1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Sharon Baker (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of the Joint Stipulation of Class
4 Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into between Plaintiff
5 and Defendant OPARC (“Defendant”) (together, with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). (Declaration of Alexandra
6 Rose in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement
7 [“Rose Decl.”], Exh. 4). The Settlement terms are outlined as follows:

- 8
- Class Size: Approximately four hundred and sixty-five (465) individuals.
 - 9 • Gross Settlement Amount: Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents 10 ($850,000.00).
 - 11 • Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: Attorneys’ fees of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount 12 ($283,333.33 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $850,000.00) plus actual litigation costs and 13 expenses not to exceed Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($25,000.00), to be 14 paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 15 • Enhancement Payment: Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00), to be paid from 16 the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 17 • Settlement Administration Costs: Not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents 18 ($10,000.00), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
 - 19 • PAGA Amount: Forty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($40,000.00) from the Gross 20 Settlement Amount, 75% of which will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development 21 Agency (“LWDA”) and the remaining 25% to be paid to the PAGA Employees.
 - 22 • Estimated Net Settlement Amount: Four Hundred Eighty-One Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-23 Six Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents ($481,666.67) to be distributed to Settlement Class 24 Members.

25 As set forth herein, the Settlement is the product of informed discovery and arms-length 26 negotiations, and provides a fair, adequate, and reasonable recovery for the Class. Plaintiff therefore 27 respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminarily approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify 28 the Class, approve the proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”), and set a hearing date for final settlement approval, among other requested relief.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Defendant is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization that advocates for people with disabilities and helps them find employment and social opportunities. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Direct Support Professional/Driver from approximately January 2024 to approximately June 2024. (Declaration of Plaintiff Sharon Baker in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Baker Decl.”], ¶ 2).

On May 2, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant (“PAGA Letter”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 9 and Exh. 2).

On May 3, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the action entitled Sharon Baker v. OPARC, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 24STCV11229 (“Action”), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 10).

On July 8, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Enforcement Action Under the Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor §§ 2698 Et Seq. in the action entitled Sharon Baker v. OPARC, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 24STCV16945 (“PAGA Action”), which alleged one cause of action under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 11).

On July 17, 2024, Plaintiff propounded written formal discovery onto Defendant (specifically, Form Interrogatories – General (Set One), Form Interrogatories – Employment Law (Set One), Special Interrogatories (Set One), Requests for Admission (Set One), and Requests for Production of Documents (Set One)), served a proposed Belaire-West notice, and noticed the deposition of Defendant’s Person Most Knowledgeable. (Id., ¶ 12).

On January 13, 2025, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Tagore Subramaniam, Esq. (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex wage and hour matters, and with the assistance of the Mediator’s evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and representative basis. (Id., ¶ 13). The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the terms in a long form settlement agreement.

1 (Ibid).

2 On May 5, 2025, Plaintiff submitted an amendment to the PAGA Notice to add additional 3 California Labor Code violations based upon the same facts and theories of liability pled in the PAGA 4 Action (“Amended PAGA Notice”). (Id., ¶ 14 and Exh. 3).

5 On May 28, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint 6 (“Operative Complaint”) in the Action, which added the PAGA claims alleged in the PAGA Action and 7 the Amended PAGA Notice. (Id., ¶ 15). The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for 8 violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, 9 including failure to calculate and pay wages correctly based on the regular rate of pay, failure to provide 10 compliant meal periods and legally compliant premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide 11 compliant rest periods and legally compliant premiums payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay 12 wages during employment, failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages
13 upon termination, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California 14 Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code
15 violations, and for civil penalties under the PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor Code 16 violations. (Ibid.).

17 On July 2, 2025, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 16 and Ex. 4).

18 III. THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

19 A. Class Definition

20 For purposes of settlement only, the Parties have agreed that the Class shall be defined as “all 21 current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of 22 California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or Class Member(s)). (Rose Decl., ¶ 17; 23 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12.b). The Class Period is defined as the period from August 26, 2021 through 24 March 14, 2025. (Rose Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12.f). Based on information provided by 25 Defendant, it is estimated that there are a total of four hundred and sixty-five (465) Class Members. (Rose 26 Decl., ¶ 17).

27 ///

28 ///

1 B. Amount of Settlement

2 The Parties have agreed to settle the class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative Complaint
3 for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
4 ($850,000.00), exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5 12.p).

