MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Justin Abney (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a putative class and representative action settlement with Defendant Coastal Tractor (“Defendant”) (Plaintiff and Defendant are collectively referred to herein as “the Parties”) on behalf of himself and a proposed Settlement Class of individuals who worked for Defendant in California as hourly, non-exempt employees during the Class Period (“Class”). After participating in mediation, the Parties reached a settlement in the gross amount of $395,000.00 to resolve the instant action, subject to this Court’s final approval.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed settlement agreement between the Parties, the terms of which are set forth in the Parties’ Joint Stipulation of Class and PAGA Representative Action Settlement (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”). (See Kim Decl., Exhibit 1). The Settlement was reached after the Parties engaged in informal discovery and investigation, participated in mediation with a skilled mediator, and negotiated at arms-length through experienced counsel on both sides.

As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for preliminary approval under California law, falls well within the range of reasonableness, and is in the best interests of the Class. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court: (1) grant preliminary approval of the Settlement; (2) conditionally grant certification of the proposed Class solely for the purposes of Settlement, (3) approve the appointment of ILYM Group, Inc. (“ILYM”) as Settlement Administrator, (4) authorize the Settlement Administrator to send the Notice of Settlement (“Class Notice”), attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A, to the Class Members, (5) appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative and Plaintiff’s Counsel as Class Counsel, (6) and schedule a final fairness and approval of settlement hearing.

II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

A. Procedural History

Plaintiff worked as an hourly, non-exempt employee for Defendant and seeks to represent

1 approximately 79 current and former non-exempt hourly paid individuals who worked for 2 Defendant in California during the Class Period. (Kim Decl., ¶ 3.) Defendant operates as a for-3 profit corporation, which focuses on supplying, repairing, and selling construction and 4 agricultural equipment to various clients in Central Coast of California. (Id.) Defendant operates 5 various facilities including locations in Salinas, King City and Paso Robles, California. (Id.)
6 Class Members include those who worked for Defendant as sales associates and repair/service 7 technicians throughout California. (Id.)

8 On May 24, 2024, Plaintiff commenced a Class Action by filing a Complaint alleging 9 causes of action against Defendant for (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages; (2) Failure to Pay 10 Overtime Under Labor Code § 510; (3) Failure to Pay Vacation Wages; (4) Failure to Comply 11 with Labor Code § 245 et seq. and 246; (5) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (6)
12 Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (7) Failure to Provide Accurate Wage 13 Statements Under Labor Code § 226(a); (8) Failure to Maintain Records Under Labor Code §§
14 1174 and 1174.5; (9) Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records Under Labor Code §§
15 226 and 1198.5; (10) Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination Under Labor Code § 203; 16 (11) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses § 2802; and (12) Violation of Bus. &
17 Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq. (the “Class Action”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 4.)

18 Plaintiff also submitted a PAGA notice (LWDA-CM-1030452-24) to the Labor and 19 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) on May 24, 2024. (Kim Decl., ¶ 5.) On July 29, 20 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint (“Operative Complaint”) adding a claim for 21 civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act. (Id.)

22 Plaintiff contends that Defendant violated California’s wage and hour laws by failing to 23 pay minimum wage, failing to pay overtime wages, failing to pay vacation wages, failing to pay 24 sick pay wages, failing to provide compliant meal periods or meal break premium pay, failing to 25 provide compliant rest breaks or rest break premium pay, failing to provide accurate, itemized 26 wage statements, failing to maintain accurate records or provide requested records, failing to 27 timely pay wages during employment or upon separation and for waiting-time penalties, failing 28 to indemnify reasonable and necessary business expenses, and violating Business and

1 Professions Code 17200 et seq. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

2 B. Investigation

3 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation and 4 researched the facts and circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and applicable law. (Id. at 5 ¶ 7.) This required thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, in 6 addition to the above-described research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.)
7 After filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and claims 8 giving rise to the action, including (1) conducting informal discovery and meeting and conferring 9 with defense counsel about same; (2) reviewing and analyzing records and data, as well as 10 employment-related policies; (3) reviewing Plaintiff's personnel file and other documentation; 11 (4) interviewing Plaintiff regarding potential Class Members; (5) researching the applicable law 12 and potential defenses; (6) constructing damage models based on interpretations of California 13 law and the facts and numbers provided by Defendant; and (7) reviewing information provided 14 by Defendant in response to informal discovery and in advance of the mediation. (Id.) The 15 Parties conducted their own evaluations of the potential recoveries based on the claims alleged in 16 the Action, including consulting experts. (Id.)

