1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Melissa Clack (“Plaintiff Clack”) and Plaintiff Evelyn McOmie (“Plaintiff
4 McOmie”) (collectively “Plaintiffs”) and Defendant Lavender Hills Assisted Living, LLC,
5 (“Defendant”) have reached a proposed class action settlement. Plaintiffs and Defendant
6 (collectively, the “Parties”) submit the Stipulation of Class and Representative Action
7 Settlement and Release (the “Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) to the Court for its 8 preliminary approval. The Settlement Agreement (“SA”) is attached to the Declaration of Devin
9 Rauchwerger (“Rauchwerger Decl.”) ¶ 2 as Exhibit 1.¹

10 The Settlement provides for a non-reversionary payment of $469,500.00 for which 11 Defendant will be separately responsible for any employer payroll taxes. Approximately 12 $182,625.00 will be available for disbursement to Settlement Class Members (the “Net 13 Settlement Amount”), which does not include the separate Individual PAGA Payments of 14 $17,500.00 that will be paid only to the PAGA Members. There are believed to be 15 approximately 349 Class Members, and the average Individual Settlement Payment will be 16 approximately $523.28 (not including the separate Individual PAGA Payments that will be paid 17 only to the PAGA Members).

18 The Settlement occurred as a result of extensive arm’s length negotiations by 19 experienced counsel after sufficient discovery and investigation into the facts with guidance of 20 multiple mediators, including Hon. Howard R. Broadman (Ret.) and Doug Leach, Esq., two 21 highly experienced and well-respected class action mediators. As detailed below, the Settlement
22 is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

23 II. BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

24 A. The Pleadings & Nature of The Action

25 Defendant Lavender Hills Assisted Living, LLC, operates an assisted living facility for 26 elderly residents who need assistance with their activities of everyday living. (Rauchwerger 27 Decl. ¶ 3.) Defendant is currently headquartered in and operates out of Redding, California. (Id.)

28 ¹ For ease of reference and consistency, defined terms from the Settlement Agreement are utilized below.

1 On July 27, 2021, Plaintiff Clack initiated a putative class action by filing a Class Action
2 Complaint for Damages (“Clack Class Complaint”) against Defendant in the Superior Court of 3 California for the County of Shasta (“Court”), Case No. CVCV21-0197865 (“Clack Class
4 Action”), on behalf of herself and all other all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt
5 employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California, alleging the following
6 causes of action: (1) failure to pay overtime wages in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510
7 and 1198; (2) failure to provide meal periods or pay premium pay in lieu thereof in violation of 8 California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a); (3) failure to provide rest breaks or pay premium
9 pay in lieu thereof in violation of California Labor Code § 226.7; (4) failure to pay minimum
10 wages in violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1; (5) failure to pay all
11 wages timely upon termination of employment in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201
12 and 202; (6) failure to timely pay wages during employment in violation of California Labor
13 Code § 204; (7) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in violation of California
14 Labor Code § 226(a); (8) failure to keep requisite payroll records in violation of California Labor
15 Code § 1174(d); (9) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses in violation of California
16 Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802; and (10) unfair business practices in violation of California
17 Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq. (Declaration of Maria Halwadjian
18 “Halwadjian Decl.” ¶ 8.)

19 On June 5, 2024, Plaintiff McOmie submitted written notice to the LWDA of her intent
20 to pursue civil penalties for various alleged California Labor Code violations against Defendant
21 pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), 22 California Labor Code section 2699, et seq (“First McOmie PAGA Letter”). (Halwadjian Decl.
23 ¶ 9.) Plaintiff McOmie alleged violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 24 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802,
25 and of Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order Nos. 4-2001 and 5-2001. (Id.)

26 On August 15, 2024, Plaintiff McOmie initiated a PAGA representative action by filing
27 a Complaint for Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code
28 § 2698, Et Seq. (“McOmie PAGA Complaint”) against Defendant in the Shasta County Superior

1 Court, Case No. 24CV-0205758 (“McOmie PAGA Action”) (together with “Clack Class
2 Action”, the “Litigation”), thereby asserting a single claim for civil penalties pursuant to PAGA
3 based on alleged violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 4 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and IWC Wage Order
5 Nos. 4-2001 and 5-2001. (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 10.)

6 On September 16, 2024, Plaintiff McOmie submitted a second written notice to the 7 LWDA stating her intent to pursue civil penalties for the same alleged California Labor Code
8 violations against Janet Coulter, Mark Coulter, and Robert O’Brien who are individuals against 9 whom Plaintiff McOmie alleged she could assert the same legal claims as Defendant (“Second 10 McOmie PAGA Letter”). (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 11.)

11 On May 20, 2025, the Parties filed a joint stipulation seeking an order to consolidate the 12 Clack Class Action and the McOmie PAGA Action. On May 21, 2025, the Court issued an order
13 consolidating the Actions. (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 12.)

14 After making a reasonable inquiry, neither the Parties nor their Counsel are aware of any 15 class, representative or other collective action in any other court that asserts claims similar to 16 those asserted in the action being settled. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 4.)

