*[Assigned for All Purposes to the Hon. Robert
T. Waters, Dept. 11B]*

DECLARATION OF JOHN G. YSLAS IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF
CLASS ACTION AND PAGA
SETTLEMENT

Preliminary Approval Hearing:

Date:

Time:

Dept: 11B

Action Filed: May 1, 2024

I, John G. Yslas, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law licensed to practice before all of the courts of the State of California. I am a senior partner at Wilshire Law Firm, PLC (“WLF”), counsel for Plaintiff Joseph Alberto Rodriguez (“Plaintiff”) in this matter. I am thoroughly familiar with and have personal knowledge of all the facts set forth herein.

2. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement.

3. On May 1, 2024, Plaintiff filed this putative class action against Defendant Frank C. Alegre Trucking, Inc. (“Defendant”) alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failure to produce requested employment records; and (9) unfair business practices (“Class Action”).

4. On May 1, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant of the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories in support. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's PAGA letter to the LWDA and Defendant is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The LWDA did not notify Plaintiff that intended to investigate within 65 days of this written notice. Therefore, on July 9, 2024, Plaintiff filed a separate action for civil penalties under PAGA, San Joaquin County Superior Court Case No. STK-CV-UOE-2024-0008038 ("PAGA Action"). On August 26, 2024, The Court ordered the Class Action and PAGA Action related.

5. On April 29, 2025, the Parties participated in a private all-day mediation with mediator Deborah Crandall Saxe, Esq. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients.

6. With the mediator's assistance, the Parties reached an agreement to settle the Class Action and PAGA Action. The Parties finalized the Settlement Agreement in October 2025. A true and correct copy of the fully executed Settlement Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. Attached thereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the Parties' proposed Class Notice.

7. On January 27, 2026, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. A true and correct copy of the confirmation of submission my office received after submitting the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

Investigation and Exposure Analysis

8. Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value to the claims using the data and documents Defendant produced in informal discovery, including the number of Class Members and Workweeks during the Class Period, the number of Aggrieved Employees and PAGA Periods during the PAGA Period, the average rate of pay for Class Members, all documents concerning Plaintiff, Defendant's wage and hour policy documents, Defendant's handbooks, and timekeeping and payroll records for Class Members. Plaintiff's Counsel engaged an expert to quantify the potential exposure using the time and payroll records, and then assessed the risks associated with each claim meriting reductions in the likely success at class certification and likely recovery at trial.

9. Defendant's records show that there are approximately 422 Class Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Further, given the size and amount of each Class Members' claim, Class Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweigh any potential recovery.

10. Plaintiff has alleged that Defendant maintained common employment policies and/or practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal periods, rest periods, reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, timely payment of wages upon separation of employment, and timely production of requested employment records. These allegations present common factual and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied

1 the same scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and employment
2 records production policies to all Class Members, whether these policies and practices resulted in
3 Labor Code violations, whether Defendant's conduct was intentional, and whether Class Members
4 are entitled to damages and/or penalties. These common questions could be resolved using Class
5 Members' time records, payroll records, testimony from Defendant's designated representative(s),
6 and Class Members' testimony.

7 11. Although the exposure Plaintiff's Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks
8 at succeeding at class certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for 9 settlement purposes. Based on an analysis of the facts and legal contentions in this case, documents
10 and information from Defendant, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated Defendant's maximum exposure.
11 Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not having the claims certified and the risk of not 12 prevailing at trial, even if the claims are certified. After using the data Defendant provided,
13 including class member timekeeping and payroll records, as well as class member demographics,
14 with the assistance of a statistics expert, Plaintiff's Counsel created a damages model to evaluate 15 the realistic range of potential recovery for the class. The damages model is based on the following 16 benchmarks:

- 17 a. Total Class Members: 422
- 18 b. Total Workweeks: 844
- 19 c. PAGA Pay Periods: 5,006
- 20 d. Aggrieved Employees: 357
- 21 e. Average Hourly Rate of Pay: $20.00

22 12. Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiff's unpaid minimum and overtime wage
23 claims were based on the allegation that Defendant required Class Members to routinely perform
24 work duties off the clock. For example, Plaintiff alleges that he and other Class Members were 25 regularly required to complete a multitude of tasks both before and after their shifts, such as 26 performing pre-shift and post-shift truck inspections, without compensation. Based on these 27 allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel conservatively estimated that Class Members worked 50 minutes
28 off the clock per week as overtime in calculating potential exposure to be approximately

1 $21,015.60 for these claims (844 workweeks x $20.00 hourly rate x 1.5 overtime rate of pay x 0.83
2 hour of unpaid work per workweek). Defendant argued that it prohibits off-the-clock work and that
3 any off-the-clock work performed by Class Members was at their own election and without
4 Defendant's knowledge. Because this claim would have relied heavily on Class Member testimony
5 and would not be evidenced in Defendant's time and payroll records, the risk of succeeding at class
6 certification was substantial. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 7 40% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the
8 merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $3,362.50 ($$21,015.60 \times 40\% \times$ 9 40%).

10 13. Meal Periods: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that 11 Defendant failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant meal periods or pay meal period
12 premiums in lieu thereof. For example, Plaintiff alleges that he and the other Class Members 13 regularly experienced missed, late, short, and/or interrupted meal periods while working for 14 Defendant. Plaintiff alleges that he and other Class Members were forced to find any downtime to 15 eat as fast as possible then continue working because Defendant did not provide them with legally
16 compliant meal periods. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation
17 rate to all shifts. Therefore, potential liability for the meal period claims is approximately 18 $84,400.00 (approximately 4,220 shifts x $20.00 hourly rate x 100% violation rate). However,
19 Defendant argued that Defendant is not required to comply with California's meal period
20 requirements because it is an interstate motor carrier, and that in any event, it nonetheless provided
21 Class Members with meal periods, and if none were recorded, it was the Class Member's own
22 fault. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 50% chance of 23 succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a 24 realistic damage estimate of approximately $16,880.00 ($$84,400.00 \times 50\% \times 40\%$).

25 14. Rest Periods: Plaintiff's rest period claim was based on the allegation that
26 Defendant failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant rest periods or pay rest
27 period premiums in lieu thereof. For example, Plaintiff alleges that he and the other Class
28 Members generally were not provided with any rest periods while working for Defendant. Based

1 on these allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts. Therefore,
2 potential liability for the rest period claims is approximately $84,400.00 (approximately 4,220
3 shifts x $20.00 hourly rate x 100% violation rate). However, Defendant argued that it is not
4 required to comply with California's rest period requirements because it is an interstate motor
5 carrier, and that in any event, it nonetheless provided Class Members with rest periods, but if
6 none were taken, it was the Class Member's own fault. Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this figure 7 to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving rest period claims, particularly because
8 rest periods do not have to be recorded, and to account for the possibility of Class Members
9 voluntarily choosing to forego a rest period. Because this claim would have relied exclusively
10 on Class Member testimony, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this claim based on a 30% chance
11 of succeeding at class certification and a 20% chance of succeeding at trial, yielding a realistic
12 damage estimate of approximately $5,064.00 ($84,400.00 x 30% x 20%).

13 15. In sum, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Plaintiff's maximum recovery for the off-14 the-clock claim, meal period violations, and rest period violations (i.e. wage claims) is 15 approximately $189,815.60, but after factoring in the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at 16 certification and trial, Plaintiff's Counsel estimates that Plaintiff's realistic estimated recovery for 17 the wage claims is approximately $25,306.50.

18 16. Reimbursements: Reimbursements: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based 19 on the allegation that Defendant failed to indemnify Class Members for expenses incurred as a
20 direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant. After reviewing the information
21 provided by Defendants, Class Counsel determined that Defendant provided some 22 reimbursement to Class Members. Accordingly, Class Counsel could not attribute substantial 23 settlement value to this claim.

24 17. Derivative Penalties: Plaintiff alleged that as a result of Defendant's failure to pay
25 all wages owed, Defendant owed waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties. With respect
26 to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory penalties, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that 27 Defendant's realistic potential liability is approximately $140,133.00. Defendant's maximum 28 potential liability for waiting time penalties is approximately $1,852,800.00 (386 employees x

1 $20.00 hourly rate x 8.00 hours/day x 30 days) based on approximately 386 former employees
2 during the 3-year statute of limitations period. Defendant's maximum potential liability for 3 inaccurate wage statements is approximately $482,750.00 ([357 employees x 1 initial
4 violation/employee x $50 for an initial violation] + [(5,006 pay periods - 357 initial violations) x
5 $100 for each subsequent violation]) based on approximately 357 class members who worked
6 during the 1-year statute of limitations period and approximately 5,006 pay periods in that statutory 7 timeframe. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believes that it would be unrealistic to 8 expect the Court to award the full $2,335,550.00 in penalties given Defendant's defenses, the 9 contested nature of Plaintiff's claims, the challenges of establishing willfulness as applicable, and 10 the discretionary nature of penalties. Considering that the underlying wage claims are realistically
11 estimated to be approximately $25,306.50, such a disproportionate award would also raise due
12 process concerns. As such, Plaintiff's counsel discounted these figures to account for the risk and 13 uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately $111,168.00
14 for waiting time penalty claims ($1,852,800.00 x 30% x 20%), and approximately $28,965.00 for 15 wage statement penalty claims ($482,750.00 x 30% x 20%), or approximately $140,133.00 total
16 for statutory penalties.

