[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $35,000.00]

This case has been assigned to Judge Sandhu, Sonny S.
Dept. 24
Department _____, for all purposes including Trial.

1 Plaintiff GERARDO JOSE BECERRA (“Plaintiff”), as an aggrieved employee, and on 2 behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 3 2004, alleges as follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against THUNDERBOLT 7 WOOD TREATING CO., INC., a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or 8 affiliated companies within the State of California (“Thunderbolt Wood”) as a proxy of the Labor
9 and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff 10 and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil 11 Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to 12 comply with the Labor Code. Specifically, in connection with the alleged claims for failure to 13 comply with Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.5, 204, 204a, 205, 14 205.5, 210, 212, 221, 222, 223, 222.5, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, 246, 432, 432.3, 15 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 1102.5, 1197.5, 1198, 1198.5, 1527, 3366, 3457, and 8397.4, Plaintiff seeks to 16 represent all employees of Thunderbolt Wood and DOES 1 through 100, as well as their parents, 17 subsidiaries and affiliates (hereinafter, collectively, “Defendants”) working within three years 18 preceding the date of this letter and continuing past the date of this Letter into perpetuity (“Civil 19 Penalty Period”). On all other claims mentioned herein, Plaintiff seeks to represent only non-exempt
20 employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period. Collectively, those employees 21 shall be known as “Aggrieved Employees” herein.

22 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 23 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

24 3. Venue is proper in Stanislaus County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure 25 sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Stanislaus County is where the causes of action 26 complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in 27 which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was 28 due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff

1 and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them,
2 reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved 3 Employees in Stanislaus County, and because Defendants employ Aggrieved Employees in 4 Stanislaus County.

5 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 6 Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period and suffered the Labor Code violations set forth herein, 7 even if not in the precise exact fashion as other Aggrieved Employees. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks 8 to recover civil penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at 9 Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), as amended, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, 10 for Plaintiff and all other current and former Aggrieved Employees of Defendants during the Civil 11 Penalty Period.

12 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 13 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
14 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 15 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

16 6. During the Civil Penalty Period, Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 17 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.5, 204, 204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, 206.5, 18 210, 212, 221, 222, 223, 222.5, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 231, 232, 232.5, 233, 235, 245, 246, 19 351, 353, 404, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 450, 510, 511, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1101, 1102, 20 1102.5, 1174, 1174.51182.12, 1197.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1198, 1198.5, 1290, 1292, 1293, 1293.1, 21 1294.1, 1301, 1391, 1475, 1527, 1695.55, 1696.5, 1700.31, 1771, 1774, 1775, 1776, 1811, 1815, 22 1197.5, 2673, 2800, 2802, 2810.3, 2810.5, 2699, 3366, 3457, 49112, 49116, and 8397.4, among 23 others, California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 3395, Business and Professions Code
24 sections 16600, 16700, and 17200, Government Code section 12952, as well as applicable Wage 25 Orders.

26 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes Aggrieved Employees 27 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former Aggrieved Employees within 28 the Civil Liability Period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures

1 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

2 8. On or around June 21, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code
3 section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' violation 4 of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as 5 by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

6 9. On or around August 16, 2024, Plaintiff provided written amended notice pursuant 7 to Labor Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of 8 Defendants' violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to 9 the LWDA, as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of 10 them.

11 10. To the extent Defendants, or any of them, previously used the notice and cure 12 provision of Labor Code section 2699.3 within the last twelve months, under section 2699.3(d), then 13 Defendants, or those who have availed themselves of the cure provisions validly, are not eligible to 14 cure the violations discussed herein under section 2699.3 or otherwise use the early evaluation 15 conference process pursuant to section 2699.3(f).

16 11. In the event that Defendants, or any of them, is/are determined to have satisfied 17 sections 2699(g), 2699(h), or otherwise 2699(d)(1), Defendants, or any that is determined to have 18 satisfied sections 2699(g), 2699(h), is also, in the alternative, liable for civil penalties pursuant to 19 Labor Code sections 2699(j), 2699(e)(2), and 2699(f)(2).

20 12. In the event that Defendants, or any of them, is/are determined to have, prior to this 21 notice or a request for records pursuant to Labor Code section 226, 432, or 1198.5, from Plaintiff 22 and/or his/her counsel, adequately taken all reasonable steps to be in compliance with all provisions 23 identified in this notice, said defendant(s) is/are still liable for civil penalties pursuant to section 24 2699(g)(1)-(3).

25 13. In the event that Defendants, or any of them, is/are deemed to have adequately taken 26 all reasonable steps to be in compliance with all provisions identified in this notice within sixty (60)
27 days of receiving this notice, said defendant(s) is/are still liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor 28 Code section 2699(h)(1)-(3).

14. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that within five (5) years of any of violations described above, the LWDA or a court has issued a finding or determination to the Defendants, or any of them, that its/their policy or practice giving rise to such violations was unlawful, and thus Defendants, or any of them, is/are further liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(i). Plaintiff is informed that Defendants, or any of them, was/were found to have unlawfully committed some or all of the above-related Labor Code violations, and thus is/are subject to increased penalties, as applicable, under Labor Code sections 2699(f)(2)(B)(i), 2699(g)(3) and 2699(h)(3), and is/are not eligible for reduced penalties under either Labor Code sections 2699(g) or 2699(h) for remedying violations either prior to or after the serving of this notice. Regardless, as the Defendants' conduct giving rise to the violations detailed herein was and is malicious, fraudulent, and/or oppressive, the Defendants thus are subject to increased penalties under Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii) and, per Labor Code sections 2699(g)(3) and 2699(h)(3), are not eligible for reduced penalties under either 2699(g) or 2699(h), for remedying violations either prior to or after the Defendants' receipt of this notice.

15. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the June 21, 2024 or August 16, 2024 postmarked dates of the herein-described notices sent by Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and each of them, had and have a policy or practice of requiring Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to work more than eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek (in violation of Labor Code sections 551 and 552) without paying them proper overtime wages every day, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking

1 out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and 2 doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to 3 make phone calls or drive off the clock, and/or go through security screenings and/or temperature 4 checks off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary 5 bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask allowances, gift cards and other forms of 6 remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the 7 additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; 8 detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show 9 less hours than actually worked, for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, for failure to pay 10 overtime as required by Labor Code section 226.2, and by attempting but failing to properly 11 implement an alternative workweek schedule (“AWS”) (including, without limitation, by failing to 12 implement a written agreement designating the regularly scheduled alternative workweek in which 13 the specified number of work days and work hours are regularly recurring; failing to adopt the AWS 14 in a secret ballot election, before the performance of work, by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the 15 affected employees in the work unit; failing to follow the notice/disclosures procedures prior to any 16 AWS election; and/or failing to register an AWS election with the State of California, as required 17 by Labor Code section 511 and applicable Wage Orders) all to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 18 Aggrieved Employees. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, 19 that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 221, 222, 223, 226.2, 510, 511, 551, 552, 1194, 1198
20 (as it pertains to employees governed by a collective bargaining agreement [“CBA”]), 1811, 1815
21 and applicable Wage Orders based on their practice of providing total compensation that is less than 22 the required legal overtime compensation for the overtime worked, entitling Plaintiff and other 23 Aggrieved Employees to damages, including, without limitation, at least one hour of unpaid 24 overtime wages each day worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the Civil Penalty Period.
25 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants’ conduct above 26 gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be 27 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 28

1 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would 2 further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 4 each of them, had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other 5 Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' 6 control every day as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all 7 minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 8 including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work
9 without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines 10 for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, 11 to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff 12 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to undergo security checks and/or bag checks off 13 the clock, to store and retrieve personal belongings off the clock, to attend company meetings off 14 the clock, to make phone calls, receive and respond to emails and/or texts, or drive off-the-clock; 15 detrimental rounding of employee time entries; failing to pay the minimum amounts required under 16 Labor Code section 226.2; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 17 actually worked; and failing to pay split shift premiums. In addition, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 18 Employees were required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were 19 furnished less than half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or 20 scheduled work at their regular rate of pay. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 21 thereon alleges, that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as it 22 pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.2, 1197, 1182.12, Cal. and applicable Wage 23 Orders based on their continued failure to pay minimum wages for all hours worked, that Plaintiff 24 and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Plaintiff and other 25 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to actual and liquidated damages under, without limitation, Labor 26 Code sections 1475, 1194, 1194.2, and 1198 to compensate them for at least one unpaid hour of 27 work per day for each Aggrieved Employee in the Civil Penalty Period. Plaintiff is further informed
28 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations

1 was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Plaintiff would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant 2 to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 558, 1197.1, 1198 and 2699, or 3 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff would further be liable for civil 4 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

5 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 6 and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with 7 minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control every day as a result 8 of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; 9 engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, 10 by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in 11 for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete 12 pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods 13 and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety 14 equipment off the clock, to undergo security checks and/or bag checks off the clock, to store and 15 retrieve personal belongings off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone 16 calls, receive and respond to emails and/or texts, or drive off-the-clock; detrimental rounding of 17 employee time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually 18 worked; and failing to pay split shift premiums. In addition, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
19 Employees were required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were 20 furnished less than half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or 21 scheduled work at their regular rate of pay. These acts and/or omissions violated Labor Code 22 sections 1771, 1774 and 1198, and, thus Plaintiff would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to these 23 sections and Labor Code section 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
24 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff's conduct above
25 gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Plaintiff would further be liable 26 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 28 each of them, had and have a policy or practice of compelling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved

1 Employees during the Civil Penalty Period to work every day in excess of five (5) and ten (10) hours 2 per day, without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal periods or 3 compensation in lieu thereof including, each workday, without limitation: by interrupting meal 4 periods; not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; 5 providing short meal periods, including without, limitation meal periods that were recorded for less 6 than thirty minutes, and meal periods that may appear on the record to be thirty minutes or longer 7 but in practice were shorter than thirty minutes due to time required to walk to and from a suitable 8 break area, time spent having to wait in line to clock back in, having to don and doff safety gear 9 during the meal period, having to undergo security or bag checks during the meal period, and /or 10 having to retrieve and store personal belongings during the meal period; requiring that employees 11 carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal periods; not permitting employees to leave 12 the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal periods; and auto-deducting meal periods 13 that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which employees worked. Plaintiff and other 14 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and 15 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as to 16 employees governed by a CBA), 223, 512 and 1198 each day for each Aggrieved Employee during 17 the Civil Penalty Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee was owed one hour of premium
18 pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the Civil Penalty Period under Labor 19 Code section 226.7. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those premium payments under 20 Labor Code section 226.7 were not made, either, for these non-compliant meal periods, either at all 21 or at the proper regular rate of pay. Plaintiff would thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor 22 Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221, 222 (for employees governed by a 23 CBA), 223, 558, 1198 and 2699 for both failing to authorize the taking of compliant meal periods 24 and for failing to provide premium pay under Labor Code section 226.7, or injunctive relief under 25 sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon
26 alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 27 oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
28 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 20. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 maintain policies or practices of compelling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees every day to, 3 including, without limitation, work over four-hour periods (or major fractions thereof) without 4 authorizing and permitting Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to take uninterrupted, timely, 5 and complete ten-minute rest periods in which the employees are completely relieved of all of their 6 duties, including, without limitation: by failing to provide rest periods all together; failing to provide 7 rest periods that were at least ten minutes in length, including rest periods that were shorter than ten 8 minutes, or rest periods that may have encompassed a total of ten minutes but were in practice less 9 than ten uninterrupted minutes due to, without limitation, due to time required to walk to and from 10 a suitable break area, time spent having to don and doff safety gear during the rest period, having to 11 retrieve and store personal belongings during the rest period, and/or having to undergo security or 12 bag checks during the rest period, requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; 13 interrupting them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest 14 periods; not providing rest periods in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the 15 premises; and otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 16 Employees personally suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, 17 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated the applicable Wage Order(s) each day for each 18 Aggrieved Employee during the Civil Penalty Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee was 19 owed one hour of premium pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the Civil 20 Penalty Period under Labor Code section 226.7. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that 21 those premium payments under Labor Code section 226.7 were not made, either, for these non-22 compliant rest periods, either at all or at the proper regular rate of pay, in violation of Labor Code
23 sections 226.7 and 1198. Defendants would thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code 24 sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221, 222 (for employees governed by a CBA), 25 223, 558, 1198 and 2699 for both failing to authorize the taking of compliant rest periods and for 26 failing to provide premium pay under Labor Code section 226.7, or injunctive relief under sections 27 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 28 Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.