17 B. Discovery Taken By The Parties

18 The parties engaged in extensive informal and formal discovery. (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 15.)
19 Plaintiffs’ Counsel propounded multiple sets of formal written discovery, to which Defendant provided
20 responses and objections. (Id.) The Parties also conducted additional mediation-related discovery. (Id.)
21 In total, Defendant produced thousands of pages of relevant documents and data in this action, including 22 a large sampling of the time sheets and payroll records for the Class. (Id.)

23 Further, the Parties held numerous meetings and informal conferences prior to the 24 mediation wherein they exchanged information, additional class data, and theories of the case.
25 (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 15.)

1 C. Mediation and Settlement

2 The Parties originally participated in mediation on March 27, 2023 with the Hon.
3 Howard Broadman (Ret.), a respected mediator for wage and hour class actions. (Halwadjian
4 Decl. ¶ 17.) The mediation occurred after an extensive exchange of formal and informal 5 discovery, including mediation data. (Id.) The mediation did not result in settlement and 6 litigation continued. (Id.)

7 The parties participated in a second day of mediation on February 12, 2025 with 8 mediator Doug Leach, Esq. (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 18.) Prior to the second day of mediation, the 9 parties continued to exchange formal and informal discovery. (Id.) With Mr. Leach’s assistance,
10 the parties were able to reach a global settlement in principle to resolve both the Class and PAGA
11 claims for $469,500.00. (Id.)

12 Thereafter, on March 25, 2025, the Parties executed a Memorandum of Understanding 13 (“MOU”) memorializing the essential terms of the agreement. (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 18; 14 Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 5.) After the Parties executed the MOU, Lawyers for Justice P.C.
15 associated Domb & Rauchwerger LLP into the case in order to facilitate getting the long form
16 Settlement finalized and approved through the preliminary and final approval processes.
17 (Halwadjian Decl. ¶ 18; Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 5.)

18 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS OF SETTLEMENT

19 A. Two-Step Settlement Process

20 Any settlement of class litigation must be reviewed and approved by the Court. (Cal.
21 Rules of Court, rule 3.769; Fed. Rules Civ. Proc. 23(e).²) This is done in two steps: (1) a 22 preliminary review by the trial court, and (2) a final review after notice has been distributed to 23 the Settlement Class informing them of the terms of the settlement and allowing them to exclude 24 themselves from and/or object to the settlement.

26
27

² The California Supreme Court has authorized California’s trial courts to use Federal Rule 23 and cases applying 28 it for guidance in considering class issues. (See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, 821; Green v.
Obledo (1981) 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146.) Where appropriate, Plaintiffs cite Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

1 B. The Settlement Warrants Preliminary Approval Because It Is Fair And
2 Reasonable.

3 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 4 discretion of the trial Court. (Wershba v. Apple Computer (2009) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-235;
5 Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1966) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794.) Pursuant to California Rules of Court,
6 rule 3.769(d), parties also may, at the preliminary approval stage, request that the Court
7 provisionally approve certification of the class conditional upon final approval of the settlement.
8 “[P]re-certification settlements are routinely approved if found to be fair and reasonable.”
9 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 240.) A number of factors are to be 10 considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary approval. No one factor 11 should be determinative, but rather all factors should be considered. These criteria have been 12 summarized as follows:

13 “If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed,
14 noncollusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant
15 preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of the class, and falls 16 within the range of possible approval, then the court should direct that notice be 17 given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing, at which evidence may 18 be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.”

19 Manual of Complex Litigation, Second § 30.44, at 229.

20 Moreover, a proposed settlement is presumptively fair and reasonable where: (1) the 21 settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are 22 sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 23 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases 24 (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1389 (citations omitted).) Here, as discussed above and further 25 below, the Settlement meets all these criteria, including having been reached through an arms-
26 length negotiation by way of a mediator’s proposal, having a sufficient investigation conducted 27 to determine the settlement is fair, and being agreed to by counsel who all have extensive
28 experience with class actions. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶¶ 23-25; Halwadjian Decl. ¶¶ 2-7.)
Furthermore, there is no reason to suspect that the amount of class members objecting will be high. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 5.)

1 C. Due To The Risks Of Continued Litigation, The Settlement Is Fair And In The 2 Best Interests Of The Class.

3 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation,
4 Class Counsel believe that the settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms
5 set forth in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and is in the best interest of 6 the Class in light of all known risks, facts and circumstances. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 6.) These 7 risks include: the risk of significant delay in class members receiving any type of funds,
8 particularly if the Defendant were to declare bankruptcy; risks associated with the Court denying 9 certification of the Class, including Defendant's strong arguments that the matters at issue 10 require individualized issues that make class certification inappropriate; the prospect of 11 Defendant obtaining releases from putative class members; and the potential for the Court to 12 reduce PAGA penalties. (Id.)

