TO THE HONORABLE COURT, ALL PARTIES, AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 14, 2025, at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard in Department 17 of the above-entitled Court, located at 312 N. Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, Plaintiff Joaquin Munguia Cerda (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of the State of California and other Aggrieved Employees, will, and hereby does, move this Court for entry of an Order as follows:

1. Granting approval, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(l), of the proposed settlement of claims brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Cal. Labor Code § 2698, et seq.) and as set forth in the Parties’ PAGA Settlement Agreement, a true and correct copy of which is attached to the Declaration of Sean M. Blakely filed concurrently herewith;
2. Appointing ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator;
3. Approving the proposed Notice of PAGA Settlement and Release of Claims (“Notice”) as to form and content, and directing that it be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
4. Directing the funding and distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
5. Approving an award of attorneys’ fees to Plaintiff’s counsel of $46,666.67 and an award of litigation costs to Plaintiff’s counsel in the amount of $18,189.96;
6. Approving an enhancement payment of $5,000.00 to Plaintiff for his services to the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California;
7. Approving up to $5,000 in administration costs to the Settlement Administrator, ILYM Group, Inc.;
8. Approving the payment of $48,857.53 to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) for its share of PAGA civil penalties; and

1 9. Approving the payment of $16,285.84 to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis 2 based on the number of pay periods each Aggrieved Employee worked during the 3 PAGA Period.

4 This Motion is based on this Notice; the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities; 5 the declaration of Sean M. Blakely and all exhibits attached thereto; the declaration of Paul K.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Joaquin Munguia Cerda (“Plaintiff”), an “aggrieved employee” under the Private 4 Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), respectfully moves this Court for an Order granting 5 approval of the PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement”) with Defendant Pacific Care
6 Nursing Center (“Pacific Care”).¹ This PAGA representative action seeks civil penalties 7 predicated on Pacific Care’s alleged violations of the California Labor Code from June 21, 2023
8 through the date of the Court Order granting approval of the PAGA Settlement (the “PAGA 9 Period”). The proposed Settlement, under which Pacific Care has agreed to pay a non-10 reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of One Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents 11 ($140,000.00), will resolve Plaintiff’s representative claims filed on behalf of the State of 12 California and all “Aggrieved Employees,” which includes all current and former non-exempt 13 employees who worked for Pacific Care in California at any time during the PAGA Period.

14 Notably, the relief provided for under the Settlement, and the claims released thereunder, 15 are solely for the payment of civil penalties under the PAGA, and not for any underlying Labor 16 Code violations. The release also encompasses only PAGA civil penalties based upon the factual 17 allegations and theories alleged by Plaintiff in this Action, and only for claims arising during the 18 PAGA Period, which, as noted above, runs through the date of approval of the Settlement.

19 In deciding whether to grant approval of the Settlement, the primary issue is whether the 20 Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. As set forth herein, the proposed Settlement 21 embodies all of the features of a settlement that is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

22 As noted, the Settlement provides for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of 23 $140,000.00. See Settlement, §§ I.9, III.2. After deducting amounts for requested attorneys’ fees 24 ($46,666.67), litigation costs ($18,189.96), Enhancement Payment ($5,000.00), and settlement 25 administration costs ($5,000.00), the Settlement provides for a Net Settlement Amount of 26

27 ¹ The proposed Settlement Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Sean M.
28 Blakely filed herewith. The proposed Explanatory Letter is attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement. All terms in the Motion have the same definitions as used in the Settlement.

1 approximately $65,143.37 to be paid to Aggrieved Employees and the California Labor & 2 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Settlement, §§ I.10, III.4; see also Declaration of 3 Sean M. Blakely (“Blakely Decl.”), ¶¶ 12, 21, Exhibit 3; Declaration of Anthony Rogers of ILYM
4 Group, Inc. (“Rogers Decl.”), ¶ 7, Exhibit C.