6 C. Allocation and Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount

7 The Gross Settlement Amount is a common fund and therefore includes all requested costs, fees, 8 and other allocations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12.p). The Gross Settlement Amount 9 includes: (1) Class Counsel’s fees in the amount of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., 10 $283,333.33 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $850,000.00); (2) Class Counsel’s actual litigation costs
11 and expenses, not to exceed Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($25,000.00); (3) Settlement
12 Administration Costs, not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00); (4)
13 Enhancement Payment in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00); and (5)
14 PAGA Amount of Forty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($40,000.00). (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement 15 Agreement, ¶¶ 12.p, 15, 16, 17, and 18). After the above-estimated amounts are deducted from the Gross 16 Settlement Amount, the Net Settlement Amount that will be available for Class Members is currently 17 estimated to be Four Hundred Eighty-One Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six Dollars and Sixty-Seven 18 Cents ($481,666.67). (Rose Decl., ¶ 18). Additionally, 25% of the PAGA Amount (“PAGA Employee 19 Amount”), which is $10,000.00 out of $40,000.00, will be fully distributed to “all current and former 20 hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any 21 time during the PAGA Period” (“PAGA Employee(s)”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 22 12.p, 12.x, 12.y, and 17). The “PAGA Period” is defined as the period from May 2, 2023 through March 23 14, 2025. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12.aa).

24 The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed and paid to all Class Members who do not submit 25 a timely and valid Request for Exclusion (“Settlement Class Member(s)”) on a pro rata basis based on 26 the number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt
27 employee in California during the Class Period (“Workweeks”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement 28 Agreement, ¶¶ 12.mm and 12.nn). The pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that a Class Member

1 may be eligible to receive under the Class Settlement (“Individual Settlement Share”) will be calculated 2 by the Settlement Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Rose Decl., ¶ 19; 3 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 12.s and 20).

4 The PAGA Employee Amount will be distributed and paid to all PAGA Employees on a pro rata
5 basis based on the number of weeks each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid
6 and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period (“PAGA Workweeks”). (Rose Decl., 7 ¶ 20; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 12.cc and 21). The pro rata share of the PAGA Employee Amount that 8 a PAGA Employee may be eligible to receive under the PAGA Settlement (“Individual PAGA Payment”)
9 will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Rose 10 Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 12.q and 21).

11 Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty 12 percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 13 22). The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated to 14 penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the 15 Settlement Administrator. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 22). The Settlement Administrator 16 will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the 17 Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their net payment of 18 their Individual Settlement Share (“Individual Settlement Payment”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement 19 Agreement, ¶¶ 12.r and 22). The employer’s share of taxes and contributions in connection with the 20 wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares will be paid by Defendant separately and in addition to the 21 Gross Settlement Amount. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 12.p and 22). Each Individual 22 PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and will be reported on an 23 IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement 24 Agreement, ¶ 22).

25 The Settlement Agreement is a non-reversionary and non-claims made settlement. (Rose Decl., 26 ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 12.p). The Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed to Settlement 27 Class Members and the PAGA Amount will be fully distributed to the LWDA and PAGA Employees, in 28 accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Rose Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 17 and 20). No

1 money will revert to Defendant. (Rose Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12.p).

2 Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 3 negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 4 thereafter, shall be canceled. (Rose Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 40). Any funds associated with 5 such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to Center for Workers' Rights
6 (the proposed cy pres) in accordance with California Civil Procedure Code Section 384. (Rose Decl., ¶ 7 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 40). Should the Court not approve Center for Workers' Rights, the Parties 8 agree on any of the following cy pres: 1) Los Angeles Worker Center Network, 2) La Raza Centro Legal's 9 Workers' Rights Program, 3) Wage Justice Center, and 4) Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights – 10 Workers' Rights and Labor Legal Services Department. (Rose Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 40).
11 The Parties and their counsel have each represented that they do not have any financial interest in, or 12 otherwise have a relationship with, the proposed cy pres recipients that could create a conflict of interest.
13 (Rose Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 40).

14 D. Released Claims

15 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all 16 Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 17 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all Released Class Claims.
18 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 41).

19 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State of 20 California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have fully, 21 finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of 22 all Released PAGA Claims. (Id., ¶ 42).

23 “Released Class Claims” means all claims which were alleged or which could have been 24 reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, arising during the Class 25 Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant's alleged failure to pay minimum and 26 overtime wages, calculate and pay wages correctly based on the regular rate of pay, provide compliant 27 meal and rest periods and associated legally compliant premium payments, timely pay all wages and 28 compensation owed during employment and upon termination, provide complaint wage statements, and

1 reimburse necessary business-related expenses, including but not limited to expenses related to personal 2 cell phone(s), office supplies, and mileage, in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 3 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7(c), 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 4 2800, and 2802, the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s), and California Business
5 and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. (Id., ¶ 12.ff). The Released Class Claims do not include 6 claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, 7 unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts
8 occurring outside the Class Period. (Ibid.).

