and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; statutory penalties for failure to timely pay earned wages during employment; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 4100 Ardmore Avenue, South Gate, CA 90280.

18 SOLUTIONS LLC operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved
19 employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 4100 Ardmore Avenue, South 20 Gate, CA 90280.

21         4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 22 through 66 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 23 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 24 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working

5 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 6 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 7 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 8 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 9 complaint.

10 7. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 11 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 12 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

13 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

14 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 15 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

16 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 17 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

18 8. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

19 9. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 20 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 21 and the applicable Wage Orders.

22 10. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
23 Labor Code:

24 11. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
25 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 26 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 27 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 28 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

12. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the Wage Orders.

13. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to travel to a designated area away from their workstations during their meal breaks. Defendants did not elongate or otherwise extend Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ meal breaks to account for travel time between their workstations and the designated break area resulting in meal breaks less than 30 minutes.

14. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants’ control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable Wage Order.

15. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to

1 the benefit of the employer.’

2 16. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 3 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 4 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

5 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 6 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 7 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 8 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 9 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

10 Labor Code section 510.

11 17. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 12 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 13 to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

14 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
15 non-exempt employees to travel to a designated area away from their workstations during their meal
16 breaks. Defendants did not elongate or otherwise extend Plaintiff’s and other current and former 17 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ meal breaks to account for travel time
18 between their workstations and the designated break area resulting in meal breaks less than 30 19 minutes.

20 18. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 21 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 22 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 23 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 24 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 25 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 26 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 27 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

28 19. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that

1 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 2 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 3 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 4 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

5 20. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 6 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 7 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 8 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 1 at §11; 9 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 10 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 11 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 12 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 13 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 14 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 15 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

16 21. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 17 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 18 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 19 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 1 at §11.

20 22. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 21 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-22 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 23 limited to:

24 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
25 non-exempt employees to travel to a designated area away from their workstations during their meal
26 breaks. Defendants did not elongate or otherwise extend Plaintiff's and other current and former 27 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' meal breaks to account for travel time
28 between their workstations and the designated break area resulting in meal breaks less than 30

1 minutes.

2           23.       Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 3 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 4 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 5 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 6 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

7           24.       Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 8 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 9 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 10 periods in compliance with California law.

11           25.       Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 12 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
13 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 14 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

15           26.       California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 16 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 17 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes' 18 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 19 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker
20 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 21 Wage Order 1 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
22 Wage Order 1 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "obligates employers to permit – 23 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods." Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 24 (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 25 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

26           27.       If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 27 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the 28 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage

1 Order 1 at § 12.

2 28. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 3 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 4 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 5 limited to:

6 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 7 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 8 or major fraction thereof.

9 29. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 10 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 11 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
12 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 13 226.7.

14 30. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 15 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 16 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 17 in compliance with California law.

18 31. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 19 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 20 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 21 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 22 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 23 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 24 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)
25 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 26 section 204(d).

27 32. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 28 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt

1 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages
2 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 3 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 4 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 5 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

6       33.     Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 7 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 8 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 9 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 10 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 11 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 12 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 13 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 14 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

15       34.     Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 16 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 17 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 18 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 19 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 20 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 21 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 22 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 23 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 24 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 25 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 26 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 27 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

28       35.     As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff

1 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages
2 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 3 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 4 hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 5 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

6       36. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 7 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 8 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 9 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

10       37. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
11 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 12 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 13 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 14 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

15       38. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 16 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 17 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 18 section 2699.3.

19       39. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 20 section 2699.3. On July 18, 2024, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 21 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 22 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 23 violations alleged.

24       40. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 25 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 26 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 27 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 28 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

1           41. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 2 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 3 510, 512, and 1194, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding 4 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 5 amounts:

6           a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), and 226.7,; one 7 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two 8 hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation 9 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

10           b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 11 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 12 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 13 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

14           c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 15 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 16 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 17 established by Labor Code section 558].

18           d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 19 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 20 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
21 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code
22 section 210].

23           e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 24 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 25 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
26 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 27 section 225.5].

28           42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.