17 18. PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that Defendant's 18 potential exposure could potentially reach $500,600.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would 19 apply for each of the approximate 5,006 pay periods in the PAGA Period. However, even assuming 20 success on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a
21 variety of reasons, including where to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary
22 and oppressive, or confiscatory. As such, Plaintiff's counsel discounted this figure to account for 23 the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately 24 $50,060.00 ($500,600.00 x 10%) for PAGA penalties. The settlement allocates $10,000.00 of the 25 Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA, therefore the realistic maximum damages for PAGA penalties
26 amount to approximately 20% of the PAGA allocation ($10,000.00 / $50,060.00).

27 19. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff's Counsel predicted that the realistic 28 maximum recovery for all claims, including penalties, would be approximately $215,499.50.

1 This means that the realistic maximum recovery represents approximately 98% of the 2 $220,000.00 gross settlement figure ($215,499.50 / $220,000.00). Considering the risk and
3 uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class.
4 Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed
5 relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

6 20. The Net Settlement Amount available for class settlement payments is currently
7 estimated to be $94,666.67 for approximately 422 Class Members. As a result, each Settlement
8 Class Member would be eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $224.33.

9 Plaintiff's Counsel's Qualifications

10 21. Plaintiff is represented by WLF. The attorneys at WLF performed significant work
11 and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no guarantee of payment.

12 22. WLF was selected by Best Lawyers and U.S. News & World Report as one of the 13 nation's Best Law Firms since 2020 and is comprised of more than 100 attorneys and over 600
14 employees. WLF is actively and continuously practicing in employment litigation, representing 15 employees in both individual and class actions in both state and federal courts throughout 16 California.

17 23. WLF is qualified to handle this Litigation because its attorneys are experienced in 18 litigating Labor Code violations in both individual, class action, and representative action cases.
19 WLF has handled, and is currently handling, numerous wage and hour class action lawsuits, as 20 well as class actions involving consumer rights and data privacy litigation.

21 24. I graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara with High Honors in 22 1991 with Bachelor of Arts degrees in Psychology. I received my Juris Doctor from UCLA Law
23 School in 1996.

24 25. Upon graduating from law school in 1996, I worked for a boutique law firm
25 practicing general litigation which included employment law matters. Since 2000 (that is, the last 26 23 years) my practice has been exclusively focused on labor and employment matters including 27 handling wage and hour class, collective and representative actions (including the California 28 Private Attorneys General Act, or "PAGA"), including in the international law firms of Morgan,

1 Lewis & Bockius LLP (where I was a senior associate), Foley & Lardner LLP (where I was a
2 partner and a national Vice Chair of the Labor and Employment Group), Norton Rose Fulbright
3 LLP (where I was a partner) and Seyfarth Shaw (where I was a partner and member of the Wage
4 and Hour Practice Group). During my time at these law firms, I was the primary attorney or took 5 a major leading role in defending employers on numerous wage and hour class, collective and 6 representative actions.

7 26. In 2022 I left Seyfarth Shaw and joined my current firm, WLF, to represent plaintiff
8 employees. I have been and am handling many wage and hour class and representative actions
9 litigating such matters on behalf of plaintiff employees in numerous Superior Courts and District
10 Courts. From matters representing both plaintiffs and defendants, I have successfully mediated the 11 resolution of many wage and hour class, collective, and representative actions. Just since last year
12 after joining WLF (and thus joining the plaintiff's bar) I have already successfully mediated
13 matters in which I have been counsel or co-counsel resulting in well over $200 million in 14 settlements which are in the process of being finalized, and with numerous upcoming mediations
15 scheduled. In those and numerous other matters, I have managed and assisted with the litigation
16 and settlement of many wage and hour PAGA and class actions. In those actions, I performed
17 similar tasks as those performed in the course of prosecuting this action. Indeed, I recently tried 18 and prevailed in achieving a jury verdict in a wage and hour class action in the matter of Aguilar-
19 Flores v. Javier's – CC LLC, Los Angeles County Superior Court, Case No. 19STCV36438 (settled 20 after verdict).

21 27. I have received numerous awards for my legal work. For example, from 2015 to 22 2018, I was listed in Los Angeles Super Lawyers for Employment Litigation (Thomson Reuters).
23 have also served on numerous prominent boards and in other leadership positions, including
24 currently serving as Southern California Regional President for the Hispanic National Bar
25 Association and on the board of directors of the Mexican American Bar Foundation. I also 26 previously served on the 5-member Los Angeles Civil Service Commission, which generally
27 oversees the personnel decisions for the City of Angeles.

28 ///

1 28. I have also published numerous blogs on labor and employment issues including on 2 wage and hour issues. For example, I published “Headline News: Wal-Mart v. Dukes-Impact on 3 Class Action Litigation” (while a partner with Foley & Lardner LLP) and “Are You Really
4 Protected From Wage-and-Hour Successor Liability in an Asset Purchase” (while a partner with 5 Seyfarth Shaw LLP). I have also been a presenter at numerous conferences, including being a
6 presenter involving the “Employment Law Update” at a National Employment Law Council
7 conference.

8 29. Eugene Zinovyev (“Mr. Zinovyev”) is a Junior Partner at WLF. He graduated from 9 the University of California, Berkeley, with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Economy of Industrial
10 Societies, and received his Juris Doctor from the University of California, San Francisco School
11 of Law in 2009. He has since practiced employment and wage and hour law on both the plaintiff
12 and defense sides. Mr. Zinovyev has tried multiple jury cases to verdict as well as numerous bench
13 trials. He has also briefed published appellate court decisions in both state and federal court. Mr.
14 Zinovyev is admitted to practice before all Federal District Courts in California as well as the 9th
15 Circuit Court of Appeals. He is also a member of the California Employment Lawyers Association.
16 He has mediated and settled dozens of class and representative actions as well as individual civil 17 matters.

18 30. John Brown (“Mr. Brown”) is an Associate Attorney at WLF. He was admitted to 19 practice law in the State of California in 2004. Mr. Brown graduated from UC Berkeley with a 20 Bachelor of Arts and received his Juris Doctor from The UCLA School of Law. His current practice
21 has been focused on class action employment law. Mr. Brown has participated in dozens of 22 settlements totaling tens of millions of dollars, from the memorandum of understanding and 23 settlement agreement drafting stage through to final approvals from the court.

24 31. Gabriella Solé (“Ms. Solé”) is a third-year Associate Attorney at WLF. She was 25 admitted to practice law in the State of California in 2022. Gabriella graduated from University of Re: Joseph Rodriguez v. Frank C. Alegre Trucking, Inc.

Notice of Labor Code Violations and PAGA Penalties

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Joseph Rodriguez ("Mr. Rodriguez" or "Employee") to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against Employee's former employers, Frank C. Alegre Trucking, Inc. ("FCAT" or "Employers"). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Employers engaged in with respect to Employee and potentially all of Employers' Aggrieved Employees.

Mr. Rodriguez wishes to pursue this action on behalf of Employees as Aggrieved Employees, on behalf of the State of California, as well as on behalf of potentially all other persons who worked for FCAT in California as a non-exempt or hourly-paid employee at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the "Aggrieved Employees").

Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Mr. Rodriguez's Employment with FCAT

FCAT is a bulk transportation trucking company. Employee was training as a bottoms driver. Employee's primary job function was to complete all training in order to assist in the loading and unloading of products into a semi-trailer truck to then transport them to the designated location. In performing Employee's duties, Employee was regularly required to perform work (off-the-clock), without compensation. Due to understaffing and high workloads, Employee was also frequently deprived of an opportunity to take legally compliant meal and rest breaks. Employers failed to provide Employee and other Aggrieved Employees with the meal and rest break premiums as required by the Labor Code. Additionally, Employee necessarily incurred business-related expenses, including, but without limitation, work attire and personal cellphone use, but Employers failed to reimburse such business-related expenses. These are just non-exhaustive examples of the facts and theories the Employee asserts, which are described in more detail below.

Employers own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California. As such and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Employers' business in California, Employers are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

Mr. Rodriguez is a resident of Stockton, California who worked for Employers in San Joaquin County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately October 2023 to approximately November 2023.

During Employee's employment for Employers, Employers paid Employee an hourly wage and classified Employee as non-exempt from overtime. Employers typically scheduled Employee to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Employee also worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

Throughout Employee's employment, Employers failed to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Employee with legally compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Employee to take rest periods, failed to timely pay all final wages to Employee when Employers terminated Employee's employment, failed to furnish accurate wage statements to Employee, failed to indemnify Employee for business expenditures, and failed to timely produce Employee's requested employment records. As discussed below, Employee's experience working for Employers was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, and Overtime Wages

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

Throughout the statutory period, Employers failed to pay Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Employers at time required Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to work "off-the-clock," uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Employee and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work during uncompensated meal periods and rest periods, and requiring

Employee and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work before clocking in and/or after clocking out. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. California Labor Code § 510 requires that employers compensate employees 1.5 times their regular rate of pay when employees work over eight hours per day, 40 hours per week, or when employees work up to eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek. Employers failed to properly calculate Employee's regular rate of pay when paying overtime, by failing to include all compensation in Employee's overtime calculations. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Employers also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, worked.

Throughout the statutory period, Employers also engaged in a practice of improper rounding. Under Camp v. Home Depot U.S.A., Inc. (2022) 84 Cal.App.5th 638, because Employers could and did track the exact time in minutes that Employee worked, they must pay for all time worked. When an employer uses an electronic timekeeping system to record time worked, this ability to "precisely capture time worked" means that "the employer must pay the employee for that worktime when due." (Id. At 671.) As a result of Employers' rounding policy, Employee consistently was not compensated at least minimum wage for all hours that Employee worked.