5 The Net Settlement Amount shall be distributed 75% (approximately $48,857.53) to the 6 LWDA, and 25% (approximately $16,285.84) to Aggrieved Employees, pursuant to the 7 requirements of the PAGA as codified in Lab. Code § 2699(i). See Settlement, § III.5. There are 8 approximately 296 Aggrieved Employees, resulting in average payments of approximately 9 $55.02 to each Aggrieved Employee. Id., at § I.2; Blakely Decl., ¶ 12.

10 The Settlement represents a positive result for the State of California and Aggrieved 11 Employees. Further litigation may have resulted in a smaller recovery or even no recovery at all, 12 based on the defenses asserted by Pacific Care and the significant ongoing litigation risks.
13 Moreover, the Gross Settlement Amount is greater than other PAGA penalty awards that have 14 been approved as reasonable. The amounts requested for attorneys’ fees and costs, Plaintiff’s 15 enhancement payment, and settlement administration costs are all fair, adequate, and reasonable.
16 Thus, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter the [Proposed] Judgment and Order 17 submitted concurrently herewith.

18 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

19 A. Brief Factual Background and Summary of Claims

20 Pacific Care operates a skilled nursing and assisted living facility in Long Beach, 21 California. Blakely Decl., ¶ 8. Plaintiff began working for Pacific Care in approximately 2018 as 22 a non-exempt Certified Nursing Assistant. See Declaration of Plaintiff Joaquin Munguia Cerda 23 (“Cerda Decl.”), ¶ 2. Plaintiff, like all Aggrieved Employees, was employed by Pacific Care in 24 California as a non-exempt employee during the PAGA Period and was subject to Pacific Care’s 25 wage and hour policies and practices. Id.

26 Plaintiff’s PAGA claim is predicated primarily on allegations that he and other non-27 exempt employees were not compensated for all hours worked, were not provided compliant meal 28 and rest periods, and were not provided with accurate and compliant wage statements. As

1 explained below and in the accompanying Blakely Declaration, Pacific Care denies Plaintiff's 2 allegations and has asserted several affirmative defenses to his claims.

3 B. Relevant Procedural History

4 On June 20, 2024, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes 5 of action against Pacific Care for violations of the Labor Code on a class-wide basis. Blakely 6 Decl., ¶ 9. On June 21, 2024, Plaintiff also submitted his notification letter to the LWDA and 7 Pacific Care regarding Pacific Care's alleged Labor Code violations and his intent to pursue a 8 PAGA representative action, as required by Labor Code § 2699.3. Id., Exhibit 2. On August 26, 9 2024, after exhausting his pre-filing PAGA requirements under Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(A), 10 Plaintiff filed the operative First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint to add a 11 cause of action pursuant to the PAGA, alleging civil penalties based on: (1) failure to pay all 12 overtime wages, (2) minimum wage violations, (3) meal period violations, (4) rest period 13 violations, and (5) wage statement violations. Id. On July 10, 2024, this Court stayed this action 14 pending the Initial Status Conference ("ISC"), and on November 18, 2024, the Court kept the stay 15 in effect following the ISC. Id. Following the Parties' initial meet and confer discussions, Pacific 16 Care produced an arbitration agreement signed by Plaintiff during his employment with Pacific 17 Care which contained a class action waiver, and the Parties agreed to attend a mediation of 18 Plaintiff's individual and representative PAGA claims. *Id.*²

19 On March 10, 2025, the Parties participated in mediation with Michael Ludwig, Esq., a 20 well-respected wage and hour mediator. Blakely Decl., ¶ 10. Prior to mediation, Pacific Care 21 produced information and documents pertaining to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, 22 including, but not limited to, payroll and timekeeping records for Plaintiff and a twenty-five 23 percent (25%) sampling of Aggrieved Employees. Id. Additionally, Pacific Care provided several 24 data points, including the number of Aggrieved Employees and the number of aggregate pay 25 periods worked by Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period, and its employee handbook 26 and other written policies in effect during the PAGA Period, in order for Plaintiff's counsel to 27

28 ² In light of the arbitration agreement with a class action waiver, Plaintiff is concurrently filing a investigate Plaintiff's allegations and value the claims prior to mediation. Id. Plaintiff hired an expert to assist Plaintiff in conducting a comprehensive analysis and extrapolation of the data produced by Pacific Care to calculate Pacific Care's potential PAGA exposure. Id.

