- (10) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 2699 (Private Attorneys General Act)

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

1 Plaintiff Kimberly Olmstead (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members of 2 the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the 3 Private Attorneys General Act, based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely
4 to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery,
5 alleges as follows:

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant Sacramento Cooling Systems, Inc.
8 dba L&H Airco LLC (“Defendant”) and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively
9 referred to as “Defendant” or “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business
10 practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, 11 failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay 12 minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure 13 to maintain accurate time and payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related 14 expenses. In addition, this is a class action lawsuit seeking unpaid wages and interest thereon for 15 unpaid wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and overtime worked at the overtime rate
16 of pay due to defendant’s policy, practice, and/or procedure of rounding down or shaving down 17 employees’ daily hours worked.

18 2. Plaintiff’s First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 19 behalf of herself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
20 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 21 12, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
22 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 23 and will be established according to proof at trial.

24 3. Plaintiff’s Tenth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 25 of herself and certain other current and former individuals who performed work for Defendant as 26 employees in California during the statutory period (hereinafter collective referred to as the 27 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 28 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil

1 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and 2 will be established according to proof at trial.

3 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
4 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
5 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 6 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

7 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
8 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 9 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 10 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 11 substantial justice.

12 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 13 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of 14 Sacramento.

15 PARTIES

16 7. Plaintiff Kimberly Olmstead is an individual residing in the County of , State of 17 California.

18 8. Defendant is and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and 19 existing under the laws of the State of California, and registered to do business in the state of 20 California.

21 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 22 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 23 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges,
24 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 25 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at 26 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 27 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 28 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct. L&H Airco and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendant."

10. Defendant was and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the County of , State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendant employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action as a class action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of Defendant within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.").

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendant's employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- a. Whether Defendant's failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- b. Whether Defendant had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

- 1 c. Whether Defendant required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more
2 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
3 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class
4 Members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendant deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
6 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 7 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 8 e. Whether Defendant failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 9 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 10 f. Whether Defendant failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members 11 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 12 periods;
- 13 g. Whether Defendant failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 14 Members for all hours worked;
- 15 h. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 16 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 17 i. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 18 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 19 j. Whether Defendant failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 20 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 21 employment;
- 22 k. Whether Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for 23 all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California Labor
24 Code section 2802;
- 25 l. Whether Defendant failed to pay reporting time wages in violation of the 26 applicable IWC Wage Order;
- 27 m. Whether Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 28 Class Members during their employment;

- 1 n. Whether Defendant complied with wage reporting as required by the California
2 Labor Code, including section 226;
- 3 o. Whether Defendant's conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- 4 p. Whether Defendant's conduct was willful or reckless;
- 5 q. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California
6 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper 7 withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- 8 r. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties 9 resulting from Defendant's violation of California law; and
- 10 s. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory 11 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

12 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

13 17. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by 14 Defendant.

15 18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the 16 California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA
17 for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 18 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themselves and other current or former 19 employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 19. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved 21 employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one 22 or more of the alleged violations was committed.

23 20. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant and the alleged violations were committed 24 against her during her time of employment and she is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff
25 and the other employees are "Aggrieved Employees" as defined by California Labor Code section
26 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendant, and one or more of the 27 alleged violations were committed against them.

28 21. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, aggrieved employees, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.
- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

22. On June 20, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s notice.

23. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendant, in addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

24. L&H Airco is a temperature control and energy management system contractor

1 serving parts of Northern and Central California.

2 25. Defendant employed Plaintiff to work as Service Administrator from 3 approximately November 4, 2019 to August 1, 2023.

4 26. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff, the Class and 5 the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

6 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant had the authority to 7 hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees, as well as to directly or 8 indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of 9 employment of Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees.

10 28. At all times herein mentioned, Defendant was subject to the Labor Code of the 11 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

12 29. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees worked more minutes per shift than 13 Defendants credited them with having worked. Defendants “rounded” down or “shaved”
14 Plaintiff’s and similarly situated employees’ total daily hours worked at the time of their clock-in 15 and clock-out to the nearest quarter of an hour, to the benefit of Defendants, in policy and/or 16 practice. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees were not paid for this time. Despite the fact
17 that California law requires employers to pay employees for all hours worked at least at a
18 minimum wage rate, Defendants rounded down or shaved down Plaintiff’s and similarly situated
19 employees’ daily hours worked, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required its hourly
20 employees to be subject to Defendant’s control without paying wages for that time. This result 21 in Plaintiff and similarly situated employees working time for which they were not compensated
22 any wages, in violation of California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and the Wage Orders.

