DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff GOLDAMEIR CLEMENTE (“Plaintiff”) brings this action on behalf of himself and the Class Members who are defined as “all current and former employees within the State of California who, at any time from four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt hourly employees by Defendants WEST COUNTY HEALTH CENTERS, INC., a California non-profit corporation; and DOES 1 through 50” (all defendants being collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”).

2. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of the California Labor Code, relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC), and the California Business & Professions Code, and seeks redress for these violations.

3. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities; (2) was subjected to the same policies and practices; and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of Defendants as the other Class Members who served in similar and related positions.

THE PARTIES

A. The Plaintiff

4. Plaintiff GOLDAMEIR CLEMENTE resides in California, during the time period relevant to this Complaint, was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within the State of California.

B. The Defendants

5. Defendant WEST COUNTY HEALTH CENTERS, INC. is a California non-profit corporation with its principal offices in Sebastopol, California and is registered with the California Secretary of State. Defendant WEST COUNTY HEALTH CENTERS, INC. has been the employer listed on the wage statements and employment records issued to Plaintiff during the relevant time period that Plaintiff was employed with Defendants. WEST COUNTY HEALTH CENTERS, INC. employs Plaintiff and the Class Members in California, including at Defendants’ offices and facilities in Sebastopol, California, and throughout California, and conducts business throughout California.

6. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all respects as the employers or joint employers of Class Members. Defendants, and each of them, exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Class Members, or suffered or permitted Class Members to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with Class Members. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed Class Members.

8. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this Complaint to any act by a defendant or defendants, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to mean the acts and failures to act of each defendant acting individually, jointly, and severally.

9. Whenever and wherever reference is made to individuals who are not named as a Defendant in this Complaint but were agents, servants, employees and/or supervisors of Defendants, such individuals at all relevant times acted on behalf of Defendants within the scope of their employment.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Class Members of Defendants pursuant to

1 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial 2 district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief,
3 the obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred in part in Sonoma County.
4 Defendants maintain and operate facilities in Sonoma County and employs Plaintiff and other 5 Class Members in Sonoma County, while doing business throughout California.

6 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 11. Class Members consistently worked at Defendants behest without being paid all
8 wages due. Class Members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours worked or were not 9 paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Plaintiff also contends that 10 Defendants failed to pay Class Members all wages due and owing, including by requiring off the 11 clock work, unlawfully rounding to their detriment, failing to provide meal and rest breaks, failing 12 to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to timely pay wages including final wages, failing to 13 maintain accurate records, and failing to reimburse necessary business expenses all in violation of 14 various provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

15 12. During the course of Class Members' employment with Defendants, they were not 16 paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed resulting in off the clock work.
17 Specifically, Class Members were required to respond to work demands on their personal cell 18 phones during their meal periods, and they were not paid for this time.

19 13. Moreover, Defendants had a consistent policy and practice of unlawfully rounding
20 hours worked to the detriment of the Class Members. Rather than paying Class Members for all 21 hours and minutes they actually worked, Defendants followed a uniform policy and practice of 22 rounding all time entries to the nearest quarter-hour or half-hour (i.e. to the nearest 15-minute or 23 30-minute time increment), and generally did so to the detriment of the Class Members, and 24 Plaintiff contend this policy is not neutral and resulted, over time, to the detriment of the Class
25 Members by systematically under-compensating them. Rather than reflecting the actual hours
26 worked by Class Members, the time entries were rounded and reduced to reflect the scheduled 27 work time rather than the actual hours worked. These unlawfully rounded time entries were 28 inputted into Defendants' payroll system from which wage statements and payroll checks were

1 created.

2 14. By implementing policies, programs, practices, procedures and protocols which 3 resulted in off the clock work and unlawful rounding, Defendants' willful actions resulted in the 4 systematic underpayment of wages to Class Members, including underpayment of overtime pay to 5 Class Members over the relevant time period. For example, the above described off the clock work
6 addressed above caused Plaintiff to begin receiving overtime pay later than they should have.

7 15. As a result of the above described requirements to work off the clock, unlawful 8 rounding by Defendants, and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants' hands, Class
9 Members were not properly paid all wages earned and all wages owed to them by Defendants,
10 including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than forty (40)
11 hours in any given week.

