1 and tools without reimbursement from Defendant. Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative claims for waiting 2 time penalties, wage statement violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA.

3 5. Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff 4 filed a class action on May 10, 2024, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum 5 wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize 6 and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final 7 wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair 8 business practices.

9 6. Pursuant to PAGA, on May 5, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California Labor and 10 Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with certified mail 11 service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. Solely for purposes of settlement, on January 2, 2026, 12 Plaintiff submitted an amended PAGA notice to allege Labor Code violations against Defendant and the 13 staffing agencies. True and correct copies of Plaintiff’s PAGA notices are attached hereto as Exhibit 2. On 14 July 9, 2024, Plaintiff timely filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint to add a 15 ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the “Operative Complaint”). In compliance with Labor 16 Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the 17 Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned case number. To date, the LWDA has not indicated 18 its intent to investigate the alleged violations or intervene in this Action.

19 7. Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
20 Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including compensating Class Members 21 for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore, Plaintiff and other Class Members were 22 paid all wages owed. Defendant argues it did not fail to incorporate any non-discretionary bonuses, shift 23 differentials, or commissions into the regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime or sick pay, and 24 that all bonuses were discretionary. Defendant maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period 25 obligations. Defendant asserts it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other 26 employees were compensated for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. To the extent 27 employees received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered 28

1 no actual damage or harm as a result. (See, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No.
2 C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an 3 employer’s failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information 4 alone is not sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its 5 good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff 6 cannot prove Defendant’s alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (See,
7 e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL
8 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, 9 and further claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA.
10 Defendant also maintains the claims are improper for class treatment, in part, due to the individualized and 11 testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims that could bar class certification or significantly reduce 12 Defendant’s overall liability.

13 DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

14 8. The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Steven Rottman, Esq., an experienced class and 15 PAGA action mediator. In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for an informal 16 production of documents and information before mediation. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained from 17 Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were necessary and helpful to evaluate the 18 claims asserted in this action. Defendant produced a statistically sound sample of time and pay records for 19 the putative Class (28% based on total number of estimated pay periods from 2020 to 2025), Plaintiff’s 20 personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant’s written employment policies in effect during the 21 Class Period. Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated number of current and formerly 22 employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay Periods.

23 9. In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff’s Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 24 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant’s wage-and-hour 25 policies. Plaintiff’s Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records and prepare a damage 26 analysis prior to the mediation. The sample time and pay records analyzed contained 64,956 actual shifts 27 worked (representing roughly 28% of total shifts worked in the Class Period), which allowed Plaintiff’s 28

1 expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty. In conjunction with their extensive factual
2 investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses
3 asserted in the litigation. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class 4 certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims.
5 Thus, Plaintiff's and his Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the 6 pleadings allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

7 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND NOTICE TO THE LWDA

8 10. On July 29, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Steven Rottman, 9 Esq. The negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 10 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, 11 but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been 12 reached. After a full discussion regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's 13 defenses and with the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which 14 are set out in the Settlement.

15 11. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 16 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's preliminary approval 17 motion and the hearing date. A true and correct copy of the LWDA's email confirming receipt thereof is 18 attached hereto as Exhibit 3. To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement.

19 KEY TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

20 12. GSA and Funding: The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $1,545,000, subject to potential 21 increase under an Escalator Clause, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.0.) Defendant will separately 22 pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Defendant 23 will fully fund the GSA by transmitting the funds into a Qualified Settlement Fund established and 24 maintained by the Administrator within 30 days of entry of the Court's Final Approval Order. (Id. at ¶ 4.0.)

25 13. Escalator Clause: The Settlement provides an escalator clause under which should the number 26 of Class Period Workweeks exceed the estimated count of 50,000 by more than 12%, then Defendant has 27 the option to (a) increase the GSA on a pro rata basis for each additional Workweek above the escalator or 28

(b) shorten the end date of the Class and PAGA Periods such that the total Workweeks does not exceed the 60,000. (Id. at ¶ 8.0.)

14. Class Representative Enhancement Award: The Settlement includes a payment up to $7,500.00 payable from the GSA, subject to the Court's approval, to Plaintiff as the Class Representative, in addition to the amount he is eligible to receive as a Class Member. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.13, 3.1.1.) This award is for initiating and providing services in support of the Action and in recognition for the risks attendant to the role as the named Plaintiff and Class Representative. (Id. at ¶ 1.13.) In the event the award finally approved is less, the difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.1.)

15. Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs Payments: The Settlement permits a fee application of not more than one-third of the GSA (currently estimated to be $515,000.00) for reasonable attorneys' fees, plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs not to exceed $25,000.00, payable to Class Counsel from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.2.) In the event the amounts finally approved are less, the difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id.)

16. Administration Costs Payment: The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses Payment to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount not to exceed $8,250.00, except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.) In the event the amount of actual administration costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) A true and correct copy of Phoenix Bid is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

17. PAGA Penalties; Individual PAGA Payments: The Settlement allocates $245,000.00 from the GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed 75% ($183,750.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($61,250.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff's claims.¹ (Id. at ¶¶ 1.34, 4.1.4.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 25% share of the PAGA Penalties directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.4.1.) This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $278.41 for each of the estimated 220 Aggrieved

¹ On July 1, 2024, new legislation was enacted to amend PAGA in several respects, including as to the recovery split for civil penalties. (Stats. 2024, ch. 44 (Assem. Bill No. 2288), § 1, eff. Jul. 1, 2024.) As amended, PAGA now provides for a 65%-LWDA/45%-aggrieved employee split. (Lab. Code § 2699(m).) However, PAGA reform only applies to PAGA actions initiated on or after June 19, 2024. (Id. at § 2699(v)(1).)