23 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant engaged in 24 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
25 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 26 Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation due 27 to their rounding policy, thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum 28 and overtime wages. Defendant also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class and

1 the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure
2 to pay Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendant
3 routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and 4 duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendant also failed to 5 reimburse Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related 6 expenses, and failed to pay reporting wages.

7 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
8 and/or practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees with 9 timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendant routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class and 10 the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
11 control over Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, regularly
12 failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable opportunity to take
13 their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
14 Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later than the end of their 15 fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break no
16 later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours. Defendant also failed
17 to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
18 Employees.

19 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately
20 inform Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 21 California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded their own written policies
22 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
23 Employees.

24 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff,
25 the Class and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late,
26 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known
27 that Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or 28 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed,

1 short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely failed to
2 provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees, and
3 routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
4 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or 5 interrupted.

6 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant have implemented
7 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees from 8 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 9 permit Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest
10 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
11 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 12 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 13 work period.

14 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately
15 inform Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under 16 California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded their own written policies
17 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
18 Employees. Instead, Defendant's actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class 19 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 20 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees 21 to work through their rest periods.

22 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff,
23 the Class and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late,
24 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known
25 that Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or 26 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed,
27 short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely failed to 28 authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest

1 periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
2 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 3 interrupted.

4 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required
5 Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 6 Defendant prohibited overtime, Defendant still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class and the 7 Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class and the 8 Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they were 9 not compensated.

10 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
11 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 12 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees 13 all wages owed.

14 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class and the 15 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 16 week.

17 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 18 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees when 19 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single 20 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a 21 single work week. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class and the 22 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 23 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

24 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay overtime
25 to Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on 26 regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

27 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 28 pay Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours

1 worked. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
2 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they
3 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendant's failure to pay
4 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
5 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 6 Class and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock.

7 43. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 8 pay Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 9 resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
10 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
11 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
12 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 13 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 14 California Labor Code section 202.

15 44. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 16 pay Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under 17 California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendant knew or 18 should have known that Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive 19 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
20 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 21 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

22 45. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 23 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved
24 Employees. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved 25 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 26 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 27 Defendant. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
28 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, and the address of the legal entity

1 of the employer.

2 46. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to
3 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees.
4 Defendant knew or should have known that Defendant was required to keep complete and 5 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 6 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

7 47. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 8 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
9 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

10 48. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to reimburse 11 Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses.
12 Defendant knew or should have known that Defendant was required to reimburse Plaintiff, the 13 Class and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in 14 fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

15 49. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant knew or should have 16 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees
17 pursuant to California law. Defendant had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 18 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 19 Class and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 20 Defendant's profits.

21 50. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor 22 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 23 to him [or her] under this article."

24 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198)

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 28 every allegation set forth above.

1 52. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
2 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 3 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 4 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

5 53. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendant is and was 6 required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendant, and working more 7 than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-
8 one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours 9 in a workweek.

10 54. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendant is and was 11 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 12 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 13 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

14 55. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 15 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 16 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 17 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 18 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

19 56. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly 20 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

21 57. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees worked more minutes per shift than 22 Defendants credited them with having worked.

23 58. Defendants “rounded” down or “shaved” Plaintiff and similarly situated 24 employees’ total daily hours worked to the nearest quarter of an hour at the clock-in and clock-
25 out times, to the benefit of Defendants without Plaintiff and similarly situated employees being 26 paid wages for this time. Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees were not paid for this 27 time. The foregoing resulted in time during each workday which Plaintiff and similarly situated 28 employees were under control of Defendants, but were not compensated at their overtime rate of

1 pay when they worked more than eight hours in a day or 40 hours in a week, in violation of Labor
2 Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198.

3 59. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to pay
4 overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

5 60. Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid
6 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 7 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

8 61. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class
9 Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 10 attorneys' fees.

11 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
15 every allegation set forth above.

16 63. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections
17 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by 18 Defendant.

19 64. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 20 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 21 applicable order of the California IWC.

22 65. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
23 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
24 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal 25 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 26 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 27 both the employer and employee.

28 66. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that

1 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more
2 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal
3 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 4 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 5 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

6 67. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 7 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 8 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 9 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

10 68. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 11 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 12 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 13 thirty (30) minutes.

14 69. During the relevant time period, Defendants “rounded” down or “shaved” Plaintiff 15 and similarly situated employees’ total number of hours (or fraction thereof) in which they took 16 lunch. This policy of rounding meal periods made it such that Plaintiff and other similarly situated 17 employees were not provided with legally compliant meal breaks and were not paid meal period 18 premiums for any meal breaks that were less than thirty (30) minutes in duration.

19 70. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully required
20 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 21 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
22 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

23 71. During the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
24 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 25 226.7.

26 72. Defendant’s conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
27 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

28 73. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section

226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendant one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period was not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against All Defendants)

74. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

75. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendant.

76. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

77. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours."

78. During the relevant time period, Defendant required Plaintiff and other Class Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

79. During the relevant time period, Defendant willfully required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class Member to take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

80. During the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other

1 Class Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7
2 for work performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and 3 other Class Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

4 81. Defendant's conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor
5 Code section 226.7.

6 82. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
7 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendant one 8 additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day 9 that the rest period was not provided.

10 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
14 every allegation set forth above.

15 84. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 16 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees and the payment of a lesser wage than 17 the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

18 85. During the relevant time period, Defendant regularly failed to pay minimum wage 19 to Plaintiff and the other Class Members as required pursuant to California Labor Code sections 20 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

21 86. Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the minimum 22 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to 23 those sections, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance
24 of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated
25 damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

26 87. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other Class
27 Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully 28 unpaid and interest thereon.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 88. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
5 every allegation set forth above.

6 89. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 7 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 8 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his 9 or her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 10 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case 11 the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

12 90. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
13 Members with Defendant ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendant
14 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer
15 employed by Defendant all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to 16 minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 17 leaving Defendant's employ.

18 91. Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer 19 employed by Defendant their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 20 leaving Defendant's employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

21 92. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to 22 pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 23 continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is 24 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

25 93. Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendant are 26 entitled to recover from Defendant the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid,
27 up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 204 and 210)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 94. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
5 every allegation set forth above

6 95. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
7 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any 8 calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable 9 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

10 96. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all 11 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of 12 any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and 13 payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

14 97. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
15 wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday 16 for the next regular payroll period.

17 98. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to pay
18 Plaintiff and other Class Members all wages due to them, within any time period permissible
19 under California Labor Code section 204.

20 99. Plaintiff and other Class Members are entitled to recover all available remedies for 21 Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 204, including statutory penalties
22 pursuant to Labor Code section 210(b).

23 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 100. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 27 every allegation set forth above.

28 101. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a)

1 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized
2 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3)
3 the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a 4 piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 5 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates
6 of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social 7 security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all
8 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
9 worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall 10 be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and 11 a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at 12 least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

13 102. Defendant has intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class 14 with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited to the 15 failure list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned, and the name of the 16 legal entity of the employer.

17 103. Because of Defendant's violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), 18 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

19 104. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendant's 20 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 21 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 22 itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

23 105. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their 24 actual damages caused by Defendant's failure to comply with California Labor Code section 25 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

26 106. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance
27 with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

28 //

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 107. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 5 every allegation set forth above.

6 108. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 7 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct
8 consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job
9 duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

10 109. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that 11 were not fully reimbursed by Defendant. Defendant's failure to reimburse for all necessary 12 business-related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for 13 costs incurred as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

14 110. Defendant has intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 15 Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 16 recover from Defendant their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and 17 scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred
18 the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

19 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 111. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
23 every allegation set forth above.

24 112. Defendant's conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
25 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendant's
26 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest
27 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

28 113. Defendant's activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and

1 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
2 Code section 17200, et seq.

3 114. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 4 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendant's policies
5 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 6 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
7 Additionally, Defendant's policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 8 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation
9 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendant's policies and 10 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code 11 sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

12 115. Defendant also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 13 1197.1, 510, 1174(d), 2800, and 2802.

14 116. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendant
15 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

16 117. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendant's unlawful 17 business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of 18 money and/or property.

19 118. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
20 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendant
21 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 22 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable
23 laws; and an award of costs.

24 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq. ("Private Attorneys General Act")

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 119. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
28 every allegation set forth above.

120. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

121. Whenever the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees has discretion to assess a civil penalty, a court in a civil action is authorized to exercise the same discretion, subject to the same limitations and conditions, to assess a civil penalty.

122. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees or individuals who performed work for Defendant during the statutory period are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendant, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant has routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes by:

Failure to Pay Overtime

123. Defendant's failure to pay legally required overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

124. Defendant's failure to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

Failure to Provide Rest Periods

125. Defendant's failure to provide legally required rest periods to Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 226.7.

1 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

2 126. Defendant's failure to pay legally required minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 3 other Aggrieved Employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair
4 activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1.

5 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

6 127. Defendant's failure to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved
7 Employees upon termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202 constitutes 8 unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

9 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

10 128. Defendant's failure to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved
11 Employees during employment in accordance with Labor Code section 204 constitutes unlawful 12 and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 204.

13 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

14 129. Defendant's failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements to Plaintiff
15 and the other Aggrieved Employees in accordance with Labor Code section 226(a) constitutes 16 unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 226(a).

17 Failure to Keep Complete and Accurate Payroll Records

18 130. Defendant's failure to keep complete and accurate payroll records relating to 19 Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees in accordance with California Labor Code section
20 1174(d) constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 21 1174(d).

22 131. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on 23 behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendant and each 24 of them, business expenses, unpaid wages, and/or untimely wages according to proof, interest,
25 attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.5, as well as all statutory 26 penalties against Defendant, and each of them, including but not limited to:

- 27 a. Penalties under California Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred 28 dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation,

1 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for 2 each subsequent violation;

3 b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11010, et seq. in 4 the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for 5 the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each subsequent violation;
6 and

7 c. Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely
8 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor
9 Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per 10 pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each 11 aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation; and 12 d. Any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor

13 Code and/or other statutes.

14 132. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(i), civil penalties recovered by 15 aggrieved employees shall be distributed as follows: seventy-five percent (75%) to the Labor and 16 Workforce Development Agency for the enforcement of labor laws and education of employers 17 and employees about their rights and responsibilities and twenty-five percent (25%) to the 18 aggrieved employees.

19 133. Further, Plaintiff is entitled to seek and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and 20 costs pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210, 218.5 and 2699 and any other applicable 21 statute.

22 134. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code
23 section 2699.3. On June 20, 2024, Plaintiff, through her counsel of record, by online filing with 24 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the 25 Defendant, notified Defendant and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and 26 IWC Wage Orders that Defendant have violated, including the facts and theories to support the 27 violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also 28 paid the filing fee required under Labor Code section 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint,

1 more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's June 20, 2024, notice,
2 and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate
3 the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to 4 recover penalties for herself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code section 5 2699.3.

6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other members of the general
8 public similarly situated, prays for relief and judgment against Defendant, jointly and severally, 9 as follows:

10 Class Certification

- 11 1. That this action be certified as a class action;
12 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; 13 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and 14 4. That Defendant provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most 15 current/last known contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class
16 members.

17 As to the First Cause of Action

- 18 5. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California
19 Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay 20 all overtime wages due to Plaintiff and other Class Members;

- 21 6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special 22 damages as may be appropriate;

- 23 7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing 24 from the date such amounts were due;

- 25 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 26 California Labor Code section 1194; and

- 27 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the Class;

11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided;

12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

13. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7;

14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Third Cause of Action

17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest periods to Plaintiff and the Class;

18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided;

19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

20. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7;

21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due; and

22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the Class;

24. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

25. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for Plaintiff and the Class in the amount as may be established according to proof at trial;

26. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

27. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a);

28. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and other Class Members no longer employed by Defendant;

31. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

32. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for Plaintiff and other Class Members who have left Defendant's employ;

33. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated California

Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time required by California Labor Code section 204 to Plaintiff and the Class;

36. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 210;

37. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

38. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendant violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff and the Class, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

39. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

40. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e); and

41. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Eight Cause of Action

- ☒ [by MAIL] - I am readily familiar with the firm's practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it would be deposited with the U.S. Postal Service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid at Los Angeles, California in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postage cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit for mailing this affidavit.
- ☐ [by ELECTRONIC SERVICE] - Based on a court order or an agreement of the parties to accept service by electronic transmission, I caused the documents to be sent to the persons at the electronic notification address listed above.
- ☐ [by PERSONAL SERVICE] - I caused to be delivered by messenger such envelope(s) by hand to the office of the addressee(s). Such messenger is over the age of eighteen years and not a party to the within action and employed with Express Network, whose business address is 1605 W. Olympic Boulevard, Suite 800, Los Angeles, CA 90015.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed September 19, 2024, at Sacramento County, California.
