SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

SABRINA WALKER, on behalf of others
similarly situated and the State of California
under the Private Attorneys General Act,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

SOMAGEN HEALTHCARE III, INC. and
DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 24CU003757C

CLASS ACTION

FIRST AMENDED CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

1. Minimum Wage Violations
2. Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages
3. Meal Period Violations
4. Rest Period Violations
5. Paid Sick Leave Violations
6. Untimely Payment of Wages
7. Wage Statement Violations
8. Waiting Time Penalties
9. Unfair Competition
10. Civil Penalties under the Private Attorneys
General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.)

1 Plaintiff SABRINA WALKER, on behalf of all others similarly situated and the State of
2 California under the Private Attorneys General Act (“Plaintiff”) brings this FIRST AMENDED
3 CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT against Defendants SOMAGEN
4 HEALTHCARE III, INC. and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (collectively “Defendants”), alleging as 5 follows:

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is a class action brought under the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382
8 for Defendants’ violations of the California Labor Code and Business Professions Code.

9 2. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the class members all minimum and overtime
10 wages due to unlawful policies and practices of requiring off-the-clock work.

11 3. Defendants failed to provide, authorize, and/or permit Plaintiff and the class members 12 to take all meal and rest periods to which they were entitled.

13 4. Defendants additionally failed to pay all owed sick leave and reporting time wages.

14 5. Defendants’ employment policies, practices, and payroll administration systems
15 enabled and facilitated these violations on a company-wide basis with respect to class members.

16 JURISDICTION & VENUE

17 6. Jurisdiction of this action is proper in this Court under Article VI, Section 10 of the 18 California Constitution as the causes of action are premised upon violations of California law.

19 7. The monetary damages and restitution sought exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of 20 the Superior Court.

21 8. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
22 Defendants have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail
23 themselves to the California economy so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the 24 California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

25 9. Venue is proper in this Court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 393(a), 395,
26 and/or 395.5 because, upon information and belief, Defendants conducted business and committed 27 some of the alleged violations in this County.

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff Sabrina Walker

10. Plaintiff Walker is an individual over 18 years of age who worked for Defendants in California as a non-exempt employee from about June 2023 to May 2024. Plaintiff worked as a Medical Assistant.

11. The State of California, via the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), is the real party in interest in this action. (Kim v. Reins Int’l California, Inc. (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 81 [The “government entity on whose behalf the plaintiff files suit is always the real party in interest.”]) To the extent permitted by law, including pursuant Balderas v. Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc., Court of Appeals Case No. B326759 (2nd App. Dist.) ____ Cal. App. 5th ____ (Mar. 20, 2024, as modified Apr. 18, 2024), the PAGA claim is brought exclusively as a representative action and does not include arbitrable claims.

B. Defendants

12. Defendant Somagen Healthcare III, Inc. is a California corporation that maintains operations and conducts business throughout the State of California, including in this county.

13. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, or otherwise, of the parties sued as DOES 1 through 50, are presently unknown, unascertainable, or uncertain, and are sued by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Upon information and belief, each of DOES 1 through 50 constitutes a legal employer or is otherwise legally responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein. This Complaint may be amended to reflect their true names and capacities once ascertained.

14. Upon information and belief, Defendants in this action are employers, co-employers, joint employers, and/or part of an integrated employer enterprise, as each of the Defendants exercised control over the wages, hours, and working conditions of the employees, suffered and permitted them to work, and otherwise engaged them as employees under California law.

15. Upon information and belief, at least some of the Defendants have common ownership, common management, interrelationship of operations, and centralized control over labor relations and are therefore part of an integrated enterprise and thus jointly and severally responsible for the acts and omissions alleged herein, including pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 558.1, and 1197.1.

16. Upon information and belief, Defendants acted in all respects pertinent to this action as an alter-ego, agent, servant, joint employer, joint venturer, co-conspirator, partner, in an integrated enterprise, or in some other capacity on behalf of all other co-defendants, such that the acts and omissions of each defendant may be legally attributable to all others.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

17. This action is brought individually and on behalf of the following class pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382:

a. All current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time from four years (plus the additional 178-day statutory tolling period under Emergency Rule 9) prior to the filing of this action through date of class certification.

18. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish various subclass definitions as appropriate at the class certification stage, according to proof.

19. The class is ascertainable and shares a well-defined community of interest in this litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class is estimated to exceed 50 individuals, although the precise membership of the entire class is unknown at this time. The class is so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The identities of class members are ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the other class members. They were subject to the same policies and practices of Defendants, which resulted in losses to the class. Proof of common unlawful business practices, which Plaintiff experienced, will establish the right of the class to recover on the causes of action alleged herein.

- 1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative; will take all necessary
2 steps to protect the class members' interests adequately and fairly; has no
3 interest antagonistic to other class members; and is represented by attorneys 4 who have substantial experience prosecuting, defending, resolving, and 5 litigating wage and hour class, collective, and representative actions in 6 California state and federal courts.
- 7 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other means for adjudicating this 8 dispute. Individual joinder is impractical. Class treatment will allow for 9 common issues to be resolved in a single forum, simultaneously, and without 10 duplication of effort and expense.
- 11 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action 12 advances the State of California's strong public interest in ensuring its 13 approximately millions of employed residents are properly paid the wages they 14 earned for the hours they worked. Class actions provide a mechanism for 15 enforcement of labor laws and allow for vindication of employee rights by 16 unnamed class members.