9 "Released PAGA Claims" means all claims for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General 10 Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., which were alleged or which could have been 11 reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the PAGA Notice, the Amended PAGA Notice, 12 and the Operative Complaint, arising during the PAGA Period, which shall specifically include claims 13 for Defendant's alleged failure to pay minimum and overtime wages, calculate and pay wages correctly 14 based on the regular rate of pay, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated legally compliant 15 premium payments, timely pay all wages and compensation owed during employment and upon 16 termination, provide complaint wage statements, keep requisite payroll records, and reimburse necessary 17 business-related expenses, including but not limited to personal cell phone expenses and mileage, in 18 violation of California Labor Code Sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 19 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare 20 Commission Wage Order(s). (Id., ¶ 12.gg).

21 "Released Parties" means Defendant and its former and present managers, board members, 22 directors, officers, shareholders, owners, members, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, 23 subsidiaries, agents, and affiliates, including, but not limited to, Susan Pittman, Scott J. Treymane, Sonia 24 J. Borja, and Andrea Credille. (Id., ¶ 12.hh).

25 IV. STANDARD OF REVIEW FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

26 The settlement of a class action requires court approval. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.
27 App. 4th 1794 (1996)). "In general, questions whether a settlement was fair and reasonable, whether 28 notice to the class was adequate, whether certification of the class was proper, and whether the attorney

1 fee award was proper are matters addressed to the trial court’s broad discretion.” (Wershba v. Apple
2 Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-35 (2001) (disapproved on other grounds)).

3 The review and approval of a proposed class action settlement involves a two-step process. (See 4 Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(c)). First, counsel submit the proposed terms of the settlement and the 5 Court makes a preliminary assessment of whether the settlement appears to be sufficiently within the 6 range of a fair settlement to justify providing notice of the proposed settlement to class members. After 7 notice is provided to the class, the Court must conduct a second inquiry into whether the proposed 8 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Ibid).

9 The initial evaluation of the settlement at the preliminary approval step “is not a fairness hearing.”
10 (Armstrong v. Board of School Directors of City of Milwaukee, 616 F.2d 305, 314 (7th Cir. 1980)).
11 Rather, the limited purpose of this initial inquiry is to determine, at a threshold level, only whether the 12 proposed settlement is within the range of possible approval and, as a result, “whether there is any reason 13 to notify the class members of the proposed settlement and to proceed with a fairness hearing.” A 14 presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) 15 investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel 16 is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (See In re Microsoft I-V 17 Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 723 (2006)).

18 Preliminary approval does not require a court to make a final determination that the settlement is 19 fair, reasonable, and adequate. Rather, that decision is made only at the final approval stage, after notice 20 of the settlement has been given to the class members and they have had an opportunity to object or 21 exclude themselves from the settlement. (See Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(g)). In considering a 22 potential class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law 23 which underlie the merits of the dispute and need not engage in a trial on the merits. (See Officers for 24 Justice v. Civil Service Commission, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982)).

25 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS PRESUMED FAIR

26 A. The Settlement Was Reached as a Result of Arm’s-Length Bargaining

27 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 28 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.

1 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties' settlement negotiations 2 were at all times made at arm's-length and were adversarial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 24). The Settlement was 3 reached following a full day of mediation with a highly respected mediator with substantial experience 4 mediating wage and hour cases. (Ibid). At all times, Plaintiff was willing and prepared to litigate this 5 matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had been unable to reach a favorable resolution.
6 (Id., ¶ 45).

7 B. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery by Experienced Class Counsel

8 Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement 9 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 10 Defendant produced a random thirty-three percent (33%) sampling of putative class members' time and 11 pay data as well as Defendant's relevant wage and hour policies, and information regarding the total 12 number of putative class members, the number of current versus former employees, the total workweeks 13 worked by the putative class members, and the average rate of pay for the putative class members. (Rose 14 Decl., ¶ 25).

15 This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and analysis of the strengths and 16 weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Id., ¶ 26). Based on information 17 exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class certification and liability and provided 18 their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate the strengths and weakness of their respective 19 positions. (Id., ¶ 27). Additionally, settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and 20 experienced counsel. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 1-8). Accordingly, Class Counsel had sufficient information and 21 experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

22 C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties' Respective Legal Positions 23 and Recovery Risks

24 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 25 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
26 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 27 must consider "the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 28 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the

1 extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the 2 presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.”
3 (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

4 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal and 5 factual grounds for defending the Action. Based upon Class Counsel’s experience litigating similar 6 complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class certification 7 and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