1 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
2 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 maintain policies or practices of failing to permit Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from 5 taking cooldown periods every day as required under California Code of Regulations, Title 8, 6 Section 3395; rest and recovery periods as required by Labor Code section 226.2; and premium pay
7 in lieu thereof under Labor Code section 226.7. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally
8 suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 9 alleges, that Defendants violated California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 3395 each day for 10 each Aggrieved Employee during the Civil Penalty Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee 11 was owed one hour of premium pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the Civil 12 Penalty Period under Labor Code section 226.7. In addition, for the failure each day of the Civil 13 Penalty Period by Defendants to provide rest and recovery periods under Labor Code section 226.2, 14 each Aggrieved Employee was owed compensation at a regularly hourly rate that is no less than the 15 higher of the amounts set forth in Labor Code section 226.2(a)(3)(A)(i) or 226.2(a)(3)(A)(ii).
16 However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those premium payments under Labor Code section 17 226.7, and rest and recovery periods under Labor Code section 226.2(a)(3)(A) were not made for 18 these non-compliant cooldown periods and/or rest and recovery periods, either at all or at the proper 19 rate of pay, in violation of Labor Code sections 226.2, 226.7 and 1198. Defendants would thus be 20 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 21 221, 222 (for employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.2, 558, 1198 and 2699 for both failing to 22 authorize the taking of compliant rest and recovery periods and/or cooldown and for failing to 23 provide adequate pay under Labor Code sections 226.2 and/or 226.7, or injunctive relief under 24 sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon
25 alleges, that Defendants'' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 26 oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
27 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 22. As a result of, among other things, Defendants' herein-described policy or practice 2 of failing to: accurately record time; failing to pay overtime and minimum wages; failing to provide 3 meal periods; failing to provide rest periods; and failing to provide compensation in lieu of meal or 4 rest periods, as described above, and due to independent failures in connection therewith, Plaintiff 5 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants also intentionally failed and 6 continues to fail to furnish Aggrieved Employees, including, without limitation, Plaintiff, with 7 itemized wage statements that accurately reflect: gross wages earned; total hours worked by the 8 employee; net wages earned; the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; the 9 name of the employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee 10 identification number other than a social security number; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates 11 in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate 12 by the employee; the legal name and address Defendants (and, in the case of a farm labor contractor, 13 the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer); and other such 14 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) , as well as Labor Code section 15 226.2 to the extent it does not include for piece-rate work the information required therein including,
16 without limitation, the quantity, rate and units worked per piece, as well as separately itemized non-17 productive time and rest and recovery periods. Specifically, Defendants intentionally failed to 18 furnish employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect the hours worked by 19 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees and the rates of pay at which they were or should have 20 been paid (including due to failure to pay at the proper regular rate), thus resulting in a failure to 21 reflect gross and net wages earned and paid at each rate, as well. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed 22 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 226, 226.2, 23 1696.5 and 1198 each day for each Aggrieved Employee during the Civil Penalty Period, and that,
24 thus Plaintiff and each Aggrieved Employee personally suffered these violations and was owed 25 penalties under Labor Code section 226 and 226.2 for each pay period worked during the Civil 26 Penalty Period. Plaintiff is informed and believes that those penalties under Labor Code section 226 27 were not paid for these violations of Labor Code section 226. Defendants would thus be liable for 28 civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.2, 226.3, 558, 1198, 1696.5 and 2699. Plaintiff

1 is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave 2 rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for 3 civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.2, 226.3, 558, and 2699, or injunctive relief
4 under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties
5 pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

6 23. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants also 7 willfully or intentionally failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse, to timely pay 8 compensation to Plaintiff and other terminated or resigned employees, including but not limited to, 9 all overtime wages owed; all minimum wages owed; all paid sick leave, vacation pay and paid time 10 off; and all premium pay owed as set out above, including, without limitation, for failure to pay at 11 the proper regular rate of pay, among other things. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, 12 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 201.5, 201.7, 202 203, 13 203.5 ,204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5 and 1198 each pay period for each Aggrieved Employee
14 during the Civil Penalty Period, and that, thus Plaintiff and each Aggrieved Employee personally 15 suffered these violations and was owed penalties under Labor Code section 203 (or, as applicable, 16 203.5, 204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205 and/or 205.5) for each pay period worked during the Civil Penalty
17 Period. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those penalties under Labor Code section 18 203 (or 203.5 and/or 204a) were not made for these violations of Labor Code sections 201, 201.5, 19 201.7, 202, 203, 203.5, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205 and/or 205.5. Plaintiff is further informed and 20 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 21 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to 22 Labor Code sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(j).
23 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
24 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 26 required or require the execution of a release of claim or right on account of wages due, or to become 27 due, or made as an advance on wages to be earned, including, without limitation, as a condition of 28 being paid, to execute a statement of the hours worked during a pay period in which Defendants

1 knew to be false. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that 2 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 206.5 and 1198, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 3 Employees have personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and 4 based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, 5 fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code
6 sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants
7 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

8 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 9 or had a policy or practice of unlawfully deducting wages from Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 10 Employees, by issuing in payment of wages due, or to become due, or as an advance on wages to 11 be earned: (1) an order, check, draft, note, memorandum, gift card, or other acknowledgement of 12 indebtedness, (unless it was negotiable and payable in cash, on demand, without discount, at some 13 established place of business in the state), the name and address of which must but did not appear 14 on the instrument, and at the time of its issuance and for a reasonable time thereafter, which must 15 be but was not at least 30 days, the maker or drawer did not have sufficient funds in, or credit, 16 arrangement, or understanding with the drawee for its payment; and/or (2) any scrip, coupon cards, 17 or other thing redeemable, in merchandise or purporting to be payable or redeemable otherwise than 18 in money. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that such wages were 19 not compensated at the "regular rate" of compensation as provided under Labor Code sections 226.7
20 and 510, subsection (a), thus violating those Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 21 1198. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants, by these deductions and/or 22 otherwise, have caused wages earned by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to be charged back or 23 kicked back to Defendants. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 24 alleges, that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations under 25 these sections and are entitled to relief under, without limitation, Labor Code sections 212, 221, 222 26 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.7, 246, 510 subsection (a), 1194, and 27 1197. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff's conduct 28 above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would thus