12 16. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices, Class Members incurred 13 overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately and completely compensated, in 14 addition to the hours they were required to work off the clock. To the extent applicable, 15 Defendants also failed to pay Class Members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for 16 the first eight hours of the seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the 17 rate of 2 times the regular rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work
18 day, as required under the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

19 17. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
20 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class
21 Members for all hours worked, and failing to pay minimum wages for all time worked, as required
22 by California law. Defendants thus failed to pay Class Members at least minimum wages for all
23 the time they worked for Defendants in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage 24 Orders as the actual times when Class Members were under the control and direction of 25 Defendants was under reported in the hours reflected on the timekeeping records. Furthermore,
26 Defendants' willful actions resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Class Members, 27 including underpayment of overtime pay to Class Members over a period of time.

28 18. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and

1 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class
2 Members for all hours worked. Also, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit
3 and continuing to the present, Defendants also had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
4 Class Members their true and correct overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all
5 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time
6 rates for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510
7 and the corresponding sections of IWC Wage Orders.

8 19. Additionally, Defendants failed to provide all the legally required unpaid, off-duty
9 meal periods and all the legally required paid, off-duty rest periods to Class Members, as required 10 by the applicable Wage Order and Labor Code. Class Members were required to perform work as 11 ordered by Defendants for more than five (5) hours during a shift but were often required to do so 12 without receiving a lawful and timely meal break. In addition to untimely meal periods, 13 Defendants also required Class Members to respond to work demands. Defendants placed their 14 needs over Class Members lawful meal and rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members often 15 having to work through their scheduled meal and/or rest breaks, or otherwise taking shortened
16 ones, because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully 17 uninterrupted and off duty meal and/or rest break.

18 20. On the occasions when Class Members worked over 10 hours in a shift, Defendants
19 also failed to provide them with a second, uninterrupted, timely and duty-free meal period. As a 20 result, Defendants' failure to provide Class Members with all legally required off-duty, unpaid 21 meal periods and all the legally required off-duty, paid rest periods is and will be evidenced by 22 Defendants' business records, or lack thereof. Defendants also failed to pay Class Members 23 "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Class Member's effective hourly rate of pay, for 24 each meal period or rest break that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

25 21. Therefore, for at least four years prior to the filing of this action and through to the 26 present, Defendants have regularly required Class Members to work shifts in excess of five (5)
27 hours without providing them with uninterrupted meal periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes,
28 and shifts in excess of (10) hours without providing them with second meal periods of not less

1 than thirty minutes; nor did Defendants pay Class Members “premium pay,” i.e. one hour of 2 wages at each Class Member’s effective hourly rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants 3 failed to provide or deficiently provided. Additionally, to the extent Class Members were able to 4 take meal periods, they were required to carry their personal cell phones and remain “on call”
5 throughout the meal period.

6 22. Meal period violations thus occurred in one or more of the following manners:

- 7 (a) Class Members were not provided full thirty-minute duty free meal periods
8 for work days in excess of five (5) hours and were not compensated one (1)
9 hour’s wages in lieu thereof, all in violation of, among others, Labor Code
10 §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 11 Order(s);
- 12 (b) Class Members were not provided second full thirty-minute duty free meal 13 periods for work days in excess of ten (10) hours;
- 14 (c) Class Members were required to work through at least part of their daily 15 meal period(s);
- 16 (d) Meal periods were provided after five (5) hours of continuous work during 17 a shift; and
- 18 (e) Class Members were restricted in their ability to take a full thirty-minute 19 meal period.

20 23. Class Members were also not authorized and permitted to take lawful rest periods, 21 were systematically required by Defendants to work through or during breaks and were not 22 provided with one (1) hour’s wages in lieu thereof. Class Members were restricted in their ability
23 to take their full ten (10) minutes net rest time or were otherwise not provided with duty-free rest
24 periods. Therefore, from at least four years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 25 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Class Members with paid rest breaks of not 26 less than ten minutes for every work period of four or more consecutive hours; or major fraction
27 thereof, nor did Defendant pay Class Members premium pay for each day on which requisite rest
28 breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided. Additionally, to the extent Class Members

1 were able to take rest breaks, they were required to carry their personal cell phones and remain “on 2 call” throughout the rest break.

3 24. Rest period violations therefore arose in one or more of the following manners:

4 (a) Class Members were required to work without being provided a minimum
5 ten (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction 6 thereof worked and were not compensated one (1) hour of pay at their 7 regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not 8 provided;

9 (b) Class Members were not authorized and permitted to take timely rest 10 periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof; and

11 (c) Class Members were required to remain on-duty during rest periods or 12 otherwise had their rest periods interrupted by work demands.

