2 Plaintiff Nicole Jesscielia Session, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 3 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as 4 follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys' 7 General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against Ramona 8 Rehabilitation and Post Acute Care, Inc., a California corporation, and any of its respective 9 subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("Ramona") as a proxy of the 10 Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of 11 Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the 12 Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to 13 comply with the Labor Code. Specifically, in connection with the alleged claims for failure to 14 comply with Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.5, 204, 204a, 205, 15 205.5, 210, 212, 221, 222, 223, 222.5, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, 246, 432, 432.3, 16 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 1102.5, 1197.5, 1198, and 1198.5, Plaintiff seeks to represent all employees of 17 Ramona and DOES 1 through 100, as well as their parents, subsidiaries and affiliates (hereinafter, 18 collectively, "Defendants") working within three years preceding the date of this letter and 19 continuing past the date of this Letter into perpetuity ("Civil Penalty Period"). On all other claims 20 mentioned herein, Plaintiff seeks to represent only non-exempt employees of Defendants working 21 within the Civil Penalty Period. Collectively, those employees shall be known as "Aggrieved 22 Employees" herein.

23 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 24 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

25 3. Venue is proper in Riverside County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure 26 sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Riverside County is where the causes of action 27 complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in 28 which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was

1 due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff
2 and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, 3 reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved 4 Employees in Riverside County, and because Defendants employ Aggrieved Employees in 5 Riverside County.

6 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 7 Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period and suffered the Labor Code violations set forth herein, 8 even if not in the precise exact fashion as other Aggrieved Employees. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks 9 to recover civil penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorneys’ General Act of 2004, codified at 10 Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), as amended, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, 11 for Plaintiff and all other current and former Aggrieved Employees of Defendants during the Civil 12 Penalty Period.

13 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 14 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
15 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 16 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

17 6. During the Civil Penalty Period, Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 18 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.5, 204, 204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, 206.5, 19 210, 212, 221, 222, 223, 222.5, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 231, 232, 232.5, 233, 235, 245, 246, 20 351, 353, 404, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 450, 510, 511, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1101, 1102, 21 1102.5, 1174, 1174.51182.12, 1197.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1198, 1198.5, 1290, 1292, 1293, 1293.1, 22 1294.1, 1301, 1391, 1475, 1695.55, 1696.5, 1700.31, 1771, 1774, 1775, 1776, 1811, 1815, 1197.5, 23 2673, 2800, 2802, 2810.3, 2810.5, 2699, 49112, and 49116, among others, California Code of 24 Regulations, Title 8, Sections 1527, 3366, 3395, 3396, 3457, 8397.4, Business and Professions Code
25 sections 16600, 16700, and 17200, Government Code section 12952, as well as applicable Wage 26 Orders.

27 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes Aggrieved Employees 28 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former Aggrieved Employees within

1 the Civil Liability Period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures
2 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

3 8. On or around May 13, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code
4 section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' violation 5 of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as 6 by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

7 9. Plaintiff also provided Defendants, and each of them, with notice under Labor Code
8 section 2810.3, subdivision (d) that Plaintiff would seek to hold them liable for each other's wage
9 and hour violations under Labor Code section 2810.3 on May 13, 2024 by certified mail with return 10 receipt requested.

11 10. To the extent Defendants, or either of them, previously used the notice and cure 12 provision of Labor Code section 2699.3 within the last twelve months, under section 2699.3(d), then 13 Defendants, or those who have availed themselves of the cure provisions validly, are not eligible to 14 cure the violations discussed herein under section 2699.3 or otherwise use the early evaluation 15 conference process pursuant to section 2699.3(f).

16 11. In the event that Defendants, or either of them, is/are determined to have satisfied 17 sections 2699(g), 2699(h), or otherwise 2699(d)(1), Defendants, or any that is determined to have 18 satisfied sections 2699(g), 2699(h), is also, in the alternative, liable for civil penalties pursuant to 19 Labor Code sections 2699(j), 2699(e)(2), and 2699(f)(2).

20 12. In the event that Defendants, or either of them, is/are determined to have, prior to 21 this notice or a request for records pursuant to Labor Code section 226, 432, or 1198.5, from Plaintiff 22 and/or his/her counsel, adequately taken all reasonable steps to be in compliance with all provisions 23 identified in this notice, said defendant(s) is/are still liable for civil penalties pursuant to section 24 2699(g)(1)-(3).

25 13. In the event that Defendants, or either of them is/are deemed to have adequately taken 26 all reasonable steps to be in compliance with all provisions identified in this notice within sixty (60)
27 days of receiving this notice, said defendant(s) is/are still liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor 28 Code section 2699(h)(1)-(3).

14. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that within five (5) years of any of violations described above, the LWDA or a court has issued a finding or determination to the Defendants, or either of them, that its/their policy or practice giving rise to such violations was unlawful, and thus Defendants, or any of them, is/are further liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(i). Plaintiff is informed that Defendants, or any of them, was/were found to have unlawfully committed some or all of the above-related Labor Code violations, and thus is/are subject to increased penalties, as applicable, under Labor Code sections 2699(f)(2)(B)(i), 2699(g)(3) and 2699(h)(3), and is/are not eligible for reduced penalties under either Labor Code sections 2699(g) or 2699(h) for remedying violations either prior to or after the serving of this notice. Regardless, as the Defendants' conduct giving rise to the violations detailed herein was and is malicious, fraudulent, and/or oppressive, the Employer thus is subject to increased penalties under Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii) and, per Labor Code sections 2699(g)(3) and 2699(h)(3), are not eligible for reduced penalties under either 2699(g) or 2699(h), for remedying violations either prior to or after the Employer's receipt of this notice.

15. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the May 13, 2024 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and each of them, had and have a policy or practice of requiring Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to work more than eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek (in violation of Labor Code sections 551 and 552) without paying them proper overtime wages every day, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Employer's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking

1 out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and 2 doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to 3 make phone calls or drive off the clock, and/or go through security screenings and/or temperature 4 checks off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary 5 bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask allowances, gift cards and other forms of 6 remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the 7 additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; 8 detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show 9 less hours than actually worked, for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, for failure to pay
10 overtime as required by Labor Code section 226.2, and by attempting but failing to properly 11 implement an alternative workweek schedule (“AWS”) (including, without limitation, by failing to 12 implement a written agreement designating the regularly scheduled alternative workweek in which 13 the specified number of work days and work hours are regularly recurring; failing to adopt the AWS 14 in a secret ballot election, before the performance of work, by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the 15 affected employees in the work unit; failing to follow the notice/disclosures procedures prior to any 16 AWS election; and/or failing to register an AWS election with the State of California, as required 17 by Labor Code section 511 and applicable Wage Orders) all to the detriment of Employee and other 18 Aggrieved Employees. Consequently, Employee is informed and believes, and based thereon 19 alleges, that Employer violated Labor Code sections 221, 222, 223, 226.2, 510, 511, 551, 552, 1194, 20 1198 (as it pertains to employees governed by a collective bargaining agreement [“CBA”]), 1811, 21 1815 and applicable Wage Orders based on its practice of providing total compensation that is less 22 than the required legal overtime compensation for the overtime worked, entitling Employee and 23 other aggrieved employees to damages, including, without limitation, at least one hour of unpaid 24 overtime wages each day worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the Civil Penalty Period.
25 Employee further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Employer’s conduct above 26 gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Employer would also be liable 27 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 558, 28

1 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Employer would further
2 be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 4 each of them, had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other 5 Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Employer's 6 control every day as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all 7 minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 8 including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work
9 without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines 10 for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, 11 to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff 12 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to undergo security checks and/or bag checks off 13 the clock, to store and retrieve personal belongings off the clock, to attend company meetings off 14 the clock, to make phone calls, receive and respond to emails and/or texts, or drive off-the-clock; 15 detrimental rounding of employee time entries; failing to pay the minimum amounts required under 16 Labor Code section 226.2; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 17 actually worked; and failing to pay split shift premiums. In addition, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 18 Employees were required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were 19 furnished less than half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or 20 scheduled work at their regular rate of pay. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 21 thereon alleges, that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as it 22 pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.2, 1197, 1182.12, Cal. and applicable Wage 23 Orders based on its continued failure to pay minimum wages for all hours worked, that Plaintiff and 24 other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Plaintiff and other 25 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to actual and liquidated damages under, without limitation, Labor 26 Code sections 1475, 1194, 1194.2, and 1198 to compensate them for at least one unpaid hour of 27 work per day for each Aggrieved Employee in the Civil Penalty Period. Employee further informed
28 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations

1 was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Plaintiff would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant 2 to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 558, 1197.1, 1198 and 2699, or 3 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff would further be liable for civil 4 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

5 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 6 and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with 7 minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Employer's control every day as a result 8 of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; 9 engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, 10 by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in 11 for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete 12 pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods 13 and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety 14 equipment off the clock, to undergo security checks and/or bag checks off the clock, to store and 15 retrieve personal belongings off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone 16 calls, receive and respond to emails and/or texts, or drive off-the-clock; detrimental rounding of 17 employee time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually 18 worked; and failing to pay split shift premiums. In addition, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
19 Employees were required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were 20 furnished less than half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or 21 scheduled work at their regular rate of pay. These acts and/or omissions violated Labor Code 22 sections 1771, 1774 and 1198, and, thus Plaintiff would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to these 23 sections and Labor Code section 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
24 Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff's conduct above
25 gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Plaintiff would further be liable 26 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 28 each of them, had and have a policy or practice of compelling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved

1 Employees during the Civil Penalty Period to work every day in excess of five (5) and ten (10) hours 2 per day, without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal periods or 3 compensation in lieu thereof including, each workday, without limitation: by interrupting meal 4 periods; not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; 5 providing short meal periods, including without, limitation meal periods that were recorded for less 6 than thirty minutes, and meal periods that may appear on the record to be thirty minutes or longer 7 but in practice were shorter than thirty minutes due to time required to walk to and from a suitable 8 break area, time spent having to wait in line to clock back in, having to don and doff safety gear 9 during the meal period, having to undergo security or bag checks during the meal period, and /or 10 having to retrieve and store personal belongings during the meal period; requiring that employees 11 carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal periods; not permitting employees to leave 12 the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal periods; and auto-deducting meal periods 13 that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which employees worked. Plaintiff and other 14 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and 15 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as to 16 employees governed by a CBA), 223, 512 and 1198 each day for each Aggrieved Employee during 17 the Civil Penalty Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee was owed one hour of premium
18 pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the Civil Penalty Period under Labor 19 Code section 226.7. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those premium payments 20 under Labor Code section 226.7 were not made, either, for these non-compliant meal periods, either 21 at all or at the proper regular rate of pay. Plaintiff would thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant 22 to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221, 222 (for employees 23 governed by a CBA), 223, 558, 1198 and 2699 for both failing to authorize the taking of compliant
24 meal periods and for failing to provide premium pay under Labor Code section 226.7, or injunctive 25 relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based 26 thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, 27 fraudulent, or oppressive. Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor 28 Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 20. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 maintain policies or practices of compelling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees every day to, 3 including, without limitation, work over four-hour periods (or major fractions thereof) without 4 authorizing and permitting Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to take uninterrupted, timely, 5 and complete ten-minute rest periods in which the employees are completely relieved of all of their 6 duties, including, without limitation: by failing to provide rest periods all together; failing to provide 7 rest periods that were at least ten minutes in length, including rest periods that were shorter than ten 8 minutes, or rest periods that may have encompassed a total of ten minutes but were in practice less 9 than ten uninterrupted minutes due to, without limitation, due to time required to walk to and from 10 a suitable break area, time spent having to don and doff safety gear during the rest period, having to 11 retrieve and store personal belongings during the rest period, and/or having to undergo security or 12 bag checks during the rest period, requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; 13 interrupting them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest 14 periods; not providing rest periods in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the 15 premises; and otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods. Employee and other Aggrieved 16 Employees personally suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, 17 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated the applicable Wage Order(s) each day for each 18 Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee was owed 19 one hour of premium pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the PAGA Period 20 under Labor Code section 226.7. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those premium 21 payments under Labor Code section 226.7 were not made, either, for these non-compliant rest
22 periods, either at all or at the proper regular rate of pay, in violation of Labor Code sections 226.7
23 and 1198. Defendants would thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210
24 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221, 222 (for employees governed by a CBA), 223, 558, 25 1198 and 2699 for both failing to authorize the taking of compliant rest periods and for failing to 26 provide premium pay under Labor Code section 226.7, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) 27 and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'

28

1 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
2 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 4 maintain policies or practices of failing to maintain adequate temperatures which created excessive 5 heat or humidity exposing Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to temperature related hazards and/or 6 comfortable working environments, as required under California Code of Regulations Title 8, 7 section 3396. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants failed
8 to maintain temperatures at comfortable levels in violation of section 15 of the applicable Wage 9 Orders, which requires temperature be maintained in each work area to be reasonably comfortable, 10 consistent with industry-wide standards for the nature of the process and the work performed.
11 Defendants, as required by the same wage order provisions, also: failed and fails to take all feasible 12 means to reduce excessive heat or humidity created by the work process to provide reasonable 13 comfort; failed and fails to provide a heated room for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees so that 14 they may retire for warmth while maintaining such room at not less than 60 degrees; and/or failed 15 and fails to maintain a temperature of not less than 68 degrees in toilet rooms, resting rooms, and 16 change rooms during hours of use Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon 17 alleges that Defendants failed and fail to permit Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from 18 taking cooldown periods every day as required under California Code of Regulations, Title 8, 19 Section 3395; rest and recovery periods as required by Labor Code section 226.2; and premium pay 20 in lieu thereof under Labor Code section 226.7. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally 21 suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon
22 alleges, that Defendants violated California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Sections 3395 and 3396
23 each day for each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved 24 Employee was owed one hour of premium pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked 25 during the PAGA Period under Labor Code section 226.7. In addition, for the failure each day of 26 the PAGA Period by Defendants to provide rest and recovery periods under Labor Code section 27 226.2, each Aggrieved Employee was owed compensation at a regularly hourly rate that is no less 28 than the higher of the amounts set forth in Labor Code section 226.2(a)(3)(A)(i) or

1 226.2(a)(3)(A)(ii). However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those premium payments under 2 Labor Code section 226.7, and rest and recovery periods under Labor Code section 226.2(a)(3)(A)
3 were not made for these non-compliant cooldown periods and/or rest and recovery periods, either 4 at all or at the proper rate of pay, in violation of Labor Code sections 226.2, 226.7 and/or 1198.
5 Defendants would also be liable for their failures to provide comfortable levels of temperatures to 6 employees under the wage orders, including Section 15 thereof. Defendants would thus be liable
7 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221,
8 222 (for employees governed by a CBA), 223, 558, 1198 and 2699 for both failing to authorize the 9 taking of compliant rest periods and for failing to provide premium pay under Labor Code section 10 226.7, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and 11 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 12 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 13 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