1 be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, 1198 and 2699, or 2 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil 3 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

4 26. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants
5 failed and refused, and continues to fail and refuse, to comply with the notice requirements of Labor
6 Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing
7 to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay 8 applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular 9 payday designated by Defendants, the name of the employer, including any “doing business as” 10 names used, the name, address and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance 11 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information required to be 12 disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code section 2810.5. Plaintiff is informed and believes that 13 failure to provide such information, including rates of pay that are in effect, has permitted 14 Defendants to pay employees at rates of pay that were not agreed upon and violate minimum wage 15 and overtime wage laws in California. Plaintiff is additionally informed and believes that the notice 16 requirement of Labor Code section 2810.5 involves a mandatory payroll or workplace injury 17 reporting. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 1198 and 18 2810.5. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is 19 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants’ conduct above gave rise
20 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Among other relief, employees may 21 collect from Defendants in connection with these violations’ civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code
22 sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants
23 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

24 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants also 25 failed and refused, and continues to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 26 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 27 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 28 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, and for

1 the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, for pre-employment 2 medical, physical or drivers' exams taken as a condition of employment, or for compelling or 3 coercing Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, including applicants, to patronize in the purchase of a 4 value or things, including, without limitation, Defendants' product(s) and/or service(s), in direct 5 consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, 6 as required by Labor Code sections 222.5, 231, 450, 1198, 2800, 2802, and other statutory and 7 common law offenses. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally 8 suffered these violations and Defendants are liable to reimburse Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 9 Employees for these costs incurred in furtherance of work duties. Plaintiff is further informed and 10 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 11 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. In addition, Defendants would be liable for civil penalties 12 pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) 13 and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
14 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 28. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 have or had a policy or practice of failing to reimburse deposits made, including uniform deposits
17 together with all interest owed at the separation of employment in violation of Labor Code sections 18 404 and 1198, that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, 19 and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in the amount of the 20 deposit and accrued interest. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, 21 that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 22 oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558, 1198 23 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be 24 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25 29. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 have or had a policy or practice of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with 27 all rights afforded to them under the Healthy Workplace Healthy Families Act of 2014, codified at 28 Labor Code section 245, et seq., including, without limitation, the amount of paid sick leave required

1 to be provided pursuant to California and local laws. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 2 the sick pay was not provided at the proper regular of pay as required under California law due to 3 failure to properly calculate the regular rate. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 4 Defendants also did not permit its use upon request by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees as 5 contemplated under California and local laws, including, without limitation, under Labor Code 6 section 233, that permits its use to attend to an illness of a child, parent, spouse, or domestic partner 7 without retaliation. Plaintiff is additionally informed and believes that the notice requirement of 8 Labor Code section 221, 222 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 233, 234, 245 9 and 246 involves a mandatory payroll or workplace injury reporting. Plaintiff is thus informed and 10 believes that Defendants violated these Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 1198.
11 As such, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations under these 12 sections and Defendants would be liable for civil penalties for violation of the paid sick leave 13 regulations under Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, as well as equitable, injunctive, or 14 restitutionary relief, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Defendants are further informed and 15 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 16 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 17 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

18 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 19 have a policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees their paid time 20 off and vacation time owed upon separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in 21 violation of Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 22 227.3 and applicable Wage Orders. Plaintiff is thus informed and believes that Defendants violated 23 these Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 1198. As such, Plaintiff and other 24 Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered these violations and Defendants would be liable for 25 civil penalties for violation of Labor Code section 227.3 under Labor Code section 558, 1198 and 26 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and 27 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 28

malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code Section 204, which requires that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.” Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants did not and do not pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees every day and every workweek in accordance with Labor Code sections 204 and 1198. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 204 and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants’ conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Plaintiff would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and have a policy of failing to provide all temporary workers, including without limitation, Plaintiff, with owed wages weekly by not later than the regular payday of the following week. Plaintiff is informed and believes that this has resulted in a violation of Labor Code sections 201.3 and 1198. As a result, pursuant to Labor Code section 201.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations thereto and Plaintiff would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 201.3, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants’ conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 2 or had collected, taken, or received gratuities (or a part thereof) that is paid, given to, or left for 3 Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees by a patron, or deducted amounts from wages due to Plaintiff
4 and/or Aggrieved Employees on account of a gratuity, or required Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved
5 Employees to credit the amount (or a part thereof) of a gratuity against and as part of the wages due
6 to the Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from the Defendants. In addition, Plaintiff is informed 7 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants permit and/or permitted patrons to pay 8 gratuities by credit card but failed to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees the full amount of 9 the gratuity that the patron indicated on the credit card slip, without any deductions, for any credit 10 card payment processing fees that may be charged to the employer by the credit card company by 11 not later than the regular payday following the date the patron authorized the credit card. In addition, 12 Defendants failed to keep accurate records of all gratuities received by Defendants and made those 13 open to inspection at all reasonable hours. Plaintiff is informed and believes that this has resulted in 14 a violation of Labor Code sections 351, 353, 1198. As a result, pursuant to Labor Code sections 351
15 and 353, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations thereto and 16 Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 351, 353, 1198 and 17 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and 18 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 19 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 20 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

