CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

DECLARATION OF KANE MOON IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS
AND PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION SETTLEMENT

*[Filed with Plaintiff's Notice of Motion and Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of Plaintiff, and [Proposed]
Preliminary Approval Order]*

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL HEARING:

Date: August 26, 2026

Time: 10:30 a.m.

Dept.: 1

Judge: Hon. Theresa M. Traber

Action Filed: May 21, 2024

Trial Date: Not set

I, KANE MOON, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice as such before all Courts of the State of California and am one of the attorneys of record for Plaintiff Roberto Flores (“Plaintiff”) and the putative Class. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein and if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to the facts described herein.

CASE BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2. This is a wage-and-hour class and representative action for alleged Labor Code violations and claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant Commodity Forwarders, Inc. (“Defendant”) during the Class Period (or if any such person is incompetent, deceased, or unavailable due to military service, the person’s legal representative or successor in interest evidenced by reasonable verification), as set forth in the Joint Stipulation of Class and Representative Action Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”). A true and correct copy of the Settlement is attached to the instant Declaration as Exhibit 1. The proposed Class Notice is attached to the Settlement as Exhibit A.

3. Defendant is a logistics and freight forwarding firm that provides ad-hoc domestic trucking and temperature-controlled pickup and delivery services to points throughout the United States. Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class Period. Plaintiff contends he and his coworkers were subjected to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for all hours worked.

4. Plaintiff's claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work and failed to incorporate all remuneration into employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, or sick pay. Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work, Class Members' breaks were often short, late, interrupted, and sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for non-compliant breaks. Plaintiff further brings a claim for

1 unreimbursed necessary business expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to 2 purchase box cutters, steel toe boots, face masks and use their personal cellphone for work purposes without
3 reimbursement from Defendant. Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative claims for waiting time penalties,
4 wage statement violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA.

5 5. Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff
6 filed a class action on May 21, 2024, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum
7 wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize 8 and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final 9 wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair
10 business practices.

11 6. Pursuant to PAGA, on May 19, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California Labor and 12 Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with certified mail
13 service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice is 14 attached hereto as Exhibit 2. On August 2, 2024, Plaintiff timely filed a First Amended Class and 15 Representative Action Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the 16 “Operative Complaint”). In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently 17 submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned
18 case number. To date, the LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the alleged violations or intervene 19 in this Action.

20 7. Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
21 Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including compensating Class Members
22 for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore, Plaintiff and other Class Members were 23 paid all wages owed. Defendant argues it did not fail to incorporate any non-discretionary bonuses into the 24 regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, or sick pay, and that all bonuses were 25 discretionary. Defendant maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period obligations. Defendant
26 asserts it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were 27 compensated for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. To the extent employees received wage
28

1 statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no actual damage or harm
2 as a result. (See, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013
3 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to 4 provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not
5 sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its good-faith
6 belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff cannot prove 7 Defendant’s alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (See, e.g., Pedroza
8 v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For 9 these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, and further claims it
10 did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. Defendant also maintains 11 the claims are improper for class treatment, in part, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive nature
12 of the wage claims that could bar class certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability.

13 DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

14 8. The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Steven Rottman, Esq., an experienced class and 15 PAGA action mediator. In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for an informal 16 production of documents and information before mediation. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained from 17 Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were necessary and helpful to evaluate the 18 claims asserted in this action. Defendant produced a statistically sound sample of time and pay records for 19 approximately 26% of the putative Class, Plaintiff’s personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant’s
20 written employment policies in effect during the Class Period. Defendant also provided information
21 regarding the estimated number of current and formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, 22 and PAGA Pay Periods.

23 9. In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff’s Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information
24 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant’s wage-and-hour
25 policies. Plaintiff’s Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records and prepare a damage
26 analysis prior to the mediation. The sample time and pay records analyzed contained 39,809 actual shifts
27 worked (representing roughly 17% of total shifts worked in the Class Period), which allowed Plaintiff’s
28

1 expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty. In conjunction with their extensive factual
2 investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses
3 asserted in the litigation. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class
4 certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims.
5 Thus, Plaintiff's and his Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the 6 pleadings allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

7 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND NOTICE TO THE LWDA

8 10. On November 24, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Steven 9 Rottman, Esq. The negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 10 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, 11 but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been 12 reached. After a full discussion regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's 13 defenses and with the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which 14 are set out in the Settlement.

15 11. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 16 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's preliminary approval
17 motion and the hearing date. A true and correct copy of the LWDA's email confirming receipt thereof is 18 attached hereto as Exhibit 3. To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement.

19 KEY TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

20 12. GSA and Funding: The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $740,000, subject to potential
21 increase under an Escalator Clause, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.0.) Defendant will separately
22 pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Defendant
23 will fully fund the GSA, together with all employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of 24 Individual Class Payments, by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later sixty (60) days following
25 the Effective Date. (Id. at ¶ 4.0.)

26 13. Escalator Clause: The Settlement provides an escalator clause under which should the number
27 of Class Period Workweeks increases by more than 10% of the original estimate of 49,533 (i.e., the total number of workweeks exceed 54,486), then the GSA shall increase proportionately for the amount exceeding the 10% threshold (i.e., meaning if the Workweeks increase by 11%, the GSA will increase by 1%). (Id. at ¶ 7.)

14. Class Representative Service Payment: The Settlement includes a payment up to $7,500.00 payable from the GSA, subject to the Court’s approval, to Plaintiff as the Class Representative, in addition to the amount he is eligible to receive as a Class Member. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.13, 3.1.1.) This award is for his services in support of the Action and General Release. (Id. at ¶ 1.13.) In the event the award finally approved is less, the difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.1.)