17 Defendant, for its part, vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, 18 and the propriety of class certification. (Id. at ¶ 8.) After analyzing the relevant documents and 19 other gathered data, Class Counsel believed that this case was appropriate for resolution via 20 mediation. (Id.) Given the high level of risk present for both sides, the Parties elected to mediate 21 Plaintiff's claims and attempt settlement. (Id.)

22 C. Settlement Efforts

23 On May 6, 2025, the Parties attended an all-day mediation session with Hon. Howard 24 Broadman (Ret.), an experienced litigator and mediator in the field of wage and hour class 25 actions. (Kim Decl., ¶ 9.) During mediation, counsel for Plaintiff and Defendant discussed all 26 aspects of the case, including the risks of continued litigation and the risks to all parties of 27 proceeding with a class certification motion, as well as the merits of the primary claims in this 28 case. (Id.) Following mediation, the Parties accepted a mediator's proposal outlining general

1 settlement terms. (Id.) The Parties continued to work together on a long-form settlement 2 agreement following mediation, which resulted in the Settlement Agreement before the Court for 3 approval. (Id.)

4 From Class Counsel’s review of the strengths and weaknesses of the case and the risks 5 and delays posed by further litigation, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement is fair and 6 reasonable. (Id. at ¶ 10.) Further, the Settlement Agreement was the product of a non-collusive 7 settlement process in which the Parties were forced to make significant compromises in the 8 interest of reaching a full and complete settlement of the lawsuit. (Id.)

9 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

10 The Settlement Class/Class Period and Aggrieved Employees/PAGA Period: The 11 Settlement Agreement defines the Class as “all persons who worked for Defendant as non-12 exempt employees in the State of California at any time during the Class Period”, which is the 13 period from May 24, 2020, through preliminary approval. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement 14 Agreement, ¶ 3.) The Settlement Agreement also defines “Aggrieved Employees” as “all 15 individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant as non-exempt employees in the 16 State of California at any time during the PAGA Period,” which is the period from May 24, 17 2023, through preliminary approval. (Id. at Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 11.)

18 Key Financial Terms: Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, 19 Defendant has agreed to pay $395,000.00 (“Gross Settlement Amount”) on a non-reversionary 20 basis. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant promises to pay no more 21 than $395,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount and to pay the employer’s portion of any 22 payroll taxes on the wage allocation portion of the individual settlement payments to Class
23 Members. (Id.)

24 The “Net Settlement Amount” available for distribution to Class Members, is the Gross 25 Settlement Amount, less the following payments in the amount approved by the Court: Class 26 Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, Class Representative 27 Service Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, Individual PAGA Payments, and the 28 LWDA PAGA Payment. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.28.) These amounts are detailed as follows:

- Class Counsel's Fees and Litigation Expenses Payment: Up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, or $131,666.67, to Class Counsel as attorneys' fees for the litigation and resolution of this Action and actual costs incurred in this Action¹. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.2.);
- Class Representative Service Payment to Named Plaintiff: Up to $7,500.00 to Plaintiff as an award for his service as the class representative (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.1.);
- Administration Expenses Payment: A not-to-exceed amount of $6,650.00 to the Settlement Administrator for its costs of administration of the Settlement (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.3);
- PAGA Payment: $40,000.00 for settlement of claims for civil penalties under PAGA, with 25% ($10,000.00) allocated to the Aggrieved Employees ("Individual PAGA Payments") and 75% ($30,000.00) allocated to the LWDA ("LWDA PAGA Payment") (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.5).

If the Court approves the above allocations from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net Settlement Amount ("NSA") is estimated to be $192,828.28. (Kim Decl., at ¶ 12.) Twenty percent (20%) of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.4.1.). Each Participating Class Member's "Individual Class Payment" shall be calculated by the Settlement Administrator using the following formula: "(a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks." (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.4.). The "Individual Class Payment" means the Participating Class Member's pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount calculated according to the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Exhibit 1, Settlement

1 Agreement, ¶ 1.23.).

2 For the approximately 79 Class Members (if no exclusions), the average Gross Individual 3 Settlement Payment, using a straight average, is $2,440.86. The estimated average amount each 4 Class Member will receive per workweek based on the Net Settlement Amount and 11,356
5 workweeks is $17.01. (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.)

6 No affirmative duties imposed on Class: The Settlement Agreement does not impose 7 any affirmative duties on Participating Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 68.) No claim form is 8 required to participate in the Settlement. (Id.) Individuals who wish to opt out or object may do 9 so. (Id.)

10 Class Notice Procedures: Not later than 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary 11 Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the 12 Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, 13 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.2.) Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event 14 later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all 79 Class
15 Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class USPS mail, the Class Notice with Spanish 16 translation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 7.4.2.) The Class Notice 17 includes a summary of the case and settlement terms and provides Class Members with detailed 18 instructions on how to exclude themselves, object to the settlement, and dispute the number of 19 workweeks and/or pay periods attributed to each Class Member per Defendant's records. (Kim 20 Decl., ¶ 13.)

