FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

ESMERALDA AVILEZ, an individual and as a representative of aggrieved employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA),

Plaintiff,

vs.

T-Y NURSERY, INC., a corporation; and DOES 1
through 10 inclusive,

Defendant.

Case No. 24CU007463N

COMPLAINT FOR:

1. REPRESENTATIVE PRIVATE
ATTORNEY'S GENERAL ACT
ACTION PER LABOR CODE
SECTION 2698, ET SEQ.

Plaintiff Esmeralda Avilez (“Plaintiff”), as an individual and as a representative of aggrieved employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), alleges and complains against Defendants T-Y Nursery, Inc. and Does 1 through 10 (collectively, “Defendant”) as follows:

PARTIES | JURISDICTION | VENUE

1. Plaintiff, at all times relevant hereto, is and has been a resident of the State of California.

2. Defendant T-Y Nursery, Inc. operates a wholesale nursery at 15335 CA-76 Pauma Valley, California 92061 (the “worksite”).

3. Defendant conducts business in the State of California.

4. Under California Code of Civil Procedure section 395(a), venue is proper in this County because Defendant resides in this County and/or Plaintiff’s alleged injuries herein occurred in this County.

5. The true names and capacities of the defendants named herein as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, whether individual, corporate, associate or otherwise, are unknown to Plaintiff who therefore sues such defendants by fictitious names pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Plaintiff believes that all of the Doe defendants are California residents. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to show such true names and capacities when they have been determined. Defendant and Doe Defendants are collectively referred to as “Defendant,” “Defendants” or “Defendant Employers.”

6. Plaintiff believes that, at all times relevant herein, each defendant designated, including Does 1 through 10, was the agent, managing agent, principal, owner, partner, joint venturer, representative, manager, servant, employee, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned herein acting within the course and scope of said agency and employment, and that all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

7. Defendant, and each of them, acted in concert with one another to commit the wrongful acts alleged herein, and aided, abetted, incited, compelled and/or coerced one another in the wrongful acts alleged herein, and/or attempted to do so, including pursuant to Government Code section 12940(i). Defendant, and each of them, formed and executed a conspiracy or common plan pursuant to which they would commit the unlawful acts alleged herein, with all such acts alleged herein done as part of and pursuant to said conspiracy, intended to cause and actually causing Plaintiff harm.

ALTER EGO | AGENCY | JOINT EMPLOYER

8. There exists such a unity of interest and ownership between Defendant Employers that the individuality and separateness of Defendant Employers have ceased to exist. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant Employers, and each of them, were the agents, employees, managing agents, supervisors, coconspirators, parent corporation, joint employers, alter egos, successors, and/or joint ventures of the other Defendant Employers, and each of them, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting at least in part within the course and scope of said agency, employment, conspiracy, joint employer, alter ego status, successor status and/or joint venture and with the permission and consent of each of the other Defendant Employers. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this complaint to any act or failure to act by a defendant or co-defendant, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to mean the acts and/or failures to act by each defendant acting individually, jointly and severally.

9. Plaintiff believes Defendant Employers were both Plaintiff's joint employer and are liable under the joint employer and single enterprise theories. See Laird v. Capital Cities (1998) 68 Cal.App.4th 727, 737-38 (four factors to prove single enterprise are "interrelation of operations, common management, centralized control of labor relations, and common ownership or financial control. ... Although courts consider the four factors together, they often deem centralized control of labor relations the most important."); see also Vernon v. State of California (2004) 116 Cal.App.4th 114, 128 (separate entities can also be deemed a "joint employer" by having the right to control the employment relationship, as evaluated by focusing on "an examination of defendant's role with respect to the right to hire, fire, transfer, promote, discipline, set the terms, conditions and privileges of employment, train and pay the plaintiff.")).

10. Defendant Employers were Plaintiff's employers, joint employers and/or special employers within the meaning of Government Code sections 12926 (d), 12940 (a),(h),(1), (h)(3)(A), (i), and, 12950, and regularly employ five (5) or more persons and are therefore subject to the jurisdiction of this Court. Defendant Employers were Plaintiff's employers, joint employers and/or special employers within the meaning of the Labor Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Order, and are each an "employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer" as such term is used in Labor Code sections 558 and/or 558.1, and liable to Plaintiff on that basis. Defendant Employers are Plaintiff's joint employers by virtue of a joint enterprise, and that Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant Employers.

