DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 CLASS ACTION AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

2 Plaintiff HAROLD WESLEY (“Plaintiff” or “WESLEY”), on behalf of himself and all others
3 similarly situated and aggrieved, by and through his attorneys, Abramson Labor Group, hereby files this
4 Class Action and Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) Representative Action Complaint
5 against Defendant GUNDERSON RAIL SERVICES LLC doing business as GREENBRIER RAIL
6 SERVICES, an Oregon Limited Liability Company; and DOES 1 through 25 inclusive, (collectively,
7 “Defendants”), and states as follows:

9 I. INTRODUCTION

10 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action on behalf of himself, on behalf of a
11 class defined as all current and former hourly non-exempt employees of GUNDERSON RAIL
12 SERVICES LLC doing business as GREENBRIER RAIL SERVICES in California at any time during 13 the Class Period beginning four years prior to the filing of this Complaint through the present (“Class
14 Period”), and on behalf of all Aggrieved Persons who worked for Defendants as hourly, non-exempt
15 employees in California at any time during the period beginning one year prior to the PAGA letter
16 (defined below) through the present (“PAGA Period”).

17 2. This is also an enforcement action under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act
18 of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties and any other
19 available relief on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and other current and former employees
20 who work or worked for Defendants in California as non-exempt, hourly employees and who received at 21 least one wage statement during their employment, and against whom one or more violations of any 22 provision in Division 2, Part 2, Chapter 1 of the Labor Code or any provision regulating hours and days
23 of work in the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order were committed, as set
24 forth in this complaint (“Aggrieved Employees”), at any time between one year and 65 days prior to the 25 filing of this amended complaint (i.e., July 24, 2023) until judgment (the “PAGA Period”). Plaintiff’s 26 share of civil penalties sought in this action does not exceed $75,000.

27 3. Defendants own and operate a railcar manufacturing and maintenance business operating 28 in California, with at least one facility, which is located in San Bernardino, California. Defendants’

1 services include manufacturing, maintaining, and repairing rail cars.

2 4. Defendants' policy and practice is to deny earned wages, including premium and overtime
3 pay, to their nonexempt employees in California. Defendants do not provide their employees with legally
4 compliant meal periods and rest breaks nor premium pay in lieu thereof. Additionally, Defendants 5 require their employees to be present and to perform work uncompensated in excess of eight hours per 6 day and/or 40 hours per work week by mandating that these employees perform various forms of 7 compensable work off-the-clock including, but not limited to, regularly returning to work from meal
8 periods early (before 30 minutes elapsed) to resume work while not actually clocking in until the 30-9 minute meal period ended. Likewise, Defendants do not provide minimum wages and overtime pay for 10 this off-the-clock time. These off-the-clock waiting periods exist for the sole benefit of Defendants and 11 occurred frequently and regularly at Defendants' locations throughout California. This illegal practice
12 has been in effect by Defendants since at least the start of the Class Period.

13 5. Moreover, Defendants fail to timely compensate employees for all wages earned upon 14 separation and fail to properly and accurately calculate minimum wages and overtime wages and report
15 wages earned, hours worked, and wage rates. For these reasons, Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of 16 himself and other hourly, nonexempt employees of Defendants to recover unpaid wages, overtime
17 compensation, penalties, interest, injunctive relief, damages, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

18 6. Defendants' deliberate failure to pay their hourly, nonexempt employees their earned
19 wages and overtime compensation violates the California Labor Code and California's Unfair
20 Competition Law, codified under California's Business & Professions Code.

21 7. Defendants fail to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for a variety of unreimbursed 22 business expenses including (1) cell phone data for the use of their personal cells phone required for 23 communication purposes during their shifts and (2) laundry expenses incurred to launder greasy, soiled 24 clothing necessitating separate and extra loads of laundry.

25 8. Plaintiff brings a class action under the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382
26 against all Defendants on behalf of all hourly, nonexempt employees of Defendants in California for 27 failing to provide compliant meal periods and rest breaks or premium pay in lieu thereof, for unpaid 28 minimum wages including for work performed off the clock, unpaid overtime wages, failing to provide

1 timely and accurate wage statements, failing to timely pay all wages owed at separation, failing to 2 reimburse all necessary, business-related expenses, and other related penalties and damages under the 3 California Labor Code and California Business & Professions Code.

4 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 9. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter because Defendants are licensed to do
6 business in California, regularly conduct business in California, and committed and continue to commit
7 the unlawful acts alleged herein in California.

8 10. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
9 Article VI, section 10. The statute under which this action is brought does not specify any other basis 10 for jurisdiction.

11 11. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, on information and belief,
12 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, and intentionally
13 avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the 14 California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice. There is no basis
15 for federal diversity jurisdiction in this action given that the State of California, as the real party in 16 interest in this action, is not a “citizen” for purposes of satisfying diversity jurisdiction. Urbino v. Orkin
17 Servs. of Cal., 726 F.3d 1118, 1123 (9th Cir. Cal. 2013). Urbino also holds that civil penalties cannot 18 be aggregated to satisfy the amount in controversy requirement for federal diversity jurisdiction in this
19 action, and that diversity jurisdiction cannot be established when Plaintiff’s share of the civil penalties
20 attributable to violations personally suffered are less than $75,000. Id. at 1122.

21 12. Venue lies properly with this Court, as it is the place where at least one defendant resides, 22 is incorporated or has its principal place of business, or a substantial amount of the events which gave 23 rise to this suit occurred and/or a cause of action arose. Thus, venue is proper in this Court, because 24 Defendants employ persons in this county and employed at least one plaintiff in this county, and thus a 25 substantial portion of the transactions and occurrences related to this action occurred in this county.

26 13. California Labor Code sections 2698 et seq., the “Labor Code Private Attorneys General
27 Act of 2004” (“PAGA”), authorize aggrieved employees to sue as private attorneys general their current 28 or former employers for various civil penalties for violating the California Labor Code.

III. PARTIES

14. Plaintiff HAROLD WESLEY (“Plaintiff” or “WESLEY”) is or was a resident of Hesperia, California. Defendants employed Plaintiff WESLEY as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee for approximately 2.4 years from September 13, 2021 to February 2, 2024. WESLEY’S first position was Machine Operator B and second position was Machine Operator C. During his employment, Plaintiff WESLEY worked at Defendants’ location in San Bernardino, California located at 1475 Cooley Court, San Bernardino, CA 92407. Plaintiff WESLEY typically worked six days per week for 8 or more hours per day and at least about forty (40) hours per week. At the time Plaintiff WESLEY’S employment ended, he was earning $23.96 per hour.

15. Defendant GUNDERSON RAIL SERVICES LLC doing business as GREENBRIER RAIL SERVICES (“GUNDERSON RAIL”) is, on information and belief, an Oregon Limited Liability Company doing business in California, with its principal place of business in 1 Centerpointe Drive, Suite 200, Lake Oswego, Oregon 97035, and at all times hereinafter mentioned, is an employer whose employees are engaged throughout this county, in the State of California. GUNDERSON RAIL operates two facilities in California—one in Modesto and one in San Bernardino—offering services in the form of maintenance and railcar repair and the sale of railcar components.”¹

16. Defendants created the policies and procedures described herein and, at all times during the Class Period, participated in, endorsed, implemented, and performed the conduct alleged herein.

17. The practices and policies which are complained of by way of this Complaint are enforced throughout the State of California, including in San Bernardino.

18. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of participation in the conduct alleged herein, of the Defendants sued as Does 1-25, inclusive, but is informed and believes that said Defendants are legally responsible for the conduct alleged herein and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the Doe Defendants when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned herein, all Defendants, including Doe

Defendants, and each of them, were agents, servants, employees, successors in interest, and/or joint venturers of their co-Defendants and were, as such, acting within the course, scope, and authority of said agency, employment, and/or venture, and with the consent of their co-Defendants, and/or said acts were ratified by their co-Defendants, and that each and every Defendant, as aforesaid, when acting as a principal, was negligent in the selection and hiring, training, and supervision of each and every other Defendant as an agent, servant, employee, successor in interest, and/or joint venturer. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendant, carried out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to each of the other Defendant.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

19. At all times relevant herein, Defendants own a railcar manufacturing, maintenance, and repair business operating in California as well as nationally.

20. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintain their corporate operations headquarters, including Human Resources in Lake Oswego, Oregon. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintain a single, centralized Human Resources (“HR”) department at their operations headquarters in Lake Oswego, Oregon, which is responsible for conducting Defendants’ recruiting and hiring of new employees, as well as communicating and implementing Defendants’ company-wide policies, including timekeeping policies, to employees throughout California. In particular, Plaintiff and other Class Members, on information and belief, received the same standardized documents and/or written policies upon hire. Upon information and belief, the use of standardized documents and/or written policies, including new hire documents, indicate that Defendants dictated policies at the corporate-level and implemented them company-wide, regardless of their employees’ assigned locations or positions. On information and belief, all transactions regarding hiring, terminations, promotions, and pay increases, etc., relating to Defendants’ California employees were submitted to and processed by Defendants’ HR department in Lake Oswego, Oregon.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendants’ corporate records, business records, data, and other information related to Defendants, including, in particular, HR records pertaining to Defendants’ California employees, are also maintained at Defendants’ operations headquarters in Lake Oswego, Oregon.

22. At all relevant times, Defendants have been, and continue to be, a “person” as that term is defined under California Business & Professions Code section 17021 and California Labor Code sections 1-29.5.

23. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as an hourly, nonexempt employee first in the position of Machine Operator B and second as a Machine Operator C in California during the Class Period.

24. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff and Class Members were assigned to and required and permitted to work without pay while performing tasks including, but not limited to: donning and doffing safety and personal protective equipment; attending morning meetings; pulling mounts off of axels of rail cars; repairing railcar axels; maintaining railcars; and operating a crane to hook up and move axels, clean and grind the axels and clarify the axels. Plaintiff and Class Members were not properly compensated for some of this work.

25. Similarly, Plaintiff and Class Members have been instructed and return to work early from their 30-minute meal periods without clocking back in until the 30 minutes had elapsed even though they resumed work before then, which is all compensable time worked off the clock. Defendants do not compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for this compensable time worked off the clock.

26. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff and Class Members were assigned to and required to work for periods lasting in excess of five hours and were not authorized nor permitted to take full-length 30-minute, uninterrupted, off-duty meal periods. Plaintiff and Class Members were required to perform compensable work during their meal periods while clocked out for their meal periods when they were asked to resume work early before the 30 minute meal period had finished. Defendants instructed Plaintiff and Class Members to only clock back in once their 30-minute meal periods had elapsed, however. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ meal periods were on-duty for which Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members with (1) premium pay for meal periods under 30 minutes and (2) the time worked that was on-duty during these meal periods.

27. Moreover, Plaintiff and Class Members regularly worked in excess of 10 hours without a second 30-minute meal period, despite not signing meal period waivers.

1 28. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff and Class Members were assigned to and required
2 and permitted to work shifts lasting over four hours and were not authorized nor permitted to take full,
3 net 10-minute rest breaks during each shift or 4-hour work period.

4 29. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class
5 Members to take full, net 10-minute rest breaks during the Class Period. At the direction of Defendants
6 and/or Defendants' knowledge and acquiescence, Plaintiff and Class Members routinely missed their 7 entire 10-minute rest breaks. Accordingly, all rest breaks were noncompliant. Consequently,
8 Defendants should have compensated Plaintiff and Class Members with premium pay for noncompliant 9 rest breaks, but failed to do so.

10 30. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff and Class Members worked in excess of eight hours 11 per workday or 40 hours per work week. Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked in excess of 12 eight hours per day, and when compensated for overtime, failed to pay the correct amount of overtime
13 by under-recording and underreporting Plaintiff's and Class Members' total hours worked. Defendants 14 failed to pay current and former hourly, nonexempt employees one and one-half times (1½) their regular 15 rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight hours per day or 40 hours per workweek. Defendants
16 also failed to pay their employees at a rate no less than twice the regular rate of pay for work in excess
17 of 12 hours in one day or for all hours worked in excess of eight hours on the seventh consecutive day 18 of work in a workweek.

19 31. During the Class Period, Defendants require their hourly, nonexempt employees to 20 perform compensable work while off the clock, including performing compensable work during their 21 meal periods. Accordingly, during the Class Period, Defendants did not provide minimum wages and 22 overtime pay for this time worked off-the-clock that Plaintiff and the Class endured.

23 32. Defendants regularly failed to pay their hourly, nonexempt employees the correct amount
24 of and rate for overtime wages. Defendants fail to record all hours as overtime by failing to record all 25 hours worked in a workday. This work, done primarily for the employer's benefit, is time that hourly,
26 nonexempt employees should be, but were not compensated for, both straight hours and overtime hours
27 worked in excess of 40 hours in a week, hours worked in excess of eight hours in a day, and for the first 28 eight hours worked on the seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek.

1 33. Supervisors employed by Defendants, including Plaintiff's location, had knowledge of 2 and required Plaintiff to perform compensable work during meal periods. Supervisors throughout 3 California were aware that Plaintiff and others similarly situated were performing work during these 4 times without proper wages or overtime compensation.

5 34. In light of Defendants' failure to record employees' off-the-clock time that employees
6 worked and Defendants' failure to acknowledge the noncompliant meal periods and rest breaks,
7 Defendants failed to properly calculate the hourly, nonexempt employees' hours and therefore,
8 employees' premium pay, minimum wages, and overtime wages due. Accordingly, Defendants failed 9 to provide accurate wage statements to their hourly, nonexempt employees identifying all hours worked 10 and all rates in effect during the pay period.

11 35. At all times relevant herein, the same unlawful practices and procedures described above
12 affect hourly, nonexempt workers of Defendants employed in California.

13 36. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for all 14 hours worked. Thus, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Class Members minimum wages in 15 accordance with law and, because Class Members were not compensated for time worked during meal
16 periods, for shifts worked over eight hours in duration, Defendants also did not pay nonexempt 17 employees all overtime wages in accordance with law.

18 37. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members
19 for (1) cell phone data for the use of their personal cells phone required for communication purposes
20 during their shifts and (2) laundry expenses incurred to launder greasy, soiled clothing necessitating 21 separate and extra loads of laundry.

22 38. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has caused Plaintiff and Class Members damages
23 including, but not limited to, loss of wages and compensation. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the 24 Class for failing to pay minimum wages, failing to pay overtime wages, failing to pay all wages owed
25 every pay period, failing to provide timely and accurate wage statements, failing to pay all wages owed 26 upon separation, and unfair competition.

27 39. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in California Labor
28 Code section 2699.3. By letter dated July 24, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice by certified mail to the

1 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), and Defendants, of the specific provisions of 2 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged 3 violations.

