1       I.     INTRODUCTION

2           This motion seeks preliminary approval of a $300,000.00 proposed wage-and-hour class 3 action settlement by Plaintiff on behalf of herself and all individuals who have previously been or 4 currently are employed by Defendant Antioch Dunes Healthcare, LLC (“Defendant”) as an hourly 5 paid or non-exempt employee within the State of California during the time period from, and 6 including, June 25, 2020 through, and including, June 11, 2025 (“Class,” “Class Members,” and 7 “Class Period”). At the time of this filing, the number of Class Members is estimated to be one-8 hundred sixty (160). (Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary 9 Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Moon Decl.”), ¶ 11, 73.)

10       II.    BACKGROUND

11           On June 25, 2024, Plaintiff, a former employee of Defendant, filed a wage-and-hour class 12 action lawsuit in the Superior Court of California, County of Contra Costa. (Moon Decl., ¶ 11.)
13 The lawsuit alleged the following causes of action: (a) failure to pay minimum wages [Cal. Lab.
14 Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197]; (b) failure to pay overtime compensation [Cal. Lab. Code 15 §§ 1194 and 1198]; (c) failure to provide meal periods [Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512]; (d) failure 16 to authorize and permit rest breaks [Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7]; (e) failure to indemnify necessary 17 business expenses [Cal. Lab. Code § 2802]; (f) failure to timely pay final wages at termination 18 [Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203]; (g) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements [Cal. Lab.
19 Code § 226]; and (h) unfair business practices [Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.]. On 20 August 27, 2024, Plaintiff amended her Complaint, adding a cause of action for civil penalties 21 pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) [Cal. Lab. Code § 2699, et seq.]. (Id.)

22           The Parties attended a full day mediation with Mediator Steve Rottman on March 11, 2025.
23 (Moon Decl., ¶ 13.) After exchanging data, including all relevant handbooks and policies 24 throughout the class period, a 24.5% sampling of the timekeeping and corresponding payroll 25 records, and class statistics, the Parties negotiated and agreed to the basic terms of the settlement.
26 A significant factor in settlement negotiations was an arbitration agreement that Defendant 27 produced at mediation. The settlement terms are now memorialized in the Class Action and PAGA 28 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice (Id.)

1 III. INVESTIGATION/ LITIGATION HISTORY

2 a. Discovery, Investigation, and the Parties’ Staunchly Conflicting Positions

3 The Parties conducted significant investigation and discovery of the facts and law both 4 before and after this case was filed. (Moon Decl., ¶ 15.) The Parties met and conferred and agreed 5 to attend mediation. (Id.) The Parties agreed to engage in an informal exchange of information in 6 advance of mediation. (Id.) Specifically, Defendant produced documents relating to its policies, 7 practices, and procedures regarding the job duties of hourly non-exempt employees, 8 reimbursement of business expenses, time punch records for non-exempt employees evidencing 9 all hours worked, meal and rest break policies, and payroll records for the putative class. (Id.) As 10 part of Defendant’s production, Plaintiff also reviewed a twenty-four-point-five percent (24.5%) 11 sampling of time records and pay records, and information relating to the size and scope of the 12 Class, as well as data permitting Plaintiff to understand the number of workweeks in the Class
13 Period. (Id.)

14 Based upon the information provided by Defendant and interviews Class Counsel had with 15 Class Members, Plaintiff contends – and Defendant denies – Defendant: (1) failed to provide 16 employees with legally mandated meal and rest breaks; (2) failed to pay employees for all hours 17 worked; (3) failed to pay overtime compensation properly; (4) failed to reimburse employees for 18 necessary business expenses; (5) issued noncompliant wage statements; and (6) is liable for 19 waiting time penalties. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 17-22.)

20 b. The Parties Were Able to Reach an Agreement on Settlement of the Action

21 i. The Parties Attended Mediation Which Led to the Settlement

22 The Parties attended mediation with the mediator, Steve Rottman on March 11, 2025.
23 (Moon Decl., ¶ 13.) Through mediation, the Parties reached a settlement, the terms of which were 24 memorialized in the Amended Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice 25 (“Settlement Agreement,” “Settlement,” or “Agreement”) the Parties now seek Preliminary 26 Approval of. (Id.; Exhibit 1.)
27
28

1                   ii.       The Settlement Was Reached as a Result of Arm’s-Length
2                   Negotiations

3           The Settlement Agreement was reached because of arm’s-length negotiations. (Moon 4 Decl., ¶ 47.) Though cordial and professional, the settlement negotiations have always been 5 adversarial and non-collusive in nature. (Id.) At the mediation and throughout the negotiation 6 process, both Parties’ counsel conducted extensive arm’s-length settlement negotiations until an 7 agreement was reached. (Id.)

8           Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continued proceedings 9 necessary to continue the litigation against Defendant. (Moon Decl., ¶ 48.) Plaintiff and Class 10 Counsel also considered the uncertainty and risk of further litigation, potential outcome, existing 11 arbitration agreements, and difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation as well as Defendant’s 12 past and current financial condition. (Id.) Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Counsel 13 believe the Settlement Agreement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable settlement, and is in the best 14 interests of the Class Members. (Id.)

15                   iii.       The Settlement Is the Result of Thorough Investigation and Discovery

16           The Parties thoroughly investigated and evaluated the factual strengths and weaknesses of 17 the Parties’ claims and defenses before reaching the Settlement and engaged in sufficient 18 investigation, research, and discovery. (Moon Decl., ¶ 49.) The Settlement was only possible 19 following significant investigation and evaluation of Defendant’s relevant policies and procedures, 20 as well as the data produced. (Id.) Furthermore, this case has reached the stage where “the Parties 21 certainly have a clear view of the strengths and weaknesses of their cases” sufficient to support the 22 Settlement’s reasonableness, adequacy, and fairness. (Id.; Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D.Cal. 1979) 23 485 F.Supp. 610, 617.)

24                   c.   Terms of the Proposed Settlement

25                   i.       Deductions from the Settlement

26           28.    The Parties agreed (contingent upon the Court’s approval) this action be settled and 27 compromised for the maximum sum of $300,000.00 (“Gross Settlement Amount”) which includes:
28 (a) Class Counsel Fees Payment of $100,000.00 (1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount); (b) Class

1 Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment not to exceed $25,000.00 for reimbursement of litigation 2 costs and expenses; (c) Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff not to exceed $7,500.00; 3 (d) Administration Expenses Payment to ILYM Group, Inc., the Administrator, not to exceed 4 $5,000.00; (e) PAGA Penalties of $10,000.00, sixty-five percent (65%) of which ($6,500.00) will 5 be paid to the LWDA and thirty-five percent (35%) of which ($3,500.00) shall be paid to 6 Aggrieved Employees, on a pro rata basis; and (f) Defendant's share of applicable payroll taxes.
7 (Moon Decl., ¶ 24.)

8 ii. Calculating Individual Settlement Payments

9 After all Court-approved deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, it is estimated 10 $152,500.00 ("Net Settlement Amount") will be available to be distributed to Class Members who 11 do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion ("Participating Class Members") – with an 12 average gross Individual Class Payment estimated at $953.13. (Moon Decl., ¶ 25.) Each Individual 13 Class Payment will be calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number 14 of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) 15 multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks. (Id.) Ten percent (10%) 16 of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of 17 wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). (Id.) The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will 18 be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. (Id.) The remaining ninety percent (90%) of each Participating 19 Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims interest 20 and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). (Id.) The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage 21 withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. (Id.) Participating Class Members assume 22 full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payments.
23 (Id.)

24 Furthermore, the Administrator shall pay each eligible Aggrieved Employee according to 25 his or her proportional share, which will be based upon the total number of Pay Periods he or she 26 was employed during the PAGA Period (June 22, 2023 to June 11, 2025). (Moon Decl., ¶ 26, 12.) 27 The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of 28 the Aggrieved Employees' 35% share of PAGA Penalties (i.e., $3,500.00) by the total number of

1 PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b)
2 multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. (Id.) Aggrieved
3 Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA
4 Payment. (Id.)

5 iii. Notice to the Class

6 Not later than fifteen (15) days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the 7 Settlement, Defendant will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form 8 of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. (Moon Decl., ¶ 27.) To protect Class Members' privacy rights, 9 the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes
10 of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator 11 employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. (Id.)
12 Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class 13 Data omitted class member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data 14 as soon as reasonably feasible. (Id.) Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant 15 must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use 16 best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or 17 omitted Class Data. (Id.)

18 32. No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the 19 Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of 20 Class Members, PAGA Members, Workweeks, and Pay Periods in the Class Data. (Moon Dec., ¶ 21 28.)

22 33. Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than fourteen 23 (14) days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members 24 identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service ("USPS") mail, the Class 25 Notice substantially in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A. (Moon Dec., 26 ¶ 29.) The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any 27 Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment (if applicable) payable to the Class 28 Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Period Workweeks (if applicable) used to

1 calculate these amounts. (Id.) Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class 2 Member addresses using the National Change of Address database. (Id.)

3 34. Not later than three (3) business days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class 4 Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using 5 any forwarding address provided by the USPS. (Moon Dec., ¶ 30.) If the USPS does not provide 6 a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-7 mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. (Id.) The Administrator has no 8 obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class 9 Notice is returned by the USPS a second time. (Id.)

10 iv. Distribution of Funds

11 45. Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount of $300,000.00 and the 12 amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to 13 the Administrator no later than fourteen (14) days after the Effective Date of the Settlement.
14 (Moon Dec., ¶ 41.)

15 46. Within fourteen (14) days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, 16 the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA 17 Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class
18 Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class 19 Representative Service Payment. (Moon Dec., ¶ 42.) Disbursement of the Class Counsel Fees 20 Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and the Class Representative Service
21 Payment shall not precede disbursement of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA 22 Payments. (Id.)

23 47. The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or 24 Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, 25 postage prepaid. (Moon Dec., ¶ 43.) The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not 26 less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator 27 will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. (Id.) The Administrator will send checks for 28 Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). (Id.) The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). (Id.) The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment. (Id.) Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database. (Id.)

v. Release of Claims

Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows: (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5):

Plaintiff and his or her respective former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns generally, release and discharge Released Parties from all claims, transactions, or occurrences that occurred during the Class Period, including, but not limited to: (a) all claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged, based on the facts contained, in the Operative Complaint and (b) all PAGA claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged based on facts contained in the Operative Complaint, Plaintiff's PAGA Notice, or ascertained during the Action and released under 5.2, of the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5.1.) Plaintiff's Release does not extend to any claims or actions to enforce this Agreement, or to any claims for vested benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits that arose at any time, or based on occurrences outside the Class Period. (Id.) Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff now knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that Plaintiff's Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or Plaintiff's discovery of them. (Id.) For purposes of Plaintiff's Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code. (Settlement Agreement,

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5.2.) Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period. (Id.)

All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice, and ascertained in the course of the Action. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5.3.)

With regards to class action releases, “[A] court may release not only those claims alleged in the complaint and before the court, but also claims which ‘could have been alleged by reason of or in connection with any matter or fact set forth or referred to in’ the complaint.” (Amaro v. Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (2021) 69 Cal.App.5th 521, 537.) The scope of the release in this case is acceptable because it is limited to the scope of the allegations “. . . that were alleged in the Complaint or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts and legal theories contained in the operative Complaint.” In other words, the released claims do not “go beyond the scope of the allegations in the operative complaint . . . .” (Amaro v. Anaheim Arena Management, LLC supra at 537.)

d. Counsel for Both Parties Are Experienced in Similar Litigation

Both Parties' counsel are experienced in wage-and-hour employment law and class actions. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 1-10.) Class Counsel have prosecuted numerous cases on behalf of employees for

1 Labor Code violations and are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, settlement 2 versus trial on a fully informed basis, and viability of the defenses. (Id.) This experience instructed 3 Class Counsel on the risks and uncertainties of further litigation and guided their determination to 4 endorse the Settlement. (Id.)

5 IV. ARGUMENT

6 a. Class Action Settlements Are Subject to Court Review

7 California Rules of Court, rule 3.769 requires court approval for class action settlements.<sup>1</sup> 8 “Before final approval, the court must conduct an inquiry into the fairness of the proposed 9 settlement.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g).) Rule 3.769 further requires a noticed motion for 10 preliminary approval of class settlements:

11 (a) A settlement or compromise of an entire class action, or a cause of action in 12 a class action, or as to a party, requires the approval of the court after 13 hearing.

14 . . .

15 I Any party to a settlement agreement may serve and file a written notice of 16 motion for preliminary approval of the settlement. The settlement 17 agreement and proposed notice to class members must be filed with the 18 motion, and the proposed order must be lodged with the motion.

19 Courts have discretion to approve settlements that are fair, not collusive, and consider “all 20 the normal perils of litigation as well as the additional uncertainties inherent in complex class 21 actions.” (In re Beef Industry Antitrust Litigation (5th Cir. 1979) 607 F.2d 167, 179, cert. den. Sub 22 nom. Iowa Beef Processors, Inc. v. Meat Price<sup>1</sup>Investigators Ass’n (1981) 452 U.S. 905.)

23 b. The Proposed Settlement Is a Reasonable Compromise of Claims

24 An understanding of the amount in controversy is an important factor in whether the 25 settlement “of the class members’ claims is reasonable in light of the strengths and weaknesses of 26 the claims and the risks of the particular litigation.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168
27 Cal.App.4th 116, 129; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186

28 <sup>1</sup> The California Supreme Court has also authorized California’s trial courts to use Federal Rule 23 and cases applying it for guidance in considering class issues. (See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, 821; see Green v. Obledo (1981) 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146.) Where appropriate, Plaintiff cites Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

1 Cal.App.4th 399, 409.) The most important factor in this regard is “the strength of the case for 2 plaintiffs on the merits, balanced against the amount offered in settlement.” (Kullar, at p. 129; see 3 also Munoz, at p. 409.)

4 In weighing the strength of the plaintiff’s case, Kullar instructs the court is not to “decide 5 the merits of the case or to substitute its evaluation of the most appropriate settlement for that of 6 the attorneys.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 133.) Finally, 7 Kullar does not require an explicit statement of the maximum amount the class could recover if 8 the plaintiff prevailed on all his claims, provided there is a record that allows “an understanding 9 of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.” (Munoz 10 v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 409.) Put differently, 11 “as the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith under Code of Civil Procedure § 12 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of 13 reasonableness.” (Kullar, at p. 133.)

14 i. The Settlement Amount of $300,000.00 Is Fair and Reasonable

15 The Settlement was possible following significant investigation and evaluation of 16 Defendant’s relevant policies and procedures, as well as the data Defendant produced for the Class, 17 as referenced in Section III above, permitting Class Counsel to engage in a comprehensive analysis 18 of liability and potential damages. (Moon Decl., ¶ 49.)

19 Plaintiff’s claims are predicated on Defendant’s purported: (a) failure to pay minimum 20 wages; (b) failure to pay overtime compensation; (c) failure to provide meal and rest breaks and 21 pay applicable premium wages; (d) failure to indemnify necessary business expenses; I failure to 22 timely pay final wages at termination; (f) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (g) 23 violation of Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.; and (h) violation of PAGA.
24 (Moon Decl., ¶ 50.)

25 Although Plaintiff believes the case is suitable for certification, uncertainties with respect 26 to certification are always present. (Moon Decl., ¶ 52.) As the California Supreme Court ruled in 27 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, class certification is always a 28 matter of the trial court’s sound discretion. (Id.) Decisions following Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc.

1 have reached different conclusions concerning certification of wage-and-hour claims.<sup>2</sup> (Id.) This 2 led Plaintiff to discount the calculations for potential damages.

3 ii. The PAGA Payment of $10,000.00 Is Reasonable

4 The provisions of the Labor Code potentially triggering PAGA penalties in this case 5 include, but are not limited to, Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 218.6, 226, 6 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, and 2802. (Moon Decl., 7 ¶ 60.) Defendant asserted, regardless of the results of the underlying causes of action, PAGA 8 penalties are not mandatory but permissive and discretionary. (Id.) Defendant also maintained, in 9 addition to its strong arguments against the underlying claims, it had a strong argument it would 10 be unjust to award maximum PAGA penalties given the law's unsettled state. (Id.; Thurman v.
11 Bayshore Transit Mgmt. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112 [reducing penalties by 30% under this 12 authority].) Defendant argued stacking and limited to the initial violation, the PAGA penalties 13 would be limited to $16,000.00 (160 employees x $100 penalty for initial violation) on the low 14 end and $128,000.00 (160 employees x $100 penalty for initial violation x 8 theories of recovery)
15 on the high end. (Moon Decl., ¶ 62.)

16 Plaintiff also recognized the risk any PAGA award could be significantly reduced. (Moon 17 Decl., ¶ 63.) Many of the causes of action brought were duplicative of the statutory claims, such 18 as violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 19 2802. (Id.) Thus, allocating $10,000.00 to PAGA civil penalties was reasonable given Defendant
20 has designated an additional $152,500.00 from the Net Class Settlement.<sup>3</sup> (Id.) When PAGA

21 <sup>2</sup> (See, e.g., Harris v. Superior Court (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 164 [reversing decertification 22 of class claiming misclassification and ordering summary adjudication in favor of employees], 23 review granted Nov. 28, 2007, (2007) 171 P.3d 545 [not cited as precedent, but rather for 24 illustrative purposes only]; Walsh v. IKON Solutions, Inc. (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 1440 [affirming 25 decertification of class claiming misclassification]; Aguilar v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2006) 144 26 Cal.App.4th 121 [reversing denial of certification]; Dunbar v. Albertson's Inc. (2006) 141 27 Cal.App.4th 1422 [affirming denial of certification].)

28 <sup>3</sup> (See Carrington v. Starbucks Corp. (2018) 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 [affirming a rate of $5 per violation and a total PAGA penalty of $150,000 while the plaintiff requested a rate of $25 to $75 per violation and a total PAGA penalty of $70,000,000].)

penalties are negotiated in good faith and “there is no indication that [the] amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other Class Members,” such amounts are generally considered reasonable.<sup>4</sup> (Id.)

Considering Defendant’s defenses, its supporting evidence, and its position the case is not suitable for class treatment, the Settlement of $300,000.00 is reasonable, adequate, and fair.

c. Discount Analysis Justifies the Settlement

Excluding the civil penalties, which could be completely discretionary, the total estimated potential exposure, assuming certification and prevailing at trial, would be about $1,649,146.85. (Moon Decl., ¶ 64.)

| Category                                  | Potential Exposure    | Certification Risk | Merits Risk | Realistic Exposure  |
|-------------------------------------------|-----------------------|--------------------|-------------|---------------------|
| Rest Break Premiums                       | $331,066.70          | 70%                | 50%         | $49,660.01         |
| Meal Break Premiums                       | $266,941.86          | 30%                | 50%         | $93,429.65         |
| Overtime/Minimum Wage: Off-the-Clock Work | $87,174.29           | 70%                | 50%         | $13,076.14         |
| Unreimbursed Business Expenses            | $384,000.00          | 30%                | 70%         | $80,640.00         |
| Wage Statement Penalty                    | $328,000.00          | 100%               | 100%        | $0.00              |
| Waiting Time Penalty                      | $251,964.00          | 40%                | 40%         | $90,707.04         |
| MAXIMUM TOTAL EXPOSURE             | $1,649,146.85 |                    |             | $327,512.84 |

76. Based on this analysis, the realistic recovery for this case is $327,512.84. (Moon Decl., ¶ 71.) The Gross Settlement Amount of $300,000.00 is about 91.6% of the realistic recovery amount. (Id.) Thus, the Settlement is fair and reasonable. (Id.)

The only question at preliminary approval is whether the settlement is within the range of possible approval. (In re Tableware Antitrust Litig. (N.D.Cal. 2007) 484 F.Supp.2d 1059, 1079.)

<sup>4</sup> (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D.Cal. Apr. 3, 2009, No. CV-08-00844 EDL) 2009 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 33900, at *24; see, e.g., Nordstrom Com. Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 579, “[T]rial court did not abuse its discretion in approving a settlement which does not allocate any damages to the PAGA claims”.)

1 “The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery does 2 not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be 3 disapproved.” (City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corporation (2d Cir. 1974) 495 F.2d 448, 455; see also 4 Linney v. Ceullar Alaska Partnership (9th Cir. 1998) 151 F.3d 1234, 1242, “[I]t is the very 5 uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce 6 consensual settlements. The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or 7 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators”.) Nevertheless, this 8 settlement is in line with the realistic exposure had Plaintiff prevailed at trial and provides a 9 significant recovery for the Class Members.

10 d. Conditional Certification of the Class Is Appropriate

11 Code of Civil Procedure section 382 “authorizes class actions ‘when the question is one of 12 a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is 13 impracticable to bring them all before the court.’” (Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 14 supra, 34 Cal.4th at p. 326.) California courts certify class actions where the plaintiff identifies 15 “both [1] an ascertainable class and [2] a well-defined community of interest among class 16 members.” (Id.)

17 The “Class is ascertainable and numerous as to make it impracticable to join all Class 18 Members, and there are common questions of law and fact that predominate over any questions 19 affecting any individual Class Member. (Moon Decl., ¶ 72.) Plaintiff contends as a former hourly-20 paid, non-exempt employee of Defendant, his claims are typical of the claims of the Class, and 21 Class Counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class. (Id.) Also, Plaintiff 22 asserts the prosecution of separate actions by individual Class Members would create the risk of 23 inconsistent or varying adjudications. (Id.)

24 i. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Sufficiently Numerous

25 “Ascertainability is required in order to give notice to putative class members as to whom 26 the judgment in the action will be res judicata.” (Hicks v. Kaufman & Broad Home Corp. (2001) 27 89 Cal.App.4th 908, 914.) “A class is ascertainable if it identifies a group of unnamed plaintiffs 28 by describing a set of common characteristics sufficient to allow a member of that group to identify

1 himself or herself as having a right to recover based on the description.” (Bartold v. Glendale
2 Federal Bank (2000) 81 Cal.App.4th 816, 828.) The proposed class must also be sufficiently 3 numerous. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 435.)

4 This case involves about one-hundred sixty (160) Class Member who did not sign an 5 arbitration agreement. (Moon Decl., ¶ 73.) Thus, the Class is sufficiently numerous. (Id.; 6 Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd. (2008) 169 Cal.App.4th 1524, 1531, n.5 [finding that a 7 proposed class of “as many as 190 current and former employees” is sufficiently numerous].)

8 ii. The Class Members Share a Well-defined Community of Interest

9 The community of interest requirement “embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 10 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 11 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
12 Superior Court, supra, 34 Cal.4th at p. 326.) “[T]he community of interest requirement for 13 certification does not mandate that class members have uniform or identical claims.” (Capitol 14 People First v. Department of Developmental Services (2007) 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 692 (emphasis 15 in original).) Rather, courts focus on the defendant’s internal policies and “pattern and practice . .
16 . in order to assess whether that common behavior toward similarly situated plaintiffs renders class 17 certification appropriate.” (Id.) The application of each of these factors is discussed below.

18 1. Common Issues Predominate

19 The “common issues” requirement “involves analysis of whether the proponent’s ‘theory 20 of recovery’ is likely to prove compatible with class treatment.” (Capitol People First v.
21 Department of Developmental Services, supra, 155 Cal.App.4th at p. 690 (emphasis added).) In 22 other words, courts determine whether the elements necessary to establish liability are susceptible 23 to common proof, even if the class members must individually prove their damages. (Brinker 24 Restaurant Corporation v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1024). These types of claims are 25 regularly granted class certification when the plaintiff can present evidence of common policies.
26 (See, e.g., Jones v. JGC Dallas LLC (N.D.Tex. Nov. 29, 2012, Civil Action No. 3:11-CV-2743-27 O) 2012 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 185042 [certified collective action involving 190 dancers]; Espinoza v.
28 Galardi South Enters. (S.D.Fla. Jan. 11, 2016, No. 14-21244-CIV-GOODMAN) 2016

1 U.S.Dist.LEXIS [court certified class of dancers on state law claims].)

2 Plaintiff asserts common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims 3 alleged. (Moon Decl., ¶ 74.) Plaintiff contends all Class Members were subject to the same or 4 similar employment practices, policies, and procedures described in detail above. (Id.)

5 2. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Class Claims

6 Typical claims rely on legal theories and facts that are substantially like those of other class 7 members. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 46.) Plaintiff is a former hourly, non-8 exempt employee of Defendant and alleges he and the Class Members were employed by the same 9 company and injured by Defendant's common policies and practices related to the claims 10 described above. (Moon Decl., ¶ 75.) Plaintiff seeks relief for these claims and derivative claims 11 on behalf of all Class Members. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff's claims arise from the same employment 12 practices and are based on the same legal theories as those applicable to the Class. (Id.)

13 3. Plaintiff Is Adequate to Represent the Class

14 Plaintiff has proven to be an adequate Class Representative. (Moon Decl., ¶ 76.) Plaintiff 15 conducted herself diligently and responsibly in representing the Class in this litigation, understands 16 her fiduciary obligations, and actively participated in the prosecution of this case. (Id.) Plaintiff 17 spent considerable time in meetings and conferences with Class Counsel to provide them with a 18 complete understanding of her work environment and requirements. (Id.) Plaintiff has no interest 19 adverse to the interests of the other Class Members. (Id.)

20 4. Class Action Is Superior for the Fair and Efficient

21 Adjudication of this Controversy

22 A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of 23 this controversy. Plaintiff contends the joinder of all Class Members is impractical and that class 24 treatment will permit many similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims for 25 settlement purposes simultaneously in a single forum without the duplication of effort and expense 26 that numerous individual actions would necessitate. Because several Class Members are also 27 current employees, Plaintiff believes fear of retaliation further supports the superiority of class-28

1 wide relief as this fear often discourages current employees from seeking legal redress.

2 e. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate

3 In deciding whether to approve a proposed class action settlement under Code of Civil 4 Procedure section 382, the Court must find a proposed settlement is “fair, adequate and 5 reasonable.” (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801.) A proposed class action 6 settlement is presumed fair under the following circumstances: (1) the parties reached settlement 7 after arm’s-length negotiations; (2) investigation and discovery were sufficient to allow counsel 8 and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the 9 percentage of objectors is small.<sup>5</sup> (Id. at p. 1802.) All these elements are present here.

10 f. Notice to Class Members Complies with California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(f)

11 California Rules of Court, rule 3.769(f), provides:

12
13 If the court has certified the action as a class action, notice of the final approval 14 hearing must be given to class members in the manner specified by the court. The 15 notice must contain an explanation of the proposed settlement and procedures for 16 class members to follow in filing written objections to it and in arranging to appear 17 at the settlement hearing and state any objections to the proposed settlement.

18 The Class Notice meets all these requirements. The Class Notice advises the Class 19 Members of their right to participate in the Settlement, how and when to object to or request 20 exclusion from the Settlement, and the date, time, and location of the Final Approval hearing.
(See Moon Decl., Exhibit A.)

21 V. CONCLUSION

22 Plaintiff submits the Settlement is in the Class’s best interests. Under the applicable class 23 action criteria and guidelines, the Settlement should be preliminarily approved by the Court, Class 24 should be conditionally certified for settlement purposes, and the Notice Packet should be 25 approved.

26
27 <sup>5</sup> The final factor mentioned in Dunk – the number of objectors – is not determinable until the 28 Notice Packet has been provided to the Class, and they have had an opportunity to respond. This information will be provided to the Court in conjunction with the Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement.
