COMPLAINT FOR ENFORCEMENT
UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR
CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JUAN ALVARADO GARCIA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff JUAN ALVARADO GARCIA is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

3 times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such
4 agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees,
5 successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly 6 committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or 7 consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

8 14. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 9 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues
10 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on 11 that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
12 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully
13 caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this
14 Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names
15 and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

16 15. Defendants BRAND SCAFFOLD SERVICES, INC., BRANDSAFWAY

18 BRAND INDUSTRIAL SERVICES, INC., BRAND SCAFFOLD SERVICES INC
19 OF CALIFORNIA, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as 20 "Defendants."

21 16. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants
22 identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,
23 wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
24 employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the 25 statutory provisions set forth herein.

26 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

27 17. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment
28 by Defendants.

1 18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under
2 the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the
3 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered
4 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other
5 current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code
6 section 2699.3.

7 19. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an 8 “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and 9 against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

10 20. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were 11 committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved
12 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 13 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 14 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

15 21. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
16 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 17 following requirements have been met:

- 18 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
19 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce
20 Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified
21 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
22 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 23 support the alleged violations.
- 24 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 25 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
26 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar
27 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of 28 the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

22. On July 1, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendants BRAND SCAFFOLD SERVICES, INC., BRANDSAFWAY SERVICES LLC, BRANDSAFWAY INDUSTRIES LLC, BRANDSAFWAY LDAR LLC, BRAND INDUSTRIAL SERVICES, INC., and BRAND SCAFFOLD SERVICES INC OF CALIFORNIA of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff's notice.

23. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

29. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

30. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within the State of California.

31. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other

2 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other

5 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
6 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
7 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not
8 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
9 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

10 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 12 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 13 minimum wages for all hours worked.

14 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 16 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 17 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all
18 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

19 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 21 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
22 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages
23 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
24 Code section 204.

25 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

27 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 28 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The

1 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by
2 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

3 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
5 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
6 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

7 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 9 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

10 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
12 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability 13 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and 14 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
15 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

16 44. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages
17 to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees
18 were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week

52. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.