15. Class Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments: The Settlement permits a fee application of not more than one-third of the GSA (currently estimated to be $246,666.67) or $246,642.00, whichever is greater, for reasonable attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs not to exceed $35,000.00, payable to Class Counsel from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.2.) In the event the amounts finally approved are less, the difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id.) To date, my firm has incurred $25,408.83 in actual litigation costs, and a true and correct copy of a report showing current costs is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

16. Administration Costs Payment: The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses Payment to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount not to exceed $10,000.00, except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.) In the event the amount of actual administration costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions (“Phoenix”) as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.1, 6.0.) A true and correct copy of Phoenix’s bid of $9,000.00 is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

17. Aggrieved Employees; PAGA Period: Aggrieved Employees is defined as all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California during the PAGA Period (or if any such person is incompetent, deceased, or unavailable due to military service, the person’s legal representative or successor in interest evidenced by reasonable verification). (Id. at ¶ 1.3.) For purposes of Settlement, the “PAGA Period” is May 21, 2023, through January 24, 2026. (Settlement, ¶ 1.25.)

1 18. PAGA Penalties; Individual PAGA Payments: The Settlement allocates $30,000.00 from the
2 GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed 75% ($22,500.00) to the LWDA
3 and 25% ($7,500.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims.¹ (Id. at 4 ¶¶ 1.28, 3.1.4.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 25% share of the PAGA
5 Penalties directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.4.1.) This results in an
6 average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $26.98 for each of the estimated 278 Aggrieved Employees
7 ($7,500 / 278), and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $0.30 for each of the 25,171 estimated Pay Periods
8 in the PAGA Period ($7,500 / 25,171).

9 19. Net Settlement Amount: After deducting the Class Representative Service Payment, the Class
10 Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments, the PAGA Penalties allocation, and the Administration Expenses
11 Payment from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts
12 requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to 13 Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than 14 $410,833.33 for an estimated Class of 387 individuals.²

15 20. Class Members/Period: The Settlement Class is defined as all current and former non-exempt
16 employees who worked for Defendant during the Class Period (or if any such person is incompetent,
17 deceased, or unavailable due to military service, the person’s legal representative or successor in interest
18 evidenced by reasonable verification). (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) For purposes of Settlement, the “Class Period” is May 19 21, 2020, through January 24, 2026. (Settlement, ¶ 1.5.)

20 21. Individual Class Payments: Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro
21 rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked 22

23 ¹ On July 1, 2024, new legislation was enacted to amend PAGA in several respects, including as to 24 the recovery split for civil penalties. (Stats. 2024, ch. 44 (Assem. Bill No. 2288), § 1, eff. Jul. 1, 2024.)
25 As amended, PAGA now provides for a 65%-LWDA/45%-aggrieved employee split. (Lab. Code § 2699(m).)
However, PAGA reform only applies to PAGA actions initiated on or after June 19, 2024. (Id. at § 2699(v)(1).)

26 ² The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $740,000 GSA:
27 $7,500.00 for the Class Representative Service Payment, up to $10,000.00 for the Administration Expenses
28 Payment, $30,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, $246,666.67 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $35,000.00 for the Class Counsel Expenses Payment. (Settlement, ¶¶
3.1–3.1.4.)

1 during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.1.) The estimated $410,833.33 Net Settlement Amount results in an
2 average Individual Class Payment of roughly $1,061.58 for each of the estimated 387 Class Members
3 ($410,833.33 / 387),³ and a Workweek value of roughly $8.29 for each of the 49,533 estimated Workweeks
4 in the Class Period ($410,833.33 / 49,533).

5 22. Tax Allocations: Individual Class Payments will be allocated as 10% as wages and 90% as 6 penalties and interest for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.2.) Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated as 7 100% penalties for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.4.2.)

8 23. Disbursement and Uncashed Funds: Disbursement will occur within 14 days of completed
9 funding. (Id. at ¶ 4.1.) Class Members will not need to submit any claim form as a condition of receiving 10 individual settlement payments. (Id. at ¶ 3.0.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance
11 will be transmitted to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of each individual
12 who failed to timely cash his or her check. (Id. at ¶¶ 4.1.1, 4.1.3.)

13 24. Released Class Claims by Participating Class Members: The “Released Class Claims” is limited
14 to causes of action and claims that were alleged in the Action or reasonably could have been alleged based 15 on the facts and legal theories contained in the Operative Complaint during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 16 5.1.) The release excludes all claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, unemployment insurance, 17 disability, social security, workers’ compensation, all claims while classified as exempt, or all claims based 18 on facts occurring outside of the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 5.1.1.)

19 25. Released PAGA Claims by PAGA Members and LWDA: The “Released PAGA Claims” is 20 limited to claims for civil penalties under PAGA that were alleged in Operative Complaint in the Action
21 and/or Plaintiff’s PAGA notice letter, during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 5.2.)

22 26. Plaintiff’s Section 1542 Release: Under the Settlement, Plaintiff has agreed to a general release
23 of any and all claims related to his employment, including all claims alleged in the Action, and release of 24 rights pursuant to California Civil Code section 1542. (Id. at ¶ 5.0.)

26 ³ At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown and will 27 be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class 28 Data. (Settlement, ¶ 6.1.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval.

1 27. Effective date of claims releases: The release of all claims will be effective only upon
2 Defendant's funding of the GSA and employer-share of payroll taxes. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

3 28. Released Parties: Defendant and its past, present and/or future, direct and/or indirect, officers,
4 directors, members, managers, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, insurers, partners, investors,
5 shareholders, administrators, parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, predecessors, successors,
6 assigns, and joint venturers. (Id. at ¶ 1.34.)

7 29. Class Notice; Disputes, Requests for Exclusion, Objections: The Class Notice will be mailed
8 via first-class U.S. mail in English and Spanish to the current address of each Class Member. (Id. at ¶ 6.3.)
9 The proposed Class Notice sets forth, in plain terms, a statement of case, the terms of the Settlement, the 10 approximate amounts of attorneys' fees, costs, PAGA Penalties, and service award being sought, an 11 explanation of how the individual payments are calculated, the Final Approval Hearing information, the 12 procedure for disputing the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to each Class Members, 13 and how Class Members may, should they choose, opt-out or otherwise object to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 14 6.3–6.5, Ex. A.)