21 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 22 have a policy or practice of failing to provide all working employees, including without limitation 23 Plaintiff, with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats. Plaintiff 24 is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants have failed to place an 25 adequate number of seats in reasonable proximity to the work area and/or permitted Plaintiff and 26 other Aggrieved Employees to use such seats when it does not interfere with the performance of 27 their duties when employees are not engaged in the active duties of their employment and the nature 28 of their work requires standing. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered

1 these violations. Plaintiff is informed and believes that this has resulted in a violation of Labor Code
2 section 1198. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered 3 violations thereto and Defendants would be liable for civil penalties under Labor Code sections 1198
4 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed
5 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations
6 was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties
7 pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

8 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 9 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from using or 10 disclosing the skills, knowledge and experience they obtained with Defendants for purposes of 11 competing with Defendants, including, without limitation, preventing Plaintiff and Aggrieved 12 Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with a prospective employer, and 13 from disclosing who else works with Defendants and under what circumstances that they might be 14 receptive to an offer from a rival employer. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes that this 15 violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, 16 various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor Code sections 232, 232.5, 1197.5, 17 subdivision (k), and 1198, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally 18 suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 19 Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
20 Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or 21 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil 22 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

23 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 24 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing 25 violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or outside of 26 Defendants to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and 27 Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. Plaintiff and 28 other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. In addition, Plaintiff is informed

1 and believes that these policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees 2 from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and 3 hour violations in violation of Labor Code sections 232, 232.5 and 1198. Plaintiff and other 4 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations of the Labor Code, and as such, these 5 violations would expose Defendants to liability for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 6 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further 7 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such 8 violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil 9 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 11 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in 12 lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose
13 wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 14 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, 1197.5, subdivision (k), and 1198. Plaintiff and other 15 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is informed and believes that 16 this lawful conduct includes, without limitation, the exercise of Plaintiff's and other Aggrieved 17 Employees' constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty and would thus expose 18 Defendant to liability for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or 19 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, 20 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 21 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 22 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

23 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 24 have made, adopted, and/or enforced rules, regulations and/or policies that tend to forbid or prevent 25 Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, from engaging or participating in politics and/or from 26 becoming a candidate for public office. Moreover, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 27 thereon alleges that Defendants coerced, influenced and/or attempted to coerce and/or influence 28 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, through or by means of threat of discharge and/or loss of

1 employment, to adopt or follow or refrain from adopting or following a particular course or line of 2 political action and/or political activity. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges 3 that in doing so, Defendants have violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 1101, 1102, 4 1102.5 and 1198. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations and 5 are thus informed and believe that Defendants are exposed to liability for civil penalties pursuant to 6 Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
7 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above
8 gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be 9 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, 11 including their agents, managers, superintendents, and/or officers, required Plaintiff and/or 12 Aggrieved Employees to agree, in writing, to terms and conditions known by Defendants (and their 13 agents, managers, superintendents and/or officers) to be prohibited by law, including, without 14 limitation, non-compete agreements, terms known to be illegal in purported arbitration agreements, 15 purported confidentiality agreements, purported severance agreements, or purported release 16 agreements, and other written documents presented for signature and/or assent to Plaintiff and/or 17 Aggrieved Employees by Defendants. And, even more specifically, Plaintiff is informed and 18 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a practice or policy of requiring 19 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to agree in writing to confidentiality policies that 20 unlawfully restrain trade by prohibiting employees from speaking with prospective employers about 21 their work with Defendants, including but not limited to their wages and working conditions.
22 Defendants also required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to inform prospective employers of 23 Defendants' restrictions of Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' freedom to work. As a result, 24 Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 432.5, 1700.31 and 25 1198. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and other 26 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Defendants violated, without 27 limitation, Labor Code section 432.5 and Government Code section 12952, entitling Plaintiff and 28 other Aggrieved Employees to damages. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based

1 thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious,
2 fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code 3 sections 432.5, 1198, 1700.31 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
4 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
5 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