13 25. Defendants also consistently failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements as 14 required by Labor Code § 226(a). Specifically, the wage statements given to Class Members failed
15 to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because Defendants had unlawfully rounded 16 time entries to the detriment of the Class Members and their actual hours worked were under-17 reported due to off the clock work. Additionally, the wage statements given to Class Members
18 failed to accurately account for premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods and rest 19 breaks.

20 26. From at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing to the present,
21 Defendants have thus also had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages owed to Class 22 Members at the time of their termination of within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 23 required by California wage-and-hour laws. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were not 24 paid all regular and overtime wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked by 25 requiring off the clock work and unlawfully rounding time entries to the detriment of Class
26 Members. Additionally, Defendants failed to pay premium wages owed for unprovided meal
27 periods and rest periods, as further detailed in this Complaint. Defendants’ failure to pay said
28 wages within the required time was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203.

27. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Class Members to incur business expenses in the course of performing their required job duties for Defendants including for cell phone expenses. Upon information and belief, Class Members incurred similar costs. These expenses incurred by Class Members were necessary and required of them in performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to reimburse Class Members for all such necessary expenditures, thus entitling them to reimbursement according to proof as required under Labor Code § 2802 and the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders.

28. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Members bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 248, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698 et seq., 2802 and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et seq.

29. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, Plaintiff and the Class Members seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code and the other unfair, unlawful, or fraudulent practices alleged in this Complaint.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

30. Plaintiff seeks to represent the Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class Members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class Members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

c. Subclass 3. Meal Period Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

d. Subclass 4. Rest Break Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

e. Subclass 5. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class Members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

f. Subclass 6. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class Members who, within the applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon termination.

g. Subclass 7: Failure to Timely Pay Wages Twice Monthly Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and practice of not timely paying all wages earned when they were due and payable at least twice monthly.

h. Subclass 8. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

i. Subclass 9. Expense Reimbursement Subclass. All Class Members who incurred necessary and reasonable expenses in connection with performing their job duties for Defendant and who were subject to a policy and/or practice under which such expenses were not reimbursed.

j. Subclass 10. UCL Subclass. All Class Members who are owed restitution as a result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

31. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the Class against Defendants, the Class Period should be adjusted accordingly.

32. Defendants, as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, and in violation of the applicable Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order requirements, and the applicable provisions of California law, intentionally, knowingly, and willfully, engaged

1 in a practice whereby Defendants failed to correctly calculate compensation for the time worked
2 by Class Members, even though Defendants enjoyed the benefit of this work, required Class
3 Members to perform this work and permitted or suffered to permit this work. Defendants have 4 uniformly denied these Class Members wages to which these employees are entitled and failed to 5 provide meal periods or authorize and permit rest periods, in order to unfairly cheat the 6 competition and unlawfully profit.

7 33. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
8 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community 9 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

10 A. Numerosity

11 34. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all 12 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class member has not been 13 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 14 time period relevant to this lawsuit, hundreds of employees who satisfy the Class definition within 15 the State of California.

16 35. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 17 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 18 information as to the number and location of all Class Members.

19 B. Commonality

20 36. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class that predominates over 21 any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common questions of law and fact 22 include:

- 23 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages;
- 24 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members wages for all hours worked;
- 25 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members overtime as required under Labor
26 Code § 510;
- 27 d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable
28 IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Class Members with requisite meal periods or premium pay in lieu thereof;

- e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take requisite rest breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof;
- f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a) by providing Class Members with inaccurate wage statements;
- g. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- h. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful;
- i. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226 and § 1174 and the IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of Class Members' earned wages and work periods;
- j. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 1194 by failing to compensate all Class Members during the relevant time period for all hours worked, whether regular or overtime;
- k. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 204 by failing to timely pay wages;
- l. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses Defendants required them to incur in performing their job duties;
- m. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and
- n. Whether Class Members are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

C. Typicality

37. The claims of the named plaintiff is typical of those of Class Members. The Class Members all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of law, as alleged herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

38. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of the Class Members. Counsel who represents Class Members are experienced and competent in litigating employment class actions.

E. Superiority of Class Action

39. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to all Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members. Each Class Member has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Class Members properly.