13 Finally, the Settlement was reached after lengthy negotiations, exchange of documents
14 and information, and with the assistance and supervision of two different mediators, including 15 Hon. Howard R. Broadman (Ret.) and Doug Leach, Esq., who have mediated numerous wage-16 and-hour class actions, and clearly qualify to oversee serious and informed negotiations
17 conducted by the Parties. (See Toure v. Amerigroup Corp. (E.D. N.Y. 2012) 2012 WL 1432302, 18 at *1 ("The assistance of an experienced mediator, Linda Singer, Esq., reinforces that the 19 Settlement Agreement is non-collusive"); Morales v. Stevco, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2011) 2011 WL 20 5511767, at *11 (concluding that the class action settlement was not collusive because "[t]he 21 parties utilized an impartial mediator, and the matter was 'resolved by means of a mediator's 22 proposal.'").)

23 D. The Kullar Requirements

24 In Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, the Court of Appeals 25 explained that, although "not exhaustive," a determination of whether a settlement is "fair, 26 adequate and reasonable" should take into account the strength of a plaintiff's case, the risk, 27 expense, complexity and the likely duration of further litigation. (Id. at 127-128.) Subsequently,
28 in Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, the Court of Appeals clarified:

“[Appellant] misunderstands Kullar, apparently interpreting it to require the record in all cases to contain evidence in the form of an explicit statement of the maximum amount the Plaintiffs class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims—a number which appears nowhere in the record of this case. But Kullar does not, as [Appellant] claims, require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record, which allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”

(Id. at 409 (quoting Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th at 120))

Here, the potential damages for the causes of action asserted in the Action along with the relative risks, complexities, and expenses are detailed below. The key data points and associated documentation upon which Plaintiffs relied in analyzing the exposure are as follows:

- Total Class Size: Approximately 349 individuals.
- Total number of Workweeks for class: 16,738 workweeks.
- Total Former Employees within 3-year SOL: 243.
- Total number of employees within 1-year SOL: 149.
- Total number of PAGA pay periods: 3,381
- Average Regular Rate: $16.18 per hour.

(Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 7.)

1. Failure to Pay Minimum and/or Overtime Wages

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s uniform policies, practices and procedures regularly required them to work off the clock, for which they were not paid. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 8.) Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s policies and practices required employees to perform work beyond their scheduled hours, such as before clocking in, after clocking out, and during meal periods. (Id.) Plaintiffs allege that Defendant prohibited employees from recording the unauthorized overtime worked. (Id.)

To determine Defendant’s reasonable exposure to the class for these off-the-clock allegations, Plaintiffs’ counsel assumed that employees lost approximately 5 minutes per work shift due to Defendant’s policy of not allowing employees to record unauthorized overtime. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 9.) Based on the 16,738 workweeks, and using the average overtime rate of $24.27 per hour, this would mean that employees would have lost approximately

1 $169,263.03. (Id.)

2 The risks related to proving these off-the-clock wage and overtime claims are significant,
3 as it is impossible to discern from the records the exact amount of alleged off-the-clock work 4 that each employee purportedly performed and what they are entitled to; these questions could 5 be viewed as creating individualized issues inappropriate for class certification, particularly 6 since Plaintiffs would bear the burden of establishing liability for alleged off-the-clock work.
7 (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1051 [holding “that 8 employees are clocked out creates a presumption they are doing no work, a presumption
9 [plaintiff] and the putative class members have the burden to rebut. As all parties agree, liability 10 is contingent on proof [the employer] knew or should have known off-the-clock work was 11 occurring.”]; Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 10.) Additionally, Defendant contended that off-the-clock 12 work was prohibited and introduced evidence that the employer issued additional pay to 13 employees if it was discovered that any work time had not been recorded on timesheets and 14 paid. (Id.)

15 2. Failure to Provide Meal & Rest Periods

16 Plaintiffs contend that they and the Class Members routinely did not receive lawful and 17 compliant meal periods, nor were they paid meal period premiums when a meal period was 18 missed, short or delayed. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 11.) Furthermore, Plaintiffs contend that 19 Defendant’s written meal and rest break policies do not comply with all of the requirements
20 under California law. (Id.) The premium owed for failing to provide a legally mandated meal or 21 rest period, providing a short or interrupted meal or rest period, is payment of one hour of wages
22 at the employee's regular rate of pay. The range of this claim depends on the number of meal
23 periods that Class Members were denied as a result of Defendant’s policies. (Id.)

24 One of Plaintiffs arguments was that the meal periods appeared synthetic in that over 25 99% of the meal periods were exactly 30 or 60 minutes in length. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 11.)
26 This means that Plaintiffs cannot exclusively rely on the records themselves for the meal break
27 claim and instead must rely on the testimony of employees regarding either being interrupted 28 during their meal break or being instructed to record a proper meal break when they did not

1 actually take one. (Id.) Furthermore, Defendant presented several factual arguments in defense
2 of the meal period claim, including but not limited to the fact that, as a care facility for the 3 elderly, many of Defendant's employees were permitted by Wage Order 5 to work on-duty meal
4 periods. (Id.)

