MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

On March 24, 2026, this Court entered an Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”) the Parties’ Joint Stipulation of Class and PAGA Action Settlement Agreement, (the “Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”) entered into by plaintiff Leif Rodseth (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of all persons employed by defendant CHICKEN COUP, LLC, doing business as STARBIRD CHICKEN (“Defendant”) (collectively, “the Parties”) as current or former nonexempt employees within the State of California any time between May 6, 2020 through October 1, 2025 (“Class Members” or “the Class”). Under the Settlement, the wage and hour claims of 1,605 Class Members who did not opt out (“Settlement Class Members”) will be resolved for $720,550.00.

Notice of the Settlement was distributed in accordance with the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order, and the response was excellent. Zero Class Members objected to the Settlement, zero disputed the number of Qualified Workweeks, and only one opted out of the Settlement. (Declaration of Enoch J. Kim (“Kim Decl.”), ¶ 11; Declaration of Tarus Dancy (“Dancy Decl.”), ¶ 10-14.) The fact that there was a 99.94% participation rate indicates that the persons most affected by Defendant’s alleged practices and who stand to benefit most from the Settlement agree that this is an outstanding result and a strong indication that the Settlement is fair and adequate. (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.) The average Individual Settlement Payment is estimated to be approximately $223.90 per Settlement Class Member, the highest payment is estimated to be approximately $1,637.47, and the lowest payment is estimated to be approximately $5.81. (Dancy Decl., ¶ 16.) In the opinion and experience of Class Counsel, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and will convey a substantial benefit to all Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.)

The proposed Settlement satisfies the criteria for final settlement approval under California law. Consequently, Plaintiff moves this Court for an order: (1) certifying this lawsuit as a class action for settlement purposes only; (2) approving the class action Settlement embodied in the Parties’ Settlement Agreement;<sup>1</sup> (3) confirming Plaintiff as the Class Representative; (4) confirming the appointment of Natalie Haritoonian, Enoch J. Kim, and Matthew Carraher of D.Law, Inc. as Class Counsel; (5)

<sup>1</sup> To the extent any capitalized term is not defined in this motion, Plaintiff intends for the definition in the Parties’ Settlement Agreement to be used. To the extent there are any conflict between the definitions in the parties’ Settlement Agreement and this motion, the definition in the Settlement Agreement controls.

1 approving Class Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees of $240,183.33 (“Class Counsel Award”) and
2 reasonably incurred litigation costs of $25,734.70 (“Class Counsel Award”); (6) approving the service
3 award to Plaintiff (“Class Representative Service Award”); (7) approving the payment of the Settlement
4 Administrator’s invoice for costs of administration in the amount of $13,950.00 (“Settlement
5 Administration Costs”); and (8) approving the “PAGA Payment” consisting of $72,055.00, with 75%
6 or $54,041.25 allocated to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), and 7 25% or $18,013.75 allocated to the PAGA Employees and distributed on a pro rata basis (“PAGA
8 Settlement Payment”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 7.)

9           A.       PROCEDURAL HISTORY

10           1.       Plaintiff’s Claims

11           On May 6, 2024, Plaintiff Leif Rodseth filed a class action complaint alleging causes of action
12 against Defendant for (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages and All Hours Worked; (2) Failure to Pay
13 Wages and Overtime Under Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; 14 (4) Rest Break Liability Under Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226(a); (6) Violation of 15 Labor Code § 203; (7) Violation Labor Code § 227.3; (8) Violation Labor Code § 246; (9) Violation
16 Labor Code § 204; (9) Failure to Keep Required Payroll Records Under Labor Code §§1174 and 1174.5
17 (11) Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records Under Labor Code §§ 206 and 1198.5; (12)
18 Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses under Labor Code § 2802; and (13) Violation of California
19 Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq. (the “Action”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 4.)

20           Simultaneously, on May 6, 2024, and pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3, subd.(a), Plaintiff gave 21 timely notice to the LWDA and Defendant that Plaintiff intended to proceed with a representative action
22 under PAGA (LWDA-CM-1026652-24). (Id.) On August 15, 2024, after the 65-day statutory period
23 had passed, Plaintiff filed his First Amended Complaint, which added claims for penalties under PAGA,
24 Labor Code §2698. (Id.)

25           After conducting formal discovery, exchanging and reviewing informal discovery and 26 participating in mediation, the Parties reached a settlement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 5.) Pursuant to the court’s
27 requirements for Preliminary Approval of the settlement, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint
28 on April 3, 2026 (“Operative Complaint”). (Id.) On March 24, 2026, this Court entered a Preliminary

1 Approval Order. (Id.)

2 2. Plaintiff's Investigation<sup>2</sup>

3 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel investigated and researched the facts and 4 circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and the law applicable thereto. This required thorough
5 discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, as well as preliminary research into the 6 various legal issues involved in the case. (Declaration of Natalie Haritoonian filed in support of 7 Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Parties' Joint Stipulation of Class and PAGA
8 Settlement Agreement on February 6, 2026 ("Haritoonian PA Decl.,") ¶ 16.)