14 22. In addition to the above, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges 15 that Defendants failed and continue to fail to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage 16 statements and similar payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to 17 obtain or hold employment under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code 18 section 1198.5, time records under Labor Code section 1174, the names and addresses of all 19 employees employed and the ages of all minors under Labor Code section 1174, subsection (c), 20 payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-21 rate units earned by, and applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective place
22 of employment under Labor Code section 1174, subsection (d), and a copy of the payroll record
23 provided by the contractor under Labor Code section 1695.55, as well as the information required 24 to be kept under Labor Code sections 2673 and/or 1776, subdivision (a), making it difficult for 25 Employee and other aggrieved employees to calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium 26 payments. Employer also failed to provide these documents to Employee and other Aggrieved 27 Employees upon request in violation of these Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 28 1198 and/or 1775, subdivision (b)(1). Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees personally suffered

1 these violations, which in turn would entitle Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to penalties 2 prescribed by Labor Code sections 226 and 1198.5. Defendants would also be liable for civil 3 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 1174.5, 1695.55, 1198, and 2699. Plaintiff is further 4 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such 5 violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil 6 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 23. As a result of, among other things, Defendants' herein-described policy or practice 8 of failing to: accurately record time; failing to pay overtime and minimum wages; failing to provide 9 meal periods; failing to provide rest periods; and failing to provide compensation in lieu of meal or 10 rest periods, as described above, and due to independent failures in connection therewith, Plaintiff 11 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants also intentionally failed and 12 continues to fail to furnish Aggrieved Employees, including, without limitation, Plaintiff, with 13 itemized wage statements that accurately reflect: gross wages earned; total hours worked by the 14 employee; net wages earned; the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; the 15 name of the employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee 16 identification number other than a social security number; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates 17 in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate 18 by the employee; the legal name and address Defendants (and, in the case of a farm labor contractor, 19 the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer); and other such 20 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) , as well as Labor Code section 21 226.2 to the extent it does not include for piece-rate work the information required therein including,
22 without limitation, the quantity, rate and units worked per piece, as well as separately itemized non-23 productive time and rest and recovery periods. Specifically, Defendants intentionally failed to 24 furnish employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect the hours worked by 25 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees and the rates of pay at which they were or should have 26 been paid (including due to failure to pay at the proper regular rate), thus resulting in a failure to 27 reflect gross and net wages earned and paid at each rate, as well. Consequently, Employee is 28 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Employer violated Labor Code sections 226,

1 226.2, 1696.5 and 1198 each day for each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, and that,
2 thus Employee and each Aggrieved Employee personally suffered these violations and was owed
3 penalties under Labor Code section 226 and 226.2 for each pay period worked during the PAGA
4 Period. Plaintiff is informed and believes that those penalties under Labor Code section 226 were 5 not paid for these violations of Labor Code section 226. Defendants would thus be liable for civil 6 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.2, 226.3, 558, 1198, 1696.5 and 2699. Plaintiff is 7 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise
8 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil 9 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.2, 226.3, 558, and 2699, or injunctive relief under 10 sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to 11 Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

12 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants also 13 willfully or intentionally failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse, to timely pay 14 compensation to Plaintiff and other terminated or resigned employees, including but not limited to, 15 all overtime wages owed; all minimum wages owed; all paid sick leave, vacation pay and paid time 16 off; and all premium pay owed as set out above, including, without limitation, for failure to pay at 17 the proper regular rate of pay, among other things. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, 18 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 201.5, 201.7, 202 203, 19 203.5 ,204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5 and 1198 each pay period for each Aggrieved Employee
20 during the PAGA Period, and that, thus Plaintiff and each Aggrieved Employee personally suffered 21 these violations and was owed penalties under Labor Code section 203 (or, as applicable, 203.5, 22 204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205 and/or 205.5) for each pay period worked during the PAGA Period.
23 However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those penalties under Labor Code section 203 (or 24 203.5 and/or 204a) were not made for these violations of Labor Code sections 201, 201.5, 201.7, 25 202, 203, 203.5, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205 and/or 205.5. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, 26 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 27 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to 28 Labor Code sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(j).