5 To determine Defendant's reasonable exposure for meal break violations, Plaintiffs'
6 Counsel assumed one meal break violation per week, which equates to a penalty amount of 7 $270,820.84. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 12.)

8 Rest period premiums were calculated in the same fashion as meal periods.
9 (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 13.) Estimating that each Class Member did not receive a compliant rest
10 break once per week, and that the hourly rate for each employee is $16.18, Defendant's
11 reasonable exposure to the Class for missed rest breaks is $270,820.84. (Id.) However, there are 12 risks to the unrecorded rest period claims because, inter alia, employers are not required to 13 record rest periods and such rest periods are paid. Managing meal and rest break claims at trial
14 may be exceedingly difficult. Plaintiffs will depend on sample witness testimony and surveys
15 to prove the claims. While a victory with such evidence is certainly possible, relevant caselaw 16 makes such claims risky from a trial management and due process perspective. (See Duran v.
17 U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31 (explaining "[I]f sufficient common questions 18 exist to support class certification, it may be possible to manage individual issues through the 19 use of surveys and statistical sampling.").)

20 3. Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses

21 Plaintiffs contended that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and other hourly paid 22 employees for necessary business expenses such as costs for usage of personal cell phones for 23 work duties and mileage costs. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 14.) California Labor Code section 2802 24 requires employers indemnify their employees for all necessary expenditures made by the 25 employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience
26 to the directions of the employer. As with other claims, Defendant presented several factual 27 arguments that it intended to present at trial, including arguments that the employees were not 28 required to use cell phones or drive personal vehicles and that expenses were routinely

1 reimbursed. (Id.)

2 For this claim, Plaintiffs' counsel assumed that Defendant's owed an average of $5 per 3 week for cell phone reimbursement and $5 per week for mileage reimbursement, which equates
4 to $167,380. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 14.)

5 4. Failure to Provide Accurate Written Wage Statements (Lab. Code § 6 226 (a))

7 Plaintiffs contend that due to allegedly working off the clock and lack of premium pay 8 for purportedly noncompliant meal/rest periods and/or accurate calculation and payment of 9 wages, the Class Members' wage statements were not accurate. (See Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec.
10 Servs., Inc. (2022) 13 Cal.5th 93, 117 (Because premium pay for missed meal and rest breaks
11 under Lab. Code, § 226.7 compensated employees for the work performed during a break period
12 and therefore constituted wages within the meaning of Lab. Code, §§ 200, subd. (a), 203, 226, 13 penalties are available for an employer's alleged failure to timely pay or report such payments.).)
14 (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 15.) Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), statutory damages are "fifty 15 dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100)
16 per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty
17 of four thousand dollars ($4,000)." As proving actual damages for each employee on a class-
18 wide basis is unlikely, this claim would likely be subject to a one-year statutory period.³

19 There are approximately 149 class members that worked during the one-year statute of 20 limitations. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 16.) If we assume that each employee received an average of 21 $2,000 in penalties, that would equate to a total penalty amount of $298,000. (Id.)

25 ³ "Courts that have recognized that two limitations periods apply to Section 226 have uniformly found that the $50
26 and $100 figures recoverable under Section 226(e)(1) are penalties, subject to a one-year limitation period." Novoa 27 v. Charter Communs., Ltd. Liab. Co. (E.D. Cal. 2015) 100 F.Supp.3d 1013, 1025 (citing Taylor v. W. Marine Prods.

*Partners (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2014) L.P., No. C 13-04834 WHA, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 47021, at 2; Mouchati v.
Bonnie Plants, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Mar. 6, 2014) No. EDCV 14-00037-VAP (SPx), 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 60855, at 8-9; Singer v. Becton, Dickinson & Co., Med.-Safe Sys. (S.D. Cal. July 23, 2008) No. 08cv821 IEG (BLM), 2008*
*U.S. Dist. LEXIS 56326, at 4-5e.

1 Some hurdles to obtaining class certification would apply to this claim. Defendant
2 contends that the wage statements were accurate in all material respects and that Labor Code 3 section 226 requires “a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with 4 subdivision (a).” (See Lab. Code § 226(e); see also Lab. Code § 226(e)(3) (For purposes of this
5 subdivision, a “knowing and intentional failure” does not include an isolated and unintentional
6 payroll error due to a clerical or inadvertent mistake.”)) In this regard, Defendant contends that
7 any failure to include information on wage statements was an inadvertent or isolated mistake,
8 and Defendant had a reasonable, good faith belief that its employees were being provided wage 9 statements in compliance with Labor Code section 226(a). (Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., 10 Inc. (2024) 15 Cal.5th 1056, 1065 [“We now conclude that if an employer reasonably and in 11 good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in compliance with 12 the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to comply 13 with the wage statement law.”].).

