Defendants.

Case No.: 24STCV10878

*Assigned for all purposes to:
Hon. Carolyn B. Kuhl, Dept. 12*

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF
CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

Date: September 24, 2025
Time: 10:30 a.m.
Dept.: 12

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on September 24, 2025 at 10:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard in Department 12 of the above-entitled Court, located at 111 N. Hill Street, Los Angeles California 90012, Plaintiff Katelyn Ramos (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move this Court for an Order:

1. Granting preliminary approval of the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement”);
2. Conditionally certifying the proposed Class for settlement purposes only;
3. Appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative;
4. Appointing Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel;
5. Appointing Apex Class Action Administration as the Settlement Administrator; and
6. Setting a final approval hearing date.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), this Motion is made on the grounds that the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for preliminary approval and falls well within the range of reasonableness. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm’s length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral, and Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel will fairly and adequately represent the Class.

This Motion is based on this Notice of Motion, the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of Lisa B. Iturriaga, the Declaration of Katelyn Ramos, the Declaration of Sean Hartranft and on all records and documents on file, together with such oral and documentary evidence that may be presented at the hearing on this matter.

Statutes

Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382.....	7
---------------------------------	---

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims, including representative claims brought under the Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), against Defendant Cutlet Beverly Hills, L.P. dba Jon & Vinny's ("Defendant"). The proposed Class is defined as all current and former hourly, non-exempt employees, in the State of California ("Class Members") during the Class Period of April 30, 2020 to February 21, 2025 ("Class Period"). The main terms of the Settlement are as follows:

1. A Gross Settlement Amount of $106,800.00, which will be distributed to approximately 201 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the total workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period;
2. Attorneys' fees of up to one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently $35,600.00) and up to $21,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs to Plaintiff's Counsel;
3. A class representative service payment of up to $5,000.00 to Plaintiff;
4. Costs of settlement administration of up to $8,300.00; and
5. Allocation of $10,000.00 to PAGA penalties, seventy-five percent (75%) of which ($7,500.00) will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"), and twenty-five percent (25%) of which ($2,500.00) will be paid to Class Members employed by Defendant during the PAGA Period of May 1, 2023 to February 21, 2025. ("Aggrieved Employees").

The Settlement meets all criteria for preliminary approval and falls within the range of reasonableness given the risks and expenses of further litigation. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm's length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral. As such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint Apex Class Action

Administration as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to administer notice of the Settlement to the Class, and set a final approval hearing date.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 30, 2024, Plaintiff filed this action as a putative class action against Defendant alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failure to produce requested employment records; and (9) unfair business practices. Declaration of Lisa B. Iturriaga in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Iturriaga Decl.”) at ¶ 3.

On May 1, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant of her intention to file a PAGA claim. Iturriaga Decl. at ¶ 4. The LWDA did not notify Plaintiff that it intended to investigate within 65 days of this written notice. Id. Therefore, on July 8, 2024, Plaintiff filed a separate action alleging a claim under PAGA, Case No. 24STCV16810 (the “PAGA Action”). Id.

The Parties subsequently participated in a private mediation with mediator Katherine J. Edwards on February 14, 2025. Id. at ¶ 5. Shortly thereafter, the mediator made a proposal, which was accepted by both parties. Id.

On May 5, 2025, Parties filed a Joint Stipulation for Leave to File an Amended Consolidated Complaint. Id. at ¶ 6. On June 4, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Operative Complaint”). Id.

The parties negotiated the terms of the Settlement over the next several months, which was finalized in June 2025. Id. at ¶ 7, Exhibit 1 (“Settlement Agreement”). On July 10, 2025, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. Id. at ¶ 8, Exhibit 2.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

A. Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The parties have agreed to settle the claims alleged in this case and the related PAGA Action for a Gross Settlement Amount of $106,800.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.1. Subject to Court approval, the following payments will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) a class representative service payment of up to $5,000.00 to Plaintiff; (2) attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently $35,600.00) and reimbursement of litigation costs of up to $21,000.00 to Plaintiff's Counsel; (3) costs of settlement administration of up to $8,300.00 to Apex Class Action Administration; (4) individual class payments to Class Members; and (5) PAGA penalties in the amount of $10,000.00, which will be allocated 75% to the LWDA ($7,500) and 25% to Aggrieved Employees ($2,500.00). Id. at § 3.2.1-3.2.5 After all requested deductions are made, the remaining Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $26,900.00.