8 1. Class Counsel’s Analysis of the Maximum Available Liability and Damages

9 Class Counsel analyzed all available data and estimated Defendant’s maximum potential exposure 10 to be approximately $5,436,093, assuming the litigation was successful at trial on all claims at issue and 11 every employee had a violation for each claim on every shift worked. (Rose Decl., ¶ 28). This maximum 12 potential analysis was then reduced based on the challenges facing the likelihood of obtaining class 13 certification, prevailing at trial, and other attendant risks. (Ibid). This estimate is based off an estimated 14 maximum liability for all claims at issue and the total aggregate workweeks during the relevant time 15 period, less interest, and based on the analysis of the data which was extrapolated out for all class 16 members across the entire putative class period, which included: $200,219 for meal period violations 17 (less meal period premiums paid); $2,802,209 for rest period violations at a 100% violation rate; $618,782 18 for unpaid off-the-clock work for 1 hour per workweek of off-the-clock work; $4,233 for unpaid overtime 19 wages at the required regular rate of pay; $16,304 for unpaid meal break premiums and sick pay at the 20 required regular rate of pay; $239,310 for unreimbursed business expenses; $867,886 for waiting time 21 penalties; and $687,150 for wage statement penalties. (Ibid). Plaintiff further estimated that Defendant 22 faced an additional exposure of $865,900 in potential, non-stacked (i.e., one penalty, per employee, per 23 PAGA Workweek during the PAGA statutory period) PAGA penalties. (Ibid). Together with the PAGA 24 penalties, Defendant’s maximum potential exposure totaled $6,301,993 in damages. (Ibid).

25 2. Class Counsel’s Risk-Based Analysis and Risk-Based Adjustments

26 While Plaintiff believes that Defendant faced significant exposure, substantial barriers to a 27 recovery existed. Defendant contended that Plaintiff’s claims are not suitable for class certification 28 because individual issues and affirmative defenses would predominate should this case go to trial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 31; See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004 (2012); Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat. Assn., 59 Cal.4th 1, 35-36 (2014); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 131 S.Ct. 2541, 2551 (2011)). While Plaintiff and Class Counsel disagree with Defendant's predictions, they also recognize that there is a significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Rose Decl., ¶ 31; see also, Findings of the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf> (finding that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion)).

For example, Plaintiff's meal period claims, which were based on Defendant's alleged failure to provide lawful meal periods, have been increasingly difficult to certify in recent years. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32; See Brinker, 53 Cal. 4th at 1034-35). Plaintiff's theory of liability for meal period violations was based on allegations that Defendant had failed to implement its policies and that its practices failed to allow Class Members to take meal breaks in the manner required under California law. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32; See Bradley v. Networkers Int'l, LLC, 211 Cal.App.4th 1129, 1150 (2012) (holding that "the lack of a meal/rest break policy and the uniform failure to authorize such breaks are matters of common proof.")). Defendant contended that its policies and practices at all times during the Class Period were lawful. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32). Indeed, Plaintiff's analysis revealed only a 1.5% violation rate for purported unique meal period violations offsetting meal period premiums paid and taking into consideration enforceable meal period waivers. (Ibid). Defendant further argued that the rate of purported meal period violations reflected in the data would require individualized inquiry and that such inquiry would prohibit a class from being certified. (Ibid). Class Counsel also had to consider the risk that the Court would find validity in an individualized proof defense to certification of Plaintiff's meal period claim. (Ibid).

Additionally, a large portion of Defendant's overall liability lies in Plaintiff's rest period allegations. (Id., ¶ 33). As with the meal period allegations, Defendant contended that it had a lawful written rest period policy, provided compliant rest breaks, and relieved Class Members of all duties as required under California law. (Ibid). Additionally, this claim was even more uncertain given the difficulties associated with proving the alleged rest period violations, as Defendant was not required to record these breaks. (Ibid). Given the lack of records demonstrating rest period violations, there were legitimate concerns Plaintiff would not be able to certify these claims or prove substantial damages with 1 requisite certainty, which made the estimated value of this claim subject to much challenge. (Ibid).

2 Plaintiff also faced challenges certifying and proving liability for her minimum wage and 3 overtime claims. (Id., ¶ 34). These claims were largely based on Defendant's unrecorded, off-the-clock 4 work performed by the Class Members during purported meal periods and Defendant's failure to pay the 5 required regular rate. (Ibid). For example, Plaintiff reported that she and the other Class Members were 6 required to take their meal periods with the clients at off-site destinations. (Ibid). However, Defendant 7 argued that the Class Members signed enforceable on-duty meal period agreements. (Ibid). However, 8 the individualized nature of why this work was performed and the individualized nature of damages
9 presented substantial concerns regarding the manageability of the case and the risk the Court could find 10 these issues prevented certification, and the estimated damages for this claim were based on an 11 assumption that all Class Members worked off the clock for at least one hour per week. (Ibid).

12 Plaintiff also contended that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members 13 for necessary business-related expenses, including but not limited to, the usage of personal cell phones 14 for work related communications and expenses related to office supplies and mileage for work-related 15 purposes. (Id., ¶ 35). Defendant contended that it had a policy and practice of reimbursing employees 16 for necessary business-related expenses. (Ibid). Defendant further contended that, with respect to the 17 alleged expenses for which Plaintiff and the other Class Members never requested reimbursement from 18 Defendant, it did not know and had no reason to know that alleged business-related expenses had been 19 incurred. (Ibid). Defendant further contended that the reason for why a Class Member undertook certain 20 expenses, while not others, and failed to receive reimbursement for certain expenses while not others, 21 would raise individual issues that could not be certified. (Ibid).