17 20. Common questions of law and fact as to the class members predominate over questions
18 affecting only individual members. The common questions of law and fact exist as to whether the 19 employment policies and practices formulated by Defendants and applied to the class members
20 constitute violations of California law.

21 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22 21. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the class members the lawful minimum wage for 23 all hours worked.

24 22. Defendants had a policy and practice of unlawfully requiring off-the-clock work.

25 23. Specifically, Plaintiff and the class members were ordered to clock a compliant 30-
26 minute meal period, regardless of their ability to take one each day.

27 24. As a result of the clinic being regularly understaffed and the high patient demands, 28 Plaintiff and the class members often worked through their unpaid meal periods but were forced to

1 clock out each day or be written up.

2 25. Each time Plaintiff and the class members worked through all or part of their unpaid
3 meal period, this resulted in unpaid off-the-clock work.

4 26. To the extent this off-the-clock work resulted in unpaid off-the-clock work resulted in 5 hours worked over 8 hours in a day or 40 hours in week, this resulted in unpaid overtime.

6 27. Further, due to Defendants' unlawful policy requiring Plaintiff and the class members
7 continue to work off-the-clock, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the class members with all
8 sick leave accrued.

9 28. Plaintiff and the class members routinely experienced missed, late, short, and 10 interrupted meal periods due to understaffing in the clinic and in order to keep up with the high 11 demands of the job.

12 29. Plaintiff's time records show a pattern of facially late and otherwise non-compliant
13 meal period. For example, during the pay periods from February 19, 2024 to March 3, 2024,
14 November 27, 2023 to December 10, 2023, September 4, 2023 to September 17, 2023, and August 21,
15 2023 to September 3, 2023, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff any meal periods for the four 16 noncompliant meal periods in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

17 30. Additionally, Plaintiff and the class members also experienced missed meal periods
18 due to their high volume of patients and understaffing. On these days, Plaintiff and the class members
19 were required to clock out and keep working to make it appear as if a compliant meal period was taken 20 and to avoid paying all owed meal period premiums.

21 31. As a matter of common policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay all owed meal
22 period premiums.

23 32. Similarly due to understaffing and high patient demands, Defendants failed to provide 24 all rest periods to which Plaintiff and the class members were entitled.

25 33. Further, when Plaintiff and the other class members experienced these non-compliant
26 rest periods, Defendant failed to pay rest period premiums at the regular rate as required by Labor
27 Code section 226.7.

28 34. Defendants failed to pay all reporting time wages to Plaintiff and the class members on

1 days they were scheduled for a regular shift but were sent home early, in which case they were not
2 paid the greater of two hours or half the scheduled shift length, as required by California law..

3 35. Indeed, Plaintiff and the class members were often scheduled to work a full 8 hour day,
4 however on the days when there was no physician for all or part of the day the clinic would be forced
5 to close early or open late, cutting the hours Plaintiff and the class members were scheduled to work.
6 In these instances, when Plaintiff and the class members reported to work they were paid less than 7 “the grater of two hours of half the scheduled shift length” as required by Labor Code 226.7.

8 36. Because of these violations, Defendants failed to provide accurate, itemized wage
9 statements to employees that included accurate gross or net wages earned due to off-the-clock work.

10 37. Defendants violated Labor Code section 226(a)(2) by failing to accurately list 11 employees’ “total hours worked,” as the wage statements did not accurately include the 12 uncompensated time Plaintiff and the class members worked due to Defendants’ policy and practice 13 of requiring off-the-clock work.

14 38. Likewise, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(9), Defendants failed to state on 15 employee wage statements each pay period the applicable hourly rates in effect and the number of 16 hours worked at that rate, as Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums owed to employees. The 17 amounts stated are instead depreciated and underpaid, resulting in an inaccurate reflection on the pay 18 stub.

19 39. These violations create derivative liability for failure to pay all wages owed each 20 payday or upon separation of employment.

21 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

22 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

23 Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2 and 1197

24 (All Claims Alleged by Plaintiff and Class Members Against All Defendants)

25 40. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

26 41. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code
27 §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Hours and Days
28 of Work” and “Minimum Wages” sections of the applicable orders), which require non-exempt

1 employees be timely paid at least the state or local minimum wage (if higher) for each hour of work,
2 and further provide a private right of action for an employer's failure to pay all minimum wages (plus
3 liquidated damages).

4 42. Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to pay Plaintiff and class
5 members at least the lawful minimum wage for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code sections
6 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the "Hours and Days of 7 Work" and "Minimum Wages" sections of the applicable orders), including payment at the lawful
8 local and county minimum wage ordinances in effect. As a result, Defendants are liable for all
9 associated damages, including liquidated damages for the minimum wage violations pursuant to Labor
10 Code § 1194.2.

11 43. Defendants' unlawful acts and omissions deprived Plaintiff and class members of 12 minimum, regular and overtime wages in amounts to be determined at trial. Plaintiff and class 13 members are entitled to recover the full amount of the unpaid wages, plus liquidated damages in an 14 amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid (and interest thereon), in addition to interest, attorneys'
15 fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law, including under Labor Code sections 1194 and 1194.2.

16 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO PAY ALL OVERTIME WAGES

18 Violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194

19 44. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

20 45. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code
21 §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198, which require non-exempt employees be timely paid overtime
22 wages all overtime hours worked, and which further provide a private right of action for an employer's 23 failure to pay all overtime compensation for overtime hours worked.

24 46. Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to pay Plaintiff and class members no
25 less than one and one-half times their respective "regular rate of pay" for all hours worked in excess 26 of eight hours in one day, 40 hours in one week, or the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of 27 work in any one workweek, and no less than twice their respective "regular rate of pay" for all hours
28 over 12 hours in one day and any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek for

1 such hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198 and the IWC
2 Wage Orders (the “Hours and Days of Work” sections of the applicable orders).

3 47. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the full amount of the unpaid
4 overtime, in addition to interest, statutory and civil penalties, and attorneys’ fees, and costs to the 5 extent permitted by law.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

8 Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512

9 48. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

10 49. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code
11 §§ 226.7, 558 and 512, which require non-exempt employees be provided complaint meal periods (or 12 meal period premiums in lieu thereof), and which further provide a private right of action for an 13 employer’s failure to lawfully provide all meal periods and/or pay meal period premiums at the lawful
14 regular rate of compensation.

15 50. Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently provide 16 Plaintiff and class members compliant, duty-free meal periods of not less than 30 minutes beginning
17 before the fifth hour of hour for each work period of more than five hours per day and a second duty-
18 free meal period of not less than 30 minutes beginning before the tenth hour of hour of work in 19 violation of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, 558, 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Meal Periods” 20 sections of the applicable orders).

21 51. Further, Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently pay
22 Plaintiff and class members one additional hour of pay at the respective regular rate of compensation
23 for each workday that a fully compliant meal period was not provided, in violation of Labor Code
24 sections 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Meal Periods” sections of the 25 applicable orders).

26 52. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the full amount of the meal period
27 premiums owed, in addition to interest, statutory and civil penalties, and attorneys’ fees, and costs to 28 the extent permitted by law.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

3 Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516

4 53. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

5 54. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code
6 §§ 226.7 and 516, which require non-exempt employees be authorized to take complaint rest periods
7 (or rest period premiums in lieu thereof), and which further provide a private right of action for an 8 employer's failure to lawfully provide all rest periods and/or pay rest period premiums at the lawful
9 regular rate of compensation.

10 55. Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently authorize and 11 permit Plaintiff and class members to receive compliant, duty-free rest periods of not less than ten
12 (10) minutes for every four hours worked (or major fraction thereof) in violation of Labor Code
13 sections 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the "Rest Periods" sections of the 14 applicable orders).

15 56. Further, Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently pay
16 Plaintiff and class members one additional hour of pay at the respective regular rate of compensation
17 for each workday that a fully compliant rest period was not provided, in violation of Labor Code
18 sections 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders.

19 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO PAY ALL PAID SICK LEAVE WAGES

21 Violation of Labor Code §§ 200, 218, 246 *et seq.

22 57. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

23 58. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their affirmative obligation to pay
24 sick leave wages to Plaintiff and a paid sick leave subclass in violation of Labor Code section 246
25 et seq. Paid sick leave earnings constitute wages for purposes of California wage and hour law.
26 (Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1094, 1103 ["Courts have recognized
27 that 'wages' also include those benefits to which an employee is entitled as a part of his or her
28 compensation, including money, room, board, clothing, vacation pay, and sick pay"].)

59. Labor Code section 246(l), in conjunction with Labor Code section 248 et seq., 248.1, 248.2, and 248.6, in addition to the applicable County sick pay ordinances in locales worked by class members, govern how Defendants were required to calculate paid sick leave.

60. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class members their paid sick leave wages at one of the lawful rates set forth in the statute or ordinance because Defendants failed to include in their sick leave calculation the additional remuneration received by Plaintiff and class members (i.e., at the regular rate of pay and/or calculated based on total wages earned).

61. Furthermore, to the extent the paid sick leave paid constitutes Covid-related paid sick leave, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their affirmative obligation to pay Covid-19 Supplemental Sick Leave wages to class members at the correct accrual rate or hourly pay rate in violation of Labor Code sections 246, 248.1, 248.2, and 248 et seq.

62. As a result, Defendants violated the Labor Code and are liable to Plaintiff and class members for underpaid sick leave wages, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNTIMELY PAYMENT OF WAGES

Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 218

63. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

64. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 204, 204b, and 210 which require non-exempt employees be timely paid all wages owed each pay period, and which further provide a private right of action for an employer's failure to comply with this obligation. Labor Code § 218 authorizes individuals to sue directly for wages and penalties due under these sections, including Labor Code § 210(c)'s statutory late payment penalties.

65. Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to timely pay all wages, including paid sick leave and meal and rest premiums, earned by Plaintiff and class members twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the employer as regular paydays (for employees paid on a non-weekly basis) and on the regularly-scheduled weekly payday for weekly employees, if any, in violation of Labor Code sections 204 and 204b and the IWC Wage Orders (the "Minimum Wages" sections of the applicable orders).

66. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the full amount of the unpaid wages, in addition to a statutory penalty in the amount of $100 for the initial violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for all subsequent violations and for all willful or intentional violations for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld under provided in Labor Code § 210, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

Violation of Labor Code § 226

67. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

68. This cause of action is brought by a wage statement subclass pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a) which requires non-exempt employees be provided accurate itemized wage statements each pay period, and which further provide a private right of action for an employer's failure to comply with this obligation.

69. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their affirmative obligation to provide accurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and class members resulting in injury to Plaintiff and class members. Specifically, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and class members did not accurately state each pay period all of the information required by Labor Code § 226(a)(1)-(9).

70. Defendants' unlawful acts and omissions deprived Plaintiff and class members of accurate itemized wage statements, causing confusion and concealing wage and premium underpayments.

71. As a result, Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the statutory penalty of $50 per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and $100 per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, up to an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per employee, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law, including under Labor Code section 226(e).

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

3 Violation of Labor Code §§ 201 *et seq.

4 72. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

5 73. This cause of action is brought by a waiting time subclass pursuant to Labor Code
6 §§ 201 through 203, which require an employer to timely pay all wages earned upon termination of 7 employment, and which further provide a private right of action to recover statutory waiting time
8 penalties each day an employer fails to comply with this obligation, up to a maximum of 30 days 9 wages.

10 74. Defendants willfully failed and continue to fail in their affirmative obligation to pay all
11 wages earned and unpaid to Plaintiff and class members immediately upon termination of employment
12 or within 72 hours thereafter for employees who did not provide at least 72 hours prior notice of his 13 or her intention to quit, and further failed to pay those sums for 30 days thereafter in violation of Labor
14 Code sections 201 through 203 and the IWC Wage Orders.

15 75. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover a waiting time penalty for a period
16 of up to 30 days, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law.

17 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 UNFAIR COMPETITION

19 Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 *et seq.

20 76. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

21 77. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
22 practices in the State of California in violation of California Business and Professions Code § 17200
23 by committing the foregoing wage and hour violations alleged throughout this Complaint.

24 78. Defendants' dependence on these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
25 Plaintiff and continue to deprive other class members of compensation to which they are legally 26 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage to 27 Defendants over competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers in compliance
28 with California's wage and hour laws. These failures constitute unlawful, deceptive, and unfair business acts and practices in violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.

79. Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged in this Complaint, and Plaintiff, as an individual and on behalf of others similarly situated, seeks full restitution of the moneys as necessary and according to proof to restore all monies withheld, acquired, and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

80. Plaintiff does not have an adequate remedy at law for past or future violations, to the extent the statute of limitations on each of the alleged causes of action do not extend to the four year limitation provided under the UCL or to the extent the underlying Labor Code and IWC Wage Order violations do not provide a private right of action.

81. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to injunctive relief against Defendants, restitution, and other equitable relief to return all funds over which Plaintiff and class members have an ownership interest and to prevent future damage and the public interest under Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Plaintiff and class members are further entitled to recover interest, attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law, including under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

CIVIL PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.

(By Plaintiff on Behalf of the State and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants)

82. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

83. Plaintiff brings this cause of action as a proxy for the State of California on behalf of the following "aggrieved employees" pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA"), codified as Labor Code section 2698 et seq.:

- a. All current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time from one year prior to the postmark date of the initial PAGA notice through date of trial.

84. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend, supplement, or add to this description of the aggrieved employees, according to proof.

1 85. The State of California, via the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
2 (“LWDA”), is the real party in interest in this action with respect to this cause of action. (Kim v. Reins
3 Int’l California, Inc. (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 81 [The “government entity on whose behalf the plaintiff
4 files suit is always the real party in interest.”])

5 86. Labor Code section 2699(a) provides: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law,,
6 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
7 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
8 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 9 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 10 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3. “

11 87. Labor Code section 2699(f) provides: “For all provisions of this code except those for 12 which a civil penalty is specifically provided, there is established a civil penalty for a violation of these 13 provisions, as follows: ... (2) If, at the time of the alleged violation, the person employs one or more
14 employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period
15 for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for 16 each subsequent violation.”

17 88. Any allegations regarding violations of the IWC Wage Orders are enforceable as 18 violations of Labor Code section 1198, which states: “[t]he employment of any employee for longer 19 hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”

20 89. Labor Code section 2699.3 sets forth the procedure for commencing an action for civil 21 penalties under the PAGA.

22 90. On or about July 25, 2024, Plaintiff paid the requisite PAGA filing fee and provided
23 written notice (by online electronic filing with the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendants) of 24 Defendants’ alleged Labor Code violations, including the facts and theories to support the alleged 25 violations.

26 91. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s written PAGA notice, entitled “Notice of Labor
27 Code Violations” is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference as though fully set 28 forth herein (the “PAGA notice”).

1 92. To date, neither Plaintiff nor Plaintiff's counsel has received a response to Plaintiff's
2 written PAGA notice from the LWDA.

3 93. Within 33 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice sent by Plaintiff, neither
4 Plaintiff nor Plaintiff's counsel has received written notice by certified mail from any defendant
5 providing a description of any actions taken to cure the alleged violations.

6 94. Now that at least 65 days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendants of these
7 violations, without notice of cure from Defendants or notice from the LWDA of its intent to investigate
8 the alleged allegations and issue the appropriate citations to Defendants, Plaintiff exhausted all 9 prerequisites and commenced this civil action under Labor Code section 2699 et seq.

10 95. As set forth in the PAGA notice attached as Exhibit 1 and incorporated into this 11 Complaint, Defendants committed the following violations and are liable for all corresponding civil 12 penalties:

- 13 a. Unpaid Hours Worked/Minimum Wage. Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 14 1197, 1198; IWC Wage Orders.
- 15 b. Unpaid Overtime. Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1198; IWC Wage 16 Orders.
- 17 c. Unpaid Paid Sick Leave. Violation of Labor Code §§ 246 through 248.7.
- 18 d. Unpaid Reporting Time Wages. Violation of Labor Code § 1198; IWC Wage 19 Orders.
- 20 e. Unpaid Meal Period Premium Wages. Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512,
21 1198; IWC Wage Orders.
- 22 f. Unpaid Rest Period Premium Wages. Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516,
23 1198; IWC Wage Orders.
- 24 g. Untimely Payment of Wages During Employment. Violation of Labor Code 25 §§ 204, 204b, 210.
- 26 h. Untimely Payment of Wages Upon Separation of Employment. Violation of 27 Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 256.
- 28 i. Non-Compliant Wage Statements. Violation of Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3.

j. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records. Violation of Labor Code § 1174; IWC Wage Orders.

96. Plaintiff seeks to collect all recoverable civil penalties for the Labor Code violations alleged in this Complaint and the PAGA notice (including amendments thereto) against Defendants pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a) and (f), in addition to attorneys' fees, costs, and interest to the extent permitted by law, including under Labor Code section 2699(g).

PRAYER

Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

- a. For certification of this action as a class action;
- b. For appointment of Plaintiff as the class representative;
- c. For appointment of above-captioned counsel for Plaintiff as Class Counsel;
- d. For division of class members into appropriate classes and/or subclasses according to proof;
- e. For recovery of all statutory penalties and liquidated damages;
- f. For disgorgement of all amounts wrongfully obtained to the extent permitted by law;
- g. For restitution and injunctive relief;
- h. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including expert fees, to the extent permitted by law, including (without limitation) under Labor Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.
- i. For recovery of damages in amount according to proof;
- j. For all recoverable pre- and post-judgment interest;
- k. For this action to be maintained as a representative action under the PAGA;
- l. For Plaintiff and counsel of record to be provided with all enforcement capability as if the action were brought by the State of California or the California Division of Labor Enforcement;
- m. For recovery of all civil penalties and other recoverable amounts under the PAGA;

- 1 n. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including expert fees, to the extent
2 permitted by law, associated with the PAGA claims pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and any other applicable sections; and 4 o. For such other relief the Court deems just and proper.

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698 et seq.

VIA CERTIFIED U.S. MAIL
- Electronic Return Receipt -

Somagen Healthcare III, Inc.
8880 Rio San Diego Drive, 8th Floor
San Diego, California 92108

- PAGA Notice & Filing Fee -
Submitted electronically to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency

Dear LWDA Officer and Company Representatives:

This letter serves as written notice under Labor Code section 2699.3 on behalf of SABRINA WALKER ("Plaintiff(s)") and all other "aggrieved employees" of the following "Defendant(s)":

SOMAGEN HEALTHCARE III, INC.

Defendant(s) shall mean and include the foregoing in addition to any other related employer entities, individuals under Labor Code sections 558 and 558.1, and all others who may be later added upon further investigation and discovery as liable employers.

This office serves as legal counsel for Plaintiff. If the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") does not investigate the facts, allegations, and violations set forth in this notice within the statutorily prescribed 65-day period under Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff intends to commence a civil action against Defendant as a proxy and agent of the State of California under the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA"). "PAGA allows an 'aggrieved employee'—a person affected by at least one Labor Code violation committed by an employer—to pursue penalties for all the Labor Code violations committed by that employer." Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751; Kim v. Reins International California, Inc. (2020) 9 Cal. 73, 79. Plaintiff maintains standing to pursue these claims against Defendant as an aggrieved employee.

Through this notice, Plaintiff requests that Defendant complete an internal investigation and audit of the wage and hour and employment practices at issue and make a good faith effort to correct any violations. Plaintiff attempts to identify the non-compliant policies and practices affecting the aggrieved employees so that the parties may resolve the underlying damages and penalties in judgment or settlement approved by the Superior Court of California under Labor Code section 2699(k). Defendant are notified that any attempt to resolve this case should be conducted in coordination with Plaintiff's counsel to protect the interests of Plaintiff, the aggrieved employees, and the State of California via the LWDA. Plaintiff advises Defendant this letter should be also considered a reasonable attempt at settlement of this matter, subject to an exchange of additional documents and information. Graham v. Daimler Chrysler Corp. (2004) 24 Cal. 4th 553, 561.

- BACKGROUND -

Defendant employed Plaintiff during the PAGA Period in the position of Medical Assistant from about June 2023 to May 2024. During their employment Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were subject to the wage and hour and employment protections set forth in the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

Through this notice, Plaintiff informs the LWDA of the Labor Code violations set forth herein. The “aggrieved employees” include Plaintiff and the following individuals:

All current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California during one-year period preceding the date of this notice through the current date and the date of trial in any pending action (the “aggrieved employees” and the “PAGA Period”).

Plaintiff reserves the right to expand or narrow the definition of the “aggrieved employees” in the forthcoming civil action. Furthermore, Plaintiff seeks all recoverable civil penalties for Defendant’ violations and reserves the right to supplement this notice as further investigation is completed and further facts, witnesses, and violations are uncovered.

- PAGA CLAIMS -

Unpaid Hours Worked/Minimum Wage Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1198, along with the California Minimum Wage Order, the applicable local minimum wage ordinances, and the “Hours and Days of Work” and “Minimum Wages” sections of the applicable IWC Wage Orders with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 1194 renders it unlawful for an employee to receive less than the legal minimum wage for hours worked in California. Labor Code section 1197 further mandates that “[t]he minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lower wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.” Labor Code section 1198 renders “employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]” unlawful. The California Minimum Wage Order and the applicable sections of the IWC Wage Orders further require payment of minimum wages for all hours worked. The “Minimum Wages” sections of the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that “[e]very employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in the payroll period, whether the remuneration is measured by time, piece, commission, or otherwise.” The foregoing California wage laws require payment of “not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in the payroll period” and California law does not allow averaging of pay over the hours worked in the pay period, even if the total pay results in an average above the minimum wage. Armenta v. Osmose, Inc. (2005) 135 Cal. App. 3d 314, 324.

Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees at the lawful minimum wage rate for all hours worked, resulting in unpaid minimum wages.

Defendant engaged in an unlawful policy and practice of requiring off-the-clock work. For example, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were required to work through their meal periods. Specifically, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were ordered to clock a 30-minute meal period, despite often working through their meal periods due to the clinic being understaffed and the pressure from the workload. Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees would be threatened with write-ups if they did not take a meal period, so Plaintiff and, on information and belief, the aggrieved employees would clock out but continue working due to the high volume of patients and the clinic being understaffed.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Overtime Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198, along with the “Hours and Days of Work” sections of the applicable IWC Wage Orders with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 510 requires “[a]ny work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek and the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee;” and “any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee;” and “any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.” Labor Code section 1194 renders it unlawful for an employee to receive less than the legal overtime rate for overtime hours worked in California. Labor Code section 1198 renders “employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]” unlawful. The IWC Wage Orders further require payment of overtime wages for all overtime hours worked, including the “Hours and Days of Work” sections.

Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees overtime wages and the lawful rate of pay for overtime hours worked, resulting in unpaid overtime wages.

As stated in the “Unpaid Hours Worked” section above, Defendant engaged in an unlawful policy and practice of requiring off-the-clock work. To the extent that this unlawful practice resulted in unpaid hours worked over eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week this resulted in unpaid overtime.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Paid Sick Leave Violation of Labor Code §§ 246 through 248.7

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 246 through 248.7 with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 246 requires employers to provide paid sick leave to its workforce on the terms set forth in the statute. Employers must comply with the accrual, use, and notice provisions of Labor Code sections 246, 246.5, 247, and must further ensure that they maintain the paid sick leave records required by Labor Code section 247.5. Employers have the option of providing 24 hours of paid sick leave to employees or to allow employees to accrue paid sick leave each pay period. If an employer chooses the accrual method, employees must accrue sick leave at a rate of one hour for every thirty hours worked in a given pay period as set forth in Labor Code section 246(b)(1). Under the accrual method, employees must begin accruing paid sick leave at the commencement of employment.

Employers must pay sick leave in accordance with one of the three permissible methods provided in Labor Code section 246(l): (1) “the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek;” (2) “by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days;” or (3) “for exempt employee ... in the same manner as the employer calculates wages for other forms of paid leave time.” Labor Code sections 248.6 and 248.7 similarly require paid sick leave to be paid at a regular rate-based calculation in excess of the base hourly rate and at the lawful accrual rate.

Under Labor Code section 246(i), employers must provide employees “with written notice of the amount of paid sick leave available ... for use on either the employee’s itemized wage statement ... or in a separate writing provided on the designated pay date with the employee’s payment of wages.”

Defendant failed to comply with California’s paid sick leave laws with respect to the aggrieved employees. Due to Defendant’s unlawful policy of requiring Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to continue working off-the-clock, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees with all sick leave accrued. Therefore, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were underpaid sick pay whenever Defendants failed to include all hours worked.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Meal Period Premium Wages Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198, along with the related sections of the IWC Wage Orders with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 512 and the IWC Wage Orders require that employers provide an uninterrupted 30-minute meal period after no more than five hours of work and a second meal period after no more than 10 hours of work. See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1049. Labor Code section 226.7 requires that if a meal period is late, missed, short, or interrupted, the employer must pay one additional hour of pay at the employee’s “regular rate” of compensation. Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 858, 862 (“We hold that the terms are synonymous: “regular rate of compensation” under section 226.7(c), like “regular rate of pay” under section 510(a), encompasses all nondiscretionary payments, not just hourly wages”). “[T]ime records showing noncompliant meal periods raise a rebuttable presumption of meal period violations, including at the summary judgment stage.” Donohue v. AMN Services, LLC (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 58, 61. Labor Code section 1198 renders “employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]” unlawful. The IWC Wage Orders, including Section 11 (Meal Periods), further require one uninterrupted 30-minute meal period after no more than five hours of work and a second meal period after no more than 10 hours of work and an additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that a compliant meal period is not provided. Pursuant to Section 11(A) of the IWC Wage Orders, the California Supreme Court has held that the on-duty meal period exception is “exceedingly narrow” and applies only when (1) “the nature of the work prevents the employee from being relieved of all duty” and (2) both “the employer and employee have agreed, in writing, to the on-duty meal period.” Augustus v. AMB Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal. 5th 257, 266-276 (emphasis added). If these two requirements are not met, then the employer owes the employee one hour of premium pay for each non-compliant meal period taken under the purported on-duty meal arrangement. Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc. (2019) 40 Cal. 5th 444, 459.

First, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees routinely experienced missed, late, short, and interrupted meal periods in order to keep up with the high demands of the job.

Extracts from Plaintiff's Time Card Reports.

Here, Plaintiff's records show Plaintiff experienced several late meal periods taken after the fifth hour of work. During the pay periods from February 19, 2024 to March 3, 2024, November 27, 2023 to December 10, 2023, September 4, 2023 to September 17, 2023, and August 21, 2023 to September 3, 2023, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff any meal periods for the four noncompliant meal periods in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

Additionally, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees also experienced missed meal periods, due to the high volume of patients and Defendant being understaffed. On these days, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were required to clock out and keep working to make it appear as if a compliant meal period was taken and avoid paying all owed meal period premiums.

Each time Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees experienced a noncompliant meal period, they were owed a meal period premium. As a matter of policy and practice, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were not provided meal period premiums in lieu of missed meal periods as required by Labor Code section 226.7.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Rest Period Premium Wages
Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198, and the related sections of the IWC Wage Orders with respect to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code sections 226.7 and 516 and the IWC Wage Orders require that employers authorize and permit an uninterrupted 10-minute rest period for each four-hour period (or major fraction thereof) that an employee works. Labor Code section 226.7 requires that if a rest period is non-compliant, the employer must pay one additional hour of pay at the employee's "regular rate" of compensation. Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 858, 862 ("We hold that the terms are synonymous: "regular rate of compensation" under section 226.7(c), like "regular rate of pay" under section 510(a), encompasses all nondiscretionary payments, not just hourly wages"). Labor Code section 1198 renders "employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]" unlawful. The IWC Wage Orders, including Section 12 (Rest Periods), further require one uninterrupted 10-minute rest period for each four-hour period (or major fraction thereof) worked and an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a compliant rest period is not authorized or permitted.

As a matter of common policy and practice, Defendant failed to provide all rest periods to which Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were entitled. As mentioned above, due to the nature of work and high patient demands Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees often worked through their shifts without adequate time to take a compliant break. This prevented Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees from taking lawful rest periods in violation of Labor Codes 226.7 and 516.

Further, when Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees experienced these missed and interrupted rest periods, Defendant failed to pay rest period premiums at the regular rate as required by Labor Code section 226.7.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Reporting Time Wages
Violation of Labor Code § 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendants violated Labor Code sections 1198 and Section 5 (Reporting Time Pay) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders concerning reporting time wages with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Section 5 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders requires an employer to pay reporting time pay if an employee shows up for a scheduled shift and is not put to work or is furnished with less than half of the scheduled shift. In this situation, the employer owes the employee reporting time pay in the amount of the greater of two hours or half the scheduled shift length. Section 5 further requires an employer to pay reporting time pay if an employee is required to report to work for a second time and is furnished with less than two hours of work on the second reporting. In this situation, the employer owes the employee reporting time pay in the amount of the greater of two hours or half the scheduled shift length. Labor Code section 1198 authorizes enforcement of the reporting time pay provisions of the IWC Wage Orders.

Defendant maintained an unlawful policy and practice of failing to pay reporting time wages to the aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were often scheduled to work a full day, however on the days when there was no physician for all or part of the day the clinic would close early or open late, cutting the hours Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were scheduled to work. In these instances, Plaintiff and, on information and belief, the aggrieved employees were paid less than “the greater of two hours or half the scheduled shift length” as required by California law.

Extract from Plaintiff's Time Card Report.

On May 3, 2024, Plaintiff was scheduled to work from 2:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., however due to physician scheduling the clinic closed at 4:15 p.m. Plaintiff was only paid 2.27 hours on this day in violation of Labor Code section 1198. A similar situation occurred on May 10, 2024. On information and belief this was a common practice and affected all aggrieved employees.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees as provided under Labor Code sections 558 ($50/$100), 1199 / “Penalties” section of the IWC Wage Orders, and 2699 ($100/$200) per violation per pay period per employee, along with all other civil penalties permitted by law.

Untimely Payment of Wages During Employment
Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 204b, 210

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 204 and/or 204b and 210, as applicable, with respect to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 204(a) requires payment of “all wages” for non-exempt employees at least twice each calendar month. Labor Code section 204(d) states all wages due must be paid “not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period.” Labor Code section 204b applies to employees paid on a weekly basis and also requires the payment for all labor within the required pay periods. Labor Code section 210 provides “every person who fails to pay the wages of an employee as provided in Section ... 204 ... shall be subject to a civil penalty” of $100 for an initial violation and $200 plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld for a subsequent violation.

Because Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums in each pay period in which such wages were earned at the lawful rate, Defendant violated Labor Code section 204 and/or 204b (for weekly employees, as applicable). Defendant violated Labor Code sections 204 and 204b by failing to pay all wages and premiums owed on the regular pay days scheduled each pay period within seven calendar days of the close of the payroll period, as a result of the policies and practices set forth in this notice.

As explained above, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees all wages owed for regular, overtime, and meal and rest period premiums. Therefore, Defendant failed to pay all wages owed no later than seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in violation of Labor Code section 204(a).

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Untimely Payment of Wages Upon Separation of Employment
Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 256

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 with respect to the aggrieved employees by failing to pay all wages and premiums owed upon termination of employment.

Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer fires an employee, the wages must be paid immediately. Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee quits without providing 72 hours' notice, his or her wages must be paid no later than 72 hours thereafter. Labor Code section 202 states that if an employee provides 72 hours' notice, the final wages are payable upon his or her final day of employment. Labor Code section 203 requires an employer who fails to comply with Labor Code sections 201 or 202 to pay a waiting time penalty for each employee, up to a period of 30 days additional compensation.

Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums owed to aggrieved employees during their employment as set forth in this notice, and also failed to timely pay those amounts to departing employees upon separation of employment. Defendant did not pay waiting time penalties for the late payments. As a result, Defendant violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Non-Compliant Wage Statements Violation of Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 226(a) and 226.3 with respect to the aggrieved employees by failing to furnish itemized wage statements each pay period that accurately list all information required by Labor Code section 226(a)(1) through (9).

Labor Code section 226(a) requires an employer to furnish wage statements to employees semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, "an accurate itemized statement in writing showing:" (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked, (3) the number of piece rate units earned and applicable piece-rate in effect, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period, (7) the name of the employee and last four digits of SSN or an EIN, (8) the name and address of the legal name of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements to the aggrieved employees each pay period as a result of the policies and practices set forth in this notice. Defendant violated Labor Code section 226(a)(1) and (5) by not listing the correct "gross wages earned" or "net wages earned," as the employees earned wages and premiums that were not paid, resulting in an inaccurate reflection, and recording of "gross wages earned" on those wage statements.

Likewise, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(9), Defendant failed to state on employee wage statements each pay period the applicable hourly rates in effect and the number of hours worked at that rate, as Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums owed to employees. The amounts stated are instead depreciated and underpaid, resulting in an inaccurate reflection on the pay stub.

Defendant violated Labor Code section 226(a)(2) by failing to accurately list employees' "total hours worked," as the wage statements did not accurately include the uncompensated time Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees worked due to Defendant's policy and practice of off-the-clock work.

Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees cannot promptly and easily determine from the wage statement alone the wages paid or earned without reference to other documents or information. Indeed, these wage statement violations are significant because they sow confusion among Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with respect to what amounts were owed and paid, at what rates, the number of hours worked, and how those amounts were or should be calculated. The wage statements reflect a false statement of earnings and concealed the underlying problems and underpayments of employee wages.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records
Violation of Labor Code § 1174; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 1174 and the IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate employee payroll records with respect to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 1174 requires that employers maintain accurate "payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments." Section 7(A) of the IWC Wage Orders, which may be enforced through Labor Code section 1198, mandates similar recordkeeping obligations.

Because of the policies and practices set forth in this notice, including the failure to accurately account for wages earned or hours worked, Defendant failed to accurately maintain records in accordance with Labor Code section 1174 and the IWC Wage Orders.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Attorneys' Fees and Costs
Labor Code § 2699(g)

Plaintiff has been compelled to retain the services of counsel to protect the interests of other aggrieved employees and the State of California. Plaintiff continues to incur attorneys' fees and costs, which are recoverable under California law, including Labor Code section 2699(g).

- LITIGATION HOLD NOTICE -

This letter imposes a duty upon all Defendant and their respective employees, officers, directors, executives, attorneys, human resource and payroll personnel, accountants, and other agents to preserve all physical and electronic evidence, including electronically stored information and emails, which relate to the employment of Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees specified in this notice. Evidence includes, but is not limited to, Defendant' written employment and payroll policies and handbooks; the aggrieved employees' personnel files and payroll records, such as paystubs, time records, wage statements, compensation reports, as well as the underlying electronically data in Excel or similar format. Memoranda and internal and external correspondence relating to the subject matter of this notice shall also be maintained. Failure to preserve and retain relevant evidence may constitute spoliation of evidence and result in an adverse inference or sanctions.

If you have any questions regarding the scope of your obligations to preserve evidence, please consult your legal counsel and always err on the side of caution. Periodic or regularly scheduled purges or deletions of information covered by this hold must be suspended immediately.

- CONCLUSION -

If the LWDA does not pursue enforcement, Plaintiff intends to bring representative claims on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees seeking civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders, along with attorneys' fees, costs, interest, and other appropriate relief.

Please advise if the LWDA intends to investigate any of the factual or legal allegations set forth in this notice. Defendant may contact Plaintiff's counsel with any questions regarding this letter or the forthcoming lawsuit.

Sincerely,

Elyssa Martinez