As a result, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Employers at times wrongfully failed to provide Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with their legally mandated 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period in a manner required by law (and also including but not limited to failing at times to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, the opportunity to leave the work premises to take meal periods). Employers also continued to assert control over Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, by, among other things, requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, permission to take a meal period under the conditions required by law, and without properly compensating Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for meal periods that were not provided as required by law. Employers also did not inform Employee of Employee's right to, nor permitted Employee to take, all of Employee's second meal periods when Employee worked at least ten hours of work in a workday and otherwise unlawfully pressured Employee to waive such breaks. Accordingly, Employers at times failed to provide meal periods to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, in compliance with California law.

Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s). Employers, however, at times failed to pay Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

As a result, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e., more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Throughout the statutory period, Employers at times have wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to take legally compliant rest periods in a manner required by law (and also including but not limited to failing, at times, to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, the opportunity to leave the work premises to take rest periods). Employers at times required Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Employers' authorizing and permitting Employee to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted.

Instead, Employers at times continued to assert control over Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or at times by denying Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Employers at times failed to authorize and permit Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to take rest periods in compliance with California law. Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Employers, however, at times failed to pay Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on Employers' failure at times to pay Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for all wages as discussed above, Employers also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, at times, Employers failed and refused to pay the Employee all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that Employee was not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Employers, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Employers, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Employers owe Employee the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

Employee seeks penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Employers, however, at times failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them.

Employers' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Employers' records. Therefore, Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Employers. As a direct result, Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorneys' fees in seeking to compel Employers to fully perform their obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Employers' knowing failure, at times, to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. Direct deposits of wages to an employee's bank, saving and loan, or credit union account that were previously authorized by the employee are immediately terminated when an employee quits or is discharged, and the payment of wages upon termination of employment in the manner described above shall apply unless the employee has voluntarily authorized that deposit and provided that the employer complies with the provisions of Labor Code § 213(d) relating to the payment of wages upon termination or quitting of employment.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Employee and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Employers at times failed, and continue at times to fail, to pay Employee and terminated Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Employers' employment. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages. Employers also violated, and continue to violate, Labor Code section 213(d) by paying final wages (if any are paid at all) via direct deposit without the employee's voluntary authorization.

Employers' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are entitled to recover from Employers their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination, and for unlawfully making any such payment (if any) via direct deposit without the employee's voluntary authorization.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

The statute further provides: "An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees." (Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).)

Throughout the statutory period, Employers at times failed to, and continue at times to fail, to timely furnish Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

Because Employers at times violated Labor Code § 226, Employee and similarly Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Employee and similarly Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are entitled to recover from Employers the greater of their actual damages caused by Employers' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee. Moreover, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to timely furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify their employees for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Employers at times wrongfully required Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Employers. Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, at times paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses. Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Employers, but Employers failed to indemnify Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for these employment-related expenses.

As a result, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to indemnify Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for necessary business expenditures.

Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records

Labor Code § 226 provides that current and former employees have the right to inspect or receive a copy of their records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable request to their employer. Under this statute, an employer that receives a request to inspect or receive a copy of records pertaining to a current or former employee must comply with the request as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the request. Labor Code § 1198.5(a) also provides that every current and former employee, or his or her representative, has the right to inspect and receive a copy of the personnel records that the employer maintains relating to the employees' performance or to any grievance concerning the employee. Under this statute, upon written request from a current or former employee or his or her representative, an employer must make the contents of those personnel records available for inspection or provide a copy of the personnel records to the current or former employee, or his or her representative, not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the employer receives the written request, subject to some limited exceptions.

Labor Code § 432 provides that if an employee or applicant signs any instrument relating to the obtaining or holding of employment, he or she shall be given a copy of the instrument upon request. On information and belief, Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, submitted written request(s) to Employers for their payroll records, timecards, and personnel records but did not timely receive them as required by the Labor Code.

As a result, Employers are liable to Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 226(f), 1198.5(k), and 2699 for failing to timely produce the requested records.

Recordkeeping Requirement Violations

California Labor Code section 1174 requires employers to keep “accurate and complete” payroll records showing, among other things, the hours worked daily by Employees and Aggrieved Employees. All applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 7 similarly requires employers to keep accurate time records reflecting the times during which all owed meal periods were provided each day.

Based on information and belief, Employers at times failed, and continue at times to fail, to keep accurate and complete payroll records as required by law, including but not limited to the following records: total daily hours worked, applicable rates of pay, time records showing when Employee and other Aggrieved Employees began and ended each work period, time records of meal periods, and accurate itemized wage statements.

Based on information and belief, Employers at times failed and continue at times to fail to keep accurate and complete records showing total hours worked by Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, by virtue of Employers’ time rounding and/or auto deduction policies and practices and/or other off-the-clock work policies and practices. Employers failed at times and continue at times to fail to keep accurate and complete records showing total hours worked by virtue of Employers’ failure to relieve Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, of all duties and Employers’ control for unpaid meal periods, resulting in unpaid hours worked.

Based on information and belief, Employers further failed at times, and continue at times to fail, to record the true start and end times of Employee’s and Aggrieved Employees’ meal periods, or some of them.

Based on further information and belief, Employers further failed at times and continue at times to fail, to record the true start and end times of Employee’s and Aggrieved Employees’ work shifts, or some of them.

Additionally, Employers at times failed, and continue at times to fail, to keep accurate records and issue accurate wage statements by not documenting accrued sick time for Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them. Employers’ failure to keep “accurate and complete” payroll records for Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, violates Labor Code sections 1174, 1198, 1199, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, section 7. These violations subject Employers to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558.1, 226.6, 1174.5 and 2699. Each violation of each Labor Code section and Wage Order provision, for each Aggrieved Employee (or some of them), results in a separate civil penalty.¹

Violation of Wage Theft Protection Act of 2011

Based on information and belief, Employers failed at times, and continue at times to fail, to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft Protection Act of ¹ See Lab. Code §2699(f)(2) (establishing that the civil penalty is “for each aggrieved employee per pay period”).

2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Employers, the name of the employer, including any “doing business as” names used, the name, address and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Employers under Labor Code section 2810.5. Employee is informed and believes that failure to provide such information, including rates of pay that are in effect, has permitted Employers to pay Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, at rates of pay that were not agreed upon and violate minimum wage and overtime wage laws in California. Employee is additionally informed and believes that the notice requirement of Labor Code section 2810.5 involves a mandatory payroll or workplace injury reporting. Among other relief, Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, may collect from Employers in connection with these violations’ civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 558 and 2699.

Violation of California Labor Code §§ 245-248.5

Throughout the relevant time period, Employers at times failed to provide proper paid sick leave to Employee and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them. Employers either failed at times to provide paid sick leave at all or improperly calculated the sick leave accrual and the sick leave rate of pay owed to Employee and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, by failing at times to base the accrued sick leave hours on the correct number of hours worked (as a result of the rounding/automatic deduction policies and practices for meal periods and/or shift start and end times/other required off-the-clock work including but not limited to unpaid meal periods that were restricted to Employers’ premises) and by failing at times to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including but not limited to, non-discretionary bonuses, shift differential pay and/or other non-discretionary compensation into the sick leave pay rate calculation.

Based on information and belief, Employers further failed at times to provide notice of the correct sick leave amount balance available to Employee and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, on their wage statements or other written statement.

Based on information and belief, Employers at times failed to put Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, on notice of their paid sick leave rights, thereby failing at times to put their entitlement to sick leave in a Labor Code section 2810.5 notice. In addition, Employers at times failed to maintain accurate records of used sick leave and the balance of paid sick leave left to the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them.

Based on information and belief, Employers at times failed to provide notice of sick leave amount balance left for Employee and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, thus affecting their intelligent exercise of their paid sick leave. But for this failure, Employee, and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, would have used their paid sick leave at least prior to their respective separations, for as on several occasions thereafter, he or she would have been entitled to use the banked sick leave and earn appropriate compensation. This illegal retention of paid sick leave is unlawful, and Employee seeks all forms of injunctive relief, restitution, and declaratory relief as permitted by California law, on behalf of Employee and the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them.

In violation of Labor Code section 247.5, Employers at times failed to maintain records documenting the hours worked and paid sick days accrued and used by Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, permitting the presumption that Employee and these Aggrieved

Employees, or some of them, were entitled to the maximum number of hours accruable under this article.

Upon information and belief, Employers at times further failed and continue at times to fail to comply with Labor Code section 246, by failing to provide Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with a Labor Code section 226 wage statement, or separate writing containing the amount of paid sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, at the time it pays wages. Employers at times unlawfully retained and continue at times to retain paid sick leave that should have been paid but was not, as a result of Employers' failure, at times, to properly institute a paid sick leave program.

On information and belief, Employee alleges that these practices at times were experienced and continue to be experienced at times by other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them. Employee requests all appropriate relief under the PAGA and these statutes, including but not limited to the restitution of earned paid sick leave that could have been used, but was not due to Employers' sole failure to institute such a paid sick leave entitlement or paid sick leave bank as required by California law.

Accordingly, Employee and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are entitled to injunctive relief, attorneys' fees, declaratory relief, restitution, and penalties as permitted by law. Employee requests all relief pursuant to the aforementioned code provisions, including but not limited to Labor Code sections 233 and 234, which incorporates the paid sick leave requirements.

Failure To Provide Supplemental Paid Sick Leave

Labor Code section 248.2 provides that all employers with 26 or more employees are required to provide up to 80 hours for covered employees to take 2021 COVID-19 Supplemental Paid Sick Leave to care for themselves, to care for a family member or if it is vaccine-related. Based on information and belief, Employers at times violated Labor Code section 248.2 by not providing Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with required 2021 COVID-19 Supplemental Paid Sick Leave.