9 Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and claims giving rise to the 10 action, including (1) conducting formal and informal discovery and meeting and conferring with defense
11 counsel about same; (2) reviewing and analyzing records and data, as well as employment-related
12 policies; (3) reviewing Plaintiff's personnel file and other documentation; (4) interviewing Plaintiff
13 regarding potential Class Members; (5) researching the applicable law and potential defenses; (6)
14 constructing damage models based on interpretations of California law and the facts and numbers
15 provided by Defendant; and (7) reviewing information provided by Defendant in response to informal
16 discovery and in advance of the mediation. (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶ 16.)

17 B. MEDIATION

18 On May 1, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with David Phillips, Esq., 19 who is a respected and highly experienced mediator in wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶ 18.) As a 20 result of the mediation, the Parties agreed to settle the lawsuit according to the terms set forth in the 21 Settlement Agreement. (Id.) The Settlement is the product of extensive arm's-length negotiations
22 between attorneys with substantial experience litigating class actions and wage and hour cases.
23 (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶¶ 59-63; Kim Decl., ¶ 6.)

24 C. THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

25 The amount available for distribution to Class Members who do not opt out of the Settlement
26 is the Gross Settlement Amount of $720,550.00 less the following deductions: (1) a Class Counsel

27 <sup>2</sup> For a full discussion, see the Declaration of Natalie Haritoonian in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary 28 Approval of the Parties' Joint Stipulation of Class and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Haritoonian PA Decl."), previously filed herein.

1 Award of $240,183.33 to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees; (2) a Class Counsel Costs Award of 2 $25,734.70 for reimbursement of actual costs incurred (which is lower than the not to exceed amount
3 of $30,000.00 Class Counsel estimated for the Settlement Agreement); (3) up to $5,000.00 to the Class
4 Representative for an enhancement award ("Class Representative Service Award"); (4) $13,950.00 for 5 the settlement administration ("Settlement Administrator Costs"); and (5) "PAGA Payment" consisting 6 of $72,055.00, with 75% or $54,41.25 allocated to the LWDA, and 25% or $18,013.75 allocated to the 7 PAGA Employees and distributed on a pro rata basis ("PAGA Settlement Payment"). (Kim Decl., ¶ 7.)

8 D. NOTICE TO THE CLASS MEMBERS

9 Following the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, the Parties directed Apex Class Action,
10 LLC ("Apex") to send out the court-approved notice form. (See Kim Decl., ¶ 9; see also Dancy Decl., 11 ¶ 5.) The notice process occurred according to the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. Apex sent the 12 Notices to the last-known address of each Class Member. (Dancy Decl., ¶ 6.) Of the 1,606 Class
13 Members who were sent Notices, Apex received 321 returned Notices as undeliverable, and 121 Notices
14 were re-mailed, with only 200 Notices deemed undeliverable. (Dancy Decl., ¶¶ 7-10.) Here, the deadline
15 for submitting a Request for Exclusion from Settlement, disputing the number of Qualified Workweeks, 16 and objecting to the Settlement was July 13, 2026. (Dancy Decl., ¶¶ 11-13; Kim Decl. ¶ 11.) As of the 17 deadline, zero Class Members objected to the settlement, zero disputed the number of Qualified
18 Workweeks, and only one opted out of the Settlement Agreement. (Id.)

19 II. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION 20 SETTLEMENT

21 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Court should grant final approval not only because the 22 settlement is fair but also because public policy favors settlement over continued class-action litigation.
23 See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 434 ("Courts have long acknowledged the 24 importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system."); State v.
25 Levi Strauss & Co. (1986) 41 Cal. 3d 460, 471 ("[T]he consumer class action is an essential tool for the 26 protection of consumers against exploitative business practices."); Class Plaintiffs v. City Of Seattle 27 (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 ("[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where 28 complex class action litigation is concerned."); Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th ed.

2002) § 11.41.

A. CRITERIA FOR SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

California Rule of Court 3.769 requires court approval of the settlement of class action lawsuits. Preliminary approval is merely the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for settlements of class actions. See Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The second approval step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all Class Members. Id. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented and Class Members may be heard. Id.