1 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
2 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 4 required or require the execution of a release of claim or right on account of wages due, or to become 5 due, or made as an advance on wages to be earned, including, without limitation, as a condition of 6 being paid, to execute a statement of the hours worked during a pay period in which Defendants 7 knew to be false. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that 8 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 206.5 and 1198, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 9 Employees have personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and 10 based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, 11 fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code
12 sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants
13 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

14 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 15 or had a policy or practice of unlawfully deducting wages from Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 16 Employees, by issuing in payment of wages due, or to become due, or as an advance on wages to 17 be earned: (1) an order, check, draft, note, memorandum, gift card, or other acknowledgement of 18 indebtedness, (unless it was negotiable and payable in cash, on demand, without discount, at some 19 established place of business in the state), the name and address of which must but did not appear 20 on the instrument, and at the time of its issuance and for a reasonable time thereafter, which must 21 be but was not at least 30 days, the maker or drawer did not have sufficient funds in, or credit, 22 arrangement, or understanding with the drawee for its payment; and/or (2) any scrip, coupon cards, 23 or other thing redeemable, in merchandise or purporting to be payable or redeemable otherwise than 24 in money. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that such wages were 25 not compensated at the "regular rate" of compensation as provided under Labor Code sections 226.7
26 and 510, subsection (a), thus violating those Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 27 1198. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants, by these deductions and/or 28 otherwise, have caused wages earned by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to be charged back or

1 kicked back to Defendants. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 2 alleges, that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations under 3 these sections and are entitled to relief under, without limitation, Labor Code sections 212, 221, 222
4 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.7, 246, 510 subsection (a), 1194, and 5 1197. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff's conduct 6 above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would thus 7 be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, 1198 and 2699, or 8 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil 9 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 27. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants
11 failed and refused, and continues to fail and refuse, to comply with the notice requirements of Labor
12 Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing 13 to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay 14 applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular 15 payday designated by Defendants, the name of the employer, including any "doing business as" 16 names used, the name, address and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance 17 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information required to be 18 disclosed by Employer under Labor Code section 2810.5. Plaintiff is informed and believes that 19 failure to provide such information, including rates of pay that are in effect, has permitted 20 Defendants to pay employees at rates of pay that were not agreed upon and violate minimum wage 21 and overtime wage laws in California. Plaintiff is additionally informed and believes that the notice 22 requirement of Labor Code section 2810.5 involves a mandatory payroll or workplace injury 23 reporting. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 1198 and 24 2810.5. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff
25 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise 26 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Among other relief, employees may 27 collect from Defendants in connection with these violations' civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code 28

1 sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants
2 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants also 4 failed and refused, and continues to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 5 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 6 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 7 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, and for 8 the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, for pre-employment 9 medical, physical or drivers' exams taken as a condition of employment, or for compelling or 10 coercing Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, including applicants, to patronize in the purchase of a 11 value or things, including, without limitation, Defendants' product(s) and/or service(s), in direct 12 consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, 13 as required by Labor Code sections 222.5, 231, 450, 1198, 2800, 2802, and other statutory and 14 common law offenses. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally 15 suffered these violations and Defendants are liable to reimburse Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 16 Employees for these costs incurred in furtherance of work duties. Plaintiff further informed and 17 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 18 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. In addition, Defendants would be liable for civil penalties 19 pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) 20 and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
21 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

22 29. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 have or had a policy or practice of failing to reimburse deposits made, including uniform deposits
24 together with all interest owed at the separation of employment in violation of Labor Code sections 25 404 and 1198, that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, 26 and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in the amount of the 27 deposit and accrued interest. Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 28 Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.

1 Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558, 1198 and 2699, 2 or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for 3 civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

4 30. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
5 have or had a policy or practice of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with 6 all rights afforded to them under the Healthy Workplace Healthy Families Act of 2014, codified at 7 Labor Code section 245, et seq., including, without limitation, the amount of paid sick leave required 8 to be provided pursuant to California and local laws. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 9 the sick pay was not provided at the proper regular of pay as required under California law due to 10 failure to properly calculate the regular rate. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 11 Defendants also did not permit its use upon request by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees as 12 contemplated under California and local laws, including, without limitation, under Labor Code 13 section 233, that permits its use to attend to an illness of a child, parent, spouse, or domestic partner 14 without retaliation. Plaintiff is additionally informed and believes that the notice requirement of 15 Labor Code section 221, 222 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 233, 234, 245 16 and 246 involves a mandatory payroll or workplace injury reporting. Plaintiff is thus informed and 17 believes that Defendants violated these Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 1198.
18 As such, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations under these 19 sections and Defendants would be liable for civil penalties for violation of the paid sick leave 20 regulations under Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, as well as equitable, injunctive, or 21 restitutionary relief, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Defendants are further informed and 22 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 23 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 24 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 26 have a policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees their paid time 27 off and vacation time owed upon separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in 28 violation of Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223,

1 227.3 and applicable Wage Orders. Plaintiff is thus informed and believes that Defendants violated
2 these Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 1198. As such, Plaintiff and other 3 Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered these violations and Defendants would be liable for 4 civil penalties for violation of Labor Code section 227.3 under Labor Code section 558, 1198 and
5 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and
6 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 7 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 8 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

9 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 10 have a policy or practice of failing to pay aggrieved employees their wages in accordance with Labor 11 Code Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, 12 of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which 13 the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 14 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month." Plaintiff 15 is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants did not and do not pay Plaintiff
16 and other Aggrieved Employees every day and every workweek in accordance with Labor Code 17 sections 204 and 1198. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that 18 Defendants violated Labor Code section 204 and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have 19 personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based thereon 20 alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 21 oppressive. Plaintiff would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 558, 22 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff would further 23 be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

