1 hour off-the-clock each week, Plaintiff's Counsel assumed each Class Member worked 1-hour off-the-clock per week in calculating potential exposure to be approximately $500,000.00 for these claims. Id. However, Defendant argued that any off-the-clock time was undocumented and unknown to Defendant, and that Defendant was therefore not obligated to pay for this time. Id. Defendant further argued that Plaintiff and other drivers (which made up a majority of the Class) were exempted from California's overtime requirements pursuant to IWC Wage Order exemptions, and only subject to federal overtime requirements, which undermined commonality. Because these wage claims would have relied heavily on Class Member testimony and would not be evidenced in Defendant's time and payroll records, in addition to potential overtime exemption issues for drivers, the risk of succeeding at class certification was substantial. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied an 80% risk discount to these claims to reach a settlement value of approximately $100,000.00 (or approximately 20% of the Gross Settlement Amount). Id.

Meal Periods: Plaintiff's meal period claim was largely based on the allegations that Defendant failed to provide Class Members compliant meal periods and maintain a policy and practice of paying meal period premiums when its time records showed Class Members' meal periods were late, short, or missed. Id. at ¶ 14. Plaintiff's Counsel found a violation rate of 50.2% in Defendant's time and payroll records and calculated potential exposure on this claim to be approximately $960,000.00. Id. However, Defendant argued that it did provide all Class Members compliant meal periods. Id. Defendant further argued that not only were meal periods paid for Plaintiff and other drivers, but also that California's meal period rules did not apply to them as preempted by federal regulations, which undermined commonality. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 63% risk discount to reach a settlement value of approximately $350,000.00 (or approximately 65% of the Gross Settlement Amount). Id.

WILSHIRE LAW FIRM, PLC
3055 Wilshire Blvd, 12th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

Rest Breaks: Plaintiff's rest period claim was largely based on the allegation that Defendant failed to relieve Class Members of all duties during rest periods because it required them to continue performing tasks during rest periods. Id. at ¶ 15. Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts over 3.5 hours and calculated a potential exposure of $1.9 million for this claim. Id. However, Defendant argued that it did not enforce any policy requiring Class Members to work during rest periods, and would be able to obtain declarations from Class Members attesting to such. Id. Defendant argued that California's rest period rules did not apply to Plaintiff and other drivers as preempted by federal regulations, which undermined commonality. Id. Because this claim would have relied exclusively on Class Member testimony, in addition to potential preemption issues for drivers, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 98.6% risk discount to this claim to reach a settlement value of approximately $30,000.00 (or approximately 5% of the Gross Settlement Amount). Id.

Reimbursements: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based on the allegation that Defendant required Class Members to purchase uniforms and personal protective equipment, and use personal cell phones, for work-related purposes. Id. at ¶ 16. Based on Plaintiff's estimate that he incurred $30 in unreimbursed expenses per month, Plaintiff's Counsel assumed each Class Member incurred $30 in unreimbursed expenses per month in calculating potential exposure to be approximately $120,000.00 for this claim. Id. However, Defendant argued that these expenses were not required by Defendant, and that it could not have known that these expenses were being incurred. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel could not attribute any value to this claim in terms of settlement value. Id.

Derivative Penalties: Plaintiff alleged that as a result of Defendant's alleged failure to pay all wages and meal and rest period premiums owed, Defendant owed waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties. Id. at ¶ 17. However, Defendant argued that it had good faith defenses that made the imposition of these penalties unwarranted. Id. Moreover, Plaintiff could not recover these penalties if he failed to prove the underlying claims. Id. Although Plaintiff's Counsel calculated that potential exposure for the waiting time penalty claim was approximately $280,000.00 and approximately $300,000.00 for the wage statement penalty claim, Plaintiff's

3055 Wilshire Blvd, 12th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010-1137

Counsel could not attribute any value to these claims in terms of settlement value. Id.

PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that Defendant's potential exposure could potentially reach $270,000.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would apply for each of the 2,700 Pay Periods in the PAGA Period. Id. at ¶ 18. However, even assuming success on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a variety of reasons, including where to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory. Id. Therefore, the settlement allocates $50,000.00 (approximately 10% of the Gross Settlement Amount) to PAGA, which amounts to approximately $15 per pay period. Id.

C. The Requested Service Payment is Reasonable

Plaintiff seeks a Class Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 for accepting the responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and potential costs that were not borne by any other Class Member. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1. A named plaintiff is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates her for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393 (2010); Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004).

Throughout this case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in gathering evidence necessary to prosecute the claims, maintained regular contact with counsel, was available on the day of mediation to answer questions, and reviewed the Settlement to ensure it was fair to the Class. Margaritis Decl. at ¶ 7. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th at 340. The requested Class Representative Service Payment is reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff has provided a declaration regarding her work performed to date and will provide additional information as requested or required by the Court at final approval.

D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equaling one-third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66, fn. 11 ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

Plaintiff seeks appointment of Wilshire Law Firm as Class Counsel for settlement purposes. The attorneys performed significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no guarantee of payment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 19. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval for $176,666.66 in attorneys' fees, which is up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and up to $25,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the extensive information exchange, and the substantial recovery obtained on behalf of the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Yslas Decl. At final approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award of attorneys' fees and litigation costs.

V. CONCLUSION

The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the class and PAGA claims in light of the risks presented in this case. Plaintiff has presented the materials and information necessary to demonstrate that the requirements for preliminary approval have been met, and therefore respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement and schedule a date for the Final Approval Hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