4 V. CLASS ACTION AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5 40. Plaintiff is a member of and seeks to be the representative for the Class of similarly 6 situated employees who all have been exposed to, have suffered, and/or were permitted to work under 7 Defendants’ unlawful employment practices as alleged herein.

8 41. Plaintiff brings his first through eighth causes of action on behalf of himself and on behalf
9 of the following Class² of persons:

10 All current and former hourly non-exempt employees of GUNDERSON
11 RAIL SERVICES LLC doing business as GREENBRIER RAIL 12 SERVICES in California at any time during the Class Period through the present.

13 42. This action is appropriately suited for a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
14 section 382 because there exists an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous Class, a well-defined
15 community of interest, and substantial benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class 16 superior to the alternatives.

17 43. Numerosity and Ascertainability. The size of the Class makes a class action both 18 necessary and efficient. On information and belief, the proposed Class includes hundreds of current and 19 former employees at Defendants’ locations in California. Members of the Class are ascertainable through 20 Defendants’ records but are so numerous that joinder of all individual Class Members would be 21 impractical.

22 44. Predominant Common Questions of Law and Fact. Pursuant to section 382, common 23 questions of law and fact exist as to all Class Members. These questions predominate over any 24 individualized issues. These common questions include but are not limited to:

25 a. Whether Defendants’ policies and practices described in this Complaint were and are illegal;
26

27
28 ² Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rules of Court, Rule 3.765, to amend or modify the Class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

- 1 b. Whether Plaintiff and each member of the Class were not paid minimum wage for each hour
2 worked or part thereof during which they were required to perform acts at the direction and 3 for the benefit of Defendants;
- 4 c. Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the 5 members of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in California for the total
6 hours worked during the Class Period;
- 7 d. Whether Defendants have engaged in a common course of requiring or permitting their 8 hourly, nonexempt employees to not report all hours worked during the Class Period;
- 9 e. Whether Defendants have engaged in a common course of failing to maintain true and 10 accurate time records for all hours worked by their nonexempt employees;
- 11 f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code section 226.7 and/or section 512 and engaged in a 12 pattern or practice of failing to provide timely, off-duty, 30-minute meal periods to Plaintiff
13 and members of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in California during 14 the Class Period;
- 15 g. Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of impeding Plaintiff and the members
16 of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in California during the Class
17 Period from taking full-length off-duty, 30-minute meal periods by imposing unreasonable
18 time windows/work schedules that required drivers to forgo meal periods to get to their next 19 jobs on time;
- 20 h. Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of impeding Plaintiff and the members
21 of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in California during the Class
22 Period from taking full-length off-duty, 30-minute meal periods for their second meal periods
23 for shifts worked in excess of 10 hours but not more than 12 hours, where these second meal 24 periods were not waived by mutual consent;
- 25 i. Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of failing to properly compensate 26 Plaintiff and the members of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in 27 California during the Class Period for missed, untimely, or on-duty meal periods as required
28 by California law;

- j. Whether Defendants violated section 11 of the applicable California Industrial Welfare Commission's ("IWC") Wage Order(s) by failing to provide Plaintiff and the members of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in California during the Class Period with timely, off-duty, 30-minute meal periods;
- k. Whether Defendants engaged in an unfair practice and violated California Business and Professions Code, section 17200, et seq. by failing to provide Plaintiff and the members of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in California during the Class Period with their statutory, off-duty, meal periods;
- l. Whether Defendants maintained accurate time records of off-duty, 30-minute meal periods taken by Plaintiff and members of the Class during the Class Period in accordance with section 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s);
- m. Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of failing to properly compensate Plaintiff and the members of the Class who worked as hourly, nonexempt employees in California during the Class Period for failing to provide full-length 10-minute rest breaks as contemplated by California law for work periods in excess of four hours;
- n. Whether Defendants failed to compensate, and therefore violated section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) and Labor Code section 226.7 by failing to provide 10-minute, uninterrupted rest breaks as contemplated by California law for work periods in excess of four hours;
- o. Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of failing to pay appropriate amounts of overtime pay to Plaintiff and the Class for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a day;
- p. Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of failing to pay appropriate amounts of double time for hours worked in excess of 12 hours in a day;
- q. Whether Defendants violated section 510 of the Labor Code and/or section 3 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) by failing to pay overtime pay to Plaintiff and the Class for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a day;
- r. Whether Defendants violated section 510 of the Labor Code and/or section 3 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) by failing to pay overtime pay to Plaintiff and the Class for the first eight

- 1 hours worked in a day on the seventh consecutive day in a workweek and double time for all 2 hours worked in excess of eight hours on such days;
- 3 s. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code sections 218.5, 204, 1197, and 1198 due to failure
4 to compensate Plaintiff and the Class for those acts Defendants required Plaintiff and 5 members of the Class to perform for the benefit of Defendants;
- 6 t. Whether Defendants violated California Labor Code section 2802 by failing to reimburse 7 Plaintiff and Class Members for all necessary business-related expenses they incurred;
- 8 u. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code section 226(a) by issuing inaccurate wage
9 statements to Plaintiff and members of the Class that failed to include payments for missed,
10 untimely, and/or on-duty meal periods among wages earned throughout the Class Period;
- 11 v. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code section 226 by issuing inaccurate wage statements 12 to Plaintiff and members of the Class that failed to accurately state the total hours worked and 13 therefore, the total gross and net wages owed, to the detriment of Plaintiff and the Class;
- 14 w. Whether Defendants have engaged in a common course of failing to pay nonexempt 15 employees all wages due upon termination;
- 16 x. Whether Defendants have engaged in unfair competition by the above-listed conduct; and 17 y. The nature and extent of class-wide injury and the measure of damages for the injury.

18 45. Typicality. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the members of the Class. Plaintiff, like other 19 members of the Class working for Defendants in California, was subjected to Defendants' policy and 20 practice of refusing to properly and fully pay overtime in violation of California wage and hour laws.
21 Plaintiff's job duties were and are typical of those of other class members who worked for Defendants in 22 California.

23 46. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent the interests of 24 the Class because his individual interests are consistent with and not antagonistic to the interests of the 25 Class, and because Plaintiff has selected counsel who has the requisite resources and ability to prosecute
26 this case as a class action and are experienced labor and employment attorneys who have successfully 27 litigated other cases involving similar issues.

47. Superiority of Class Mechanism. The class action mechanism is superior to any alternatives that might exist for the fair and efficient adjudication of these claims. Proceeding as a class action would permit the large number of injured parties to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without unnecessary duplication of evidence, effort and judicial resources. A class action is the only practical way to avoid the potentially inconsistent results that numerous individual trials are likely to generate. Moreover, class treatment is the only realistic means by which Plaintiff can effectively litigate against a large, well-represented corporate defendant like Defendants. In the absence of a class action, Defendants would be unjustly enriched because they would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of the many wrongful violations of the California state laws. Numerous repetitive individual actions would also place an enormous burden on the courts as they are forced to take duplicative evidence and decide the same issues relating to Defendants' conduct over and over again.

VI. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 512 and 226.7; IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, § 11

48. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

49. California Labor Code section 226.7(a) provides, “No employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.”

50. IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001 (11)(A) provides, in pertinent part: “No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee.”

51. Section 512(k) of the California Labor Code provides, in pertinent part, that: “An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period

1 per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 2 both the employer and employee. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more
3 than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30
4 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be 5 waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.”