40. As to the issues raised in this case, a class action is superior to all other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, as joinder of all Class Members is impracticable and many legal and factual questions to be adjudicated apply uniformly to all Class Members. Further, as the economic or other loss suffered by vast numbers of Class Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual actions makes it difficult for the Class Members to individually redress the wrongs they have suffered. Moreover, in the event disgorgement is ordered, a class action is the only mechanism that will permit the employment of a fluid fund recovery to ensure that equity is achieved. There will be relatively little difficulty in managing this case as a class action, and proceeding on a class-wide basis will permit Class Members to vindicate their rights for violations they endured which they would otherwise be foreclosed from receiving in a multiplicity of individual lawsuits that would be cost prohibitive to them.

41. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class treatment. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed Class Members that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records can be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notice is required additional media and/or mailings can be used.

42. Defendants, as prospective and actual employers of the Class Members, had a special fiduciary duty to disclose to prospective Class Members the true facts surrounding Defendants' pay practices, policies and working conditions imposed upon Class Members as well as the effect of any alleged arbitration agreements that may have been forced upon them. In addition, Defendants knew they possessed special knowledge about pay practices and policies, most notably intentionally refusing to pay for all hours actually worked which should have been recorded in Defendants' pay records and the consequence of the alleged arbitration agreements and policies and practices on Class Members.

43. Class Members did not discover the fact that they were entitled to all pay under the Labor Code until shortly before the filing of this lawsuit nor was there ever any discussion about Plaintiff's and the Class' waiver of their Constitutional rights of trial by jury, right to collectively organize and oppose unlawful pay practices under California law as well as obtain injunctive relief preventing such practices from continuing. As a result, the applicable statutes of limitation were tolled until such time as Plaintiff and the Class Members discovered their claims.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

(Against All Defendants)

44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporate all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

45. Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Class Members' time records and failing to pay Class Members for all hours worked. Class Members would work hours and not receive wages, including as alleged above in connection with off the clock work and unlawful rounding of hours. Defendants, and each of them, have intentionally and improperly changed, adjusted and/or modified the hours of Class Members, which resulted in off the clock work and underpayment of all wages owed to Class Members over a period of time, while benefiting Defendants. During the

1 relevant time period, Defendants thus regularly failed to pay minimum wages to Class Members,
2 to their detriment. Additionally, Defendants had a consistent policy of failing to pay Class
3 Members for hours worked during alleged meal and rest periods for which Class Members were 4 consistently denied, as also addressed herein. Defendants' uniform pattern of unlawful wage and 5 hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a whole, as a result of 6 implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate compensation to Class Members 7 as to minimum wage pay.

8 46. In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum
9 wage for all hours worked. (IWC Wage Order MW-2014). Additionally, pursuant to California 10 Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must 11 timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

12 47. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states:
13 "The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to 14 employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful."

15 48. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 16 relevant period is found in Paragraph 4(A)-4(D) of the IWC Wage Orders.

17 49. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private 18 civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: "Notwithstanding any agreement to 19 work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 20 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the 21 unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including 22 interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit."

23 50. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages
24 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also,
25 California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 26 Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for 27 all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate and no part of this rate may 28 be used as a credit against a minimum wage obligation.

1 51. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, Defendants
2 inaccurately recorded, or required Class Members to input times that did not reflect their actual
3 hours worked, or calculated the correct time worked and consequently underpaid the actual time
4 worked by Class Members. Defendants acted in an illegal attempt to avoid the payment of all
5 earned wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare
6 Commission requirements and other applicable laws and regulations. As a result of these 7 violations, Defendant also failed to timely pay all wages earned in accordance with California
8 Labor Code § 1194.

9 52. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies: “In any 10 action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the 11 minimum wages fixed by an order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover
12 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.”

13 53. In addition to restitution for all unpaid wages, pursuant to California Labor Code §
14 1197.1, Class Members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely 15 pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each 16 employee minimum wages.

17 54. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Class Members are further entitled to 18 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

19 55. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have 20 willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this 21 indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Class Members.

22 56. Wherefore, Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages
23 (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum 24 wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit pursuant 25 to California Labor Code § 1194(a). Plaintiff and the other members of the Class further request 26 recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the 27 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California
28 Labor Code, including § 558, and/or other applicable statutes.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 57. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
5 full herein.

6 58. California Labor Code § 1194 provides that “any employee receiving less than the 7 legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 8 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime
9 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” The action 10 may be maintained directly against the employer in an employee’s name without first filing a 11 claim with the Division of Labor Standards and Enforcement.