24 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 25 have a policy of failing to provide all temporary workers, including without limitation, Plaintiff, 26 with owed wages weekly by not later than the regular payday of the following week. Plaintiff is 27 informed and believes that this has resulted in a violation of Labor Code sections 201.3 and 1198.
28 As a result, pursuant to Labor Code section 201.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have

1 personally suffered violations thereto and Plaintiff would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to 2 Labor Code sections 201.3, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 3 2699(k). Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
4 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
5 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

6 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 7 or had collected, taken, or received gratuities (or a part thereof) that is paid, given to, or left for 8 Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees by a patron, or deducted amounts from wages due to Plaintiff
9 and/or Aggrieved Employees on account of a gratuity, or required Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved 10 Employees to credit the amount (or a part thereof) of a gratuity against and as part of the wages due 11 to the Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from the Defendants. In addition, Plaintiff is informed 12 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants permit and/or permitted patrons to pay 13 gratuities by credit card but failed to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees the full amount of 14 the gratuity that the patron indicated on the credit card slip, without any deductions, for any credit 15 card payment processing fees that may be charged to the employer by the credit card company by 16 not later than the regular payday following the date the patron authorized the credit card. In addition, 17 Defendants failed to keep accurate records of all gratuities received by Defendants and made those 18 open to inspection at all reasonable hours. Plaintiff is informed and believes that this has resulted 19 in a violation of Labor Code sections 351, 353, 1198. As a result, pursuant to Labor Code sections
20 351 and 353, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations thereto
21 and Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 351, 353, 1198
22 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed
23 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations
24 was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties 25 pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 27 have a policy or practice of failing to provide all working employees, including without limitation 28 Plaintiff, with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats.

1 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants have failed to 2 place an adequate number of seats in reasonable proximity to the work area and/or permitted 3 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to use such seats when it does not interfere with the 4 performance of their duties when employees are not engaged in the active duties of their 5 employment and the nature of their work requires standing. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 6 Employees have personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is informed and believes that this has 7 resulted in a violation of Labor Code section 1198. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 8 Employees have personally suffered violations thereto and Defendants would be liable for civil 9 penalties under Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1)
10 and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
11 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
12 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

13 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 14 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from using or 15 disclosing the skills, knowledge and experience they obtained with Defendants for purposes of 16 competing with Defendants, including, without limitation, preventing Plaintiff and Aggrieved 17 Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with a prospective employer, and 18 from disclosing who else works with Defendants and under what circumstances that they might be 19 receptive to an offer from a rival employer. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes that this 20 violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, 21 various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor Code sections 232, 232.5, 1197.5, 22 subdivision (k), and 1198, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally 23 suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 24 Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
25 Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or 26 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil 27 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 2 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing 3 violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or outside of 4 Defendants to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and 5 Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. Plaintiff and 6 other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. In addition, Plaintiff is informed
7 and believes that these policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees 8 from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and 9 hour violations in violation of Labor Code sections 232, 232.5 and 1198. Plaintiff and other 10 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations of the Labor Code, and as such, these 11 violations would expose Defendants to liability for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 12 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further 13 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such 14 violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil 15 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

16 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 17 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in 18 lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose 19 wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 20 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, 1197.5, subdivision (k), and 1198. Plaintiff and other 21 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is informed and believes that 22 this lawful conduct includes, without limitation, the exercise of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 23 Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty and would thus expose 24 Defendant to liability for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or 25 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff further informed and believes, and 26 based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, 27 fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor
28 Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 2 have made, adopted, and/or enforced rules, regulations and/or policies that tend to forbid or prevent 3 Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, from engaging or participating in politics and/or from 4 becoming a candidate for public office. Moreover, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 5 thereon alleges that Defendants coerced, influenced and/or attempted to coerce and/or influence 6 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, through or by means of threat of discharge and/or loss of 7 employment, to adopt or follow or refrain from adopting or following a particular course or line of 8 political action and/or political activity. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges 9 that in doing so, Defendants have violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 1101, 1102, 10 1102.5 and 1198. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations and 11 are thus informed and believe that Employer is exposed to liability for civil penalties pursuant to 12 Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
13 Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above 14 gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be 15 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

