JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff ANJOMA EARL SUNDTROY MILLER (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all
2 others similarly situated, the State of California, and the general public, complains and alleges as 3 follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action against Defendants APPLE MID
6 CAL, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; APPLE MID CAL II, LLC, a Delaware limited
7 liability company; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for 8 alleged violations of the California Labor Code and California Business and Professions Code. As 9 set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 10 a. failed to pay all wages owed, including minimum and overtime wages, for all 11 time worked;
- 12 b. failed to provide lawful meal periods;
- 13 c. failed to provide lawful rest periods;
- 14 d. failed to properly pay premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 15 e. failed to pay reporting time pay;
- 16 f. failed to properly pay sick time pay;
- 17 g. failed to reimburse for necessary business expenditures;
- 18 h. failed to provide accurate wage statements; and
- 19 i. failed to timely pay all final wages owed following separation of employment.

20 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 21 representative action to recover unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil and statutory penalties, 22 restitution, and related relief on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary
25 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants’ conduct exceeds the minimal 26 jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California.

27 3. Venue is proper in the County of Santa Barbara pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
28 sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions

1 that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found,
2 maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

3 4. Venue is proper in Santa Barbara because Defendants' have at all times alleged 4 herein, conducted business in Santa Barbara, and throughout California. As such, venue is proper 5 in any county in California.

6 PARTIES

7 5. Plaintiff ANJOMA EARL SUNDTROY MILLER is, and at all relevant times
8 mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

9 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants APPLE MID 10 CAL, LLC and APPLE MID CAL II, LLC are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein were,
11 Delaware limited liability companies doing business in the State of California.

12 7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as 13 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names.
14 Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants 15 when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the 16 fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and 17 omissions alleged herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these 18 defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and 19 capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained.

20 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
21 mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees,
22 partners, directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants 23 of some or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the 24 course and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent, and ratification by such 25 other defendants.

26 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
27 mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert
28 and conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences,

1 acts and omissions alleged herein.

2 10. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code
3 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 4 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 5 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

6 11. Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Classes and Subclasses (collectively referred 7 to as "Class Members") composed of and defined as follows:

- 8 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 9 separately, in hourly or non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the 10 filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this 11 action ("Hourly Employee Class").
- 12 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 13 a shift in excess of five (5) hours during the four years prior to the filing of this 14 action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 15 c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a 16 shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of 17 this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 18 d. Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 19 were required to call in or otherwise show up to work without being paid half of 20 their usual or scheduled day's work from four years prior to the filing of this action 21 and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 22 e. Sick-Pay Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who, at any 23 time from four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that 24 final judgment is entered in this action, worked for more than 30 days for 25 Defendants, and were not paid for at least one hour of sick time for every 30 hours 26 of work thereafter, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 12-month period of 27 employment at the appropriate hourly rate.
- 28 f. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- g. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- h. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final

1 judgment is entered.

- 2 i. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class members employed by Defendants in 3 California during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the 4 date that final judgment is entered in this action.

5 12. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right
6 to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes
7 and/or by limitation to particular issues.

8 13. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each
9 individual Class Member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number
10 of Class Members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number 11 exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

12 14. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all 13 Class Members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual Class Members.
14 These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- 15 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class 16 members for all time worked;
17 b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 18 employees with lawful meal periods;
19 c. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 20 employees with lawful rest periods;
21 d. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they 22 have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
23 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay reporting time pay;
24 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay vacation wages at the proper rate;
25 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay sick time pay at the proper rate;
26 h. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business
27 expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
28 i. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage statements including, among other things, the correct amounts of gross and net wages, total hours worked, and applicable hourly rates of pay;

- j. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or incomplete final wage payments;
- k. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code section 203; and
- l. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition.

15. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other Class Members' claims. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this Complaint.

16. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent Class Members and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other Class Members.

17. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel is adequate class counsel in that they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent Class Members, are experienced in wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of Plaintiff and absent Class Members.

18. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and efficient adjudication of the Class Members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and statutory periods.

20. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay. Plaintiff and Class Members were consistently required to perform work, off-the-clock, for which they were not paid wages. By way of example, Plaintiff, and upon information and belief Class Members, were required to clock out at their scheduled shift end time but continue working until management told them they could leave. Defendants also expected Plaintiff and Class Members to respond to calls and text messages at all times and to utilize a staffing application to check their schedules, including while off the clock. The foregoing time it took for Plaintiff and Class Members to participate in these activities was uncompensated working time under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

21. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

22. Additionally, for what time was captured, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class members at 1.5 time their regular rate of pay for all overtime hours worked.

23. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period, including a second meal period for shifts in excess of ten hours, due to (1) Defendants' policy and practice of not scheduling each meal period as part of each work shift; and (2) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Class Members to continue working through their meal and rest periods due to the excessive workload.

24. Similarly, Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying

1 Plaintiff and Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with California Law.
2 Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for 3 each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy and practice
4 of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts
5 of six (6) hours or more; and (2) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring putative class
6 members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive workload. Thus, Class
7 Members were consistently denied of their rest breaks.

8 25. Defendants also had a common policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and Class
9 Members all reporting time pay to which they were entitled under California Law. Specifically,
10 Plaintiff and Class Members were required to call in or otherwise show up to work a shift without 11 being paid half of their usual or scheduled day's work when sent home without being put to work 12 or working less than half of the scheduled day's work.

13 26. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to provide 14 Plaintiff and Class Members with the requisite sick time in accordance with California Law.
15 Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members worked for Defendants for more than 30 days but were 16 not provided at least one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least three days of sick 17 time for every 12-month period of work at the regular rate of pay.

18 27. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in 19 executing their duties under Defendants' employ. Specifically, Plaintiff, and upon information and 20 belief, Class Members were required to use their personal cell phones for work related purposes, 21 including being required to use a staffing application to check their work schedules. Plaintiff and 22 Class members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

23 28. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 24 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226.

25 29. Specifically, Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1), (a)(2), 26 (a)(5) and (a)(9) as Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class members wage statements that 27 accurately reported all hours worked, including overtime, and the applicable hourly rates.

28 30. Finally, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages due and

1 owed to Plaintiff and Class Members at the time of their termination of within seventy-two (72)
2 hours of their resignation, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY MINIMUM AND OVERTIME WAGES

5 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

6 (Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

7 31. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
8 herein.

9 32. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been 10 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the 11 applicable Wage Order.

12 33. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during 13 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee 14 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

15 34. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
16 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all 17 hours that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

18 35. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an 19 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage 20 Order.

21 36. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated 22 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition 23 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

24 37. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less
25 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a 26 payroll period.

27 38. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 28 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an

1 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

2 39. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 3 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

4 40. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 5 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

6 41. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees
7 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half (1.5) times their 8 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, all
9 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight (8) hours 10 worked on the seventh consecutive day of one workweek.

11 42. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 12 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two (2) times their 13 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday 14 and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the 15 workweek.

16 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied
17 centrally devised policies and practices to Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members with 18 respect to working conditions and compensation arrangements.

19 44. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
20 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 21 statutory and/or agreed rates.

22 45. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 23 overtime for all hours worked. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were consistently 24 required to perform work, off-the-clock, for which they were not paid wages. By way of example, 25 Plaintiff, and upon information and belief Hourly Employee Class members, were required to 26 clock out at their scheduled shift end time but continue working until management told them they 27 could leave. Defendants also expected Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to respond
28 to calls and text messages at all times and to utilize a staffing application to check their schedules,

1 including while off the clock. The foregoing time it took for Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
2 members to participate in these activities was uncompensated working time under the direction and 3 control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid. Additionally, for what time was captured,
4 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members at 1.5 time their regular 5 rate of pay for all overtime hours worked.

6 46. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to 7 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week,
8 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 9 they were systemically denied.