Employees ($61,250.00 / 220), and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $2.45 for each of the 25,000 estimated Pay Periods in the PAGA Period ($61,250 / 25,000).

18. Net Settlement Amount: After deducting the Class Representative Enhancement Award, the Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs Payments, the PAGA Penalties allocation, and the Administration Expenses Payment from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.1.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than $744,250.00 for an estimated Class of 283 individuals.²

19. Class Members/Period: The Settlement Class is defined as all current and former non-exempt, hourly-paid employees who were employed by Defendant, either directly or through a staffing agency (including but not limited to Bravo Staff Co., LF Staffing Services, Inc., Southland Employment Services, Inc., and Woxforce Inc.), and worked for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) For purposes of Settlement, the "Class Period" is May 10, 2020, through July 29, 2025, or an earlier date pursuant to the Settlement's escalator clause. (Settlement, ¶ 1.12.)

20. Individual Class Payments: Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.1) The estimated $744,250.00 Net Settlement Amount results in an average Individual Class Payment of roughly $2,629.85 for each of the estimated 283 Class Members ($744,250.00 / 283),³ and a Class Workweek value of roughly $14.88 for each of the 50,000 estimated Workweeks in the Class Period ($744,250.00 / 50,000).

² The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $1,545,000 GSA: $7,500.00 for the Class Representative Enhancement Award, up to $8,250.00 for the Administration Expenses Payment, $245,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, $515,000.00 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $25,000.00 for the Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment. (Settlement, ¶¶ 3.0–3.1)

³ At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees is unknown and will be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class Data. (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval.

1 21. Tax Allocations: Individual Class Payments will be allocated as 20% as wages and 80% as 2 penalties and interest for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.4.1.) Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated as 3 100% penalties for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.3.2)

4 22. Disbursement and Uncashed Funds: Disbursement will occur within 14 days of completed 5 funding. (Id. at ¶ 4.1.) Class Members will not need to submit any claim form as a condition of receiving 6 individual settlement payments. (Id. at ¶ 3.0.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance 7 will be transmitted to the California State Controller’s Unclaimed Property office in the name of each 8 individual who failed to timely cash his or her check. (Id. at ¶ 4.1.3)

9 23. Released Class Claims by Participating Class Members: The “Released Class Claims” is limited 10 to claims that were alleged in Plaintiff’s operative complaint, or that reasonably could have been alleged 11 based on the facts and/or claims asserted therein. (Id. at ¶ 5.1.) The release excludes any claims for vested 12 benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits or workers’ compensation 13 benefits that arose at any time, any claims that are not releasable as a matter of law or public policy, and any 14 claims arising outside the Class Period. (Id.)

15 24. Released PAGA Claims by PAGA Members and LWDA: The “Released PAGA Claims” is 16 limited to claims for civil penalties under PAGA that were alleged in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice and 17 operative complaint. (Id. at ¶ 5.2.) The release excludes any claims outside of the PAGA Period. (Id.)

18 25. Plaintiff’s Section 1542 Release: Under the Settlement, Plaintiff has agreed to a general release 19 of any and all claims against the Released Parties, including a release of rights pursuant to California Civil 20 Code section 1542. (Id. at ¶ 5.0.)

21 26. Effective date of claims releases: The release of all claims will be effective only upon entry of 22 the Court’s final approval order and Defendant’s funding of the GSA and employer-share of payroll taxes.
23 (Id. ¶ at 5.)

24 27. Released Parties: means the Defendant and each of its former and present directors, officers, 25 shareholders, owners, members, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, subsidiaries, and 26 affiliates, including any staffing agency (including but not limited to Bravo Staff Co., LF Staffing 27 Services, Inc., Southland Employment Services, Inc., and Woxforce Inc.) that supplied workers to 28

1 perform work, either directly or indirectly, for Defendant Wei-Chuan USA, Inc. during the Class Period
2 and/or PAGA Period, and each staffing agency's former and present directors, officers, shareholders, 3 owners, members, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, subsidiaries, and affiliates. (Id.
4 at ¶ 1.39.)

5 28. Class Notice; Disputes, Requests for Exclusion, Objections: The Class Notice will be mailed 6 via first-class U.S. mail to the current address of each Class Member in English and Spanish. (Id. at ¶ 7.5.) 7 The proposed Class Notice sets forth, in plain terms, a statement of case, the terms of the Settlement, the 8 approximate amounts of attorneys' fees, costs, PAGA Penalties, and service award being sought, an 9 explanation of how the individual payments are calculated, the Final Approval Hearing information, the 10 procedure for disputing the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to each Class Member, 11 and how Class Members may, should they choose, opt-out or otherwise object to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 12 7.14–7.14.3, Ex. A.)

13 29. No Related Actions: To the best of my knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving 14 similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has 15 Defendant pointed to any.

16 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

17 30. Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. As 18 previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arms'-length negotiations, private mediation, 19 and the assistance of a statistics expert. Based on Defendant's informal class-wide discovery production, on 20 Plaintiff's Counsel independent investigation and evaluation, and on their extensive experience in wage-21 and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, 22 and adequate. Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial 23 risk, appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 24 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA.