During mediation, the Parties vigorously debated Plaintiff's ability to proceed on a representative basis, the legal basis for Plaintiff's claims and Pacific Care's defenses, the potential amount of penalties, and the Parties' data analyses and conclusions based thereon. Blakely Decl., ¶ 11. With the assistance of Mr. Ludwig, the Parties agreed to fully and finally resolve Plaintiff's PAGA claims. Id. Over the following months, the Parties negotiated and finalized the Settlement now before the Court. Id.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

A. "Aggrieved Employees" Defined

The "Aggrieved Employees" under the Settlement consist of all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Pacific Care in California at any time during the PAGA Period. See Settlement, § I.2. The number of Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, is estimated to be approximately 296 individuals. Id. The PAGA Period is defined as the period from June 21, 2023, through the date of the Court Order granting approval of the PAGA Settlement. Id., § I.12.

B. Monetary Terms

The Settlement provides for Pacific Care's payment of a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $140,000.00. See Settlement, § I.9. After deducting requested attorneys' fees, litigation costs, Plaintiff's enhancement payment, and administration costs, the Settlement provides for the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed 75% to the LWDA and 25% to Aggrieved Employees, per Labor Code § 2699(i). Settlement, §§ I.10, III.5. The 25% portion to Aggrieved Employees shall be distributed based on each Aggrieved Employee's proportional number of pay periods worked for Pacific Care in California during the PAGA Period. Id., § III.5.

1. Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Administration Costs, and Plaintiff's Enhancement Payment

Plaintiff's counsel requests one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $46,666.67)

1 in attorneys' fees, and $18,189.96 in litigation costs. See Settlement, § III.4(a); Blakely Decl., ¶¶
2 20-21, Exhibit 3. As discussed in detail below, a fee award of one-third of the Gross Settlement 3 Amount is fair, adequate, and reasonable as a percentage of the settlement fund and is in line with 4 fee awards in other PAGA settlements.

5 The parties have agreed to engage ILYM Group, Inc. ("ILYM") as the third-party 6 settlement administrator. See Settlement, § IV.1. ILYM will update the Aggrieved Employee 7 addresses using the National Change of Address database, calculate and distribute Individual 8 PAGA Payments, mail payments to all Aggrieved Employees together with the Explanatory 9 Letter, and perform other duties that are integral to the effectuation of the Settlement. Id., §§ IV.3-10 IV.6. Plaintiff requests that the Court approve up to $5,000.00 in administration costs to ILYM, 11 which will cover all costs incurred by ILYM in connection with the Settlement. Id., at § III.4(c); 12 see also Rogers Decl., Exhibit C.

13 Finally, Plaintiff requests an enhancement payment of $5,000.00, in recognition of 14 Plaintiff's contributions to this case and his efforts in bringing this case to successful resolution.
15 See Settlement, § III.4(b); Cerda Decl., ¶¶ 5-8.

16 2. Payment to LWDA and Aggrieved Employees

17 The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed 75% to the LWDA and 25% to Aggrieved 18 Employees, pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(i); Settlement, § III.5. Based on the above requested 19 distributions, the Net Settlement is estimated to be $65,143.37, with $48,857.53 paid to the 20 LWDA and $16,285.84 distributed to allegedly Aggrieved Employees. Blakely Decl., ¶ 12. As 21 noted, there are approximately 296 total Aggrieved Employees. Id.; Settlement, § I.2. Thus, it is 22 anticipated that overall, the Aggrieved Employees will receive average Settlement payments of 23 approximately $55.02. Blakely Decl., ¶ 12.