21 No later than three (3) business days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice 22 returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any 23 forwarding address provided by the USPS. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 24 7.4.3.). If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a 25 Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address 26 obtained. (Id.) The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send 27 Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time. (Id.) 28 Class Members who want to opt out must timely submit a signed and dated written request to be

1 excluded from the class portion of the Settlement to the Settlement Administrator (“Opt-Out
2 Request”). Class Members who wish to exclude themselves from (opt-out of) the Class 3 Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for 4 Exclusion not later than 45 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an 5 additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is remailed). (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, 6 Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 7.5.1.)

7 Settlement Administrator: The Parties have jointly selected ILYM Group, Inc.
8 (“ILYM”) to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, ILYM 9 agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this 10 Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Parties and their Counsel 11 represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator 12 other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.
13 (Kim Decl., ¶ 13). ILYM has experience administering class action and PAGA settlements, has 14 procedures in place to protect the security of class data, adequate insurance in the event of a data 15 breach or defalcation of funds, and is qualified to administer the Settlement. (See Declaration of 16 Lisa Mullins, which also includes a breakdown of the anticipated costs of class notice.) In 17 addition, ILYM will have a website for Class Members to review and reference for details 18 regarding the Final Approval Hearing and any Final Approval Order and Judgement. (Kim Decl., 19 ¶ 13.) If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, a copy of the Final Approval Order 20 and Judgment will be posted on this website for Class Members to review. (Id.) The website will 21 be provided to Class Members in the Class Notice that is mailed to them. (Id.)

22 Funding and Payment of Settlement: Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement 23 Amount and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant’s share of payroll taxes by 24 transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than one (1) year from the date of Mediation, 25 or June 23, 2026, whichever date is later. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.3.)

26 Within 14 days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator 27 will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA 28 PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the 1 Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative Service Payment.

2 (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.) The Administrator will issue checks for the 3 Individual Class Payments and/or Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class 4 Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid. The face of each check shall prominently 5 state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided.
6 The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, 7 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.1.) For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check 8 or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the 9 Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's 10 Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" 11 subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). (Kim 12 Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.3.)

13 Releases: Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement 14 Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class 15 Payments, Plaintiff, Class Members, and Aggrieved Employees will release claims against all 16 Released Parties as follows. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5.)

17 Release by Participating Class Members: Plaintiff and all Participating Class Members, 18 on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, 19 attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release the Released Parties from all 20 claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the 21 Operative Complaint ("Released Class Claims") and arising during the Class Period. These 22 include (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages; (2) Failure to Pay Overtime Under Labor Code §
23 510; (3) Failure to Pay Vacation Wages; (4) Failure to Comply with Labor Code § 245 et seq.
24 and 246; (5) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (6) Rest-Break Liability Under 25 Labor Code § 226.7; (7) Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements Under Labor Code § 26 226(a); (8) Failure to Maintain Records Under Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5; (9) Failure to 27 Produce Requested Employment Records Under Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5; (10) Failure to 28 Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination Under Labor Code § 203; (11) Failure to Reimburse

Necessary Business Expenses § 2802; and (12) Violation of Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5.2.)

Release by Aggrieved Employees: All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from any and all claims for civil penalties under PAGA that were alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint and in the PAGA Notice ("Released PAGA Claims") arising during the PAGA Period. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5.3.)

IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS APPROPRIATE

Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage and hour actions as class actions. Prince v. CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462. Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 473-75.) The decision to certify a class is a procedural one and should be based on the allegations in the operative complaint, and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.

To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be represented. See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab Company (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704. These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

A. There Is a Numerous and Ascertainable Class

Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size of the class, and the means available for identifying class members. See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal.

3d at 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego County (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271. Class members are “ascertainable” when they may be readily identified without unreasonable expense or time.

Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that the numerosity and ascertainability elements are satisfied here. Class Members are individuals who worked for Defendant in California as non-exempt, hourly employees during the Settlement Class Period (i.e. the period from May 24, 2020, through preliminary approval). Defendant has identified 79 Class Members based on a review of its payroll and personnel records. (Id., ¶ 15.)

Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

B. There Is a Well-Defined Community of Interest

A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

[D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of any recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The mere fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself preclude a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as every member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which determined in plaintiffs’ favor whatever questions were common to the class.

Id. at 809.

Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiff, and the Class is united in its proof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 16.) Because Plaintiff has alleged a single scheme, “the relevant proof [does] not vary among class members” and “clearly presents a common question fundamental to all class members.” See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation (SDNY 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, (SDNY 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518). California courts show “no hesitancy” in inferring class-wide causation, class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common course of action has

1 been shown. B.W.I. Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350. This inference “eliminates the 2 need for each class member to prove individually the consequences of the defendants’ actions to 3 him or her.” Id. at 1351 (quoting Rosack v. Volvo of America Corp (1982) 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 4 753 [emphasis added]).

5 This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendant’s alleged failure to pay 6 minimum wage, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to pay vacation wages, failure to pay sick 7 pay wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods or meal break premium pay, failure to 8 provide compliant rest breaks or rest break premium pay, failure to provide accurate, itemized 9 wage statements, failure to maintain accurate records or provide requested records, failure to 10 timely pay wages during employment or upon separation and for waiting-time penalties, failure 11 to indemnify reasonable and necessary business expenses, and largely derivative claims under 12 the UCL and PAGA. (Kim Decl., ¶ 16.) Plaintiff contends Defendant’s practices affected Class 13 Members in the same way and presents questions that are suitable for common adjudication 14 because all Class Members were subject to the same employment policies and practices. (Id.)
15 The outcome of litigation in this matter depends upon questions that are common to Class
16 Members. (Id.)

17 C. The Named Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical

18 A class representative’s claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, 19 or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their 20 claims rest on the same legal theories. The class representative’s claims must be “typical” but not 21 necessarily identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative 22 is similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class 23 members. Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens- 24 Illinois, Inc. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (“[I]t has never been the law in California that 25 the class representative must have identical interests with the class members.”). Thus, it is not 26 necessary that the class representative should have personally incurred all the damages suffered 27 by each of the other class members. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 28 224, 228.

1 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 2 Plaintiff's claims are typical of Class Members' claims because they arose from the same factual 3 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Kim Decl., ¶ 17.) Thus, Plaintiff's claims are 4 typical of the claims of the putative Class. (Id.)

5 D. Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representative

6 As detailed below, Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their 7 client zealously, and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 18, 69-77.) The Class 8 Representative's interests are aligned with those of the Class Members, as he has suffered the 9 same injuries as the Class Members and has no conflicts of interest. (Id. at ¶ 18.) Plaintiff has not 10 shrunk from this responsibility. (Id.) Indeed, Plaintiff has devoted a substantial amount of time 11 and energy to litigating this Action and effectuating a settlement. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel 12 and the Class Representative are adequate.

13 E. Predominance and Superiority

14 Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 19.)
15 As explained, supra, Plaintiff alleges there are common issues of law and fact given that Plaintiff 16 and all Class Members were subjected to the same policies and pay practices during the relevant 17 time period. (Id.) Plaintiff and Class Members seek meal and rest premiums, unpaid wages and 18 overtime, reimbursement for business expenses, and penalties for work performed as non-exempt 19 employees for Defendant. (Id.) Plaintiff alleges that these issues are suitable for common 20 adjudication because all Class Members were allegedly subject to the same employment policies, 21 and Plaintiff contends the practices applied uniformly to all Class Members. (Id.)

22 Plaintiff contends that class resolution is superior to other available methods for the fair 23 and efficient adjudication of the controversy as there is little interest or incentive for Class 24 Members to individually control the prosecution of separate actions. (Id. at ¶ 20.) Although the 25 alleged injury resulting from Defendant's policies and practices are real and significant, the cost 26 of individually litigating each such case against Defendant would easily exceed the value of any 27 relief that could be obtained by any one Class Member individually. (Id.) If Class Members are 28 forced to litigate their claims individually, it would potentially result in over 79 individual actions against Defendant, each for relatively small amounts. (Id.) Hence, an individual suit would prove uneconomical for potential plaintiff because litigation costs would dwarf a potential recovery. (Id.)

VI. THE THREE-STEP APPROVAL PROCESS

California Rule of Court 3.769 requires court approval of the settlement of class action lawsuits. Preliminary approval is merely the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for settlements of class actions. See Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The second approval step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all Class Members. Id. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented and Class Members may be heard. Id.

The determination of whether a settlement should be preliminarily approved requires, “basic information about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. However, the record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that the class could recover. See Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 409 (“Kullar does not... require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record which allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”). “If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then the court should direct that notice be given to the Class Members of a formal fairness hearing, at which evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.” Manual for Complex Litigation, Second § 30.44, at 229.

In deciding whether to approve a proposed class action settlement, the Court must find that a proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable” and falls within the “range of approval.” Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801-02. The trial court considers all relevant factors, such as “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.” Id. The Settlement satisfies all of these requirements.

VII. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

The Court’s decision to preliminarily approve a settlement is granted great deference as an exercise within its broad discretion. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-235. As a matter of public policy, courts both encourage the use of the class action device and favor settlement over continued litigation. See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system.”); Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class action litigation is concerned.”). Applying the above factors, the proposed settlement provides a substantial benefit to the Class. It is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved.

