1 Plaintiff RIGOBERTO VIRAMONTES (“Plaintiff”), individually, on behalf of other
2 members of the general public similarly situated, and as Private Attorney General, based upon
3 facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a 4 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants WALTON BROS. ENTERPRISE,
7 INC. DBA CJW GENERAL CONTRACTING and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also 8 collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business
9 practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation,
10 failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay
11 minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure 12 to maintain accurate time and payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related 13 expenses.

14 2. Plaintiff’s First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 15 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
16 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 17 12, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
18 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 19 and will be established according to proof at trial.

20 3. Plaintiff’s Tenth Cause of Action is brought solely as a representative action, and 21 solely as a Private Attorney General, on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved
22 employees, including herself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom one or 23 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 24 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq; Balderas v.
25 Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc. 101 Cal.App.5th 533 (2024), as modified (April 18, 2024); and 26 Johnson v. Maxim Healthcare Services, Inc., 66 Cal.App.5th 924 (2021). Plaintiff is an aggrieved
27 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought
28

1 by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established
2 according to proof at trial

3 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
4 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
5 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 6 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

7 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
8 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 9 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 10 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 11 substantial justice.

12 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 13 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of 14 Riverside.

15 PARTIES

16 7. Plaintiff RIGOBERTO VIRAMONTES (“Plaintiff”) is an individual residing in 17 the County of Riverside, State of California. Plaintiff is not suing in his individual capacity with 18 respect to his Tenth Cause of Action. Instead, he is proceeding therein solely under the PAGA,
19 on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved employees. Plaintiff is an Aggrieved
20 Employee as defined under PAGA because he was employed by Defendant and suffered the labor 21 code violations alleged herein.

22 8. Defendant WALTON BROS. ENTERPRISE, INC. DBA CJW GENERAL
23 CONTRACTING, is and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing 24 under the laws of the State of California and registered to do business in the state of California.

25 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 26 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 27 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges,
28

1 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent,
2 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants and was at 3 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 4 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 5 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 6 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in 7 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged
8 were proximately caused by its conduct. WALTON BROS. ENTERPRISE, INC. DBA CJW
9 GENERAL CONTRACTING and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to 10 herein as "Defendants."

11 10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in 12 the County of Riverside, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the 13 California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

14 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 15 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 16 Plaintiff, the Class, so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable 17 under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

18 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

19 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action as a class action on his 20 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus,
21 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

22 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
23 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four 24 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified
25 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.>").

26 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

27 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.
- d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members is impractical.
- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

1 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 2 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
3 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 4 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 5 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 6 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff
7 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 8 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 9 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 10 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
11 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class
12 Members;
- 13 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
14 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 15 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 16 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 17 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 18 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members
19 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 20 periods;
- 21 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 22 Members for all hours worked;
- 23 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 24 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 25 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 26 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 27 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 28

Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from employment;

k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California Labor Code section 2802;

l. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members during their employment;

m. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;

n. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;

o. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;

p. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper withholding of compensation;

q. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and

r. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendants are a construction management contractor.

18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a main line operator from approximately September 2022 to January 6, 2024.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Class as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the Class; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the

1 Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the 2 Aggrieved Employees.

3 21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 4 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

5 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 6 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
7 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, 9 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
10 Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic 11 underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum 12 and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class,
13 and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a 14 failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition,
15 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take 16 timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also 17 failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-18 related expenses.

19 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
20 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
21 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
22 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
23 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
24 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
25 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
26 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
27 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to

1 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each
2 work period.

3 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
4 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under 5 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
6 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 8 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 9 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
10 to work through their rest periods.

11 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
12 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 13 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 14 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
15 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
16 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
17 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
18 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
19 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 20 interrupted.

21 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required
22 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. still regularly
23 required that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees work off-the-clock to complete all 24 of their assigned duties.

25 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
26 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
27 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 28

1 time worked.

2 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies
3 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 4 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
5 all wages owed.

6 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 7 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 8 week.

9 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 10 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 11 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single 12 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a 13 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 14 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 15 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

16 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
17 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 18 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

19 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 20 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
21 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 22 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 23 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
24 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 25 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 26 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, and implementing time
27 rounding policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, 28

1 and the Aggrieved Employees.

2 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 3 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 4 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
6 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 8 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 9 California Labor Code section 202.

10 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 11 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
12 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 13 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 14 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
15 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 16 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

17 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 18 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
19 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 20 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 21 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 22 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
23 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, net wages earned, and all 24 applicable hourly rates.

25 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 26 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
27 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 28

1 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 2 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

3 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 4 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's and the Class's work periods, meal periods, total 5 daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

6 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
8 including but not limited to grease vests and mileage for the use of his personal vehicle for work-
9 related purposes including traveling between job sites. Defendants knew or should have known 10 that Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for 11 all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of 12 California law.

13 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 14 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 15 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 16 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 18 Defendants' profits.

19 43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
20 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 21 to him [or her] under this article."

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 26 every allegation set forth above.

27 45. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
28

Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

51. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys’ fees.

59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

60. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

61. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

62. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

63. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period was not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against All Defendants)

64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

65. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

66. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

67. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that “[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours.”

68. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

103. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

104. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

109. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

110. Plaintiff brings his tenth cause of action solely as a representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved employees, including himself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

111. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor

1 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
2 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through
3 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 4 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code §
5 2699(a).

6 112. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
7 were committed against him during his time of employment and is therefore, an “Aggrieved
8 Employee” under PAGA.

9 113. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants
10 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 11 Codes by:

- 12 a. Failing to pay the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage compensation 13 in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 14 b. Failing to pay the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in 15 violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 16 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to the Aggrieved Employees, and 17 failing to pay the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for 18 meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 19 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-
20 free rest periods, and failing to pay the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour
21 of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 22 512.
- 23 e. Failing to timely pay the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end of their 24 employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 25 f. Failing to timely pay the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during 26 employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 27 g. Failing to furnish the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
28

- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

114. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11010, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3, 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

115. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On July 9, 2024, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of the July 9, 2024, PAGA notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence this representative action on behalf of the state to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

116. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

1 117. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
2 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
3 specified in Labor Code §2699.3.