6 52. Defendants also did not schedule second meal periods and had no policy for permitting
7 and authorizing Plaintiff and other employees to take second 30-minute meal periods on days they 8 worked in excess of 10 hours in one day. For example, during his employment, Plaintiff regularly worked 9 over 10 hours in a day but did not receive a second complaint meal period on those days, nor did he 10 consent to waiving them. Because of Defendants’ companywide practice of denying hourly, nonexempt
11 employees second 30-minute meal periods, Plaintiff and other Class Members were not relieved of all 12 duties such that they could take full-length second 30-minute meal periods and instead had to work during 13 a portion of that time allotted for meal periods. Accordingly, Defendants failed to provide all meal 14 periods in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512. Defendants knew or should have 15 known that their companywide adoption of the requirement that employees skip their meal period without 16 executing waivers to do so would result in a failure to provide Plaintiff and other Class Members with 17 full and timely meal periods as required by the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) and Labor Code sections
18 226.7 and 512(a). Furthermore, Plaintiff and other Class Members did not sign valid meal period waivers 19 on days that they were entitled to meal periods but were not relieved of all duties.

20 53. Moreover, Defendants engaged in a systematic, companywide policy to not pay meal
21 period premiums. Alternatively, to the extent that Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other Class Members
22 one additional hour of premium pay for missed meal periods, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and other
23 Class Members at the correct rate of pay for premium wages because Defendants failed to include all 24 forms of compensation, such as commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, in the 25 regular rate of pay. As a result, to the extent Defendants paid Plaintiff and other Class Members premium
26 pay for missed meal periods, it did so at a lower rate than required by law. As a result, Defendants failed
27 to provide Plaintiff and other Class Members compliant meal periods and failed to pay the full meal
28 period premiums due, in accordance with California Labor Code sections 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

1 54. By their actions in requiring their employees to work during a portion of their meal periods
2 and/or their failure to relieve nonexempt, hourly, nonexempt employees of their duties for their off-duty
3 meal periods, Defendants have violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and section 11 of IWC
4 Wage Order No. 9-2001 and is liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

5 55. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived
6 of timely off-duty meal periods and are entitled to recovery under Labor Code section 226.7(b) and 7 section 11 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, in the amount of one additional hour of pay at the employee's
8 regular rate of pay for each work period during each day in which Defendants failed to provide their 9 hourly, nonexempt employees with timely, statutory, off-duty meal periods.

10 VII. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

11 Failure to Provide Rest Breaks

12 in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 1194;

13 IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, § 12

14 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the Class Against All Defendants)

15 56. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint
16 as if fully set forth herein.

17 57. California Labor Code section 226.7(a) provides, "No employer shall require any 18 employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial 19 Welfare Commission."

20 58. IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, section (12)(A) provides, in pertinent part: "Every 21 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall 22 be in the middle of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours 23 worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof.
24 However, a rest period need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work times is less than 25 three and one-half (3½) hours. Authorized rest period time shall be counted as hours worked for which 26 there shall be no deduction from wages."

27 59. IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, section (12)(B) provides, "If an employer fails to provide 28 an employee with a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer

1 shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each
2 workday that the rest period is not provided."

3 60. As alleged herein, Defendants failed to authorize and permit compliant rest breaks during 4 the Class Period. Plaintiff and members of the Class were routinely required to work during their entire 5 rest breaks at the direction of Defendants and/or with Defendants' knowledge and acquiescence.

6 61. Furthermore, as with meal periods, Defendants' staffing and job-assignment policies
7 required employees to forgo their 10-minute rest breaks, entirely preventing Plaintiff and Class Members
8 from being relieved of all duty in order to take compliant rest breaks; these practices forced Plaintiff and 9 other Class Members to remain on duty for part of their rest breaks. As a result, Plaintiff and Class
10 Members would work shifts in excess of 3.5 hours without the net 10-minute rest breaks to which they 11 were entitled. More specifically, throughout his employment, during 8-hour or longer shifts, Plaintiff
12 and Class Members regularly worked during the entirety of their 10-minute rest breaks by using that time 13 to continue performing services for customers.

14 62. At the same time, Defendants implemented a companywide policy to not pay rest break
15 premiums. Alternatively, to the extent that Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other Class Members one
16 additional hour of premium pay for missed rest breaks, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and other Class
17 Members at the correct rate of pay for premium wages because Defendants failed to include all forms of 18 compensation, such as commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, in the regular rate 19 of pay. As a result, to the extent Defendants paid Plaintiff and other Class Members premium pay for 20 missed rest breaks, it did so at a lower rate than required by law. As a result, Plaintiff and other Class
21 Members were denied compliant rest breaks and Defendants failed to pay the full rest break premiums
22 due, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s).

23 63. Defendants' unlawful conduct alleged herein occurred in the course of employment of 24 Plaintiff and all others similarly situated and such conduct has continued through the filing of the initial 25 Complaint.

26 64. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful action, Plaintiff and the Class 27 have been deprived of full-length 10-minute rest breaks and/or were not paid for rest breaks taken during 28 the Class Period and are entitled to recovery under Labor Code section 226.7(b) in the amount of one

1 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work period during each
2 day in which Defendants failed to provide employees with compliant and/or paid rest breaks.

3 VIII. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

4 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

5 Upon Payment of Wages in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2,

6 and 1197; IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, § 4

7 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the Class Against All Defendants)

8 65. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint
9 as if fully set forth herein.

10 66. Labor Code section 510 provides in relevant part: "[e]ight hours of labor constitutes a 11 day's work. Any work in excess of eight hours in one work day and any work in excess of 40 hours in 12 any one workweek and the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek 13 shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an 14 employee. Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than 15 twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any 16 seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 17 of an employee."

18 67. Labor Code section 1197 provides: "The minimum wage for employees fixed by the 19 commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the 20 minimum so fixed is unlawful."

21 68. Labor Code section 1182.12 establishes the right of employees to be paid minimum wages 22 for all hours worked in amounts set by state law.

23 69. Labor Code section 1194, subdivision (a) provides: "Notwithstanding any agreement to 24 work for a lesser wage, an employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime 25 compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the 26 full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable 27 attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

28 70. Labor Code section 1194.2 provides in pertinent part: "In any action under Section 1193.6

1 or Section 1194 to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the minimum wage fixed
2 by an order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount
3 equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.”

4 71. Pursuant to IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, section (2)(H), at all times material hereto,
5 “hours worked” includes “the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer,
6 and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do
7 so.”

8 72. At all times relevant during the liability period, under the provisions of IWC Wage Order
9 No. 9-2001, Plaintiff and each Class Member should have received not less than the minimum wage in a 10 sum according to proof for the time worked, but not compensated.

11 73. For all hours that Plaintiff and Class Members worked, they are entitled to not less than 12 the California minimum wage and, pursuant to Labor Code section 1194.2(a) liquidated damages in an 13 amount equal to the unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

14 74. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and Class Members are also entitled to 15 their attorneys’ fees, costs, and interest according to proof.

16 75. At all times relevant during the liability period, Defendants willfully failed and refused, 17 and continue to willfully fail and refuse, to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the amounts owed.

18 76. As described above, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class Members to work
19 during their meal periods while clocked out and instructed Plaintiff and other Class Members to clock
20 back in only once their 30-minute meal periods had elapsed. Also, Defendants did not pay at least 21 minimum wages for off-the-clock hours that qualified for overtime premium payment. Also, to the extent
22 that these off-the-clock hours did not qualify for overtime premium pay, Defendants did not pay at least 23 minimum wages for those hours worked off-the-clock.