22 There are also substantial risks associated with Plaintiff's waiting time penalties and wage 23 statement claims. (Id., ¶ 36). First, these claims were derivative of Plaintiff's claims for unpaid meal 24 period premiums, unpaid rest period premiums, unpaid minimum wages, and unpaid overtime wages, 25 and if certification was denied on those underlying claims, these derivative claims for penalties would 26 also likely fail. (Ibid). Further, even if Plaintiff prevailed on her underlying claims, she would still be 27 required to demonstrate that Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 203 were willful
28 violations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 36; See, e.g., Choate v. Celite Corp., 215 Cal App. 4th 1460, 1468 (2013))

1 (holding that “an employer’s reasonable, good faith belief that wages are not owed may negate a finding 2 of willfulness”). Wage statement claims have also seen varying treatment at the appellate level because 3 such claims have an element of discretion attached to them rather than a pure calculation of damages after 4 liability is proven. (Rose Decl. ¶ 36; Jaimez v. DAIOHS USA, Inc., 181 Cal.App.4th 1286 (2010) with 5 Price v. Starbucks Corp., 192 Cal.App.4th 1136 (2011)). Accordingly, these derivative claims, which 6 comprised a substantial portion of Defendant’s estimated liability, were therefore uncertain. (Rose Decl., 7 ¶ 36).

8 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 9 amount of wages due to Class Members would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain 10 proposition. (Id., ¶ 37). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel will need to request and 11 analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members’ contact information, contact them, 12 and obtain their declarations at great expense. (Ibid.). Obtaining the cooperation of current employees 13 would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit against a current 14 employer. (Ibid.). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the cooperation of its 15 employees. (Ibid.). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and trial, possible appeals 16 would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid.).

17 Therefore, taking into account how each of the above risks potentially effected Plaintiff’s ability 18 to first obtain class certification, and then prove the underlying violations, plus the cost and delay in 19 recovering the alleged potential damages, Class Counsel discounted Defendant’s estimated liability based 20 on the challenges facing her ability to succeed on class certification by 60% to $2, 2,520,797. (Id., ¶ 38).
21 The merits-based risk factors further reduced Defendant’s estimated liability by an additional 60%.
22 (Ibid.). This resulted in an adjusted estimated liability of $1,008,319. (Ibid.). In light thereof, the 23 settlement amount of $850,000.00 is a significant settlement. (Ibid.).

24 Class Counsel also contemplated the risks of proceeding with the PAGA claims and potential 25 liability Defendant could face from these claims as part of the global resolution. (Id., ¶ 39). Existing 26 case law makes PAGA claims subject to the same defenses and risks as Plaintiff’s underlying wage 27 claims. (Rose Decl., ¶ 39; see, Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC, 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-82 (C.D.
28 Cal. 2008) (“Plaintiff’s claim under [PAGA] is wholly dependent upon her other claims. Because all of

1 Plaintiff's other claims fail as a matter of law, so does her PAGA claim"). Class Counsel also anticipated 2 that even if successful on the merits at trial, the imposition of cumulative civil penalties based on the 3 alleged wage and hour violations could be considered unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory, 4 and that Defendant would argue that it made a good faith attempt to comply with its legal obligations 5 warranting a reduction in penalties. (Rose Decl., ¶ 39).¹ Class Counsel also anticipated Defendant would 6 argue that the violations per pay period were low, warranting an additional reduction in civil penalties.
7 (Ibid). Finally, Class Counsel was also mindful of the fact that PAGA is fundamentally not intended to 8 be compensatory in nature but is instead intended to facilitate enforcement of California's labor laws by 9 financing state activities and educating and deterring non-compliance. (Ibid).

10 Therefore, after considering this multitude of factors, Plaintiff and Class Counsel concluded that 11 it was in the best interest of the State of California and the PAGA Employees to enter into the Settlement, 12 and to allocate Forty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($40,000.00) of the Gross Settlement Amount 13 towards the PAGA claims, which represents approximately 4.7% of the Gross Settlement Amount. (Id., 14 ¶ 40). This percentage of the settlement is well within the range of wage and hour settlements regularly 15 approved in both state and federal court for cases that include both a class and PAGA action. (Ibid).
16 Typically, such hybrid cases allocate only 1% of the gross settlement value to resolve PAGA claims, and,
17 indeed, settlements allocations as little as 0.22% of the gross settlement amount have been approved as 18 reasonable by courts. (Ibid). Moreover, the overall relief obtained by the Settlement is significant, not 19 only from a monetary perspective, but also because it fulfills the public policy objectives of PAGA—to 20 promote enforcement of California's labor laws, provide funds to the state, and deter future non-21 compliance by the employer. (Ibid).