12 59. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code §
13 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Class
14 Members: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8)
15 hours in a workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours 16 worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for 17 hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of 18 eight (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek.

19 60. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Class Members wages for all 20 hours worked, including by requiring off the clock work and by unlawfully rounding down actual 21 hours worked as addressed above. Defendants, and each of them, have intentionally and 22 improperly rounded, changed, adjusted and/or modified certain employees’ hours, including 23 Plaintiff’s, in order to avoid paying Class Members all earned and owed straight time and 24 overtime wages and other benefits, in violation of the California Labor Code, the California Code
25 of Regulations and the IWC Wage Orders and guidelines set forth by the Division of Labor
26 Standards and Enforcement. Defendants have also violated these provisions by requiring Class 27 Members to work through portions of their meal period. Therefore, Class Members were not 28 properly compensated, nor were they paid overtime rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours

1 in a given day, and/or forty hours in a given week. Based on information and belief, Defendants
2 did not make available to Class Members a reasonable protocol for correcting time records when
3 Class Members worked overtime hours or to fix incorrect time entries or those that Defendants
4 unlawfully rounded to the Class Members' detriment.

5 61. Defendants' failure to pay Class Members the unpaid balance of regular wages
6 owed and overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor
7 Code §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

8 62. Additionally, Labor Code § 558(a) provides "any employer or other person acting 9 on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any 10 provisions regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC shall be subject to a civil 11 penalty as follows: (1) For any violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each 12 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover
13 underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 14 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 15 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall 16 be paid to the affected employee." Labor Code § 558(c) states, "the civil penalties provided for in 17 this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law." Defendants
18 have violated provisions of the Labor Code regulating hours and days of work as well as the IWC
19 Wage Orders. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class Members seek the remedies set forth in Labor
20 Code § 558.

21 63. Defendants' failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a
22 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid
23 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct 24 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages
25 and overtime compensation earned by Class Members. Each such failure to make a timely
26 payment of compensation to Class Members constitutes a separate violation of California Labor
27 Code § 204.

28 64. Class Members have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code

§§ 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

65. Consequently, pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, and 1194, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, paragraph 3(A) and 4(B), Defendants are liable to Class Members for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

(Against All Defendants)

66. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

67. Class Members regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and in some instances, greater than ten (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ someone for a shift of more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or her with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

68. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required under the Labor Code. Defendants placed their needs over Class Members lawful meal breaks and this resulted in Class Members consistently having to work through their scheduled meal breaks because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully uninterrupted and off-duty meal break. Furthermore, upon information and belief, on the occasions when Class Members worked more than ten (10) hours in a given shift, they did so without receiving a second uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal period as required by law. Additionally, to the extent Class Members were able to take meal periods, they were required to carry their personal cell phones and remain "on call" throughout the meal period.

69. Defendants thus failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required by the Labor Code, including by not providing them with the opportunity to take meal breaks, by

1 providing them late or for less than thirty (30) minutes, or by requiring them to perform work
2 during breaks.

3 70. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period
4 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 11 of 5 the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee 6 a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of 7 pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not 8 provided. Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period not provided or 9 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

10 71. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order,
11 paragraph 11, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 12 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal period not provided or deficiently provided, a 13 sum to be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the 14 Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and other statutes.

15 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 72. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 19 full herein.

20 73. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders 21 provide that employers must authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods at the rate of 22 ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) work hours.

23 74. Class Members consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts and were 24 generally scheduled for shifts of greater than 3.5 hours total, thus requiring Defendants to 25 authorize and permit them to take rest periods. Pursuant to the Labor Code and the applicable IWC
26 Wage Order, Class Members were entitled to paid rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for 27 each consecutive four (4) hour shift, and Defendants failed to provide Class Members with timely
28 rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. Defendants

1 placed their needs over Class Members lawful rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members
2 consistently having to work through their scheduled rest breaks because the demands of the job
3 would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully uninterrupted and off-duty rest break.
4 Additionally, to the extent Class Members were able to take rest breaks, they were required to 5 carry their personal cell phones and remain “on call” throughout the rest break. Thus, Class
6 Members were consistently denied of their rest breaks.