24 77. Defendants’ unlawful conduct alleged herein occurred in the course of employment of 25 Plaintiff and all other similarly situated nonexempt, hourly, nonexempt employees, and Defendants have 26 done so continuously throughout the filing of this complaint.

27 78. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ violation of Labor Code sections 510 and 28 1197, Plaintiff and other Class Members have suffered irreparable harm and money damages entitling

1 them to damages, injunctive relief or restitution. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and on behalf of the Class,
2 seeks damages and all other relief allowable including all wages due while working as Defendants' 3 hourly, nonexempt employees, attorneys' fees, liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, and as to those 4 employees no longer employed by Defendants, waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 5 200, et seq.

6 79. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to the unpaid amount of minimum wages, pre-
7 judgment interest, liquidated damages, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs according to Labor
8 Code sections 204, 558, 1194 et seq., 1197, 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure 1021.5.

9 IX. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

11 in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, § 3

12 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the Class Against All Defendants)

13 80. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint
14 as if fully set forth herein.

15 81. Pursuant to section 3 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001; California Code of Regulations, 16 Title 8, Chapter 5, section 11040, section 12; and Labor Code sections 200, 204, 226, 500, 510, 512,
17 1194, and 1198, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff and members of the Class for all 18 overtime hours worked, which is calculated at one and one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for 19 hours worked in excess of eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per week, and for the first eight hours on 20 the seventh consecutive work day, with double time after eight hours on the seventh day of any work 21 week, or after 12 hours in any work day.

22 82. Plaintiff and members of the Class were and are nonexempt employees entitled to the 23 protections of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001; California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11040, 24 section 12; and Labor Code sections 200, 226, 500, 510, 512, 1194, and 1198. In addition, during the 25 Class Period, Plaintiff and other members of the Class consistently worked five days per week for shifts
26 of eight hours or more. During the course of Plaintiff's employment, and during the course of the 27 employment of the members of the Class, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Class for 28 overtime hours worked as required under the aforementioned Labor Codes and Regulations.

1 83. Under the aforementioned Wage Orders, statutes, and regulations, Plaintiff and members
2 of the Class are entitled to one and one-half (1½) times and/or double their regular rate of pay for overtime
3 work performed during the four years preceding the filing of this Complaint, based on appropriate 4 calculations of the “total remuneration” for each workweek.

5 84. In violation of state law, Defendants have knowingly and willfully refused to perform
6 their obligations to compensate Plaintiff and the Class for all wages earned and all hours worked. As a
7 direct result, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered, and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the 8 use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages, and expenses and attorneys’ fees in seeking 9 to compel Defendants to fully perform their obligations under state law, all to their respective damage in 10 amounts according to proof at time of trial, but in amounts in excess of the minimum jurisdiction of this 11 Court.

12 85. Defendants committed the acts alleged herein knowingly and willfully, with the wrongful
13 and deliberate intention of injuring Plaintiff and the Class, from improper motives amounting to malice, 14 and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff’s rights and the rights of the Class. Plaintiff and the Class are thus 15 entitled to recover nominal, actual, compensatory, punitive, and exemplary damages in amounts 16 according to proof a time of trial, but in amounts in excess of the minimum jurisdiction of this Court.

17 86. Defendants’ conduct described herein violates IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001; California
18 Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11040, section 12; and Labor Code sections 200, 226, 500, 510, 19 512, and 1198. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code sections 200, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 512, 558, and 20 1194, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of overtime compensation
21 Defendants owes Plaintiff and the Class, plus interest, penalties, attorneys’ fees, expenses, and costs of 22 suit.

23 X. FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 Failure to Furnish Timely and Accurate Wage Statements

25 Upon Payment of Wages in Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 227.3

26 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the Class Against All Defendants)

27 87. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint
28 as if fully set forth herein.

1 88. Labor Code section 226(a) sets forth reporting requirements for employers when they pay
2 wages, as follows: “Every employer shall . . . at the time of each payment of wages, furnish his or his 3 employees . . . an itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked 4 by the employee . . . (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 5 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis” Section (e) provides: “An employee suffering injury as a
6 result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) shall be entitled 7 to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a
8 violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay 9 period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and shall be entitled to an 10 award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.”

11 89. Defendants failed to accurately record the overtime hours worked by Plaintiff and Class 12 Members.

13 90. Additionally, Defendants failed to accurately record all rates of pay in effect during the 14 pay period.

15 91. Plaintiff and Class Members were damaged by these failures because, among other things, 16 the failures hindered Plaintiff and the Class from determining the amounts of wages actually owed to 17 them.

18 92. Plaintiff and Class Members request recovery of Labor Code section 226(e) penalties
19 according to proof, as well as interest, attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), 20 in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

21 XI. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 Failure to Pay All Wages Owed Upon Separation

23 in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 201–203

24 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the Class Against All Defendants)

25 93. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint
26 as if fully set forth herein.

27 94. Labor Code section 201 provides, in relevant part, “[I]f an employer discharges an 28 employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.”

1 95. Labor Code section 202 provides, in relevant part, “[I]f an employee not having a written 2 contract for a definite period quits his or his employment, his or his wages shall become due and payable 3 not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or his 4 intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or his wages at the time of quitting.”

5 96. Section 203 of the California Labor Code provides that if an employer willfully fails to 6 pay compensation promptly upon discharge or resignation, as required by sections 201 and 202, then the 7 employer is liable for penalties in the form of continued compensation up to 30 workdays.

8 97. At all times relevant during the liability period, Plaintiff and the other members of the 9 Class were employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 203. Pursuant to Labor Code
10 section 201, upon Plaintiff’s and the Class Members’ separation dates, Defendants were required to pay
11 Plaintiff and the Class Members all wages earned.

12 98. At the time of Plaintiff’s and the Class Members’ respective separation dates, Plaintiff and 13 Class Members had unpaid wages. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other members of the 14 Class who are no longer employed by Defendants for their uncompensated hours, uncompensated 15 overtime, and missed, untimely, or on-duty meal periods and rest breaks upon their termination or 16 separation from employment with Defendants as required by California Labor Code sections 201 and 17 202. Thus, in violation of Labor Code section 201, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
18 Members the full amount of wages due and owing them, in amounts to be proven at the time of trial, but 19 in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of this Court.

20 99. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the Class respective wages due and owed to them
21 was willful, and done with the wrongful and deliberate intention of injuring Plaintiff and the Class
22 Members and in conscious disregard of their rights.

23 100. Defendants’ willful failure to pay former employee Plaintiff and the Class all of the wages
24 due and owing them constitutes violations of Labor Code sections 201 and 203, which provide that an 25 employee’s wages will continue as a penalty up to 30 days from the time the wages were due. Therefore,
26 former employee Plaintiff and the Class Members are each entitled to penalties pursuant to Labor Code 27 section 203.

(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the Class Against All Defendants)

101. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

102. California Labor Code section 2802 provides that “An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.”

103. During the applicable statutory period, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their employment duties and their obedience to the directions of Defendants, Defendants did not reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for these expenditures or losses. Such expenses include, but are not limited to, expenses for (1) cell phone service, which was required to do their job and (2) laundry expenses incurred to launder greasy, soiled clothing necessitating separate and extra loads of laundry.

104. Defendants have failed to fully reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary business-related expenses and losses.

105. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover their necessary unreimbursed business-related expenses and losses incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California, pursuant to California Labor Code section 2802.

Violations of California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”), California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, *et seq.