25 31. Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 26 Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on information 27 from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted exposure that 28

Defendant faced. Based on a review of Defendant’s records, it is estimated that as of July 29, 2025, there are approximately 283 Class Members who collectively worked 50,000 Workweeks during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 8.0.) Additionally, there are an estimated 220 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked 25,000 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period and an estimated 89 former employees falling within the three-year statute of limitations (“SOL”) period for waiting time penalties. Class Members’ average hourly rate and average regular hourly rate were estimated to be $18.92 and $21.25, respectively.

Accordingly, we calculated Defendant’s potential exposure as follows:

Claim	Relevant Time Period	Rate	Number of Violations	Realistic Recovery
Unpaid Wages (Off the Clock)	50,000 Workweeks	$18.92 average hourly rate	19,120 net unpaid hours (assuming 5 minutes per shift) (91.9% overtime)	$131,993.68
Unpaid Wages (Regular Rate)	50,000 Workweeks	$21.25 average regular rate	Based on Expert Analysis of Records	$118,664.00*
Meal Period Violations	50,000 Workweeks	$18.92 average hourly rate	70,184 unique meal break violations	$663,940.64*
Rest Period Violations	50,000 Workweeks	$18.92 average hourly rate	227,941 rest break violations (assuming 100% break violations for break-eligible shifts)	$1,220,054.20
Unreimbursed Business Expenses Violations	50,000 Workweeks	$20 / Month	Based on Expert Analysis of Records	$62,500.00
Labor Code § 203	Based on approx. 89 terminated employees within the 3-year SOL	$18.92 average hourly rate / 30-day max.	Assumes 8.4 hours / day	$43,717.00
Labor Code § 226	Based on approx. 220 employees within the 1-year SOL	$50 per initial pay period / $100 per subsequent pay	Based on 220 employees within the 1-year SOL	$88,000.00

		periods / $4,000 employee max.
PAGA	Based on 25,000 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$100 per pay period	Based on 25,000 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$250,000.00
Total				$2,578,869.52
* These figures are discounted based on a 50% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 25% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 10% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.⁴

32. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is based on allegations that Defendant failed to pay all minimum and overtime wages due to off-the-clock work performed related to donning personal protective equipment ("PPE") and undergoing temperature checks prior to clocking-in for shifts and for doffing PPE after clocking-out from shifts. Therefore, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Class Members spent an average 5 minutes off the clock per shift. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel and data expert estimated Defendant failed to pay Class Members for approximately 19,120 hours, 91.9% of which should have been paid at the overtime rate. From this, and in light of the average rates of the Class Members, Defendant's estimated maximum potential liability is $527,974.71. Defendant contends that all time worked was compensated, that the temperature checks have ceased since the filing of this action and such time spent undergoing the temperature checks was de minimis, that Class Members were required to don/doff PPE while on the clock, that Class Members were not permitted to work off-the-clock, and that this claim is highly individualized and not susceptible to class-wide treatment. I acknowledge that "off-the-clock" claims are difficult to be tried on a class wide basis because there is no apparatus that can be used to prove this claim—there are no records to be used as evidence. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of

⁴ It is reasonable to apply discounts to account for risks at certification and trial, in part, because the Judicial Council of California found that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion. (See Findings of the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf>.) Further, the likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its overall exposure.

1 settlement, I discounted the maximum potential liability by 75%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for 2 the unpaid wages claim due to off-the-clock work is therefore $131,993.68.

3 33. As discussed above, Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is also due to allegations that Defendant
4 failed to incorporate all remuneration, including bonuses, commissions, and shift differentials, into Class 5 Members' regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime and sick pay. Specifically, Plaintiff's expert 6 reviewed the sample records Defendant produced and found 492 identifiable additional remunerations that 7 were made yet not factored into the regular rate of pay, impacting 28.9% of Class Members for sick pay and 8 33.7% of Class Members for overtime pay and resulting in a maximum exposure of $237,328.00. However, 9 Defendant argues all bonuses were discretionary and based on high levels of job performance, and therefore 10 Defendant was not required to incorporate those payments into the regular rate. I acknowledge the foregoing 11 presents significant risk with certifying this claim and proof on the merits. Therefore, I applied a 50% 12 discount to the maximum exposure figure; accordingly, I arrived at a realistic damage estimate of 13 $118,664.00 for the regular rate claim.

14 34. Plaintiff's meal period claim is based on allegations that Defendant did not provide or maintain 15 sufficient meal period practices, such that Class Members were not always permitted or able to take meal 16 periods and/or were sometimes subjected to late, short and/or interrupted meal periods without compensation 17 in lieu thereof. The sample of time and corresponding payroll records for the putative Class indicated that 18 Defendant either failed to provide a meal period or provided a short and/or untimely meal period 19,869
19 times throughout the Class Period (70,184 when extrapolated to all Class Members), resulting in a 31.4% 20 violation rate. Plaintiff's Counsel and its data expert then calculated that, in light of these violations and the 21 average hourly rate of the putative Class, that Defendant had a potential liability of $1,327,881.27 (70,184 22 unique violations x $18.92 avg. hourly rate). Defendant nonetheless contends that many meal breaks were 23 taken and, where a violation appears, it was a result of the Class Member voluntarily choosing to forego a 24 meal period, to take it after the end of the fifth hour, or to stop his or her break early to return to work.
25 Moreover, certification and proof of this claim would require declarations from Class Members and obtaining 26 such declarations potentially would reveal that each Class Member had a different experience with respect 27 to meal periods. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it 28

1 reasonable to apply a 50% discount to the potential liability. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the 2 meal period claim is therefore $663,940.64.