7 75. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders
8 provide that if an employer fails to provide an employee rest period in accordance with this 9 section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of 10 compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

11 76. Defendants, and each of them, have therefore intentionally and improperly denied 12 rest periods to Class Members in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and paragraph 12 of 13 the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

14 77. Defendants failed to authorize and permit Class Members to take rest periods, as 15 required by the Labor Code. Moreover, Defendants did not compensate Class Members with an 16 additional hour of pay at each Class Member’s effective hourly rate for each day that Defendants 17 failed to provide them with adequate rest breaks, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

18 78. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC
19 Wage Orders, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 20 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to 21 be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each 22 of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

23 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
24 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)
25 (Against All Defendants)

26 79. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
27 full herein.

28 80. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her

1 employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings,
2 total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these 3 statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else
4 serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these 5 statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the 6 employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

7 81. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with accurate itemized wage
8 statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to 9 Class Members failed to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because Defendants
10 had unlawfully rounded time entries to the detriment of the Class Members and their actual hours 11 worked were under-reported due to off the clock work. Additionally, the wage statements given to 12 Class Members failed to accurately account for premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods 13 and rest breaks.

14 82. Throughout the liability period, Defendants intentionally failed to furnish to Class
15 Members, upon each payment of wages, itemized statements accurately showing: (1) gross wages 16 earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any 17 applicable piece rate paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 18 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 19 only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number 20 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 21 employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 22 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee pursuant to Labor Code § 226, 23 amongst other statutory requirements. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide 24 Class Members with such timely and accurate wage and hour statements.

25 83. Class Members suffered injury as a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional 26 failure to provide them with the accurate wage and hour statements as required by law and are 27 presumed to have suffered injury and be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 226(e), as the 28 Defendants have failed to provide wage statements with accurate and complete information as

1 required by any one or more of items Labor Code § 226 (a)(1) to (9), inclusive, and Class
2 Members cannot promptly and easily determine from the wage statement alone one or more of the 3 following: (i) The amount of the gross wages or net wages paid to the employee during the pay
4 period or any of the other information required to be provided on the itemized wage statement
5 pursuant to items (2) to (4), inclusive, (6), and (9) of subdivision (a), (ii) Which deductions the 6 employer made from gross wages to determine the net wages paid to the employee during the pay
7 period, (iii) The name and address of the employer and, (iv) The name of the employee and only 8 the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other 9 than a social security number. For purposes of Labor Code § 226(e) “promptly and easily 10 determine” means a reasonable person [i.e. an objective standard] would be able to readily 11 ascertain the information without reference to other documents or information.

12 84. Therefore, as a direct and proximate cause of Defendants’ violation of Labor Code 13 § 226(a), Class Members suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether 14 they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay
15 records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid 16 in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

17 85. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and 1174, and the applicable IWC
18 Wage Order, paragraph 7(B), Class Members are entitled to recover the greater of all actual 19 damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one
20 hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate 21 penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and 22 reasonable attorneys’ fees.

23 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
24 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203
25 (Against All Defendants)

26 86. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
27 full herein.

28 87. Numerous Class Members are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit

1 Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

2 88. Defendants failed to pay these Class Members all wages due and certain at the time
3 of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

4 89. The wages withheld from these Class Members by Defendants remained due and 5 owing for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation from employment.

6 90. Defendants failed to pay Class Members without abatement, all wages as defined
7 by applicable California law. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid all regular 8 and overtime wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked by requiring off the 9 clock work and unlawfully rounding time entries to the detriment of Class Members. Additionally,
10 Defendants failed to pay premium wages owed for unprovided meal periods and rest periods, as 11 further detailed in this Complaint. Defendants' failure to pay said wages within the required time 12 was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203.

13 91. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged entitles these Class Members to 14 penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until 15 paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

16 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 204

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 92. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 20 full herein.

21 93. Labor Code § 204 instructs that: "All wages, ...earned by any person in any 22 employment are due and payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in 23 advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days,
24 inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month
25 during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day,
26 inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following 27 month." Additionally, the requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of 28 wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven

1 calendar days following the close of the payroll period.” As detailed above, Defendants 2 maintained a consistently applied policy and practice of not paying all wages earned between the 3 1st and 15th days of a month between the 16th and 26th day and failed to pay all wages earned 4 between the 16th and the last day of the month between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.
5 Defendants similarly failed to pay all wages earned by not more than seven calendar days
6 following the close of the payroll period. These failures arose from Defendants’ failure to pay for 7 all hours worked.