24 3. Funding of the Settlement

25 Pacific Care will deposit the Gross Settlement Amount with ILYM in a Qualified 26 Settlement Account and, Pacific Care agrees to fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount by 27 transmitting the funds to ILYM within fourteen (14) days of the Effective Date. See Settlement.
28 § III.2. Within twenty-one (21) days after the Settlement has been fully funded and after receiving

1 approval from Plaintiff's Counsel and Pacific Care's counsel of payment calculations, ILYM will 2 mail the Explanatory Letter, in English and Spanish, along with Individual PAGA Payments, to 3 all Aggrieved Employees via First-Class U.S. Mail. See Settlement, § IV.3.

4 Funds from settlement checks remaining uncashed after the void date (180 days after the 5 date of mailing) will be sent by ILYM to the California State Controller's Office for deposit in 6 the Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Aggrieved Employee. See Settlement, § IV.4.

7 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENT

8 A. Standards for Approval of a PAGA Settlement

9 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval pursuant to the PAGA statute, 10 which states that the "court shall review and approve any settlement of any civil action filed 11 pursuant to this part." Labor Code § 2699(l). Of course, "[s]ettlement is a compromise, which 12 balances the possible recovery against the risks inherent in litigating further." See In re TD 13 Ameritrade Account Holder Litig., 2011 WL 4079226 at *9 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 13, 2011). "[T]he 14 very essence of a settlement is... 'a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes,'" 15 as "it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive 16 litigation that induce consensual settlements." Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com., 688 F.2d 17 615, 624 (9th Cir. 1982).

18 Although the PAGA statute does not set forth the criteria by which a PAGA settlement is 19 to be judged, it is presumed that a reviewing court may utilize some of the factors for review of a 20 class action settlement. However, "a PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis...is 21 not considered a class action but a law enforcement action, and therefore does not have to meet 22 the requirements of [a class action]." Casida v. Sears Holdings Corp., 2012 WL 253217 at *3 23 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2012).

24 First, in evaluating a PAGA settlement, the court is not concerned with amount(s) received 25 by "aggrieved employees," but must focus on the total settlement amount in achieving PAGA's 26 objective. "The remedy sought in a PAGA suit consists of civil penalties, not individual or class 27 damages." Mendez, 2010 WL 2650571 at *4. Moreover, while "[a PAGA] action is ... designed 28 to protect the public and penalize the employer for past illegal conduct" (Mendez, 2010 WL 2650571 at *4), a PAGA settlement involves a compromise that stops short of rendering findings of liability and damages. “Unlike a class action seeking damages or injunctive relief for injured employees, the purpose of PAGA is to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement agencies.” Ochoa-Hernandez, 2010 WL 1340777 at *4.

Second, consistent with the fact that unnamed employees have no property interest in a PAGA claim, “[u]nnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” Ochoa-Hernandez, 2010 WL 1340777 at *5; see also Robinson v. Southern Counties Oil Co., 53 Cal.App.5th 476, 482 (2020) (recognizing that “there is no mechanism for opting out of the judgment entered on the PAGA claim.”). This renders the approval process of a PAGA settlement distinct from a class action settlement, as the Court need not employ the “two-step approval process” required for class action settlements under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. Rule 23(e) and Cal. Rule of Court 3.769.

Finally, unlike a class action settlement under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. Rule 23(e) or Cal. Rule of Court 3.769, the scope of release in a PAGA settlement is limited to civil penalties. While “judgment in [a PAGA] action is binding not only on the named employee plaintiff but also on government agencies and any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding...the non-party employees, because they were not given notice of the action or afforded any opportunity to be heard, would not be bound by the judgment as to remedies other than civil penalties.” Arias v. Sup. Ct., 46 Cal. 4th 969, 986-87 (2009). Thus, the scope of release in a PAGA settlement is strictly confined to PAGA penalties.

