DECLARATION OF EVAN S. GAINES

I, EVAN S. GAINES, hereby declare and state as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly admitted to the practice of law in the State of California. I am the principal of Gaines Law Corporation, counsel for Plaintiff Kelvin Coenen (“Plaintiff”) in this Action. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and if called as a witness to testify to them, I could and would do so competently.

2. I obtained my BA degree from the University California at Santa Barbara in 2005. I majored in Film Studies.

3. Thereafter, I attended the Michigan State University College of Law (“MSU”). At MSU, I was the recipient of jurisprudence awards (highest grade) in Client Counseling and Interviewing and Complex Civil Litigation. At MSU, I focused my studies on complex litigation. I earned my JD and became a member of the California Bar in 2012.

4. After becoming a member of the Bar, I practiced law with my father (Kenneth S. Gaines) and brother (Daniel F. Gaines) at Gaines & Gaines, APLC. In January 2024, I started my own law firm, Gaines Law Corporation. My practice specializes in litigation, with an emphasis in employment disputes like this one. Over 95% of my practice is devoted to complex employment litigation similar to the instant action.

5. My firm has represented employees in employment matters such as this one, with an emphasis in wage and hour issues. I have participated, and have been certified as Court-approved class counsel, in dozens of class and representative action matters since my admission to the Bar. A true and correct list of some of the cases in which I have been appointed as class counsel is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

6. On July 12, 2024, Plaintiff transmitted a letter to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant eContactlive, Inc. (“Defendant”) that Plaintiff alleges to be in compliance with the exhaustion requirements of the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), articulating claims related to the failure to pay meal and rest period premiums, overtime wages, vacation wages, and sick pay wages at the correct rates; reimburse all

1 business expenses incurred; pay all vacation wages due; issue accurate wage statements; and pay all
2 wages due at the separation of employment. A true and correct copy of the July 12, 2024 letter to the
3 LWDA is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

4 7. On September 16, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Representative Action Complaint in the 5 Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Stanslaus, thereby commencing this
6 Action entitled Kelvin Coenen v. eContactlive, Inc., a California corporation, case number CV-24-
7 007300. Plaintiff filed his Complaint on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved
8 employees as a PAGA action based on violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 9 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1194, and 2802 and seeking penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.

10 8. Defendant disputes and denies the allegations and claims asserted in the Action and 11 denies that the Action is suitable for representative treatment.

12 9. During the course of the litigation, my office and Defendant’s Counsel engaged in 13 informal discovery and fully shared the information necessary for all sides to conduct a legitimate 14 investigation into the allegations of the action and potential defenses thereto. The Parties have 15 reached their settlement only after such discovery and investigation were performed.

16 10. Defendant produced extensive documents, including employee handbooks, wage
17 statements and time records, and summary spreadsheets. The Parties then directly negotiated an 18 agreement to resolve the claims in the Action.

19 11. The terms and conditions of the settlement are set forth in the Private Attorneys
20 General Act (Labor Code § 2698 et seq.) Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement
21 Agreement”). The Settlement Agreement resolves all claims asserted in the LWDA Letters and the
22 Complaint. Attached hereto as Exhibit “C” is a true and correct copy of the Parties’ Settlement
23 Agreement.

24 12. Based on the information and documents obtained through informal discovery,
25 Plaintiff assessed the maximum value of the limited PAGA claims to be released by the settlement to 26 be approximately $123,250 (at the rate of a $100 penalty for approximately 2,465 weekly pay periods
27 at issue for approximately 72 Aggrieved Employees, without stacking violations). Since this Action
28 falls into the gambit of the revised PAGA statute, any weekly pay periods are halved (and included

1 in the calculation above), and Defendant is entitled to a discount on the maximum penalty for 2 complying with PAGA at early stages of the litigation, which Defendant sought to do. As such, the
3 Parties agreement represents a compromise considering these additional elements.

4 13. As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Gross Settlement Amount is $45,000,
5 and includes an apportionment of attorneys' fees and costs, and payment to the settlement
6 administrator. By a separate confidential agreement, the Parties have resolved all of Plaintiff's
7 individual claims through a comprehensive general release in favor of Defendant. In connection with
8 his general release of all claims, Plaintiff will be paid a confidential sum, separate from the Gross
9 Settlement Amount and will not receive any payment from the Gross Settlement.¹ I am not recovering
10 any attorney's fees from Plaintiff's individual settlement.

