Attorneys for Plaintiff HENRY ASECIO, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES-CENTRAL DISTRICT

HENRY ASECIO, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

MOZZA, LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 24STCV18267

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF HENRY ASECIO'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff HENRY ASECIO ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains on information and belief except as to those allegations relating to plaintiff himself , which are asserted on personal knowledge, against Defendants MOZZA, LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

- This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.

1 (“PAGA”) representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself 2 and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-3 exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated 4 with Defendants’ violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants’ failure to pay wages for all 5 hours worked at the employees’ minimum wage rate or overtime rate, failure to provide all legally 6 required and legally compliant meal and rest periods, failure to timely pay earned wages during 7 employment, failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay all 8 unpaid wages following separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, 9 following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable 10 attorneys’ fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, 11 the State of California, and others aggrieved.

12 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 14 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff’s lawsuit seeks 15 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 16 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars 17 ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-18 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 19 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 20 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 641 Highland Avenue Los 21 Angeles, CA 90036.

22 III. PARTIES

23 3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 24 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 25 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 26 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will 27 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 28 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 1 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 2 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles County 3 from approximately 2020 until on or about December 16, 2023.

4 4. Defendant MOZZA, LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California
5 and is doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all 6 times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant MOZZA, LLC in the 7 establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies.
8 Defendant MOZZA, LLC operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved 9 employees in Los Angeles County , including but not limited to, at 641 Highland Avenue Los 10 Angeles, CA 90036.

11 5. Defendants DOES 1 through 50 are corporations or other business entities or 12 organizations of a nature unknown to Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California 13 non-exempt employees, permitted Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised 14 control over the wages, hours and working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved 15 employees.

16 6. Defendants DOES 51 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each 17 Defendant is sued individually and in their capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, 18 representative, manager, supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant
19 who violated or caused to be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor 20 Code and/or any provision of the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours 21 and days of work.

22 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 23 sues said defendants by said fictitious names and will amend this complaint when the true names 24 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 25 permitted by law or by the Court. Each fictitiously named defendant is in some manner 26 responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this complaint.

27 8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 28 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and

1 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 4 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

5 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 6 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

8 9. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation 9 contained in this pleading as though fully set forth herein.

10 10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 11 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 12 1197, and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 14 Labor Code:

15 12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
16 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
17 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 18 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 19 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 20 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

21 13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 22 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 23 Wage Orders.

24 14. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 25 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 26 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 27 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 28 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to,

1 (a) Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-2 exempt employees were required to prepare ingredients off-the-clock.

4 15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 5 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 6 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 7 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 8 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 9 Wage Order.

10 16. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
11 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
12 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 13 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 14 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 15 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.

16 17. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 17 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 18 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

19 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) 20 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 21 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-22 one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve 23 (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular 24 rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any 25 seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the 26 regular rate of pay of an employee. Labor Code § 510.

27 18. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 28 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to,

(a) Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to prepare ingredients off-the-clock.

1 19. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 2 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 3 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 4 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 5 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 6 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed
7 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 8 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

9 20. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 10 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other 11 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 12 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

13 21. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 14 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 15 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 16 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at § 11; 17 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not 18 employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the 19 employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of 20 the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the 21 meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on 22 duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from 23 being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal 24 periods.

25 22. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 26 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 27 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 28 §§ 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at § 11.

1 23. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 2 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-3 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 4 limited to,

5 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 6 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes 7 for every five hours worked.

8 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of 10 no less than thirty (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former 11 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

12 24. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 13 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-14 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each 15 workday that Plaintiff and/or other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-16 exempt employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of 17 Labor Code section 226.7.

18 25. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff 19 and/or other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 20 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them 21 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

22 26. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other 24 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 25 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26 27. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 27 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor 28 Code § 226.7; Wage Order 5 at § 12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10

1 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 2 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so 3 on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code
4 § 226.7; Wage Order 5 at § 12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each 5 work period. Wage Order 5 at § 12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers 6 to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security 7 Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve 8 employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

10 28. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer 11 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday 12 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code § 226.7; Wage 13 Order 5 at § 12.

14 29. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 15 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 16 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 17 limited to,

18 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 19 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 20 or major fraction thereof.

21 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
22 California-based hourly non-exempt employees a third uninterrupted duty-free rest period of no 23 less than ten (10) net minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former 24 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

25 30. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 26 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-27 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each 28 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

1 31. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
2 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 3 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with 4 rest periods in compliance with California law.

5 32. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 6 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 7 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code § 204(a). Wages earned 8 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th 9 and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of 10 any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other 11 payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within 12 seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned.
13 Labor Code § 204(d).

14 33. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 15 to timely pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 16 employees their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium 17 wages and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 18 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff and 19 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees their earned 20 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

21 34. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 22 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 23 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 24 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including 25 by failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and 26 lawful sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 27 246, 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by 28 Labor Code section 1198, Defendants secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while

1 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

3 35. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 4 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 5 employee his or her wages, the employer must “furnish each of his or her employees ... an 6 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 7 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 8 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 9 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable 10 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 11 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 12 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 13 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 14 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 15 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

16 36. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff
17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 18 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest 19 period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-20 based hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code 21 section 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

22 37. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 23 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 24 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 25 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

26 38. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay 27 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 28 all of their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after

1 each employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 2 203.

3 39. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorize an aggrieved 4 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 5 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 6 Labor Code section 2699.3.

7 40. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 8 Code section 2699.3. On May 20, 2024, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 9 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 10 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 11 violations alleged.

12 41. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 13 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 14 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 15 parties notice within 65 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 16 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

17 42. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 18 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 19 226.7, 510, 512, and 1194, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 20 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 21 following amounts:

22 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), and 226.7; one 23 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 24 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 25 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

26 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred 27 fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and one 28 thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent violation, for each underpaid employee for each pay

1 period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

2 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for 3 each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for 4 each subsequent violation, for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 5 established by Labor Code section 558].

6 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 7 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each
8 subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, for each failure to pay each employee,
9 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 10 section 210].

11 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 12 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each
13 subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, for each failure to pay each employee,
14 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 15 section 225.5].

16 43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 17 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his/her claims for civil penalties.

18 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

19 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER 20 AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

21 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

22 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and 23 the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

24 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 25 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 26 California Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

27 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 28 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and

2 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 3 appropriate.