24 ¹ See, e.g., Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc., 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1131 (2012) (imposition of both statutory 25 and civil penalties for same conduct is impermissible double recovery) (disapproved on other grounds); Aguirre v. Genesis 26 Logistics, 2013 WL 10936035, at *3 (C.D. Cal. 2013) ("duplicative effect" of penalties is a factor in favor of "reducing ...the 27 PAGA penalty"); Smith v. Lux Retail North America, Inc., 2013 WL 2932243, at *3 (N.D. Cal. June 13, 2013) (declining to 28 stack penalties based on the same conduct); Castillo v. ADT, LLC, 2017 WL 363108, at *4 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 25, 2017); Sanchez
v. McDonalds Restaurants of California, Inc., 2017 WL 4620746 (LA Super. Ct. July 6, 2017) (declining to stack penalties arising out of the same conduct); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., 2011 WL 756304718, at *4 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) (reducing PAGA penalties by 80%); Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F.Supp.3d 1030 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (indicating that a substantial reduction is warranted where good faith dispute exists in legal obligations); Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (2018) (approving reduction in penalties from $50 per pay period to $5 per pay period based on good faith attempts to comply with obligations and minimal violations).

1 The Settlement is in the best interest of the Class Members, the PAGA Employees, and the State 2 of California and is within the accepted range of recoveries for this type of litigation given the inherent 3 risk of litigation, the risk of obtaining and maintaining class certification, and the costs of further 4 litigation. (Id., ¶ 41).

5 VI. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

6 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 provides that three basic requirements must be met in order 7 to sustain any class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class; (2) there must be a well-defined 8 community of interest in the question of law or fact affecting the parties to be represented; and (3) 9 certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., proceeding as a class action 10 is superior to other methods. (See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Plaintiff contends that the Action, 11 which is based upon Defendant's wage and hour policies and practices, satisfies the class certification
12 requirements under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Defendant denies Plaintiff's 13 allegations, but for purposes of the Settlement only, Defendant has stipulated to certification of the Class.

14 A. An Ascertainable Class Exists Which is So Numerous That Joinder of All Members is 15 Impracticable

16 Whether an ascertainable class exists turns on three factors: (1) the class definition, (2) the size of 17 the class, and (3) the means of identifying the class members. (See Miller v. Woods, 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 18 873 (1983)). In this case, all three considerations strongly favor class certification. Here, the Class is 19 defined as "all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant 20 in the State of California at any time during the Class Period." (Rose Decl., ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, 21 ¶ 12.b). This provides a clear and definite scope for the proposed class.

22 Next, the Class is sufficiently numerous. There is no magic number that satisfies the numerosity 23 requirement. Courts have certified classes with as few as ten or twenty-eight class members. (Rose v.
24 City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981); Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal. 2d 574 (1995); 25 Hebbard v. Colgrove, 28 Cal.App.3d 1017, 1030 (1972)). Here, the estimated Class size of four hundred 26 and sixty-five (465) individuals meets the numerosity requirement.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Finally, the question of whether class members are easily identifiable turns on whether a plaintiff
2 can establish “the existence of an ascertainable class.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co., 67 Cal.2d 695 at 706
3 (1967)). The existence of an ascertainable class in this case can be established through Defendant’s 4 payroll records, and the Class definition is sufficiently specific to enable the Parties, Class Members, and 5 the Court to determine the parameters of the Class. (See Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp., 191 6 Cal.App.3d 605, 617 (1987)).

7 B. The Class Shares a Well-Defined Community of Interest

8 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant questions of law 9 and fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives 10 who can adequately represent the class. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1806). Here, all three requirements 11 are easily satisfied.

12 The commonality criterion requires the existence of common question of law or fact and is 13 generally established with the issues of predominance and typicality. (See Daar, 67 Cal.2d 695, 706).
14 What is required is that a common question of fact or law exists which predominates over issues unique 15 to individual plaintiffs. The existence of individual issues or facts—generally present in any case arising 16 from employment—is not a bar to class certification as long as they do not render class litigation 17 unmanageable or predominate over the common issues. (See B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v. Owens-Illinois, 18 Inc., 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1354 (1987)).

19 Here, Plaintiff’s claims present common issues of law and fact that predominate and warrant class 20 certification. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant denied compliant meal and rest periods to employees, 21 required employees to perform work off-the-clock, and failed to fully compensate employees for all time 22 actually worked. These policies and practices meant that Defendant allegedly failed to pay minimum and 23 overtime wages, and other related claims. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s policies and practices were 24 uniform as to all Class Members. Thus, class treatment is appropriate.