11 14. My office has submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement, together with the 12 Stipulation, the accompanying Order and Judgement, and this Declaration, to the LWDA as required
13 by PAGA. Attached hereto as Exhibit "D" is a true and correct copy of the confirmation my office
14 received from the LWDA.

15 15. The Parties request that the Court enter the accompanying order approving the 16 Settlement, as permitted by Labor Code § 2699(l), and entering Judgment in accordance with the 17 terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement.

18 I declare, under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of California, that the foregoing
19 is true and correct. Executed on December 23, 2024 at Westlake Village, California.

Re: Labor Code Violations of Econtactlive, Inc. – Compliance Letter of California
Labor Code § 2698 - Private Attorneys General Act

Dear LWDA:

This office represents Kelvin Coenen, a former non-exempt California employee of Econtactlive, Inc. ("Defendant"). The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

Our client was employed by Defendant in Central California. Herein we set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which he alleges Defendant engaged in with respect to our client and its other non-exempt California employees ("Aggrieved Employees").

Our client alleges that Defendant failed to properly blend bonuses, commissions, and other non-base hourly wages, earned by our client and other Aggrieved Employees into their regular rate of pay for purposes of paying them meal and rest period premiums, overtime wages, vacation wages, and sick pay wages at the correct rates, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558, and 1194. Defendant paid our client and other Aggrieved Employees commission wages (and other non-base hourly wages); however, Defendant failed to properly blend these wages, and instead paid our client and other Aggrieved Employees meal and rest period premiums, overtime wages, vacation wages, and sick pay wages based only on the base hourly rate of pay, thus depriving our client and other Aggrieved Employees of all meal and rest period premiums, overtime wages, and sick pay wages earned. This violates Labor Code §§ 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558, and 1194.

Econtactlive, Inc.

Defendant failed to reimburse our client and other Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties while working from home, in violation of Labor Code § 2802, including, but not limited to, cellular phone, internet, computer expenses, rent, and printer expenses. Moreover, if our client or Aggrieved Employees elected to work at Defendant's office, they would be required to rent space from Defendant in order to do so. Defendant also required our client and Aggrieved Employees to use their cellular phone to clock in and out for their shifts via an "Offpoint" cellular phone application. Labor Code § 2802 states that an employer must indemnify its employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties. These instances violate Labor Code § 2802.

Defendant's policy with respect to vacation wages contravenes California law. Defendant's vacation accrual policy allows for one week of vacation accrued per year; however, there is a maximum one-week accrual such that if you do not use your vacation time each year, no further time will accrue, and the policy effectively operates as a forfeiture. Vacation pay is a form of wages which vests as it is earned. A policy that provides the forfeiture of vacation pay that is not used by a specific date ("use it or lose it") is an illegal policy is a violation of Labor Code § 227.3.

Our client further alleges that Defendant failed to provide them and other Aggrieved Employees with wage statements that fully and accurately itemized the requirements set forth in Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226.3. Our client and other Aggrieved Employees were not paid all wages due, as stated above. As such, the wage statements provided by Defendant failed to accurately state all gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a)(1) and 226.3, total hours worked, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a)(2) and 226.3, net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a)(5) and 226.3, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a)(9) and 226.3.

Our client further alleges that Defendant failed to pay him and other Aggrieved Employees all wages due (including vacation wages, as discussed above) at the separation of their employment based on the time frames required by Labor Code §§ 201-203, and 227.3. As stated above, our client and Aggrieved Employees were not paid all wages due (including all accrued, but unused vacation wages) during the course of their employment and, as a result of this failure, they were not timely paid all wages due at the separation of their employment. This violates Labor Code §§ 201-203, and 227.3 and is alleged on behalf of our client and certain Aggrieved Employees no longer employed by Defendant.

The $75 PAGA filing fee has been submitted to the LWDA concurrently with the transmission of this letter.

We invite Defendant or its attorneys to contact our office to discuss this matter, including whether an early resolution of the claims can be reached.

4. Defendant generally denies all of Plaintiff’s allegations in the Action, including all PAGA claims, and further specifically denies that Defendant or any of the Released Parties committed or engaged in any misconduct, statutory or regulatory violations, wrongdoing, or other actionable conduct of any kind.

