I, KANE MOON, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice as such before all the Courts of the State of California and am one of the attorneys of record for Plaintiff Celia Barroso (“Plaintiff”). I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this declaration and if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to them under oath.

2. This declaration is submitted in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement. Plaintiff seeks approval of a PAGA Settlement Agreement (the "Settlement") entered into with Defendant Applied Composites Holdings, LLC ("Defendant") (collectively, Plaintiff and Defendant are the "Parties"). A true and correct copy of the fully executed Settlement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Exhibit A to the Settlement contains the Parties' proposed Court-Approved Notice of PAGA Settlement to be mailed to Aggrieved Employees with Settlement Payments following settlement approval and Defendant's full settlement funding.

3. The proposed Settlement seeks to resolve all alleged claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). Plaintiff brought this PAGA action on behalf of herself and all current and former non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period (“Aggrieved Employees”). For purposes of settlement, the “PAGA Period” is June 22, 2023, through March 15, 2026. (Settlement, ¶ 3.)

CASE BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4. Defendant is an aviation and car parts manufacturer doing business in the State of California. Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a laminator from approximately 1983 to January 2024. Throughout her employment, Plaintiff was classified as non-exempt and paid on an hourly basis. Plaintiff contends she and her former coworkers were subjected to the same or similar unlawful labor practices during their employment by Defendant, including failure to pay all wages.

5. Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages stems from allegations of Defendant's failure to pay employees all minimum, overtime, sick pay, and regular rate wages owed, including due to Defendant's failure to compensate employees for off-the-clock work, such as for waiting in line to clock in for shifts, and Defendant's failure to incorporate all remunerations into the regular rate of pay. Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work and Defendant's employment practices, employees regularly experienced missed, untimely, or interrupted breaks, and that Defendant failed to provide any premiums for non-compliant rest breaks or all premiums for non-compliant meals. Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse employees for all reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred, including pens, cloth gloves, non-slip shoes, and use of personal cell phones for work purposes. Plaintiff further alleges she and other employees did not receive all wages owed at the time of termination nor accurate itemized wage statements due to Defendant's failure to pay all wages and premiums. Accordingly, Plaintiff alleges Defendant is liable for civil penalties under PAGA.

6. Because of the foregoing alleged violations of the Labor Code, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint on June 25, 2024, alleging Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit rest breaks, (5) failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business practices.

7. Pursuant to PAGA, on June 22, 2024, Plaintiff submitted notice of the alleged Labor Code violations to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the "LWDA"), with certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's PAGA Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. The administrative exhaustion period under PAGA expired without the LWDA indicating any intent to investigate the allegations. On August 27, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint to allege a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA, (together with the Demand for Arbitration, the "Operative Complaint"). Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general with respect to the PAGA claims involved in this action.

8. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the First Amended Complaint containing the Court-assigned case number. To date, the LWDA has not sought to intervene in this action.

9. After this action was filed, Defendant produced an arbitration agreement between Defendant and Plaintiff containing a class action waiver. Therefore, pursuant to this valid arbitration agreement between the Parties, Plaintiff also subsequently submitted her individual claims to arbitration before JAMS on September 27, 2024, Reference No. 5200001947 (“Demand for Arbitration”).

10. Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff's factual allegations. Defendant argues all employees were properly paid for all hours worked and that it did not require or permit employees to work off-the-clock. As for the regular rate claim, Defendant argues there was no issue with paying employees the proper regular rate of pay because any additional remuneration was discretionary and thus, not required to be incorporated into the regular rate of pay. Defendant maintains all employees were provided with the opportunity to take all their code-compliant meal and rest breaks and that missed breaks, if any, were solely the result of employees' voluntary choice. As for the unreimbursed business expenses, Defendant maintains it did not require employees to incur any business-related expenses. To the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant argues penalties are not warranted because employees suffered no actual damage or harm as a result. (See, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013) No. C 12-05860 CRB, 2013 WL 622032, at *10 ["A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer's failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not sufficient."].) Additionally, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties because Plaintiff would be unable to show Defendant's alleged conduct was done willfully or knowingly. (See, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012) No. ED CV 11-298 GHK (DTBx), 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, Defendant claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. Defendant also maintains the claims are not susceptible to proof on a representative basis because of the individualized and varying nature of each employee's experience, making this matter unmanageable.

DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

11. Before continuing with arbitration regarding Plaintiff's individual claims, the Parties agreed to an early mediation of the representative PAGA claims. The Parties engaged in informal discovery exchange prior to mediation. Defendant provided information and documents, which enabled Plaintiff's Counsel to meaningfully investigate Plaintiff's allegations and assess the value of the PAGA claims. Specifically, Defendant produced Plaintiff's personnel file and her time and payroll records, documents

1 regarding Defendant's written policies and practices in effect during the relevant period, and time and 2 corresponding payroll records for approximately 18.4% of all Aggrieved Employees.

3 12. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information that Defendant
4 produced, including the time/pay records and Defendant's written policies, in conjunction with information
5 provided by Plaintiff. Plaintiff's Counsel retained an expert to analyze the time/pay records and prepare a
6 damage analysis prior to mediation. The time/pay records contained 29,424 shifts actually worked (roughly 7 17.5% of all shifts), which allowed the expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty.
8 Further, Plaintiff's Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in this 9 action. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel were able to evaluate the probability of success on the merits and 10 Defendant's monetary exposure. In sum, Plaintiff and her Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and 11 the legal issues involved allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

12 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND NOTICE TO THE LWDA

13 13. On December 15, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation facilitated
14 by Steve Rottman, Esq., an experienced PAGA action mediator. The negotiations were at arm's length
15 and although conducted in a professional matter, were adversarial. Both sides went into the mediation 16 willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but they were also prepared to litigate their 17 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. Negotiations were protracted, with 18 extended discussions and instances in which it appeared the Parties would not reach a resolution.
19 Following a full discussion of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses, the Parties
20 ultimately reached a resolution, the material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement at 21 issue.

22 14. In reaching a resolution, the Parties recognized that the issues presented in this action are 23 likely only to be resolved with extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings, and that further 24 litigation will lead to inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense disproportionate to the 25 potential benefits of litigation. Plaintiff and her Counsel also considered the risk and uncertainty of the 26 outcome inherent in any litigation when determining whether this Settlement was the correct option. In 27 sum, Plaintiff and her Counsel believe the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of Aggrieved
28 Employees and the LWDA.

15. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's motion and the hearing date. A true and correct copy of the LWDA's email confirming receipt thereof is attached hereto as Exhibit 3. To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement.

KEY TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

16. Gross Settlement Amount, Funding, Disbursement, and Uncashed Checks. The Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”) is $400,000.00 and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 14.) Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Effective Date as defined under the Settlement. (See id. at ¶ 22.) Disbursement will occur within 14 days after Defendant fully funds the GSA. (Id.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance will be transmitted to the California State Controller’s Office, to be held pursuant to the Unclaimed Property Law in the name of each individual who failed to cash his or her check prior to the void date. (Id. at ¶ 24.)

17. Escalator Clause. The GSA was negotiated based on an estimate that as of the date of the Parties' mediation, there are 20,297 aggregate PAGA Pay Periods worked by approximately 544 Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶ 15(c).) The Settlement includes an Escalator Clause whereby should the actual number of PAGA Pay Periods exceed the 10% of the estimated count, Defendant agrees to make a proportional increase to the GSA by the percentage increase for each additional PAGA Pay Period above the escalator (22,327). (Id.)

18. Service Award. The Settlement includes a Service Award to Plaintiff in an amount up to $7,500.00, payable from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 18.) This payment is in recognition of Plaintiff having initiated the action and her services provided and role in the action. (Id.) In the event the amount approved by the Court is less, the difference will be allocated to the PAGA Penalties Fund. (Id.)

19. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. The Settlement includes attorneys' fees in an amount up to one-third (33%) of the GSA (i.e., at least $133,333.33), plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not to exceed $25,000.00, payable to Plaintiff's Counsel from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 16.) In the event actual costs are less and/or the amount of fees and costs approved by the Court are less than the amounts requested, the difference will be allocated to the PAGA Penalties Fund. (Id.) Plaintiff's Counsel have incurred $22,626.94

1 in actual litigation costs to date. A true and correct copy of a report showing these costs is attached hereto as 2 Exhibit 4.

3 20. Settlement Administration Costs. The Settlement provides for Settlement Administration Costs
4 to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount up to $15,000.00, for its fees and expenses in 5 administering this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 17.) In the event the amount of actual administration costs is less and/or 6 the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated to the PAGA
7 Penalties Fund. (Id.) Following a competitive bidding process, the Parties jointly selected Phoenix Class
8 Action Administration Solutions (“Phoenix”) as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement. (Id.) A true
9 and correct copy of Phoenix’s bid for $5,750.00 is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

10 21. PAGA Penalties Fund. After deducting the Service Award, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, and 11 Settlement Administration Costs from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any 12 difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the PAGA Penalties Fund
13 as PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ 8.) Accordingly, the PAGA Penalties Fund is estimated to be no less than 14 $230,789.73,¹ which will be distributed 65% (i.e., no less than 65% * $230,789.73= $150,013.32) to the 15 LWDA and 35% (i.e., no less than 35% * $230,789.73= $80,776.41) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to 16 PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims.

17 22. Settlement Payments. Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to his or her pro rata amount
18 from the 35% share of PAGA Penalties that is directly proportional to the number of pay periods worked in 19 the PAGA Period without having to submit any claim form. (Id. at ¶ 15.) This results in an average Individual
20 PAGA Payment of roughly $148.49 for each of the estimated 544 Aggrieved Employees ($80,776.41 /
21 544), and a PAGA Pay Period value of $3.98 for each of the 20,297 estimated PAGA Pay Periods
22 ($80,776.41 / 20,297). Assuming an Aggrieved Employee worked one Pay Period, the lowest PAGA
23 payment to an Aggrieved Employee is estimated to be $3.98 (1 Pay Period x $3.98 average Pay Period value).
24 Assuming an Aggrieved Employee worked 165 Pay Periods (maximum number of biweekly Pay Periods in 25 the PAGA Period), the highest PAGA payment is estimated to be $656.70 (165 Pay Periods x $3.98 average 26

27 ¹ The estimated PAGA Penalties Fund was calculated by deducting the following amounts from the GSA
28 ($400,000): $7,500.00 for the Service Award, $22,626.94 for the Attorneys’ Costs, $133,333.33 for the Attorneys’ Fees, and $5,750.00 for the Settlement Administration Costs. (See Settlement, ¶ 8.)

1 Pay Period value). Settlement Payments will be allocated to 100% penalties for tax purposes. (See id. at ¶ 24.)
2 Aggrieved Employees will receive an explanatory letter with their payment. (Id. at ¶ 24.)

3 23. Releases of Claims. The Released PAGA Claims will be effective upon entry of the Court's
4 Approval Order and Defendant's full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount. (Id. at ¶ 19(a).) The release
5 of claims is limited to claims for civil penalties pursuant to PAGA, which were alleged in Plaintiff's PAGA
6 Notice to the LWDA on June 22, 2024, and in Plaintiff's Operative Complaint, and arising during the 7 PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 19(a).) The "Released Parties" are "Defendant, and each of its past, present and 8 future, whether director or indirect, subsidiaries, affiliates, parent companies, divisions, successors,
9 predecessors, and assigns, and each of their respective past and present shareholders, officers, partners,
10 directors, members, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, successors, assigns, representatives, accountants,
11 and all persons acting on their behalf." (Id.)

12 24. No Related Cases. To the best of my knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving 13 similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has 14 Defendant pointed to any.

15 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

16 25. There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-collusive,
17 and arm's-length negotiations between the Parties. Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's analysis of the arguments
18 and information provided by Defendant, on an expert analysis of the time and pay records, and on information
19 from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated Defendant's both maximum and risk-adjusted potential exposure
20 in preparation for mediation. Although the expert's analysis revealed that the time and pay records supported 21 several violations by Defendant, those identifiable violations were primarily limited to the regular rate and 22 meal period claims. The records themselves did not provide strong support for the off-the-clock work, rest 23 period, and expense reimbursement claims, and derivative penalties for those claims, as these claims are 24 predominantly testimony based. In other words, Plaintiff's analysis revealed that certain claims were not as 25 strong as originally believed.

26 26. Because Defendant did not require employees to record rest periods, there are no records to 27 establish the rest period claim on the merits. Additionally, there are no records to establish the off-the-clock
28 work claim on the merits. Rather, proof of these claims would need to be supported by declarations from

1 Aggrieved Employees regarding missed rest periods and off-the-clock work as the records themselves
2 cannot demonstrate what breaks were missed, when, and why and they cannot demonstrate the time, if any,
3 Aggrieved Employees spent working off the clock.

4 27. Indeed, the maximum exposure figures that were calculated for mediation were based on 5 assumed high violation rates that would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as they assume either the 6 participation of all Aggrieved Employees (which would be difficult given the particularly large size of this 7 group), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the 8 participation of a majority of Aggrieved Employees to establish a sound representation of all non-exempt
9 employees). The reality is that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear of 10 retaliation. However, even assuming those employees would be willing to participate, obtaining such 11 declarations would potentially reveal that each Aggrieved Employee had a different experience. The 12 individualized nature of their employment experience and the numerosity of employees affected present
13 significant risk with manageability and proof on the merits.

14 28. Even as to the regular rate and meal period claims, our analysis found that Defendant's exposure
15 is less than initially believed. As to meal periods, a review of the time/pay records shows only a 17.2%
16 violation rate for Defendant. The records also showed payment of meal period premiums by Defendant,
17 reducing the net violation rate to 16.7%. As to the regular rate issue, in the sample time and pay records
18 Plaintiff's expert identified 7 total payments that were not factored into the regular rate of pay for purposes
19 of paying sick pay, meal break premiums, and overtime, resulting in a 5.0% violation rate for unpaid overtime,
20 0.2% violation rate for unpaid meal break premiums, and 4.0% violation rate for unpaid sick pay. Moreover,
21 these violation rates assume Plaintiff would be able to show the bonus payments were non-discretionary 22 payments that should have been factored into the regular rate.

23 29. The likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its 24 overall exposure. For example, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the claims could bar
25 manageability of this representative action or otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's overall liability.

26 30. Further, a claim-by-claim penalty calculation is overly optimistic as it presumes Plaintiff
27 would be able to stack the penalties, although penalty stacking is not expressly permitted by PAGA. Rather,
28 without either (i) a prior finding by the LWDA or a court within the past five years that the employer violated

1 PAGA or (ii) evidence that the employer's conduct was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive, PAGA only
2 provides for a maximum $100 penalty for each pay period. (Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2)(A)–(B).) Additionally,
3 Plaintiff's Counsel believe it would be unrealistic to expect the Court to award the full (penalty-stacked)
4 exposure given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties and given Defendant's defenses, including that
5 any failure to pay premiums, regular rate wages, or for off-the-clock work was not knowingly or willfully
6 done, and additionally, to the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate,
7 employees suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. Moreover, awarding the full penalties amount would 8 likely raise Due Process concerns.

9 31. For the foregoing reasons, the realistic exposure is thus far below the optimistic claim by claim 10 estimate.

11 32. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it is more reasonable to assess penalties on 12 a $100 civil penalty per pay period basis pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)(A) for each of the estimated
13 20,297 pay periods at issue, as opposed to a claim-by-claim approach. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel
14 estimate Defendant's maximum PAGA exposure to be $2,029,700.00 ($100 x 20,297). However, based on 15 the discovery, Defendant's arguments at mediations and continued settlement discussions, an 16 understanding that the claims are heavily dependent on the unlikely participation by Aggrieved Employees 17 and their varying employment experience, and other important considerations discussed above, it is 18 reasonable to assume a violation occurred in at most one-fourth of all pay periods, which results in a realistic
19 (risk-adjusted) exposure of $507,425.00 ($2,029,700 / 4). As a result, the GSA of $400,000 represents 20 roughly 79% of the realistic exposure ($400,000 / $507,425).

21 33. The proposed Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 22 reasonably forecasted recovery. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 23 continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability of appeal, it is 24 clear the GSA of $400,000 is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that settlement approval is 25 appropriate. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; see Munoz v. BCI
26 Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar does not require 27 "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its 28 claims," but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of

1 outcomes of the litigation”].)

2 34. The $400,000 GSA amounts to “genuine and meaningful” relief. This is an excellent result,
3 particularly because, under the Settlement, Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA will receive timely,
4 guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of not being able to recover anything at all.

5 35. The Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory purposes
6 of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and 7 meaningful relief, on the other. As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel,
8 engage in employee-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. Assuming approval is granted,
9 Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. Not including its own attorneys’ fees
10 and costs, Defendant will pay at least $400,000 to resolve this matter—of which at least $230,789.73 is 11 allocated toward PAGA Penalties and will be distributed as 65% to the LWDA and 35% to Aggrieved
12 Employees, in compliance with PAGA law governing the claims in this Action. (See Settlement, ¶ 15.)
13 This amount represents roughly 45% of the realistic exposure for the claims ($230,789.73 / $507,425),
14 as discussed above. Additionally, the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved 15 Employees from pursuing any individual (non-PAGA) claims they may have against Defendant or the 16 other Released Parties. (Id. at ¶ 19(a).)

17 36. Plaintiff’s Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the allegations.
18 Based on discovery and on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of 19 the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Furthermore, considering all 20 known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, appellate risk, the defenses that could 21 be asserted by Defendant on the merits, Plaintiff’s Counsel respectfully submit that the Settlement is in the 22 best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.

23 37. Although Plaintiff’s Counsel believe there is merit to Plaintiff’s allegations, they also 24 acknowledge a legitimate controversy exists as to each allegation. Plaintiff’s Counsel also recognize that 25 proving the amounts of penalties owed to each Aggrieved Employee would be an expensive, time-consuming, 26 and uncertain proposition.

27 38. Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel are also of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly 28 contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction.

39. While Plaintiff's Counsel believe there would be no persuasive grounds to reduce penalties, they recognize that the Court could determine otherwise and significantly reduce any award of penalties. This wide range of potential recovery and additional delays and risks of trial provide justification to settle for a reasonable amount of recovery at this point in the litigation. In all, based on the investigation and analysis of the claims in preparation for mediation, the maximum exposure did not comport with the realistic exposure that Defendant faced, as discussed above.

40. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues, the risk of not prevailing at trial, and the risk that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, the penalties would be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. The provisions of the Labor Code triggering PAGA penalties in this case include Labor Code sections 203, 210, 226, 1197.1, and 2802. However, PAGA penalties are not mandatory, but rather, permissive. (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) Accordingly, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming she is first able to win on the merits regarding her individual claims at arbitration and then defeat the manageability issues presented at litigation by the large number of Aggrieved Employees in this action, Plaintiff may still be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the Settlement.

41. The Settlement avoids the significant risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further litigation. Though the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and employee data analysis, they have not participated in formal discovery procedures, including depositions and expert discovery. Moreover, Plaintiff would have to proceed with arbitration of her individual claims and win on the merits before proceeding with litigation of the representative PAGA claims. Preparation for trial and the prospect of appeals in the wake of any summary judgment ruling would remain for the Parties. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial, a lengthy and uncertain process that could result in recovering less than was settled for.

THE SERVICE AWARD SHOULD BE APPROVED

42. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who was a former employee of Defendant, has cooperated

1 immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the State of California and
2 the Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff provided valuable information regarding her hours worked, and what
3 duties were performed during those hours. Plaintiff participated in decisions concerning this action, assisted 4 in preparation for the mediation, and searched for potential witnesses. Before we filed this action, Plaintiff
5 worked with my office to determine the viability of her claims. Plaintiff also provided information and 6 documents relating to her employment with Defendant. The information and documentation provided by 7 Plaintiff was instrumental in establishing the violations alleged in this action, and the recovery provided
8 for under the Settlement would have been impossible to obtain without her participation.

9 43. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding herself as the PAGA Representative in 10 this matter. Plaintiff faces actual risks with her future employment, as putting herself on public record in 11 an employment lawsuit could also very well affect her likelihood for future employment. For example, a
12 search of Plaintiff's name will reveal this action, and as a result, many employers may likely forego hiring
13 Plaintiff upon learning she sued a former employer.

14 44. In turn, Aggrieved Employees will now be reimbursed civil penalties for wage violations they 15 may have never known about or been willing to pursue on their own. If each Aggrieved Employee would 16 have tried to pursue legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a
17 significant amount of their own monetary resources and time, not to mention limited judicial resources, 18 which were obviated by Plaintiff putting herself on the line on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the 19 LWDA. Further, prior to executing the Settlement, Plaintiff carefully reviewed the document and asked 20 questions to ensure her understanding, including as to the total recovery and releases of claims.

21 45. Additionally, Plaintiff worked for Defendant from approximately 1983 until January 2024, over
22 40 years, as a loyal employee, where Plaintiff experienced regular Labor Code violations under Defendant's
23 wage and hour policies. Plaintiff worked for Defendant for approximately six months, or 12 pay periods,
24 during the Settlement Period, from the beginning of the Settlement Period June 22, 2023 to the end date of 25 Plaintiff's employment, January 2024. As an Aggrieved Employee, Plaintiff's estimated settlement payment 26 is approximately $47.76 (12 pay periods x 3.98 pay period value).

27 46. In the final analysis, this representative action would not have been possible without the aid of 28 Plaintiff, who put her own time and effort into this litigation and placed herself at risk for the sake of the

1 State of California and the Aggrieved Employees. The requested enhancement payment to Plaintiff for her
2 service as the PAGA Representative is a relatively small amount of money considering the time and effort
3 put into the litigation. For all the foregoing reasons, the requested enhancement to Plaintiff is reasonable.

4 MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

5 47. I received a B.A. in History in 1998 from UCLA, and my J.D. from Loyola Marymount Law
6 School in 2006. I became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in June 2007 and have been an
7 Active Member in good standing continuously since then. I have been selected to Super Lawyers each year 8 from 2019 to 2023.

9 48. I co-founded Moon & Yang, APC—now Moon Law Group, PC—in March 2010. My practice
10 is focused exclusively on advocating for the rights of employees in wage-and-hour litigation, almost entirely 11 in class and/or PAGA representative actions.

12 49. For the past decade, I have built my practice to have an emphasis on employment and related 13 civil litigation cases and have both prosecuted and defended employment-related litigation cases. I have been 14 heavily, successfully, and continuously involved in active litigation and trial work, and have conducted bench
15 and jury trials on behalf of both employees and employers in wage-and-hour cases.

16 50. My current billing rate is $950.00 per hour, which is my usual rate in wage-and-hour
17 litigations. This billing rate is reasonable considering my years of experience practicing in the highly 18 specialized area of employment and labor law and my Laffey Matrix rate. (The Laffey Matrix, 19 <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html> [last visited May 26, 2026].) The Laffey Matrix is a “well-
20 established objective source for rates that vary by experience” used by the District of Columbia. (In re HPL
21 Tech., Inc. Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 2005) 366 F. Supp 2d 912, 921.) A true and correct copy of the Laffey
22 Matrix is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. California Courts have adjusted the Laffey Matrix rate upwards
23 based on “locality pay differentials” and the location of counsel’s office in California to determine whether 24 counsel’s rates are reasonable. (See, e.g., id. [applying a 9% upward adjustment to the Laffey Matrix rate
25 based on an approximate difference of 9% between the locality pay differential of the District of Columbia
26 and San Francisco, California, where counsel’s office was located].) To determine the locality pay 27 differential, the Court in In re HPL Technologies, Inc. utilized the locality pay differentials within the 28 federal courts. (Id. at pp. 921–22.) Using the same method here and based on my firm’s location in Los Angeles, California, the locality pay differential of the Los Angeles-Long Beach area is 36.47% and of the Washington-Baltimore-Arlington area is 33.94%, which results in a difference of approximately 2.53%. (Compare Judiciary Salary Plan of Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA, eff. January 12, 2026, with Judiciary Salary Plan of Washington-Baltimore-Arlington, eff. January 12, 2026.) True and correct copies of the Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA and Washington-Baltimore-Arlington salary plans are attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and Exhibit 8, respectively. Based on my 19+ years of experience out of law school, my Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). Accordingly, my current billing rate of $950.00 per hour is reasonable.

51. I am experienced in prosecuting and defending employment matters, particularly class and PAGA actions. My firm has focused a substantial percentage of its practice on wage, hour, and working conditions violations. In addition to the present case, I am also class counsel for other wage-and-hour class action lawsuits pending in various counties throughout California, including in state and federal courts. The following is a list of some of our recent class action settlements that have received preliminary and final approval: Aparicio v. Lineage Logistics, LLC (LASC No. BC722764) (class size approx. 155; lead counsel); Black v. Mission Healthcare Servs., Inc. (LASC No. 19STCV04602) (class size approx. 1,000; lead counsel); Campa v. Bloomingdeals, Inc. (LASC No. BC700366) (class size approx. 1,500; lead counsel); Garcia v. Comfy U.S.A. Apparel, Inc. (LASC No. BC709630) (class size approx. 210; lead counsel); Gomez v. Fitness Alliance, LLC (Riverside No. PSC1404079) (class size approx. 1,000; lead counsel); Lagos v. ThyssenKrupp Elevator Corp. (LASC No. BC682972) ($750,000 for 79 class members; lead counsel); Mark Brulee et al. v. DAL Global Servs., LLC (C.D. Cal. Dec. 20, 2018) No. CV 17-6433 JVS(JCGx), 2018 WL 6616659, at *10 (class size approx. 2,650; lead counsel) (in approving my $650 hourly rate in that case, the Court found: “Class Counsel’s declarations show that the attorneys are experienced and successful litigators. Other courts have approved the attorneys’ current rates for the Moon & Yang, APC attorneys”); Martinez v. Bail Hotline Bail Bonds, Inc. (LASC No. BC700131) (class size approx. 173; lead counsel); Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (Sacramento No. 34-2018-00228252) (class size approx. 1,900; lead counsel); Onofre v. AMS Paving, Inc. (LASC No. BC722767) (case size approx. 260; lead counsel); Vertti v. Bagcraft Papercon III, LLC (LASC No. 19STCV12729) (class size approx. 260; lead counsel); and Wallick v. Campbell Soup Supply Co., LLC (San Joaquin No. STK-CV-UOE-2021-0000865) (class size 435; lead counsel).

ALLEN FEGHALI'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

52. Allen Feghali is a partner at Moon Law Group, PC. He received his B.A. in Global and International Studies in 2011 from UC Santa Barbara, and his J.D. from University of La Verne College of Law in 2014. Mr. Feghali became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in December 2014 and has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. He was selected by Super Lawyers as a "Southern California Rising Star" in 2020–2023.

53. Mr. Feghali began working at Moon Law Group, PC in May 2015, and his practice has focused on advocating for the rights of employees at the trial-court and appellate level. Prior to roughly June 2018, with the exception of a handful of cases, his practice focused on individual FEHA and wrongful termination claims, as well as individual wage-and-hour claims. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali's practice has shifted to almost exclusively representing employees in wage-and-hour class and PAGA representative actions.

54. Mr. Feghali's current billing rate is $900.00 per hour, which is his usual rate in wage-and-hour litigations. Based on Mr. Feghali's 11+ years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). (See Ex. 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Feghali's billing rate of $900.00 per hour is reasonable.

55. During Mr. Feghali's tenure with Moon Law Group, PC, he has played a critical role in obtaining outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. Mr. Feghali's litigation experience includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) In March 2021, Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in the matter of Rivera, et al. v. Clearpath Federal Credit Union (LASC No. 19STCV33504), which resulted in a certification order on all causes of action following contested briefing in a wage-and-hour class action.
- (b) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Dawson, et al. v. GoHealth, LLC, et al. (No. CGC-19-577790), which was argued and taken under submission by the Court on February 3, 2022.
- (c) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Brown v. NTI-CA, Inc., et al. (No. 21STCV04397), which is not currently scheduled for hearing.
- (d) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Thong, et al. v. Outlook Resources, Inc., et al. (No. 19STCV44400), which was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in October 2022.
- (e) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Andrade v. Rehrig Pacific Corp. (C.D. Cal. April 22, 2020) No. CV 20-1448 FMP (RAOx), 2020 WL 1934954, where Defendant removed a wage-and-hour class alleging that Plaintiff's claims were pre-empted by the Labor Management Relations Act.
- (f) Mr. Feghali briefed, argued, and won the matter of Lee, et al. v. The Christian Herald, U.S.A., Inc. (Cal. Ct. App. Dec. 12, 2017) No. B266853, 2017 WL 6333905, at *1. There, the Court of Appeal reversed a dismissal of an individual defendant following the trial court's granting of a demurrer without leave to amend relating to alter ego allegations.
- (g) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Sotelo v. Belfor USA Group, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Mar. 13, 2018) No. 2:17-cv-09056-RSWL-MRWx, 2018 WL 1352910. Defendants there sought to remove the case based on the inclusion of a "sham defendant," but the court agreed with Mr. Feghali's briefing which argued that the individual defendant, who was alleged to have harassed the plaintiff under FEHA, was a proper defendant.
- (h) Mr. Feghali has been the lead counsel, or co-lead counsel, in individual cases that settled for $850,000.00, $375,000.00, and $250,000.00. In addition to the foregoing, Mr. Feghali has resolved or assisted in the resolution of approximately 100 cases which has resulted in millions of dollars of unpaid wages being returned to low-wage employees.

- (i) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Hernandez v. CR Laurence, Inc., et al. (No. 20STCV32372), which was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in February 2024.

56. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali's practice has shifted to almost exclusively representing employees in wage-and-hour class and PAGA representative actions. His fee has been approved by Courts throughout the state. He has participated as lead, or co-lead counsel, in the litigation and resolution of over 100 wage-and-hour class actions, including obtaining preliminary and final approval of settlements. Coast King Packing, LLC* (No. 21CV002448) ($2,300,000); Martinez, et al. v. Curative LLC (No. 21STCV20778) ($1,500,000); *Calderon v. As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Song's billing rate of $775.00 per hour is reasonable.

MORGAN SIMPSON'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

67. Morgan W. Simpson is an Associate Attorney at my office. He graduated from the University of South Carolina – Columbia in 2016 with a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism, magna cum laude. Mr. Simpson attended the University of Southern California Gould School of Law and graduated in 2020. Mr. Simpson was admitted to the California State Bar as an attorney in June 2021. 10 compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Simpson's billing rate of 11 $600.00 per hour is reasonable.

12 PAGA COUNSEL'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

13 68. As demonstrated by the foregoing, my office is qualified to handle this litigation
14 because we are experienced in litigating Labor Code and Wage Order violations in individual, class,
15 and representative actions. The attorneys at my office have been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel
16 in numerous wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions in state and federal courts by way of motion
17 for settlement approval. Including myself, Moon Law Group, PC is currently comprised of roughly 18 35 attorneys, all of whom are actively and continuously practicing employment litigation,
19 representing almost entirely employee-plaintiffs, in both individual and class and/or PAGA actions,
20 in this Superior Court and other Superior Courts throughout the State, in the Courts of Appeal, and 21 in various federal courts. The attorneys at my firm have a high level of skill, knowledge, and 22 experience in areas of wage-and-hour class and PAGA actions, and labor and employment law
23 generally, the substantive (state and federal) and procedural law of which is frequently.

24 69. Moon Law Group, PC has been engaged in the practice of employment and labor law
25 for over a decade and presently focuses exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law. The firm and its 26 lawyers have tried both bench and jury trials (representing both plaintiffs and defendants) in 27 employment-related matters. As noted above, my firm has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in federal and state courts in California. Also, the firm and its lawyers have successfully settled hundreds of cases during that time, including wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions.
28

70. The foregoing experience of myself and other attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC is helpful in assessing the reasonableness of settlements, such as the one at issue here, and from this experience we concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the proposed Settlement.

71. I do not believe that I or any other attorneys of my firm have any conflicts of interest with the named Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, or the proposed Administrator. I am not related to Plaintiff. I respectfully submit that Moon Law Group, PC is competent and well suited to act as PAGA Counsel in this action, and we have and will continue to vigorously represent the interests of the Aggrieved Employees.

REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

72. In line with the Settlement, my firm requests an award of attorneys' fees in an amount of one-third of the GSA (i.e., $133,333.33), plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs in the amount of $22,626.94. (See Settlement, ¶ 16.)

73. The requested PAGA Counsel Fees Payment can be justified under either the common fund or lodestar method. However, we base the requested award on the common fund method. Nonetheless, the lodestar method can be used to cross-check the reasonableness of the award calculated under the common fund method.

74. The total current lodestar for Moon Law Group, PC is not less than the following:

Attorney	Rate	Hours	Lodestar
Kane Moon	$950.00	20.9	$19,855.00
Allen Feghali	$900.00	9.6	$8,640.00
Lilit Ter-Astvatsatryan	$850.00	7.1	$6,035.00
S. Phillip Song	$775.00	32.9	$25,497.50
Morgan W. Simpson	$600.00	57.8	$34,680.00
	Total:	128.3	$94,707.50

1 75. There are additional hours devoted to this litigation by the attorneys and legal assistants in my
2 office that are not reflected in the foregoing lodestar, including additional attorney time that will be spent to
3 obtain and monitor approval of the Settlement and requested awards, oversee the settlement administration
4 process and distribution of funds, respond to inquiries, and communicate with Plaintiff regarding the case. I
5 estimate that my office will commit no less than 10 hours, although likely more time, to these additional tasks,
6 which are hours not included in the foregoing lodestar total. My office also bears the risk of taking whatever
7 actions are necessary if Defendant fails to pay. At my $950 hourly rate, these additional 10 hours results in a 8 lodestar of $9,500.00.

9 76. “California case law permits fee awards in the absence of detailed time sheets.” (Wershba v.
10 Apple Comp., Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 255.) The Court “should defer to the winning lawyer’s 11 professional judgment as to how much time he was required to spend on the case.” (Moreno v. City of 12 Sacramento (9th Cir. 2008) 534 F.3d 1106, 1112.) True and correct billing records of myself, Mr. Feghali,
13 Ms. Ter-Astvatsatryan, Mr. Song, and Mr. Simpson are attached hereto as Exhibit 9. I am familiar with most 14 aspects of this case and tasks undertaken by the various members of my firm in litigating this case. As 15 discussed below, application of a positive multiplier is warranted in this case.

16 77. The lodestar method requires the Court to determine a “touchstone” or lodestar figure based on 17 a compilation of time spent and reasonable hourly compensation for each attorney. (Graham v.
18 DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 579.) Generally, hours are reasonable if they were “reasonably 19 expended in pursuit of the ultimate result achieved in the same manner that an attorney traditionally is 20 compensated by a fee-paying client.” (Hensley v. Eckerhart (1983) 461 U.S. 424, 431.)

21 (a) Number of Hours Expended by My Office is Reasonable: As set forth in this declaration, my 22 office expended a significant amount of time litigating the case to achieve an excellent result on 23 behalf of the Aggrieved Employees. To date, my office has spent no less than 128.3 hours
24 litigating this case. In the event the Court grants settlement approval, my office will spend 25 additional time related to this litigation, including to monitor administration of the settlement
26 after approval, committing no less, although likely more, than 10 hours to those additional tasks.
27 The number of hours that my office has and will devote to this case is reasonable. (See, e.g.,
28 Ketchum III v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1133 [fee award should be fully compensatory

1 and, “absent circumstances rendering the award unjust, an attorney fee award should ordinarily
2 include compensation for all the hours reasonably spent”] [emphasis in original]; Serrano v.
3 Unruh (1982) 32 Cal. 3d 621, 624 [counsel are entitled to compensation for all hours reasonably
4 expended]; Hensley, supra, 461 U.S. at pp. 435–36; Caudle v. Bristow Optical Co. (9th Cir.
5 2000) 224 F.3d 1014, 1028; Cabrales v. Cty. of L.A. (9th Cir. 1991) 935 F.2d 1050, 1052–53.)
6 As discussed above, my office was required to expend considerable time and resources to 7 investigate, litigate, and successfully settle these claims for the benefit of the Aggrieved
8 Employees.

9 (b) The Attorneys’ Hourly Rates are Reasonable: “[T]he established standard when determining a 10 reasonable hourly rate is the ‘rate prevailing in the community for similar work performed by 11 attorneys of comparable skill, experience, and reputation.’” (Camacho v. Bridgeport Fin., Inc.
12 (9th Cir. 2008) 523 F.3d 973, 979 [quoting Barjon v. Dalton (9th Cir. 1997) 132 F.3d 496, 502].)
13 This rule applies even when, as here, the attorneys representing a named plaintiff perform the 14 work on a contingent fee basis. (See, e.g., Robertson v. Fleetwood Travel Trailers of Cal., Inc.
15 (2006) 144 Cal.App.4th 785, 818; Blanchard v. Bergeron (1989) 489 U.S. 87, 96.) These hourly 16 rates are reasonable in light of the significant experience, expertise, and skill my firm brought to 17 this action. Rates are reasonable if they are “within the range of reasonable rates charged by and 18 judicially awarded comparable attorneys for comparable work.” (Children’s Hosp. & Med. Ctr.
19 v. Bonta (2002) 97 Cal.App.4th 740, 783.) The trial court may “find hourly rates reasonable 20 based on evidence of other courts approving similar rates.” (Parkinson v. Hyundai Motor Am.
21 (C.D. Cal. 2010) 796 F.Supp.2d 1160, 1172.) The attorneys at Moon Law Group, PC are 22 experienced litigators who specialize in employment law, with a substantial wage-and-hour class
23 action practice. The hourly rates of each attorney are also reasonable as compared to their 24 respective Laffey Matrix rates as explained supra. Moreover, these rates are not opposed or 25 challenged, and have been approved by other courts, as explained supra.

26 (c) Application of a Multiplier is Warranted: Once this lodestar figure has been determined, the 27 Court may take into account other “enhancement” factors to adjust the lodestar award. As the 28 California Supreme Court has held, contingency fees should be higher than fees for the same

1 legal services paid concurrently with the provision of the services. (Ketchum III, supra, 24
2 Cal.4th at pp. 1132–33; see also Fischel v. Equitable Life Assurance Soc’y of the U.S. (9th Cir.
3 2002) 307 F.3d 997, 1008.) “A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides
4 legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second
5 of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award
6 cases.” (Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1133.) Application of that rule is particularly appropriate
7 where the case is brought to redress important rights of vulnerable persons. (Id.) A risk
8 enhancement is “earned compensation; unlike a windfall, it is neither unexpected nor fortuitous.
9 Rather, it is intended to approximate market-level compensation for such services, which 10 typically includes a premium for the risk of nonpayment or delay in payment of attorney fees.”
11 (Id. at p. 1138.) Multipliers normally range from two to four or higher. (Wershba, supra, 91
12 Cal.App.4th at p. 255; see also Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051, 13 n.6 [“most” common fund cases apply a multiplier of 1.0–4.0]; Been v. O.K. Indus., Inc. (E.D.
14 Okla. 2011, No. CIV–02–285–RAW) 2011 WL 4478766, *11 [citing a study “reporting [an] 15 average multiplier of 3.89 in survey of 1,120 class action cases” and finding that a multiplier of 16 1.22 would be “per se reasonable”].) Factors considered in determining whether a lodestar 17 multiplier is appropriate generally include: (1) the risks presented by the contingent nature of the 18 case; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved and the skill requisite to perform 19 the legal service properly; (3) the nature of the opposition; (4) the preclusion of other 20 employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case; and (5) the result obtained and the 21 importance of the lawsuit to the public. (Serrano v. Ivy Baker Priest (1977) 20 Cal. 3d 25, 48– 22 49 [hereinafter “Serrano III”].) All these factors favor approval of a multiplier along the lines of 23 those approved in the cases above. To date, my office has incurred no less than $94,707.50 in 24 attorneys’ lodestar fees, anticipates incurring at least another $9,500.00 in lodestar fees, and has 25 advanced $22,626.94 in actual litigation costs. Thus, after reimbursement of our out-of-pocket
26 expenses, the fee request of $133,333.33 represents a 1.41 multiplier of the lodestar fees incurred
27 to-date in prosecuting this case.
28

1) Risks presented by the contingent nature of the case: The major consideration in determining the necessity of a multiplier is the contingent nature of the award. (Ketchum III, supra, 24 Cal.4th at pp. 1132–33; see also Fischel, supra, 307 F.3d at p. 1008.) In determining what multiplier to award, the probability of success must be assessed ex ante, that is, as viewed from the outset of the case. (See, e.g., Harman v. Lyphomed, Inc. (7th Cir. 1991) 945 F.2d 969, 976.) Further, the possibility of no recovery is only one of the uncertainties involved in taking on such a case. Other uncertainties are the amount that will be recovered, uncertainty as to the cost, both in effort and expenses, and uncertainty about how much time will pass before the recovery is obtained. (See, e.g., Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at pp. 1132–1133, 1138.) My office’s outlay of time and money in this case has been significant. In all, my office has spent no less than 128.3 hours to date investigating, analyzing, researching, litigating, and negotiating a favorable resolution of this case, in addition to a minimum of 10 hours that will be spent following final settlement approval, including to monitor settlement administration and distribution of funds, and has incurred $22,626.94 in necessary litigation costs. Unsettled legal issues also presented risks to the claims in this case. My office bore the substantial risk of an uncertain outcome in agreeing to prosecute this PAGA action on a contingency fee basis, as well as the difficulties and delay inherent in such litigation. There was the prospect of the enormous cost inherent in PAGA representative action litigation, as well as extensive negotiations with a corporate Defendant who vigorously opposed Plaintiff’s claims and right to pursue her individual or class action claims in state court. My office risked significant time and expense to ensure a successful settlement. As detailed supra, the risks presented in this case were significant, and Defendant’s defenses posed serious risks to the success of this PAGA matter on the merits, assuming we were first successful at proving the merits of Plaintiff’s individual claims at arbitration. These risks illustrate the recognition by the California Supreme Court in Ketchum III that, if multipliers are not awarded to PAGA counsel in the cases that are successfully settled, counsel’s fees are essentially being cut because the lodestar in and of itself would not account for contingent risk.

- 1 2) Difficulty of the questions involved and the skill required: My office is comprised of skilled
2 attorneys who have had success in wage-and-hour class and PAGA actions. This case
3 required experienced and competent lawyers, as well as expertise in the issues presented
4 herein. To obtain such an attorney on the free market, a client must pay the market rate.
5 While most class/PAGA actions are complex and involve some risk, my office had to 6 overcome several major obstacles in prosecuting this case, as explained supra. Defendant's 7 contentions underscore the risk of prevailing at trial, and any of these obstacles could have 8 prevented recovery completely.
- 9 3) Vigorous opposition by Defendant: Counsel who skillfully overcome difficult issues or 10 uncompromising opposition in the litigation are entitled to a fee enhancement. (Serrano III, 11 supra, 20 Cal.3d at 49.) Here, before eventually agreeing to a settlement, Defendant asserted
12 a vigorous defense and challenged Plaintiff's ability to litigate her individual and class action
13 claims. The settlement effort was protracted, with extended discussions and instances in 14 which it appeared the Parties would not reach a settlement. Further, proceeding to arbitration, 15 and if successful, then trial would have added years to the resolution of this case because of 16 the difficult legal and factual issues raised and the likelihood of appeals. Indeed, even if 17 Plaintiff prevailed on the representative PAGA claims at trial, assuming she was first 18 successful at arbitration, Defendant would likely have mounted an appeal.
- 19 4) The extent to which litigation precluded other employment would justify an enhancement:
20 There are only so many cases that my office can take at any one time. Consequently, there 21 were other meritorious cases presented to my office that would have generated substantial 22 fees, but were declined, during the pendency of this action in order to devote the attention 23 necessary to achieve favorable results.
- 24 5) The result obtained would justify an enhancement: The results obtained in litigation can 25 properly be used to enhance a lodestar calculation where an exceptional effort produced
26 excellent results. (Graham, supra, 34 Cal.4th at p. 582.) Here, the final maximum settlement
27 figure is $400,000, which represents roughly 79% of the total realistic recovery. Considered
28 against the size of the Aggrieved Employees, the risks posed by continued litigation, and the

1 importance of the employment rights and a speedy recovery, the relief provided under the 2 Settlement represents a very strong result for the Aggrieved Employees and LWDA.

3 6) The use of a multiplier is permitted in PAGA actions: PAGA provides that “[a]ny employee
4 who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and 5 costs.” (Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Although, PAGA does not provide a specific standard for 6 evaluating attorneys’ fees in connection with a settlement of PAGA claims, California
7 Courts have employed a lodestar analysis and use of multipliers for this purpose. “Where a
8 settlement produces a common fund for the benefit of the entire class, courts have discretion
9 to employ either the lodestar method or the percentage-of-recovery method. . . . To guard
10 against an unreasonable result, the Ninth Circuit encourages district courts to “cross-check[]
11 their calculations against a second method. . . . Accordingly, the Court calculates attorneys’ 12 fees in the instant case using the percentage-of-recovery method and then cross-checks its 13 calculations against the lodestar method.” (Hermosillo v. Davey Tree Surgery Co. (N.D. Cal.
14 July 7, 2021) No. 18-CV-00393-LHK, 2021 WL 2826697, at *1 [quoting In re Bluetooth
15 Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942, 944–45].)

16 78. I am informed and believe that the fees and costs provision under the Settlement is reasonable.
17 My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case,
18 and then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

19 79. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be successful in 20 pursuing this representative action. In that case, we would have been left with no compensation for all the 21 time taken in litigating this case. Indeed, I have taken on a number of class and/or PAGA action cases that 22 have resulted in thousands of attorney hours being expended and ultimately having the defendant company
23 going bankrupt. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real and occurs regularly. Furthermore, we 24 were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which could have resulted in a larger, and less 25 risky, monetary gain.

26 80. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for legal representation on an hourly basis, Moon
27 Law Group, PC represents virtually all its employment law clients on a contingency fee basis, including
28 Plaintiff in this action. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless we prevail

1 at trial or our clients' cases are successfully settled. Because Moon Law Group, PC is taking the risk that we
2 will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or her case, we cannot afford to
3 represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the end of our representation, all we are to 4 receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential that we recover more than our regular hourly rate
5 when we win if we are to remain in practice so as to be able to continue representing other individuals in civil 6 rights employment disputes.

7 81. My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end
8 of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome. My office's efforts have included, and will include 9 following an approval order, without limitation, the following:

- 10 a. Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by her;
- 11 b. Legal research and investigation regarding the Defendant's practices at numerous points in 12 the litigation;
- 13 c. Preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA Notice;
- 14 d. Preparation of multiple drafts of the original class action complaint and subsequent amended 15 complaint, as well as finalization and filing of said complaints;
- 16 e. Extensive meet-and-confer discussions with Defendant's counsel regarding the arbitration 17 agreement and the impact on Plaintiff's class action claims;
- 18 f. Drafting and submitting Plaintiff's Demand for Arbitration;
- 19 g. Informal discovery activity;
- 20 h. Extensive meet-and-confer discussions with Defendant's counsel regarding mediator
21 selection and production of relevant documents and information in preparation for mediation 22 through informal discovery;
- 23 i. Analysis of Defendant's informal discovery production and preparation of a damages model 24 with the aid of a statistics expert;
- 25 j. Contacting witnesses;
- 26 k. Research and preparation of Plaintiff's mediation brief;
- 27 l. Attendance and active participation at a full day of mediation;
- 28 m. Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement and its attachment;

- n. Preparation and submission of the instant motion for settlement approval and accompanying filings;
- o. Anticipated preparation for and attendance at the hearing on the motion for approval, monitoring approval of the Settlement and requested awards, and overseeing the administration process and distribution of funds; and
- p. Communications with Plaintiff throughout the case.

82. As of the drafting of this motion, my office has incurred $22,626.94 in expenses litigating this action without any reimbursement. These expenses were reasonably necessary to the litigation and were actually incurred by my office. These to-date expenses are summarized as follows:

- (a) “LWDA Fee”: a one-time cost for submitting Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice to the LWDA;
- (b) “JAMS”: the filing fee for initiating Plaintiff’s Demand for Arbitration;
- (c) “Berger Consulting Group”: costs of expert review of discovery for mediation;
- (d) “Steve Rottman via link checking”: a one-time cost for mediation services;
- (e) “ACE,” “One Legal,” and “Orange County Court”: costs for purchasing court documents, and for filing and serving various documents during this Action.

83. We anticipate incurring additional costs up to and after Settlement approval, including filing costs for the approval motion and any notice of entry of approval order and judgment. However, at this time, we are only requesting reimbursement of our to-date costs ($22,626.94). Moreover, because our costs are below the maximum allocation ($25,000) under the Settlement, the difference ($25,000 - $22,626.94 = $2,373.06) will revert to PAGA Penalties. (Settlement, ¶ 16.) I respectfully submit that our reimbursement request is fair and reasonable.

84. Through the efforts of my office and Plaintiff in this case, a fair and reasonable resolution has been reached that includes a non-reversionary payment by Defendant of at least $400,000 to compensate Aggrieved Employees for Defendant’s alleged employment practices. I am informed and believe that, without the efforts of my office or Plaintiff, the Labor Code and Wage Order violations alleged in this action would have gone completely unremedied.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on May 27, 2026, at Los Angeles, California.