1. Factors in Evaluating a Representative PAGA Settlement

In deciding whether to approve a proposed settlement, a trial court has broad powers to determine if the proposed settlement is fair under the circumstances of the case. Mallick v. Sup. Ct., 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438 (1979). In exercising these powers, the overriding concern is to ensure that a proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996) (internal quotations omitted). Relevant factors for the Court to consider include, but are not limited to:

[T]he strength of Plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

Id. These factors require balancing, are non-exhaustive, and trial courts should tailor the factors to each case and give due regard to "what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties." Id.

Because settlements inherently involve compromise, even a settlement providing for substantially narrower relief than might be obtained if the suit were successfully litigated can be reasonable because "the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation." Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250 (2001) (quoting Air Line Stewards, etc., Local 550 v. Am. Airlines, Inc., 455 F.2d 101, 109 (7th Cir. 1972)). In addition, courts review the discovery process and information received through it to aid them in assessing whether the parties sufficiently developed the claims and their supporting factual bases before reaching settlement. Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-31 (2008).

a. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case

Although Plaintiff steadfastly maintains his claims are meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that there are substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding to trial, as set forth in more detail in the concurrently filed Blakely Declaration. Blakely Decl., ¶¶ 13-18. While Plaintiff was prepared to litigate his claims through trial, Plaintiff faced substantial challenges in prevailing in this matter and obtaining a better result than will be provided through the Settlement. Thus, this factor supports approval.

b. Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Duration of Further Litigation

Although the Parties engaged in significant informal discovery prior to mediation, the Parties still had formal discovery to conduct if the case did not settle. Substantive motion work and preparation for the PAGA trial also remained for the Parties, as well as potential appeals. As

1 a result, the Parties would likely incur considerably more attorneys’ fees and costs through trial 2 and possible appeal. The Settlement avoids those risks and the accompanying expense.

3 c. Amount Offered in Settlement Given Realistic Value of Claims

4 The proposed Settlement provides a fair and reasonable monetary recovery for the State 5 of California and Aggrieved Employees in the face of hotly disputed claims. Based on data 6 provided by Pacific Care, there were approximately 5,922 Pay Periods worked by the Aggrieved 7 Employees during the PAGA Period. Blakely Decl., ¶ 18; Settlement, § III.3.

8 Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) provides for PAGA civil penalties in the amount of $100 for per 9 pay period for the initial violation, and $200 for each pay period for each subsequent violation.
10 See Labor Code § 2699(f)(2). However, courts have interpreted section 2699(f)(2) to only impose 11 the $200 subsequent penalty after an employer has been notified that its conduct violates the 12 Labor Code. See, e.g., Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1207 (2008) (finding 13 “initial” violation rate applies until employer is notified that it is violating a Labor Code 14 provision); Trang v. Turbine Engine Components Technologies Corp., No. CV 12–07658 DDP 15 (RZx), 2012 WL 6618854, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 19, 2012) (“courts have held that employers are 16 not subject to heightened penalties for subsequent violations unless and until a court or 17 commissioner notifies the employer that it is in violation of the Labor Code”); Amalgamated 18 Transit Union Local 1309, AFL-CIO v. Laidlaw Transit Services, Inc., No. 05cv1199–IEG–CAB, 19 2009 WL 2448430, at *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009) (finding that California law imposes the “subsequent 20 violation penalty” only after an employer has been notified its conduct violates the Labor Code).
21 Therefore, assuming that Plaintiff could prove at least one Labor Code violation in every pay 22 period during the PAGA Period, Plaintiff calculated Pacific Care’s PAGA exposure at 23 $592,200.00 (5,922 pay periods * $100 per violation). Blakely Decl., ¶ 18.

24 In light of Pacific Care’s arguments and defenses described above, Plaintiff discounted 25 that figure by 45% for a risk of losing on the merits and/or not recovering a PAGA penalty in 26 each and every pay period, and by an additional 50% for risk of the Court reducing penalties, to 27 arrive at a realistic exposure of approximately $162,855. Blakely Decl., ¶ 18; see also, e.g., 28 Thurman, 203 Cal.App.4th at 1136 (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties); Fleming, 2011 WL

7563047 at *5 (reducing PAGA penalties by over 82%); Carrington, 30 Cal.App.5th at 529 (affirming PAGA civil penalty of just $5 per pay period).