3 35. The rest break claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not provide or maintain 4 sufficient rest break practices, such that Class Members were regularly required to work in excess of four 5 consecutive hours a day, or a major fraction thereof, without authorization or permission to take a ten-minute, 6 continuous and uninterrupted rest period or without compensation in lieu thereof. The precise number of rest 7 break violations could not be calculated since Defendant neither documented, nor is required to document, 8 when Class Members took their required rest breaks. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's 9 Counsel assumed a 100% violation rate for shifts greater than or equal to 3.5 hours in length and, based on 10 the average hourly rate of the putative Class, calculated Defendant's potential liability to be $4,880,216.81
11 (227,941 unique rest break violations x $18.92 per hour). Defendant nonetheless contends rest periods do 12 not have to be recorded, that Class Members voluntarily chose to forego some rest breaks and, significant 13 for purposes of class certification, that this claim is individualized in nature and therefore would require 14 declarations indicating the majority of Class Members experienced issues as to rest breaks. In light of these 15 defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 75%. Plaintiff's 16 realistic recovery estimate for the rest break claim is therefore $1,220,054.20.

17 36. The unreimbursed business expenses claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not 18 reimburse Class Members for all expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of duties, 19 including gloves, nonslip shoes, and tools. The precise value of all necessary business expenses Class 20 Members incurred could not be calculated. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel 21 estimated Defendant owed approximately $20.00 per month in the statutory period and that Defendant's 22 potential liability is $250,000.00. Defendant contends it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and 23 further, that the reimbursement claim would be difficult to certify, given the individualistic nature of this 24 claim. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability 25 by 75%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the unreimbursed expenses claim is therefore 26 $62,500.00.

1 37. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory and civil penalties, Plaintiff estimates 2 Defendant's maximum potential recovery, prior to risk-adjustment, is $3,817,170.00, which breaks down as 3 follows: $437,170.00 for waiting time penalties for approximately 89 terminated Class Members in the 3-4 year SOL; a $880,000.00 penalty for inaccurate wage statements based on approximately 220 Class Members
5 in the 1-year SOL; and $2,500,000.00 for PAGA penalties based on 25,000 Pay Periods and the Court
6 assessing a $100 penalty for each pay period containing a violation. However, I believe it would be unrealistic
7 to expect the Court to award the full exposure amount given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties 8 and given Defendant's defenses, including without limitation, that any failure to pay all final wages at the 9 time of separation was not willful or intentional and that to the extent Plaintiff received wage statements that 10 were allegedly inaccurate, Plaintiff suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. Moreover, I understand the 11 individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims could bar class certification or otherwise 12 significantly reduce Defendant's overall liability for statutory and civil penalties. Furthermore, considering 13 the underlying wage claims are realistically estimated to be $2,197,152.52, awarding such a disproportional
14 amount in penalties would also raise Due Process concerns. Weighing these factors, I applied a 90% discount 15 to each penalty (resulting in $43,717.00 for waiting time penalties, $88,000.00 for inaccurate wage statement 16 penalties, and $250,000.00 for PAGA penalties) and accordingly arrived at a realistic recovery estimate of 17 $381,717.00 for statutory and civil penalties.

18 38. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff predicted the realistic (risk-adjusted) recovery for all
19 claims, including penalties, is $2,578,869.52. This means the $1,545,000.00 gross settlement figure 20 represents roughly 59% of the total realistic recovery. This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly 21 because, under the Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of 22 not being able to recover anything.

23 39. With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies 24 PAGA's dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved 25 Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this 26 litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in informal class-wide discovery, and 27 participate in mediation. Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the 28

1 Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is granted. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.4.) Not including its own
2 attorneys' fees and costs as well as the employer's share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less 3 than $1,545,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which $245,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims 4 and will be distributed, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699 as 75% to the LWDA and 25% to 5 Aggrieved Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved 6 Employees from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released 7 Parties. Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, 8 there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits 9 due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. Indeed, under PAGA, a Court can reduce 10 penalties "if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an 11 award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) In other words, 12 were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a 13 substantial reduction.

14 40. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a 15 representative basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, 16 penalties would likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and 17 in light of other defenses available to Defendant. Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would 18 be successful at trial, assuming he is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 19 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 20 Settlement. In sum, the $245,000.00 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes "genuine 21 and meaningful" that is "consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public." (See
22 O'Connor v. Uber Tech., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133–35 [denying settlement 23 approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].)

24 41. Here, the Settlement represents a substantial recovery when considered against the risk and 25 uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to certify the claims and 26 establish liability, and the probability of appeal. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a 27
28

1 legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount 2 owed to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition.

3 42. The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or some 4 of Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing at trial due to low or 5 no participation by Class Members. Indeed, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the claims 6 could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise significantly reduce any recovery 7 whatsoever. For example, the rest period and unreimbursed expense claims are testimony-driven claims and 8 assume a 100% violation rate, which would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as it assumes either the 9 participation of all employees (which would be difficult given the reality that many, if not all, employees 10 would be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical 11 data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority of employees to establish a sound 12 representation of all non-exempts). Even assuming employees would be willing to participate, obtaining 13 declarations would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a different experience.

14 43. Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 15 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and 16 possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. Although the Parties 17 have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and class-wide data analysis, they 18 have not conducted depositions. Moreover, preparation for class certification and a trial would remain for 19 the Parties as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiff 20 and/or any summary judgment ruling. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees 21 and costs through trial. In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of 22 further litigation.