A. The Settlement is the Result of Serious, Informed, Non-Collusive Negotiations.

The proposed Settlement was reached as a result of arm’s length negotiations after the completion of pertinent discovery and the exchange of necessary class data. (Kim Decl. ¶ 22.) The negotiations have been, at all times, adversarial and non-collusive in nature. (Id.) See, 4 Newberg on Class Actions § 13:45 (5th ed.) (due to the preference of settlement over litigation, “a court will presume that a proposed class action settlement is fair when certain factors are present, particularly evidence that the settlement is the product of arms-length negotiation, untainted by collusion.”). Although Plaintiff steadfastly maintains that his claims are meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that there were substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding with litigation. (Id.) As discussed below, Defendant presented multiple defenses to Plaintiff’s claims, both on the merits and with respect to class certification. (Id.) Thus, while Plaintiff was prepared

1 to litigate these claims through class certification, and ultimately trial, success was far from 2 guaranteed. (Id.) Assistance from a well-respected mediator ensured negotiations between the 3 Parties were non-collusive and well-informed. (Id.)

4 B. Extent of Discovery and Stage of Proceedings.

5 As stated above, the Parties engaged in substantial informal discovery before the 6 Settlement was reached to allow them to fully evaluate the class claims and Defendant's 7 defenses. (Id. at ¶ 23.) This litigation has reached the stage where the Parties have a clear view of 8 their respective strengths and weaknesses in this case. (Id.)

9 C. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and the Risk, Expense, Complexity, and 10 Likely Duration of Any Litigation.

11 Plaintiff's claims are based on Defendant's alleged failure to pay minimum wage, failure 12 to pay overtime wages, failure to pay vacation wages, failure to pay sick pay wages, failure to 13 provide compliant meal periods or meal break premium pay, failure to provide compliant rest 14 breaks or rest break premium pay, failure to provide accurate, itemized wage statements, failure 15 to maintain accurate records or provide requested records, failure to timely pay wages during 16 employment or upon separation and for waiting-time penalties, failure to indemnify reasonable 17 and necessary business expenses, and largely derivative claims under the UCL and PAGA. (Id. at 18 ¶ 24).

19 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members at least 20 minimum wages for all hours worked and proper overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 21 eight hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. (Kim Decl., ¶ 25.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that 22 Defendant rounded time punches to the nearest quarter hour. (Id.) Furthermore, Plaintiff alleges 23 that Defendant prohibited early clock ins and late clock outs without prior approval. (Id.) Lastly, 24 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant did not factor in quarterly commission payments into the regular 25 rate of pay. (Id.)

26 Defendant contends that it did not require off the clock work, paid for all reported hours 27 worked, that Class Members were instructed and required to record all hours worked, that any 28 alleged off the clock work was performed without Defendant's knowledge and was de minimis,

1 and that it paid wages at the proper rates. (Kim Decl., at ¶ 26.) Defendant also argued that any 2 bonuses or incentive pay was discretionary and not includable in calculation of the regular rate of 3 pay. (Id.) Defendant also argued that given their written policies and practices, any unrecorded 4 hours are likely subject to individualized inquiry and unlikely to be certified. (Id.) Given the 5 difficulty in certifying this claim, Class Counsel applied a significant discount to damages based 6 on this theory. (Id.)

7 Plaintiff also alleged that Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 8 lawful first and second meal periods. (Kim Decl., ¶ 27.) For example, Plaintiff alleges that meal 9 periods were constantly missed, interrupted or cut short as Plaintiff and Class Members were 10 required to carry and monitor a work cell phone at all times during their shifts. (Id.) To the extent 11 Defendant required Class Members to work over ten hours on a work shift, Plaintiff alleges that 12 Defendant also failed to provide second meal periods. (Id.)

13 Defendant contends that Class Members were given a reasonable opportunity to take their 14 meal periods and that any meal periods not properly taken were at the voluntary election of Class 15 Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28.) Defendant further contends that the meal break claim requires 16 individualized inquiries which would preclude class certification. (Id.) If Defendant's 17 contentions prevail in trial, the likely outcome would be no recovery for the Class Members on 18 the meal break claim. (Id.)

19 Plaintiff also contends that Defendant did not provide Class Members with paid 10-20 minute rest breaks for every four hours or major fraction thereof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 29.) For example, 21 Plaintiff alleges that Class Members were not permitted to take all of their required rest breaks 22 due to their job duties and requirements imposed by Defendant. (Id.) Further, Plaintiff alleges 23 that Defendant exerted control over Plaintiff and Class Members or otherwise required them to 24 perform job-related duties during any rest breaks they were authorized and permitted to take.
25 (Id.)