Refusal to Make Payment

Labor Code section 216 declares unlawful an employer's refusal to pay wages due and payable and/or denial of the validity of any claim to wages due. Employers at times violated and continue at times to violate Labor Code section 216 by failing to pay Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for all hours worked at the proper wage rate and by failing to pay Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, an additional hour of pay for each meal and/or rest period not provided or that was invalid. Gould v. Maryland Sound Industries, Inc. (1995) 31 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1154-1155. These violations subject Employers to civil penalties under Labor Code section 225.5. Each violation results in a separate civil penalty, for each Aggrieved Employee (or some of them) so affected, for each pay period (or some of them) during which the statute's provisions were violated.²

² Labor Code § 225.5 (establishing that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who unlawfully withholds wages due any employee in violation of sections 212, 216, 221, 222, or 223 shall be subject to a civil penalty...for each failure to pay each employee”) (emphasis added).

Seating Violations

Per section 14(A-B) of all applicable IWC Wage Orders, employees shall be provided with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats and when they are not actively engaged in the work duties that would not permit them to be seated.

All applicable IWC Wage Orders, Section 14(A-B) provides:

(A) All working employees shall be provided with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats.

(B) When employees are not engaged in the active duties of their employment and the nature of the work requires standing, an adequate number of suitable seats shall be placed in reasonable proximity to the work area and employees shall be permitted to use such seats when it does not interfere with the performance of their duties.

Suitable seating is one of the worker protections covered by California's Wage Orders, which have the same dignity as statutes, are remedial in nature and are to be broadly construed to effectuate the goal of protecting the comfort and welfare of employees. Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1027 (2012).

Based on information and belief, Employers at times failed to provide Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with suitable seating, and when such employees, or some of them, were not engaged in duties which required them to stand, at times no seating was placed in reasonable proximity to their workstations.

Moreover, based on information and belief, the nature of the work reasonably permitted the use of seats for at least part of the time that Aggrieved Employees were working. Lastly, based on information and belief, Aggrieved Employees at times were not engaged in active duties of their employment, yet at times there were no suitable seats in reasonable proximity to the work area, and use of seats would not have interfered with the performance of their duties.

Employers' Aggrieved Employees worked in various positions. The nature of Employee's and other Aggrieved Employees' work, or some of them, reasonably permitted the use of seats. However, Employers at times failed to provide suitable seating in reasonable proximity to Aggrieved Employees' work areas, or some of them, in violation of section 14(A-B) of applicable Wage Orders, and Labor Code sections 1198 and 1199, subjecting Employers to civil penalties under Labor Code sections 1199 and 2699. Each violation of each Labor Code section and IWC Wage Order provision, for each Aggrieved Employee, or some of them, results in a separate civil penalty.³

Statutory Wage Violations

Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for an employer to secretly pay wages lower than required by statute while purporting to pay legal wages.

³ See Lab. Code §2699(f)(2) (establishing that the civil penalty is "for each aggrieved employee per pay period").

As described above, Employers at times willfully and systematically denied Employee and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, of minimum and overtime wage compensation for all hours worked which resulted in the payment of less than statutorily required wages owed to them. Employers at times acted with the intent to deprive some or all of them of statutory wages, including, but not limited to, overtime wages and minimum wages, to which they were entitled to under California law.

Thus, Employers at times paid Employee and other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, lower wages than those to which they were entitled, while purporting that Employee and all Aggrieved Employees were properly paid. As such, Employee and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are entitled to recover penalties, attorneys' fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)-(g).

Failure to Pay Vested Vacation/Paid Time Off

California Labor Code section 227.3 provides that when an employer policy provides for paid vacations and/or paid time off, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his, her, or their vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to the employee as wages at the employee's final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served and that there shall be no forfeiture of vested vacation time or paid time off upon termination. Based on information and belief, Employers at times had and continue at times to have a policy and/or practice of failing to allow Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to use their earned vacation/paid time off during their employment and failing at times to pay all vested, accrued paid time off to Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, and/or Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, upon separation of employment, in violation of California law, including but not limited to, Labor Code section 227.3.

Failure to Timely Provide Temporary Workers with Owed Wages

On information and belief, Employers at times had and have failed to provide temporary workers, or some of them, with owed wages weekly by not later than the regular payday of the following week. As a result, pursuant to Labor Code section 201.3, Employers would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 201.3.

Unlawful Agreements/ Unlawful Criminal History Inquiries

Unlawful Agreements

Labor Code section 432.5 provides that "no employer ... shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer ... to be prohibited by law." Based on information and belief, Employers at times required Employee, Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree in writing to unlawful conditions of employment including but not limited to unlawful non-compete and/or non-solicitation agreements as well as unlawful criminal and/or financial checks as a condition of obtaining and/or continuing employment in violation of Labor Code section 432.5.

The California Labor Code places certain procedural and substantive limits on employers' ability to conduct employee background checks and on how employers can use the information they obtain through those background checks. Labor Code section 1024.5 states that employers, except for financial institutions, may order a credit check only if the individual works (or is applying to work) in certain positions (e.g., managerial positions, financially related positions, and certain government positions). Additionally, the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (ICRAA - CA Civil Code section 1786, et seq.) and the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA - 15 U.S.C. section 1681, et seq.) mandate several requirements prior to and following an employee background check, including but not limited to identifying an appropriate reason for the background check, a separate consent form with required disclosures and certain formatting requirements, additional forms such as a summary of rights, a way by which to request a copy of the report, as well as proper notice of adverse actions taken, among other statutory requirements.

Based on information and belief, Employers at times ordered unlawful financial credit checks on Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, in violation of Labor Code section 1024.5, and at times required Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to provide ongoing written consent to the unlawful credit checks as a condition of employment, in violation of California and Federal law, which results in a further violation of Labor Code section 432.5.

Based on information and belief, Employers also at times required Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to submit and/or agree to submit in writing to unlawful criminal background checks as a condition of obtaining and/or holding employment in violation of the ICRAA and the FCRA. For example, based on information and belief, Employers required Employee to submit and/or agree to submit in writing to an unlawful background check as a condition of obtaining and/or holding employment in violation of, including but not limited to, Labor Code section 432.5.

Based on information and belief, Employers at times required Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree in writing to a background check which failed to abide by the requirements set forth in California Civil Code section 1786, et seq. and 15 U.S.C. section 1681, et seq., including but not limited to by failing, at times, to provide a clear and conspicuous disclosure (and/or failing to provide any disclosure at all), failing at times to provide disclosures free of extraneous information, failing at times to provide a lawful purpose for the background check, failing at times to provide a summary of rights under the ICRAA and/or the FCRA, failing at times to provide a way by which the individual could request a copy of the report, failing at times to disclose the name, address, and telephone number of the third party preparing the report, and failing at times to properly obtain authorization or consent to such a background check, and thus was an unlawful background check.

By at times requiring Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree in writing to unlawful criminal and/or financial checks not in conformance with the applicable laws, Employers violated Labor Code section 432.5.

Based on information and belief, Employers also at times required Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree in writing to provide ongoing consent to Employers to conduct background checks throughout the duration of employment, in violation of the ICRAA and/or FCRA and/or other applicable laws, resulting in a further violation of Labor Code section 432.5, by at times requiring applicants and employees, or some of them, to agree to an unlawful provision as a condition of employment.

Based on further information and belief, Employers knew that requiring Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree at times to unlawful criminal and/or financial background checks as a condition of obtaining and/or holding employment was unlawful.

By requiring Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree at times in writing to unlawful provisions as a condition of employment, Employers violated Labor Code section 432.5.

Unlawful Inquires into Criminal History

Labor Code section 432.7 prohibits an employer from asking applicants about past arrest(s) unless they resulted in conviction(s) and even then, certain limitations apply. Based on information and belief, Employers at times asked Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, about arrests not resulting in convictions on their employment application, in violation of California law.

Upon information and belief, Employers, in violation of California law, including but not limited to the Fair Chance Act/the California Fair Employment and Housing Act (“FEHA”), at times asked Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, about convictions prior to extending an offer of employment and/or otherwise impermissibly inquired into criminal history on their employment application in violation of California law.

By asking, at times, about arrests not resulting in convictions, Employers violated Labor Code section 432.7. By asking, at times, about convictions at the application phase or prior to extending an employment offer, Employers violated California’s Fair Chance Act, and thereby violated Labor Code section 432.5 by unlawfully requiring Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree in writing to disclose arrests and/or convictions as a condition of employment.

Unlawful PAGA Waiver

Additionally, Employers at times violated Labor Code section 432.5 by requiring Employee, Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree in writing to other unlawful agreements, including but not limited to an unlawful waiver of PAGA and or representative actions, as a condition of employment.

An action pursuant to PAGA “...is a representative action on behalf of the state” Kim v Reins Int’l California, Inc., (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 86-87. It is well settled that agreements purporting to waive an employee’s right to a trial of PAGA claims is contrary to California law and unenforceable. See Iskanian v CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal. 4th 348, 384 (“We conclude that where, as here, an employment agreement compels the waiver of representative claims under the PAGA, it is contrary to public policy and unenforceable as a matter of state law.”).

Moreover, the California Supreme Court has ruled that a court cannot compel arbitration of an aggrieved employee’s individual PAGA claim because there is no such thing as an individual PAGA claim. Kim v Reins Int’l California, Inc., (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 86-87 (“There is no individual component to a PAGA action because ‘every PAGA action ... is a representative action on behalf of the state.’”).