The first two stages have been completed here. Now, at the final approval stage, the decision facing the Court is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App 4th 224, 235. Among the relevant considerations in reaching this final determination are (1) the strength of plaintiff's case balanced against the benefits of the settlement, and (2) the complexity, expected duration, and expense of further litigation. Id.; see also Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802.

In evaluating the fairness of a settlement proposal, courts must give "proper deference to the private consensual decision of the parties," because "the Court's intrusion upon what is otherwise a private consensual agreement negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties." Hanlon v. Chrysler Inc. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F. 3d 1011, 1027; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th, at 1801 ("Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.") Accordingly, the Court should take into account the informed recommendations of counsel and the Parties. See Kirkorian v. Borelli, (N.D. Cal.1988) 695 F. Supp. 446, 451 (the recommendation of experienced counsel carries significant weight in the court's determination of the reasonableness of the settlement); Vulcan So. Of Westchester County, Inc. v. Fire Department of White Plains (S.D.N.Y. 1981) 505 F.Supp.955, 967 (same). A presumption of fairness exists where (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining, (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, (3) counsel is experienced in

1 similar litigation, and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1794.

2 Applying this final approval criterion evidence substantial grounds for granting this Motion.

3 B. THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT FULFILLS ALL FINAL APPROVAL
4 CRITERIA

- 5 1. The Settlement Follows Substantial Investigation and Discovery and Is the 6 Product of Serious, Informed, Non-Collusive Negotiations in Which Parties
7 Were Represented by Experienced Counsel.

8 The Settlement is the result of extensive negotiations, conducted at arm's length, and informed
9 by substantial factual and legal investigations. (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶ 32.) Throughout this case,
10 Plaintiff and Class Members have been represented by experienced counsel. (Id. at ¶¶ 28, 59-63.)

11 Class Counsel have devoted a substantial amount of time to this case, including but not limited
12 to researching various legal issues prior to and after filing this Action; drafting and reviewing pleadings;
13 conducting informal discovery and meeting and conferring with defense counsel; preparing for class
14 certification; reviewing and analyzing the documents produced by Defendant; regularly communicating
15 with Plaintiff; preparing for and attending mediation; negotiating and finalizing the Settlement including 16 several revisions thereof; drafting documents for preliminary and final approval, including documents
17 for the administration of the settlement; briefing for the hearing on the motion for preliminary approval
18 of the class action settlement; and coordinating and overseeing the administration of the settlement.
19 (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶ 16.)

20 Among those matters considered during the course of settlement negotiations were the risks, 21 expenses, and length of further litigation, including the appeals process; the present state of the law as 22 it applies to wage and hour class actions; the present value of a settlement versus the long wait
23 occasioned by any potential judgment in favor of the Class; and the burdens of proof necessary to 24 establish liability against Defendant's defenses to the Action. These factors each indicated that the 25 interests of Class Members are best served by a settlement of this Action as set forth in the Settlement
26 Agreement. Moreover, as experienced litigators in employment class action cases, Class Counsel
27 believes that the Settlement is fair and reasonable and serves the best interests of the Class Members.
28 (Haritoonian PA Decl., at ¶¶ 59-63; Kim Decl., ¶ 12.)

2. The Settlement is Reasonable and Therefore Falls within the Range of Approval by this Court.

Significant in evaluating the foregoing $720,550.00 Settlement are the risks at trial (or an appeal), as well as the costs of continuing the litigation. Defendant contends that the Class would not be able to establish its entitlement to relief it is seeking and promised to mount a vigorous defense. (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶ 17.) On the other hand, Plaintiff believes that there is ample evidence to support the class allegations. (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶¶ 34.) Under these circumstances, and in light of the risks inherent in further litigation, it was reasonable for Plaintiff and Class Counsel to elect to settle the action. (Id.) Plaintiff appreciates that, in addition to the litigation risks of continued proceedings, the proceeding itself would be potentially complicated and expensive, and even if ultimately successful absent the settlement, Class Members might see no recovery until the lengthy appellate process is complete. (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶ 34.) In contrast, the Settlement provides immediate benefits to the Class.

From the evaluation of the benefits offered to the Class by the Settlement, as well as the expense, delay, and risk of going forward to trial, with subsequent appellate proceedings, the Settlement fairly, adequately, and reasonably achieves the goals of Plaintiff and advances the interests of the Class. In short, the settlement falls within the “the range of reasonableness” necessary for final approval. (Id. at ¶ 64.)