14 5. Failure to Timely Pay All Final Wages

15 An employer who willfully fails to pay any wages due to a terminated employee at the 16 time of their termination or within 72 hours for employees who quit, may be assessed a waiting 17 time penalty pursuant to California Labor Code section 203. The waiting time penalty is an 18 amount equal to the employee’s daily rate of pay for each day the wages remain unpaid, up to a 19 maximum of 30 calendar days. There were approximately 243 separated employees during the 20 three-year statutory period. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 17.) Using the hourly rate of $16.18, the 21 potential exposure for waiting time penalties is $943,617.60 ($16.18/hour x 8 hours/per x 30-22 day maximum x 243 separated employees). (Id.) However, to prevail under Section 203,
23 Plaintiffs must establish not only the underlying violations addressed above and that the wages
24 were paid late, but also that Defendant’s failure to timely pay such wages was willful. (Lab.
25 Code § 203(a).) A good faith belief in a legal defense precludes any finding of willfulness.
26 (Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc. (2023) 88 Cal.App.5th 937, 944–948 [affirming the trial
27 court’s ruling that, although meal period premiums were owed to employees, a good faith 28 dispute that such premiums were owed precluded imposing waiting time penalties], affirmed on

1 other grounds in Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc. (2024) 15 Cal.5th 1056, 1065; Gonzalez
2 v. Downtown LA Motors (2013) 215 Cal.App.4th 36, 54.)

3 6. Civil Penalties pursuant to the Private Attorney General Act of 2004
4 (“PAGA”) (Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

5 PAGA penalties for unpaid minimum wages and meal period violations are $100 per pay
6 period for each initial violation and $200 per pay period for any subsequent violation. (Lab.
7 Code § 2699(f)(2).) Courts have held that there is no “subsequent violation” until an employer
8 has been notified by the Labor Commissioner or a court that its practices are in violation of the 9 law. (Gunther v. Alaska Airlines, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 334, 355–356; Amaral v. Cintas
10 (2008)163 Cal.App.4th 1157). A Court also may award a lesser amount “if, based on the facts
11 and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, 12 arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Lab. Code § 2699 (e)(2).) The statute of limitations
13 under PAGA is one year.

14 There are approximately 3,381 pay periods during the PAGA period. (Rauchwerger
15 Decl. ¶ 18.) Assuming that no penalty “stacking” will apply (i.e. the imposition of multiple 16 penalties per pay period) and that the Court will use the violation rate of $100 per pay period, 17 potential PAGA penalties equal $338,100. (Id.) Plaintiffs’ PAGA claims are also predicated on 18 the violations described above, and thus subject to the same disputes and defenses. (Id.)
19 Additionally, PAGA states that a court has discretion to award a lesser amount than the 20 maximum penalty. (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2); Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc.
21 (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (reducing PAGA award); Carrington v. Starbucks Corp.
22 (2018) 30 Cal.App.5th 528-529 (affirming the trial court’s PAGA penalty award of $5 per 23 violation). These uncertainties increased the risks related to the PAGA cause of action.

24 Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(l), the Settlement Agreement, this 25 motion, and all supporting papers have been provided to the Labor and Workforce Development
26 Agency and a proof of service is attached as Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Devin Rauchwerger.
27 (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 19.) The amount to be paid to the LWDA ($52,500.00 of the $70,000.00 total) comports with PAGA settlement amounts approved by other courts.⁴
28

7. Unfair Competition (Bus & Prof. Code § 17200 et. seq.)

Though Plaintiffs may assert a UCL claim for purported wage violations, remedies are still limited to restitution and injunctive relief. (See Korea Supply v. Lockheed Martin Corp. (2003) 29 Cal.4th 1148-51; see also Cortez v. Purolator Air Filtration Prod. Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 163, 173.) In wage-and-hour class actions, a UCL claim typically has little to no independent value and is instead pled for the purposes of extending the statute of limitations on unpaid wage claims to four years. The unfair competition law's (UCL) four-year limitations period, rather than the shorter periods of limitation applicable to contractual or statutory wage claims, governs a UCL action based on failure to pay wages because the UCL provides that “any” action on “any” UCL cause of action is subject to the four-year period of limitations. (Cortez v. Purolator Air Filtration Prod. Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 163, 178.)

8. Total Damages.

Based on the above estimates, the total amount of possible damages that the class could be awarded at trial, including PAGA penalties, is approximately $2,204,427.31⁵. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 20.) However, after taking into account the strengths and weaknesses of each claim, the unique risks associated therewith, the general risks associated with litigating the case, and the significant additional costs and expenses that would be incurred by both sides in litigating the Action through class certification, trial, and appeals, Class Counsel’s assessment of this case is that payment of $469,500.00 is an excellent result that provides the class with certain recovery over a relatively short period of time with significant savings in costs. (Id.)

⁴ See Chu v. Wells Fargo Investments, LLC (N.D. Cal., Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 WL 67245, 81 (approving PAGA payment of $7,500 to LWDA out of $6.9 million common fund); Lazarin v. Pro Unlimited, Inc. (N.D. Cal., July 11, 2013) 2013 WL 3541217 (approving PAGA payment of $7,500 to LWDA out of $1.25 million common fund settlement); Hicks v. Toys ‘R’ Us–Delaware, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Sept. 2, 2014) 2014 WL 4703915, at *1 (approving $5,000 PAGA payment in a case involving $4 million settlement); Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods., Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2012) 2012 WL 5941801 at *14 (approving PAGA penalties of $10,000 as part of $2.5 million settlement).