8 94. All wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Class Members, including as required
9 under Labor Code § 510, were therefore not timely paid by Defendants, as addressed in detail 10 above. Additionally, wages required by Labor Code § 1194 and other sections became due and 11 payable to each Class Member in each pay period that he or she was not provided with a meal 12 period or rest period or paid straight or overtime wages or commissions to which he or she was 13 entitled.

14 95. Defendants thus violated Labor Code § 204 by systematically refusing to pay 15 wages due under the Labor Code, as addressed above. Additionally, under paragraph 4(B) of the 16 applicable IWC Wage Orders, employers are required “to pay each employee, on the established 17 payday for the period involved, not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in 18 the payroll period, ...” Under Labor Code § 1198, “[t]he employment of any employee for longer 19 hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is 20 unlawful.” Plaintiff and the Class Members may therefore pursue damages and penalties for 21 violations of Labor Code § 204 and paragraph 4(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including 22 penalties under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

23 96. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members seek to 24 represent they have been deprived of wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and they are 25 entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys’ fees, and costs, 26 pursuant to Labor Code § 210, 218.5, 1194 and 1198, and paragraphs 4(B) and 20 of the 27 applicable IWC Wage Orders.

28 ///

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174
AND 1174.5
(Against All Defendants)

97. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

98. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

99. During the course of Plaintiff's and Class Members' employment, Defendants consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Class Members as required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members proper wages, overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

100. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code § 1174.5 for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
REIMBURSEMENT OF NECESSARY EXPENDITURES UNDER LABOR CODE § 2802
(Against All Defendants)

101. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

102. Under Labor Code § 2802(a) an employer must indemnify its employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

103. Defendants have regularly required Class Members to incur business expenses in the course of performing their required job duties for Defendants including for cell phone expenses. These expenses incurred by Class Members were necessary and required of them in performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to reimburse Class Members for all such necessary

1 expenditures. Class Members were not reimbursed for those lawful and necessary work related 2 expenses or losses incurred in direct discharge of their job duties during employment with 3 Defendants and at the direction of the Defendants pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(a) and the 4 applicable IWC Wage Orders, paragraph 9.

5 104. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Class Members have been deprived 6 of reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts,
7 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

8 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.

10 (Against All Defendants)

11 105. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 12 full herein.

13 106. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, Class Members, and the general public, brings this 14 claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as 15 alleged in this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Class
16 Members and the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public 17 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

18 107. Plaintiff is a "person" within the meaning of Business & Professions Code
19 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive 20 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

21 108. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair 22 business practices. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants' practices were deceptive and 23 fraudulent in that Defendants' policy and practice failed to provide the required amount of 24 compensation for missed meal and rest breaks, and failed to adequately compensate Class
25 Members for all hours worked, due to systematic business practices as alleged herein that cannot 26 be justified, pursuant to the applicable California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission 27 requirements in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., and for 28 which this Court should issue injunctive and equitable relief, pursuant to California Business &

1 Professions Code § 17203, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

2 109. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 3 wages and overtime, providing them with meal periods and rest breaks, etc., are fundamental 4 public policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State 5 vigorously to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or 6 permitted to work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding 7 employers and their employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to 8 comply with minimum labor standards.

9 110. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 10 in this Complaint Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 11 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 12 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; which conduct has deprived Plaintiff,
13 and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and privileges
14 guaranteed to all employees under the law.

15 111. Defendants' conduct, as alleged above, constitutes unfair competition in violation 16 of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

17 112. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 18 overtime, failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks, etc., either knew or in the exercise of 19 reasonable care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct 20 violates the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

21 113. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in 22 a business practice which violates California and federal law, including but not limited to, the 23 applicable Industrial Wage Order(s), the California Code of Regulations, and the California Labor
24 Code including Sections 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 512, 1194, 1197, and 1198, for which this Court
25 should issue declaratory and other equitable relief pursuant to California Business & Professions
26 Code § 17203 as may be necessary to prevent and remedy the conduct held to constitute unfair 27 competition, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

28 114. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Class Members

1 have been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

2 115. Unless restrained by this Court Defendants will continue to engage in such
3 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court 4 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be 5 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 6 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 7 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Class Members to the money
8 Defendants have unlawfully failed to pay.

9 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
10 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.
11 (Against All Defendants)

12 116. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 13 full herein.

14 117. Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class are also aggrieved employees as defined 15 under Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they suffered the violations alleged in this Complaint and 16 either were or are employed by the alleged violators, Defendants (“Aggrieved Employees”) during 17 the relevant time period.