3. Class Members Received the Best Practicable Notice.

California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate program to provide the best notice practicable.<sup>3</sup> See Cartt v. Superior Court, 50 Cal. App. 3d 960, 973-74 (1975); In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1392 (2010); Cho v. Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal.App.4th 734, 745-746 (2009); Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 811-12 (1985).<sup>4</sup> The content and method of notice should be designed to apprise the class members of <sup>3</sup> The California Supreme Court has authorized California’s trial courts to use Federal Rule 23 and cases applying it for guidance in considering class issues. See Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal. 3d 800, 821 (1971); Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal. 3d 126, 145-46 (1981). Where appropriate, therefore, the parties cite Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

<sup>4</sup> See also Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 175-75 (1974) (individual notice must be sent to all class members who can be identified through reasonable efforts); Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Company, 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) (best practicable notice is that which is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections”).

1 the terms of the proposed settlement and of their rights to participate in, object to, or opt out of the 2 settlement. See Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314; In re Vitamin Cases, 107 Cal. App. 4th 820, 828 (2003).

3 The Notice preliminarily approved by the Court met these requirements: it explained the nature
4 of the litigation; the material terms of the Settlement; the amount of the Class Counsel Award and Class
5 Representative Service Award sought; how a Class Member could participate in, object to, or be 6 excluded from the Settlement; and to whom to direct inquiries.

7 4. Zero Class Members Have Objected to the Settlement and Only One Class
8 Member Opted Out of the Settlement.

9 A presumption of fairness exists where the percentage of objectors and opt-outs is small. 7-
10 Eleven Owners for Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal. App.4th 224, 244; Hanlon v. Chrysler
11 Corporation (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1025-1026. Here, the deadline for submitting a Request
12 for Exclusion from Settlement, disputing the number of Qualified Workweeks, and objecting to the 13 Settlement was July 13, 2026. (Dancy Decl., ¶¶ 11-13; Kim Decl. ¶ 11.) As of the deadline, zero Class
14 Members objected to the Settlement and only one opted out of the Settlement. (Id.)

15 5. The Service Award to Plaintiff Is Reasonable and Fair.

16 Class action settlements typically provide for an incentive or enhancement payment to the 17 named plaintiff for bringing and helping to prosecute the action. Courts routinely approve these 18 supplemental payments. See Newberg on Class Actions at § 12.46; Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield
19 Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294; Bogosian v. Gulf Oil Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1985) 621 F. Supp. 27
20 (award of $20,000.00 each to two class representatives in antitrust case); Bryan v. Pittsburgh Plate
21 Glass Co. (PPG Industries, Inc.) (W.D. Pa. 1973) 59 F.R.D. 616, 617, aff'd 494 F.2d 799 (3d Cir.), cert.
22 denied in Abate v. Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. (1974) 419 U.S. 900. As the Staton court noted:

23 [N]amed plaintiffs . . . are eligible for reasonable incentive payments. The district 24 court must evaluate their awards individually, using relevant factors includ[ing] the 25 actions the plaintiff has taken to protect the interests of the class, the degree to 26 which the class has benefited from those actions, . . . the amount of time and effort 27 the plaintiff expended in pursuing the litigation . . . and reasonabl[e] fear[s] of 28 workplace retaliation.

Staton v. Boeing (9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 977 (citation omitted).

The retaliation issue identified in Staton v. Boeing extends outside the immediate workplace. It

1 is common knowledge that the modern-day workforce is quite mobile, with employees holding several
2 jobs in a career during their lifetime. Few people want to confront their employers, let alone sue them.
3 (Kim Decl., ¶ 46.) By suing his former employer, Plaintiff contends that he increased the risk of 4 retaliation by prospective employers to which he may apply in the future. (Id. See also Declaration of 5 Leif Rodseth in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval (“Rodseth Decl.”) ¶ 12.)

6 But Plaintiff did not allow his fear of the potential repercussions of being a Class Representative
7 deter him from acting for the benefit of Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 47.) He devoted a substantial
8 amount of time to helping Class Counsel effectively develop and prosecute this Action at every stage
9 of the litigation. (Id.; see also Declaration of Leif Rodseth filed in support of Motion for Preliminary 10 Approval of the Parties’ Joint Stipulation of Class and PAGA Settlement Agreement on February 2, 11 2026 (“Rodseth PA Decl.”) ¶ 9.) Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel on numerous occasions to 12 discuss every aspect of this case; provided information about Defendant and their wage-and-hour 13 practices; reviewed documents; produced documents; monitored the progress of the litigation; took the 14 time to apprise himself of the facts, issues, and law regarding the claims at issue, spent time with Class
15 Counsel discussing the terms of the Settlement and reviewing and executing the Settlement Agreement
16 and the amendments thereto. (Kim Decl., ¶ 47.) In the end, Plaintiff decided to vindicate not only his 17 own rights but also those of his co-workers. (Kim Decl., ¶ 45.)