(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the Class Against All Defendants)

106. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint

as if fully set forth herein.

107. Section 17200 of the California Business and Professions Code (the “UCL”) prohibits any unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business practices.

108. Through their actions alleged herein, Defendants have engaged in unfair competition within the meaning of the UCL. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, constitutes unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent business practices under the UCL.

109. Defendants’ unlawful conduct under the UCL includes, but is not limited to, violating the statutes alleged herein. Defendants’ unfair conduct under the UCL includes, but is not limited to, failure to pay Class Members wages and compensation they earned through labor provided, and failing to otherwise compensate Class Members, as alleged herein. Defendants’ fraudulent conduct includes, but is not limited to, issuing wage statements containing false and/or misleading information about the time the Class Members worked and the amount of wages or compensation due.

110. Defendants’ violations of California wage and hour laws and illegal payroll practices or payment policies constitute a business practice because they were done repeatedly over a significant period of time, and in a systematic manner to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

111. Plaintiff has standing to assert this claim because he has suffered injury in fact and has lost money as a result of Defendants’ conduct.

112. For the four years preceding the filing of this action, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages and request restitutionary disgorgement of all monies and profits to be disgorged from Defendants in an amount according to proof at the time of trial and an injunction prohibiting them from engaging in the unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent conduct alleged herein.

XIV. NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

For Civil Penalties Pursuant to California’s Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), §§ 2698, et seq., for Violations of California Labor Code Sections (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Himself and the General Public Against All Defendants)

113. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

114. PAGA provides that any provision of law under the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage

1 Order(s) that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by California's Labor and 2 Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") for violations of the California Labor Code and applicable
3 IWC Wage Order(s) may, as an alternative, be recovered by aggrieved employees in a civil action brought 4 on behalf of themselves and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in 5 California Labor Code section 2699.3.

6 115. PAGA defines an "aggrieved employee" in Labor Code section 2699(c) as "any person 7 who was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was 8 committed."

9 116. Plaintiff and other current and former employees of Defendants are "aggrieved 10 employees" as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all Defendants' current or former 11 employees and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

12 117. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, aggrieved employees, including 13 Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA, alleging violations of any provision listed in 14 section 2699.5, after the following requirements have been met:

- 15 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice ("Employee's Notice") by online filing
16 to the LWDA and by certified mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the 17 California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 18 support the alleged violations;
- 19 b. The Employee's Notice filed with the LWDA is accompanied by a $75 filing fee; and
- 20 c. The LWDA shall provide notice ("LWDA Notice") to the employer and the aggrieved 21 employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within 22 60 calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice. Upon receipt of the 23 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within 65 calendar days of the 24 postmark date of the Employee's Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil 25 action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in 26 addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

27 118. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3(c), aggrieved employees, including 28 Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA for violations of any provision other than those

1 listed in section 2699.5 after the following requirements have been met:

- 2 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online filing (“Employee’s Notice”)
- 3 to the LWDA and by certified mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the
- 4 California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to
- 5 support the alleged violations;
- 6 b. The Employee’s Notice filed with the LWDA is accompanied by a $75 filing fee; and
- 7 c. The employer may cure the alleged violation within 33 calendar days of the postmark date
- 8 of the Employee’s Notice. The employer shall give written notice by certified mail within
- 9 that period of time to the aggrieved employee or representative and the agency if the
- 10 alleged violation is cured, including a description of actions taken, and no civil action
- 11 pursuant to Section 2699 may commence. If the alleged violation is not cured within the
- 12 33-day period, the employee may commence a civil action pursuant to Section 2699.

13 119. On July 24, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice by online filing to the LWDA and by 14 certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been 15 violated, including facts and theories to support the alleged violations, in accordance with California
16 Labor Code section 2699.3. Plaintiff’s notice to the LWDA was accompanied by the $75 filing fee. A
17 true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s written notice to the LWDA, ON TIME HEATING & AIR
18 CONDITIONING LLC dba GUNDERSON RAIL dated July 24, 2024 is attached hereto as “Exhibit 1.”

19 120. As of the filing date of the initial complaint, over 65 days have passed since Plaintiff sent 20 the LWDA Notice described above, and the LWDA has not responded that it intends to investigate
21 Plaintiff’s claims. Defendants have not given notice that it has cured the alleged violations set forth in 22 this Complaint. Thus, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code
23 section 2699.3(a) and (c) to recover civil penalties against all defendants, in addition to other remedies,
24 for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 25 1182.12, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802.

26 121. Labor Code section 558(a) provides that “[a]ny employer or other person acting on behalf 27 of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating
28 hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil

1 penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each
2 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid
3 wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for 4 each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover
5 underpaid wages.” Labor Code section 558(c) provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in this 6 section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law.”

7 122. Defendants, at all times relevant herein, were employers or persons acting on behalf of an 8 employer(s) who violated Plaintiff’s and other non-party aggrieved employees’ rights by violating 9 various sections of the California Labor Code as set forth above.

10 123. As set forth below, Defendants have violated numerous provisions of both the Labor Code
11 sections regulating hours and days of work as well as the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), including:

- 12 a. Violations of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a), 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage 13 Order(s) for Defendants’ failure to provide Plaintiff and other Class Members with 14 compliant meal periods and/or rest breaks, as set forth above;
- 15 b. Violations of Labor Code sections 1182.12, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and the applicable
16 IWC Wage Order(s) for Defendants’ failure to compensate Plaintiff and other Class
17 Members with at least minimum wages for all hours worked as set forth above;
- 18 c. Violations of Labor Code sections 510, 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) for 19 Defendants’ failure to compensate Plaintiff and other Class Members with overtime wages 20 for all hours worked in excess of eight in one day or 40 in one week and double time for 21 all hours worked in excess of 12 hours, as set forth above;
- 22 d. Violations of Labor Code sections 226(a), 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s)
23 for failure to provide accurate and complete wage statements to Plaintiff and other Class
24 Members as set forth above;
- 25 e. Violations of Labor Code sections 1174(d), 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s)
26 for failure to maintain payroll records. California Labor Code section 1198 provides that 27 the maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor shall be those fixed by 28 the Labor Commissioner and as set forth in the applicable IWC Wage Order(s). Section

1 1198 further provides that “[t]he employment of any employees for longer hours than 2 those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”
3 Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), employers are required to keep accurate
4 time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period and meal
5 period. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed, on a companywide basis, to 6 keep records of meal period start and stop times for Plaintiff and other non-party aggrieved
7 employees in violation of section 1198. California Labor Code section 1174(d) provides 8 that “[e]very person employing labor in this state shall . . . [k]eep a record showing the 9 names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors” and “[k]eep, 10 at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are 11 employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and 12 the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees
13 employed at the respective plants or establishments” During the relevant time period, 14 and in violation of Labor Code section 1174(d), Defendants willfully failed to maintain 15 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and other non-party aggrieved employees showing 16 the daily hours they actually worked and the wages paid thereto as a result of failing to 17 record the off-the-clock hours that they worked;

- 18 f. Violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 for failure to pay all earned wages 19 upon termination as set forth above;
- 20 g. Violations of Labor Code section 204 for failure to pay all earned wages during 21 employment as set forth above;
- 22 h. Violations of Labor Code section 2802 for failure to reimburse employees for all 23 necessary, business-related expenses incurred during employment as set forth above;
- 24 i. Plaintiff and other non-party aggrieved employees are therefore entitled to recover
25 penalties, attorneys’ fees, costs, and interest thereupon, pursuant to Labor Code section 26 2699(f)-(g); and
- 27 j. Any and all additional applicable civil penalties and sums as provided by the California
28 Labor Code and/or other relevant statutes.