10 47. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class 11 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 12 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period, 13 including overtime wages.

14 48. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197.1 and 1198
15 Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover unpaid 16 straight time and overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

17 49. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 18 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 19 Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

22 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

23 (Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

24 50. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if 25 fully alleged herein.

26 51. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been 27 non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor
28 Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

1 52. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
2 Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt
3 employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period
4 of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty 5 minutes for each work period of ten hours.

6 53. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
7 Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to 8 work during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of 9 premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

10 54. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
11 Code section 200.

12 55. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 13 violate the applicable Wage Order.

14 56. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

15 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than 16 five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except 17 that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete 18 the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 19 the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty 20 during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 21 ‘on duty’ meal period and counted as time worked. An ‘on duty’ meal 22 period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an 23 employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written 24 agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed
25 to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, 26 revoke the agreement at any time.

27 57. At all relevant times and upon information and belief, Plaintiff was not subject to a 28 valid on-duty meal period agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

58. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff

1 and members of the Meal Period Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least 2 thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 and 3 the applicable Wage Order. Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and 4 Meal Period Sub-Class members were denied the opportunity to take timely meal periods
5 altogether and/or prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work.

6 59. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the 7 applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium
8 wages to Meal Period Sub-Class members when they worked five (5) hours without a meal period.

9 60. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the 10 applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff
11 and members of the Meal Period Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of 12 ten (10) or more hours and failed to pay them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and 13 the applicable Wage Order.

14 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of 15 himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest 16 thereon, and costs of suit.

17 62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 18 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 19 the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

20 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

22 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

23 (Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

24 63. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 25 herein.

26 64. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been 27 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor
28 Code and the applicable Wage Order.

1 65. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on 2 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than 3 ten (10) minutes of net rest time for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that 4 must be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

5 66. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 6 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to 7 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on 8 each workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

9 67. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
10 Code section 200.

11 68. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 12 violate the Wage Order.

13 69. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
14 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
15 with net rest period of at least ten (10) uninterrupted minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or 16 major fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

17 70. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 18 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
19 Defendants' policy and practice of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, 20 including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; and (2) Defendants' policy and 21 practice of requiring Rest Period Sub-Class members to continue working through their rest breaks 22 due to the excessive workload. Thus, Rest Period Sub-Class members were consistently denied of 23 their rest breaks.

24 71. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class
25 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

26 72. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself
27 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, 28 and costs of suit.

1 73. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the
2 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and
3 Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 RECOVERY OF REPORTING TIME PAY

6 (Plaintiff and Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class)

7 74. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
8 herein.

9 75. The IWC Wage Orders, require that reporting time pay be provided to any employee 10 who is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than 11 half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work.

12 76. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that all or substantially all the 13 Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class are subject to Defendants' policies and practices of requiring 14 Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class members to call in or otherwise show up to work a scheduled
15 shift but failing to pay Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class members half their usual or scheduled 16 day's work when sent home.

17 77. Therefore, Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class Members are owed the unpaid balance
18 of said wages pursuant to the Wage order according to proof at trial, Interest pursuant to Labor
19 Code §§ 218.6 and 1194(a), Civil Code §§ 3287 and § 3289, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 20 costs and/or penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558(a).

21 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PROPERLY PAY SICK PAY

23 (Lab. Code § 246)

24 (Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class)

25 78. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 26 herein.

27 79. Labor Code Section 246 affords an employee "who works in California for 30 or more 28 ///

1 days within a year from the commencement of employment [] paid sick days . . . of not less than 2 one hour per every 30 hours worked” and “no less than 24 hours of accrued sick leave or paid time
3 off by the 120th calendar day of employment or each calendar year, or in each 12-month period.”

4 80. Additionally, Subsection (l) of Section 246 provides:

5 For the purposes of this section, an employer shall calculate paid sick leave
6 using any of the following calculations:

7 (1) Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the same
8 manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee
9 uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime 10 in that workweek.