18 Plaintiff has diligently, adequately, and fairly represented Class Members and has not placed his 19 interests above any member of the putative class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 48.) Class Counsel believes that Plaintiff
20 is entitled to a Class Representative Service Award for the time and effort he devoted to this case. (Id.)
21 For purposes of Settlement, Defendant has agreed not to oppose it. (Id.) Such payments to class
22 representatives are a common feature of settlements negotiated by Class Counsel, and trial courts
23 routinely approve them. (Id.)

24 Not only have Plaintiff’s efforts been instrumental in generating a substantial benefit for Class
25 Members, but—significantly—not a single Class Member has objected to the requested service award.
26 (Dancy Decl., ¶ 12.) Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests the Class Representative Service Award
27 sought in the amount of $5,000.00 for his efforts and initiative in bringing and helping prosecute this 28 Action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 48; Rodseth Decl. ¶¶ 1-14.)

6. The Payment of Attorneys' Fees Is Reasonable and Therefore Falls within the Range of Approval by the Court.

(i) The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees Is Justified Based on the Percentage-of-the-Benefit Method.

The California Supreme Court recently held that “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created.” Laffitte v. Robert Half Intern. Inc. (Aug. 11, 2016) 205 Cal.Rptr.3d 555, 573. Indeed, courts may use the “percentage method for its primary calculation of the fee award. The choice of a fee calculation method is generally one within the discretion of the trial court, the goal under either the percentage or lodestar approach being the award of a reasonable fee to compensate counsel for their efforts.” Id.

The requested Class Counsel Award for attorneys' fees in this case consists of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount. This percentage is well below Plaintiff's contingency fee agreement.<sup>5</sup> The requested attorneys' fees are fair and reasonable under California's fee-shifting jurisprudence.<sup>6</sup> And it is consistent with the percentage of the common fund awarded to counsel in cases similar in character and geographical location to this one. (See Kim Decl., ¶ 39-43.)

An award of attorneys' fees equivalent to one-third of the common fund is also below fees awarded in other wage and hour class action settlements. See Crandall v. U-Haul (Los Angeles County Sup.Ct., Case No. BC178775), the Honorable Steven Czuleger awarded a 40% attorney fee request in an overtime-exemption class action; in Bushnell v. Cremer, Inc. (Orange County Sup.Ct., Case No. 657778), the Honorable Donald E. Smallwood awarded attorneys' fees in the amount of 38%; in Abzug v. Kerkorian CA000981 (Los Angeles County Sup.Ct., November 1990), the Honorable R. William Schoettler awarded a 45% fee; in Haitz v. Meyer, et al., Alameda County Sup. Court, 8-20-1990 No.

<sup>5</sup> The award of attorneys' fees and costs in this case is intended to reimburse Class Counsel for all of the uncompensated work that they have already performed and for all of the work they will continue to perform in carrying out and overseeing the administration of the Settlement. Plaintiff in this action signed a contingency-fee agreement stating that Class Counsel could receive a fee under certain scenarios that exceed one-third of the recovery, as much as 40%. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 39-43.)

<sup>6</sup> Moreover, the Labor Code specifically provides for an award of attorneys' fees and costs for some of employees' claims. See, e.g., Lab. Code § 226. Plaintiff is also entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

1 572968-3, the court awarded a 40% fee; in Elliott v. Clothestime (Orange County Sup. Ct., Case No.
2 01-CC00333) the Honorable Jonathan Cannon awarded a 40% fee in a wage-and-hour class action
3 which had not yet proceeded to the class certification stage; in both Rippee v. Boston Market
4 Corporation, Case No.: 05 CV 1359 BTM (JMA) and Barile v. Boston Market Corporation, Case No.:
5 05 CV 1360 BTM (JMA), the Honorable Judge Barry T. Moskowitz awarded a 40% fee to plaintiff's
6 counsel in wage-and-hour class actions that had not proceeded to the class-certification stage. (Kim
7 Decl., ¶ 42.)

8 The amount requested here will fairly compensate Class Counsel for their successful 9 prosecution of this case, taking into account the quality, nature, and extent of counsel's efforts, the 10 outstanding results achieved, the fact that no one objected to the fee amount and the fact that the amount
11 of fees for which approval is sought is significantly less than legal precedent. Class Counsel has litigated
12 numerous class actions and submits that this settlement was possible owing to Class Counsel's 13 experience with such cases. (Haritounian PA Decl., ¶¶ 59-63.) Class Counsel's diligent, efficient, and 14 creative pursuit of this matter positioned Plaintiff to settle this action successfully, affording redress to 15 the entire Class and avoiding the inevitable expense and risk attendant to protracted litigation. In sum,
16 it was through the efforts of Plaintiff and Class Counsel that the considerable benefits of the Settlement 17 were obtained.