15 30. No Related Actions: To the best of my knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving 16 similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has 17 Defendant pointed to any.

18 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

19 31. Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. As 20 previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arms'-length negotiations, private mediation, 21 and the assistance of a statistics expert. Based on Defendant's informal class-wide discovery production, on 22 Plaintiff's Counsel independent investigation and evaluation, and on their extensive experience in wage-
23 and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable,
24 and adequate. Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial
25 risk, appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 26 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA.

32. Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted exposure that Defendant faced. Based on a review of Defendant's records, it is estimated that there are approximately 387 Class Members who collectively worked 49,533 Workweeks during the Class Period, and 278 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked 25,171 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 7.) Additionally, there were an estimated 141 former employees falling within the three-year statute of limitations ("SOL") period for waiting time penalties, that Class Members' average hourly rate was $24.23, and that the average regular hourly rate was $24.29.

Accordingly, we calculated Defendant's potential exposure as follows:

Claim	Relevant Time Period	Rate	Number of Violations	Realistic Recovery
Unpaid Wages (Regular Rate)	49,533 Workweeks	$24.29 average regular rate	Based on Expert Analysis of Records	$1,607.75*
Unpaid Wages (Off the Clock)	49,533 Workweeks	$24.23 average hourly rate	38,582 net unpaid hours (assuming 10 minutes per shift) (75.3% overtime)	$128,680.98
Meal Period Violations	49,533 Workweeks	$24.23 average hourly rate	13,427 unique meal break violations	$81,334.05*
Rest Period Violations	49,533 Workweeks	$24.23 average hourly rate	230,406 rest break violations (assuming 100% break violations for shifts of at least 3.5 hours)	$558,273.74
Unreimbursed Business Expenses Violations	49,533 Workweeks	$15 per month	Assumes $15 per month	$18,334.50

Labor Code § 203	Based on approx. 141 terminated employees within the 3-year SOL	$24.23 average hourly rate / 30-day max.	Assumes 7.9 hours / day	$40,295.95
Labor Code § 226	Based on approx. 278 employees within the 1-year SOL	$50 per initial pay period / $100 per subsequent pay periods / $4,000 employee max.	Based on 25,171 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$55,600.00
PAGA	Based on 25,171 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$100 per pay period	Based on 25,171 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$125,855.00
Total				$1,009,981.97
* These figures are discounted based on a 25% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 10% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 5% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.⁴

33. As discussed above, Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is also due to allegations that Defendant failed to incorporate all remuneration, including bonuses, into Class Members' regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium and sick pay. Specifically, Plaintiff's expert reviewed the sample records Defendant produced and found 9 identifiable additional remunerations that were made yet not factored into the regular rate of pay, impacting 3% of Class Members for sick pay, 1% of Class Members for meal premium pay and 6.1% of Class Members for overtime pay and resulting in a maximum exposure of $6,431.00. However, Defendant argues bonuses were discretionary, and therefore Defendant was not required to incorporate those payments into the regular rate. Additionally, Defendant argues that to the extent it failed to incorporate any of the additional payments into the regular rate of pay, this results in nominal exposure as only 0.1% of pay periods included overtime and additional compensation, only 0.1% of pay

⁴ It is reasonable to apply discounts to account for risks at certification and trial, in part, because the Judicial Council of California found that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion. (See Findings of the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf>.) Further, the likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its overall exposure.

1 periods included sick pay and additional compensation, and nearly 0% of pay periods included meal premium
2 pay and additional compensation. Due to the lack of written policies regarding criteria for bonus payments
3 and Defendant's de minimis exposure, I acknowledge the foregoing presents significant risk with certifying
4 this claim and proof on the merits. Therefore, I applied a 75% discount to the maximum exposure figure;
5 accordingly, I arrived at a realistic damage estimate of $1,607.75 for the regular rate claim.

6 34. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is based on allegations that Defendant failed to pay all
7 minimum and overtime wages due to off-the-clock work performed related to time spent waiting to clock
8 in and out of work. Plaintiff alleges that Class Members were required to arrive 30 minutes before their 9 scheduled shift to make sure shipments had arrived, take the items out of the container that needed to be 10 shipped and prepare the necessary paperwork for the outgoing shipment, due to understaffing and shift
11 changes. Plaintiff also claims that they were not allowed to clock in until their scheduled shift time and 12 the computers would not allow them to clock in early if they tried. In addition, Plaintiff alleges that after 13 clocking out, he would receive calls from his supervisor to verify that the shipments had arrived on site
14 or ask him questions about items in outgoing shipments. Therefore, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Class
15 Members spent an average 10 minutes off the clock per shift. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel and data 16 expert estimated Defendant failed to pay Class Members for approximately 38,582 hours, 75.3% of 17 which should have been paid at the overtime rate. From this, and in light of the average rates of the Class
18 Members, Defendant's estimated maximum potential liability is $1,286,809.82. Defendant contends that all 19 time worked was compensated, that the time spent waiting to clock in and out of work was de minimis, that 20 Class Members were not permitted to work off-the-clock, and that this claim is highly individualized and not 21 susceptible to class-wide treatment. I acknowledge that "off-the-clock" claims are difficult to be tried on a 22 class wide basis because there is no apparatus that can be used to prove this claim—there are no records to 23 be used as evidence. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted the maximum 24 potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the unpaid wages claim due to off-
25 the-clock work is therefore $128,680.98.

26 35. Plaintiff's meal period claim is based on allegations that Defendant did not provide or maintain
27 sufficient meal period practices, such that Class Members were not always permitted or able to take meal
28

1 periods and/or were sometimes subjected to late, short and/or interrupted meal periods without compensation
2 in lieu thereof. The sample of time and corresponding payroll records for the putative Class indicated that
3 Defendant either failed to provide a meal period or provided a short and/or untimely meal period 13,427
4 times throughout the Class Period, resulting in a 6% violation rate. Plaintiff's Counsel and its data expert
5 then calculated that, in light of these violations and the average hourly rate of the putative Class, that 6 Defendant had a potential liability of $325,336.21 (13,427 unique violations x $24.23 avg. hourly rate).
7 Defendant nonetheless contends that many meal breaks were taken and, where a violation appears, it was a
8 result of the Class Member voluntarily choosing to forego a meal period, to take it after the end of the fifth
9 hour, or to stop his or her break early to return to work. Moreover, certification and proof of this claim would 10 require declarations from Class Members and obtaining such declarations potentially would reveal that each
11 Class Member had a different experience with respect to meal periods. In light of these defenses, and for 12 purposes of settlement, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it reasonable to apply a 75% discount to the potential 13 liability. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the meal period claim is therefore $81,334.05.

14 36. The rest break claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not provide or maintain 15 sufficient rest break practices, such that Class Members were regularly required to work in excess of four 16 consecutive hours a day, or a major fraction thereof, without authorization or permission to take a ten-minute,
17 continuous and uninterrupted rest period or without compensation in lieu thereof. The precise number of rest
18 break violations could not be calculated since Defendant neither documented, nor is required to document,
19 when Class Members took their required rest breaks. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's
20 Counsel assumed a 100% violation rate for shifts of at least to 3.5 hours in length and, based on the average
21 hourly rate of the putative Class, calculated Defendant's potential liability to be $5,582,737.38 (230,406 22 unique rest break violations x $24.23 per hour). Defendant nonetheless contends rest periods do not have 23 to be recorded, that Class Members voluntarily chose to forego some rest breaks and, significant for purposes
24 of class certification, that this claim is individualized in nature and therefore would require declarations
25 indicating the majority of Class Members experienced issues as to rest breaks. In light of these defenses,
26 and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic 27 recovery estimate for the rest break claim is therefore $558,273.74.

1 37. The unreimbursed business expenses claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not
2 reimburse Class Members for all expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of duties,
3 including the purchase box cutters, steel toe boots, face masks and use of their personal cellphone for work
4 purposes. The precise value of all necessary business expenses Class Members incurred could not be
5 calculated. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Defendant owed
6 approximately $15.00 a month to each Class Member in the statutory period and that Defendant's potential
7 liability is $183,345.00. Defendant contends it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, that it
8 provided Class Members with necessary tools, that cellphone use was not required for work, and further, that 9 the reimbursement claim would be difficult to certify, given the individualistic nature of this claim. In light
10 of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 90%.
11 Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the unreimbursed expenses claim is therefore $18,334.50.

12 38. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory and civil penalties, Plaintiff estimates
13 Defendant's maximum potential recovery, prior to risk-adjustment, is $4,435,019.00, which breaks down as 14 follows: $805,919.00 for waiting time penalties for approximately 141 terminated Class Members in the 3-
15 year SOL; a $1,112,000.00 penalty for inaccurate wage statements based on approximately 278 Class
16 Members in the 1-year SOL; and $2,517,100.00 for PAGA penalties based on 25,171 Pay Periods and the 17 Court assessing a $100 penalty for each pay period containing a violation. However, I believe it would be 18 unrealistic to expect the Court to award the full exposure amount given the discretionary nature of awarding
19 penalties and given Defendant's defenses, including without limitation, that any failure to pay all final wages
20 at the time of separation was not willful or intentional and that to the extent Plaintiff received wage statements
21 that were allegedly inaccurate, Plaintiff suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. Moreover, I understand 22 the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims could bar class certification or 23 otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's overall liability for statutory and civil penalties. Furthermore,
24 considering the underlying wage claims are realistically estimated to be $788,231.02, awarding such a
25 disproportional amount in penalties would also raise Due Process concerns. Weighing these factors, I applied 26 a 95% discount to each penalty (resulting in $40,295.95 for waiting time penalties, $55,600.00 for inaccurate wage statement penalties, and $125,855.00 for PAGA penalties) and accordingly arrived at a realistic recovery estimate of $221,750.95 for statutory and civil penalties.
27

39. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff predicted the realistic (risk-adjusted) recovery for all claims, including penalties, is $1,009,981.97. This means the $740,000.00 gross settlement figure represents roughly 73.3% of the total realistic recovery. This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly because, under the Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of not being able to recover anything.

40. With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA's dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in informal class-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is granted. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.4.) Not including its own attorneys' fees and costs as well as the employer's share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less than $740,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which $30,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims and will be distributed, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699 as 75% ($22,500.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($7,500.00) to Aggrieved Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties. Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction.

41. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, penalties would likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and in light of other defenses available to Defendant. Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming he is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues

1 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 2 Settlement. In sum, the $30,000 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes genuine and 3 meaningful relief.

4 42. Here, the Settlement represents a substantial recovery when considered against the risk and 5 uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to certify the claims and 6 establish liability, and the probability of appeal. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a
7 legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount
8 owed to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition.

9 43. The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or some 10 of Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing at trial due to low or 11 no participation by Class Members. Indeed, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the claims
12 could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise significantly reduce any recovery
13 whatsoever. For example, the rest period and unreimbursed expense claims are testimony-driven claims and 14 assume a 100% violation rate, which would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as it assumes either the 15 participation of a majority or all employees (which would be difficult given the reality that many, if not all, 16 employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or 17 statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority of employees to 18 establish a sound representation of all non-exempts). Even assuming employees would be willing to 19 participate, obtaining declarations would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a different 20 experience.

21 44. Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 22 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and 23 possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. Although the Parties 24 have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and class-wide data analysis, they 25 have not conducted extensive formal discovery. Moreover, preparation for class certification and a trial
26 would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification
27 ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment ruling. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably
28

1 more attorneys' fees and costs through trial. In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the 2 accompanying expense of further litigation.

3 45. The proposed $740,000.00 Settlement represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 4 reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties
5 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability of 6 appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that preliminary 7 settlement approval is appropriate. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133;
8 see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar
9 does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed
10 on all its claims," but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic 11 range of outcomes of the litigation"].)

12 THE REPRESENTATIVE PAYMENT TO PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

13 46. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who was a former employee of Defendant, has cooperated
14 immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff provided 15 valuable information regarding his hours worked, and what duties were performed during those hours.
16 Plaintiff also provided information regarding meal periods taken and missed by Plaintiff and other Class
17 Members. Plaintiff participated in decisions concerning this action, assisted in preparation for the mediation,
18 and provided my office with the names and contact information of potential witnesses in this action. Before 19 we filed this case, Plaintiff worked with my office to determine the viability of his claims. Plaintiff also 20 provided information and documents relating to his employment by Defendant. The information and 21 documentation provided by Plaintiff was instrumental in establishing the wage-and-hour violations alleged 22 in this action, and the recovery provided for in the Settlement would have been impossible to obtain without 23 his participation.

24 47. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding himself as the named Plaintiff in this 25 matter. Plaintiff faced actual risks with his future employment, as putting himself on public record in an 26 employment lawsuit could also very well affect his likelihood for future employment. For example, a search
27
28

1 of Plaintiff's name will reveal this action, and as a result, many employers may likely forego hiring
2 Plaintiff in learning he sued a former employer.

3 48. In turn, Class Members can now participate in a settlement, reimbursing them for wage
4 violations they may have never known about or been willing to pursue on their own. If each Class Member
5 would have tried to pursue legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a 6 significant amount of their own monetary resources and time, not to mention limited judicial resources, which 7 were obviated by Plaintiff putting himself on the line on behalf of the Class.

8 49. This class action would not have been possible without the aid of Plaintiff, who put his own
9 time and effort into this litigation and placed himself at risk for the sake of the Class. The requested
10 enhancement award to Plaintiff for his service as the Class Representative is a relatively small amount of 11 money considering the time and effort put into the litigation and compared to enhancements granted in other 12 class actions. The requested enhancement award is therefore reasonable to compensate Plaintiff for his active
13 participation in this lawsuit, in addition to his general release of claims, both known and unknown, and waiver 14 of section 1542 rights.

15 MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

16 50. I received a B.A. in History in 1998 from UCLA, and my J.D. from Loyola Marymount Law
17 School in 2006. I became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in June 2007 and have been an 18 Active Member in good standing continuously since then. I have been selected to Super Lawyers each year 19 from 2019 to 2023.

20 51. I co-founded Moon & Yang, APC—now Moon Law Group, PC—in March 2010. My practice
21 is focused exclusively on advocating for the rights of employees in wage-and-hour litigation, almost entirely 22 in class and/or representative actions.

23 52. For the past decade, I have built my practice to have an emphasis on employment and related 24 civil litigation cases and have both prosecuted and defended employment-related litigation cases. I have been 25 heavily, successfully, and continuously involved in active litigation and trial work, and have conducted bench
26 and jury trials on behalf of both employees and employers in wage-and-hour cases.

53. My current billing rate is $950.00 per hour, which is my usual hourly rate in wage-and-hour litigations. A $950.00 per hour rate is reasonable considering my years of experience practicing in the highly specialized area of employment and labor law and my Laffey Matrix rate (The Laffey Matrix, <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html> [last visited March 28, 2026].) The Laffey Matrix is a “well-established objective source for rates that vary by experience” used by the District of Columbia. (In re HPL Tech., Inc. Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 2005) 366 F. Supp 2d 912, 921.) A true and correct copy of the Laffey Matrix is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. California Courts have adjusted the Laffey Matrix rate upwards based on “locality pay differentials” and the location of counsel’s office in California to determine whether counsel’s rates are reasonable. (See, e.g., id. [applying a 9% upward adjustment to the Laffey Matrix rate based on an approximate difference of 9% between the locality pay differential of the District of Columbia and San Francisco, California, where counsel’s office was located].) To determine the locality pay differential, the Court in In re HPL Technologies, Inc. utilized the locality pay differentials within the federal courts. (Id. at pp. 921–22.) Using the same method here and based on my firm’s location in Los Angeles, California, the locality pay differential of the Los Angeles-Long Beach area is 36.47% and the locality pay differential of the Washington-Baltimore-Arlington area is 33.94%, which results in a difference of approximately 2.53%. (Compare Judiciary Salary Plan of Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA, Effective January 12, 2026, with Judiciary Salary Plan of Washington-Baltimore-Arlington, Effective January 12, 2026.) True and correct copies of the Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA and Washington-Baltimore-Arlington salary plans are attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and Exhibit 8, respectively. Based on my 19+ years of experience out of law school, my Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). Accordingly, my current billing rate of $950.00 per hour is reasonable.

54. I am experienced in prosecuting and defending employment matters, particularly class actions and PAGA representative actions. My firm has focused a substantial percentage of its practice on wage, hour, and working conditions violations. In addition to the present case, I am also class counsel for other wage-and-hour class action lawsuits pending in various California counties, including in state and federal courts. The following is a list of some of our recent class action settlements that have received preliminary and final

1 approval: Aparicio v. Lineage Logistics, LLC (LASC No. BC722764) (class size approx. 155; lead counsel);
2 Black v. Mission Healthcare Servs., Inc. (LASC No. 19STCV04602) (class size approx. 1,000; lead counsel);
3 Campa v. Bloomingdeals, Inc. (LASC No. BC700366) (class size approx. 1,500; lead counsel); Garcia v.
4 Comfy U.S.A. Apparel, Inc. (LASC No. BC709630) (class size approx. 210; lead counsel); Gomez v. H Mart
5 Cos., Inc. (LASC No. BC671525) (class size approx. 2,500; co-counsel); Jones v. Citiguard, Inc. (LASC
6 No. BC664890) (class size approx. 587; lead counsel); Jones v. Fitness Alliance, LLC (Riverside No.
7 PSC1404079) (class size approx. 1,000; lead counsel); Lagos v. ThyssenKrupp Elevator Corp. (LASC No.
8 BC682972) ($750,000 for 79 class members; lead counsel); Mark Brulee et al. v. DAL Global Servs., LLC
9 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 20, 2018, No. CV 17-6433 JVS(JCGx)) 2018 WL 6616659, at *10 (class size approx. 2,650;
10 lead counsel) (in approving my hourly rate in that case, the Court found: “Class Counsel’s declarations show
11 that the attorneys are experienced and successful litigators. Other courts have approved the attorneys’ current 12 rates for the Moon & Yang, APC attorneys”); Martinez v. Bail Hotline Bail Bonds, Inc. (LASC No.
13 BC700131) (class size approx. 173; lead counsel); Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (Sacramento No. 34-
14 2018-00228252) (class size approx. 1,900; lead counsel); Onofre v. Caitac Garment Processing, Inc. (LASC
15 No. BC702283) (class size approx. 750; lead counsel); Rodriguez v. Rossmoyne, Inc. (LASC No. BC699137)
16 (class size approx. 220; lead counsel); Sison v. Cha Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P. (LASC No. BC6441 29)
17 (class size approx. 2,100; co-counsel); Slaughter v. ACA Sec. Stems, LP (LASC No. BC699137) (class size
18 approx. 300; lead counsel); Taylor v. Sherman’s Delicatessen & Bakery, LLC (LASC No. BC722765) (class
19 size approx. 515; lead counsel); Vargas v. AMS Paving, Inc. (LASC No. BC722767) (case size approx. 260;
20 lead counsel); Vertti v. Bagcraft Papercon III, LLC (LASC No. 19STCV12729) (class size approx. 260; lead
21 counsel); and Wallick v. Campbell Soup Supply Co., LLC (San Joaquin No. STK-CV-UOE-2021-0000865)
22 (class size 435; lead counsel).

23 ALLEN FEGHALI’S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

24 55. Allen Feghali is a Senior Partner at Moon Law Group, PC. He received his B.A. in Global and 25 International Studies in 2011 from UC Santa Barbara, and his J.D. from University of La Verne College of 26 Law in 2014. Mr. Feghali became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in December 2014 and 27
28

1 has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. He was selected by Super Lawyers as 2 a “Southern California Rising Star” in 2020–2023.

3 56. Mr. Feghali began working at Moon Law Group, PC in May 2015, and his practice focuses on 4 advocating for the rights of employees at the trial-court and appellate level. Prior to approximately June 2018,
5 with the exception of a handful of cases, his practice focused on individual FEHA and wrongful termination
6 claims, as well as individual wage-and-hour claims. In June 2018, Mr. Feghali became heavily involved in 7 the firm’s class action practice.

8 57. Mr. Feghali’s current billing rate is $900.00 per hour, which is his usual hourly rate in wage and 9 hour litigations. Based on Mr. Feghali’s 11+ years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix rate
10 with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). (See Ex.
11 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Feghali’s billing rate of 12 $900.00 per hour is reasonable.

13 58. During Mr. Feghali’s tenure with Moon Law Group, PC, he has played a critical role in 14 obtaining outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. Mr. Feghali’s 15 litigation experience includes, but is not limited to:

- 16 (a) In March 2021, Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in the matter of Rivera, et al. v. Clearpath
17 Federal Credit Union (LASC No. 19STCV33504), which resulted in a certification order on 18 all causes of action following contested briefing in a wage-and-hour class action.
- 19 (b) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 20 Dawson, et al. v. GoHealth, LLC, et al. (No. CGC-19-577790), which was argued and taken 21 under submission by the Court on February 3, 2022.
- 22 (c) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 23 Brown v. NTI-CA, Inc., et al. (No. 21STCV04397).
- 24 (d) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification
25 motion in the matter of Thong, et al. v. Outlook Resources, Inc., et al. (No. 19STCV44400), 26 which was granted in part and denied in part in October 2022.
- 27
28

- 1 (e) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Andrade
2 v. Rehrig Pacific Corp. (C.D. Cal. April 22, 2020, No. CV 20-1448 FMP (RAOx)) 2020 WL
3 1934954, where defendant removed a wage-and-hour class alleging that Plaintiffs' claims
4 were pre-empted by the Labor Management Relations Act.
- 5 (f) Mr. Feghali briefed, argued, and won the matter of Lee, et al. v. The Christian Herald, U.S.A.,
6 Inc. (Cal. Ct. App. Dec. 12, 2017, No. B266853) 2017 WL 6333905, at *1. There, the Court
7 of Appeal reversed a dismissal of an individual defendant following the trial court's granting 8 of a demurrer without leave to amend relating to alter ego allegations.
- 9 (g) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Sotelo v.
10 Belfor USA Group, Inc. (C.D. Cal. March 13, 2018, No. 2:17-cv-09056-RSWL-MRWx)
11 2018 WL 1352910. Defendants there sought to remove the case based on the inclusion of a 12 "sham defendant," but the court agreed with Mr. Feghali's briefing which argued that the 13 individual defendant, who was alleged to have harassed the Plaintiffs under FEHA, was a 14 proper defendant.
- 15 (h) Mr. Feghali has been the lead counsel, or co-lead counsel, in individual cases that settled for 16 $850,000.00, $375,000.00, and $250,000.00. In addition to the foregoing, Mr. Feghali has 17 resolved or assisted in the resolution of approximately 100 cases which has resulted in millions 18 of dollars of unpaid wages being returned to low-wage employees.
- 19 (i) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification
20 motion in the matter of Hernandez v. CR Laurence, Inc., et al. (No. 20STCV32372), which 21 was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in February 2024.

22 59. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali's practice has shifted to almost exclusively representing 23 employees in wage-and-hour class and representative actions. His fee has been approved by Courts
24 throughout the state. He has participated as lead, or co-lead counsel, in the litigation and resolution of over 25 100 wage-and-hour class actions, including obtaining preliminary and final approval of settlements. A 26 selection of settled cases wherein Mr. Feghali served as lead or co-lead class counsel includes the following:
27 Barahona v. Methodist Hosp. of Cal. (No. 20STCV09876) ($5,000,000); Stanley Black & Decker Wage and 28

1 Hour Cases (No. JCCP5218) ($3,500,000); Vazquez v. St. Mar 2.0 Inc. (No. 37-2021-00042702-CU-OE-
2 CTL) ($2,250,000); Duncan v. Infineon Technologies Americas Corp. (No. 21STCV16872) ($2,500,000);
3 Aquino v. Coast King Packing, LLC (No. 21CV002448) ($2,300,000); Martinez, et al. v. Curative LLC (No.
4 21STCV20778) ($1,500,000); Calderon v. Installed Building Products (No. 37-2021-00035844-CU-OE-
5 CTL) ($1,500,000); Majdoub v. Argent Hotel Mgmt. (No. CGC-20-582921) ($1,800,000); Fuentes v. Covid
6 Clinic, Inc. (No. CIVSB2106806) ($1,526,317.57); Rahman, et al. v. Gate Gourmet, Inc. (No. 3:20-cv-
7 03047) ($3,850,000); Pagoulatos v. Coast Hills Credit Union (No. 20CV02801) ($1,100,000); Hammers v.
8 Redwood Oil Co., Inc. (No. SCV-269625) ($1,180,000); Cuadras v. R.C. Wendt Painting, Inc. (No.
9 BC705964) ($1,400,000); Zaragoza v. The Roman Catholic Bishop of Fresno (No. 22CV-00282)
10 ($1,500,000); Garcia v. San Jose Water Co. (22CV396328) ($1,200,000); Garcia v. Tri-Valley Plastering,
11 Inc. (No. 22CECG00591) ($1,250,000); Garcia v. Tapia Enter., Inc. ($2,137,651 for 507 class members);
12 Cha v. Center Point, Inc. (No. CIV2102081) ($1,000,000); Sison v. Cha Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P. (No.
13 BC644129) (2,137 class members); Lagos v. ThyssenKrupp Elevator Corp. (No. BC682972) ($750,000 for 14 79 class members); and Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (No. 34-2018-00228252) ($1,250,000).

15 JULIE S. OH'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

16 60. Julie Sohyun Oh is an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, PC. Ms. Oh began
17 working in October 2021, and initially, her practice focused on individual FEHA and wrongful
18 termination claims, as well as wage-and-hour class and representative actions. Since September 19 2022, Ms. Oh shifted her focus of practice to almost exclusively class and representative actions, 20 involving claims related to overtime and minimum wages, meal and rest break violations, improper
21 wage statements, the California Private Attorneys General Act, and unfair business practices.

22 61. Ms. Oh received her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of British 23 Columbia and her Juris Doctorate from California Western School of Law. Ms. Oh is a member in good 24 standing with the California State Bar and in the United States District Court for the Central, Eastern, and 25 Northern Districts.

26 62. Ms. Oh's current billing rate is $700 per hour, which is her usual hourly rate in wage and hour
27 litigations. Based on Ms. Oh's 4 years of experience, her Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is 28

1 $640.81 per hour ($625 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $625). (See Ex. 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix
2 rate and when considering her experience, Ms. Oh's billing rate of $700 per hour for this matter is reasonable.

3 63. A selection of settled class and/or representative actions that have received preliminary and/or 4 final settlement approval, the resolution of which Ms. Oh assisted during her tenure with Moon Law Group,
5 PC, includes following: Billings v. Goodwill Industries of Sacramento Valley & Northern Nevada, Inc., et
6 al. (34-2022-00327068-CU-OE-GDS) ($1,535,000.00); Calderon v. Installed Building Products (No. 37-
7 2021-00035844- CU-OE-CTL) ($1,500,000.00); Martinez et al. v. Curative, LLC, et al. (21STCV20778)
8 ($1,450,000.00); Cha v. Center Point (CIV2102081) ($1,000,000.00); Maciel v. Western Health Advantage
9 (34-2022-00329710-CU-OE-GDS) ($1,000,000.00); Almonte et al. v. Yosemite Meat Company, Inc., et al.
10 (STK-CV-UOE-2021-0000860) ($850,000.00); Mendoza et al. v. Masonite Corporation (5:21-cv-00025-
11 SSS-KK) ($635,000.00); Butts v. Golden West Packaging Group, LLC, et al. (34-2021-00311468-CU-OE-
12 GDS) ($450,000.00 for 183 aggrieved employees); Young v. Santa Cruz Staffing, LLC (21CV03049)
13 ($400,000.00); Hernandez v. Superior Electrical Advertising, Inc. (20STCV48834) ($395,000.00 for 235
14 class members); Lal v. Summit Psychotherapy Associates, APC (34-2021-00309339-CU-OE-GDS)
15 ($140,000.00 for 52 class members); Lopez v. Bauer's Intelligent Transportation, Inc. (CGC-21-589567)
16 ($115,000.00 for 353 aggrieved employees).

17 JAMIE C. OSGANIAN'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

18 64. Jamie Osganian is an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, PC and represents 19 employees in all aspects of employment litigation, including wage-and-hour class and 20 representative actions involving claims related to overtime and minimum wages, meal and rest
21 break violations, improper wage statements, the California Private Attorneys General Act, and 22 unfair business practices.

23 65. Ms. Osganian received a bachelor's degree from New York University, and a Juris
24 Doctorate from Southwestern Law School.

25 66. Ms. Osganian became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in December 26 2024 and has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since.

27 67. Ms. Osganian's billing rate is $450.00 per hour, which is her usual hourly rate in wage
28

1 and hour litigations. Based on Ms. Osganian's nearly 1 year of experience, her Laffey Matrix rate
2 with a 2.5% adjustment is $520.85 per hour ($508 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $508)). (See Ex.
3 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate, Ms. Osganian's billing rate of $450.00 per hour is 4 reasonable.