1 Plaintiff performed services for each and every one of Defendant Employers, and to the mutual benefit
2 of all Defendant Employers, and all Defendant Employers shared control of Plaintiff as an employee,
3 either directly or indirectly, and the manner in which Defendant Employers' business was and is 4 conducted.

5 11. Labor Code section 558.1 provides that an employer or "other person acting on behalf of 6 an employer" who violates certain California wage and hour laws "may be held liable as the employer for 7 such violation." Labor Code section 558.1 defines "other person acting on behalf of an employer" as a
8 "natural person who is an owner, director, officer, or managing agent" of the employer. Labor Code
9 section 558.1(b). See Labor Code section 558(a) (authorizing civil penalties against "any employer or 10 other person acting on behalf of an employer" who causes overtime pay violations to occur."); see Atempa
11 v. Pedrazzani, 27 Cal.App.5th 809, 823-824 (2018); Labor Code section 1197.1 ("Any employer or other
12 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person" for failure to pay
13 minimum wages."); see Reynolds v. Bement, 36 Cal.4th 1075, 1089 (2005) ("aggrieved employees may 14 ... maintain civil actions to recover such penalties"); see Reynolds v. Bement, 36 Cal.4th 1075, 1089, fn.
15 10 (2005) (alter ego doctrine may be used in wage claim actions to impose liability on controlling directors
16 and shareholders); see Government Code section 12925(d) (defining "Person" as one or more individuals,
17 partnerships, associations, corporations, limited liability companies, legal representatives, trustees,
18 trustees in bankruptcy, and receivers or other fiduciaries).

19 12. Despite the formation of purported corporate existence, Defendant Employers are, in 20 reality, one and the same, including, but not limited to because: (a) Defendant Employers are completely
21 dominated and controlled by one another, who personally committed the frauds and violated the laws as 22 set forth in this complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind Defendant Employers to
23 perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or inequitable purpose; (b)
24 Defendant Employers derive actual and significant monetary benefits by and through one another's
25 unlawful conduct, and by using one another as the funding source for their own personal expenditures;
26 (c) Defendant Employers, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear as though separate
27 and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or accomplishing some other
28 wrongful or inequitable purpose; (d) Defendant Employers does not comply with all requisite corporate

1 formalities to maintain a legal and separate corporate existence; (e) the business affairs of Defendant
2 Employers are, and at all times relevant were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot
3 reasonably be segregated, and the same are in inextricable confusion. Defendant Employers are, and at 4 all times relevant hereto were, used by one another as a mere shell and conduit for the conduct of certain
5 of Defendant Employers' affairs, and are, and were, the alter ego of one another. The recognition of 6 the separate existence of each of the Defendant Employers would not promote justice, in that it would
7 permit Defendant Employers to insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations of the law.
8 The corporate existence of Defendant Employers should each be disregarded in equity and for the ends of 9 justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud and injustice to Plaintiff herein. Accordingly,
10 Defendant Employers constitute the alter ego of one another, and the fiction of their separate corporate 11 existence must be disregarded.

12 ADMINISTRATIVE EXHAUSTION

13 13. Plaintiff exhausted administrative requirements for Plaintiff's claims.

14 14. On June 13, 2024, Plaintiff's counsel gave written notice by online filing with the 15 California Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by sending via certified mail to 16 Defendants a letter specifying the California Labor Code provisions Defendants violated, including the 17 facts and theories supporting the alleged violations. More than sixty-five (65) days have passed since
18 Plaintiff's counsel submitted the letter to the LWDA and certified-mailed the letter to Defendants, and the 19 LWDA has not provided notice of intent to investigate the alleged violations, nor have Defendants
20 provided notice of intent or any efforts to cure. Accordingly, the statutory period for any investigation or 21 response has concluded and Plaintiff may commence this lawsuit pursuant to Labor Code section 2699,
22 as provided by subsection 2699.3.

23 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

24 15. Plaintiff's Hire & Job Details. From March 12, 2018 to May 9, 2024, Plaintiff worked
25 as an employee for Defendant. Initially, Plaintiff worked for Defendant in the job position of Customer
26 Service Representative.