18 In light of the foregoing, the fee request in an amount equal to one-third of the Gross Settlement
19 Amount, as agreed upon in the Settlement, is well within the bounds that have been established by the 20 above-cited authority.

21 (ii) The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees Is Also Justified Based on the 22 Lodestar Method.

23 Although Laffitte makes it clear that a lodestar cross-check is not necessary, Class Counsel's
24 lodestar calculation nevertheless also supports the requested attorneys' fees. The lodestar calculation
25 typically proceeds in three steps. First, a trial court must determine a baseline guide or "lodestar" figure 26 based on the time spent and reasonable hourly compensation for each attorney involved in the case.
27 Serrano v. Priest (1975) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48. The court then sets a reasonable hourly fee to apply to the 28 time expended, with reference to the prevailing rates in the geographical area in which the action is

1 pending. Bihun v. AT&T Information System (1993) 13 Cal.App.4th 976, 997. Finally, a “multiplier” is 2 selected with reference to the following factors: (1) the novelty and difficulty of issues involved, (2) the 3 skill displayed in presenting them, (3) the extent to which the nature of the litigation precluded other
4 employment by the attorneys, and (4) the contingent nature of the fee award owing to the uncertainty
5 of prevailing on the merits and of establishing eligibility for the award. Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.App.3d 6 at 49.

7 Class Counsel charges rates commensurate with the prevailing market rates in the Los Angeles
8 and San Francisco areas for attorneys of comparable experience and skill handling complex litigation.
9 (Kim Decl., ¶ 16.) Class Counsel’s hourly rates are also commensurate with the prevailing market rates
10 in these counties when applying locality adjustments to the Laffey Matrix. (Id. at ¶¶ 17-23.; Exh. 2 (the 11 “Laffey Matrix”). The Laffey Matrix rates have been held to be reasonable market rates when locally
12 adjusted for inflation. Syers Properties III, Inc. v. Rankin (2014) 226 Cal.App.4th 691. For this reason, 13 the Court should approve the rates of Class Counsel as reasonable in conjunction with awarding the 14 requested fees and any lodestar calculations it makes when evaluating the request.

15 Moreover, the Serrano factors all militate in favor of the requested fee award. (Kim Decl., ¶ 33.)
16 This case raised a number of complex and contested issues, and Class Counsel exhibited skill and 17 creativity in prosecuting and presenting them. (Id.) This case was not straightforward. (Kim Decl., ¶
18 34.) Class Counsel had to spend time researching and analyzing each of these claims and issues in order
19 to adequately assess the liability of Defendant. (Id.) Class Counsel then had to develop the evidence
20 necessary through informal discovery to establish Defendant’s potential liability. (Id.) This was done
21 through carefully sifting through hundreds of pages of documents. (Id.)

22 In sum, Class Counsel had to come up with creative approaches to these issues in litigating the 23 case and, ultimately, negotiating and crafting the Settlement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 35.) To this end, Class
24 Counsel has devoted a tremendous amount of time and energy. (Id.) This time commitment was 25 necessary in order to research, construct, and prosecute viable legal claims in the face of stiff opposition,
26 but it has come at a cost. (Id.) Class Counsel zealously represented Plaintiff and the Class and has 27 obtained a favorable result. (Id.)

28 Such is not always the case. Indeed, Class Counsel has invested time and money into numerous

1 other cases, including class actions, which have fizzled out for one reason or another, leaving Class
2 Counsel completely without any compensation for their effort. (Kim Decl., ¶ 36.) Here, Class Counsel
3 has achieved a beneficial settlement for the Class, but this was by no means a foregone conclusion;
4 indeed, their efforts might well have been frustrated by any number of obstacles with which they were 5 presented along the way. (Id.) Nor could class certification be guaranteed. (Id.) However, Class Counsel
6 was able to navigate the shoals of unpredictability to achieve a desirable result and have done so without 7 receiving any compensation to speak of thus far because they took this case on a contingency-fee-basis.
8 (Id.)