23 44. The proposed $1,545,000.00 Settlement represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 24 reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 25 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability of 26 appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that preliminary 27 settlement approval is appropriate. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; 28

1 see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar
2 does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed 3 on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic 4 range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

5 THE ENHANCEMENT AWARD TO PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

6 45. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who was a former employee of Defendant, has cooperated 7 immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff provided 8 valuable information regarding his hours worked, and what duties were performed during those hours.
9 Plaintiff also provided information regarding meal periods taken and missed by Plaintiff and other Class 10 Members. Plaintiff participated in decisions concerning this action, assisted in preparation for the mediation, 11 and provided my office with the names and contact information of potential witnesses in this action. Before 12 we filed this case, Plaintiff worked with my office to determine the viability of his claims. Plaintiff also 13 provided information and documents relating to his employment by Defendant. The information and 14 documentation provided by Plaintiff was instrumental in establishing the wage-and-hour violations alleged 15 in this action, and the recovery provided for in the Settlement would have been impossible to obtain without 16 his participation.

17 46. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding himself as the named Plaintiff in this 18 matter. Plaintiff faced actual risks with his future employment, as putting himself on public record in an 19 employment lawsuit could also very well affect his likelihood for future employment. For example, a search 20 of Plaintiff’s name will reveal this action, and as a result, many employers may likely forego hiring 21 Plaintiff in learning he sued a former employer.

22 47. In turn, Class Members can now participate in a settlement, reimbursing them for wage 23 violations they may have never known about or been willing to pursue on their own. If each Class Member 24 would have tried to pursue legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a 25 significant amount of their own monetary resources and time, not to mention limited judicial resources, which 26 were obviated by Plaintiff putting himself on the line on behalf of the Class.

48. This class action would not have been possible without the aid of Plaintiff, who put his own time and effort into this litigation and placed himself at risk for the sake of the Class. The requested enhancement award to Plaintiff for his service as the Class Representative is a relatively small amount of money considering the time and effort put into the litigation and compared to enhancements granted in other class actions. The requested enhancement award is therefore reasonable to compensate Plaintiff for his active participation in this lawsuit, in addition to his general release of claims, both known and unknown, and waiver of section 1542 rights.

MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

49. I received a B.A. in History in 1998 from UCLA, and my J.D. from Loyola Marymount Law School in 2006. I became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in June 2007 and have been an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. I have been selected to Super Lawyers each year from 2019 to 2023.

50. I co-founded Moon & Yang, APC—now Moon Law Group, PC—in March 2010. My practice is focused exclusively on advocating for the rights of employees in wage-and-hour litigation, almost entirely in class and/or representative actions.

51. For the past decade, I have built my practice to have an emphasis on employment and related civil litigation cases and have both prosecuted and defended employment-related litigation cases. I have been heavily, successfully, and continuously involved in active litigation and trial work, and have conducted bench and jury trials on behalf of both employees and employers in wage-and-hour cases.

52. My current billing rate is $950.00 per hour, which is my usual hourly rate in wage-and-hour litigations. A $950.00 per hour rate is reasonable considering my years of experience practicing in the highly specialized area of employment and labor law and my Laffey Matrix rate (The Laffey Matrix, <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html> [last visited Oct. 1, 2025].) The Laffey Matrix is a “well-established objective source for rates that vary by experience” used by the District of Columbia. (In re HPL Tech., Inc. Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 2005) 366 F. Supp 2d 912, 921.) A true and correct copy of the Laffey Matrix is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. California Courts have adjusted the Laffey Matrix rate upwards based on

1 “locality pay differentials” and the location of counsel’s office in California to determine whether counsel’s 2 rates are reasonable. (See, e.g., id. [applying a 9% upward adjustment to the Laffey Matrix rate based on 3 an approximate difference of 9% between the locality pay differential of the District of Columbia and San 4 Francisco, California, where counsel’s office was located].) To determine the locality pay differential, the 5 Court in In re HPL Technologies, Inc. utilized the locality pay differentials within the federal courts. (Id.
6 at pp. 921–22.) Using the same method here and based on my firm’s location in Los Angeles, California, 7 the locality pay differential of the Los Angeles-Long Beach area is 36.47% and the locality pay differential 8 of the Washington-Baltimore-Arlington area is 33.94%, which results in a difference of approximately 9 2.53%. (Compare Judiciary Salary Plan of Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA, Effective January 13, 2025, with 10 Judiciary Salary Plan of Washington-Baltimore-Arlington, Effective January 13, 2025.) True and correct 11 copies of the Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA and Washington-Baltimore-Arlington salary plans are attached 12 hereto as Exhibit 7 and Exhibit 8, respectively. Based on my 19+ years of experience out of law school, 13 my Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $971.98 per hour ($948 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x 14 $948)). Accordingly, my current billing rate of $950.00 per hour is reasonable.