In the face of Pacific Care’s defenses on the merits and the Court’s discretion to reduce PAGA penalties, Plaintiff felt that the negotiated settlement of $140,000, which represents approximately 86% of Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted total recovery, was clearly in the best interests of the LWDA and the Aggrieved Employees and was well within the range of reasonableness. Blakely Decl., ¶ 18; See Linney v. Cellular Alaska Partnership, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th Cir. 1998) (“The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be disapproved.”) (internal quotations omitted).

Approval of the Settlement is appropriate, as the Settlement will provide tangible monetary relief to Aggrieved Employees and the State of California while avoiding the risks and costs of continued litigation and trial.

d. Discovery Completed and the Status of Proceedings

As noted, the parties engaged in substantial informal discovery before mediation to evaluate the value of the PAGA claim. Pacific Care provided Plaintiff with, inter alia, a sampling of timekeeping and payroll records for non-exempt employees, additional relevant data points, and relevant written policies. Blakely Decl., ¶ 10. Only after engaging in mediation and adversarial discussions about the likelihood of proceeding on a representative basis and prevailing on the merits, did the parties reach the proposed Settlement. Thus, this factor supports settlement approval.

e. The Experience and Views of Counsel

“Parties represented by competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a settlement that fairly reflects each party’s expected outcome in litigation.” In re Pac. Enter. Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir. 1995). Plaintiff is represented by experienced counsel with decades of combined experience, who believe this Settlement to be fair and adequate for all involved. Blakely Decl., ¶¶ 2-6; Declaration of Paul K. Haines (“Haines Decl.”), ¶¶ 3-9. This factor supports settlement approval.

1 B. The Requested Award of Attorneys’ Fees is Reasonable as a Percentage of 2 the Settlement Fund

3 Plaintiff is entitled to attorneys’ fees in this PAGA action under Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), 4 which provides that “[a]ny employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action shall be entitled to an 5 award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.” See also Gouskos v. Aptos Village Garage, Inc., 6 94 Cal.App.4th 754, 765 (2001) (holding that attorneys’ fees to prevailing party are mandatory 7 when the statute uses the word “shall”). It is undisputed that by obtaining PAGA penalties for the 8 LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff has prevailed. See Graciano v. Robinson Ford Sales, 9 144 Cal.App.4th 140, 153 (2006) (“[P]laintiffs may be considered ‘prevailing parties’ for 10 attorney’s fee purposes if they succeed on any significant issue in the litigation that achieves some 11 of the benefit the parties sought in bringing suit.”

12 A fee award is justified where the legal action has produced its benefits by way of 13 settlement. See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977) (“when a number of persons are 14 entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff...for the benefit of all 15 results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff...may be awarded attorney’s fees 16 out of the fund.”); Serrano v. Unruh, 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (1982) (in awarding a fee from the 17 common fund obtained for the benefit of all parties, the trial court acts within its equitable power 18 to prevent the other parties’ unjust enrichment).

19 Fee awards of one-third of the settlement fund are routinely awarded in California courts 20 in class and representative PAGA actions. The California Supreme Court confirmed its approval 21 of the use of the “percentage of fund” method in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480, 22 506 (2016), where it announced “the percentage of fund method survives in California class action 23 cases...” Indeed, “[F]ee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”
24 Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, fn. 11 (2008); see also Chavez v. Saticoy Lemon 25 Ass’n, 2015 WL 5561118 (Ventura Cty. Super. Ct., Aug. 29, 2015) (approving attorneys’ fees of 26 one-third of settlement fund in PAGA settlement.) This is also consistent with Plaintiff counsel’s 27 experience in similar wage-and-hour class and PAGA matters. Blakely Decl., ¶ 20.