9 From the foregoing analysis, Class Counsel's requested attorneys' fees are fair and reasonable.
10 Class Counsel conservatively estimates that it invested over 183.6 hours of attorney time in this matter.
11 (Kim Decl., ¶ 14.) Senior Attorney Enoch Kim invested at least 5.7 hours for a total of $7,695.00 in 12 attorneys' fees ($1,350/hr x 5.7 hours = $7,695.00). Senior Attorney David Yeremian invested
13 approximately 13.00 hours for a total of $20,176.00 ($1,552/hr x 13.00 hours = $20,176.00). Senior 14 Attorney Natalie Haritonian invested approximately 61.1 hours for a total of $60,611.20 ($992/hr x 15 61.1 hours = $60,611.20). Associate Attorney Matthew Carraher invested approximately 91.9 hours for 16 a total of $57,437.50 in attorneys' fees ($625/hr x 91.9 hours = $57,437.50) Associate Attorney
17 Samantha Smith invested approximately 8.00 hours for a total of $11,776.00 in attorneys' fees
18 ($1,472/hr x 8.00 hours = $11,776.00). Associate Attorney Andrea Amaya invested approximately 2.00
19 hours for a total of $1,250.00 in attorneys' fees ($625/hr x 2.00 hours = $1,250.00). Associate Attorney
20 Mason Doidge invested approximately 1.9 hours for a total of $1,159.00 in attorneys' fees ($610/hr x 21 1.9 hours = $1,159.00). Therefore, Class Counsel has collectively incurred at least 183.6 hours and 22 $160,104.70 in fees, resulting in the use of a nominal multiplier of 1.5 to reach the requested fee award
23 of 240,183.33. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 31-32.)

24 (iii) The Requested Costs Award Is Reasonable

25 The preliminarily approved settlement provided for the reimbursement of up to $30,000.00 for 26 Class Counsel's costs. (Kim Decl., ¶ 44.) As of the date of the filing of this Motion, the actual total costs
27 incurred in litigating this Action for Class Counsel are $25,734.70. (Id.) Class Counsel incurred costs
28 including, but not limited to, filing fees (e.g. complaint, stipulation, motions), service of process,

1 mediation fees, and attorney-service costs for court filings, all of which were necessarily and reasonably
2 incurred to prosecute this Action and achieve a settlement that significantly benefits the Class. (Id.)
3 Thus, Class Counsel requests a reimbursement of their incurred costs in the amount of $25,734.70. (Id.)

4 III. CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS 5 APPROPRIATE

6 The Class is defined in the Settlement Agreement as: “all current and former non-exempt
7 employees who worked for Defendant Chicken Coup, LLC doing business as Starbird Chicken,
8 (“Defendant”) in the state of California during the Class Period, which is May 6, 2020 through October
9 1, 2025.” (Settlement Agreement ¶ 1.5.)

10 A. THE LEGAL STANDARD

11 Section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure provides that “when the question is one of a 12 common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable
13 to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all. Code Civ. Proc.
14 § 382. Class certification under § 382 is appropriate when “(1) [t]here [is] . . . an ascertainable class;
15 and (2) there [is] . . . a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved
16 affecting the parties to be represented.” Daar v. Yellow Cab Co.(1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 (citations
17 omitted). The community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant
18 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3)
19 class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981)
20 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.

21 Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of class
22 certification, subject to later modification if necessary. Id. at 473-475. The decision to certify a class is 23 a purely procedural one and should be based on the allegations in the operative complaint and not in the 24 perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 439-25 441.

26 B. ALL OF THE CRITERIA FOR CERTIFICATION OF THE SETTLEMENT
27
28

1                   CLASS ARE SATISFIED.

2                   1.   The Class Is Ascertainable.

3                   The class is readily ascertainable because all Class Members worked for Defendant within the 4 relevant class period and have already been identified through Defendant’s employee and payroll files.
5 (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶ 25) See Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 932 (finding 6 that “[c]lass members are ‘ascertainable’ where they may be readily identified without unreasonable
7 expense or time by reference to official records.”).

8                   2.   The Numerosity Requirement Is Satisfied.

9                   The numerosity requirement is fulfilled simply when the individual joinder of all class 10 members would be impracticable. A proposed class numbering “as few as 40 class members should 11 raise a presumption that joinder is impracticable,” thus satisfying the numerosity requirement. Newberg
12 on Class Actions § 3.5. Here, there are 1,605 Settlement Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 11.) Therefore, 13 joinder would be impracticable, and a class-wide proceeding is clearly preferable and appropriate.

14                  3.   Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate over Any Individual Issues.

15                  The court should grant class certification when questions of law and fact common to all Class
16 Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members. Hicks v. Kaufman
17 & Broad Home Corp. (2001) 89 Cal.App.4th 908, 916 (“As a general rule, if the defendant’s liability
18 can be determined by facts common to all members of the class, a class will be certified even if the 19 members must individually prove their damages. In order to determine whether common questions of 20 fact predominate, the trial court must examine the issues framed by the pleadings and the law applicable 21 to the causes of action alleged.”).