26 Defendant maintains that it did provide a reasonable opportunity for Class Members to 27 take duty-free rest breaks during their shifts and dispute all allegations that rest breaks were not 28 provided. (Kim Decl., ¶ 30.) Considering that unlike meal periods, rest breaks need not be

1 recorded, these violations would likely be difficult to prove at trial and potentially depress the 2 damages ultimately awarded. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel applied significant and appropriate 3 discounts to the rest break claim. (Id.)

4 Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to 5 incur certain expenses for their jobs with Defendant, including but not limited to use of their 6 personal cellular phones for work purposes. (Kim Decl., ¶ 31.) Defendant denies this claim and 7 argues that Class Members were not required to incur expenses that are reimbursable under the 8 law and that such a claim requires individualized inquiries which would preclude class 9 certification. (Id.)

10 As for the wage statement and waiting time penalties claims, Plaintiff alleges that 11 Defendant consistently failed to provide Class Members with accurate and itemized wage 12 statements and all wages due to Class Members upon termination of their employment with 13 Defendant. (Kim Decl., ¶ 32.) Defendant contends that these claims are merely derivative of the 14 underlying claims and that Plaintiff and Class Members would be unable to first establish 15 liability for the underlying claims for the reasons described above. (Id.) Defendant further 16 contends that even if they could first establish liability for the underlying claims, Plaintiff and 17 Class Members would be unable to establish that Defendant's conduct was willful and knowing 18 as required by the relevant statutes since Defendant acted in good faith to provide accurate wage 19 statements and pay all wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members. (Id.) Thus, Defendant 20 contends that the wage statement and waiting time penalties claims to have little to no value.
21 (Id.)

22 Further, Defendant contend that the PAGA claim is also derivative of the underlying 23 claims in the Action and ultimately fails because the underlying claims have no merit. (Kim 24 Decl., ¶ 33.) Defendant also contends that even if Plaintiff and Class Members could establish 25 Labor Code violations, the Court has the discretion to award less than the maximum civil penalty 26 amount and would award substantially less civil penalties here because Defendant acted in good 27 faith to comply with the relevant wage and hour laws and any violations were minor and 28 technical in nature. (Id.)

1 Defendant generally denies all claims alleged in the Action and further denies class 2 and/or representative treatment is appropriate for any purpose other than this Settlement and that 3 it complied with all applicable laws. (Kim Decl., ¶ 34.) However, Defendant has concluded that 4 further litigation would be protracted and expensive and that it is desirable that the Action be 5 fully and finally settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions herein. (Id.)

6 As stated above, while Plaintiff and Class Counsel contend the claims asserted in the 7 Action have merit, they also acknowledge the expense, delay, and risks of continued litigation.
8 (Kim Decl., ¶ 35.) Although the Parties engaged in significant informal discovery in advance of 9 mediation, the Parties still had significant discovery to complete had the matter not settled. (Id.) 10 This would have required the expenditure of substantial time and resources by both Parties that 11 would have very likely spanned several years. (Id.) Even if Plaintiff was to certify the classes, 12 the Parties would incur considerably more attorney fees and costs through a possible 13 decertification motion, trial, and possible appeal. (Id.) This Settlement avoids those risks and the 14 accompanying expense. (Id.)

15 D. The Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial.

16 Plaintiff has not yet filed his motion for class certification, and as such, the extent to 17 which Plaintiff's proposed classes are certifiable is somewhat speculative. (Id. at ¶ 36.) Absent 18 settlement, there is a risk that there would not be a certified class at the time of trial, or if there 19 were, it could consist of a significantly smaller group of employees than the proposed Settlement 20 Class, resulting in less overall recovery. (Id.)

21 Finally, in class actions, decertification is always a possibility, and there is always a risk 22 that a trial of this magnitude can become unmanageable. (Id. at ¶ 37.) Cases like Duran v. U.S.
23 Bank Nat. Assn. (2014) 59 Cal. 4th 1, 34 address the complexity of using statistical samples in 24 class actions and demonstrate that decertification is a real risk that Class Counsel must consider.
25 (Id.) A class trial would have also required expert witnesses, the accrual of extensive litigation 26 costs, and the commitment of extensive further time and financial resources. (Id.) Finally, given 27 the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues, it is somewhat likely that any outcome at trial 28 would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal would result in further delay for

1 the Class Members who have already waited years for resolution in this matter. (Id.) Risk and 2 legal uncertainty must be dealt with in any litigation, and this Settlement was the product of 3 compromise accounting for those risks and uncertainty. (Id.)