5. The Parties have independently analyzed and investigated the facts and law relevant to this case through informal discovery and substantial pre-mediation disclosures, including, but not limited to, the employment policies, procedures, and practices implicated by the Complaint and/or the LWDA Letters; pay period totals for employees on whose behalf the Complaint and/or the LWDA Letters are asserted by Plaintiff; and summaries of data pertaining to the number of employees allegedly affected by the policies, procedures, and practices implicated by the Complaint and/or the LWDA Letters.

6. After evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of their respective positions, after considering the time, expense, and risk associated with litigating this case to judgment, and after engaging in arm’s-length settlement negotiations through informed counsel, the Parties agreed to fully and finally, and exclusively, resolve the Released Claims as to Plaintiff and the PAGA Settlement Employees, subject to Court approval.

7. This Settlement contemplates the entry of an Order by the Court approving the payment allocated for settlement of PAGA penalties to the LWDA, Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Employees, and the dismissal with prejudice of the Action.

III. OPERATIVE TERMS OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

The Parties agree as follows:

1. Non-Admission. Nothing in this Settlement Agreement or the judgment to be entered in this Action pursuant to the terms of this Settlement Agreement shall be construed to be an admission: (a) by Plaintiff that his claims do not have merit or (b) by Defendant of any liability or wrongdoing as to Plaintiff, the PAGA Settlement Employees or any other person, and Defendant generally denies any such liability or wrongdoing. Defendant specifically denies any liability to Plaintiff or any other allegedly aggrieved employee for any alleged violation of his/her/their rights, or for any alleged violation of any order, law, statute, duty or contract. The Parties have entered into this Settlement Agreement with the intention to avoid further disputes and litigation with the attendant inconvenience, expenses, and risks. This Settlement Agreement and any related court documents or orders are not and may not be cited or admitted as evidence of liability.

2. PAGA Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant shall pay Forty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($45,000.00) as the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant will not pay more than the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount to resolve the claims covered by this Agreement. Defendant shall deposit the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount with the Settlement Administrator within 30 days of the Effective Date.

3. Net Settlement Amount. The Parties agree that the following amounts should be subtracted from the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, if approved by the Court, resulting in a Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to the LWDA and PAGA Settlement Employees:

- a. Plaintiff's Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff's request for Plaintiff's Attorneys' Fees of up to 35% of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount (projected to be Fifteen Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($15,750.00)) and Plaintiff's Costs up to Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) incurred in prosecuting this Action. In the event the Court approves a payment of less than the amount of fees and costs requested by Plaintiff, the difference will be added to the PAGA Payment.
- b. Administration Cost. Defendant will not oppose the Settlement Administrator's costs, not to exceed Two Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($2,950.00), for administering the Settlement. In the event the Court approves a payment of less than this amount, the difference will be added to the PAGA Payment.

4. PAGA Payment. A portion of the PAGA Payment will be allocated to the LWDA and the remainder will be allocated to PAGA Settlement Employees in settlement of the Released Claims. The PAGA Payment will be subject to Court approval consistent with California Labor Code section 2699.3(b)(4). Upon approval, the PAGA Payment shall be allocated as follows:

- a. Seventy-five percent (65%) will be paid to the LWDA, as required by California Labor Code section 2699(i).
- b. Twenty-five percent (35%) will be paid to the PAGA Settlement Employees, divided on a pro rata basis among them and distributed by the Settlement Administrator as Individual PAGA Payments, as required by California Labor Code section 2699(i).

- c. The payments will be reported as penalties on IRS Forms 1099 issued to the LWDA and each PAGA Settlement Employee. The Settlement Administrator will be responsible for issuing to PAGA Settlement Employees and PAGA Representative Counsel any 1099 or other tax forms as may be required by law for all amounts paid pursuant to this Settlement.