28 Here, Plaintiff’s fee request of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (estimated to be 1 $46,666.67) which is the same percentage approved by the California Supreme Court in Laffitte, 2 is fair and reasonable based on the percentage of the recovery method, as confirmed by a lodestar 3 cross-check. In Laffitte, the California Supreme Court held that trial courts have discretion to 4 assess the reasonableness of fee awards with tools such as the “lodestar cross-check,” whereby 5 the trial court calculates counsel’s lodestar and determines whether the “lodestar multiplier” 6 needed to bring the lodestar on par with the percentage of recovery is reasonable. Laffitte, 1 7 Cal.5th at 503-06. While a trial court may utilize the lodestar cross-check, it need not do so. Id.

8 at 506 (“[w]e hold further that trial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a 9 percentage fee, as the court did here; they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check 10 and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee.”).

11 Under the lodestar method, the court multiplies the number of hours reasonably expended 12 by each attorney or legal staff member by their reasonable hourly rates, then enhances this lodestar 13 figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of factors, such as the contingent nature of the case 14 and the degree of success achieved. See Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49 (1977); Ketchum
15 v. Moses, 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36 (2001); Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank, 92 Cal.App.4th 819, 16 834 (2001) (“There is no hard-and-fast rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of 17 judicial discretion to increase or decrease a lodestar calculation”).

18 In California, lodestar multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher. See, e.g., Chavez, 19 162 Cal.App.4th at 49-50 (approving multiplier of approximately 2.5); Coalition for L.A County 20 Planning etc. Interest v. Bd. of Supervisors, 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (1977) (approving multiplier 21 of approximately 12.8). In representative actions such as this one, where Plaintiff’s counsel 22 efficiently protected the rights of the Aggrieved Employees and the value of the benefit conferred 23 to the group “can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty,” the Court may “adjust the 24 lodestar in comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is 25 reasonable and within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable 26 litigation.” Consumer Privacy Cases, 175 Cal. App. 4th 545, 557 (2009).

27 In this case, Plaintiff’s counsel has a lodestar of approximately $102,780 without the use 28 of any multiplier, resulting in a negative multiplier compared to the $46,666.67 fee request.

1 Blakely Decl., ¶ 22. Plaintiff’s counsel submits that the billing rates used are reasonable in view 2 of the market rates and the rates at which Plaintiff’s counsel has been approved at in other courts.
3 Blakely Decl., ¶¶ 22-23; Exhibit 5 (Laffey Matrix).

4 Critically, Plaintiff’s recovery for the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees of 5 approximately $65,143.37 (Net Settlement Amount) exceeds other PAGA awards approved by 6 California courts. See, e.g., Aguirre v. DSW, Inc., No. DCV-11-01522-GW (SPx), 2012 WL 7 11875296 at *3 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 29, 2012) (approving $10,000 PAGA payment); Jamil v.
8 Workforce Res., LLC, No. 18-CV-27 JLS (NLS), 2020 WL 6544660) at *6 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 5, 9 2020) (approving $10,000 total PAGA payment, finding the amount “fair and adequate in view 10 of the purposes and policies of PAGA”); Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc., No. 1:10-cv-0324-11 AWI-SKO, 2012 WL 5364575 at *7 (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) (“approving $10,000 total PAGA 12 payment, finding that “[t]his comports with settlement approval of PAGA awards in other cases.
13 [Citations.]”).