1 124. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), 2699.3, 2699.5, and section 558,
2 Plaintiff, acting in the public interest as a private attorney general, seeks assessment and collection of 3 civil penalties for himself, all other non-party aggrieved employees, and the State of California Against 4 All Defendants, in addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 5 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1182.12, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802.

6 125. In addition, Plaintiff seeks and is entitled to sixty-five percent (65%) of all penalties
7 obtained under California Labor Code section 2699 to be allocated to the LWDA, for education of 8 employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under the California Labor Code, and 9 thirty-five percent (35%) to all aggrieved employees.

10 126. Further, Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 11 California Labor Code sections 2699(g)(1), 218.5, 1194(a) and any other applicable statute.

12 XV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

13 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated and also on behalf
14 of the general public, respectfully requests that this Court find against all defendants as follows:

22 five hours when they did not receive an uninterrupted 30-minute meal period;

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA LABOR
CODE SECTION 2698, ET SEQ.

To: The California Labor and Workforce Development Agency; Gunderson Rail Services,
LLC dba Greenbrier Rail Services

From: Harold Wesley, on behalf of himself and all other current and former hourly nonexempt employees for violations of the California Labor Code

To Whom It May Concern:

Abramson Labor Group has been retained by former employee Harold Wesley ("Mr. Wesley") to seek compensation and all other available relief, including civil penalties on his behalf and on the behalf of all those similarly aggrieved (collectively with Mr. Wesley, "Claimants") who have been injured by Gunderson Rail Services, LLC dba Greenbrier Rail Services ("Gunderson Rail") violations of the California Labor Code. Mr. Wesley, on behalf of himself and all other similarly aggrieved current and former hourly nonexempt employees of Gunderson Rail, intends to seek civil penalties, attorneys' fees, costs, and other available relief for violations of the California Labor Code, which are recoverable under sections 2698, et seq. of the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA").

Factual Statement:

Gunderson Rail offers railroad related services in California, including maintenance and repair services of rail cars.

Claimant Mr. Wesley worked for Gunderson Rail from approximately September 13, 2021 to July 26, 2023 as an hourly, nonexempt employee in the positions of Machine Operator C and Machine Operator B, earning $23.96 per hour at the time of his separation. Mr. Wesley, on behalf of himself and all other similarly aggrieved current and former employees in California in various positions, are or were generally engaged in maintaining and repairing rail cars, including repairing their axels. As part of their employment with Gunderson Rail, Claimant and other hourly, nonexempt employees, collectively, “hourly nonexempt employees,” are or were assigned to and required to suffer and permitted to work without pay, while performing tasks collectively including, but not limited to, donning and doffing safety and personal protective equipment; attending morning meetings; pulling mounts off of axels of rail cars; repairing railcar axels; maintaining railcars; and operating a crane to hook up and move axels, clean and grind the axels and clarify the axels.

Claimant Mr. Wesley regularly worked six (6) days per week for 8 hours or more hours per day. During the entire course of his employment, Gunderson Rail failed to provide Mr. Wesley and continues to fail to provide those similarly aggrieved with some overtime pay and compliant meal periods and rest breaks. Gunderson Rail has also failed to pay minimum wages to Mr. Wesley and other hourly, nonexempt employees in violation of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1182.12, and section 4 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001. As a consequence, Gunderson Rail has failed to comply with Labor Code sections 226.7, 510, and 512, and sections 3, 11, and 12 of all applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, including but not limited to, IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001. In violation of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1182.12, Gunderson Rail has failed to compensate Claimants at a rate of one and one-half (1.5) times their regular rate for all hours worked over eight (8) hours per workday and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of a workweek and at two (2) times their regular rate for hours worked over twelve (12) hours per workday and eight (8) hours on the seventh day of a workweek.

Gunderson Rail has also failed and continues to fail to pay all wages owed every pay period in violation of Labor Code section 204. Likewise, Gunderson Rail has failed and continues to fail to provide timely, accurate wage statements to Mr. Wesley and other aggrieved persons in violation of Labor Code section 226(a). With regard to those no longer employed by Gunderson Rail, Gunderson Rail violated Labor Code section 203 by failing to pay all wages due upon separation. Gunderson Rail has failed and continues to fail to fully reimburse Claimants for all necessary, business-related expenses and losses they incurred, including, but not limited to, all costs for cell phone data and uniforms, in violation of Labor Code section 2802. Mr. Wesley is informed and believes that such violations are ongoing, systematic, and continuous. Mr. Wesley intends to bring an action against Gunderson Rail under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) to recover wages and penalties as provided by California law.¹

¹ Without limitation, Mr. Wesley, if permitted, will seek any and all penalties otherwise capable of being collected by the Commission. This includes each provision as set forth in Labor Code section 2699.5 as follows:

The provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 2699.3 apply to any alleged violation of the following provisions: subdivision (k) of Section 96, Sections 98.6, 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.1, 203.5, 204, 204a, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, 206, 206.5, 208, 209, and 212, subdivision (d) of Section 213, Sections 221, 222, 222.5, 223, and 224, subdivision (a) of Section 226, Sections 226.7, 227, 227.3, 230, 230.1, 230.2, 230.3, 230A, 230.7, 230.8, and 231, subdivision (c) of Section 232, subdivision (c) of Section 232.5, Sections 233, 234, 351, 353, and 403, subdivision (b) of Section 404, Sections 432.2, 432.5, 432.7, 435, 450, 510, 511, 512, 513, 551, 552, 601, 602, 603, 604, 750, 751.8, 800, 850, 851, 851.5, 852, 921, 922, 923, 970, 973, 976, 1021, 1021.5, 1025, 1026, 1101, 1102, 1102.5, and 1153, subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 1174, Sections 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, and 1198, subdivision (b) of Section 1198.3, Sections 1199, 1199.5, 1290, 1292, 1293, 1293.1, 1294, 1294.1, 1294.5, 1296,

Theories of Labor Code Violations and Remedies:

Claimant Mr. Wesley was employed by Gunderson Rail from approximately September 13, 2021 to July 26, 2023 first as a Machine Operator B and then as a Machine Operator C. The position of Machine Operator entails performing maintenance on rail cars and repairing the axels of rail cars. For a period of at least four (4) years prior to July 2024, but for our purposes here, one (1) year prior, Gunderson Rail has violated and continues to violate the California Labor Code sections as detailed below.

Claimants also were at all times entitled to payment of minimum wages. Gunderson Rail has failed and continues to fail to pay Claimants minimum wages for all hours worked as required by Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1194.2 and section 4 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001. First, Defendant Claimants worked a substantial amount of time while off-the-clock—meaning they were not punched in for work—and therefore, those working hours were not recorded and then compensated. This off-the-clock time primarily occurred because Claimants were required to return early from lunch while not clocking back in until 30 minutes had elapsed but also before and after their scheduled shifts. Accordingly, Claimants were not paid for that time spent working off the clock. That is, Defendant implemented policies and enforced practices requiring Claimants to perform work during their meal periods (while clocked out) and rest breaks, the effects of which Defendant could have mitigated by adjusting expectations and/or by adding more staff to reduce the expected daily workload. However, Defendant instead chose to instruct Claimants to work during their meal periods on particularly demanding days and to skip rest breaks. In effect, these policies and practices cause Claimants to remain on-duty during meal periods and rest breaks, and therefore, constitute a failure on Gunderson Rail's part to provide compliant meal periods and rest breaks. With that, Gunderson Rail's corresponding failure to provide premium pay at the correct regular rate, if any premiums were paid at all, in lieu of compliant meal periods and rest breaks constitutes Gunderson Rail's failure to pay minimum wages and all hours worked every pay period and upon separation in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 510, 1182.12, 1194, and 1197. Gunderson Rail's failure to pay Claimants their meal period and rest break premiums for noncompliant meal periods and rest breaks, as explained in further detail below, also constitutes a failure to pay minimum wages to Claimants. Therefore, Claimants are entitled to recover wages and/or penalties as provided by Labor Code section 1197.1 and section 20 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001.