25 To satisfy the typicality requirement, California law does not require that plaintiffs’ claims be 26 identical to the other class members. Rather, the test of typicality for a class representative is whether 27 other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on conduct which is not 28 unique to the named plaintiff, and whether other class members have been injured by the same course of

1 conduct. (See Seastrom v. Neways, Inc., 149 Cal.App.4th 1496, 1502 (2007)). The typicality requirement 2 for a class representative refers to the nature of the claim or defense of the representative, and not to the 3 specific facts from which it arose or the relief sought. (See Ibid).

4 Here, Plaintiff alleges that her claims are similar to that of the other Class Members and that 5 Plaintiff's claims arise out of the same alleged course of conduct giving rise to the claims of the other 6 Class Members. Because Plaintiff's claims are based upon the same alleged conduct and business 7 practices as those of Class Members, the typicality requirement has been satisfied.

8 Finally, the question of adequacy of representation "depends on whether the plaintiff's attorney 9 is qualified to conduct the proposed litigation and the plaintiff's interests are not antagonistic to the 10 interests of the class." (McGee v. Bank of America, 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 450 (1976)). Here, these 11 considerations are satisfied. Class Counsel is well-regarded and is qualified and experienced in 12 employment-related, class-action litigation. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 1-8). Plaintiff will vigorously, adequately, 13 and fairly represent the interests of the Class. Plaintiff has, at all times, throughout the course of the 14 litigation considered the interests of the Class and understood that she must take steps to adequately 15 represent the Class and their interests. (Baker Decl., ¶ 10). Because Plaintiff's claims are typical of other 16 Class Members and are not based on unique circumstances, there is no antagonism between the interests 17 of Plaintiff and the Class.

18 C. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

19 Under the circumstances, proceeding as a class action is a superior means of resolving this dispute, 20 as the Class Members and the Court will derive substantial benefits. Class certification would serve as 21 the only means to deter and redress the alleged violations. (See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal.4th 429, 22 434 (2000) (relevant considerations include the probability that each class member will come forward to 23 prove his or her separate claim and whether the class approach would actually serve to deter and redress 24 the alleged wrongdoing)). Further, individual actions arising out of the same operative facts would 25 unduly burden the courts and could result in inconsistent results. Therefore, class action proceedings are 26 superior to individual litigation.

27 ///

28 ///

1 VII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS REASONABLE

2 Plaintiffs in class action lawsuits are eligible for reasonable incentive payments as compensation
3 “for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz 4 v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 (2010)). Courts routinely grant approval of 5 class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representative, which are 6 necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class
7 representatives help to bring about for the class. (See In re Online DVD Rental, 779 F.3d 934, 947-948
8 (9th Cir. 2014) (approving incentive award 417 times larger than individual payments where incentive 9 award made up a mere .17% of the settlement); Gaudin v. Saxon Mortgage Servs., Inc., 2015 WL 10 7454183, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 23, 2015) (finding service award of $15,000 to be “fair and 11 reasonable”)).

12 Plaintiff initiated this litigation on behalf of her former co-workers who will now be entitled to 13 receive payment from the Settlement. Plaintiff invested substantial time and effort into litigation, 14 including her own research, reviewing documents, and extensive discussions with Class Counsel. (Baker 15 Decl., ¶¶ 3-5). Further, the requested amount for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the average award and 16 the benefit gained by other Class Members. For these reasons, Plaintiff requests that an Enhancement 17 Payment of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) to Plaintiff be preliminarily approved by 18 the Court. (Rose Decl., ¶ 43; Baker Decl., ¶ 12).

19 VIII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE

20 Trial courts have “wide latitude” in assessing the value of attorneys’ fees and their decisions are 21 “not to be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal, Inc., 82 22 Cal.App.4th 19, 41 (2000)). California law provides that attorney fee awards should be equivalent to fees 23 paid in the legal marketplace to compensate for the result achieved and risk incurred. (Id. at 47). In cases 24 where class members present claims against a common fund and the defendant agrees to a percentage of 25 the fund as part of the settlement, use of the percentage method is appropriate. (Id. at 32).

26 Here, the requested attorneys’ fees of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., 27 $283,333.33 if the Gross Settlement Amount is $850,000.00) is disclosed to Class Members in the 28 proposed Class Notice. (Settlement Agreement, Exh. A). The requested fee was freely negotiated, is common in the legal marketplace, and is not opposed by Defendant. The Motion for Final Approval will elaborate on the nature of the legal services provided and will also support Class Counsel's request for the reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses not to exceed Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($25,000.00). (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 43 and 45). The Attorneys' Fees and Costs that are not ultimately approved by the Court shall instead be included in the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Settlement Class Members. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 15).