⁵ This takes into account 25% of the total PAGA penalties that would be awarded to the PAGA members, since 75% of the fees go to the LWDA. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 20.)

1 IV. CLASS CERTIFICATION ANALYSIS

2 A. The Class Is Properly Certified For Settlement Purposes.

3 Plaintiffs seek certification of this action for settlement purposes under California Code
4 of Civil Procedure section 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized that:

5 “Code of Civil Procedure section 382 authorizes class actions when the question 6 is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 7 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court. The party 8 seeking certification has the burden to establish the existence of both an 9 ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among class members. The “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class Representatives who can adequately represent the class.”

10 (Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 326 (internal citations 11 omitted)).

12 While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute Plaintiffs’ ability to satisfy any of these 13 requirements, the Parties agree that for purposes of settlement, Defendant will not raise such a 14 dispute. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 21.) Therefore, the proposed Settlement Class should be certified 15 for purposes of settlement.

16 1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

17 The class consists of approximately 349 members with specifically identifiable
18 information. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 22.) The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 19 382 that there be “many” parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed
20 liberally. (Renken v. Compton City School Dist. (1962) 207 Cal.App.2d 106, 113.) No set 21 number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a class action. (Hebbard v. Colgrove
22 (1972) 28 Cal.App.3d 1017, 1030; See also Bowles v. Superior Court (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574
23 (class with 10 members sufficiently numerous); see also Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126
24 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (class of 48 members satisfies the numerosity requirement).) Class
25 members are “ascertainable” where they may be readily identified without unreasonable
26 expense or time by reference to official records. (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126
27 Cal.App.3d 926, 932.) Here, the class is sufficiently numerous and there is a common interest 28

1 to many persons as this claim will confer significant benefits to those persons. (Rauchwerger
2 Decl. ¶ 22.) Furthermore, it would be impracticable to bring all of them before the Court on an
3 individual basis. (Id.) Moreover, the Class is readily ascertainable as Defendant is in possession
4 of contact information for its current and former employees via regularly maintained
5 employment records. (Id.)

6 2. The Community of Interest Requirement Is Also Satisfied.

7 “The ‘community of interest’ requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant 8 common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 9 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Sav-On Drug
10 Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 326.) Here, the common questions of law 11 and fact clearly exist, as the underlying dispute involves Defendant’s employment policies and 12 practices which affected all the employees in the proposed Class. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 22.)
13 Plaintiffs are typical of the class they seek to represent because Plaintiffs worked for Defendant, 14 contend that the alleged violations occurred as a result of a common policy affecting all the 15 putative Class Members, and contend that they had a similar experience to each of the Class
16 Members because they were all subjected to common policies and practices by Defendant.
17 (Declaration of Melissa Clack “Clack Decl.” ¶¶ 3-4; Declaration of Evelyn McOmie “McOmie
18 Decl.” ¶¶ 3-4.)

19 B. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience In Class Actions And Similar Cases.

20 Class Counsel has extensive experience in similar cases and believe that the proposed 21 Settlement is adequate, reasonable, fair, and in the best interests of all class members.
22 (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶¶ 23-25; Halwadjian Decl. ¶¶ 2-7.)

23 C. The Class Representatives Are Adequate.

24 Plaintiffs Clack and McOmie are adequate Class Representatives who have similar, co-25 extensive interests with the proposed Class Members. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 26.) Plaintiffs have 26 remained intricately involved in this lawsuit and have understood their responsibilities with 27 respect to the class. (Clack Decl. ¶ 5; McOmie Decl. ¶ 5.) Plaintiffs understood from the 28 beginning that they had a duty to look out for the best interests of the Class, and they understood

1 that by taking on this case, they were agreeing to take on significant responsibility, which could
2 include having to be deposed and provide extensive information to respond to discovery
3 requests, as well as potentially testifying at trial. (Id.) Plaintiffs have taken their responsibility
4 as Class Representatives seriously and learned the laws as they relate to the payment of wages,
5 requirements for meal and rest periods, and other issues related to this Action. (Clack Decl. ¶ 6;
6 McOmie Decl. ¶ 6.) Moreover, Plaintiffs are unaware of any conflicts between their own
7 interests and goals and the interests and goals of anyone else in the Class. (Clack Decl. ¶ 7;
8 McOmie Decl. ¶ 7.)

