3. Violation of Labor Code § 226.7 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods);
4. Violation of Labor Code § 226, (Failure to Keep Accurate Itemized Wage Statements);
5. Violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203 (Failure to Pay Wages Upon Termination of Employment);
6. Violation of Labor Code § 2802 (Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Expenditures);
7. Violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq. (Unfair Business Practices); and
8. Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff JAVIER HERNANDEZ (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff”) on behalf of 2 himself and all others similarly situated, and as representative of the State of California and the 3 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), based upon facts that either have 4 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 5 further investigation and discovery, complains and alleges as follows:

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is a class action brought on behalf of Plaintiff and the class he seeks to 8 represent (“Class” or “Class Members”). Class Members consist of all non-exempt, hourly-paid
9 employees currently and/or formerly employed by PRECISE AEROSPACE
10 MANUFACTURING, INC. in the State of California during the Class Period. The term “Class
11 Period” is defined as four (4) years prior to the filing of this Complaint through the date final 12 judgment is entered. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this Complaint to reflect a different 13 “Class Period” or “Class” as further discovery is conducted.

14 2. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the class he seeks to represent, seeks relief
15 against PRECISE AEROSPACE MANUFACTURING, INC. (“Defendant”) for Defendant’s
16 failure to pay all wages due in violation of Labor Code Sections 204, 510 and 1194, including 17 both regular and overtime wages; failure to provide meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof
18 pursuant to Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512, the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission
19 Wage Orders, and Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11000 et seq.; failure to provide rest
20 periods or compensation in lieu thereof pursuant to Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512, the 21 applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, and Code of Regulations, Title 8, 22 Section 11000 et seq.; failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements upon payment of 23 wages pursuant to Labor Code Sections 226, subdivision (a), 1174, and 1175; failure to reimburse
24 for necessary expenditures pursuant to Labor Code Section 2802; and failure to pay wages of 25 terminated or resigned employees pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 203.

26 3. Plaintiff seeks equitable remedies in the form of declaratory relief and injunctive
27 relief, and relief under Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq. for unfair business 28 practices.

1 4. At all relevant times herein, Defendant has consistently maintained and enforced
2 against Plaintiff and Class the following unlawful practices and policies:

- 3 (a) willfully refusing to pay Plaintiff and Class for all hours worked, including 4 both regular and overtime;
5 (b) willfully refusing to permit Plaintiff and Class from taking meal periods or 6 compensation in lieu thereof;
7 (c) willfully refusing to permit Plaintiff and Class from taking rest periods or 8 compensation in lieu thereof;
9 (d) willfully refusing to furnish to Plaintiff and Class accurate itemized wage
10 statements upon payment of wages;
11 (e) willfully refusing to compensate Plaintiff and certain members of the Class
12 wages and accrued vacation due and owing at the time of Plaintiff and 13 Class Members' employment with Defendant ended; and 14 (f) willfully refusing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class for necessary 15 expenditures.

16 5. On information and belief, Defendant was on actual and constructive notice of 17 the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies.
18 Defendant's violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and 19 deliberate.

20 6. At all relevant times, Defendant was and is legally responsible for all of the 21 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 22 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and Class. Further, Defendant is responsible 23 for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 24 "respondeat superior".

25 7. Plaintiff further brings this action as a representative of the State of California
26 and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") to recover civil penalties
27 pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA"), Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., 28

for violations of numerous Labor Code provisions, including, but not limited to, sections 201-203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, and 2802, as well as violations of the applicable Wage Order.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. Venue is proper in this judicial district and in the County of Orange, California because Defendant maintained its location and/or transacted business in this county, the obligations and liability arise in this county, and work was performed by members of the proposed class made the subject of this action in this county.

9. The wages, statutory penalties, monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, article VI, Section 10. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

10. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction in the matter because the individual claims are under the seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00) jurisdictional threshold for Federal Court and the five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) aggregate jurisdictional threshold for Federal Court and, upon information and belief, Plaintiff and Defendant are residents of, domiciled in, or otherwise subject to jurisdiction in the State of California. Further, there is no federal question at issue as the issues herein are based solely on California statutes and law including the Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders, the Code of Civil Procedure, the Rules of Court, and the Business and Professions Code.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

11. Plaintiff, at all relevant times herein, was Defendant's employee and was entitled to compensation for all hours worked, including regular time and overtime compensation, and penalties from Defendant. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt, hourly paid employee during the Class Period. Specifically, Plaintiff worked as a machine operator from June 15, 2023 to April 3, 2024 at Defendant's facility located at 22951 E La Palma Avenue, Yorba

1 Linda, CA 92887. Each of the Class Members are identifiable, current and/or former similarly
2 situated persons who were employed in non-exempt hourly positions in California by Defendant
3 during the Class Period.

4 B. Defendant

5 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant is a
6 California corporation. On information and belief, Defendant was and/or is the employer of 7 Plaintiff and Class during the Class Period. Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant is conducting 8 business in good standing in California.

9 13. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships and extent of 10 participation in the conduct herein alleged of the Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 50,
11 inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that these Defendants are legally responsible for 12 the payment of overtime compensation, rest and meal period compensation, and wages to Plaintiff
13 and Class by virtue of their unlawful practices, and therefore sues these Defendants by such 14 fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of 15 each DOE Defendants when ascertained.

16 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant
17 acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendant, carried out a joint
18 scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant
19 are legally attributable to the other Defendant. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as 20 the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and Class.

21 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant
22 acted in all respects as the agent, servant, partner, joint venture, alter-ego, employee, proxy,
23 managing agent, and/or principal of the Defendant, and in performing the actions mentioned
24 below was acting, at least in part, within the course and scope of that authority as such agent, 25 proxy, servant, partner, joint venture, employee, alter-ego, managing agent, and/or principal with 26 permission and consent of the Defendant. Plaintiff also alleges the acts of each Defendant are 27 legally attributable to the other Defendant.

1 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the 2 Defendant sued herein was, at all times relevant hereto, the employer, owner, shareholder,
3 principal, joint venture, proxy, agent, employee, supervisor, representative, manager, managing
4 agent, joint employer and/or alter-ego of the remaining Defendant, and was acting, at least in part,
5 within the course and scope of such employment and agency, with the express and implied
6 permission, consent, and knowledge, approval and/or ratification of the other Defendant.

7 17. The above Defendant, managing agents, and supervisors aided, abetted, condoned,
8 permitted, approved, authorized and/or ratified the unlawful acts described herein.

9 ADMINISTRATIVE PREREQUISITE

10 18. On May 14, 2024, prior to filing this complaint, Plaintiff gave written notice by 11 electronically filing the notice with the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”)
12 (LWDA Case No. LWDA-CM-1028352-24), and by certified mail to Defendant of the specified 13 provisions alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged 14 violations as required by Labor Code Section 2699.3.

15 19. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s letter sent to the LWDA is attached hereto
16 as “Exhibit A”. As of the filing of this complaint, LWDA has not responded to the written 17 notice.

18 20. Under Labor Code Section 2699.3 subsection (a), a plaintiff may bring a cause
19 of action under PAGA only after giving notice to the Labor Workforce Development Agency
20 (“LWDA”) and the employer of the Labor Code Sections alleged to have been violated, and 21 after receiving notice from the LWDA of its intention not to investigate, or after 65 days have 22 passed without notice.

23 21. More than sixty-five (65) days have passed without notice from the LWDA.
24 Accordingly, all administrative prerequisites to filing this action have been fulfilled.

25 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26 22. Plaintiff was employed as a machine operator from June 15, 2023 to April 3, 2024.

27 23. Labor Code Section 1194 provides that notwithstanding any agreement to work
28 for a lesser wage, an employee receiving less than the legal overtime compensation is entitled to

1 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of his or her overtime compensation, including interest
2 thereon, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

3 24. Labor Code Section 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages
4 two times per month on days designated in advance by the employer as regular paydays.
5 Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (a) labor performed between the 1st and 15th days,
6 inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the 7 month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last 8 day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the 9 following month. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (d) the requirements of this Section shall 10 be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if 11 the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period.
12 Plaintiff and Class were also entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all 13 meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours
14 worked. However, during Class period, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the 15 employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were
16 not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods
17 not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked.

18 25. Further, Business and Professions Code Section 17203 provides that any person 19 who engages in unfair competition may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction.
20 Business and Professions Code Section 17204 provides that any person who has suffered actual 21 injury and has lost money or property as a result of the unfair competition may bring an action in 22 a court of competent jurisdiction.

23 26. During all, or a portion of the Class Period, Plaintiff and each member of the Class
24 was employed by Defendant in the State of California.

25 27. Plaintiff and Class Members were non-exempt employees covered under one or 26 more IWC Wage Order(s), and Labor Code Section 510, and/or other applicable Wage Orders, 27 regulations and statutes, and each Class Member was not subject to an exemption for executive,
28

1 administrative or professional employees, which imposed obligations on the part of Defendant to
2 pay Plaintiff and Class Members lawful overtime compensation.

3 28. Plaintiff and Class were covered by one or more IWC Wage Order(s), and Labor
4 Code Section 226.7 and other applicable Wage Orders, regulations and statutes which imposed
5 an obligation on the part of Defendant to pay Plaintiff and Class rest and meal period
6 compensation.

7 29. During the Class Period, Defendant were obligated to pay Plaintiff and Class
8 Members for all hours worked. However, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members 9 for all hours worked at the legally mandated wage rates, including all overtime wages.
10 Throughout the Class Period, Defendant regularly used a system of time rounding in a manner
11 that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members
12 properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendant's 13 operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to 14 the minute. Additionally, Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to work after their 15 scheduled hours but rounded time to scheduled hours to avoid paying overtime as confirmed
16 by Defendant's records. Accordingly, Defendant frequently paid Plaintiff and Class Members 17 less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the 18 overtime rate. Throughout the Class period, Plaintiff and Class Members received additional 19 remuneration in the form of bonuses. However, Defendant has not compensated Plaintiff and 20 Class Members at the proper overtime and sick pay rate. Defendant did not include the 21 bonuses paid to Plaintiff and Class Members in the regular rate of pay for purposes of 22 calculating overtime rate of pay and sick pay. Throughout the Class period, Defendant also 23 maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to perform work
24 "off-the-clock". Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and Class Members donning and 25 doffing prior to clocking in to work and after clocking out without compensation. Plaintiff and 26 Class Members were also required to wait in line to use the computer to clock in to work
27 without compensation. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendant
28

1 failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and Class Members worked. In doing
2 so, Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and Class Members 3 worked.

4 30. During the Class Period, Defendant were obligated to pay Plaintiff and Class
5 Members overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours of work in one
6 (1) day or forty (40) hours in one (1) week and double-time compensation for hours worked in 7 excess of twelve (12) in one (1) day. However, often times Plaintiff and Class Members were 8 required to work overtime in excess of eight (8) hours per workday and in excess of forty (40)
9 hours per workweek but were not paid at the proper overtime rate of pay.

10 31. During the Class Period, Defendant were obligated to provide Plaintiff and Class 11 with a work-free meal period within the first five (5) hours of a shift when the workday was 12 longer than six (6) hours. Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to a full, thirty (30) minute,
13 off-duty meal period when they worked in excess of six (6) hours within the first five (5) hours
14 of their shifts. However, Plaintiff and Class Members were routinely not provided with timely,
15 30-minute off-duty meal periods, and were not permitted and authorized to take uninterrupted
16 rest periods. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate written policies or practices providing 17 meal periods for Plaintiff and Class, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices
18 regarding the timing of meal periods. Plaintiff and Class Members missed or took late or short 19 meal periods since their nature of the work did not allow them to interrupt their work and take 20 meal periods on time. Additionally, meal periods were cut short by the walking distance to the 21 meal break area and were untimely due to the rounding of time implemented by Defendant.
22 Plaintiff and Class Members were not authorized or taken second meal periods when they 23 worked shifts greater than 10 hours. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not 24 provide meal periods to Plaintiff and Class in compliance with California law.

25 32. Additionally, Defendant were obligated to provide Plaintiff and Class Members
26 with a ten (10) minute rest break for every four (4) hours, or major fraction thereof, worked each 27 day. Defendant prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from taking rest breaks throughout their 28 shifts. Plaintiff and Class Members were generally precluded from taking rest periods due to

1 Defendant's failure to maintain the rest break policy to provide relief and thereby allow Plaintiff
2 and Class Members the opportunity to take rest breaks. Moreover, Defendant did not have 3 adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and Class, nor
4 did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Plaintiff
5 and Class would often times miss their first and second rest periods. Defendant's written policy
6 is deficient as it is non-compliant with the language required under California law. Plaintiff and 7 Class Members missed or took late or short rest periods since the nature of their work did not
8 allow them to interrupt their work and take rest periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and 9 practice was for Plaintiff and Class to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit
10 them to take any rest periods.

11 33. Further, due to the pressure from Defendant and failure to maintain an adequate
12 policy, and in violation of Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff was not 13 authorized and permitted to take a second rest period, on shifts exceeding six hours of work,
14 and/or third rest breaks, on shifts exceeding ten hours of work. Brinker Restaurant Corp. v.
15 Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1030 (2012). "Employees are entitled to 10 minutes rest for 16 shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours
17 up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on."

18 34. Furthermore, Defendant failed and/or refused to pay Plaintiff and Class Members 19 one (1) hour's pay at the employees' regular rate of pay as premium compensation for 20 Defendant's failure to provide lawful thirty (30) minute, off-duty meal periods and failure to 21 provide lawful ten (10) minute rest periods within the statutory time frames.

22 35. Defendant also failed to indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members all necessary
23 expenditures incurred in direct discharge of their duties. During the Class Period, Plaintiff and 24 Class were required to purchase tools and materials necessary to perform their work including but 25 not limited to flashlights, markers, scissors, band aids, hats. Plaintiff and Class Members used 26 their personal cell phones to communicate regarding their schedules without reimbursement of 27 reasonable portion of their cell phone bills. Plaintiff and Class incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant, and Defendant have failed to indemnify Plaintiff and Class for these employment-related expenses.
28

36. Defendant continues to employ non-exempt, hourly-paid employees within California.

37. Plaintiff and Class Members primarily performed non-exempt work, often in excess of the maximum regular rate hours set forth in the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), regulations or statutes, and therefore entitled the Plaintiff and Class Members to overtime compensation at the rate of one and a half times their regular rate of pay and, when applicable, double time compensation as set forth by the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), regulations and/or statutes.

38. During the Class Period, Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to work regular hours, off the clock hours, and overtime hours without lawful compensation in violation of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), regulations and statutes, and Defendant: (1) willfully failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse to pay compensation for all hours worked, including lawful regular time and overtime compensation, to Class Members; and (2) willfully failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse to pay due and owing wages promptly upon termination of employment to Plaintiff and affected Class Members.

39. Class Members who ended their employment with Defendant during the Class Period but were not paid the above due compensation for all hours worked timely upon the termination of their employment as required by Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 203 are entitled to penalties as provided by Labor Code Section 203.

40. During the Class Period, Defendant failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct legal entity employer, correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law). As a result of these

1 violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class suffered injury. Thus,
2 Plaintiff and Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e),
3 including actual damages.

4 41. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class members were 5 entitled to receive accurate wage statements, which would include meal break premiums, and/or 6 rest break premiums, as required by Labor Code 226.

7 42. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were
8 entitled to timely payment of all wages earned upon termination. Plaintiff and Class Members did 9 not receive payment of all wages, including but not limited to, meal and rest break premiums, in 10 violation of the Labor Code.

11 43. In accordance with the Section 15 (a) of the applicable wage order issued by the 12 Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”), the temperature maintained in each work area shall 13 provide reasonable comfort consistent with industry-wide standards for the nature of the process
14 and the work performed. Further Section 15 (b) of IWC states that if excessive heat or humidity
15 is created by the work process, the employer shall take all feasible means to reduce such excessive
16 heat or humidity to a degree providing reasonable comfort. However, Defendant has not taken
17 feasible means to reduce such excessive heat. Defendant did not have proper air conditioning and 18 air ventilation, and temperature during summer times in the warehouse became as hot as 100
19 degrees Fahrenheit. As a result, Plaintiff and Class suffered injuries at their workplace due to the 20 excessive heat.

21 44. Labor Code Sections 6400-6404 provide that every employer shall furnish 22 employment and a place of employment that is safe and healthful for the employees therein.
23 However, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees complained about the hazardous dust created
24 from materials used for work and requested to open the doors and windows. Defendant did not 25 allow Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to open the doors and windows at jobsite exposing 26 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to unsafe and unhealthy working conditions.

27 CLASS ALLEGATIONS
28

1 45. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated
2 persons as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 382. The Class is composed
3 of and defined as follows:

4 (a) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the 5 State of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this
6 Complaint to the present, have worked as non-exempt employees and were not 7 paid all wages owed, including but not limited to the legally requisite regular 8 time rate, overtime rate and/or double-time rate as specifically described 9 herein;

10 (b) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the 11 State of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this
12 Complaint to the present, have worked as non-exempt employees and have not 13 been provided a meal period for shifts in excess of five (5) hours within the 14 first five (5) hours such shifts, and were not provided one (1) hour's pay for 15 each day during which a lawful meal period was not provided;

16 (c) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the 17 State of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this
18 Complaint to the present, have worked as non-exempt employees and have not
19 been provided a rest period for every four (4) hours, or major fraction thereof, 20 worked per day, and were not provided compensation of one (1) hour's pay for 21 each day on which such rest period(s) was not provided;

22 (d) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the 23 State of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this
24 Complaint to the present, have worked as non-exempt employees and have not
25 been reimbursed expenditures in discharge of their duties;

26 (e) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the 27 State of California, and who, within the three (3) years of the filing of this 28 Complaint to the present, have worked as non-exempt employees and have

1 been terminated or resigned, and have not been paid wages pursuant to Labor
2 Code Section 203 and are owed restitution and waiting time penalties for 3 unpaid wages;

4 (f) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the 5 State of California, and who, within the one (1) year of the filing of this
6 Complaint to the present have worked as non-exempt employees and were not
7 provided an accurate payroll record or wage statement as required under Labor
8 Code Sections 226 and 1174;

9 (g) All persons who are employed or have been employed by Defendant in the 10 State of California, and who, within the four (4) years of the filing of this
11 Complaint to the present, have worked as non-exempt employees and were 12 subjected to unlawful and unfair business practices within the meaning of 13 California's Unfair Competition Law and who suffered injury, including lost
14 money, as a result of Defendant's unlawful and unfair business practices.

15 46. Throughout discovery in this litigation, Plaintiff may find it appropriate and/or 16 necessary to amend the definition of the Class. Plaintiff will formally define and designate a class
17 definition at such time when Plaintiff seeks to certify the Class alleged in this Complaint.

18 47. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to 19 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 because there is a well-defined common interest of many 20 persons and it is impractical to bring them all before the court.

21 48. The Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 22 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 because:

- 23 (a) The questions of law and fact common to Class predominate over any 24 question affecting only individual class members;
- 25 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 26 efficient adjudication of the claims of the Class members;
- 27 (c) Class is so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the 28 Class before the Court;

- 1 (d) Plaintiff and Class Members will not be able to obtain effective and 2 economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- 3 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and 4 equitable relief for the common law and statutory violations and other
5 improprieties and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages
6 and injuries which Defendant's actions have inflicted upon Class;
- 7 (f) There is a community of interest in ensuring that the combined assets and 8 available insurance of the Defendant are sufficient to adequately
9 compensate Class Members for the injuries sustained;
- 10 (g) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by 11 individual members of the Class would create a risk of:
- 12 (1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
13 members of the Class which would establish an incompatible
14 standard of conduct for Defendant; and/or
- 15 (2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which 16 would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other 17 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially
18 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including 19 but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available
20 from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendant; and
- 21 (h) Defendant have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 22 Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 23 Class as a whole.

24 49. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and Class is 25 readily ascertainable:

- 26 (a) Numerosity: The members of Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 27 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
28 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time,

1 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 75 individuals and the 2 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 3 Defendant's records.

4 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the 5 interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined
6 community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical 7 of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

8 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 9 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
10 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated
11 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 12 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 13 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
14 Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 15 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 16 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 17 benefit of each class member.
18

19 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 20 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 21 1. The interests of the members of the Class in individually
22 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 23 2. The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the 24 controversy already commenced by or against members of the 25 Class;
- 26 3. The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the 27 litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and 28

1 4. The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of 2 a class action.

3 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is 4 to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a
5 class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights
6 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also 7 fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers
8 might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or 9 other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in 10 the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of 11 their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

12 50. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 13 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendant's own 14 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 15 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would 16 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 17 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 18 other methods suitable to Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

19 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

20 Failure to Pay All Wages for All Hours Worked

21 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

22 51. Plaintiff and Class Members re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding
23 paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

24 52. Labor Code Section 510, subdivision (a) states in pertinent part: "Any work in 25 excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek...
26 shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for 27 any employee."
28

53. Labor Code Section 1194, subdivision (a) states: “Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.”

54. Further, pursuant to Labor Code Section 1197, payment of less than the minimum wage fixed by the Labor Commission is unlawful.

55. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer than the hours set by the Industrial Welfare Commission or under conditions prohibited by the IWC Wage Order(s).

56. Pursuant to the IWC Wage Order(s), Defendant is required to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked, meaning the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

57. Plaintiff and Class Members were required to work overtime in excess of eight (8) hours per workday and in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, but were not paid at the proper overtime rate of pay.

58. Labor Code Section 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month on days designated in advance by the employer as regular paydays. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (a) labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 204 (d) the requirements of this Section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Plaintiff and Class were also entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours

2 employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were
3 not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods
4 not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked.

5 59. Defendant's pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy
6 regarding illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an 7 entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code Section 218, to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the 8 Class, in a civil action, of the unpaid balance of the full amount of wages owing, calculated at the 9 appropriate rate.

10 60. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194.2(a) (which provides that in any action under 11 Labor Code § 1194, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages), the members
12 of Class seek recovery of liquidated damages on the straight-time portion of uncompensated hours
13 of work (not including the overtime portion thereof) in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully 14 unpaid and interest thereon.

15 61. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 218.6 and 1194(a) and Civil Code Section 3287,
16 Class Members seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

17 62. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 218.5 and/or 1194, Class Members request that 18 the Court award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

19 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

20 Failure to Provide Meal Periods or Compensation in Lieu Thereof

21 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

22 63. Plaintiff and Class Members re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding
23 paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

24 64. Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512 provide that no employer shall employ any 25 person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without providing a meal period of not less
26 than thirty (30) minutes within the fifth (5th) hour of work, or employ any person for a work
27 period of more than ten (10) hours without a second (2nd) meal period of not less than thirty (30)
28 minutes.

1 65. Labor Code Section 226.7 provides that if an employer fails to provide an
2 employee a meal period in accordance with this Section, the employer shall pay the employee one
3 (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal
4 period is not provided in accordance with this Section.

5 66. Defendant failed to schedule Plaintiff and Class Members in a manner as to 6 reasonably ensure that Plaintiff and Class Members could take such meal periods within the 7 statutory timeframe. As a result, Plaintiff and Class were often forced to forego their meal
8 periods, work during their meal periods and/or take meal periods after the fifth (5th) hour of their
9 shifts. In so doing, Defendant has intentionally and improperly denied meal periods to Plaintiff
10 and Class Members in violation of Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512, and other regulations and 11 statutes.

12 67. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and Class have worked more than five (5)
13 hours in a workday.

14 68. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant failed to schedule Plaintiff and Class
15 Members in a manner so as to reasonably provide work-free meal periods in accordance with 16 Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512.

17 69. By virtue of Defendant's failure to schedule Plaintiff and Class Members in such 18 a way as to provide a timely and/or work free meal period to Plaintiff and Class Members, Plaintiff
19 and Class Members have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in an amount which is 20 presently unknown, but which exceed the jurisdictional limits of this Court and which will be 21 ascertained according to proof at trial.

22 70. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of Class Members, requests recovery of meal
23 period compensation pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.7 for the four (4) years prior to filing
24 this complaint, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendant in a sum as 25 provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

26 ///

27 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

28 Failure to Provide Rest Periods or Compensation in Lieu Thereof

1 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

2 71. Plaintiff and Class Members re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding
3 paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

4 72. The IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code Section 226.7 provides that employers
5 must authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods at the rate of ten (10) minutes rest
6 time per four (4) work hours or major fraction thereof.

7 73. Labor Code Section 226.7, subdivision (b) provides that if an employer fails to 8 provide an employee rest period in accordance with this Section, the employer shall pay the 9 employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday
10 that the rest period is not provided.

11 74. During the Class Period, Defendant did not provide Plaintiff and Class Members
12 with a ten-minute rest period for every four (4) work hours or major fraction thereof. Therefore,
13 Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided lawful rest periods.

14 75. Defendant failed and/or refused to implement a policy by which Plaintiff and Class
15 Members could receive rest periods and/or work free rest periods. By and through its actions, 16 Defendant intentionally and improperly denied rest periods to Plaintiff and Class Members in 17 violation of Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512.

18 76. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and Class have worked more than four (4)
19 hours in a workday.

20 77. By virtue of the Defendant's unlawful failure to provide rest periods to Plaintiff
21 and Class Members, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered, and will continue to suffer, 22 damages, in amounts which are presently unknown, but which exceed the jurisdictional limits of 23 this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

24 78. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of employees similarly situated, requests
25 recovery of rest period compensation pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.7 for the four (4) years
26 prior to filing this Complaint, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against 27 Defendant, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or any other statute.

28 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements
(Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

79. Plaintiff and Class re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

80. Labor Code Section 1174, subdivision (d) requires an employer to keep at a central location in California, or at the plant or establishment at which the employee is employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by, and the wages paid to, each employee.

81. Labor Code Section 226, subdivision (a) requires an employer to provide employees—either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately when wages are paid by personal check or cash—an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing

(1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee . . . , (4) all deductions . . . , (5) net wages, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer . . . , and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee

82. Moreover, the IWC Wage Orders require that every employer shall keep accurate information with respect to each employee, including time records showing when each employee begins and ends each work period, the total daily hours worked by each employee and the total hours worked in each payroll period, correct legal entity of employer and applicable rates of pay.

83. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant willfully and intentionally failed to make and/or keep records which accurately reflect the hours worked by Plaintiff and Class. Specifically, Plaintiff believes that Defendant's records do not accurately reflect when Plaintiff and Class worked during their meal and rest periods and/or took untimely meal periods or worked for hours not paid. Defendant also failed to include an hourly rate which is a blatant violation of

1 the Labor Code.

2 84. Labor Code Section 226, subdivision (e) provides that if an employer knowingly
3 and intentionally fails to provide a statement itemizing, inter alia, the gross and net wages earned,
4 the total hours worked by the employee and the applicable hourly overtime rates, causing the 5 employee injury, then the employee is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or 6 fifty dollars ($50.00) for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each
7 subsequent violation, up to four thousand dollars ($4,000.00). Plaintiff is informed and believes
8 that Defendant willfully failed to make or keep accurate records for Plaintiff and Class.

9 85. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant's failure to keep accurate payroll
10 records, as described above, violated Labor Code Section 1174, subdivision (d) and Section 226,
11 subdivision (a), and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s). Pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699,
12 subdivision (f)(2), Plaintiff and Class are entitled to penalties of $100.00 and for the initial 13 violation and $200.00 for each subsequent violation for every pay period during which these 14 records and information were not kept by Defendant.

15 86. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant's failure to keep and maintain 16 accurate records and information, as described above, was willful, and Plaintiff and Class are 17 entitled to statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 1174.5.

18 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 Failure to Pay Wages upon Termination of Employment

20 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

21 87. Plaintiff and Class re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs
22 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

23 88. Plaintiff's employment with Defendant ended on or about February 22, 2023.
24 Plaintiff and certain Class who ended their employment with Defendant during the Class Period,
25 were entitled to be promptly paid for all hours worked, including lawful regular time
26 compensation, overtime compensation, double-time compensation, and other premiums, as 27 required by Labor Code Sections 201 through 203. Plaintiff is also entitled to meal period and 28 rest period premium pay in accordance with Labor Code Sections 226 and 226.7.

1 98. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Class are entitled to an award of “necessary
2 expenditures or losses” shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited to, attorney’s
3 fees and interest.

4 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 Unfair Business Practices

6 (Against Defendant, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

7 99. Plaintiff and Class re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs
8 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

9 100. Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq. (also referred to herein as 10 the “Unfair Business Practices Act” or “Unfair Competition Law”) prohibits unfair competition
11 in the form of any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice.

12 101. Business and Professions Code Section 17204 allows “a person who has suffered 13 injury in fact and has lost money or property as a result of the unfair competition” to prosecute a 14 civil action for violation of the Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”).

15 102. Labor Code Section 90.5, subdivision (a) states that it is the public policy of 16 California to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not 17 required to work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect employers who 18 comply with the law from those who attempt to gain competitive advantage at the expense of their 19 workers by failing to comply with minimum labor standards.

20 103. Beginning at an exact date unknown to Plaintiff, but at least since the date four (4)
21 years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, Defendant has committed acts of unfair competition as 22 defined by the Unfair Business Practices Act, by engaging in the unlawful, unfair and fraudulent
23 business practices and acts described in this Complaint including but not limited to violations of 24 Labor Code Sections 201-204, 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, 2699(f)(2), 6427, 6428, 25 6429 as well as other statutes.

26 104. The violations of these laws and regulations, as well as of the fundamental 27 California public policies protecting workers, serve as unlawful predicate acts and practices for 28 purposes of Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq.

1 105. The acts and practices described above constitute unfair, unlawful and fraudulent
2 business practices, and unfair competition, within the meaning of Business and Professions Code
3 Section 17200 et seq. Among other things, the acts and practices have forced Plaintiff and other 4 similarly situated employees to labor for many consecutive hours without receiving the meal and 5 rest periods and overtime compensation to which they are entitled by law, while enabling 6 Defendant to gain an unfair competitive advantage over law-abiding employers and competitors.

7 106. As a result of Defendant's acts, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury
8 in fact in being denied their statutorily entitled meal and rest periods and full compensation for 9 hours worked.

10 107. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned acts and practices, Plaintiff
11 and Class have suffered lost wages in an amount to be proven at trial.

12 108. Business and Professions Code Section 17203 provides that a court may make 13 such orders or judgments as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by any person
14 of any practice which constitutes unfair competition. Injunctive relief is necessary and 15 appropriate to prevent Defendant from repeating its unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business acts 16 and business practices alleged above.

17 109. Business and Professions Code Section 17203 provides that the Court may restore 18 to any person in interest any money or property that may have been acquired by means of such 19 unfair competition. Plaintiff and Class are entitled to restitution pursuant to Business and 20 Professions Code Section 17203 for all wages and payments unlawfully withheld from 21 employees, including the fair value of the meal and rest periods taken away from them during the 22 four-year period prior to the filing of this Complaint, as well as for all expenses or losses incurred
23 by Plaintiff and Class in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her 24 obedience to the directions of the employer.

25 110. Business and Professions Code Section 17202 provides, "Notwithstanding Section
26 3369 of the Civil Code, specific or preventative relief may be granted to enforce a penalty,
27 forfeiture, or penal law in a case of unfair competition." Plaintiff and Class are entitled to enforce 28

1 all applicable penalty provisions of the Labor Code pursuant to Business and Professions Code
2 Section 17202.

3 111. Plaintiff's success in this action will enforce important rights affecting public
4 interest, and in that regard, Plaintiff sues on behalf of the general public, as well as herself and
5 other similarly situated employees. Plaintiff and Class seek and are entitled to restitution, civil 6 penalties, declaratory and injunctive relief, and all other equitable remedies owing them.

7 112. Plaintiff herein takes upon herself enforcement of these laws and lawful claims.
8 There is a financial burden involved in pursuing this action. The action is seeking to vindicate a
9 public right, and it would be against the interests of justice to penalize Plaintiff by forcing her to 10 pay attorneys' fees from the recovery in this action. Attorneys' fees are appropriate pursuant to 11 Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5 and otherwise.

12 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 Violation of California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.

14 (Against Defendants, DOES 1 through 50, and each of them)

15 113. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs in this 16 First Amended Complaint, as if fully alleged herein.

17 114. Plaintiff seeks recovery of penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorney
18 General Act of 2004 ("PAGA.") (Labor Code sections 2698 et seq.)

19 115. PAGA permits an "aggrieved employee" to recover penalties on behalf of 20 himself/herself and other employees subject to violations of the Labor Code, including violations
21 of sections 201-204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, and 2802, as well as the applicable Wage 22 Order.

23 116. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants at all relevant times employed one 24 or more employees.

25 117. For those code sections that provide for the recovery of civil penalties, Plaintiff
26 will seek on behalf of all aggrieved employees those penalties. For those sections of the Labor
27 Code that do not specifically provide for civil penalties, Plaintiff will seek civil penalties of one
28 hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f).

118. Section 2699, subdivision (a) provides that civil penalties may be “recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2699, subd. (a).) Section 2699, subdivision (g), provides that an employee who prevails in a civil action under section 2699 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

119. The State of California, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees are, therefore, entitled to civil penalties, attorneys’ fees and costs, according to proof.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendant as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Causes of Action;

2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and

3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all wages due;

5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

7. For liquidated damages;

8. For reasonable attorneys’ fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

1 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and
2 appropriate.

3 As to the Second Cause of Action

4 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California
5 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

6 11. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

7 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the 8 date such amounts were due;

9 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure §
10 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

11 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and 12 appropriate.

13 As to the Third Cause of Action

14 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California
15 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16 16. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

17 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the 18 date such amounts were due;

19 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure §
20 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

21 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and
22 appropriate.

23 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

24 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated the record
25 keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders,
26 and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;
27
28

- 1 21. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);
2 22. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this Section, pursuant to 3 California Labor Code § 226(h);
4 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
5 24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and
6 appropriate.

7 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

8 25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California
9 Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time
10 of termination of the employment;

11 26. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former 12 employees who have left Defendant's employ;

13 27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 14 due;

15 28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

16 29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and 17 appropriate.
18

19 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

20 30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated Labor Code §
21 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

22 31. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be
23 appropriate;

24 32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the 25 date such amounts were due;

26 33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and 27
28

1 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and
2 appropriate.

3 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

4 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California
5 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours
6 worked), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal
7 periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records
8 of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and 9 failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

10 36. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and 11 prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

12 37. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all 13 funds disgorged from Defendant and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by 14 Defendant as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et 15 seq.;

16 38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 17 California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE SECTION § 2698 ET SEQ.

Re: Hernandez v. Precise Aerospace Manufacturing, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Javier Hernandez (“Plaintiff”) to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against his former employer Precise Aerospace Manufacturing, Inc. (“Defendant”). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which Plaintiff alleges Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant’s aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue a PAGA representative action on behalf of himself as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all other current and former aggrieved employees who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly paid, non-exempt employee at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the “Aggrieved Employees”).

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of Defendant suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Factual Background Regarding Plaintiff's Employment with Defendant

Defendant owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Orange County. As such, Defendant is subject to the California Labor Code and the Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC").

Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a machine operator from June 15, 2023 to April 3, 2024, primarily in Orange County. Defendant classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from overtime. During the time period that Plaintiff was employed by Defendant, Plaintiff typically worked 5 days per week and over 8 hours each workday.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendant committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendant was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Overtime

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

Throughout the statutory time period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked including straight time wages and overtime wages. Defendant regularly used a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendant's operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Additionally, Defendant required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work after their scheduled hours but rounded time to scheduled hours to avoid paying overtime as confirmed by Defendant's records. Accordingly, Defendant frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at the overtime rate. Throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved

Employees received additional remuneration in the form of bonuses. However, Defendant has not compensated Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees at the proper overtime and sick pay rate. Defendant did not include the bonuses paid to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating overtime rate of pay and sick pay. Throughout the statutory period, Defendant also maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work “off-the-clock”. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees donning and doffing prior to clocking in to work and after clocking out without compensation. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were also required to wait in line to use the computer to clock in to work without compensation. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendant failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked. In doing so, Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including overtime.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendant wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal periods or recording of meal periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees missed or took late or short meal periods since their nature of the work did not allow them to interrupt their work and take meal periods on time. Additionally, meal periods were cut short by the walking distance to the meal break area and were untimely due to the rounding of time implemented by Defendant. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not authorized or taken second meal periods when they worked shifts greater than 10 hours.

Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Defendant, however, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendant authorizing and permitting them to take a 10 minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendant's written policy is deficient as it is non-compliant with the language required under California law. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees missed or took late or short rest periods since the nature of their work did not allow them to interrupt their work and take rest periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take any rest periods.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendant, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendant's failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendant's records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendant's knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 1174.5 for failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods.

Failure to Reimburse and Indemnify Expenses

California Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to reimburse employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of the employer.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendant without reimbursement including but not limited to purchasing tools and materials necessary to perform their work including but not limited to flashlights, markers, scissors, band aids, hats. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees used their personal cell phones to communicate regarding their schedules without reimbursement of reasonable portion of their cell phone bills. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant, and Defendant has failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendant failed, and continues to fail to terminated Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendant's employ. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time including straight time and overtime wages, missed meal periods, and missed rest periods.

Defendant's conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).

The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).

Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to list the correct legal entity of employer, list gross wages earned, the failure to list the true net wages earned, including wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and correct wages earned for all hours worked.

As a result of Defendant violating Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendant’s failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding $4,000 dollars per employee.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month on days designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Lab. Code § 204(a). The requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Lab. Code § 204(d).

Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were also entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendant owe employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Take All Feasible Means to Reduce Excessive Heat in Workplace

In accordance with the Section 15 (a) of the applicable wage order issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”), The temperature maintained in each work area shall provide reasonable comfort consistent with industry-wide standards for the nature of the process and the work performed. Further Section 15 (b) of IWC states that if excessive heat or humidity is created by the work process, the employer shall take all feasible means to reduce such excessive heat or humidity to a degree providing reasonable comfort.

However, Defendant has not taken feasible means to reduce such excessive heat. Defendant did not have proper air conditioning and air ventilation, and temperature during summer times in the jobsite became intolerable. As a result, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees suffered injuries at their workplace due to the excessive heat.

Labor Code § 1199 (c) provides that employers, persons, officers, agents, or other employees are guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of at least $100 for violating, refusing or neglecting to comply with any provision of the particular Labor Code chapter or any order or ruling of the Commission.

Section 20 of IWC provides that in addition to any other civil penalties provided by law, any employer or any other person acting on behalf of the employer who violates, or causes to be violated, the provisions of this order, shall be subject to the civil penalty of initial violation - $50.00 for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid in addition to the amount which is sufficient to recover unpaid wages, and subsequent violations — $100.00 for each underpaid employee for each pay period during which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount which is sufficient to recover unpaid wages.

Failure to Provide Safe and Healthful Work Environment

Labor Code § 6400 provides that every employer shall furnish employment and a place of employment that is safe and healthful for the employees therein.

Labor Code § 6401 provides that every employer shall furnish and use safety devices and safeguards, and shall adopt and use practices, means, methods, operations, and processes which are reasonably adequate to render such employment and place of employment safe and healthful. Every employer shall do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life, safety, and health of employees.

Labor Code § 6402 provides that no employer shall require or permit any employee to go or be in any employment or place of employment which is not safe and healthful.

Labor Code § 6403 provides no employer shall fail or neglect to do any of the following:

- (a) To provide and use safety devices and safeguards reasonably adequate to render the employment and place of employment safe.
- (b) To adopt and use methods and processes reasonably adequate to render the employment and place of employment safe.
- (c) To do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life, safety, and health of employees.

Labor Code § 6404 provides that no employer shall occupy or maintain any place of employment that is not safe and healthful.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees complained about the hazardous dust created from materials used for work and requested to open the doors and windows. Defendant did not allow Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to open the doors and windows at jobsite exposing Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to unsafe and unhealthy working conditions.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;

3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
5. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse and indemnify employees for expenses and losses in the direct consequence and discharge of their duties;
6. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
7. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
8. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month;
9. IWC applicable order for failure to take all feasible means to reduce excessive heat in the workplace;
10. Labor Code § 640, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404 for failure to provide safe and healthful work environment.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, 2699(f)(2), 6427, 6428, 6429.

Plaintiff has placed Defendant on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence to its corporate address and address of the agent for service as indicated on the first page.

The facts and claims contained herein are based on the information available at the time of this writing. Therefore, if through discovery and/or expert review, Plaintiff becomes aware of additional compensation owed or losses incurred by Plaintiff or by any other aggrieved employee of Defendant or any additional facts, Plaintiff expressly reserves the right to revise these facts and/or add any new claims by amending the claim letter or by adding applicable causes of action to the complaint which will relate back to the date of this letter.