Individual class payments will be calculated based on the number of workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period. Id. at § 3.2.4. For tax purposes, the individual class payments will be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to penalties, interest, and reimbursement of expenses. Id. at § 3.2.4.1. Defendant will separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the wage positions of the individual class payments separate from the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at 3.1.

Individual PAGA payments to Aggrieved employees will be calculated based on the number of pay periods worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period. Id. at § 3.2.5.1. For tax purposes, the individual PAGA payments will be allocated 100% to penalties. Id.

Any deductions not approved by the Court will be retained by the Settlement Administrator in the Net Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.2. Funds from any uncashed checks will be transmitted by the Settlement Administrator to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fundy in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). Id. at § 4.4.3. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Id. at § 3.1.

B. Proposed Settlement Administration

The parties' proposed Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of Court, Rule 3.766(d). See Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement. It provides information regarding the nature of this lawsuit, a summary of the settlement terms, the formula used for calculating individual class and PAGA payments and instructions to dispute the calculations, instructions on

1 how to opt-out of or object to the Settlement, the date, time, and location of the final approval 2 hearing, and the amounts sought for the class representative service payment, attorneys' fees and 3 litigation costs, and settlement administration costs. See generally, id. The Class Notice also 4 notifies Class Members that they do not need to submit a claim in order to participate in the 5 Settlement and receive a payment. See id. The Settlement Administrator will mail Class Members
6 the Class Notice by first-class mail in English and in Spanish. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.2.

7 If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the 8 Class Notice within five (5) calendar days to the forwarding address provided by the U.S. Postal 9 Service. Id. at § 7.4.3. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will 10 conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address
11 obtained. Id. The deadline to opt-out of the Settlement or to submit an objection or dispute will be 12 extended by 14 days for all Class Members whose Class Notice was remailed. Id. at §7.4.4.

13 C. Proposed Release

14 All Participating Class Members will waive and release all claims, rights, demands, 15 liabilities, and causes of action alleged, or which could have reasonably been alleged based on the 16 facts alleged in the operative Class Action Complaint during the Class Period. Settlement
17 Agreement at § 5.2.

18 Aggrieved Employees and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved
19 Employees will release all claims for PAGA civil penalties that are alleged or reasonably could 20 have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the operative PAGA Action Complaint. Id. at § 5.3.
21 Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release and a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. Id. at § 5.1.

22 IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MEETS ALL CRITERIA FOR 23 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

24 A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

25 Class certification is appropriate when there is: (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently 26 numerous class; (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members; and (3) substantial
27 benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class superior to the alternatives. Brinker
28 Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Although courts still need to review and consider each element for certification, a lesser standard can be used to provisionally certify a settlement class. Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal.App.4th 836, 859 (2003).

1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

“Ascertainability” is determined by examining the class definition and the size of the class, and may also involve examining the means available to identify class members. Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-981, 985-986 (2019). As the settlement eliminates the need for trial, “the case management issues inherent in the ascertainable class determination need not be confronted.” Global Minerals, 113 Cal.App.4th at 859. Further, under California law, there is no minimum number of class members for maintenance of a class action. Hendershot v. Ready to Roll Transp., Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1222 (2014). Class sizes as small as 10 have been permitted. Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981), disapproved on other grounds by Noel, 7 Cal.5th at 986.

The Class here consists of all current and former hourly, non-exempt employees, in the State of California during the Class Period. See Settlement Agreement at §§ 1.5, 1.13. The Class is also readily ascertainable from Defendant’s business records, because all Class Members are or were employees of Defendant. Id. Defendant’s records show there are approximately 201 Class Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Iturriaga Decl. at ¶ 10.

2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists

The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1021.

a. Common Questions Predominate

In determining whether common issues “predominate,” courts consider both plaintiff’s legal theories and defendant’s affirmative defenses. Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat’l Ass’n, 59 Cal.4th 1, 28-29 (2014). The “predominate common questions” factor does not require that all class members have identical claims. Ayala v. Antelope Valley Newspapers, Inc., 59 Cal.4th 522, 530 (2014). Rather, the focus is on whether issues shared by the class members are sufficiently uniform to 1 permit class-wide assessment, and whether individual variations in proof on those issues are 2 manageable. Id.

3 Plaintiff has alleged that Defendant maintained common employment policies and/or 4 practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal period, rest periods,
5 reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, and timely payment of wages
6 upon separation of employment. Iturriaga Decl. at ¶ 11. These allegations present common factual
7 and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping,
8 pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies to all Class Members, whether these 9 policies and practices resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendant's conduct was 10 intention, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. Id. These common 11 questions could be resolved using Class Members' time records, payroll records, testimony from 12 Defendant's designated representative(s), and Class Members' testimony. Id. Therefore, the Court
13 can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement 14 purposes.

15 b. Plaintiff is Typical of the Class

16 Typicality does not require that the representative plaintiff's claims and those of the class
17 members be identical or perfectly aligned. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224,
18 228 (2001), disapproved on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc., 4 Cal.5th 19 260, 269-280 (2018). Typicality does not require that a plaintiff's claims be identical to those of 20 other class members, only that their claims and the defenses applicable to them are sufficiently 21 similar to those of other class members that a named plaintiff is able to adequately represent the 22 class and focus on common issues. Medraza v. Honda of North Hollywood, 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 23 99 (2008).

24 Plaintiff has alleged that she and Class Members were employed by the same Defendant
25 and injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant's
26 scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies. See Iturriaga 27 Decl. at ¶ 11. Through informal discovery, including the production of thousands of documents by 28 Defendant, Plaintiff confirmed that these challenged policies and practices applied to Plaintiff as

1 well as Class Members. See id. at ¶ 9. Therefore, Plaintiff’s claims and Class Members’ claims 2 arise from the same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal 3 theories.

4 c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class

5 Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative and of the 6 proposed class counsel. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. “Only a conflict that goes to the very subject
7 matter of the litigation will defeat a party’s claim of representative status.” Richmond v. Dart
8 Industries, 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 (1981). Only conflicts that are “irreconcilable” can defeat adequacy.
9 Nat’l Solar Equip. Owners’ Ass’n v. Grumman Corp., 235 Cal.App.3d 1273, 1286 (1991). The 10 proposed representative Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel present no such conflict.

11 Plaintiff’s interests are coextensive with Class Members’ interests. Declaration of Katelyn 12 Ramos in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval (“Ramos Decl.”) at ¶ 6. Plaintiff has 13 demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of Class Members by initiating this lawsuit,
14 gathering documents and information, being available on the day of mediation to answer questions,
15 meeting with her attorneys to understand the claims and theories of liability at issue, assisting her 16 attorneys in preparation for mediation, and reviewing the proposed Settlement. Id. at ¶ 7.

17 Likewise, Wilshire Law Firm has expended considerable time and effort on this case and 18 will continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Iturriaga Decl. Therefore, Plaintiff
19 should be appointed Class Representative, and her counsel should be appointed Class Counsel.

20 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

21 Courts have held that class treatment of wage and hour claims is clearly “superior to the 22 other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.” Dean Witter
23 Reynolds, Inc. v. Superior Court, 211 Cal.App.3d 758, 772-773 (1989). This is so because “[p]ublic 24 policy has long favored the ‘full and prompt payment of wages due an employee.’” Sav-On Drug
25 Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 (2004). Here, a class action is superior to a
26 multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of each Class Members’ claim, Class 27 Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-28 pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweighs any

1 potential recovery. Iturriaga Decl. at ¶ 10. Therefore, a class action is the superior method for 2 seeking relief.

3 B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

4 The moving party must demonstrate that “the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable.”
5 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 126 (2008). “In determining whether a 6 class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors,
7 such as the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 8 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, 9 the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of 10 counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 11 proposed settlement.” Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-245 (internal quotations and citations 12 omitted).

13 1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

14 A settlement is entitled to “a presumption of fairness . . . where : (1) the settlement is 15 reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow 16 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4)
17 the percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).
18 The Settlement here satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at final 19 approval after Class Members have been notified of the Settlement and provided with an 20 opportunity to object.

21 a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm’s Length Negotiation

22 Courts have recognized that the involvement of a respected mediator provides a high degree
23 of assurance that the settlement is the result of arm’s length bargaining. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc.,
24 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-53 (2008). The Settlement in this matter was the product of a full-day 25 mediation session with a respected mediator. Iturriaga Decl. at ¶ 5. The negotiations were 26 adversarial, conducted at arm’s length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the 27 interests of their clients. Id.

28 ///

1 b. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery Have Been Conducted

2 Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims,
3 applicable law, and potential defenses. Id. at ¶ 9. Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value to the class
4 claims using the documents and data Defendant produced in informal discovery, including class
5 data providing the number of Class Members, the number of workweeks in the Class Period, and 6 the number of pay periods in the PAGA Period, Plaintiff's personnel file, employment handbook
7 and policies, job descriptions, and a 91% random sampling of time and payroll records. Id.

8 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

9 Plaintiff is represented by Wilshire Law Firm. Id. at ¶ 19. Plaintiff's Counsel has extensive 10 experience litigating wage and hour class actions on behalf of employees. See id. at ¶¶ 20-31.
11 Plaintiff's Counsel have been involved as counsel in numerous class actions that have resulted in 12 millions of dollars in recovery. See id.

13 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims
14 and the Risks and Expense of Further Litigation

15 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered fair 16 and reasonable. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Although 17 the exposure Plaintiff's Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks at succeeding at class
18 certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for settlement purposes. Iturriaga 19 Decl. at ¶ 12.

20 Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiff's unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims
21 were based on the allegation that Defendant required Class Members to perform work duties before
22 clocking in. Id. at ¶ 13. Based on Plaintiff's estimate that she worked a total of 1 hour off-the-clock
23 each week, Plaintiff's Counsel assumed each Class Member worked 1-hour off-the-clock per week
24 in calculating potential exposure to be approximately $145,141.20 for these claims. Id. However, 25 Defendant argued that any off-the-clock time was undocumented and unknown to Defendant, and 26 that Defendant was therefore not obligated to pay for this time. Id. Because this claim would have 27 relied heavily on Class Member testimony and would not be evidenced in Defendant's time and 28 payroll records, the risk of succeeding at class certification was substantial. Id. Accordingly,

Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 40% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $23,222.59 ($$145,141.20 \times 40\% \times 40\%$), or 22% of the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.

Meal Periods: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant failed to maintain a policy and practice of paying meal period premiums when its time records showed Class Members' meal periods were late, short, or missed. Id. at ¶ 14. Plaintiff's Counsel found a violation rate of approximately 21.2% in Defendant's time and payroll records and calculated potential exposure on this claim to be approximately $71,850.29. Id. However, Defendant argued that Class Members signed meal period waivers. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 50% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $14,370.06 ($$71,850.29 \times 50\% \times 40\%$), or 13% of the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.

Rest Breaks: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant failed to relieve Class Members of all duties during rest periods. Id. at ¶ 15. Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts over 3.5 hours and calculated a potential exposure of $338,916.48 for this claim. Id. However, Defendant argued that a 100% violation rate was unrealistic. Id. Because this claim would have relied exclusively on Class Member testimony, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 30% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 20% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $20,334.99 ($$338,916.48 \times 30\% \times 20\%$), or 19% of the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.