9 D. The Proposed Enhancement Awards To Plaintiffs are Reasonable.

10 In connection with the final approval hearing, Class Counsel will request approval of the 11 Class Representative Enhancement Award of $7,500.00 to each Plaintiff for their service as 12 Class Representatives and in consideration for a general release of all claims against Defendant.
13 This amount is based on the extent of Plaintiffs' assistance in this lawsuit, including providing 14 relevant information and documents to Class Counsel, answering various questions and 15 providing additional information throughout the entirety of the case, reviewing the complaint
16 and reviewing the settlement agreement and having related discussions. (See e.g., Clack Decl.
17 ¶¶ 4-6; McOmie Decl. ¶¶ 4-6.) This amount is also reasonable given that Plaintiffs are providing 18 a general release of all known and unknown claims against Defendants. The requested incentive 19 payment is well within the accepted range of awards for purposes of preliminary approval. (See, 20 e.g. In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393).

21 E. Settlement Administration Costs are Reasonable.

22 The Parties have agreed upon ILYM Group, Inc. to administer the Settlement.
23 (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 27.) ILYM Group, Inc. works in the settlement administration business, 24 and costs of administration should not exceed $7,550.00. Plaintiffs respectfully request that the 25 Court approve the appointment of ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator. (See,
26 e.g., Declaration of Lisa Mullins "ILYM Group, Inc. Decl." ¶¶ 2-10.)

1 V. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

2 A. The Settlement Class & Released Claims

3 Class & Class Size: The “Class,” or “Class Members” is defined as: “all current and 4 former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California employed during the 5 Class Release Period.” (SA § 10(e).) The “Class Release Period” means the period from July 6 27, 2017 through April 14, 2025. (SA § 10(g).) Class Members who do not submit a valid and 7 timely Request for Exclusion from the Class Settlement are referred to as the “Settlement Class
8 Members” or “Settlement Class”. (SA § 10(rr).)

9 Release: The scope of the release for Settlement Class Members is limited only to those 10 claims that were brought or could have been brought by Plaintiffs in this action in connection
11 with the facts alleged in the Actions and the PAGA Notices. (SA §§ 10(jj)-(kk), 13(a)-(b).)
12 Settlement Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for wrongful 13 termination, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, and workers’ compensation,
14 and claims outside of the Class Release Period. (Id.) The named Plaintiffs have agreed to a 15 broader release, which only applies to the named Plaintiffs. (SA § 13(c).) Plaintiffs and the 16 State of California with respect to all PAGA employees shall be deemed to have released all 17 PAGA claims, which include all PAGA penalties arising from the California Labor Code or 18 wage orders alleged, or that could have been alleged based on facts contained in the Clack
19 Class Action, the First McOmie PAGA or the Second McOmie PAGA Letter. (SA § 13(b).)

20 B. The Settlement Payment

21 Defendant will, through the Settlement Administrator, create a non-reversionary
22 settlement fund in the amount of Four Hundred Sixty-Nine Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars 23 and Zero Cents ($469,500.00) (“Total Settlement Amount”). (SA §§ 10(ss), 12(a).) The 24 Individual Settlement Shares will be allocated as follows: twenty percent (20%) as wages for 25 which forms W-2 shall be issued and eighty percent (80%) as interest and penalties for which 26 forms 1099 shall be issued. (SA § 15(g).) The employer share of payroll taxes that become due
27 shall be paid separate and apart from the Total Settlement Amount by Defendant. (SA § 12(a).)
28 The Escalator Clause provides if the total number of Workweeks increases by more than

1 10% for the period of July 27, 2017 through April 14, 2025, the Total Settlement Amount 2 shall be increased on a pro-rata basis equal to the percentage increase in the number of 3 Workweeks worked by the Class Members above 10%. (SA § 12(j).)

4 C. Settlement Payment Distribution Plan

5 All expenses associated with the Settlement are to be paid from the Settlement's Total
6 Settlement Amount (SA § 10(b).), including up to $164,325.00 to Class Counsel for attorneys'
7 fees (35% of the Total Settlement Amount), and reimbursement of actual costs and expenses
8 associated with Class Counsel's litigation and settlement of the Action, supported by 9 declaration, in an amount not to exceed $30,000.00, to Class Counsel for reimbursement of 10 actual litigation expenses incurred (SA §§ 10(b), 12(b).); Settlement Administration Costs up 11 to $7,550.00 to be paid to the qualified Settlement Administrator ILYM Group, Inc. to 12 administer the notice and process payments (SA §§ 10(oo)-(pp), 12(d).); Class Representative
13 Enhancement Awards of $7,500.00 to each Plaintiff for their service as Class Representatives
14 and in consideration for a general release of all claims against Defendant (SA §§ 10(m), 12(c).);
15 and a PAGA Penalty Amount of $70,000.00. (SA §§ 10(bb), 12(e).) Pursuant to California
16 Labor Code section 2699(i), and subject to approval by the Court under California Labor Code
17 section 2699(l), $52,500.00 or 75% of the PAGA Penalty Amount will be paid to the California
18 Labor and Workforce Development Agency, in resolution of the PAGA claims for the 19 Aggrieved Employees. The remaining $17,500.00 of the PAGA Penalty Amount will be paid
20 to the Aggrieved Employees through Individual PAGA Payments. (SA §§ 10(q), 12(g).)