11 81. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
12 and Sick Pay Class members the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law.
13 Specifically, Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class members worked for Defendants for more than 30 days
14 but were not provided at least one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least three days 15 of sick time for every 12 month period of work at the regular rate of pay.

16 82. Therefore, Sick Pay Class members are owed the unpaid balance of said wages
17 pursuant to the Wage order according to proof at trial, interest pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.6 and 18 1194(a), Civil Code §§ 3287 and § 3289, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and/or penalties
19 pursuant to Labor Code § 558(a).

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

22 (Lab. Code § 2802)

23 (Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

24 83. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 25 herein.

26 84. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

27 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
28 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

2 85. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 3 business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendants' employ. Specifically,
4 Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to use their personal cell
5 phones for work related purposes, including being required to use a staffing application to check
6 their work schedules. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed
7 for these necessary work-related expenses.

8 86. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 9 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the filing of 10 the Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

11 87. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 12 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 13 costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

14 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WAGE STATEMENTS

16 (Lab. Code § 226)

17 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

18 88. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
19 herein.

20 89. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

21 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, 22 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the 23 check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if 24 wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized
25 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 26 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the 27 number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 28 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a

1 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that 2 is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as 3 defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the 4 legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all 5 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 6 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 7 employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary 8 services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the 9 total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The 10 deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or 11 other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, 12 and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be 13 kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 14 employment or at a central location within the State of California. For 15 purposes of this subdivision, 'copy' includes a duplicate of the itemized 16 statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that 17 accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

18 90. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
19 limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members
20 with accurate statements as the wage statements issued to class members failed to account all hours
21 worked, including overtime, and the applicable hourly rates.

22 91. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and 23 Wage Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements was intentional in that 24 Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally
25 provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor
26 Code section 226(a).

27 92. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that 28 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has required discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government agencies.

93. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage Statement Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

(Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

(Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

94. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

95. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

96. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

97. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of resignation have been entitled to payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

98. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members all their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

99. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

100. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members has been

1 willful in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code
2 sections 201 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible
3 with those requirements.

4 101. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 5 Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the dates that their 6 final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

7 102. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
8 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
9 Class members, seeks awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

10 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 UNFAIR COMPETITION

12 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

13 (Plaintiff and UCL Class)

14 103. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 15 herein.

16 104. Business and Professions Code section 17200 defines "unfair competition" to include 17 any unlawful business practice.

18 105. Business and Professions Code sections 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost
19 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code 20 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 21 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

22 106. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees for all hours
23 they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or reasonable 24 should know that employees have worked.

25 107. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-allege and incorporate the FIRST, SECOND,
26 THIRD, FOURTH, FIFTH, and SIXTH, causes of action herein.

27 108. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

28 109. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

1 110. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
2 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 204, 215,
3 216, 225, 226.6, 226.7, 246, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199
4 and 2802, as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the 5 violations alleged herein.

6 111. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
7 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: pay for all hours
8 worked at the proper rates of pay; provide non-exempt employees with compliant meal and rest 9 periods; pay sick time at the proper rate of pay; and reimburse for necessary business expenditures.

10 112. Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes 11 unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.
12 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. protects against unfair competition and allows 13 a person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 15 similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

16 113. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
17 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form
18 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' 19 conduct.

20 114. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been 21 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

22 115. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code,
23 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business
24 in the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

25 116. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
26 relief for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act 27 violates or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

28 117. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,

1 Plaintiff requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
2 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
3 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

4 118. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
5 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
6 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
7 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seeks 8 an order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 9 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare
10 Commission Wage Orders.

11 119. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 12 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully 13 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 14 and unfair business practices.

15 120. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
16 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
17 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

18 121. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 21 and unfair business practices.

22 122. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
23 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
24 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

8 126. Plaintiff, a former employee against whom Defendants committed one or more of the 9 alleged Labor Code violations during the applicable limitations period, is an aggrieved employee
10 within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699(c). Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt 11 hourly employee in California. Aggrieved Employees include all non-exempt hourly employees of