Reimbursements: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based on the allegation that Defendant required Class Members to use their personal cell phones daily and purchase non-slip shoes to carry out their job duties. Id. at ¶ 16. Based on Plaintiff's estimate that she incurred $30 in unreimbursed expenses per month, Plaintiff's Counsel assumed each Class Member incurred $30 in unreimbursed expenses per month in calculating potential exposure to be approximately $40,050.00 for this claim. Id. However, Defendant argued that these expenses were not required

1 by Defendant, and that it could not have known that these expenses were being incurred. Id.
2 Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 50% chance of succeeding at 3 class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage
4 estimate of approximately $8,010.00 ($$40,050.00 \times 50\% \times 40\%$), or 8% of the Gross Settlement
5 Amount. Id.

6 Derivative Penalties: Plaintiff alleged that as a result of Defendant's alleged failure to pay
7 all wages and meal and rest period premiums owed, Defendant owed waiting time penalties and 8 wage statement penalties. Id. at ¶ 17. However, Defendant argued that it had good faith defenses
9 that made the imposition of these penalties unwarranted. Id. Moreover, Plaintiff could not recover
10 these penalties if they failed to prove the underlying claims. Id. Plaintiff's Counsel calculated that 11 potential exposure for the waiting time penalty claim was approximately $336,464.00 (assuming 12 30 days per employee at 6.6 hours per day, based on the average hours per shift), and approximately 13 $277,400.00 for the wage statement penalty claim (based on $50 for the first violations and $100 14 for subsequent violations, with a $4,000 employee maximum). Id. However, considering that the 15 underlying claims are realistically estimated to be $65,937.64, such a disproportionate award
16 would also raise due process concerns. Id. As such, Plaintiff discounted the figure to account for 17 the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of $20,187.84
18 ($$336,464.00 \times 30\% \times 20\%$) for waiting time penalty claims, or 19% of the Gross Settlement
19 Amount and $16,644.00 ($$277,400.00 \times 30\% \times 20\%$) for wage statement penalty claims, or 16%
20 of the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.

21 PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that Defendant's potential 22 exposure could potentially reach $255,100.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would apply for 23 each of the 2,551 pay periods in the PAGA Period. Id. at ¶ 18. However, even assuming success
24 on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a variety of 25 reasons, including where to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and 26 oppressive, or confiscatory. Id. Therefore, the settlement allocates $10,000.00 of the Gross 27 Settlement Amount to PAGA, which amounts to approximately $4 per pay period. Id.

C. The Requested Service Payment is Reasonable

Plaintiff seeks a class representative service payment of up to $5,000.00 for accepting the responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and potential costs that were not borne by any other Class Member. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1. A named plaintiff is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates her for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393 (2010); Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004).

Throughout this case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in gathering evidence necessary to prosecute the claims, maintained regular contact with counsel, was available on the day of mediation to answer questions, and reviewed the Settlement to ensure it was fair to the Class. Ramos Decl. at ¶ 7. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th at 340. The requested class representative service payment is reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff has provided a declaration regarding her work performed to date and will provide additional information as requested or required by the Court at final approval.

D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equaling one-third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66, fn. 11 ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

Plaintiff seeks appointment of Wilshire Law Firm as Class Counsel. The attorneys performed significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no guarantee of payment. Iturriaga Decl. at ¶ 19. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval for $35,600.00 in attorneys' fees, which is up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and up to 1 $21,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the 2 extensive information exchange, and the substantial recovery obtained on behalf of the Class,

3 Plaintiff's Counsel achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally,
4 Iturriaga Decl. At final approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the 5 award of attorneys' fees and litigation costs.

6 V. CONCLUSION

7 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the class claims in light of 8 the risks presented in this case. Plaintiff has presented the materials and information necessary to 9 demonstrate that the requirements for preliminary approval have been met, and therefore 10 respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement and schedule a date for 11 the final approval hearing.