16 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, 17 including their agents, managers, superintendents, and/or officers, required Plaintiff and/or 18 Aggrieved Employees to agree, in writing, to terms and conditions known by Defendants (and their 19 agents, managers, superintendents and/or officers) to be prohibited by law, including, without 20 limitation, non-compete agreements, terms known to be illegal in purported arbitration agreements, 21 purported confidentiality agreements, purported severance agreements, or purported release 22 agreements, and other written documents presented for signature and/or assent to Plaintiff and/or 23 Aggrieved Employees by Defendants. And, even more specifically, Plaintiff is informed and 24 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a practice or policy of requiring 25 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to agree in writing to confidentiality policies that 26 unlawfully restrain trade by prohibiting employees from speaking with prospective employers about 27 their work with Defendants, including but not limited to their wages and working conditions.
28 Defendants also required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to inform prospective employers of 1 Defendants' restrictions of Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' freedom to work. As a result, 2 Employee is informed and believes that Employer violated Labor Code sections 432.5, 1700.31 and 3 1198. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and other 4 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Defendants violated, without 5 limitation, Labor Code section 432.5 and Government Code section 12952, entitling Plaintiff and 6 other Aggrieved Employees to damages. Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based thereon

7 alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 8 oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 9 432.5, 1198, 1700.31 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
10 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
11 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

12 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 13 and have a practice or policy of conducting unlawful background checks on prospective and current 14 employees, including without limitation Plaintiff, prior to making a conditional offer. Plaintiff is 15 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated applicable laws by, 16 without limitation: requiring job applicants and employees to disclose their conviction history before 17 Defendants made a conditional offer of employment; inquiring into or considering the conviction 18 history of applicants before Defendants made any conditional offers of employment; considering, 19 distributing, or disseminating information about arrests not followed by conviction, referrals to or 20 participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion program, convictions that have been sealed, 21 dismissed, expunged, or statutorily eradicated pursuant to law, or any conviction for which the 22 convicted person has received a full pardon or has been issued a certificate of rehabilitation, while 23 conducting conviction history background checks in connection with any applications for 24 employment; intending to deny an applicant a position of employment solely or in part because of 25 the applicant's conviction history; and asking applicants for employment to disclose, through any 26 written form or verbally, information concerning or related to an arrest, detention, processing, 27 diversion, supervision, adjudication, or court disposition that occurred while the person was subject 28 to the process and jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to the detriment of Employee and other

1 aggrieved employees. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 2 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, as well as violation
3 of Labor Code section 1198, and that Employer violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections
4 432.7 and 1198, as well as Government Code section 12952, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 5 Employees to damages. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 6 Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
7 Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 432.7, 432.8, 8 1198, and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would 9 further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 11 and have a practice or policy of relying on the salary history information of an applicant for 12 employment as a factor in determining whether to offer employment to an applicant or what salary 13 to offer the applicant in violation of Labor Code section 432.3 by including, on Defendants' 14 application for employment, an inquiry regarding current and/or former salary history information, 15 including, without limitation, compensation and benefits of the applicant for employment. Plaintiff 16 is informed and believes that this practice has resulted in unequal pay. Specifically, for this reason, 17 as well as for other reasons, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 18 Employer has failed to pay its employees at wage rates less than those paid to employees of the 19 opposite sex and/or another race or ethnicity for substantially similar work, when viewed as a 20 composite of skill, effort, and responsibility, and/or performed under similar working conditions 21 without sufficient legal rationale. Finally, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 22 alleges that Employer has discharged and/or discriminated and/or retaliated against Plaintiff and 23 Aggrieved Employees by reason of an action taken by them to invoke or assist in the enforcement 24 of Labor Code section 1197.5. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 25 alleges, that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 432.3, 1102.5, 1197.5, 26 and 1198. Plaintiff also alleges that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered 27 these violations, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages. Plaintiff
28 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise

1 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for 2 civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 432.3, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under 3 sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to
4 Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

5 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants and 6 others in connection with the Defendants (including, without limitation, the owner of the property, 7 controller, and others in concert with the Defendants) employed, permitted and/or suffered to work 8 minors under the age of sixteen (16) years in connection with a manufacturing establishment or 9 other place of employment; in adjusting belts to machinery, sewing or lacing machine belts in a 10 workshop or factory, and/or oiling, wiping, cleaning machinery and/or assisting therewith; in 11 operating or assisting in operating machines, including circular or band saws, wood shapers, wood-12 jointers, planers, sandpaper machinery, wood-polishing machinery, wood turning or boring 13 machinery, picker machines, machines used in picking wool, cotton, hair or other material, carding 14 machines, leather-burnishing machines, laundry machines, printing-presses, boring or drill presses, 15 stamping machines used in sheet-metal and tinware, in paper and leather manufacturing, in washer 16 and nut factories, metal or paper-cutting machines, paper-lace machines, corner-staying machines 17 in paper-box factories, corrugating rolls, dough brakes, cracker machinery, wire or iron 18 straightening or drawing machinery, rolling mill machinery, power punches or shears, washing, 19 grinding or mixing machinery, calendar rolls in paper and rubber manufacturing, steam boilers, and 20 others, even in or out of proximity to hazardous or unguarded belts, machinery or gearing; and in 21 occupations declared hazardous as set forth in Labor Code section 1293.1; all in violation of Labor 22 Code sections 1290, 1292, 1293, 1294.1 and 1301. In addition, Employee is informed and believes, 23 and based thereon alleges that Aggrieved Employees are covered by Labor Code section 1391, 24 Educational Code 49112 and Educational Code 49116. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 25 thereon alleges, that Defendants had and has a policy or practice of requiring Aggrieved Employees, 26 who are fifteen (15) years old or younger to work for more than eight (8) hours in one day of twenty-
27 four (24) hours, and/or more than forty (40) hours in one week, and/or before 7:00 a.m. or after 7:00
28 p.m. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and