Claimants were at all times entitled to unpaid off-duty, uninterrupted meal periods. As explained in the preceding paragraph, Gunderson Rail failed to authorize and permit timely, full-length meal periods for Mr. Wesley and all other similarly aggrieved employees as required by Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and section 11 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001. Mr. Wesley and all similarly aggrieved persons were required to perform work during their meal periods in the form of continuing to perform their assigned services that cut into their 30-minute meal periods, necessitating that they returned from their meal period early before 30 minutes had elapsed. Mr. Wesley and Claimants also began their meal periods after the end of the fifth hour. Despite that, Gunderson Rail did not compensate Claimants with an extra hour of pay at the regular rate for noncompliant meal periods for each workday on which they occurred. Accordingly, since Gunderson Rail required Mr. Wesley and others similarly situated to work during their meal periods in violation of Labor Code sections 226.7(a) and 512, Claimants seek all available penalties as set forth in Labor Code sections 558, section 20 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001, and 2699(f).

1297, 1298, 1301, 1308, 1308.1, 1308.7, 1309, 1309.5, 1391, 1391.1, 1391.2, 1392, 1683, and 1695, subdivision (a) of Section 1695.5, Sections 1695.55, 1695.6, 1695.7, 1695.8, 1695.9, 1696, 1696.5, 1696.6, 1697.1, 1700.25, 1700.26, 1700.31, 1700.32, 1700.40, and 1700.47, paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (a) of, and subdivision (e) of, Section 1701.4, subdivision (a) of Section 1701.5, Sections 1701.8, 1701.10, 1701.12, 1735, 1771, 1774, 1776, 1777.5, 1811, 1815, 2651., and 2673, subdivision (a) of Section 2673.1, Sections 2695.2, 2800, 2801, 2802, 2806, and 2810, subdivision (b) of Section 2929, and Sections 3095, 6310, 6311, and 6399.7.

Claimants were at all times entitled to take paid, off duty 10-minute rest breaks. However, for the same reasons cited in the preceding paragraph regarding meal periods, Gunderson Rail likewise failed to authorize and permit Mr. Wesley and all other similarly aggrieved employees to take any full-length, off-duty rest breaks as required by Labor Code sections 226.7 and section 12 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001. Claimants were not able to take their requisite number of 10-minutes rest breaks based on their shift duration; Claimants regularly worked through their rest breaks. Gunderson Rail did not compensate Claimants with an extra hour of pay at the regular rate for noncompliant rest breaks for each workday on which they occurred. Therefore, Claimants are entitled to recover wages and/or penalties as provided by Labor Code section 558 and section 20 of IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001. Furthermore, since Gunderson Rail required their hourly nonexempt employees to perform work during rest periods in violation of Labor Code section 226.7(b), Claimants seek all available penalties set forth in Labor Code sections 558 and 2699.

At all times relevant herein, Claimants were entitled to the payment of overtime. That is, pursuant to Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1182.12, Gunderson Rail was required to compensate Claimants at a rate of one-and-one-half (1.5) times their regular rate for all hours worked over eight (8) hours per workday and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of a workweek and at two (2) times their regular rate for hours worked over twelve (12) hours per workday and eight (8) hours on the seventh day of a workweek. Mr. Wesley and Claimants regularly worked overtime hours, and they also earned performance-based bonuses. Gunderson Rail has failed to and continues to fail to pay Claimants overtime wages owed for off-the-clock time worked that should have been compensated as overtime, yet regularly required them to work these overtime hours without premium pay under Labor Code section 1194. Gunderson Rail has also failed to compensate at the correct overtime rate during pay periods when Mr. Wesley and Claimants earned performance-based bonuses. In short, during the entire course of their employment, Gunderson Rail failed to provide Mr. Wesley and continues to fail to provide all others similarly situated with all overtime pay in violation of 226.7, 510, and 512 and all applicable IWC Wage Orders, including but not limited to IWC Wage Order 9-2001, section 3.

Pursuant to Labor Code sections 201–203, Claimants who have since separated from Gunderson Rail, including Mr. Wesley, were entitled to be paid all wages owed upon separation within the statutorily allotted time—immediately (resignation with notice and termination) or within seventy-two (72) hours (resignation without notice). Claimants, including Mr. Wesley, did not receive all wages owed upon separation based on Gunderson Rail’s prior failings to pay all wages owed every pay period, including but not limited to meal and rest premiums and for all hours worked, as explained above.

Claimants were at all times entitled to be provided timely and accurate wage statements from Gunderson Rail pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Because Gunderson Rail failed to pay Claimants all of their meal period and rest break premiums for noncompliant meal periods and rest breaks and failed to pay Claimants minimum wages for all hours worked before, during, and after their shifts and for all overtime wages due, Claimants’ wage statements were inaccurate in reflecting meal period and rest break premiums owed, overtime and minimum wages, and all hours worked every pay period. As a consequence, Claimants’ wage statements also do not reflect the accurate amount of net and gross wages owed. Accordingly, Claimants seek all available penalties as set forth in Labor Code sections 226(e) and 2699.

Finally, Claimants were entitled to be reimbursed by Gunderson Rail for all necessary, business-related expenses they incurred in executing their duties for Gunderson Rail. California Labor Code section 2802 provides that “An employer shall indemnify his or his employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or his duties, or of his or his obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.” Gunderson Rail, however, has failed to fully reimburse Claimants for all necessary, business-related expenses and losses they incurred, including, but not limited to, all costs incurred for the use of their personal cell phone required during their shifts for communication purposes as well as for uniforms that Gunderson Rail required Claimants to wear daily.

Accordingly, Claimants are entitled to recover their unreimbursed expenditures and losses pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

Gunderson Rail's uniform failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, failure to authorize and permit full-length, off-duty rest breaks and meal periods or pay Claimants adequate premium compensation in lieu thereof, failure to furnish timely and accurate wage statements, and failure to reimburse all necessary, business-related expenses violate Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1182.12, 1194, 1197, and 2802, and as such, penalties are recoverable as set forth in Labor Code sections 210, 1194, et seq., and 2699.

Claimants are entitled to recover unpaid wages, with interest, and are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees as permitted by Labor Code section 1194, other penalties as permitted by Labor Code sections 210 and 2699, and waiting time penalties for former employees pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

Accordingly, Claimants seek the remedies set forth in the above-referenced Labor Code sections for themselves, the State of California, and all other aggrieved employees. Specifically, pursuant to PAGA, and in particular California Labor Code sections 2699(a), 2699.3(a), 2699.3(c), and 2699.5, Mr. Wesley, acting in the public interest as a private attorney general, seeks assessment and collection of civil penalties for themselves, all other aggrieved employees, and the State of California against Gunderson Rail for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1182.12, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802.
