Attorney for Plaintiff Gesselle Fuentes

FILED
Superior Court of California
County of Los Angeles

10/03/2024

David W. Slayton, Executive Officer / Clerk of Court

By: R. Lozano Deputy

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

GESSELLE FUENTES, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

TRYAN, INC., a corporation; and DOES 1
through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 24STCV17125

FIRST AMENDED CLASS AND PAGA
REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197);
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194 and 1198);
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512);
4. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7);
5. Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages at Termination (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203);
6. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements (Cal. Lab. Code § 226);
7. Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures (Cal. Lab. Code § 2802);
8. Unlawful Deductions From Wages (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 221, 224); and
9. Unfair Business Practices (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.);
10. Civil Penalties Under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2698 et seq.).

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff GESSELLE FUENTES (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further
3 investigation and discovery, individually and on behalf of all other members of the public similarly 4 situated, alleges as follows:

5 THE PARTIES

6 1. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendant TRYAN, INC. and 7 DOES 1 through 10 (“Defendants”) in Los Angeles County, California, as a nonexempt employee
8 paid hourly from approximately March of 2023 to approximately January of 2024.

9 2. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new 10 Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v.
11 American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

12 3. Plaintiff alleges, on information and believe, that Defendant TRYAN, INC. is, and 13 at all times herein mentioned, was:

14 (a) A business entity qualified to do business and actually conducting business
15 in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Los 16 Angeles County; and,

17 (b) The former employer of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of 18 the putative Class because Defendants TRYAN, INC. suffered and permitted
19 Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or 20 working conditions.

21 4. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 22 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 23 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are 24 responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 25 “respondeat superior.”

26 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued
27 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each 28 of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by

1 Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true
2 names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with 3 appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

4 6. At all times mentioned herein, Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were 5 residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant 6 number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

7 7. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that, at all relevant times, each
8 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the 9 other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages,
10 hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all
11 relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director,
12 controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or 13 predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all 14 of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some 15 or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged 16 below. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that each Defendant acted pursuant to and 17 within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have 18 known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct
19 of all other Defendants.

20 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21 8. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter because Plaintiff brings this Complaint for 22 various violations of the California Labor Code (including a claim pursuant to the Private Attorney
23 General Act of 2004) and California Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") orders, Defendant
24 is a California corporation, and Plaintiff is a California resident.

25 9. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 26 agents, and/or transact business in the County of Los Angeles, California.

27 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

28 10. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in California as a non-exempt employee paid hourly. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

11. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants for California Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants' failure to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, and unlawful deductions from wages. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative of the class.

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action individually and as a class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members," and defined more fully below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

13. Plaintiff brings the Tenth Cause of Action as a representative action under the Labor Code Private Attorneys Act of 2004, Labor Code sections 2698 et seq. ("PAGA") to recover civil penalties that are owed to Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt employees employed by Defendants in the State of California during the statute of limitations period for their PAGA claim (herein after referred to as the "Aggrieved Employees").

14. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the IWC, and the California Business & Professions Code.

15. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed to comply with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders with respect to Plaintiff and the Class and instead maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of including, but not limited to, the following violations on a regular basis:

- (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum, straight time, and overtime wages; for example, Defendants:
 - 1) required employees to come in and work without clocking in;
 - 2) required employees to monitor their cell phones while off duty for work-related texts and calls, including the ones notifying them whether they needed to come to work that day, while failing to pay for such on-call/standby time; and/or
 - 3) required employees to answer work-related calls and texts while off duty while failing to pay for such off-the-clock work; and/or
 - 4) required them to continue working during unpaid meal periods; and/or
 - 5) failed to pay for all hours worked and failed to pay some of this unpaid work at the overtime rate, as required; and/or
 - 6) failed to maintain accurate records of the hours worked.
- (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods; for example, Defendants:
 - 1) programmed the clock to prevent employees from being able to clock back in when their meal break was cut short until 30 minutes had passed; and/or
 - 2) required employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work; and/or
 - 3) failed to compensating employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work;
 - 4) continued to assert control over employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods; and/or

- 5) denied employees permission to take a meal period;
- 6) enacting noncompliant meal and rest break policies; and/or
- 7) failed to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed.

(c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods; for example, Defendants:

- 1) required employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours); and/or
- 2) failed to compensate employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted; and/or
- 3) continued to assert control over employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods; and/or
- 4) denied employees permission to take a rest period.

(d) Failing to timely pay employees their final wages due at termination, including, but not limited to, all expenditures, minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal and rest period premium wages, and/or accrued vacation; and/or making such payments via direct deposit without employees' authorization.

(e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as accrued paid sick leave, all applicable hourly

1 rates, all overtime hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including
2 correct hours worked, meal and rest periods penalties, among other things;

3 (f) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct discharge
4 of duties of employment; for example, Defendants:

5 1) failed to reimburse employees for having to use their personal cell
6 phones to discharge their job duties and to answer work-related texts
7 and calls, as required by Defendants;

8 (g) Unlawfully deducting from employees' wages; for example, Defendants:

9 1) deducted for stores' cash shortages from employees' wages whereas 10 no employees' misconduct has occurred;

11 16. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them, were on actual and 12 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 13 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 14 willful and deliberate.

15 17. As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff and 16 the Class suffered injury because, among other things:

17 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
18 minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period
19 premium wages, even though they were entitled;

20 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
21 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
22 wages, even though they had not been;

23 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
24 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
25 wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;

26 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time, 27 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 28 correct California rate even though they had not been;

- (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages owed to them;
- (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;
- (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

18. Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

20. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

21. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a)

22. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

23. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

24. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.
- (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.
- (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly, and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.
- (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the (California Rules of Court), whereby "statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020."

fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

25. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages, as well as on-call/standby pay;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;

- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- (f) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures;
- (g) Unlawfully deducted from Class Members' wages; and
- (h) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

26. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

27. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

28. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

29. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

30. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders that require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

31. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

32. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

33. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

34. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

35. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

36. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

37. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

38. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

39. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they

1 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

2 40. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall 3 not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 4 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
5 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 6 by the IWC is unlawful.

7 41. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight
8 hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of Defendants.

9 42. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
10 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
11 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

12 43. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
13 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class
14 have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 15 them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
16 according to proof at trial.

17 44. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 18 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 19 Plaintiff and the Class.

20 45. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to 21 proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as 22 the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California
23 Labor Code and/or other statutes.

24 46. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 25 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 26 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
27 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
28 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

47. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

48. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff's and the Class's sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

49. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

50. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

52. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer

1 permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour
2 period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 3 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks, as required, is itself
4 a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for 5 an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage
6 Order.

7 53. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 8 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a 9 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 10 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these 11 uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code
12 § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 54. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 14 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), 15 plus interest thereon.

16 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of 18 Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

19 55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
20 paragraphs.

21 56. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that, if 22 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due 23 and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or 24 her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless 25 the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in 26 which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

27 57. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members
28 of the Class ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will

1 be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay
2 terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor
3 Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their 4 leaving Defendants' employ.

5 58. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by 6 Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72)
7 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 8 202.

9 59. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
10 wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as 11 a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced;
12 but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

13 60. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages
14 for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum 15 pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

16 61. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also 17 entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this 18 action.

19 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain

21 Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

22 62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
23 paragraphs.

24 63. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 25 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in 26 writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
27 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
28 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

64. In addition, California Labor Code § 246(i) required employer to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, for use on either the employee's itemized wage statement described in Section 226 or in a separate writing provided on the designated pay date with the employee's payment of wages. If an employer provides unlimited paid sick leave or unlimited paid time off to an employee, the employer may satisfy this section by indicating on the notice or the employee's itemized wage statement "unlimited."

65. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements compliant with these Labor Code sections. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list the true "total hours worked by the employee," and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

66. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 246(i), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

67. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional violations of California §§ 226(a) and 246(i) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

68. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related

1 laws and regulations.

2 69. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their
3 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code §§ 226(a)
4 and 246(i), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

5 70. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 6 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code
7 § 226(h).

8 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

10 71. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
11 paragraphs.

12 72. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial 13 necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their 14 obedience to directions of Defendants.

15 73. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify
16 Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the 17 discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

18 74. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 19 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

20 75. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs
21 of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code
22 § 2802(b).

23 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Against All Defendants for Unlawful Deductions From Wages in Violation of Labor Code 25 §§ 221, 224.)

26 76. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
27 paragraphs.

1 77. Labor Code § 224 prohibits any deduction from an employee's wages which is not
2 either authorized by the employee in writing or permitted by law, and any employer who resorts
3 to self-help does so at its own risk as an objective test is applied to determine whether the loss was 4 due to dishonesty, willfulness, or a grossly negligent act. An employer can lawfully withhold 5 amounts from an employee's wages only: (1) when required or empowered to do so by state or 6 federal law, or (2) when a deduction is expressly authorized in writing by the employee to cover
7 insurance premiums, benefit plan contributions or other deductions not amounting to a rebate on 8 the employee's wages, or (3) when a deduction to cover health, welfare, or pension contributions
9 is expressly authorized by a wage or collective bargaining agreement. (Labor Code §§ 221 and 10 224.)

11 78. The ability of an employer to deduct amounts from an employee's wages due to a
12 cash shortage, breakage, or loss of equipment is specifically regulated by the Industrial Welfare
13 Commission Orders and limited by court decisions. (Kerr's Catering v. Department of Industrial 14 Relations (1962) 57 Cal.2d 319). In addition, there have been several court decisions that 15 significantly restrict an employer's ability to take an offset against an employee's wages. (Barnhill
16 v. Sanders (1981) 125 Cal.App.3d 1 (Balloon payment on separation of employment to repay 17 employee's debt to employer is an unlawful deduction even where the employee authorized such 18 payment in writing); CSEA v. State of California (1988) 198 Cal.App.3d 374 (Unlawful to deduct
19 from current payroll for past salary advances that were in error); Hudgins v. Nieman Marcus (1995)
20 34 Cal.App.4th 1109 (Deductions for unidentified returns from commission sales unlawful.)

21 79. Based on information and belief, Defendants engaged in practice of unlawful 22 deductions from Plaintiff and the Class's wages for cash shortages, among other things.

23 80. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the cash 24 shortages and other unlawful deductions from their wages.

25 81. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs
26 of suit pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

82. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

83. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business & Professions Code § 17201.

84. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

85. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

86. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages

87. Defendants’ failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

88. Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

89. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

90. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Unlawful Deductions From Wages

91. Defendants' unlawful deductions from wages in violation of California Labor Code §§ 221, 224, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

92. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

93. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

94. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

95. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further entitled to, and does, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices

1 in the future.

2 96. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no plain,
3 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered
4 as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a
5 result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff,
6 individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to 7 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 8 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

9 97. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
10 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance, and other 11 withholdings.

12 98. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 13 putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 14 Defendants during a period that commences four years and 178 days prior to the filing of this 15 complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to 16 Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 17 Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

18 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (By Plaintiff Against All Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys 20 General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

21 99. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and reallege, as if fully stated herein, the above
22 paragraphs.

23 100. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 24 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

25 101. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action
26 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law,
27 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
28 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,

1 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a
2 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 3 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

4 102. On July 1, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing pursuant to California
5 Labor Code § 2699.3 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to 6 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against
7 Plaintiff and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support
8 the violations. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-
9 1037374-24 (Gessele Fuentes v. Tryan, Inc.). Sixty-five days have passed and the Labor and 10 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor
11 Code violations discussed in the notice. Plaintiff hereby commences a civil action to recover
12 penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code
13 described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under 14 California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699.

15 103. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award
16 of civil penalties on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and similarly situated Aggrieved
17 Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be 18 shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted 19 by law.

20 104. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant 21 to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, “Any employee who prevails in any action 22 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”

23 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

24 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the 25 class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

26 CLASS CERTIFICATION

27 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to all of its causes of 28 action;

2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and,
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

AS TO THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum and straight time wages due;

5. For unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

7. For liquidated damages;

8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

10. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;

11. For unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

15. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

26. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

30. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

31. For all actual damages, according to proof;

32. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

33. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

34. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

35. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

36. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802 by willfully failing to indemnify employees for expenditures;

37. For unpaid wages or unreimbursed business expenses as may be appropriate;

38. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

39. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

40. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

41. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 221 and 224 for unlawful deductions from wages;

42. For all actual damages, according to proof;

43. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

44. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

46. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to indemnify employees for expenditures, and unlawful deductions from wages.

47. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment

1 interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

2 48. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds
3 disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a
4 result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

5 49. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 6 California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

7 50. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
8 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

9 51. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

10 AS TO THE TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 52. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the California
12 Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages),
13 failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay 14 final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, and failure to indemnify employees for 15 expenditures;

16 53. An award of civil penalties on behalf of Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the 17 State of California, and all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA;

18 54. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

19 55. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

20 56. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,