1 have a policy or practice of, among other things, requiring its employees, who are fourteen (14) or 2 (15) years old to work, while school is in session, for more than three hours in any schoolday and/or 3 more than eighteen (18) hours in any week. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based 4 thereon alleges, that Defendants had and has a policy or practice of, among other things, requiring 5 its employees, who are sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years old, to work for more than eight (8) 6 hours in one day, and/or more than 48 hours in one week, and/or before 5 a.m., and/or after 10 p.m.
7 on any day preceding a schoolday, and/or to work more than four (4) hours on a schoolday.
8 Accordingly, for violations of Labor Code section 1391, et seq., As such, Plaintiff is informed and 9 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code 10 sections 1290, 1292, 1293, 1294.1 and 1301, 1391 and 1198. Employee also alleges that Aggrieved 11 Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 12 damages. Plaintiff further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
13 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
14 would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1290, 1292, 1293, 1294.1 15 and 1301, 1391 and 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
16 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
17 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

18 44. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 19 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 20 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 21 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

22 PARTIES

23 A. Plaintiff

24 45. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 25 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-26 exempt employee. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from 27 approximately April of 2021 through approximately October of 2023.

28 B. Defendants

46. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Ramona is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Riverside, State of California.

47. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to “Defendants,” it shall include Ramona, and any of its parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

49. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant

1 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 2 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 3 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

4 50. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 5 formation of the purported corporate existence of Ramona and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (the 6 “Alter Ego Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 51 through 100 7 (“Individual Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following reasons:

8 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 9 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws
10 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 11 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 12 inequitable purpose;

13 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 14 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 15 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

16 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 17 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 18 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 19 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

20 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 21 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 22 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 23 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 24 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 25 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 26 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

27 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 28

1 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 2 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 3 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 4 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
5 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

6 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 7 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 8 disregarded.

9 51. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 10 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

11 52. Moreover, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 12 Individual Defendants, and each of them, are liable for the civil penalties, or some of them, described 13 herein because Individual Defendants, and each of them, caused or are otherwise contributed to the 14 violations described herein, or some of them.

15 FIRST AND ONLY CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

17 53. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 18 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

19 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

20 54. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 21 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 22 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 23 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 24 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

25 55. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 26 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 27 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 28 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any

1 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 2 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 3 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

4 56. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 5 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 6 per Labor Code section 204 including, without limitation, for the reasons and in a manner set forth 7 in the preceding paragraphs. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 8 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover as civil penalties injunctive relief and monetary civil 9 penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial 10 violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 11 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent 12 violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

13 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

14 57. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
15 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 16 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 17 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
18 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 19 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 20 entity securing the employer’s services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 21 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) and/or Labor Code section 226.2 22 to the extent it does not include for piece-rate work the information required therein including,
23 without limitation, the quantity, rate and units worked per piece, as well as separately itemized non-
24 productive time and rest and recovery periods

25 58. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a)
26 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 27 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 28 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage

1 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

2 59. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 3 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

4 60. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 5 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage 6 statements as set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

7 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 8 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
9 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
10 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 11 period for each subsequent violation.

12 Violation of Labor Code § 558

13 62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person 14 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 15 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 16 penalty as follows:

17 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 18 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 19 to recover underpaid wages;

20 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 21 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 22 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

23 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

24 63. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 25 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 26 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 27 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 28 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business

1 as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance 2 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

3 64. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
4 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
5 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
6 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 7 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

8 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

9 65. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 10 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 11 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 12 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 13 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 14 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 15 or papers of the person.”

16 66. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 17 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 18 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

19 67. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 20 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 21 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 22 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
23 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 24 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 25 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 26 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 27 earned.”

28 68. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully

1 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate
2 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 3 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 4 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

5 69. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 6 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 7 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
8 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 9 under Labor Code section 1174.

10 70. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
11 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 12 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 13 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per pay period per Aggrieved Employee.

14 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

15 71. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 16 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 17 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 18 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 19 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 20 Section 203 as follows:

21 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 22 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 23 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 24 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
25 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

26 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 27 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 28 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is

1 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
2 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
3 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

4 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 5 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 6 employee.”

7 72. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 8 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 9 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all 10 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 11 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 12 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 13 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 14 entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

15 73. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
16 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 17 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of one 18 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 19 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 20 subsequent violation.

21 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

22 74. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 23 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 24 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 25 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 26 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 27 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

28 75. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described in the preceding paragraphs.

76. As such, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees are entitled to injunctive relief, one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each pay period in the PAGA Period, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each pay period in the PAGA Period to the extent Defendants' conduct is found to be malicious, fraudulent and/or oppressive.

77. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:
