1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Celia Barroso (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of a non-reversionary $400,000.00 gross
4 settlement of claims for civil penalties alleged pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, 5 Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). After a full day of mediation with experienced and neutral 6 mediator Steve Rottman, Esq., and months of extended settlement negotiations, Plaintiff reached a 7 resolution with Defendant Applied Composites Holdings, LLC (“Defendant”) (collectively, Plaintiff and 8 Defendant are the “Parties”). The Parties have executed a PAGA Settlement Agreement (the 9 “Settlement”), a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Kane Moon
10 in Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement (“Moon Decl.”) submitted concurrently
11 herewith. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff now files this motion seeking an order 12 approving the proposed Settlement.

13 The Settlement resolves all claims for civil penalties under PAGA that arose during the PAGA 14 Period and that were alleged in the above-captioned matter, as well as Plaintiff’s individual claims
15 currently pending in arbitration before JAMS, Reference No. 5200001947 (“Action”). (Settlement, ¶ 1.)
16 For purposes of settlement, the “PAGA Period” is June 22, 2023, through March 15, 2026. (Id. at ¶ 3.)
17 This Settlement is on behalf of the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”), 18 Plaintiff, and all current and former non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for Defendant within 19 the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period (“Aggrieved Employees”). (Id. at ¶ 3.)
20 Plaintiff is unaware of any other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may 21 be impacted by approval of the Settlement, nor has Defendant pointed to any. (Moon Decl., ¶ 24.)

22 Settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. Pursuant to the operative PAGA statute, the 23 “court shall review and approve any penalties sought as part of a proposed settlement agreement pursuant 24 to this part.” (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) In deciding whether to grant approval of a proposed settlement, 25 the primary issue to be decided is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Specifically, 26 the issue is whether the PAGA penalties to which the parties have agreed provide “genuine and 27 meaningful” relief that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public,” and 28 whether the penalties are reasonable in light of the potential verdict value in this case. (Villalobos v.

1 Calandri Sunrise Farm LP (C.D. Cal. July 22, 2015) No. CV 12-2615 PSG (JEMx), 2015 WL 12732709,
2 at *5; see also O'Connor v. Uber Techn., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1135.)

3 As set forth herein, the proposed Settlement embodies all the features of a settlement that is fair, 4 adequate, and reasonable, as (1) it is the product of an arm's-length negotiation, (2) negotiated by 5 attorneys experienced in wage and hour litigation, (3) following sufficient investigation necessary to 6 evaluate the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, and (4) reflects a reasoned compromise
7 based directly on the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, as well as the risks, expense, 8 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation.

9 The meaningful value achieved by the Settlement at issue may be gleaned from the fact that the 10 LWDA and the estimated 544 Aggrieved Employees will, cumulatively, receive no less than $230,789.73
11 as PAGA Penalties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.) This is a significant recovery, not only because further litigation 12 may have resulted in a net-zero recovery based on the facts of the case and defenses asserted by 13 Defendant, but also because an investigation by experienced PAGA counsel and analysis of discovery 14 revealed minimal identifiable violations, the discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties, and the 15 risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues
16 and current state of the law. For these reasons, as set forth more fully below, Plaintiff respectfully requests 17 the Court enter the proposed order and proposed judgment submitted concurrently herewith.

18 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

19 A. Plaintiff's Claims and Procedural Background

20 Defendant is an aviation and car parts manufacturer doing business in the State of California.
21 (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a laminator from approximately 1983 to January 22 2024. (Id.) Throughout her employment, Plaintiff was classified as non-exempt and paid on an hourly 23 basis. (Id.) Plaintiff contends she and her former coworkers were subjected to the same or similar 24 unlawful labor practices during their employment by Defendant, including failure to pay all wages. (Id.)

25 Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages stems from allegations of Defendant's failure to pay 26 employees all minimum, overtime, sick pay, and regular rate wages owed, including due to 27 Defendant's failure to compensate employees for off-the-clock work, such as for waiting in line to 28 clock in for shifts, and Defendant's failure to incorporate all remunerations into the regular rate of 1 pay. (Id. at ¶ 5.) Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of 2 their work and Defendant’s employment practices, employees regularly experienced missed, untimely,

3 or interrupted breaks, and that Defendant failed to provide any premiums for non-compliant rest breaks
4 or all premiums for non-compliant meals. (Id.) Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse 5 employees for all reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred, including pens, cloth gloves, non-6 slip shoes, and use of personal cell phones for work purposes. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges she and other 7 employees did not receive all wages owed at the time of termination nor accurate itemized wage 8 statements due to Defendant’s failure to pay all wages and premiums. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff alleges 9 Defendant is liable for civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

10 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of the Labor Code, Plaintiff filed a Class Action
11 Complaint on June 25, 2024, alleging Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum wages, (2) 12 failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit 13 rest breaks, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at 14 termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business
15 practices. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

16 Pursuant to PAGA, on June 22, 2024, Plaintiff submitted notice of the alleged Labor Code 17 violations to the LWDA, with certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at 18 ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) The administrative exhaustion period under PAGA expired without the LWDA indicating any 19 intent to investigate the allegations. (Id. at ¶ 7.) On August 27, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class 20 and Representative Action Complaint to allege a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA 21 (together with the Demand for Arbitration, the “Operative Complaint”). (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is 22 duly authorized to act as a private attorney general with respect to the PAGA claims involved in 23 this action. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to 24 the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned case
25 number. (Id. at ¶ 8.) To date, the LWDA has not sought to intervene in this action. (Id.)

26 After this action was filed, Defendant produced an arbitration agreement between Defendant 27 and Plaintiff containing a class action waiver. (Id. at ¶ 9.) Therefore, pursuant to this valid arbitration 28 agreement between the Parties, Plaintiff also subsequently submitted her individual claims to arbitration

1 before JAMS on September 27, 2024, Reference No. 5200001947 (“Demand for Arbitration”). (Id.)

2 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations. (Id.
3 at ¶ 10.) Defendant argues all employees were properly paid for all hours worked and that it did not require 4 or permit employees to work off-the-clock. (Id.) As for the regular rate claim, Defendant argues there was 5 no issue with paying employees the proper regular rate of pay because any additional remuneration was 6 discretionary and thus, not required to be incorporated into the regular rate of pay. (Id.) Defendant 7 maintains all employees were provided with the opportunity to take all their code-compliant meal and 8 rest breaks and that missed breaks, if any, were solely the result of employees’ voluntary choice. (Id.) As 9 for the unreimbursed business expenses, Defendant maintains it did not require employees to incur any 10 business-related expenses. (Id.) To the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly 11 inaccurate, Defendant argue penalties are not warranted because employees suffered no actual damage or 12 harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013) No. C 12–05860
13 CRB, 2013 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s 14 failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone 15 is not sufficient.”].) Additionally, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes 16 the imposition of waiting time penalties because Plaintiff would be unable to show Defendant’s alleged 17 conduct was done willfully or knowingly. (Moon Decl., ¶ 10; see, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D.
18 Cal. June 14, 2012) No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx), 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, 19 Defendant claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA.
20 (Moon Decl., ¶ 10.) Defendant also maintains the claims are not susceptible to proof on a representative 21 basis because of the individualized and varying nature of each employee’s experience, making this matter
22 unmanageable. (Id.)

23 B. Discovery and Investigation

24 Before continuing with arbitration regarding Plaintiff’s individual claims, the Parties agreed 25 to an early mediation of the representative PAGA claims. (Id. at ¶ 11.) The Parties engaged in 26 informal discovery exchange prior to mediation. (Id.) Defendant provided information and 27 documents, which enabled Plaintiff’s Counsel to meaningfully investigate Plaintiff’s allegations and 28 assess the value of the PAGA claims. (Id.) Specifically, Defendant produced Plaintiff’s personnel file

1 and her time and payroll records, documents regarding Defendant's written policies and practices in 2 effect during the relevant period, and time and corresponding payroll records for approximately 18.4%
3 of all Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)

4 Prior to mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information that Defendant 5 produced, including the time/pay records and Defendant's written policies, in conjunction with 6 information provided by Plaintiff. (Id. at ¶ 12.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained an expert to analyze the 7 time/pay records and prepare a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) The time/pay records contained 8 29,424 actually worked (roughly 17.5% of all shifts), which allowed the expert to prepare an analysis
9 with a reasonable degree of certainty. (Id.) Further, Plaintiff's Counsel investigated the applicable law 10 regarding the claims and defenses asserted in this action. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel were able 11 to evaluate the probability of success on the merits and Defendant's monetary exposure. (Id.) In sum, 12 Plaintiff and her Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues involved allowed 13 them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

14 C. Settlement Negotiations

15 On December 15, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation facilitated 16 by Steve Rottman, Esq., an experienced PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 13.) The negotiations were 17 at arm's length and although conducted in a professional matter, were adversarial. (Id.) Both sides 18 went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but they were 19 also prepared to litigated their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached.
20 (Id.) Negotiations were protracted, with extended discussions and instances in which it appeared the 21 Parties would not reach a resolution. (Id.) Following a full discussion of the strengths and weaknesses 22 of the claims and defenses, the Parties ultimately reached a resolution, the material terms of which 23 are encompassed within the Settlement at issue. (Id.)

24 In reaching a resolution, the Parties recognized that the issues presented in this action are 25 likely only to be resolved with extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings, and that further 26 litigation will lead to inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense disproportionate to 27 the potential benefits of litigation. (Id. at ¶ 14.) Plaintiff and her Counsel also considered the risk and 28 uncertainty of the outcome inherent in any litigation when determining whether this Settlement was the correct option. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and her Counsel believe the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 15, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 15.)

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Settlement's key financial and other terms include:

1. Gross Settlement Amount, Funding, Disbursement, and Uncashed Checks. The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $400,000.00, subject to potential increase under an Escalator Clause and entry of the Court's Approval Order, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 14.) Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Effective Date as defined under the Settlement. (See id. at ¶ 22.) Disbursement will occur within 14 days after Defendant fully funds the GSA. (Id.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance will be transmitted to the California State Controller's Office, to be held pursuant to the Unclaimed Property Law in the name of each individual who failed to cash his or her check prior to the void date. (Id. at ¶ 24.)

2. Escalator Clause: The GSA was negotiated based on an estimate that as of the date of the Parties' mediation, there are 20,297 aggregate PAGA Pay Periods worked by approximately 544 Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶ 15(c).) The Settlement includes an Escalator Clause whereby should the actual number of PAGA Pay Periods exceed the 10% of the estimated count, Defendant agrees to make a proportional increase to the GSA by the percentage increase for each additional PAGA Pay Period above the escalator (22,327). (Id.)

3. Service Award. The Settlement includes a Service Award to Plaintiff in an amount up to $7,500.00, payable from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 18.) This payment is in recognition of Plaintiff having initiated the action and her services provided and role in the action. (Id.) In the event the amount approved by the Court is less, the difference will be allocated to the PAGA Penalties Fund. (Id.)

4. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. The Settlement includes attorneys' fees in an amount up to one-third (33%) of the GSA (i.e., at least $133,333.33), plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not to exceed $25,000.00, payable to Plaintiff's Counsel from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 16.) In the event actual costs are less and/or the amount of fees and costs approved by the Court are less than the amounts requested, the difference will be allocated to the PAGA Penalties Fund. (Id.)

5. Settlement Administration Costs. The Settlement provides for Settlement Administration Costs to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount up to $15,000.00, for its fees and expenses in administering this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 17.) In the event the amount of actual administration costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated to the PAGA Penalties Fund. (Id.) Following a competitive bidding process, the Parties jointly selected Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions (“Phoenix”) as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement. (Id.; Moon Decl., ¶ 20, Ex. 5; see generally Declaration of Jodey Lawrence on Behalf of Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions Re: Qualifications and Costs for Settlement Administration.)

6. PAGA Penalties Fund. After deducting the Service Award, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, and Settlement Administration Costs from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the PAGA Penalties Fund as PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ 8.) Accordingly, the PAGA Penalties Fund is estimated to be no less than $230,789.73,¹ which will be distributed 65% (i.e., no less than 65% * $230,789.73= $150,013.32) to the LWDA and 35% (i.e., no less than 35% * $230,789.73= $80,776.41) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.)

7. Settlement Payments. Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to his or her pro rata amount from the 35% share of PAGA Penalties that is directly proportional to the number of pay periods worked in the PAGA Period without having to submit any claim form. (Id. at ¶ 15.) This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $148.49 for each of the estimated 544 Aggrieved Employees ($80,776.41 / 544), and a PAGA Pay Period value of $3.98 for each of the 20,297 estimated PAGA Pay Periods ($80,776.41 / 20,297). Assuming an Aggrieved Employee worked one Pay Period, the lowest PAGA payment to an Aggrieved Employee is estimated to be $3.98 (1 Pay Period x $3.98

average Pay Period value). Assuming an Aggrieved Employee worked 165 Pay Periods (maximum number of biweekly Pay Periods in the PAGA Period), the highest PAGA payment is estimated to be $656.70 (165 Pay Periods x $3.98 average Pay Period value). Settlement Payments will be allocated to 100% penalties for tax purposes. (See id. at ¶ 24.) Aggrieved Employees will receive an explanatory letter with their payment. (Id. at ¶ 24.)

8. Releases of Claims. The Released PAGA Claims will be effective upon entry of the Court’s Approval Order and Defendant’s full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount. (Id. at ¶ 19(a).) The release of claims is limited to claims for civil penalties pursuant to PAGA, which were alleged in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice to the LWDA on June 22, 2024, and in Plaintiff’s Operative Complaint, and arising during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 19(a).) The “Released Parties” are “Defendant, and each of its past, present and future, whether director or indirect, subsidiaries, affiliates, parent companies, divisions, successors, predecessors, and assigns, and each of their respective past and present shareholders, officers, partners, directors, members, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, successors, assigns, representatives, accountants, and all persons acting on their behalf.” (Id.)

III. DISCUSSION

A. Availability of Civil Penalties

The LWDA and its constituent departments and divisions are authorized to assess and collect civil penalties for specified violations of the Labor Code committed by an employer. With a stated goal of improving enforcement of existing Labor Code obligations, the California Legislature adopted the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, permitting, as an alternative, an aggrieved employee to initiate a private civil action on behalf of him- or herself and other current or former employees.” (Lab. Code § 2699(a).) Before an employee may file an action seeking to recover civil penalties for violations of any of the Labor Code provisions enumerated in Labor Code section 2699.5, he or she must comply with the Act’s administrative procedures as set forth in Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), which include providing notice to the LWDA and the employer of the alleged Labor Code violations, and then waiting a prescribed period of time to permit the LWDA to investigate and to decide whether to cite the employer for the alleged violations. (Id. at §§ 2699.3, 2699.5; Caliber Bodyworks, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 134 Cal.App.4th 365, 370; see also Dunlap v. Superior Court (2006) 142

1 Cal.App.4th 330.)

2 Here, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff submitted notice of the 3 Labor Code violations at issue to the LWDA, and she exhausted administrative remedies without 4 the LWDA noticing any intent to investigate the claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) Accordingly, 5 Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general pursuant to PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

6 B. The Settlement Merits Approval

7 Settlement of PAGA claims must be approved by a Court. (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) Here, the 8 circumstances weigh heavily in favor of approval, as explained below.

9 1. The Relief Is Genuine, Meaningful, and Consistent with the Dual Statutory Purposes
10 of Deterrence and Punishment under PAGA

11 The $400,000.00 GSA amounts to “genuine and meaningful” relief “consistent with the 12 underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 34; see O’Connor, 201 13 F.Supp.3d at 1133–35 [denying settlement approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of 14 the estimated full worth].) This is an excellent result, particularly because, under the Settlement, 15 Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of 16 not being able to recover anything at all. (Moon Decl., ¶ 34.)

17 The Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory 18 purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees 19 with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this 20 litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in employee-wide discovery, and 21 participate in mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Assuming approval is granted, Defendant will also have 22 to pay civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. (Id.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs, 23 Defendant will pay at least $400,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which at least $230,789.73 is 24 allocated toward PAGA Penalties and will be distributed as 65% to the LWDA and 35% to Aggrieved
25 Employees, in compliance with PAGA law governing the claims in this action. (See Settlement, ¶
26 15.) This amount represents roughly 45% of the realistic exposure for the claims ($230,789.73 / 27 $507,425), as discussed below. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Additionally, the release obtained under the 28 Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any individual (non-PAGA) claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties. (Id.; Settlement, ¶ 19(a).)

2. The Settlement Amount Provides a Realistic Value for the Claims that is within the “Ballpark” of Reasonableness

There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-collusive, and arm’s-length negotiations between the Parties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 13.) Plaintiff’s Counsel performed an extensive investigation into the facts, claims, and defenses at issue and Defendant’s potential liability, including a review of governing law and analysis of informal discovery, including Defendant’s written policies and time/pay data for a majority of Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–12.) Plaintiff’s Counsel used the foregoing discovery and investigation to prepare for mediation and, with the assistance of a statistics expert, assessed the probability of success on the merits and Defendant’s monetary exposure, discussed the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses in depth at mediation and months of continued negotiations, and ultimately negotiated the resulting Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–14.)

Based on Plaintiff’s Counsel’s analysis of the arguments and information provided by Defendant, on an expert analysis of the time/pay records, and on information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s Counsel evaluated Defendant’s both maximum (optimistic) and risk-adjusted (realistic) potential exposure in preparation for mediation. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although the expert’s analysis revealed that the time and pay records supported several violations by Defendant, those identifiable violations were primary limited to the regular rate and meal period claims. (Id.) The records themselves did not provide strong support for the off-the-clock work, rest period, and expense reimbursement claims, and derivative penalties for those claims, as these claims are predominantly testimony based. (Id.) In other words, Plaintiff’s analysis revealed that certain claims were not as strong as originally believed. (Id.)

Because Defendant did not require employees to record rest periods, there are no records to establish the rest period claim on the merits. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Additionally, there are no records to establish the off-the-clock work claim on the merits. (Id.) Rather, proof of these claims would need to be supported by declarations from Aggrieved Employees regarding missed rest periods and off-the-clock work as the records themselves cannot demonstrate what breaks were missed, when, and why and they cannot demonstrate the time, if any, Aggrieved Employees spent working off the clock. (Id.)

Indeed, the maximum exposure figures that were calculated for mediation were based on assumed

1 high violation rates that would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as they assume either the participation 2 of all Aggrieved Employees (which would be difficult given the particularly large size of this group), or 3 alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation 4 of a majority of Aggrieved Employees to establish a sound representation of all non-exempt employees).
5 (Id. at ¶ 27.) The reality is that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear 6 of retaliation. (Id.) However, even assuming those employees would be willing to participate, obtaining 7 such declarations would potentially reveal that each Aggrieved Employee had a different experience.
8 (Id.) The individualized nature of their employment experience and the numerosity of employees 9 affected present significant risk with manageability and proof on the merits. (Id.)

10 Even as to the regular rate and meal period claims, our analysis found that Defendant's exposure 11 is less than initially believed. (Id. at ¶ 28.) As to meal periods, a review of the time/pay records shows 12 only a 17.2% violation rate for Defendant. (Id.) The records also showed payment of meal period 13 premiums by Defendant, reducing the net violation rate to 16.7%. (Id.) As to the regular rate issue, in the 14 sample time and pay records Plaintiff's expert identified 7 total payments that were not factored into the 15 regular rate of pay for purposes of paying sick pay, meal break premiums, and overtime, resulting in a 16 5.0% violation rate for unpaid overtime, 0.2% violation rate for unpaid meal break premiums, and 4.0%
17 violation rate for unpaid sick pay. (Id.) Moreover, these violation rates assume Plaintiff would be able to 18 show the bonus payments were non-discretionary payments that should have been factored into the 19 regular rate. (Id.)

20 The likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its 21 overall exposure. (Id. at ¶ 29.) For example, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the 22 claims could bar manageability of this representative action or otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's 23 overall liability. (Id.) Further, the maximum exposure analysis involved a claim-by-claim penalty 24 calculation, which is overly optimistic as it presumes Plaintiff would be able to stack the penalties, 25 although penalty stacking is not expressly permitted by PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 30.) Rather, without either (i) a 26 prior finding by the LWDA or a court within the past five years that the employer violated PAGA or (ii) 27 evidence that the employer's conduct was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive, PAGA only provides for 28 a maximum $100 penalty for each pay period. (Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2)(A)–(B).) Moreover, Plaintiff's

1 Counsel believe it would be unrealistic to expect the Court would award the full (penalty-stacked)
2 exposure given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties and given Defendant's defenses, including 3 that any failure to pay premiums, regular rate wages, or for off-the-clock work was not knowingly or 4 willfully done, and additionally, to the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly 5 inaccurate, employees suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. (Moon Decl., ¶ 30.) Moreover, 6 awarding the full penalties amount would likely raise Due Process concerns. (Id.) For the foregoing
7 reasons, the realistic exposure is thus far below the optimistic maximum estimate. (Id. at ¶ 31.)

8 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it is more reasonable to assess penalties on a 9 $100 civil penalty per pay period basis pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)(A) for each of the estimated 10 4,222 pay periods at issue, as opposed to a claim-by-claim approach. (Id. at ¶ 32.) Accordingly, 11 Plaintiff's Counsel estimate Defendant's maximum PAGA exposure to be $2,029,700.00 ($100 x 12 20,297). (Id.) However, based on the discovery, Defendant's arguments at mediation and continued 13 settlement discussions, an understanding that the claims are heavily dependent on the unlikely 14 participation by Aggrieved Employees and their varying employment experience, and other important 15 considerations discussed above, it is reasonable to assume a violation occurred only in at most one-16 fourth of all pay periods, which results in a realistic (risk-adjusted) exposure of $507,425 ($2,029,700
17 / 3). As a result, the GSA of $400,000 represents roughly 79% of the realistic exposure ($400,000 /
18 $507,425). (Id.)

19 The proposed Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 20 reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶ 33.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 21 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability 22 of appeal, it is clear the GSA of $400,000 is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that settlement 23 approval is appropriate. (Id.; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; see
24 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar 25 does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 26 prevailed on all its claims," but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and 27 the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation"].)

1 3. The Settlement Is a Fair and Reasonable Result Following a Thorough Investigation
2 and Accounting of Various Litigation Risks

3 Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the allegations.
4 (Moon Decl., ¶ 36.) Based on the foregoing discovery and on their own independent investigation and 5 evaluation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and 6 adequate. (Id.) Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant 7 delay, trial risk, appellate risk, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant on the merits, the 8 Settlement is in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California. (Id.)

9 Although Plaintiff's Counsel believe there is merit to Plaintiff's allegations, they also 10 acknowledge a legitimate controversy exists as to each allegation. (Id. at ¶ 37.) Plaintiff's Counsel 11 also recognize that proving the amounts of penalties owed to each Aggrieved Employee would 12 be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel 13 are also of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, there is a possibility of 14 the Court not awarding PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits due to the 15 largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 38.) Indeed, a Court may reduce 16 PAGA penalties "if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would 17 result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) 18 In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of 19 the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 38.) While Plaintiff's Counsel 20 believe there would be no persuasive grounds to reduce penalties, they recognize that the Court could 21 determine otherwise and significantly reduce any award of penalties. (Id. at ¶ 39.) This wide range of 22 potential recovery and additional delays and risks of trial provide justification to settle for a reasonable 23 amount of recovery at this point in the litigation. (Id.) In all, based on the investigation and analysis of 24 the claims in preparation for mediation, the maximum exposure did not comport with the realistic 25 exposure that Defendant faced, as discussed above. (Id.)

26 Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative 27 basis at all due to the potential manageability issues, the risk of not prevailing at trial, and the risk that 28 even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, the penalties would be limited due to the largely discretionary nature

1 of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 40.) The provisions of the Labor Code triggering PAGA
2 penalties in this case include Labor Code sections 203, 210, 226, 1197.1, and 2802. (Id.) However,
3 PAGA penalties are not mandatory, but rather, permissive. (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) Accordingly, 4 it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming she is first able to 5 win on the merits regarding her individual claims at arbitration and then defeat the manageability 6 issues presented at litigation by the large number of Aggrieved Employees in this action, Plaintiff
7 may still be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the Settlement. (Moon Decl., 8 ¶ 40.)

9 The Settlement avoids the significant risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further 10 litigation. (Id. at ¶ 41.) Though the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, 11 informal discovery, and employee data analysis, they have not participated in formal discovery 12 procedures, including depositions and expert discovery. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff would have to 13 proceed with arbitration of her individual claims and win on the merits before proceeding with litigation
14 of the representative PAGA claims. (Id.) Preparation for trial and the prospect of appeals in the wake 15 of any summary judgment ruling would remain for the Parties. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur 16 considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial, a lengthy and uncertain process that could 17 result in recovering less than was settled for. (Id.)

18 C. The Service Award to Plaintiff is Reasonable and Should Be Approved

19 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 20 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is codified 21 in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this state to vigorously 22 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to work 23 under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, the California Supreme 24 Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code 25 is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
26 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, PAGA representatives should be rewarded for 27 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of aggrieved employees.

28 Here, in light with the Settlement and subject to the Court's approval, Plaintiff requests a

1 Service Award of $7,500.00. (Settlement, ¶ 18.) Plaintiff and her Counsel respectfully submit that the 2 requested enhancement is reasonable in recognition of Plaintiff’s role as the named Plaintiff and PAGA
3 Representative, for the risks to future employment inherent in undertaking this role and for her service
4 and participation in litigation that resulted in a fair settlement under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 42–45; 5 Declaration of Plaintiff Celia Barroso in Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement, ¶¶ 6– 6 19.) Additionally, Plaintiff worked for Defendant from approximately 1983 until January 2024, over 40
7 years, as a loyal employee, where Plaintiff experienced regular Labor Code violations under Defendant’s 8 wage and hour policies. (Id. at ¶ 45.) Plaintiff worked for Defendant for approximately six months, or 12 9 pay periods, during the Settlement Period, from the beginning of the Settlement Period June 22, 2023 to 10 the end date of Plaintiff’s employment, January 2024. (Id.) As an Aggrieved Employee, Plaintiff’s 11 estimated settlement payment is approximately $47.76 (12 pay periods x 3.98 pay period value). (Id.)

12 D. The Requested Attorneys’ Fees/Costs Are Reasonable and Should Be Approved

13 In line with the Settlement, my firm requests an award of attorneys’ fees in an amount of 14 one-third of the GSA (i.e., no less than $133,333.33, subject to potential increase under the 15 escalator clause), plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs in the amount of $22,626.94.
16 (Moon Decl., ¶ 72; see Settlement, ¶ 16.)

17 1. Plaintiff’s Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the Common Fund Method

18 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 19 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.) The 20 California Supreme Court has held, “when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, 21 and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation 22 of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.” (Id. at p. 34.)

23 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel seek an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 24 fund” theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 73.) The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs 25 proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden 26 alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of Cal.
27 (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, “one who expends attorneys’ fees in winning 28 a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons[] are entitled to share.” (Id. at pp. 110–11 [pincite omitted].) The reasons for applying this doctrine include:

fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit because his recovery might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair advantage to the others who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their share of the burden of its recovery; encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or recovery of the fund if he is assured that he will be properly and directly compensated should his efforts be successful.

(Id. at p. 111.)

Several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative “lodestar” approach for deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable time records. Commenting on the lodestar approach, Chief Judge Marilyn Hall Patel wrote in In re Activision Securities Litigation (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp.1373:

This court is compelled to ask, “Is this process necessary?” Under a cost-benefit analysis, the answer would be a resounding, “No!” Not only do the Lindy and Kerr–Johnson analyses consume an undue amount of court time with little resulting advantage to anyone, but, in fact, it may be to the detriment of the class members.

(Id. at p. 1375 [emphasis added].) The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands on judicial resources. (Id. at pp. 1378–79.) California Courts now routinely use the percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (See, e.g., In re Pac. Enter. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378–79 [approving attorneys’ fee award of 33%].)

2. The Matter Involves a Fee and Cost Shifting Provision under PAGA

Labor Code section 2699 provides for the recovery reasonable attorney’s fees as well as costs of suit. (Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Specifically, it states: “Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs . . .” (Id.) Under this provision, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the

1 total recovery for the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This fee/cost-shifting
2 provision reflects the understanding that Plaintiff's Counsel must accept significant risk of substantial 3 expenses and consumption of time, energy, and other resources in litigating a PAGA claim, and thus, that 4 Plaintiff's Counsel is not only permitted, but entitled, to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs if 5 successful in litigating a PAGA claim.

6 The Settlement at issue is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and 7 consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff's 8 Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action 9 involved significant financial risk for Plaintiff's Counsel who undertook this matter on a contingent basis, 10 with no guarantee of recovery. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 75–82.) Once Plaintiff's Counsel undertook this litigation 11 on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, they committed to pursue it to its conclusion, and were 12 accordingly precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which could have resulted in a 13 larger, and less risky, monetary gain. (Id. at ¶ 79.)

14 3. Counsel's Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Requested Fee Award

15 As demonstrated by their prior experience in pursuing class and representative actions on behalf 16 of employees, Plaintiff's Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class action and 17 representative matters. (Id. at ¶¶ 47–69.) Plaintiff's Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-18 counsel in a multitude of class and representative actions resulting in beneficial results to class members
19 and aggrieved employees in California. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate Plaintiff's Counsel 20 commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

21 Plaintiff's Counsel's experience in wage-and-hour class and representative actions was integral 22 in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of this 23 Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 70.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation requires skill and 24 knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural 25 law of representative action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 68.) Based on these and other factors, Plaintiff's Counsel 26 have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for aggrieved employees.
27 (See id. at ¶¶ 51, 56, 62, 63, 67.) Thus, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

1 4. While the Lodestar Method Is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, the Court May 2 Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees

3 “Despite its primacy, the lodestar method is not necessarily utilized in common fund cases.”
4 (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 27.) Courts have criticized the lodestar 5 method as a drain on the judicial system and a disincentive on attorneys to take on high-risk, challenging 6 cases. (Id. at p. 29.) Indeed, the lodestar approach: “(1) ‘increases the workload of an already overtaxed 7 judicial system,’ (2) is ‘insufficiently objective and produce[s] results that are far from homogenous,’ (3) 8 ‘creates a sense of mathematical precision that is unwarranted in terms of the realities of the practice of 9 law,’ (4) ‘is subject to manipulation by judges who prefer to calibrate fees in terms of percentages of the 10 settlement fund or the amounts recovered by the plaintiffs or of an overall dollar amount,’ (5) ‘encourages 11 lawyers to expend excessive hours, and . . . engage in duplicative and unjustified work,’ (6) ‘creates a 12 disincentive for the early settlement of cases,’ (7) deprives trial courts of ‘flexibility to reward or deter 13 lawyers so that desirable objectives, such as early settlement, will be fostered,’ (8) ‘works to the particular 14 disadvantage of the public interest bar,’ and (9) results in ‘confusion and lack of predictability.’” (Id.
15 [quoting Third Circuit Task Force, Court Awarded Attorney Fees (1985) 108 F.R.D. 237, 246– 16 49].)

17 Although California Courts support the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 18 to cross-check fee awards. “It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can be 19 monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to ‘cross-check’ or adjust the lodestar in comparison to 20 a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and within the range of 21 fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In re Consumer Privacy 22 Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557 [quoting Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at pp. 49–50].)
23 Applying the lodestar method is a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the number of hours 24 reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate, and the second step is to apply a multiplier to the 25 lodestar to account for various factors. (Id. at p. 556.) “The purpose of such adjustment is to fix a fee at 26 the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, retrospectively, whether the 27 litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of the 28 unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate for such services.” (Id.) “Under certain

1 circumstances, a lodestar calculation may be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit
2 analysis.” (Id. at pp. 556–57.)

3 Further, “California case law permits fee awards in the absence of detailed time sheets.” 4 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 255.) The Court “should defer to 5 the winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to how much time he was required to spend on 6 the case.” (Moreno v. City of Sacramento (9th Cir. 2008) 534 F.3d 1106, 1112.) Generally, hours 7 are reasonable if they were “reasonably expended in pursuit of the ultimate result achieved in 8 the same manner that an attorney traditionally is compensated by a fee-paying client.” (Hensley
9 v. Eckerhart (1983) 461 U.S. 424, 431.)

10 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel current lodestar is no less than $94,707.50, which is based on no less
11 than 128.3 hours of attorney time spent to-date at their customary hourly rates. (Moon Decl., ¶ 66.)
12 Thus, in comparison to this lodestar, the fee request represents a multiplier of approximately 1.41. (Id. at 13 ¶¶ 76–77.) Further, the foregoing lodestar does not reflect additional works that will be devoted to this 14 litigation, including to obtain and monitor approval of the Settlement and requested awards, 15 oversee the settlement administration process and distribution of funds, respond to inquiries, and 16 communicate with Plaintiff regarding the case. (Id. at ¶ 75.) The amount of fees requested under 17 the Settlement is warranted based on the contingent risk that Plaintiff’s Counsel incurred, the difficulty 18 of the questions involved, the substantial benefit conferred on the Aggrieved Employees and State of 19 California as a result of the Settlement, and the skill displayed by Plaintiff’s Counsel. (Id. at ¶ 78.)
20 Plaintiff’s Counsel also bear the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary if Defendant fails to pay.
21 (Id. at ¶ 75.) Thus, the request for attorneys’ fees is more than reasonable under a lodestar check.

22 5. Plaintiff’s Counsel’s Costs Were Actually and Reasonably Incurred

23 Winning counsel are entitled to recover the out-of-pocket costs and expenses they 24 reasonably incurred in investigating, prosecuting, and settling a case. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th 25 Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 974; Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel seek 26 reimbursement in the total amount of $22,626.94 for expenses that were actually and reasonably 27 incurred in this litigation. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 19, 82, Ex. 4.) Moreover, this amount is below the 28

1 maximum allocation under the Settlement and thus, the remainder ($2,373.06) will revert to the 2 PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ 82; Settlement, ¶ 16.) Thus, costs should be reimbursed in full.

3 IV. CONCLUSION

4 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant approval of the 5 Settlement and enter the proposed approval order and proposed judgment submitted herewith.

6 Respectfully submitted,