Upon information and belief, Employers at times required Employee, Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree in writing to waive their right to a trial of PAGA claims in violation of California law. By at times requiring Employee, Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to agree, in writing, to an unlawful PAGA waiver, Employers at times required written agreement to an unlawful provision as a condition of employment, which is a violation of labor code section 432.5.

As such, Employee, Aggrieved Employees and Exempt Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, continue to be subject at times to various unlawful provisions as a condition of employment.

Preventing Employees from Using or Disclosing Skills, Knowledge, and Experience

On information and belief, Employers at times have prevented Employee and/or other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge, and experience they obtained at Employers for purposes of competing with Employers, including, without limitation, preventing Employees, or some of them, from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Employers and under what circumstances they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. As such, Employee is informed and believes, this violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 16600 and 16700 and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Employers would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.

Whistleblower Violations

On information and belief, Employers at times have prevented Employee and/or other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Employers to their managers or outside Employers to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and thus in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. In addition, Employee is informed and believes that these policies and/or practices at times prevent Employee and/or other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code sections 98.6, 232, and 232.5. These violations of the Labor Code would expose Employers to liability for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.

Workplace Health and Safety Violations

On information and belief, Employers at times have failed to furnish and use safety devices and safeguards, and adopt and use practices, means, methods, operations and processes which are reasonably adequate to render such employment and place of employment safe and healthful, pursuant to, including but not limited to, Labor Code section 6401. Employee is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Employers at times have required or permitted employees, or some of them, to go or be in any employment or place of employment which is not safe and healthful, pursuant to Labor Code section 6402. Employee is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Employers at times have failed or neglected to provide and use safety devices and safeguards reasonably adequate to render the employment and place of employment safe; adopt and use methods and processes reasonably adequate to render the employment and place of employment safe; and do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life, safety, and health of employees, pursuant to Labor Code section 6403. Employee is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that these failures include, without limitation, at times failing to disinfect time clocks and other surfaces after use by Employee and/or other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them; at times failing to provide adequate protection equipment to Employee and/or other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them; and at times failing to provide adequate distance in working conditions between Employee and/or other Aggrieved Employees, or some of them.

On information and belief, Employers violated section 1527, 3366, 3457 and 8397.4 by failing at times to provide adequate and readily accessible sanitation facilities; a regular schedule for servicing, cleaning, and supplying each facility to ensure it is maintained in a clean, sanitary and serviceable condition; an adequate supply of suitable cleansing agents, water, single-use towels or blowers; and a sufficient number of toilets to be used by each sex of employee.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Employee alleges that Employers violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees, or some of them:

1. Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing at times to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing at times to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing at times to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 204 by failing at times to pay all earned wages two times per month;
5. California Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing at times to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
6. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing at times to pay all wages owed at termination;
7. Labor Code § 226 by failing at times to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
8. Labor Code § 2802 by failing at times to indemnify for necessary expenditures;
9. Labor Code §§ 226, 432, and 1198.5 by failing at times to timely produce requested payroll records, timecards, and personnel records;
10. Labor Code § 1174 by failing at times to keep accurate and complete payroll records;
11. Labor Code §§ 245-248.5 by failing at times to provide proper sick leave and supplemental paid sick leave;
12. Labor Code § 216 for refusal at times to pay wages due and payable and/or denial at times of the validity of any claim to wages due;
13. Labor Code § 223 for at times secretly paying wages lower than required by statute while purporting to pay legal wages;
14. Labor Code § 227.3 for failure at times to pay vested vacation and/or paid time off;
15. Section 14(A-B) of all applicable IWC Wage Orders for failure at times to provide suitable seating;
16. Labor Code § 432.5 for unlawful agreements;
17. Labor Code § 201.3 for failure at times to timely provide temporary workers, or some of them, with wages;
18. Labor Code §§ 98.6, 232, 232.5, 1102.5, and 1197.5 for at times preventing employees, or some of them, from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge and experience they obtained at Employers, and whistleblower violations;
19. Labor Code § 432.7 for unlawful inquiries at times into criminal histories; and

2.1 On May 1, 2024, Plaintiff filed the Class Action alleging Defendant (1) failed to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failed to pay overtime wages; (3) failed to provide meal periods; (4) failed to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failed to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failed to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failed to produce requested employment records; and (9) violated California’s Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

2.2 On May 1, 2024, pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3, subd.(a), Plaintiff gave notice to the

1 LWDA and Defendant that Plaintiff intended to proceed with a representative action under PAGA
2 (LWDA-CM-1025682-24). On July 9, 2024, after the 65-day statutory period passed, Plaintiff
3 filed the PAGA Action, alleging claims for penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq. The 4 PAGA Action was related to the Class Action on August 26, 2024.

5 2.3 Defendant denies the allegations in the Actions, denies any failure to comply with the 6 laws identified in the Actions, and denies any and all liability for the causes of action alleged in 7 the Actions.

8 2.4 On April 29, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation facilitated by mediator
9 Deborah Crandall Saxe. With Ms. Saxe's assistance, the Parties reached an agreement to settle the 10 Actions, which included general settlement terms agreed upon during the mediation and additional 11 terms memorialized in a subsequently executed Term Sheet.

12 2.5 In advance of mediation, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the facts
13 of, and applicable law to, the Actions. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained and analyzed a
14 representative sampling of time and payroll data for Class Members and the necessary policy 15 documents through informal discovery to properly evaluate the strengths and weakness of the 16 claims and engage in meaningful settlement discussions. Plaintiff's investigation was sufficient to 17 satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 48 Cal.App.4th
18 1794, 1801 (1996) and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 (2008)
19 ("Dunk/Kullar").

20 2.6 The Court has not granted class certification because the Parties engaged in mediation
21 before any class certification.

22 2.7 The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they are not aware of any 23 other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or affected by the 24 Settlement.

25 3. MONETARY TERMS.

26 3.1 Gross Settlement Amount. Except as otherwise provided by Paragraph 8 below,
27 Defendant will pay no more than $220,000.00 to fully settle, resolve, and extinguish all claims
28 asserted in the Actions, including without limitation all claims asserted in the PAGA Notice. The

1 GSA is non-reversionary and does not include employer payroll taxes owed on the wage portions
2 of the Individual Class Payments, which Defendant will pay separately. Defendant has no
3 obligation to pay the GSA or any payroll taxes prior to the deadline stated in Paragraph 4.3 of this
4 Agreement. The Administrator will disburse the entire GSA without asking or requiring 5 Participating Class Members or Aggrieved Employees to submit any claim as a condition of 6 payment.

7 3.2 Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. The Administrator will make and deduct
8 the following payments from the GSA, in the amounts specified by the Court in the Final Approval:

9 3.2.1 To Plaintiff: A Class Representative Service Payment to the Class Representative of 10 not more than $7,500.00 in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA
11 Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member. Defendant
12 will not oppose Plaintiff's request for a Class Representative Service Payment that does not exceed 13 this amount. As part of the motion for the Class Counsel Fees and Class Counsel Litigation
14 Expenses Payment, Plaintiff will seek Court approval for any Class Representative Service
15 Payment no later than 16 (sixteen) court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise
16 ordered by the Court. If the Court approves a Class Representative Service Payment less than the 17 amount requested, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount to be 18 distributed to Participating Class Members. The Administrator will pay the Class Representative
19 Service Payment using IRS Form 1099. Plaintiff assumes full responsibility and liability for 20 employee taxes owed on the Class Representative Service Payment.

21 3.2.2 To Class Counsel: A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than one-third (1/3)
22 of the GSA, which is currently estimated to be $73,333.33 and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses
23 Payment for actual costs, not to exceed $25,000.00. Defendant will not oppose requests for these 24 payments. Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will file a motion for Class Counsel Fees and Litigation
25 Expenses Payment no later than 16 (sixteen) court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as 26 otherwise ordered by the Court. If the Court approves a Class Counsel Fees Payment and/or a
27 Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator
28 will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class

Members. Released Parties shall have no liability to Class Counsel or any other Plaintiff's counsel arising from any claim to any portion of Class Counsel Fee Payment and/or Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. The Administrator will pay the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment using one or more IRS 1099 Forms. Class Counsel assumes full responsibility and liability for taxes owed on the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and holds Defendant harmless, and indemnifies Defendant, from any dispute or controversy regarding any division or sharing of any of these Payments.

3.2.3 To the Administrator: An Administration Costs Payment for actual costs, not to exceed $9,500.00 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the Administration Costs are less or the Court approves payment of less than requested, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class Members.

3.2.4 To Each Participating Class Member: An Individual Class Payment is calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each individual Participating Class Member's Workweeks.

3.2.4.1 Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments. Twenty percent (20%) of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to the Settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portion is subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining eighty percent (80%) of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to the settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.

3.2.4.2 Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro-rata basis.

3.2.5 To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of $10,000.00 to be paid from the GSA, with 75% ($7,500.00) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($2,500.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.

3.2.5.1 The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($2,500.00) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each individual Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.

3.2.5.2 If the Court approves PAGA Penalties of less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class Members. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

4. SETTLEMENT FUNDING AND PAYMENTS.

4.1 Class Workweeks and Aggrieved Employee Pay Periods. Based on a review of its records, Defendant represents there are 422 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 844 workweeks during the Class Period.

4.2 Class Data. Not later than seven (7) days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Class Members' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted class member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith,

1 to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.

2 4.3 Funding of Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant shall fully fund the GSA and the 3 amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the 4 Administrator no later than 30 (thirty) calendar days after the Effective Date.

5 4.4 Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. Within seven (7) days after Defendant fully
6 funds the GSA, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all Individual
7 PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Costs Payment, the Class
8 Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Enhancement
9 Award. Disbursement of the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses
10 Payment, and the Enhancement Award shall not precede disbursement of Individual Class
11 Payments and Individual PAGA Payments.

12 4.4.1 The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or 13 Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail. The 14 face of each check shall prominently state the date (180 days after the date of mailing) when the 15 check will be voided ("Void Date"). The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the 16 Void Date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all
17 Participating Class Members (including those for whom the Class Notice was returned 18 undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved
19 Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees
20 (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send 21 Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the 22 Individual PAGA Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update
23 the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.

24 4.4.2 The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class
25 Members whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within seven
26 (7) days of receiving a returned check, the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS
27 forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address
28 Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose

1 re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a
2 replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested
3 by the Class Member prior to the void date.

4 4.4.3 For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA
5 Payment check is uncashed and canceled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the 6 funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the 7 name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of 8 California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).

9 4.4.4 The payment of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall not 10 obligate Defendant to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to Class
11 Members (such as 401(k) contributions or bonuses) beyond those specified in this Agreement.

12 5. RELEASES OF CLAIMS. Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the GSA and 13 all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff,
14 Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

15 5.1 Plaintiff's Release. Plaintiff and his or her respective former and present spouses,
16 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns generally, release
17 and discharge Released Parties from any and all claims, transactions, occurrences that occurred
18 during the Class Period, including, but not limited to: (a) all claims that were, or reasonably could 19 have been, alleged, based on the facts contained, in the Operative Class Complaint and (b) all
20 PAGA claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged based on facts contained in the 21 Operative PAGA Complaint, Plaintiff's PAGA Notice. ("Plaintiff's Release"), Plaintiff's Release
22 does not extend to any claims or actions to enforce this Agreement, or to any claims for vested
23 benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits, workers'
24 compensation benefits that arose at any time, or based on occurrences outside the Class Period.
25 Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to,
26 the facts or law that Plaintiff now knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that 27 Plaintiff's Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or 28 additional facts or Plaintiff's discovery of them.

1 5.1.1 Plaintiff's Waiver of Rights Under California Civil Code Section 1542. For purposes
2 of Plaintiff's Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and
3 benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

4 A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does
5 not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release,
6 and that if known by him or her would have materially affected his or her settlement
7 with the debtor or Released Party.

8 5.2 Released Class Claims: All Participating Class Members on behalf of themselves and 9 their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators,
10 successors, and assigns will waive and release all claims asserted in the Operative Class
11 Complaint, or that could have been based on the factual allegations asserted in the Operative Class
12 Complaint during the Class Period (collectively the "Released Class Claims").

13 5.3 Released PAGA Claims: The claims released by Aggrieved Employees, including Non-
14 Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees, are all claims for civil penalties under 15 PAGA arising during the PAGA Period that were alleged in Plaintiff's PAGA Notice to the LWDA
16 and the Operative PAGA Complaint, or that could have been based on the facts asserted in the 17 PAGA Notice and the Operative PAGA Complaint against Released Parties (collectively the 18 "Released PAGA Claims").

19 6. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. Plaintiff will prepare and file a motion for 20 preliminary approval ("Motion for Preliminary Approval").

21 6.1 Plaintiff's Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare all documents necessary for obtaining 22 Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the 23 Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar
24 and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2));
25 (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement;
26 (iii) a draft proposed Class Notice; (iv); (iv) a signed declaration from Plaintiff confirming 27 willingness and competency to serve and disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential
28 conflicts of interest with Class Members, and/or the Administrator; (v) a signed declaration from

1 Class Counsel firm attesting to its competency to represent the Class Members; its timely
2 transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations (Labor
3 Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)), Operative PAGA Complaint (Labor Code section 2699, subd.
4 (l)(1)), this Agreement (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(2)); and (vi) all facts relevant to any
5 actual or potential conflict of interest with Class Members, and/or the Administrator. In their
6 Declarations, Plaintiff and Class Counsel shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending
7 matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

8 6.2 Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible
9 for expeditiously finalizing the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel will obtain a
10 prompt hearing date for the Motion for Preliminary Approval, file the Motion for Preliminary 11 Approval no later than 16 (sixteen) court days before the hearing, unless otherwise ordered by the 12 Court, and deliver the Court's Preliminary Approval Order to the Administrator.

13 6.3 Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for 14 Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and 15 Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or 16 by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary
17 Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class
18 Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting
19 in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the 20 Court's concerns.

21 7. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

22 7.1 Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Apex Class Action
23 Administration to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, the 24 Administrator agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties
25 specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Costs. The Parties and 26 their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the 27 Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering 28 settlements.

1 7.2 Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer
2 Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports
3 to state and federal tax authorities.

4 7.3 Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets
5 the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund (“QSF”) under US Treasury Regulation section
6 468B-1 for the funding of the GSA. Any interest that accrues on the GSA sums paid into the QSF
7 prior to distribution by the Administrator will become part of the NSA for distribution to 8 Participating Class Members.

9 7.4 Notice to Class Members.

10 7.4.1 No later than five (5) calendar days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator
11 shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members,
12 Aggrieved Employees, Workweeks, and Pay Periods in the Class Data.

13 7.4.2 Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than fourteen
14 (14) days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members
15 identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail, the Class
16 Notice with Spanish translation substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A.
17 The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual
18 Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number
19 of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class 20 Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of 21 Address database.

22 7.4.3 Not later than five (5) calendar days after the Administrator’s receipt of any Class
23 Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using 24 any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address,
25 the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to 26 the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts
27 to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a 28 second time.

1 7.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, challenges to Workweeks
2 and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional fourteen (14) days
3 beyond the sixty (60) days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose
4 notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline
5 with the re-mailed Class Notice.

6 7.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendant, or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise
7 discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should 8 have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by 9 telephone, and in good faith in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If
10 the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class
11 Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice
12 requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than fourteen (14) days after 13 receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.

14 7.5 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

15 7.5.1 Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement
16 must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not 17 later than sixty (60) days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional fourteen
18 (14) days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter
19 from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's 20 election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and 21 email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, 22 emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

23 7.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails
24 to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any 25 Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the 26 person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's
27 determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the 28 Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator

1 may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination
2 of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

3 7.5.3 Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion
4 is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and
5 bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members'
6 Releases under paragraphs 5.2 and 5.4 of this Agreement, regardless of whether the Participating
7 Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

8 7.5.4 Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-
9 Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to 10 object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject
11 to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are 12 Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the Released PAGA Claims identified in Paragraph 13 5.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

14 7.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 60 (sixty) days
15 after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 (fourteen) days for Class 16 Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and 17 PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member 18 may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The 19 Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation.
20 In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the 21 Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class
22 Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or 23 Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The 24 Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to the calculation of Workweeks
25 and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination 26 of the challenges.

27 7.7 Objections to Settlement.

28 7.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the

1 Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or
2 amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses
3 Payment and/or Enhancement Award.

4 7.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by 5 fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire
6 an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A
7 Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do
8 so not later than 60 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional 9 14 (fourteen) days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).

10 7.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action
11 components of the Settlement.

12 7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be 13 performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

14 7.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish,
15 maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including 16 the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement;
17 Motion for Preliminary Approval; Preliminary Approval Order; Class Notice; Motion for Final
18 Approval; Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment
19 and Enhancement Award; the Final Approval Order; and the Judgment. The Administrator will 20 also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class
21 Member calls, faxes and emails.

22 7.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will 23 promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 24 five (5) days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the 25 Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names
26 and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests
27 for Exclusion ("Exclusion List"); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class
28 Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for

1 Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).

2 7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports
3 to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices
4 mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or 5 invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received
6 and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments
7 (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include the Administrator’s assessment of the 8 validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections 9 received.

10 7.8.4 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to 11 address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member
12 challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision 13 shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

14 7.8.5 Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff
15 is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide
16 to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting
17 to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but
18 not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing
19 of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion
20 from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the 21 Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the 22 Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator’s declaration(s)
23 in Court.

24 7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator
25 disburses all funds in the GSA, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel
26 with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all 27 payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the 28 Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration

1 suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this
2 Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

3 8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE. Based on its records, Defendant
4 estimates that as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, there are 422 Class Members who were
5 collectively in training for a total of 844 Workweeks during the Class Period. If it is determined
6 that the total number of Workweeks during the Class Period exceeds 928 (i.e., 844, plus 10% of 7 844), then Defendant may elect to either (A) end the Class Period on the date on which the total
8 number of Workweeks reaches 928, or (B) increase the GSA in proportion to the increased
9 percentage – for example, if such increase in Workweeks is 14% over 844 Workweeks, the GSA
10 will increase by 4%. To avoid any uncertainty as to the end date of the Class Period, Defendant
11 and/or the Administrator must verify the Workweek total and confirm the end date of the Class
12 Period prior to the Preliminary Approval.

13 9. DEFENDANT’S RIGHT TO NULLIFY. Defendant retains the right, in the exercise of its 14 discretion, to nullify the settlement within fourteen (14) calendar days after expiration of the opt-
15 out period if five percent (5%) or more of the Settlement Class opts out of this Settlement. If 16 Defendant nullifies the Settlement, it will pay all accrued Administration Costs.

17 10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 (sixteen) court days before the 18 calendared Final Approval Hearing, unless otherwise scheduled by the Court, Plaintiff will file in 19 Court, a Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the 20 PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l); a Proposed Final Approval Order;
21 and a proposed Judgment (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Plaintiff shall provide drafts
22 of these documents to Defense Counsel no later than seven days prior to filing the Motion for Final
23 Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by 24 telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final 25 Approval.

26 10.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised
27 by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later
28 than five (5) court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted

1 by the Court.

2 10.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final
3 Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of 4 release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith
5 to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval.
6 The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Enhancement Award, Class
7 Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and/or Administration Costs
8 Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this 9 paragraph.

10 10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the 11 Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, the Actions, and the Settlement solely for purposes
12 of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters,
13 and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

14 10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and 15 conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class
16 Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment as set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective 17 counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in 18 this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment
19 and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, 20 extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to 21 oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations
22 to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved
23 and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net
24 Settlement Amount.

25 10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the 26 reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material
27 modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by 28 Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless

1 expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain
2 Final Approval and Entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration
3 Costs reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the 4 Court's award of the Enhancement Award or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a
5 material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the GSA
6 remains unchanged.

7 11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil
8 Procedure §384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit a proposed amended 9 judgment.

10 12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

11 12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other 12 Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims.
13 Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that
14 any of the allegations in the Operative Class Complaint or Operative PAGA Complaint has merit
15 or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed
16 as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Actions have merit. The Parties agree
17 that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for 18 any reason, the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval, or enter Judgment,
19 Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reason, Defendant reserves
20 all available defenses to the claims in the Actions, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class
21 certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this 22 Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Actions will have no bearing on, and will not be 23 admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the 24 Settlement and this Agreement).

25 12.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant, and 26 Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is 27 filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit
28 another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or

1 indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency,
2 or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be
3 instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent
4 necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or
5 subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government
6 agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify the other Party of any judicial or agency order,
7 inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant, and Defense
8 Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other
9 communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, with any third party
10 regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that 11 "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's
12 communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed 13 to Class Members.

14 12.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and 15 employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal
16 from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability
17 to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Defense Counsel's and Class Counsel's
18 ethical obligations and Class Counsel's fiduciary duties owed to Class Members.

19 12.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement
20 together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating 21 to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or 22 inducements made to or by any Party.

23 12.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and 24 represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate
25 action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate
26 its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this 27 Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.

28 12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their

1 best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the
2 Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and
3 authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or 4 content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the 5 Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the 6 assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.

7 12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not 8 directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or 9 encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of 10 action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.

11 12.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are 12 providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied 13 upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 14 10, as amended) or otherwise.

15 12.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended,
16 modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their 17 representatives, and approved by the Court.

18 12.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure
19 to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.

20 12.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be 21 governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard 22 to conflict of law principles.

23 12.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation
24 of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the 25 Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.

26 12.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders
27 entered during Actions and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall 28 survive the execution of this Agreement.

1 12.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to
2 Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel
3 by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection
4 with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and
5 may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of 6 court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's
7 obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff
8 shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant unless, prior 9 to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Defendant makes a written request to 10 Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.

11 12.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is 12 inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.

13 12.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement
14 shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a 15 weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.

16 12.17 Notice. All notices, demands, or other communications between the Parties in 17 connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the 18 third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger,

12.18 Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts by facsimile, electronically (i.e. DocuSign), or by email which for purposes of this Agreement shall be accepted as an original. EXHIBIT "A"

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Rodriguez v. Frank C. Alegre Trucking, Inc.

San Joaquin County Superior Court, Case Nos. STK-CV-UOE-2024-0005249 and STK-CV-UOE-2024-0008038

The San Joaquin County Superior Court authorized this notice.
It is not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer.
Please read it carefully! You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from employee class and representative action lawsuits (“Actions”) against Frank C. Alegre Trucking, Inc. (“Defendant”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Actions were filed by former employee, Joseph Alberto Rodriguez, and seeks (1) payment of unpaid wages and other relief for a class of non-exempt or hourly-paid employees (“Class Members”) who worked for Defendant during the Class Period (May 1, 2020, through the earliest of July 29, 2025, or the date of preliminary approval of this Class Action Settlement); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all Class Members who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period (May 1, 2023, through the day the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement.) (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay PAGA Penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you _____ Workweeks during the Class Period and you worked _____ Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval of the Settlement. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. You will be deemed to have read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT
DO NOTHING	Receive money. Give up rights to sue Defendant for claims released in the Settlement.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF	Receive no money from the Class settlement. You will retain the right to pursue your own legal claims against Defendant. However, even if you exclude yourself from the Class settlement, you will still receive a portion of the PAGA settlement and be bound by it if you worked during the PAGA Period.
OBJECT	Write to the Court about why you object to the Settlement. If the Settlement receives Final Approval, you will receive money and give up rights to sue Defendant for claims released in the Settlement.
CHALLENGE YOUR NUMBER OF WORKWEEKS AND/OR PAY PERIODS	Challenge your number of Workweeks or Pay Periods listed in this Notice and provide supporting evidence. If you challenge your workweeks or pay periods, you will still be part of the Settlement and will give up rights to sue Defendant for claims released in the Settlement.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. WHY AM I RECEIVING THIS NOTICE?

Defendant’s records indicate that you worked for Defendant Frank C. Alegre Trucking, Inc. at some point(s) between May 1, 2020, through the earliest of July 29, 2025, or the date of preliminary approval of this class action settlement and are therefore a member of the Class for purposes of this Settlement.

You received this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed Settlement of the Action, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to finally approve the Settlement. The Settlement will resolve all Class Members’ claims, which are described below, during the Class Period. The Settlement will also resolve claims for civil penalties brought under the California Private Attorneys’ General Act (“PAGA”). If you are a Class Member, you are also an “Aggrieved Employee” if you worked for Defendant during the “PAGA Period,” which is May 1, 2023, through the earliest of July 29, 2025, or the date of preliminary approval of this class action settlement.

If the Court grants Final Approval to the Settlement, a settlement Administrator appointed by the Court will issue the payments provided for by the Settlement to Class Members. You are encouraged to always keep your address up to date with the Administrator (the Administrator’s contact information can be found in Section 12, below).

This Notice package explains the allegations and background regarding the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to receive those benefits.

The Court in charge of the Action is the San Joaquin County Superior Court. The cases are titled Rodriguez v. Frank Alegre Trucking, Inc., San Joaquin County Superior Court, Case No. STK-CV-UOE-2024-0005249 and STK-CV-UOE-2024-0008038. The person who sued, Joseph Alberto Rodriguez, is the Plaintiff, and the company sued, Frank C. Alegre Trucking, Inc., is the Defendant.

QUESTIONS? CALL 1-800-XXX-XXXX TOLL FREE

2. WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

The Plaintiff in the lawsuits alleges wage and hour violations against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods and pay meal period premiums; (4) failure to provide rest periods and pay miss rest period premiums; (5) failure to pay all wages earned and unpaid at separation; (6) failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify all necessary business expenditures; (8) failure to produce employment records; (9) violation of California's Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq. In addition, Plaintiff is seeking to recover civil penalties pursuant to PAGA ("PAGA Penalties") based on the alleged violations of the California Labor Code listed above. Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

3. WHY IS THIS A CLASS ACTION?

In an employment class action, one or more people called "Class Representatives" (in this case, the Plaintiff) sue on behalf of all workers who they contend have similar claims. All of these workers are a Class or Class Members. Bringing one lawsuit, as opposed to many small ones, saves money, time and court resources. The court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

4. WHY IS THERE A SETTLEMENT?

The Court did not decide in favor of the Plaintiff or Defendant on the merits of the claims alleged in the lawsuit. Plaintiff believes Plaintiff would win at trial. Defendant thinks that Plaintiff's lawsuit would not proceed to a trial and/or that Plaintiff would not win at trial. However, there has been no trial. Instead, in acknowledgement of the risk that both Parties face should the case proceed, the Parties have agreed to a negotiated settlement. This way, all Parties avoid the cost of preparing for and conducting a trial, the risk of losing the right to a trial, and the workers affected by the alleged violations receive compensation. The Settlement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. The Plaintiff, as well as Plaintiff's lawyers (called "Class Counsel"), believe the Settlement is fair and reasonable and in the best interests of all Class Members.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

If you received this Notice, you are a Class Member for settlement purposes. The Class includes: all current and former hourly, non-exempt trainee drivers employed by Defendant, in State of California at any time from May 1, 2020, through the earliest of July 29, 2025, or the date of preliminary approval of this class action settlement.

6. ARE THERE EXCEPTIONS TO BEING INCLUDED?

You are not a Class Member if you already have resolved the claims asserted in this lawsuit, whether by settlement or a separate legal proceeding (i.e., another lawsuit).

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET

7. WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

Defendant has agreed to pay a Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”) of $220,000.00 to settle the lawsuit. From the GSA, Class Counsel will apply to the Court for attorneys’ fees of one-third (1/3) of the GSA or $73,333.33 and reimbursement for reasonable costs, not to exceed $25,000.00; Class Representative Service Payment of $7,500.00 to the Plaintiff (for Plaintiff’s work and efforts prosecuting this case); a PAGA Penalties payment of $10,000.00 to resolve the PAGA claims; and Settlement Administration Costs to Apex Class Action Administration, not to exceed $9,500.00. The exact amount of the Class Counsel’s Fees and Litigation Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment, and Administration Costs will be determined by the Court at the Final Approval hearing. The remaining portion of the Settlement amount, the “Net Settlement Amount” or the “NSA,” is currently estimated to be approximately $119,666.67. The NSA will be apportioned and paid out as Individual Class Payments to the Settlement Class Members, who are the Class Members that do not request to be excluded (“opt out”) of the Settlement.

PAGA Penalties payment: As part of the PAGA portion of the Settlement, the Parties will ask the Court to approve a $10,000.00 PAGA Penalties payment in settlement of claims for civil penalties under PAGA. As required under PAGA, 75% of the PAGA Penalties payment, or $7,500.00, will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency. The remaining 25% of the PAGA Penalties payment, or $2,500.00, will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees as Individual PAGA Payments.

8. HOW MUCH WILL MY PAYMENT BE?

An approximation of your Individual Class Payment appears on the first page of this Notice. If you are also an Aggrieved Employee, an approximation of your Individual PAGA Payment will also appear on the first page of this Notice.

Individual Class Payment: Your Individual Class Payment is based on the number Workweeks you worked, as represented in Defendant’s records, in comparison to the total number of Workweeks worked by all Class Members during the Class Period (May 1, 2020, through the earliest of July 29, 2025, or the date of preliminary approval of this class action settlement). Eighty (80%) of each Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be treated as a payment in settlement of the alleged claims for penalties and interest and will be reported on a Form 1099 by the Settlement Administrator, and twenty percent (20%) of each Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be treated as a payment in settlement of alleged claims for unpaid wages. The 20% allocated as unpaid wages will be reduced by applicable payroll tax withholdings and deductions and reported on a Form W-2.

Individual PAGA Payment: If you worked for Defendant from May 1, 2023, through the day the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement (“PAGA Period”), you are also an “Aggrieved Employee” and will receive an Individual PAGA Payment in addition to your Individual Class Payment. The Individual PAGA Payments are based on the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by each Aggrieved Employee in comparison to the total amount of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period. One hundred percent (100%) of each Aggrieved Employees’ Individual PAGA Payment will be characterized as penalties and will not be reduced by payroll tax withholdings and deductions. The Individual PAGA Payment will be reported on a Form 1099 by the Settlement Administrator. An approximation of your anticipated Individual PAGA Payment appears on the first page of this Notice.

For the Class Members who are also Aggrieved Employees, their Individual Class Payment will be combined with their Individual PAGA Payment, and they will receive a single check for the combined payments. If a Class Member chooses to opt-out of the Settlement, they will still receive an Individual PAGA Payment, as Aggrieved Employees cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. See, e.g., Robinson v So. County Oil, 53 Cal. App. 476 (2020).

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT

9. HOW DO I CHALLENGE MY WORKWEEK AND/OR PAY PERIOD COUNT?

To dispute the number of workweeks and/or pay periods provided above, you must contact the Settlement Administrator and provide any supporting documentation. In the absence of contrary documentation, the Settlement Administrator will presume the workweek and pay period count is correct. To challenge your workweek and pay period count, you must contact the Settlement Administrator no later than [60 days after Class Notice is Mailed]. You may contact Settlement Administrator at:

Apex Class Action Administration
Frank Alegre Trucking, Inc. Settlement

XXXXX

City, State, XXXXX

Email:

Fax:

10. HOW DO I RECEIVE A PAYMENT?

You do not need to do anything to receive a payment. However, if you believe that the number of Workweeks or PAGA Pay Periods you worked is incorrect, please correct it and provide any supporting evidence to the settlement Administrator, whose contact information is listed in Section 12 below.

11. WHEN WOULD I GET MY PAYMENT?

The Court will hold a Final Fairness Hearing on _____, to decide whether to approve the Settlement. If the Judge approves the Settlement, and anyone objects, there may be appeals. It is always uncertain when these objections and appeals can be resolved and resolving them can take time. If there is no objection, the Effective Date of the Settlement will be the date of entry of the Court's Order Granting Final Approval.

Following the Effective Date, Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will be mailed to Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees approximately 37 days after the Court's approval of the Settlement becomes final so long as there are no appeals.

Settlement checks should be cashed promptly upon receipt. Proceeds of checks which remain uncashed after 180 days from the date of issuance will be forwarded to the State of California Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of each Participating Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee who did not cash his or her settlement check. If your settlement check is lost or misplaced, you should contact the Settlement Administrator immediately to request a replacement. You can search for unclaimed property on the State's website at: https://www.sco.ca.gov/search_upd.html.

For an update on the status of payments, please contact the Settlement Administrator (see Section 12).

12. WHAT AM I GIVING UP TO GET A PAYMENT?

If the Court approves this Settlement and unless you exclude yourself, you will become a Participating Class Member, and that means that you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant concerning the legal claims being resolved in this Settlement. Specifically, you will be giving up or “releasing” the Released Class Claims described below against Defendant and each of its current and former parents, owners, subsidiaries, divisions, and affiliated or related persons or entities, and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, partners, shareholders, attorneys, agents, executors, and assigns (“Released Parties”). The releases become effective once the GSA is fully funded by Defendant.

Released Class Claims: All Participating Class Members on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns will waive and release all claims asserted in the Operative Class Complaint, or that could have been based on the factual allegations asserted in the Operative Class Complaint during the Class Period (collectively the “Released Class Claims”).

Released PAGA Claims: The claims released by Aggrieved Employees (i.e. if you worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period), including Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees, are all claims for civil penalties under PAGA arising during the PAGA Period that were alleged in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice to the LWDA and the Operative PAGA Complaint, or that could have been based on the facts asserted in the PAGA Notice and the Operative PAGA Complaint against Released Parties (collectively the “Released PAGA Claims”).

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

13. HOW DO I EXCLUDE MYSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must send the Settlement Administrator a written and signed request for exclusion which must be postmarked no later than [60 days after Class Notice is Mailed]. Be sure to include your name, address, and telephone number, and any other information you think would be helpful to the settlement Administrator to identify you. You can send your request for exclusion to the settlement Administrator at:

Apex Class Action Administration

City, State, XXXXX

Email:

Fax:

If you ask to be excluded from the Settlement, you will not be legally bound by anything that happens in the Action, except as it relates to settlement of the PAGA claim. If you ask to be excluded from the Settlement you will not be able to object to the Settlement and you will not receive an Individual Class Payment, but you will still receive an Individual PAGA Payment if you worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period (May 1, 2023, through the earliest of July 29, 2025, or the date of Preliminary Approval of the Settlement.). If you ask to be excluded, you may be able to sue (or continue to sue) Defendant in the future.

14. IF I DON'T EXCLUDE MYSELF, CAN I SUE DEFENDANT FOR THE SAME THING LATER?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendant for the claims that this Settlement resolves. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You must exclude yourself from this Class to continue your own lawsuit. Remember, the exclusion deadline is [60 days after Class Notice is Mailed].

15. IF I EXCLUDE MYSELF, CAN I GET MONEY FROM THIS SETTLEMENT?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any money from this Settlement. However, if you timely exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will retain the right to pursue your own legal action against Defendant, if you desire.

17. HOW WILL THE LAWYERS BE PAID?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve $73,333.33 (or 1/3 of the GSA) for attorneys' fees incurred in investigating the facts, litigating the case, and negotiating the Settlement. Class Counsel will also seek Court-approval of up to $25,000.00 in litigation expenses incurred in this matter. The Court may award Class Counsel less than what they request. Class Counsel will also ask the Court to approve a payment to Plaintiff Joseph Alberto Rodriguez in the amount of $7,500.00 in addition to Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment for the initiative, risk, and time and energy Plaintiff has spent in service to the Class as the Class Representative. The Court may award a Class Representative less than what is requested.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can and have the right to tell the Court you do not agree with the Settlement or some part of it.

18. HOW DO I TELL THE COURT THAT I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

If you don't think the Settlement is fair, you can object to some or all of the Settlement. You can either object to the Settlement in person at the Final Approval Hearing or you can submit a written objection. Written objections and notices of intent to appear at the Final Approval Hearing must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator and postmarked on or before [REDACTED], 2025, at the following address:

Apex Class Action Administration
Frank Alegre Trucking, Inc. Settlement

XXXXXX

City, State, XXXXX

Email:

Fax

The written objection should state your name and address and describe all legal and factual reasons that you object to the terms of the Settlement. You should also include or attach any documents upon which your objection is based. If the Court overrules the objection at the Final Approval hearing, the Settlement Agreement will be approved, and you will receive your payment. If you do not submit a written objection, you may still appear at the Final Approval hearing to voice your objection or to otherwise observe the proceedings.

19. WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN OBJECTING AND REQUESTING EXCLUSION?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not agree with something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class.

Requesting exclusion is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you, and you do not get any money from this Settlement. If you submit both an objection and a request to be excluded from the settlement, the request to be excluded will control and you will not get any money from this settlement.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you don't have to.

20. WHEN AND WHERE WILL THE COURT DECIDE WHETHER TO APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing at [REDACTED] on [REDACTED] in Department 11B of the San Joaquin County Superior Court located at 180 E Weber Ave, Stockton, CA 95202, to determine whether the Settlement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them at that time. The Court will also be asked to approve the requests for the Class Representative Service Payment and the Class Counsel Fees and Litigation Expenses Payments.

21. DO I HAVE TO COME TO THE HEARING?

No. Class Counsel will answer questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to the Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection to the settlement administrator on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it is not necessary.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

22. WHAT IF I DO NOTHING AT ALL?

If you do nothing, you will receive a Settlement payment, and you will be bound by the terms of Settlement, which means that you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue a lawsuit, or be a part of any other lawsuit against the Defendant about the legal issues in the Action.