6 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 7 and have a practice or policy of conducting unlawful background checks on prospective and current 8 employees, including without limitation Plaintiff, prior to making a conditional offer. Plaintiff is 9 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated applicable laws by, 10 without limitation: requiring job applicants and employees to disclose their conviction history before 11 Defendants made a conditional offer of employment; inquiring into or considering the conviction 12 history of applicants before Defendants made any conditional offers of employment; considering, 13 distributing, or disseminating information about arrests not followed by conviction, referrals to or 14 participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion program, convictions that have been sealed, 15 dismissed, expunged, or statutorily eradicated pursuant to law, or any conviction for which the 16 convicted person has received a full pardon or has been issued a certificate of rehabilitation, while 17 conducting conviction history background checks in connection with any applications for 18 employment; intending to deny an applicant a position of employment solely or in part because of 19 the applicant's conviction history; and asking applicants for employment to disclose, through any 20 written form or verbally, information concerning or related to an arrest, detention, processing, 21 diversion, supervision, adjudication, or court disposition that occurred while the person was subject 22 to the process and jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 23 Employees. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and 24 other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, as well as violation of Labor Code 25 section 1198, and that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 432.7 and 1198, 26 as well as Government Code section 12952, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 27 damages. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
28 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants

1 would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 432.7, 432.8, 1198, and 2 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable
3 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

4 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 5 and have a practice or policy of relying on the salary history information of an applicant for 6 employment as a factor in determining whether to offer employment to an applicant or what salary
7 to offer the applicant in violation of Labor Code section 432.3 by including, on Defendants' 8 application for employment, an inquiry regarding current and/or former salary history information, 9 including, without limitation, compensation and benefits of the applicant for employment. Plaintiff
10 is informed and believes that this practice has resulted in unequal pay. Specifically, for this reason, 11 as well as for other reasons, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 12 Defendants have failed to pay their employees at wage rates less than those paid to employees of 13 the opposite sex and/or another race or ethnicity for substantially similar work, when viewed as a 14 composite of skill, effort, and responsibility, and/or performed under similar working conditions 15 without sufficient legal rationale. Finally, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 16 alleges that Defendants have discharged and/or discriminated and/or retaliated against Plaintiff and 17 Aggrieved Employees by reason of an action taken by them to invoke or assist in the enforcement 18 of Labor Code section 1197.5. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, 19 that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 432.3, 1102.5, 1197.5, and 1198.
20 Plaintiff also alleges that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these 21 violations, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages. Plaintiff is 22 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise 23 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil 24 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 432.3, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections
25 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor 26 Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants and 28 others in connection with the Defendants (including, without limitation, the owner of the property,

1 controller, and others in concert with the Defendants) employed, permitted and/or suffered to work 2 minors under the age of sixteen (16) years in connection with a manufacturing establishment or 3 other place of employment; in adjusting belts to machinery, sewing or lacing machine belts in a 4 workshop or factory, and/or oiling, wiping, cleaning machinery and/or assisting therewith; in 5 operating or assisting in operating machines, including circular or band saws, wood shapers, wood-6 jointers, planers, sandpaper machinery, wood-polishing machinery, wood turning or boring 7 machinery, picker machines, machines used in picking wool, cotton, hair or other material, carding 8 machines, leather-burnishing machines, laundry machines, printing-presses, boring or drill presses, 9 stamping machines used in sheet-metal and tinware, in paper and leather manufacturing, in washer
10 and nut factories, metal or paper-cutting machines, paper-lace machines, corner-staying machines 11 in paper-box factories, corrugating rolls, dough brakes, cracker machinery, wire or iron 12 straightening or drawing machinery, rolling mill machinery, power punches or shears, washing, 13 grinding or mixing machinery, calendar rolls in paper and rubber manufacturing, steam boilers, and 14 others, even in or out of proximity to hazardous or unguarded belts, machinery or gearing; and in 15 occupations declared hazardous as set forth in Labor Code section 1293.1; all in violation of Labor 16 Code sections 1290, 1292, 1293, 1294.1 and 1301. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes, 17 and based thereon alleges that Aggrieved Employees are covered by Labor Code section 1391, 18 Educational Code 49112 and Educational Code 49116. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 19 thereon alleges, that Defendants had and has a policy or practice of requiring Aggrieved Employees, 20 who are fifteen (15) years old or younger to work for more than eight (8) hours in one day of twenty-
21 four (24) hours, and/or more than forty (40) hours in one week, and/or before 7:00 a.m. or after 7:00
22 p.m. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and 23 have a policy or practice of, among other things, requiring their employees, who are fourteen (14)
24 or (15) years old to work, while school is in session, for more than three hours in any schoolday
25 and/or more than eighteen (18) hours in any week. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and 26 based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and has a policy or practice of, among other things, 27 requiring their employees, who are sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years old, to work for more than 28 eight (8) hours in one day, and/or more than 48 hours in one week, and/or before 5 a.m., and/or after