22                  The commonality and predominance requirements are “easily met,” because “[when] the 23 defendant has engaged in some course of conduct that affects a group of persons and gives rise to a 24 cause of action, one or more of the elements of that cause of action will be common to all of the persons
25 affected.” Gen’l Tel. Co. of Southwest v. Falcon (1982) 457 U.S. 147, 155. Further, the fact that 26 “calculation of individual damages may at some point be required does not foreclose the possibility of 27 taking common evidence on [liability issues].” Sav-on Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34
28 Cal.4th 319, 332 (holding that the legal question of whether the plaintiff-employees were nonexempt

1 and therefore entitled to overtime was a common question that predominated over the individual
2 questions of each employee's duties performed and hours worked); Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE
3 Corp.(1987) 191 Cal. App.3d 605, 617 (“[T]he necessity for class members to prove their own damages
4 does not mean individual fact questions predominate”).

5 The scope of this case is narrowly focused on a specific class of persons employed by Defendant
6 during a specific period of time. The common questions of law and fact in this case all stem from the 7 claims that Class Members were not paid for all hours and did not receive meal and rest periods. Plaintiff
8 and Class Members were subject to the same policies and practices and all sought the same remedies.
9 These common issues predominate over individual issues because identical evidence establishes 10 liability as to all Class Members. (Haritounian PA Decl., ¶ 26-27.) Under such circumstances, the 11 commonality and predominance requirements are satisfied. Stephens v. Montgomery Ward & Co., Inc.
12 (1987) 193 Cal. App. 3d 411, 421.

13 4. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical.

14 A class representative's claims are typical of a class when they arise from the same event, 15 practice, or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their 16 claims rest on the same legal theories. Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom
17 Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (“[I]t has never been the law in 18 California that the class representative must have identical interests with the class members.”). Here,
19 Plaintiff's claims are typical of Class Members' claims because they arise from the same factual basis
20 and are based on the same legal theories. (Haritounian PA Decl., ¶ 27.) Accordingly, the typicality 21 requirement is satisfied.

22 5. Plaintiff and Class Counsel Adequately Represent the Class.

23 The adequacy requirement is met by fulfilling two conditions: (1) the class representative must 24 be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation, and (2) the class representative's
25 interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. McGhee v. Crocker-Citizens Nat. Bank (1976) 60
26 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.

27 Both conditions are met here. First, Plaintiff and the Class are represented by experienced and 28 competent counsel. Class Counsel is qualified and has served as class counsel in numerous class actions.

(Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶¶ 59-63.) Thus, Class Counsel is “qualified, experienced, and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875. Second, Plaintiff has no conflict with the Class, and his interests are aligned with those of the Class. As a result of their effort, Class Members will benefit from the Settlement. Accordingly, the adequacy requirement is satisfied. (Haritoonian PA Decl., ¶ 28.)

6. Class Treatment Is Superior to the Alternatives.

Courts have long recognized that the class-action device often provides the sole procedural mechanism by which many individuals harmed by corporate wrongdoing can band together to achieve justice. Absent class treatment, similarly situated persons with relatively small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort, and expense required to prosecute individual actions. See Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1023. The United States Supreme Court has stated that “the policy at the very core of the class action mechanism is to overcome the problem that small recoveries do not provide the incentive for any individual to bring a solo action prosecuting his or her rights. The class action solves this problem by aggregating the relatively paltry potential recoveries into something worth someone’s (usually an attorney’s) labor.” Amchem Prods. v. Windsor (1997) 521 U.S. 591, 617 (citation and quotation omitted).

Other relevant considerations regarding superiority include the improbability that each class member will come forward to prove his or her separate claim and whether the class approach would serve to deter or redress the alleged wrongdoing. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435. In employment cases, concerns such as fear of the employer, lack of representation, size of claim, and the employee’s perception about the difficulty of litigation, increase the likelihood that an employer will not be held accountable. Acknowledging these concerns, courts have noted that “[t]he risk entailed in suing one’s employer are such that the few hardy souls who come forward should be permitted to speak for others when the vocal ones are otherwise fully qualified.” St. Marie v. Eastern RR Ass’n (S.D.N.Y. 1976) 72 F.R.D. 443, 449 (overruled as to damages and liability but not as to class certification). Here, the class approach serves to deter and redress the alleged wrongdoing by ensuring that all claims of Class Members are addressed.

Further, where, as here, the individual claims are relatively small and the socio-economic status and sophistication of the class members contrasts with that of the defendant, a class action is particularly appropriate because the size of the individual claims “would prove uneconomic for potential plaintiffs” to pursue individually, as “litigation costs would dwarf potential recovery.” Hanlon, supra, 150 F. 3d at 1023. These issues, from a practical standpoint, generally lead to the unbalanced situation where the employer is represented by counsel, but the employee who seeks redress is not. Each of the above reasons compels the conclusion that a class action is the preferred method of resolution for this case. (Haritounian PA Decl., ¶¶ 29-30.)