5 CLASS COUNSEL'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

6 68. As demonstrated by the foregoing, my office is qualified to handle this litigation because we 7 are experienced in litigating Labor Code and Wage Order violations in individual, class, and representative
8 actions. The attorneys at my office have been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous wage-and-
9 hour class and/or PAGA actions in state and federal courts by way of motion for settlement approval.
10 Including myself, Moon Law Group, PC is comprised of approximately 35 attorneys, all of whom are 11 actively and continuously practicing employment litigation, representing almost entirely employee-
12 plaintiffs, in both individual and class and/or PAGA actions, in this Superior Court and other Superior Courts
13 throughout the State, in the Courts of Appeal, and in various federal courts. The attorneys at my firm have a
14 high level of skill and knowledge in wage-and-hour class actions, PAGA representative actions, and labor 15 and employment law generally, the substantive (state and federal) and procedural law of which is 16 frequently evolving.

17 69. Moon Law Group, PC has been engaged in the practice of employment and labor law for over 18 a decade, and presently focuses exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law. The firm and its lawyers have 19 tried both bench and jury trials (representing both plaintiffs and defendants) relating to employment matters.
20 As noted above, Moon Law Group, PC has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in federal and state
21 courts in California. Also, the firm and its lawyers have successfully settled hundreds of cases during that 22 time, including wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions.

23 70. The foregoing experience of myself and other attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC is helpful in 24 assessing the reasonableness of settlements, such as the one at issue here, and from this experience we 25 concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the Settlement.

26 71. I respectfully submit that the attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC, myself included, are well
27 suited to act as Class Counsel in this action, and we have, and will continue to, vigorously represent the interests of the Class. To my knowledge, we do not have any conflicts of interest with Plaintiff, other Class Members, or the proposed Administrator, and we are not related to Plaintiff. We respectfully request to be appointed as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes.

THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE

72. The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., no less than $246,666.67, subject to potential increase under the escalator clause) or $246,642.00, whichever is greater, and litigation costs up to $35,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.2.) The proposed award of attorneys' fees can be justified under either the lodestar method or the percentage/common-fund recovery method. However, we base the proposed fees award on the percentage method, as many of the entries in the time records will have to be redacted to preserve attorney-client and attorney work product privileges.

73. I am informed and believe that the fees and costs provision in the Settlement is reasonable. The fee percentage requested is less than that charged by my office for most employment cases. Moreover, my office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

74. It is further estimated that my office will need to expend at least another 50 to 100 hours to monitor the administration process leading up to the final approval, prepare for final approval, and oversee distribution to the Class following final approval. My office also bears the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary should Defendant fail to pay.

75. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be successful in pursuing this class action. In such instance, we would have been left with no compensation for all the time taken in litigating this case due to the contingency fee arrangement. Indeed, I have taken on a number of class action cases that have resulted in thousands of attorney hours being expended and ultimately having the defendant company going bankrupt during litigation. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real and occurs regularly. Furthermore, we were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain.

1 76. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for representation in litigation on an hourly basis,
2 Moon Law Group, PC represents virtually all its employment law clients on a contingency fee basis,
3 including Plaintiff in this matter. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless
4 we prevail at trial or successfully settle our clients' cases. Because Moon Law Group, PC is taking the risk
5 that we will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or her case, we cannot afford
6 to represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the end of our representation, all we are to 7 receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential that we recover more than our regular hourly rate
8 when we win if we are to remain in practice so as to be able to continue representing other individuals in 9 civil rights employment disputes.

10 77. As of the drafting of this motion, my office has incurred $25,408.83 in expenses litigating this 11 action, and we anticipate accruing additional costs up to final approval. These expenses were reasonably
12 necessary to the litigation and were actually incurred by my office. Moreover, because total litigation costs
13 are below the maximum amount allowed under the Settlement, the difference will revert to Participating 14 Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.2.) Therefore, our costs should be reimbursed in full.

15 78. My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the 16 end of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome. My office's efforts have included, and will 17 include following preliminary and final approval, without limitation, the following:

- 18 (a) Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by him;
- 19 (b) Legal research and investigation regarding Defendant's business and employment practices 20 at numerous points in the litigation;
- 21 (c) Preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA notice;
- 22 (d) Preparation, finalization, and filing of multiple drafts of the original class action complaint 23 and subsequent first amended complaint;
- 24 (e) Extensive "meet and confer" correspondence and discussions with Defense Counsel
25 regarding mediation and to obtain relevant documents and information through informal 26 discovery;
- 27 (f) Research and preparation of Plaintiff's mediation brief;

- (g) Analysis of the discovery production and preparation of a damages model with the aid of a statistics expert;
- (h) Attendance and active participation at a full day of mediation;
- (i) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement and Class Notice;
- (j) Preparation of the motion for preliminary approval and the accompanying filings;
- (k) Anticipated preparation for and attendance at the preliminary approval hearing;
- (l) Anticipated conferring with Defense Counsel and the Administrator regarding the Class Notice mailing, Class responses, and preliminary and final calculations;
- (m) Anticipated preparation, finalization, filing, and service of a motion for final approval and accompanying filings;
- (n) Anticipated preparation for and anticipated attendance at the final approval hearing, and then monitoring of the distribution of funds following final approval; and
- (o) Anticipated responding to Class Member inquiries and communicating with Plaintiff regarding the case.

79. Through the efforts of my office and Plaintiff in this case, a fair and reasonable joint resolution has been reached that includes a gross, non-reversionary payment by Defendant of no less than $740,000.00 to compensate Class Members for the alleged unlawful wage-and-hour practices. I am informed and believe that, without the efforts of my office or Plaintiff, the Labor Code and Wage Order violations alleged in the Operative Complaint would have gone completely unremedied.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United States that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on April 1, 2026, at Los Angeles, California.