18 118. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime, not 19 providing proper meal and rest periods, failing to provide accurate wage statements, and failing to 20 Pay Employees upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, Defendants
21 failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor 22 Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and 23 the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and paragraph 7 of the 24 applicable IWC Wage Orders.

25 119. As such, Employees seek wages and penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699
26 for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code 2699.5, including 27 the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California Labor
28 Code sections: 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1185, 1194,

1 1194.1, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 2698 et seq.

2 120. More specifically, after complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code §
3 2699.3, Plaintiff asserts, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney General
4 and other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed
5 underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions,
6 including as follows:

7 (a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all 8 earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime
9 premium wages for overtime hours worked under Labor Code §§ 226.2, 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 10 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking 11 all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, and wages, under Labor Code §§ 510, 12 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant 13 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

14 (b) Meal and Rest Period Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 15 Employees off-duty, timely, and unpaid meal periods and failure to authorize and permit them to 16 take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under 17 Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC
18 Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under 19 paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512,
20 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs
21 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

22 (c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to 23 provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to 24 maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226,
25 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s)
26 seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§
27 226€, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, 28 and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by

1 providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor
2 Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor
3 Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to “a 4 penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial 5 citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent 6 citation, ...”

7 (d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at 8 least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204,
9 226.2, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable, and wages,
10 under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20
11 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code 12 § 2699(g)(1);

13 (e) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders and Other Labor Code
14 Sections: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage
15 Orders, each of which constitute separate violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code §
16 2699.5, and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and 17 paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to 18 Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

19 121. As also addressed above, Plaintiff, on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, also 20 seeks the penalties and remedies set forth in Labor Code § 558, which states:

21 (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or 22 causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work
23 in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows:
24 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period
25 for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid
26 wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee 27 for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to 28 recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected

1 employee.

2 (b) If upon inspection or investigation the Labor Commissioner determines that a 3 person had paid or caused to be paid a wage for overtime work in violation of any provision of this
4 chapter, or any provision regulation hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare
5 Commission, the Labor Commissioner may issue a citation. The procedures for issuing,
6 contesting, and enforcing judgments for citations or civil penalties issued by the Labor
7 Commissioner for a violation of this chapter shall be the same as those set out in Section 1197.1.

8 (c) The penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or 9 criminal penalty provided by law.

10 122. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies by sending a certified letter to 11 the LWDA and Defendants postmarked on June 13, 2024, addressing in detail the specific 12 provisions of the Labor Code Defendants have violated and addressing the facts and legal theories 13 to support the alleged violations and requested penalties. The LWDA has not provided notice of 14 its intent to investigate the alleged violations within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the 15 letter, and Plaintiff adds this claim seeking penalties under the PAGA for the violations addressed 16 herein and in the PAGA Notice Letter and the original Complaint.

17 RELIEF REQUESTED

18 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 19 1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
- 20 2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work
21 performed by Class Members and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior 22 to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 23 3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and 24 interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
- 25 4. For compensatory damages in the amount of all unpaid wages, including overtime 26 and double-time pay, as may be proven;
- 27 5. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Class 28 Members for each missed or deficient meal period where no premium pay was paid therefor from four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;

6. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Class Members for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided where no premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;

7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Class Members, as may be proven;

8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Class Members who quit or were fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;

9. For restitution and/or damages for all amounts unlawfully withheld from the wages for all class members in violation of Labor Code § 204, as may be proven;

10. For restitution and/or damages for all amounts unlawfully withheld from the wages for all Class Members in violation of Labor Code § 2802, as may be proven;

11. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;

12. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or duties adumbrated in this Complaint;

13. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq., as may be proven;

14. For other wages and penalties under the Labor Code as may be proven;

15. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;

16. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

17. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;

18. For an award of attorneys' fees; and

[] (BY MAIL) I placed such envelope with postage thereon fully paid in the United States mail at Glendale, California. I am "readily familiar" with this firm's practice of collecting and processing correspondence for mailing. It is deposited with U.S. Postal Service on that same day in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than 1 day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

☐ (BY OVERNIGHT DELIVERY) I enclosed the documents in an envelope or package provided by an overnight delivery carrier and addressed to the persons at the address above. I placed the envelope or package for collection and overnight delivery at an office or a regularly utilized drop box of the overnight delivery carrier.

Executed on January 22, 2025, at Glendale, California.