IX. THE CLASS NOTICE AND THE OPT-OUT AND OBJECTION PROCESS
MEETS DUE PROCESS REQUIREMENTS

The Parties have jointly drafted the Class Notice, which will be mailed to the Class Members. (Id., Exh. A). The Class Notice will include information regarding the nature of the Action, a summary of the terms of the Settlement, the Class definition, information on how to object to and/or opt-out of the Class Settlement and to dispute PAGA Workweeks and/or Workweeks, and the date of the Final Approval Hearing. (Ibid.). The Class Notice will list each Class Member's total Workweeks and their estimated Individual Settlement Share and each PAGA Employee's total PAGA Workweeks and their estimated Individual PAGA Payment. (Ibid.).

Within fourteen (14) calendar days after entry of the preliminary approval order, Defendant will provide a list in a formatted readable Microsoft Office Excel spreadsheet to the Settlement Administrator containing the following information for each Class Member: (1) full name; (2) last known mailing address; (3) Social Security number; (4) dates worked for Defendant during the Class Period; and (8) such other information as is necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate Workweeks and PAGA Workweeks (if applicable) (collectively referred to as the "Class List"). (Id., ¶¶ 12.d and 29). Within seven (7) calendar days after receiving the Class List from Defendant, the Settlement Administrator will perform a search based on the National Change of Address Database or other similar services available, such as provided by Experian, for information to update and correct for any known or identifiable address changes, and will mail a Class Notice in English and Spanish to all Class Members via First-Class U.S. Mail, using the most current, known mailing addresses identified by the Settlement Administrator. (Id., ¶ 30.a). The Parties have agreed to use ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator. (Rose Decl., ¶ 46; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12.kk).

1 In determining whether to approve a settlement of a class action, a trial court has virtually 2 complete discretion as to the manner of giving notice to class members, and review on appeal is governed
3 by the abuse of discretion standard. (See In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380 4 (2010)). Here, Class Counsel is not aware of an alternative method of providing notice to the Class which 5 would result in a higher likelihood of actual notice. (Rose Decl., ¶ 47). The original source of the mailing 6 addresses is from Class Members, who provided the information to Defendant. (Ibid).

7 Class Members will have forty-five (45) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice 8 by the Settlement Administrator to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or 9 Workweeks Dispute (“Response Deadline”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 12.jj).

10 Any Class Notice returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable on or before the 11 Response Deadline will be sent promptly via First-Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding address affixed 12 thereto and the Settlement Administrator will indicate the date of such re-mailing on the Class Notice.
13 (Id., ¶ 30.b). If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt 14 to determine a correct address using a skip-trace or other search, using the name, address, and/or Social 15 Security number of the Class Member, and perform a single re-mailing within five (5) calendar days.
16 (Ibid). In the event that a Class Notice is re-mailed to a Class Member, the Response Deadline for that 17 Class Member shall be extended fifteen (15) calendar days from the original Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 18 12.jj).

19 Class Members will have an opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA 20 Workweeks to which they have been credited, as reflected in their respective Class Notices, by submitting 21 a timely and valid letter (“Workweeks Dispute”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked 22 on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 12.oo and 31). A Workweeks Dispute must: (a) contain the 23 case name and number of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name, signature, address, 24 telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of the Class Member’s Social Security number; (c) clearly 25 state that the Class Member disputes the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Workweek credited to that 26 Class Member and what the Class Member contends is the correct number; and (d) be returned by mail 27 to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline.
28 (Id., ¶ 6.oo).

Any Class Member wishing to be excluded from the Class Settlement must submit a timely and valid letter (“Request for Exclusion”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 12.ii and 32). A Request for Exclusion must: (a) contain the case name and number of the Action; (b) contain the Class Member’s full name, signature, address, telephone number, and last four (4) digits of the Class Member’s Social Security number; (c) clearly state that the Class Member does not wish to be included in the Class Settlement; and (d) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 12.ii). Notwithstanding the above, all PAGA Employees will be bound by the PAGA Settlement and will be issued their Individual PAGA Payment, irrespective of whether they submit a Request for Exclusion. (Id., ¶ 32).

To object to the Class Settlement, Settlement Class Members must submit a timely and complete written objection (“Notice of Objection”) to the Settlement Administrator, by mail, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶¶ 12.w and 33). A Notice of Objection must: (a) contain the case name and number of the Action; (b) contain the objector’s full name, signature, address, telephone number, and the last four (4) digits of the objector’s Social Security number; (c) contain a written statement of all grounds for the objection accompanied by any legal support for such objection; (d) contain copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents upon which the objection is based; and (e) be returned by mail to the Settlement Administrator at the specified address, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. (Id., ¶ 12.w). Settlement Class Members, individually or through counsel, may also present their objection orally at the Final Approval Hearing, regardless of whether they have submitted a Notice of Objection. (Id., ¶ 33).

X. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and the relief requested herein.

Respectfully submitted,