27 16. Defendant classified Plaintiff as a "non-exempt" employee paid minimum wage.

28 ///

1 17. On or about September 1, 2021, Defendant promoted Plaintiff to Human Resources
2 Manager paid $21 per hour to work at the worksite. Defendant paid Plaintiff an annual bonus of $10,000
3 if worker injuries were kept under five per year.

4 18. Plaintiff's work schedule was typically Monday through Friday 7:30am to 4:30pm plus
5 calls and messages before and after work and on weekends.

6 19. Plaintiff reported to CEO and General Manager Terry Yasutake and Payroll Manager
7 Susan Kamada.

8 20. Defendant Reclassifies Plaintiff. On or about January 25, 2024, Defendant reclassified
9 Plaintiff to "exempt" paid an annual salary of $65,000. Exhibit 1.

10 21. Plaintiff's Pay & Misclassification. Defendant misclassified Plaintiff as "exempt" as 11 Plaintiff should have been "non-exempt" thus entitled to overtime and breaks.

12 22. From January 25, 2024 through termination on May 9, 2024 (when Plaintiff was paid
13 $2,500 per pay period), Defendant misclassified Plaintiff as exempt insofar as Defendant paid Plaintiff
14 less than the minimum salary threshold of $66,560.

15 23. Even if Defendant paid Plaintiff the requisite minimum salary threshold, Defendant did not 16 allow Plaintiff to customarily and regularly exercise discretion and independent judgment in performing 17 her job duties, presumably under the Executive and/or Administrative Exemption, as required by 18 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11040(1)(A)(2). Defendant's employees that supervised
19 Plaintiff constantly micromanaged and essentially did Plaintiff's job for her, allowing almost zero
20 discretion or independent judgment.

21 24. Off-The-Clock Work. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff for all time worked. The off-the-
22 clock work included, among other things according to proof: working during breaks, such as carrying on 23 with work during a meal or rest break; reviewing or responding to emails or texts from a mobile device or 24 after hours; and/or illegally "rounding" employee time at the beginning and/or end of the shift and/or the 25 beginning and/or end of meal breaks.

26 25. Overtime Work. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff for work in excess of eight (8) hours in 27 a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek at the rate of time-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular 28 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and for work in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day overtime compensation at a rate of two (2) times the regular rate of pay.

26. Regular Rate of Pay. Defendant failed to calculate Plaintiff's "regular rate" for overtime purposes in the proper manner by failing to include annual bonus payments and other wages paid to Plaintiff outside of the hourly rate, leading to an underpayment of wages owed.

27. Meal Break Violations. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff with first or second timely, uninterrupted 30-minute meal break as required by law, according to proof. For instance, among other things according to proof: Plaintiff did not get meal breaks at all; Plaintiff was forced to work throughout Plaintiff's meal breaks; Plaintiff was "on-call" during meal breaks; Defendant automatically deducted unpaid meal break time from Plaintiff's time worked even though Plaintiff performed work during such time; Defendant rounded Plaintiff's clock in and out times for the start and end of meal breaks; Plaintiff's meal breaks were not timely; Plaintiff's meal breaks were interrupted; Plaintiff's meal breaks were less than the full 30 minutes; and/or Defendant required Plaintiff to remain on premises at the worksite during meal breaks.

28. Rest Break Violations. Defendant failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take a 10-minute rest break per each four (4) hour period worked or a major fraction thereof, according to proof. For instance, among other things according to proof: Plaintiff did not get rest breaks at all; Plaintiff was forced to work throughout Plaintiff's rest breaks; Plaintiff was "on-call" during rest breaks; Plaintiff's rest breaks were not timely; Plaintiff's rest breaks were interrupted; Plaintiff's rest breaks were less than the full 10 minutes; and/or Defendant required Plaintiff to remain on premises at the worksite during rest breaks.

29. Wage Statements. Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff with uniform, complete, and accurate wage statements because the wage statements provided to Plaintiff failed to list the: accurate totals of the hours worked; number of hours worked at each hourly rate; net wages earned; and/or gross wages earned.

30. Final Pay. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff all wages owed to Plaintiff immediately upon Plaintiff's termination of employment, including earned and unpaid wages, such as: minimum wages; overtime wages; meal and rest period premium wages; and/or all wages owed for the final day of work