1 10 p.m. on any day preceding a schoolday, and/or to work more than four (4) hours on a schoolday.
2 Accordingly, for violations of Labor Code section 1391, et seq., As such, Plaintiff is informed and 3 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code
4 sections 1290, 1292, 1293, 1294.1 and 1301, 1391 and 1198. Plaintiff also alleges that Aggrieved 5 Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 6 damages. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
7 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
8 would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1290, 1292, 1293, 1294.1 9 and 1301, 1391 and 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
10 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
11 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

12 43. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 13 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 14 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 15 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

16 PARTIES

17 A. Plaintiff

18 44. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 19 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-20 exempt employee. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from 21 approximately June of 2023 through approximately February of 2024.

22 B. Defendants

23 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant 24 Thunderbolt Wood is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing 25 under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of 26 Stanislaus, State of California.

27 46. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 28 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff,

1 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
2 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 3 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
4 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 5 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 6 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 7 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 8 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 9 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 10 include Thunderbolt Wood and any of its parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State 11 of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

12 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

13 47. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 14 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 15 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 16 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 17 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

18 48. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 19 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 20 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 21 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 22 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 23 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 24 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 25 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 26 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

27 49. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 28 formation of the purported corporate existence of Thunderbolt Wood and DOES 1 through 50,

1 inclusive (the “Alter Ego Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 2 51 through 100 (“Individual Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following 3 reasons:

4 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 5 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws
6 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 7 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 8 inequitable purpose;

9 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 10 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 11 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

12 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 13 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 14 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 15 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

16 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 17 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 18 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 19 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 20 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 21 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 22 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

23 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 24 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 25 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 26 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 27 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
28 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

1 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 2 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 3 disregarded.

4 50. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 5 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

6 51. Moreover, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 7 Individual Defendants, and each of them, are liable for the civil penalties, or some of them, described 8 herein because Individual Defendants, and each of them, caused or are otherwise contributed to the 9 violations described herein, or some of them.

10 FIRST AND ONLY CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

12 52. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 13 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

14 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

15 53. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 16 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 17 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 18 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 19 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

20 54. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 21 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 22 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 23 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 24 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 25 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 26 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

27 55. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 28 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as

1 per Labor Code section 204 including, without limitation, for the reasons and in a manner set forth
2 in the preceding paragraphs. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 3 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover as civil penalties injunctive relief and monetary civil 4 penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial 5 violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 6 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent 7 violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

8 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

9 56. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
10 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 11 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 12 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 13 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 14 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 15 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 16 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) and/or Labor Code section 226.2 17 to the extent it does not include for piece-rate work the information required therein including,
18 without limitation, the quantity, rate and units worked per piece, as well as separately itemized non-19 productive time and rest and recovery periods

20 57. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 21 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 22 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 23 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 24 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

25 58. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 26 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

27 59. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 28 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage

1 statements as set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

2 60. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 3 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
4 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
5 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 6 period for each subsequent violation.

7 Violation of Labor Code § 558

8 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 9 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 10 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 11 penalty as follows:

12 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 13 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 14 to recover underpaid wages;

15 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 16 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 17 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

18 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

19 62. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 20 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 21 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 22 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 23 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business 24 as" names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance 25 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

26 63. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
27 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
28 civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars

1 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars
2 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

3 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

4 64. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 5 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 6 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 7 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 8 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 9 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 10 or papers of the person.”

11 65. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 12 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 13 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

14 66. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 15 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 16 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 17 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
18 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 19 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 20 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 21 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 22 earned.”

23 67. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully
24 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 25 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 26 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 27 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

28 68. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have

1 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 2 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
3 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 4 under Labor Code section 1174.

5 69. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
6 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 7 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 8 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per pay period per Aggrieved Employee.

9 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

10 70. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 11 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 12 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 13 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 14 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 15 Section 203 as follows:

16 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 17 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 18 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 19 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
20 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

21 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 22 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 23 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 24 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
25 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
26 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

27 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 28 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected

1 employee.”

2 71. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 3 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 4 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all 5 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 6 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 7 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 8 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 9 entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

10 72. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
11 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 12 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of one 13 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 14 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 15 subsequent violation.

16 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

17 73. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 18 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 19 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 20 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 21 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 22 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

23 74. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 24 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described in the preceding paragraphs.

25 75. As such, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to injunctive relief, one 26 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each pay period in the Civil Penalty 27 Period, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each pay period in the 28 Civil Penalty Period to the extent Defendants’ conduct is found to be malicious, fraudulent and/or 1 oppressive.

2 76. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 3 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in 4 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

5 PRAYER

6 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for