15 53. I am experienced in prosecuting and defending employment matters, particularly class actions 16 and PAGA representative actions. My firm has focused a substantial percentage of its practice on wage, hour, 17 and working conditions violations. In addition to the present case, I am also class counsel for other wage-18 and-hour class action lawsuits pending in various California counties, including in state and federal courts.
19 The following is a list of some of our recent class action settlements that have received preliminary and final 20 approval: Aparicio v. Lineage Logistics, LLC (LASC No. BC722764) (class size approx. 155; lead counsel); 21 Black v. Mission Healthcare Servs., Inc. (LASC No. 19STCV04602) (class size approx. 1,000; lead counsel);

27 BC682972) ($750,000 for 79 class members; lead counsel); Mark Brulee et al. v. DAL Global Servs., LLC

(C.D. Cal. Dec. 20, 2018, No. CV 17-6433 JVS(JCGx)) 2018 WL 6616659, at *10 (class size approx. 2,650; lead counsel) (in approving my hourly rate in that case, the Court found: “Class Counsel’s declarations show that the attorneys are experienced and successful litigators. Other courts have approved the attorneys’ current rates for the Moon & Yang, APC attorneys”); Martinez v. Bail Hotline Bail Bonds, Inc. (LASC No. BC700131) (class size approx. 173; lead counsel); Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (Sacramento No. 34-2018-00228252) (class size approx. 1,900; lead counsel); Onofre v. Caitac Garment Processing, Inc. (LASC No. BC702283) (class size approx. 750; lead counsel); Rodriguez v. Rossmoyne, Inc. (LASC No. BC699137) (class size approx. 220; lead counsel); Sison v. Cha Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P. (LASC No. BC6441 29) (class size approx. 2,100; co-counsel); Slaughter v. ACA Sec. Stems, LP (LASC No. BC699137) (class size approx. 300; lead counsel); Taylor v. Sherman’s Delicatessen & Bakery, LLC (LASC No. BC722765) (class size approx. 515; lead counsel); Vargas v. AMS Paving, Inc. (LASC No. BC722767) (case size approx. 260; lead counsel); Vertti v. Bagcraft Papercon III, LLC (LASC No. 19STCV12729) (class size approx. 260; lead counsel); and Wallick v. Campbell Soup Supply Co., LLC (San Joaquin No. STK-CV-UOE-2021-0000865) (class size 435; lead counsel).

ALLEN FEGHALI’S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

54. Allen Feghali is a Senior Partner at Moon Law Group, PC. He received his B.A. in Global and International Studies in 2011 from UC Santa Barbara, and his J.D. from University of La Verne College of Law in 2014. Mr. Feghali became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in December 2014 and has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. He was selected by Super Lawyers as a “Southern California Rising Star” in 2020–2023.

55. Mr. Feghali began working at Moon Law Group, PC in May 2015, and his practice focuses on advocating for the rights of employees at the trial-court and appellate level. Prior to approximately June 2018, with the exception of a handful of cases, his practice focused on individual FEHA and wrongful termination claims, as well as individual wage-and-hour claims. In June 2018, Mr. Feghali became heavily involved in the firm’s class action practice.

56. Mr. Feghali’s current billing rate is $900.00 per hour, which is his usual hourly rate in wage and hour litigations. Based on Mr. Feghali’s 11+ years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix rate

1 with a 2.53% adjustment is $971.98 per hour ($948 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.5% x $948)). (See Ex. 6.) As 2 compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Feghali's billing rate of 3 $900.00 per hour is reasonable.

4 57. During Mr. Feghali's tenure with Moon Law Group, PC, he has played a critical role in 5 obtaining outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. Mr. Feghali's 6 litigation experience includes, but is not limited to:

7 (a) In March 2021, Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in the matter of Rivera, et al. v. Clearpath 8 Federal Credit Union (LASC No. 19STCV33504), which resulted in a certification order on 9 all causes of action following contested briefing in a wage-and-hour class action.

10 (b) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 11 Dawson, et al. v. GoHealth, LLC, et al. (No. CGC-19-577790), which was granted in part in 12 February 2022.

13 (c) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 14 Brown v. NTI-CA, Inc., et al. (No. 21STCV04397).

15 (d) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification 16 motion in the matter of Thong, et al. v. Outlook Resources, Inc., et al. (No. 19STCV44400), 17 which was granted in part and denied in part in October 2022.

18 (e) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Andrade
19 v. Rehrig Pacific Corp. (C.D. Cal. April 22, 2020, No. CV 20-1448 FMP (RAOx)) 2020 WL
20 1934954, where defendant removed a wage-and-hour class alleging that Plaintiffs' claims 21 were pre-empted by the Labor Management Relations Act.

22 (f) Mr. Feghali briefed, argued, and won the matter of Lee, et al. v. The Christian Herald, U.S.A., 23 Inc. (Cal. Ct. App. Dec. 12, 2017, No. B266853) 2017 WL 6333905, at *1. There, the Court 24 of Appeal reversed a dismissal of an individual defendant following the trial court's granting 25 of a demurrer without leave to amend relating to alter ego allegations.

26 (g) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Sotelo v.
27 Belfor USA Group, Inc. (C.D. Cal. March 13, 2018, No. 2:17-cv-09056-RSWL-MRWx)

2018 WL 1352910. Defendants there sought to remove the case based on the inclusion of a “sham defendant,” but the court agreed with Mr. Feghali’s briefing which argued that the individual defendant, who was alleged to have harassed the Plaintiffs under FEHA, was a proper defendant.

(h) Mr. Feghali has been the lead counsel, or co-lead counsel, in individual cases that settled for $850,000.00, $375,000.00, and $250,000.00. In addition to the foregoing, Mr. Feghali has resolved or assisted in the resolution of approximately 100 cases which has resulted in millions of dollars of unpaid wages being returned to low-wage employees.

(i) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Hernandez v. CR Laurence, Inc., et al. (No. 20STCV32372), which was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in February 2024.

58. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali’s practice has shifted to almost exclusively representing employees in wage-and-hour class and representative actions. His fee has been approved by Courts throughout the state. He has participated as lead, or co-lead counsel, in the litigation and resolution of over 100 wage-and-hour class actions, including obtaining preliminary and final approval of settlements. A selection of settled cases wherein Mr. Feghali served as lead or co-lead class counsel includes the following: Barahona v. Methodist Hosp. of Cal. (No. 20STCV09876) ($5,000,000); Stanley Black & Decker Wage and Hour Cases (No. JCCP5218) ($3,500,000); Vazquez v. St. Mar 2.0 Inc. (No. 37-2021-00042702-CU-OE-CTL) ($2,250,000); Duncan v. Infineon Technologies Americas Corp. (No. 21STCV16872) ($2,500,000); Aquino v. Coast King Packing, LLC (No. 21CV002448) ($2,300,000); Martinez, et al. v. Curative LLC (No. 21STCV20778) ($1,500,000); Calderon v. Installed Building Products (No. 37-2021-00035844-CU-OE-CTL) ($1,500,000); Majdoub v. Argent Hotel Mgmt. (No. CGC-20-582921) ($1,800,000); Fuentes v. Covid Clinic, Inc. (No. CIVSB2106806) ($1,526,317.57); Rahman, et al. v. Gate Gourmet, Inc. (No. 3:20-cv-03047) ($3,850,000); Pagoulatos v. Coast Hills Credit Union (No. 20CV02801) ($1,100,000); Hammers v. Redwood Oil Co., Inc. (No. SCV-269625) ($1,180,000); Cuadras v. R.C. Wendt Painting, Inc. (No. BC705964) ($1,400,000); Zaragoza v. The Roman Catholic Bishop of Fresno (No. 22CV-00282) ($1,500,000); Garcia v. San Jose Water Co. (22CV396328) ($1,200,000); Garcia v. Tri-Valley Plastering,

1 Inc. (No. 22CECG00591) ($1,250,000); Garcia v. Tapia Enter., Inc. ($2,137,651 for 507 class members); 2 Cha v. Center Point, Inc. (No. CIV2102081) ($1,000,000); Sison v. Cha Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P. (No.
3 BC644129) (2,137 class members); Lagos v. ThyssenKrupp Elevator Corp. (No. BC682972) ($750,000 for 4 79 class members); and Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (No. 34-2018-00228252) ($1,250,000).

5 CHARLOTTE MIKAT-STEVEN'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

6 59. Charlotte Mikat-Stevens is an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, PC. Ms. Mikat-7 Stevens advocates for employees in both state and federal court in employment and related 8 litigation. Since joining Moon Law Group, her practice has focused on wage-and-hour class actions 9 and PAGA representative actions involving claims related to unpaid overtime and minimum wages, 10 meal and rest break violations, unreimbursed business expenses, improper wage statements, unfair 11 business practices, and penalties.

12 60. Ms. Mikat-Stevens received her B.As. in Anthropology and International Studies with 13 honors from Loyola University of Chicago in 2013, and her J.D. and Master of Environmental Law
14 and Policy from Vermont Law School ("VLS") in 2017. While in law school, Ms. Mikat-Stevens 15 served as Note and Production Editor for the Vermont Journal of Environmental Law, served with 16 the VLS Environmental Law Society, and worked as a student clinician both for both the Food and 17 Agriculture and the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinics at VLS. Following law 18 school, Ms. Mikat-Stevens was selected for a fellowship focused on the labor trafficking and forced 19 labor of agricultural workers in the United States, during which time she developed a toolkit for 20 legal practitioners and represented victims of trafficking with civil and criminal cases. Before 21 joining Moon Law Group, PC, Ms. Mikat-Stevens represented farm workers with various 22 employment law claims in administrative and civil courts, including class and representative 23 actions, as well as in grievance and arbitration matters.

24 61. Ms. Mikat-Stevens became an Active Member of the State Bars of California and 25 Washington in 2019 and has been a member in good standing continuously since then. She is also 26 admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Eastern and Central Districts of 27 California and in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington.

62. Ms. Mikat-Stevens' current billing rate is $675.00 per hour, which is her usual hourly rate in wage-and-hour litigations. Based on Ms. Mikat-Stevens' 8+ years of experience out of law school, her Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $860.23 per hour ($839 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $839). (See Ex. 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering her experience, Ms. Mikat-Stevens' billing rate of $675.00 per hour is reasonable.

63. A selection of settled class actions that have received preliminary and/or final settlement approval and PAGA-only approved settlements in which Ms. Mikat-Stevens assisted in the resolution during her tenure with Moon Law Group, PC includes the following: *Alvarez v. 19 CLASS COUNSEL’S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

20 64. As demonstrated by the foregoing, my office is qualified to handle this litigation because we 21 are experienced in litigating Labor Code and Wage Order violations in individual, class, and representative 22 actions. The attorneys at my office have been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous wage-and-23 hour class and/or PAGA actions in state and federal courts by way of motion for settlement approval.
24 Including myself, Moon Law Group, PC is comprised of approximately 36 attorneys, all of whom are 25 actively and continuously practicing employment litigation, representing almost entirely employee-26 plaintiffs, in both individual and class and/or PAGA actions, in this Superior Court and other Superior Courts 27 throughout the State, in the Courts of Appeal, and in various federal courts. The attorneys at my firm have a 28

1 high level of skill and knowledge in wage-and-hour class actions, PAGA representative actions, and labor 2 and employment law generally, the substantive (state and federal) and procedural law of which is frequently 3 evolving.