14 As discussed above, this case presented significant risks to Plaintiff’s counsel, who took 15 this case on a purely contingency basis. Plaintiff’s counsel conducted extensive research 16 regarding the merits of Plaintiff’s claims, his ability to recover PAGA civil penalties, and Pacific 17 Care’s potential defenses. Blakely Decl., ¶¶ 13-18. Since undertaking representation of Plaintiff, 18 Plaintiff’s counsel has dedicated substantial resources to this litigation without receiving any 19 compensation to date. Id., ¶¶ 20-21. Plaintiff’s counsel, with the help of its retained expert, also 20 performed extensive analysis of data and information produced by Pacific Care, used this analysis 21 to evaluate Plaintiff’s claims, and drafted a comprehensive mediation brief. Id., at ¶¶ 10, 20.
22 Plaintiff’s counsel attended a full-day mediation, and expended significant effort in preparing 23 settlement documents, this Motion and supporting documents, and will oversee the settlement 24 administration process. Id., at ¶ 10. Given the considerable potential for adverse outcomes in this 25 case, the contingent risk borne by Plaintiff’s counsel was great. The quality of Plaintiff’s counsel’s 26 work, and the efficacy and dedication with which it was performed, should be compensated. Thus, 27 Plaintiff submits the requested fee award is fair, reasonable and adequate and should be approved.

28 Plaintiff’s counsel have decades of combined wage-and-hour class and representative

1 action experience and have been certified as class counsel in numerous class actions. Blakely 2 Decl., ¶¶ 2-6; Haines Decl., ¶¶ 3-9. Because it is reasonable to compensate counsel according to 3 their skill, reputation, and experience, a fee award of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount 4 is reasonable. This case involved nuanced legal issues, including the legality of Pacific Care’s 5 obligations to “provide” meal periods and “authorize and permit” rest periods, as well as the 6 availability and amount of PAGA civil penalties for the alleged Labor Code violations. Blakely 7 Decl., ¶ 20. Pacific Care was also represented by experienced wage-and-hour litigation counsel.
8 Thus, Plaintiff submits the requested fee award is fair, reasonable and adequate and should be 9 approved.

10 C. The Requested Litigation Costs and Settlement Administration Costs Are 11 Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate

12 Plaintiff’s request for reimbursement of costs of $18,189.96 is also fair and reasonable.
13 All of Plaintiff’s litigation costs are reasonably incurred and were necessary to further the 14 prosecution of this case on behalf of the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees. See 15 Blakely Decl., ¶ 21, Exhibit 3. Moreover, the costs Plaintiff seek are the types of costs routinely 16 approved by courts. See, e.g., Harris v. Marhoefer, 24 F.3d 16, 19 (9th Cir. 1994) (counsel should 17 recover “those out-of-pocket expenses that would normally be charged to a fee paying client”).

18 Likewise, the request for administration costs of up to $5,000.00 is also fair and 19 reasonable. ILYM was selected because it is an experienced settlement administrator and returned 20 a reasonable bid. Blakely Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement, § I.10.; see also Rogers Decl. and Exhibits.
21 Moreover, ILYM will perform several important functions that are integral to the implementation 22 of the Settlement. Its requested fee is therefore reasonable.

23 D. The Court Should Approve Plaintiff’s Requested Enhancement Payment
24 Because It Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable in View of Plaintiff’s Efforts 25 and the Risks He Assumed in This Litigation.

26 Courts routinely approve enhancement awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the 27 services they provide and the risks they incur during representative litigation. See, e.g., Bell v.
28 Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004) (upholding “service payments” to named

1 Plaintiff); Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co., 901 F. Supp. 294 (N.D. Cal. 1995) (approving 2 $50,000 incentive payment). Here, Plaintiff seeks an Enhancement Payment of $5,000.00. See 3 Settlement, § III.4(b). This request is reasonable given Plaintiff's efforts in this case and the risks 4 he undertook on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees. Cerda Decl., ¶¶ 5-8. Plaintiff provided 5 substantial factual information and documents to counsel, assisted in identifying potential 6 witnesses, and participated in numerous discussions with Plaintiff's counsel regarding the case.
7 Id.; see also Blakely Decl., ¶ 24. Accordingly, Plaintiff's requested Enhancement Payment is 8 appropriate and justified as part of the Settlement.

9 V. CONCLUSION

10 For the reasons stated herein, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff's 11 Motion and adopt the [Proposed] Judgment and Order Granting Settlement Approval submitted 12 concurrently herewith.