5. Representative PAGA Release. Upon the Effective Date, Plaintiff, as an individual, and as the representative of the PAGA Settlement Employees, the LWDA and the State of California, hereby forever and completely releases and discharges the Released Parties of and from all of the Released Claims, and thus, Plaintiff, the PAGA Settlement Employees, LWDA and the State of California will be forever barred from pursuing any of the Released Claims defined herein against Released Parties which arose during periods of employment in a non-exempt position in California during the PAGA Period. The Parties understand and agree that this release is limited to the Released Claims and does not otherwise impact the individual rights or claims of the PAGA Settlement Employees, except Plaintiff, whose individual rights and claims are settled and resolved pursuant to this Agreement and the Individual Settlement Agreement (defined below). In accordance with Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 985, a judgment in “a representative action brought by an aggrieved employee under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 . . . is binding not only on the named employee plaintiff but also on government agencies and any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding,” which the Final Order shall so reflect. Pursuant to Arias and Cardenas v. McLane Foodservice, Inc., 796 F.Supp.2d 1246 (2011), the Final Order and judgment in this Action shall be binding on the PAGA Settlement Employees, LWDA, State of California and its agencies as to the Released Claims which arose during the PAGA Period, regardless of whether their settlement checks are cashed or not. The Parties further understand and agree that the continued effectiveness of this PAGA Release is contingent upon Defendant’s payment of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount. If Defendant defaults on any of its payment obligations under this Agreement, the PAGA Release set forth in this paragraph shall become ineffective until such default is cured in full.

6. Separate Release and Individual Settlement by Plaintiff. In addition to this Agreement, Plaintiff has entered into separate Confidential Settlement Agreement And General Release Of All Claims (“Individual Settlement Agreement”) with Defendant for all of his separate individual (non-PAGA) claims arising out of his employment with Defendant, in exchange for a full release of those claims. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Individual Settlement Agreement and the covenants, promises and released claims contained therein shall not serve to modify or limit Plaintiff’s right to continue with this Action and seek the Court’s approval of this PAGA Settlement; however, Plaintiff shall have no right to be the representative of a class action lawsuit against Defendant. The Parties further agree that if for any reason the Effective Date does not occur with regard to this Settlement and/or the Final Order is not entered, then the Individual Settlement Agreement shall also be null and void.

7. Filing of Request for Approval of PAGA Settlement by Plaintiff’s Counsel

Plaintiff’s counsel shall be responsible for filing a Joint Stipulation for approval of the Settlement, which shall be provided to Defendant’s counsel for review and approval a minimum of 7 days before filing. The Joint Stipulation can be filed as soon as it is approved by Defendant’s counsel. The Parties shall work cooperatively to finalize the terms of the Joint Stipulation. Plaintiff shall provide the requisite notice of this Settlement Agreement to the LWDA on the date Plaintiff requests approval of this Settlement Agreement from the Court. If the Court approves this Settlement, the Parties shall request that the Court enter a Final Order approving the Settlement and dismissing the action with prejudice.

As part of the request to approve the Settlement, Plaintiff shall submit a Proposed Order granting approval of this Settlement, which shall be provided to Defendant's counsel for review and approval a minimum of 7 days before filing. The Proposed Order can be filed as soon as it is approved by Defendant's counsel. The Parties shall work cooperatively to finalize the terms of the Proposed Order. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Agreement pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 664.6. This Settlement is expressly conditioned upon the Court entering such a Final Order, approving this Settlement as set forth herein, and entry of judgment, dismissal of the Action with prejudice and ensuring that this Settlement has a res judicata effect.

IV. ADMINISTRATION OF SETTLEMENT

1. Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator will be responsible for establishing a QSF and issuing payments and appropriate tax forms to PAGA Settlement Employees, Defendant, the LWDA, and Plaintiff's counsel.

2. Provision of Information for PAGA Settlement Employees. Within twenty (20) calendar days after the Effective Date, Defendant will provide the information regarding the PAGA Settlement Employees to the Settlement Administrator. This information will include the name, most recently known address, social security number, and total pay periods worked by each of the PAGA Settlement Employees in a non-exempt position in California during the PAGA Period. The Settlement Administrator will maintain the list in confidence, and access shall be limited to those with a need to use the list as part of the administration of the Settlement.

The Settlement Administrator will calculate the amount to be received by each PAGA Settlement Employee. Within ten (10) calendar days of the receipt of the information from Defendant regarding the PAGA Settlement Employees, the Settlement Administrator will circulate to counsel for both Parties an anonymized spreadsheet containing the estimated individual settlement payments to each PAGA Settlement Employee, and the data used to calculate said payments. The Settlement Administrator shall obtain approval from all Counsel of the calculations before mailing Individual PAGA Payments.

3. Explanatory Letter and Individual PAGA Payments. Upon receipt of the information for PAGA Settlement Employees, the Settlement Administrator will perform a search on the National Change of Address database to update the PAGA Settlement Employees' addresses.

Within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of approval by Plaintiff's Counsel and Defendant's Counsel of the anonymized spreadsheet containing the estimated individual settlement payments to each PAGA Settlement Employee, the Settlement Administrator will issue payments to: (a) PAGA Settlement Employees along with an explanatory letter accompanying the payment (“Settlement Notice”); (b) the LWDA; (c) Plaintiff’s counsel; and (d) itself. The Settlement Notice shall be mailed to each PAGA Settlement Employee with their disbursement.

4. Undeliverable Notices. Any checks returned as non-deliverable on or before the check cashing deadline will be sent promptly via regular First-Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding address affixed thereto. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt to determine the correct address using a skip trace, or other search using the name, address or social security number of the PAGA Settlement Employees involved, and will then perform a single re-mailing. Individual PAGA Payment checks will remain negotiable for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from issuance, and PAGA Settlement Employees will have one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from the date of issuance to cash their Individual PAGA Payment checks. If a PAGA Settlement Employee’s check is returned to the Settlement Administrator with a forwarding address provided by the United States Postal Service, the Settlement Administrator will promptly resend the check to that PAGA Settlement Employee to that address, but this re-mailing will not extend the 180-day period to cash a check. Funds represented by Individual PAGA Payment checks returned as undeliverable and those Individual PAGA Payment checks remaining un-cashed for more than one hundred eighty (180) calendar days after issuance will be paid to the California State Controller in the name of the PAGA Settlement Employee who did not cash the check, from which the PAGA Settlement Employee may claim the funds. Neither Defendant, Defense Counsel, Plaintiff’s Counsel nor Plaintiff will have any liability for lost or stolen settlement checks, forged signatures on settlement checks, unauthorized negotiation of settlement checks or failure to timely cash a settlement check within the 180-day period.

Defendant fully discharges its obligations to those PAGA Settlement Employees who are entitled to an Individual PAGA Payment through the Settlement Administrator’s mailing of a check, regardless of whether such checks are actually received and/or negotiated by PAGA Settlement Employees.

5. Tax Consequences. Individual PAGA Payments made under this Settlement will be attributed one hundred percent (100%) as penalties and paid via IRS Form 1099 issued to each PAGA Settlement Employee. The Parties and their counsel make no representations or warranties with respect to tax consequences of any payment under this Settlement Agreement.

V. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Escalator Clause. As of November 19, 2024, Defendant estimates there will be approximately 2,902 weekly pay periods worked during the PAGA Period by approximately 72 PAGA Settlement Employees. Should the number of pay periods increase by more than 10%, this will increase the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount proportionally over the 10% increase. For example, if the number of pay periods increase by 11% through the PAGA Period, the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount shall increase by 1%.

2. Mutual Preparation and Drafting. The Parties have had a full opportunity to negotiate the terms and conditions of this Settlement. The Parties agree that the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement are the result of lengthy, intensive, arm’s-length negotiations between the Parties through informed counsel and that neither Party shall be considered the “drafter” of this Settlement Agreement for purposes of having terms construed against that Party.

3. Successors. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, trustees, executors, administrators, and successors and assigns.

4. Costs and Fees. The Parties shall each bear their own costs, attorneys’ fees, and other fees incurred in connection with this Settlement Agreement, the Action, and Plaintiff’s claims, except as otherwise set forth specifically herein.

5. Authority. The Parties each individually represent and warrant that the undersigned have the authority to act on the respective Party’s behalf and to bind the Party to the terms of this Settlement Agreement.

6. Governing Law. This Settlement Agreement shall be construed under and governed by the laws of the State of California.

7. Complete Agreement. The Parties each acknowledge and represent that no promise or representation not contained in this Settlement Agreement has been made to them, and acknowledge and represent that this Settlement Agreement contains the entire understanding between them and contains all terms and conditions pertaining to the compromise and settlement of the PAGA Claims. Excluded from this Section is a separate settlement agreement related to Plaintiff’s individual claims. This Settlement Agreement cannot be amended or modified except by a writing signed by the Parties hereto.

8. Nullification of Settlement Agreement. In the event that: (a) the Court does not approve the Settlement as provided herein; or (b) the Settlement does not become final for any other reason, then this Settlement Agreement and any documents generated to bring it into effect, will be null and void, and the Parties will be returned to their original respective positions, without prejudice. Neither this Agreement nor any of the related negotiations or proceedings shall be of any force or effect.

9. Continuing Jurisdiction. After approval of this Settlement and entry of the judgment in the Action, the Court will have continuing jurisdiction solely for purposes of addressing: (b) the interpretation and enforcement of the terms of the Settlement and judgment, (b) Settlement administration matters, and (c) such matters as may be appropriate under court rules or as set forth in this Settlement Agreement. The Parties further agree that this Agreement shall be enforceable by the Court pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 664.6 and the Court shall retain exclusive and continuing equity jurisdiction of this Action over all Parties and PAGA Settlement Employees to interpret and enforce the terms, conditions and obligation of the Agreement.

10. Amendment or Modification. This Settlement Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument, signed by either the Parties or their successors-in-interest.

11. Binding on Successors and Assigns. This Settlement Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors or assigns of the Parties hereto, as previously defined.

12. Execution and Counterparts. This Settlement Agreement is subject only to the execution of all Parties. However, the Settlement Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts. All executed counterparts, and each of them, including facsimile, DocuSign, and scanned copies of the signature page, will be deemed to be one and the same instrument provided that counsel for the Parties will exchange among themselves original signed counterparts.

13. Acknowledgement that the Settlement is Fair and Reasonable. The Parties believe this Settlement Agreement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable settlement of the Action, and have arrived at this settlement after arm's-length negotiations by experienced counsel. The Parties further acknowledge that they are each represented by competent counsel and that they have had an opportunity to consult with their counsel regarding the fairness and reasonableness of this settlement.

14. Invalidity of Any Provision. Before declaring any provision of this Settlement Agreement invalid, the Court will first attempt to construe the provision as valid to the fullest extent possible consistent with applicable precedents, so as to define all provisions of this Settlement Agreement valid and enforceable. Invalidation of any material portion of this Agreement shall invalidate this Agreement in its entirety unless the Parties shall subsequently agree in writing that the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

15. Severability. If any term or provision of this Settlement Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions of this Settlement Agreement will continue to be valid and will be performed, construed and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law, and the invalid or unenforceable term will be deemed amended and limited in accordance with the intent of the Parties, as determined from the face of the Agreement, to the extent necessary to permit the maximum enforceability or validation of the term or provision.

16. Waiver. No waiver of any condition or covenant contained in this Settlement Agreement or failure to exercise a right or remedy by any of the Parties hereto will be considered to imply or constitute a further waiver by such Party of the same or any other condition, covenant, right or remedy.

17. Enforcement Action. In the event that one or more of the Parties institutes any legal action or other proceeding against any other Party or Parties to enforce the provisions of this Settlement Agreement or to declare rights and/or obligations under this settlement, the successful Party or Parties will be entitled to recover from the unsuccessful Party or Parties reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, including expert witness fees incurred in connection with any enforcement actions.

18. Dispute(s). Should any dispute(s) arise among the Parties or their respective counsel regarding the implementation or interpretation of this Agreement, the Parties agree to submit any such dispute(s) to the Court. To the extent any Party seeks to enforce any of the terms of this Agreement in or before the Court, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

19. Non-Evidentiary Use. Neither this Agreement nor any of its terms shall be offered or used as evidence by any of the Parties, or their respective counsel in the Action or in any other action or proceeding except for purposes of establishing the Released Claims have been settled; provided, however, this shall not prevent this Agreement from being used, offered, or received in evidence in any proceeding to enforce, construe, or finalize this Agreement.

20. Representation by Counsel. The Parties acknowledge that they have been represented by counsel throughout all negotiations that preceded the execution of this Settlement Agreement, and this Settlement Agreement has been executed with the consent and advice of counsel, and reviewed in full.

21. No Public Comment. Neither the Parties nor their counsel shall make or issue any public statements to the press or any other third party, nor post any information on websites or other public forums, concerning the Action in any way.

22. Cooperation and Execution of Necessary Documents. All Parties will cooperate in good faith and execute all documents to the extent reasonably necessary to effectuate the terms of this Settlement Agreement.

23. Binding Agreement. The Parties warrant that they understand and have full authority to enter into this settlement, and further intend that this Settlement Agreement will be fully enforceable and binding on all Parties, and agree that it will be admissible and subject to disclosure in any proceeding to enforce its terms, notwithstanding any mediation confidentiality provisions that otherwise might apply under federal or state law.

Nothing in this settlement, nor any action taken in implementation thereof, nor any statements, discussions or communications, nor any materials prepared, exchanged, issued or used during the course of this Action, is intended by the Parties to, nor will any of the foregoing constitute, be introduced, be used or be admissible in any way in any other judicial, arbitral, administrative, investigative or other forum or proceeding, as evidence of any violation of any federal, state or local law, statute, ordinance, regulation, rule or executive order, or any obligation or duty at law or in equity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Settlement Agreement may be used in any court proceeding that has as its purpose the interpretation, implementation or enforcement of the settlement or any orders or judgments of the Court entered into in connection therewith.

25. Acceleration; Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence with respect to all provisions of this Agreement. In the event of an uncured default, all unpaid amounts shall be due and payable with interest at the legal rate from the date of default.

Re: Settlement Payment from Kelvin Coenen v. eContactlive, Inc.

Dear «FIRST_NAME» «LAST_NAME»

By order of the Stanislaus County Superior Court, enclosed is the payment to which you are entitled from the settlement of the Kelvin Coenen v. eContactlive, Inc., litigation filed in the Stanislaus County Superior Court, Case No. CV-24-007300 (the “Lawsuit”).

The Lawsuit was filed against eContactlive, Inc. (referred to as “Defendant”) under the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (abbreviated “PAGA”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code. Kelvin Coenen (“Plaintiff”) alleged this PAGA claim on behalf of the State of California and all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California from July 12, 2023 through December 31, 2024 (“PAGA Members”). You have been identified as a PAGA Member, on whose behalf the case was brought.

In the Lawsuit, Plaintiff claimed Defendant owed civil penalties under PAGA for violating certain provisions of the California Labor Code, and the California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, including, but not limited to, allegations that Defendant: (1) failed to pay all meal and rest period premiums, overtime wages, vacation wages, and sick pay wages at the correct rates; (2) failed to reimburse all business expenses; (3) failed to maintain a legally compliant vacation leave policy; (4) failed to pay wages timely upon separation of employment; and (5) failed to provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226. Defendant vigorously denies that it violated any provisions of the California Labor Code or the California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, and contends that its policies and practices regarding the payment of wages and issuance of wage statements were fully compliant. Nevertheless, without admitting any wrongdoing, Defendant has agreed resolve the Lawsuit by way of settlement to avoid further costs associated with ongoing litigation.

The Stanislaus County Superior Court has not ruled on the merits of the Lawsuit, but it has approved the settlement between the Parties, including the settlement amount to be paid by Defendant. Pursuant to California law, 65% of that settlement amount goes to the State of California’s Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and 35% of the settlement amount goes to the PAGA Members. The settlement of this Lawsuit and Final Approval Order and Judgment releases only claims for civil penalties alleged under PAGA and does not in any way otherwise affect or release any individual PAGA Member’s rights.

You are receiving this payment due under the settlement. You have 180 days to cash the settlement check. If you do not cash your check by this date, the money will be transferred to the State of California Unclaimed Property Fund, from which you may recover the money at a future time. You will receive an IRS Form 1099 form for the amount of your settlement check, if required by law. If you have lost or misplaced your settlement check, you should contact the Administrator at the toll-free number shown at the top of this letter. It is strongly recommended that all checks be cashed immediately upon receipt. Defendant will not in any manner retaliate against any individual who cashes their settlement check.

You are not a party to the Lawsuit, but you and the State of California will be bound by the order in this matter approving the settlement and entering judgment in the Lawsuit, as well as to the release of claims in this Lawsuit, only as to civil penalties under PAGA. If you have any questions, you can contact the settlement administrator (whose contact information is at the top of this letter) or visit the following website: [\[INSERT WEBSITE\]](#).