4 65. Moon Law Group, PC has been engaged in the practice of employment and labor law for over 5 a decade, and presently focuses exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law. The firm and its lawyers have 6 tried both bench and jury trials (representing both plaintiffs and defendants) relating to employment matters.
7 As noted above, Moon Law Group, PC has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in federal and state 8 courts in California. Also, the firm and its lawyers have successfully settled hundreds of cases during that 9 time, including wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions.

10 66. The foregoing experience of myself and other attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC is helpful in 11 assessing the reasonableness of settlements, such as the one at issue here, and from this experience we 12 concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the Settlement.

13 67. I respectfully submit that the attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC, myself included, are well 14 suited to act as Class Counsel in this action, and we have, and will continue to, vigorously represent the 15 interests of the Class. To my knowledge, we do not have any conflicts of interest with Plaintiff, other Class 16 Members, or the proposed Administrator, and we are not related to Plaintiff. We respectfully request to be 17 appointed as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes.

18 THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE

19 68. The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to one-20 third of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., no less than $515,000.00, subject to potential increase under the 21 escalator clause) and litigation costs up to $25,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.2.) The proposed award of 22 attorneys' fees can be justified under either the lodestar method or the percentage/common-fund recovery 23 method. However, we base the proposed fees award on the percentage method, as many of the entries in the 24 time records will have to be redacted to preserve attorney-client and attorney work product privileges.

25 69. I am informed and believe that the fees and costs provision in the Settlement is reasonable. The 26 fee percentage requested is less than that charged by my office for most employment cases. Moreover, my 27
28

1 office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case, and 2 then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

3 70. It is further estimated that my office will need to expend at least another 50 to 100 hours to 4 monitor the administration process leading up to the final approval, prepare for final approval, and oversee 5 distribution to the Class following final approval. My office also bears the risk of taking whatever actions 6 are necessary should Defendant fail to pay.

7 71. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be successful in 8 pursuing this class action. In such instance, we would have been left with no compensation for all the time 9 taken in litigating this case due to the contingency fee arrangement. Indeed, I have taken on a number of class 10 action cases that have resulted in thousands of attorney hours being expended and ultimately having the 11 defendant company going bankrupt during litigation. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real 12 and occurs regularly. Furthermore, we were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which 13 could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain.

14 72. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for representation in litigation on an hourly basis, 15 Moon Law Group, PC represents virtually all its employment law clients on a contingency fee basis, 16 including Plaintiff in this matter. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless 17 we prevail at trial or successfully settle our clients' cases. Because Moon Law Group, PC is taking the risk 18 that we will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or her case, we cannot afford 19 to represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the end of our representation, all we are to 20 receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential that we recover more than our regular hourly rate 21 when we win if we are to remain in practice so as to be able to continue representing other individuals in 22 civil rights employment disputes.

23 73. As of the drafting of this motion, my office has incurred $23,714.74 in expenses litigating this 24 action, and we anticipate accruing additional costs up to final approval. A true and correct copy of a report 25 showing current costs is attached hereto as Exhibit 4. These expenses were reasonably necessary to the 26 litigation and were actually incurred by my office. Moreover, because total litigation costs are below the 27
28

1 maximum amount allowed under the Settlement, the difference will revert to Participating Class Members.
2 (Id. at ¶ 3.1.2.) Therefore, our costs should be reimbursed in full.

3 74. My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the 4 end of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome. My office's efforts have included, and will 5 include following preliminary and final approval, without limitation, the following:

- 6 (a) Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by him;
- 7 (b) Legal research and investigation regarding Defendant's business and employment practices 8 at numerous points in the litigation;
- 9 (c) Preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA notice;
- 10 (d) Preparation, finalization, and filing of multiple drafts of the original class action complaint 11 and subsequent first amended complaint;
- 12 (e) Extensive "meet and confer" correspondence and discussions with Defense Counsel 13 regarding mediation and to obtain relevant documents and information through informal 14 discovery;
- 15 (f) Research and preparation of Plaintiff's mediation brief;
- 16 (g) Analysis of the discovery production and preparation of a damages model with the aid of a 17 statistics expert;
- 18 (h) Attendance and active participation at a full day of mediation;
- 19 (i) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement and Class Notice;
- 20 (j) Preparation of the motion for preliminary approval and the accompanying filings;
- 21 (k) Anticipated preparation for and attendance at the preliminary approval hearing;
- 22 (l) Anticipated conferring with Defense Counsel and the Administrator regarding the Class 23 Notice mailing, Class responses, and preliminary and final calculations;
- 24 (m) Anticipated preparation, finalization, filing, and service of a motion for final approval and 25 accompanying filings;
- 26 (n) Anticipated preparation for and anticipated attendance at the final approval hearing, and 27 then monitoring of the distribution of funds following final approval; and 28

1 (o) Anticipated responding to Class Member inquiries and communicating with Plaintiff 2 regarding the case.

3 75. Through the efforts of my office and Plaintiff in this case, a fair and reasonable joint resolution 4 has been reached that includes a gross, non-reversionary payment by Defendant of no less than 5 $1,545,000.00 to compensate Class Members for the alleged unlawful wage-and-hour practices. I am 6 informed and believe that, without the efforts of my office or Plaintiff, the Labor Code and Wage Order 7 violations alleged in the Operative Complaint would have gone completely unremedied.

8 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United States that 9 the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on July 10, 2026, at Los Angeles, California.