4 E. The Presence of a Governmental Participant

5 Class Counsel will be submitting the Settlement Agreement and this Motion to the 6 LWDA concurrently with the filing of this Motion pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). (Id. at ¶ 7 38.)

8 F. The Amount Offered in Settlement is Fair Given the Potential Value of the 9 Claims.

10 If the Court approves the requested allocations from the Gross Settlement Amount of 11 $395,000.00 as addressed above, the Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be $192,828.28.
12 (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.) There are approximately 79 total Class Members. (Id.) If there are no 13 exclusions from the Class, the average gross Individual Settlement Payment, per Class Member, 14 using a straight average, is $2,444.56. (Id.) The estimated average amount each Class Member 15 will receive per workweek based on the Net Settlement Amount and 11,356 workweeks is 16 $17.01. (Id.)

17 Based on an analysis of Plaintiff's time and pay records and a sampling of time and pay 18 records for the Class, Plaintiff estimated the potential realistic exposure for the main claims as 19 follows: $97,046.60 for unpaid wages claims, including overtime, due to off the clock work; 20 $203,805.80 for meal period violations; $96,348.50 for rest period violations; $40,464.80 in 21 waiting time penalties; $40,800.00 for wage statement penalties; $17,865.40 for unreimbursed 22 business expenses; and $44,000.00 for PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶¶ 41-59) As such, the total 23 estimated realistic exposure Defendant could face is $540,331.10. (Id. at ¶ 61.)

24 The Gross Settlement Amount of $395,000.00 represents a recovery for the Class of 25 approximately 73% of the total realistic exposure Plaintiff estimated that Defendant could face 26 on the primary claims in this case. (Id.) Plaintiff and Class Counsel submit that this is an optimal 27 result in the face of uncertainty and the prospects of protracted and contested litigation through 28 class certification, summary judgment, and trial, and particularly in light of all of the factors described above. (Id.)

G. A Balance of Risk Factors and Kullar Analysis Support Approval

In deciding whether to approve the settlement, the Court must balance these risk factors against an “understanding of the amount in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130, 133; Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-09. The court “must stop short of the detailed and thorough investigation that it would undertake if it were actually trying the case” Munoz, at 408. Plaintiff’s counsel used the comprehensive data and documents provided to perform an analysis of the potential exposure Defendants faced on Plaintiff’s main class-wide claims, establishing the realistic range of outcomes in this case. As noted above, the Gross Settlement Amount represents a recovery of approximately 73% of the estimated total realistic exposure facing Defendants. (Kim Decl., ¶ 61.)

There was a very real prospect that nothing would be recovered by the Class if litigation continued and class certification were ultimately denied. At the same time, further litigation would require the expenditure of significant time and financial resources, and there is always the possibility of adverse developments in the law and the likelihood of extended battles in both the trial court and courts of appeal. Settlement is a prudent compromise that benefits the Class Members promptly.

H. Experience and Views of Counsel

Experienced counsel, operating at arm’s length, have weighed the strengths of the case, examined all the issues and risks of litigation, and endorsed the proposed settlement. Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their clients zealously, and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 69-77.) Class Counsel submits the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable in view of the risks and other considerations addressed and is well-suited for final approval upon completion of the administration process. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 61, 77.)

VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE PROVIDES ADEQUATE NOTICE TO THE CLASS MEMBERS.

To be deemed proper, a notice must provide the Class Members with sufficient 1 information to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement.

2 Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314. The notice must 3 apprise the Class Members of the pendency of the action; reasonably convey information 4 regarding the settlement and the Class Members' rights, entitlements, and obligations; and 5 affords Class Members the opportunity to present their objections. Id.

6 The proposed Class Notice provides all the information a reasonable person would need 7 to make a fully informed decision about the settlement. It will notify all Class Members of the 8 terms of the Settlement, its effect on their rights, their options as Class Members (i.e., participate, 9 object, opt-out, and dispute work weeks), and procedures for exercising those options. (Kim
10 Decl., ¶ 13.)

11 The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether it has "a reasonable 12 chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members." Cartt v. Superior Court 13 (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 974. Here, the Class Notice will be sent via first-class mail to each of 14 the 79 Class Members at their addresses from Defendant's records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, 15 Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.4.2.) Not later than 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary 16 Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the 17 Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 18 4.2.) Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after 19 receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all 79 Class Members identified in the 20 Class Data, via first-class USPS mail, the Class Notice with Spanish translation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 21 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 4.2, 7.4.2.) No later than three (3) business days after the 22 Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the 23 Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the 24 USPS. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.4.3.) Class Notice should be 25 approved as the best and most practicable way to ensure the greatest possible number of Class 26 Members will receive notice. (Kim Decl., ¶ 67.)

