DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Sean P. McCoy, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, alleges
2 as follows:

3 NATURE OF ACTION AND INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiff Sean P. McCoy (“Plaintiff”) brings this putative class action against 5 defendant New Legend, Inc. and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), on 6 Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of a putative class of persons who are and were employed
7 by any or all Defendants as non-exempt employees throughout California.

8 2. Defendants provide services or goods throughout California.

9 3. Through this action, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants engaged in a systematic
10 pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare
11 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair 12 competition.

13 4. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 14 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 15 (a) failing to pay all wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages);
- 16 (b) failing to pay wages for non-productive time, including time spent in rest 17 breaks;
- 18 (c) failing to provide lawful meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;
- 19 (d) failing to authorize or permit lawful rest breaks or provide compensation 20 in lieu thereof;
- 21 (e) making improper deductions from employees’ earned wages;
- 22 (f) failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs;
- 23 (g) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
- 24 (h) failing to pay wages timely during employment; and
- 25 (i) failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

26 5. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of Plaintiff and all
27 others similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, un-28 reimbursed business expenses, benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and

1 penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 221, 226.2, 226, 226.7, 510, 512,
2 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and Code of California Civil Procedure §
3 1021.5.

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 6. This is a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. The 6 monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of 7 the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

8 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California
9 Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes
10 except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 11 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

12 8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and 13 belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 14 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 15 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 16 substantial justice.

17 9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
18 reside, transact business, or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein
19 took place in this county.

20 THE PARTIES

21 10. Plaintiff is a resident of California and worked for Defendants during the relevant 22 time periods as alleged herein.

23 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that at all times hereinafter
24 mentioned, Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as 25 employers, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of 26 California.

27 12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued herein
28 under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend this

1 Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities become 2 known.

3 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DOES 1 through 20
4 are or were the partners, agents, owners, shareholders, managers, or employees of Defendants at 5 all relevant times.

6 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each defendant acted
7 in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, carried out a joint
8 scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant
9 are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all respects acted as the 10 employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the class members.

11 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the acts
12 and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or DOES 13 1 through 20, acting as the agent or alter ego for the other, with legal authority to act on the 14 other's behalf. The acts of any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent, the 15 official policy of Defendants.

16 16. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of 17 such agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein. At 18 all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of 19 each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

20 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said
21 Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently, or otherwise responsible for the acts, 22 omissions, occurrences, and transactions alleged herein.

23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24 18. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on Plaintiff's own
25 behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor
26 Code, Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, and IWC Wage Order violations.

27 19. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks 28 relief authorized by California law.

1 20. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

2 Class

3 All California citizens currently or formerly employed by any or all Defendants as 4 non-exempt employees in the State of California at any time between January 22,
5 2020¹ and the date of class certification ("Class").

6 21. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following subclasses of employees:

7 Waiting Time Subclass

8 All members of the Class who separated their employment with any or all
9 Defendants at any time between January 22, 2021 and the date of class
10 certification ("Waiting Time Subclass").

11 22. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish additional 12 subclasses, or modify or re-define any class or subclass definition as appropriate based on 13 investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

14 23. Members of the Class and the Waiting Time Subclass described above will be 15 collectively referred to as "Class Members."

16 24. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 17 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to,
18 the following:

19 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 20 (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked by 21 Plaintiff and Class Members.

22 (b) Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to work over 23 eight (8) hours per day, over twelve (12) hours per day, and/or over forty 24 (40) hours per week and failed to pay them proper overtime compensation
25 for all overtime hours worked.

26 _____
27 ¹ The statute of limitations for this matter was tolled between April 6, 2020 and October 1, 2020
28 pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, Appendix I, Emergency Rule No. 9.

- 1 (c) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of timely meal
2 periods or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through meal
3 periods without legal compensation.
- 4 (d) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of rest breaks
5 or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through rest breaks.
- 6 (e) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members for non-7 productive time, including time spent in rest breaks.
- 8 (f) Whether Defendants made unlawful deductions from Plaintiffs' and class 9 members' wages.
- 10 (g) Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for 11 necessary business-related costs expended for the benefit of Defendants.
- 12 (h) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members 13 accurate itemized wage statements.
- 14 (i) Whether Defendants failed to pay wages timely to Plaintiff and Class
15 Members;
- 16 (j) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay the Waiting Time Subclass all 17 wages due upon termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of 18 resignation.
- 19 (k) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless.
- 20 (l) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 21 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22 25. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed 23 Class and subclasses are readily ascertainable:

24 (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all
25 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to Plaintiff at this time,
26 on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals. The 27 identities of the Class Members are readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants'
28 employment and payroll records.

1 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of the claims
2 (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to comply with the 3 provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each Class Member to similar pay,
4 benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries
5 sustained by the Class Members, because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants'
6 common course of conduct as alleged herein.

7 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the 8 interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims
9 alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed 10 class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and 11 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 12 incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and 13 costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 14 substantial benefit of the Class Members.

15 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action
16 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and 17 expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the 18 same issues can be adjudicated in the same manner for the entire Class and Waiting Time
19 Subclass at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods
20 to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

21 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California violate
22 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights
23 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions
24 because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through 25 negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide class members who are not named 26 in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights while 27 affording them privacy protections.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other California residents as non-exempt employees throughout California.

27. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees, and other professionals who were knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel practices, and the requirements of California law.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive wages for all time worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages) and that they were not receiving all wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid all wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked at the correct rate and within the correct time, and were not paid for non-productive time.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all required meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when a rest break was late, missed, or interrupted. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1)

1 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when a rest break
2 was missed, late, or interrupted.

3 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 4 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to all earned wages without 5 unlawful deductions. In violation of the California Labor Code, Defendants made unlawful 6 deductions from Plaintiff's and Class Members' wages.

7 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 8 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to reimbursement and/or 9 indemnification for all necessary business expenditures or losses as a direct consequence of the 10 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants. In violation of the 11 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary business
12 expenses or losses, but were not reimbursed nor indemnified of such expenses or losses that were 13 incurred as a direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the 14 directions of Defendants.

15 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 16 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive itemized wage
17 statements that accurately showed the following information pursuant to the Labor Code: (1)
18 gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units
19 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all
20 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
21 aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 22 which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or 23 her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
24 number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable 25 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 26 each hourly rate by the employee. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members 27 were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that the Waiting Time Subclass was entitled to timely payment of wages due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, the Waiting Time Subclass did not receive payment of all wages within the permissible time periods.

36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so in order to increase Defendants' profits.

37. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief against Defendants on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover, among other things, unpaid wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages), unpaid meal period premium payments, unpaid rest period premium payments, unreimbursed business expenditures, interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, costs, and expenses.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.2, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; Violation of IWC Wage Order §3-4)

38. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

39. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees fixed by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

40. Labor Code §§ 226.2 provides employees must be paid for non-productive time.

41. Plaintiff and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of Labor Code §§ 226.2, 1194, and 1197.

42. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages owed when Defendants did not pay minimum wage for all hours worked.

1 43. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay at least minimum wage
2 to Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.2, 1194, and 3 1197.

4 44. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the required minimum
5 wage violates Labor Code §§ 226.2, 1194, and 1197. Pursuant to these sections, Plaintiff and 6 Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation
7 as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

8 45. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 9 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and the accrued
10 interest thereon.

11 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

12 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME

13 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.2, 510, 1194, and 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 3)

14 46. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
15 though fully set forth herein.

16 47. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is 17 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half
18 (1½) or two (2) times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours
19 worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

20 48. Labor Code §§ 226.2 provides employees must be paid for non-productive time at 21 the correct rate of pay.

22 49. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that Defendants are and 23 were required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at the rate of one 24 and one-half times (1½) their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in 25 excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and for the first 26 eight (8) hours of work on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

27 50. The applicable IWC Wage Orders further provide that Defendants are and were 28 required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at a rate of two times

1 their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in 2 a day or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

3 51. California Labor Code § 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one
4 and one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a
5 day or forty (40) hours in a week and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh
6 consecutive day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours
7 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the 8 seventh day of work in a workweek.

9 52. Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that employment
10 of more than six days in a workweek is only permissible if the employer pays proper overtime
11 compensation as set forth herein.

12 53. Plaintiff and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of 13 California Labor Code §§ 226.2, 510, and 1194.

14 54. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members
15 to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week, and/or on a seventh 16 consecutive day of work, entitling them to overtime wages.

17 55. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class 18 Members overtime wages for all overtime hours worked. To the extent these hours qualify for 19 the payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid proper overtime 20 wages.

21 56. In violation of California law, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to
22 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned and 23 all hours worked.

24 57. In violation of California law, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to
25 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned and 26 all hours worked and failed to pay for non-productive time.

27 ///

28 ///

58. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor Code §§ 226.2, 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

59. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover their unpaid overtime and double time compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

60. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

61. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

62. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, “[n]o employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee.”

63. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours in a day without providing the employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

64. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

1 65. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members worked more than 2 five (5) or ten (10) hours and did not receive all compliant meal periods because their meal
3 periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a second 4 meal period.

5 66. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require
6 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 7 compensation for each work day that a compliant meal period is not provided.

8 67. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members meal
9 period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b)
10 and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

11 68. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an 12 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and 13 Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

14 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

16 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

17 69. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
18 though fully set forth herein.

19 70. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to 20 work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

21 71. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states "[e]very employer shall 22 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in 23 the middle of each work period[,]" and the "[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the 24 total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major 25 fraction thereof[,]" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

26 72. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all 27 ten (10) minute rest periods for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked, including 28

1 working in excess of ten (10) hours, because they were required to work through their rest
2 periods and/or were not authorized to take their rest periods.

3 73. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires
4 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 5 compensation for each work day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

6 74. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest
7 period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code §
8 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

9 75. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an
10 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class
11 Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

12 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 UNLAWFUL DEDUCTIONS FROM EARNED WAGES

14 (Violation of Labor Code § 221; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

15 76. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
16 though fully set forth herein.

17 77. Labor Code § 221 provides that employers may not collect or receive from an 18 employee any part of wages theretofore paid by said employer to said employee.

19 78. During the relevant time period, Defendants had a policy and practice of making
20 unlawful deductions from earned wages of Plaintiffs and Class Members.

21 79. As a result of Defendants' failure to refrain from making improper deductions
22 from earned wages, Plaintiffs and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages
23 and compensation, the exact amount of damages and/or penalties is all in an amount to be shown 24 according to proof at trial.

25 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

27 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2800, 2802)

1 80. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
2 though fully set forth herein.

3 81. Labor Code § 2800 states that “[a]n employer shall in all cases indemnify his 4 employee for losses caused by the employer’s want of ordinary care.”

5 82. Labor Code § 2802(a) states that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her 6 employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 7 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of 8 the employer”

9 83. Labor Code § 2802(b) states that “[a]ll awards made by a court . . . for 10 reimbursement of necessary expenditures under this section shall carry interest at the same rate
11 as judgments in civil actions. Interest shall accrue from the date on which the employee incurred 12 the necessary expenditure or loss.”

13 84. Labor Code § 2802(c) states that “[f]or purposes of this section, the term
14 “necessary expenditures or losses” shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited
15 to, attorney’s fees incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted by this section.”

16 85. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary
17 business-related costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

18 86. In violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802, Defendants failed to reimburse or 19 indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members for their expenses due to Defendants’ knowing and 20 intentional failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures in connection with Plaintiff’s
21 and Class Members’ work and job duties.

22 87. As a direct result, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and continue to 23 suffer losses, and therefore seek complete reimbursement and indemnification of necessary 24 business expenditures or losses, interest thereon at the required rate, and all reasonable costs in 25 enforcing the rights under Labor Code § 2802, including, but not limited to attorneys’ fees.

26 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

27 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

28 (Violation of Labor Code § 226; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

1 88. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
2 though fully set forth herein.

3 89. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an 4 accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following:
5 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate
6 units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all
7 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
8 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 9 which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her
10 social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number,
11 (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly
12 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 13 hourly rate by the employee.

14 90. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally
15 failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff
16 and Class Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state 17 the gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect, and the 18 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Plaintiff and Class Members.

19 91. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
20 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-
21 protected rights. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to suffer an injury
22 pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor Code §
23 226(a). Plaintiff and Class Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and their 24 protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a). In 25 addition, because Defendants failed to provide the accurate rates of pay on wage statements, 26 Defendants prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from determining if all hours worked were 27 paid at the appropriate rate and the extent of the underpayment. Plaintiff had to file this lawsuit
28 in order to analyze the extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses

1 and lost time. Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had 2 Defendants provided the accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates of pay. This has also
3 delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

4 92. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of 5 all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or fifty
6 dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and one hundred dollars
7 ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding 8 four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per employee, plus attorneys' fees and costs.

9 93. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and 10 Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted 11 in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 12 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members 13 have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according 14 to proof at trial.

15 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

17 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203)

18 94. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
19 though fully set forth herein.

20 95. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 21 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that 22 if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 23 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-24 two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to 25 his or her wages at the time of quitting.

26 96. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay the Waiting
27 Time Subclass all their earned wages upon termination, either at the time of discharge or within 28 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

97. Defendants' failure to pay the Waiting Time Subclass all their earned wages at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

98. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

99. Pursuant to Labor Code § 203, the Waiting Time Subclass is entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty, which is defined as the Waiting Time Subclass members' regular daily wages at their regular hourly rate of pay for each day they were not paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 17200, ET SEQ.

(Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

100. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

101. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair competition, which includes any “unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice . . .”

102. A violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., may be predicated on a violation of any state or federal law. In the instant case, Defendants' policies and practices violated state law, causing Plaintiff and Class Members to suffer and continue to suffer injuries-in-fact.

103. Defendants' policies and practices violated state law in at least the following respects:

(a) Failing to pay all wages earned (including minimum wage, non-productive time, and overtime wages) to Plaintiff and Class Members at the proper

1 rate and in a timely manner in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 226.2, 510,
2 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198.

3 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods without paying Plaintiff and 4 Class Members premium wages for every day said meal periods were not
5 provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

6 (c) Failing to authorize or permit compliant rest breaks without paying
7 Plaintiff and Class Members premium wages for every day said rest
8 breaks were not authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code §
9 226.7.

10 (d) Failing to refrain from making unlawful deductions from wages in 11 violation of Labor Code § 221.

12 (e) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary business-
13 related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

14 (f) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized
15 wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

16 (g) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to the members of the Waiting
17 Time Subclass upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code
18 §§ 201, 202, and 203.

19 104. As alleged herein, Defendants systematically engaged in unlawful conduct in 20 violation of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay all wages 21 (minimum wage, non-productive time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods and 22 rest breaks or compensation in lieu thereof, making unlawful deductions, failing to reimburse 23 necessary business-related costs and expenses, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and 24 failing to pay all wages due and owing upon separation of employment in a timely manner to 25 the Waiting Time Subclass, all in order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase 26 their profits.

27 105. At all relevant times herein, Defendants held themselves out to Plaintiff and Class
28 Members as being knowledgeable concerning the labor and employment laws of California.

106. At all times relevant herein, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and Class Members wages and monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to undercut their competitors and establish and/or gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.

107. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants' acts constitute unfair and unlawful business practices under California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

108. As a result of the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to injunctive relief, disgorgement, and restitution in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

109. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, Class Members, and the general public. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 employee acquired by means of any act or practice declared by this Court to be unlawful, unfair,

9 Code §§ 17200, et seq.;