21 1. Calculating Settlement Class Members' Individual Settlement
22 Payments

23 All Settlement Class Members will receive an Individual Settlement Payment. After 24 deducting the amount of the fees award, the costs award, the enhancement award to Plaintiffs,
25 the Settlement Administrator expenses that are all finally approved by the Court, and the PAGA
26 penalty amounts, the remaining "Net Settlement Amount" will be distributed to the Settlement
27 Class Members through "Individual Settlement Payments." (SA § 12.)

28 Individual Settlement Share Payments will be paid from the Net Settlement Amount and will be apportioned by dividing the estimated Net Settlement Amount by the Workweeks for all Class Members during the Class Release Period, the “Class Workweek Value,” and then multiplying the Class Workweek Value by the number of Workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Release Period. (SA § 12(f)(3).) The estimated Net Settlement Amount will be approximately $182,625.00 (not including the $70,000.00 PAGA Penalty Amount).⁶ (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 28.) Based on the number of class members, the average Individual Settlement Payment is approximately $523.28. (Id.)

The Parties agree that the formula for allocating the Individual Settlement Payments to Settlement Class Members is reasonable and that the payments provided herein are designed to provide a fair settlement to such persons, in light of the uncertainties regarding the calculation of alleged wages, penalties, interest, and expense reimbursement to each Settlement Class Member. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 29.)

2. Calculating PAGA Members’ Individual PAGA Payments

Individual PAGA Payments will be calculated and apportioned from the PAGA Member Amount of $17,500.00. The Settlement Administrator will divide 25% of the PAGA Member Amount by the total number of Pay Periods for all PAGA Members during the PAGA Release Period (resulting in the “PAGA Pay Periods Value”), and then multiply the PAGA Pay Periods Value by the number of Pay Periods worked for each PAGA Member during the PAGA Release Period to yield his or her Individual PAGA Payment. (SA § 12(g).)

3. Distributions To Settlement Class

Within ten (10) business days of the funding of Total Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator will issue payments due under the Settlement and approved by the Court, as follows: (1) Individual Settlement Payments to the Settlement Class Members; (2) Individual PAGA Payments to the PAGA Members; (3) LWDA Payment to the LWDA; (4)

⁶ The estimated Net Settlement Amount of $182,625.00 is calculated by taking the $469,500.00 Total Settlement Amount and subtracting: the requested attorneys’ fees of 35% of the Total Settlement Amount ($164,325.00), reimbursement of litigation costs (in the maximum amount of $30,000.00), a Class Representative Enhancement Awards of $7,500.00 to each named Plaintiff, Settlement Administration Costs of up to $7,550.00, and PAGA Penalty Amount of $70,000.00. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 28.)

Enhancement Awards to Plaintiffs; (5) Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Class Counsel; and (6) Settlement Administration Costs to itself. (SA § 15(c).) The Parties agreed that all funds associated with such checks that have not been cashed, deposited, or otherwise negotiated and which are canceled after the above-referenced 180-day time period, will be transmitted to the following cy pres recipient: Senior Citizens of Shasta County, Inc. ("SCSS" or "Cy Pres Recipient"), in accordance with California Code of Civil Procedure section 384. (SA § 15(e).) Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 384, Plaintiffs will submit the report to the Court and shall seek an amended judgment and an order directing the Settlement Administrator to pay the sum of the unpaid residue or unclaimed or abandoned funds associated with cancelled checks, plus interest that has accrued on those funds (if any), to SCSS. (Id.)

D. Notice To The Class Members

Attached to the Declaration of Devin Rauchwerger as Exhibit 3 is the [Proposed] Notice of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval. (Rauchwerger Decl. ¶ 29; the Request for Exclusion and Objection forms are attached to the Rauchwerger Decl. ¶¶ 30-31 as Exhibit 4 and 5, respectively.) To protect the rights of absent class members, the court must provide class members with the best class action settlement notice practicable. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(f); Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts (1985) 472 U.S. 797, 811-12.) The primary purpose of class notice is to provide affected parties with due process rights reasonably calculated to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action affecting their interests and an opportunity to present their objections. (See Ryan v. Cal. Interscholastic Fed'n – San Diego Section (2001) 94 Cal.App. 1048, 1072.) The proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval satisfies these requirements. The proposed Class notices ensure the Settlement Class is alerted to the terms of the Settlement and allows them to protect their rights. The proposed notice plan, calling for first-class mailed notice to all members of the Settlement Class, is consistent with noticed approved by State and Federal Courts and constitutes the best notice practicable. (Cartt v. Super. Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 966; Cooper v. Am. Sav. & Loan Ass'n. (1976) 55 Cal.App.3d 274, 285.)

1 VI. CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, the Parties respectfully submit that the Settlement's terms are 3 fair, adequate, and reasonable and that it is in the best interest of the Class Members. Under the 4 applicable class action criteria and guidelines, this Class should be conditionally certified, the 5 Settlement should be preliminarily approved, the Class should be notified regarding the 6 Settlement, and the Court should schedule a final approval hearing for 120 days after the Court
7 grants Preliminary Approval.