27 IX. THE STIPULATED CLASS COUNSEL ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

28 AWARDS ARE REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

1 Class Counsel respectfully requests, without opposition from Defendant, a Class Counsel
2 Fees Payment of $131,666.67 (up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) and a reasonable 3 Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of actual costs currently estimated to be $16,355.05, 4 subject to approval by the Court. (Kim Decl. ¶ 11.)

5 Class Counsel submits it has the requisite experience, knowledge, and resources to serve 6 as Class Counsel and to zealously represent the Class. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 69-77.) Class Counsel have 7 incurred substantial hours in prosecuting this Action on a contingency basis and will not receive 8 any compensation for their efforts until recovery is obtained for the Class. (Kim Decl. ¶ 62.) In 9 addition, Class Counsel's efforts in reaching the Settlement on behalf of the Class will confer a 10 significant benefit to the Class. (Id.) As such, the requested Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees and 11 Class Counsel Costs Award are reasonable.

12 X. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENT IS FAIR AND 13 REASONABLE

14 "At the conclusion of a class action, the class representatives are eligible for a special 15 payment in recognition of their service to the class." 5 Newberg on Class Actions § 17:1 (5th 16 ed.). Courts approve incentive awards to plaintiffs when justified and appropriate to compensate 17 plaintiffs for time, effort, and inconvenience. Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co., 901 F. Supp.
18 294, 297 (N.D. Cal. 1995). These payments are intended to recognize the time and efforts that 19 the Class Representatives have spent on behalf of the Class. "Courts routinely approve incentive 20 awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provide and the risks they incurred 21 during the course of the class action litigation." See Ingram v. The Coca-Cola Company (N.D.
22 Ga. 2001) 200 F.R.D. 685, 694 (quoting In re Southern Ohio Correctional Facility (S.D. Ohio 23 1997) 175 F.R.D. 270, 272). In Coca-Cola, the court approved service awards of $300,000 to 24 each named plaintiff in recognition of the services they provided to the class by responding to 25 discovery, participating in the mediation process, and taking the risk of stepping forward on 26 behalf of the class. Ingram v. Coca-Cola Co. (2001) 200 F.R.D. 685, 694; see also Van Vranken, 27 supra, 901 F.Supp. at 299 (approving $50,000 participation award to plaintiffs).

28 Plaintiff is entitled to a reasonable service payment for his efforts and initiative in

1 bringing and helping to prosecute this action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 63.) Plaintiff spent significant time 2 better apprising himself of his rights, deciding whether remedial action should be taken and how 3 it should be taken, searching for attorneys, and communicating with Class Counsel. Plaintiff was 4 consistently communicative with counsel, routinely checked-in, and was responsive to Class 5 Counsel's requests for information for discovery, documentation, and meetings. (Id.)

6 Both before and after the filing of this lawsuit, Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel on 7 to discuss every aspect of his case. Plaintiff performed the following tasks, among others:

- 8 • Assisted counsel in investigating and substantiating the claims alleged in this action;
- 9 • Provided Class Counsel with information about Defendant and about the industry 10 generally;
- 11 • Consulted with Class Counsel regarding litigation strategy and monitored the progress of 12 the litigation;
- 13 • Produced evidentiary documents to his counsel;
- 14 • Identified witnesses;
- 15 • Attended mediation on behalf of the Class;
- 16 • Reviewed and signed the Settlement Agreement; and
- 17 • Reviewed and signed his declaration in support of preliminary and final approval.

18 See Declaration of Justin Abney ("Abney Decl.") ¶ 15; Kim Decl. ¶ 64.

19 In agreeing to be the named plaintiff in this litigation, Plaintiff accepted a number of 20 risks. For example, Plaintiff accepted the potential risk of being liable for Defendants' costs and 21 potentially the company's fees if the lawsuit was unsuccessful. Further, Plaintiff risked the 22 potential stigma of being a class representative in a class action labor dispute, which may affect 23 his future employability. (Kim Decl., ¶ 65.)

24 Plaintiff seeks an enhancement in the amount not to exceed $7,500.00 as Class 25 Representative. Plaintiff secured a benefit for the Class worth $395,000.00. In the aggregate, the 26 requested enhancement represents only a small percentage of the settlement consideration. The 27 total amount which Plaintiff is requesting to be allocated to a service award is approximately 28 1.9% of the total settlement amount. In light of the foregoing, Class Counsel believes that the

1 $7,500.00 service award to the Class Representative is fair and reasonable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 66.)

2 XI. THE ACTION REQUESTED AS A PART OF THE MOTION FOR 3 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

4 Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court, as part of the preliminary approval process, to 5 grant the following relief and make the following orders:

6 1. Review and approve the Settlement Agreement;

7 2. Review and approve the Class Notice, attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit
