1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Alvir Orosco Ambrocio (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed 4 $225,000.00 non-reversionary, wage-and-hour class action settlement (the “Settlement”) with 5 Defendant NIR West Coast, Inc. (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The 6 Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to an estimated 160 Class Members who 7 worked an estimated aggregate of 5,621 Workweeks, of which roughly 99 are Aggrieved
8 Employees who worked an estimated aggregate of 2,415 PAGA Pay Periods. As set forth more 9 fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under 10 California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, informal discovery, and 11 negotiations between the Parties. The negotiations were at arm’s-length and were facilitated 12 through private mediation by an experienced and neutral class action mediator, Michael Ludwig, 13 Esq. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement, certify the 14 proposed Class, approve the proposed Class Notice to Class Members, and set a final approval 15 hearing no earlier than 120 days from the date of preliminary approval.

16 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

17 A. Plaintiff’s Claims and Procedural History

18 This is a wage-and-hour class action and representative action for alleged Labor Code 19 violations and claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, 20 Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). (Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Plaintiff’s 21 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class and Representative Action Settlement [“Moon Decl.”], 22 ¶ 2.) Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all persons who worked for Defendant as an hourly, non-23 exempt employee any time from August 30, 2020, through October 17, 2025 (the “Class Period”), 24 as set forth in the Joint Stipulation of Class and Representative Action Settlement (the 25 “Settlement”). (Id.)

26 Defendant is a roofing company doing business in the State of California. (Id.) Plaintiff 27 was employed by Defendant from approximately May 2023 through June 3, 2024 as a foreman.
28 (Id.) Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class

1 Period. (Declaration of Plaintiff Alvir Orosco Ambrocio in Support of Class and Representative 2 Action Settlement [“Plaintiff Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff contends he and his coworkers were subjected 3 to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for all hours worked. (Id. at 4 ¶ 6; Moon Decl., ¶ 3.)

5 Plaintiff’s claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that 6 Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work, and that Defendant 7 failed to incorporate all remunerations into employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of paying 8 sick pay. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that 9 due to the nature of their work, Class Members’ breaks were often short, late, interrupted, and 10 sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for non-11 compliant breaks. (Id.) Plaintiff also asserts a claim for unreimbursed business expenses based on 12 allegations that Class Members used their personal cellphones for work purposes and purchased 13 certain work equipment, including items such as a nail gun, air hose, chalk line, hammers, and a 14 tool bag, without reimbursement from Defendant. (Id.) Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative 15 claims for waiting time penalties, wage statement violations, unfair business practices, and civil 16 penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

17 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, 18 Plaintiff filed a class action on August 30, 2024, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) failed 19 to pay minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal 20 periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business 21 expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate 22 itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business practices. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

23 Pursuant to PAGA, on August 24, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California
24 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, 25 with certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at ¶ 6, Ex. 2.) On 26 November 1, 2024, Plaintiff timely filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action 27 Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the “Operative 28 Complaint”). (Id. at ¶ 6.) Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently

1 submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned 2 case number. (Id.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the alleged 3 violations or intervene in this Action. (Id.)

4 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
5 (Id. at ¶ 7.) Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including 6 compensating Class Members for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore,
7 Plaintiff and other Class Members were paid all wages owed. (Id.) Defendant argues it did not fail 8 to incorporate any non-discretionary bonuses into the regular rate of pay for purposes of paying 9 sick pay, and that all bonuses were discretionary. (Id.) Defendant maintains compliance with all 10 its meal and rest period obligations. (Id.) Defendant asserts it complied with all its reimbursement 11 obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were compensated for any and all business 12 expenses necessarily incurred. (Id.) To the extent employees received wage statements that were 13 allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no actual damage or harm as a result.
14 (Id.; see, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013
15 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s 16 failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information 17 alone is not sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant 18 alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties 19 since Plaintiff cannot prove Defendant’s alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of 20 separation was “willful.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 7; see, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 21 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, among 22 others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, and further claims it did not 23 engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7.)
24 Defendant also maintains the claims are improper for class treatment, in part, due to the 25 individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims that could bar class certification 26 or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability. (Id.)

1 B. Discovery and Investigation

2 The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Michael Ludwig, Esq., an experienced class
3 and PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 8.) In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol
4 for an informal production of documents and information before mediation. (Id.) Prior to mediation, 5 Plaintiff obtained from Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were 6 necessary and helpful to evaluate the claims asserted in this action. (Id.) Defendant produced a 7 statistically sound sample of time and pay records of approximately 63% of the putative Class, 8 Plaintiff's personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant's written employment policies in 9 effect during the Class Period. (Id.) Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated 10 number of current and formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay 11 Periods. (Id.)

12 In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 13 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant's wage-and-14 hour policies. (Id. at ¶ 9.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records
15 and prepare a damage analysis prior to the mediation. (Id.) The sample time and pay records analyzed 16 contained 12,320 actual shifts worked (representing roughly 42% of total shifts worked in the Class 17 Period), which allowed Plaintiff's expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty.
18 (Id.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated 19 the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, 20 Plaintiff's Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, 21 and Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff's and 22 his Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the pleadings allowed 23 them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

24 C. Settlement Negotiations and Notice of Settlement to the LWDA

25 On October 16, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with 26 Michael Ludwig, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 10.) The negotiation was at arm's length and, although conducted 27 in a professional manner, was adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to 28 explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate

1 their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After a full 2 discussion regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses
3 and with the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution. (Id.) The material terms
4 of the settlement are set out in the Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 2, 10, Ex. 1.)

5 In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 6 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff’s preliminary 7 approval motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 11.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated any 8 objection to the Settlement. (Id.)

9 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

10 Under the Settlement, Defendant will pay a non-reversionary, all-inclusive amount of no 11 less than $225,000.00 (“GSA”) to resolve this action. (Settlement, ¶ 3.0.) Other key terms of the 12 Settlement are outlined in the counsel declaration submitted concurrently herewith. (Moon Decl., 13 ¶¶ 12–28.) The proposed Settlement Administrator—Apex Class Action Administration—was 14 jointly selected by the Parties based on its bid of $6,500.00. (Id. at ¶ 16, Ex. 5; Settlement, ¶ 1.3.)

15 “Aggrieved Employees” is defined as all current and former non-exempt employees of 16 Defendant in the State of California from August 24, 2023, through October 17, 2025. The 17 Settlement allocates $10,000.00 from the GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, 18 which will be distributed 65% ($6,500.00) to the LWDA and 35% ($3,500.00) to Aggrieved
19 Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims. (Settlement, ¶ 1.34.) Each 20 Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 35% share of the PAGA Penalties 21 directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.4.1.) This results in an 22 average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $35.35 for each of the estimated 99 Aggrieved
23 Employees ($3,500.00 / 99), and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $1.45 for each of the 2,415
24 estimated Pay Periods in the PAGA Period ($3,500.00 / 2,415). (Moon Decl., ¶ 17.)

25 The Class is defined as all persons who worked for Defendant as an hourly, non-exempt employee
26 at any time from August 30, 2020, through October 17, 2025. (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) After deducting the Class
27 Representative Enhancement Award, the Class Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments, the PAGA
28 Penalties allocation, and the Administration Expenses Payment from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than $106,000.00 for an estimated Class of 160 individuals.¹ (Moon Decl., ¶ 18.) Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.) The estimated $106,000.00 Net Settlement Amount results in an average Individual Class Payment of roughly $662.50 for each of the estimated 160 Class Members ($$106,000.00 / 160$),² and a Workweek value of roughly $18.86 for each of the 5,621 estimated Workweeks in the Class Period ($$106,000.00 / 5,621$). (Moon Decl., ¶ 20.)

To the best of Plaintiff's Counsel's knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has Defendant pointed to any. (Id. at ¶ 29.)

III. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex cases. (See, e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of Cal. (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277–81.) To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800–01 [citing authority omitted].) To approve a settlement, the Court must find “the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.” (Id.) This Court has wide discretion in making this determination. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness are presumed, as here, when: “(1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow

² At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees is unknown and will be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class Data. (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶ 20, n.3.)

1 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the 2 percentage of objectors is small.” (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1802 [citing Newberg, Newberg on 3 Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 11.41].)

4 In evaluating a settlement, the trial court considers the following factors: (1) the strength of 5 plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk 6 of maintaining class action status through trial; (4) the settlement amount offered; (5) the extent of 7 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) counsel’s experience and views; (7) the 8 presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the class members’ reaction to the proposed 9 settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) To approve a class 10 action settlement, “the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of 11 reasonableness.” (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum 12 theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 13 408–09 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the 14 plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding 15 of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

16 As discussed below, Plaintiff’s Counsel have provided materials and information exceeding 17 the threshold required for this Court to conclude the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

18 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of Investigation, 19 Litigation, and Negotiation

20 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, Informed and Non- 21 Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations, and Realistic Claims Analysis

22 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 23 evidence to the contrary is offered. (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 11.51.)
24 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super. Ct.
25 (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The fact that 26 the plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve 27 the settlement.”].) Thus, there is a presumption here that negotiations were conducted in good faith.

1 Here, Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case.
2 (Moon Decl., ¶ 30.) As previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arms'-length
3 negotiations, private mediation, and the assistance of a statistics expert. (Id.) Based on Defendant's 4 informal class-wide discovery production, on Plaintiff's Counsel independent investigation and 5 evaluation, and on counsel's extensive experience in wage-and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are 6 of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id.)

7 Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 8 Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on 9 information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted 10 exposure that Defendant faced. (Id. at ¶ 31.) Specifically, based on the information provided for 11 mediation, the total estimated realistic recovery (adjusted for risks at certification and proof on the 12 merits) for the alleged claims, including penalties, is estimated to be $329,912.05. (Moon Decl., ¶
13 38.) This amount was calculated as follows: $21,181.36 (90% discount) for the off-the-clock work 14 claim; $465.50 (75% discount) for the regular rate claim; $154,715.67 (75% discount) for the meal 15 period claim; $84,969.32 (90% discount) for the rest period claim; $7,026.25. (90% discount) for the 16 unreimbursed business expenses claim; $37,736.45 (95% discount) for the waiting time penalties 17 claim; $11,742.50 (95% discount) for the wage statement claim; and $12,075.00 (95% discount) for 18 the PAGA penalties claim. (Id. at ¶¶ 32–37.) The foregoing discounts were based on the evidence 19 presented for mediation and arguments made during arm's-length settlement negotiations. (Id.)

20 The $225,000.00 gross settlement figure represents roughly 68% of the total realistic 21 recovery. (Id. at ¶ 38.) This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly because, under the 22 Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of not being 23 able to recover anything. (Id.)

24 2. The Class Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties' Respective Positions

25 and Significant Risks to Certification and Proof on the Merits

26 A settlement is not judged against what a plaintiff might recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 27 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba 28 v. Apple Comp., Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 ["Compromise is inherent and necessary

1 in the settlement process . . . even if ‘the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially 2 narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated,’ this is no bar to a class 3 settlement because ‘the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each 4 side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.’”] [quoting Air Line Stewards v. Am. Airlines, 5 Inc. (7th Cir. 1972) 455 F.2d 101, 109].)

6 Here, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, 7 appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 8 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 30.) While Plaintiff is 9 confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id.
10 at ¶ 41.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount owed to each Class Member would be an 11 expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

12 The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 13 some of Plaintiff’s claims. (Id. at ¶ 42.) Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing 14 at trial due to low or no participation by Class Members. (Id.) Indeed, the individualized and testimony-15 intensive nature of the claims could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise 16 significantly reduce any recovery whatsoever. (Id.) For example, the rest period and unreimbursed 17 expense claims are testimony-driven claims and assume a 100% violation rate, which would not 18 likely be demonstrated at trial, as it assumes either the participation of all employees (which would 19 be difficult given the reality that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to 20 fear of retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would 21 still require the participation of a majority of employees to establish a sound representation of all 22 non-exempts). (Id.) Even assuming employees would be willing to participate, obtaining declarations 23 would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a different experience. (Id.)

24 Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 25 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial 26 and possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. (Id. at ¶ 27 43.) Although the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, 28 and class-wide data analysis, they have not conducted extensive formal discovery. (Id.) Moreover,

1 preparation for class certification and a trial would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of 2 appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment
3 ruling. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys’ fees and costs through 4 trial. (Id.) In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further 5 litigation. (Id.)

6 The proposed $225,000.00 Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when 7 compared to the reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 44.) When considering the 8 risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary 9 to establish liability, and the probability of appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the 10 “ballpark” of reasonableness, and that preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.; (Kullar, 11 supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 133; see Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at pp. 408–09.)

12 3. The PAGA Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties’ Respective Positions 13 and Significant Risks

14 With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that 15 satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and 16 providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Moon Decl., ¶ 39; 17 Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage 18 in informal class-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 39.) Defendant will also 19 have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is 20 granted. (Id.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs as well as the employer’s share of payroll 21 taxes, Defendant will pay no less than $225,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which $10,000.00 is 22 allocated toward the PAGA claims and will be distributed, in compliance with PAGA law governing 23 the claims in this action, as 65% ($6,500.00) to the LWDA and 35% ($3,500.00) to Aggrieved
24 Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees 25 from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties.
26 (Id.)

27 Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly 28 contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff

1 prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id.)
2 Indeed, under PAGA, a Court can reduce penalties “if, based on the facts and circumstances of the 3 particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 4 confiscatory.” (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award
5 granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 6 39.) Further, Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative 7 basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, penalties would 8 likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and in light of other 9 defenses available to Defendant. (Id. at ¶ 40.) Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be 10 successful at trial, assuming he is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 11 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 12 Settlement. (Id.)

13 In sum, the $10,000.00 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes “genuine 14 and meaningful” that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” 15 (See O’Connor v. Uber Tech., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133–35 [denying settlement 16 approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].)

17 4. Plaintiff’s Counsel Have Extensive Experience in Class and PAGA Action
18 Litigation, Which Was Integral to Negotiating the Settlement

19 The Settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable counsel with considerable 20 experience and demonstrated competence with litigating wage-and-hour class actions. (Moon Decl., 21 ¶¶ 49–64.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their 22 clients and are experienced in handling complex wage-and-hour class action litigation. (Id.) Their 23 experience was helpful in assessing the reasonableness of the Settlement at issue here, and from this 24 experience they concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than 25 provided under the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 63.) Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to try 26 the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interest 27 of the Class based on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed against the risks, 28 expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 10, 30.)

1 B. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

2 Subject to the Court’s approval, the Settlement provides a fee application of one-third of the 3 GSA for Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not to 4 exceed $20,000.00.³ (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.2.) These amounts are disclosed to Class Members in the 5 proposed Class Notice and are reasonable. (Id. at Ex. A.)

6 1. Counsel Request a Fees Award Based On the “Common Fund” Method

7 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 8 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.)
9 The California Supreme Court has held, “when a number of persons are entitled in common to a 10 specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the 11 creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney’s fees out 12 of the fund.” (Id. at p. 34.)

13 Plaintiff’s Counsel seek an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 14 fund” theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 65.) The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs 15 proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 16 burden alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State 17 of California (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, “one who expends 18 attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require 19 those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in 20 City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court 21 recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an 22 action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons[] are entitled to share.” (Id. at pp.
23 110–11 [pincite omitted].)

24 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half International Inc. (2016) 1 25 Cal.5th 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 26

27
28 ³ Plaintiff’s Counsel’s current litigation costs are $14,586.37, and they anticipate incurring additional costs up to final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶ 70, Ex. 4.)

1 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 2 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 3 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 4 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 5 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 6 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation[]— 7 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.” (Id.
8 [internal citations omitted].) This line of legal authority supports a request for attorneys’ fees based 9 on the percentage of recovery/common fund method.

10 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

11 According to a leading treatise on class actions: “No general rule can be articulated on what 12 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 13 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 14 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 15 are not unprecedented.” (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ 16 fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty 17 percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van 18 Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 297 [stating that most cases 19 where 30–50% was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

20 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fees request for one-third of the GSA is in line with the prevailing 21 guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in 22 California. (Compare Settlement, ¶ 3.1.2, with Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, 23 n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method 24 is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, 25 Plaintiff requests the Court preliminarily approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties.

26 3. This Matter Involves a “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

27 Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699, and 2802 provide for the recovery of reasonable 28 fees and costs of suit, for the claims made in this action. (Lab. Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699(k)(1), 1 2802(d).) Under these sections, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, 2 even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This 3 Settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, 4 energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff’s Counsel for their 5 decision to assume risk by taking on this matter on a contingent basis with no guarantee of recovery.

6 (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 66–71.) In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for 7 Plaintiff’s Counsel. (Id.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this litigation, they committed to pursue
8 it to its conclusion, placing their fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns. (Id. at ¶ 68.)

9 4. Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Fees Request

10 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 11 and employees, Plaintiff’s Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Id. at 12 ¶¶ 49–64.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in numerous class 13 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) As noted above, their experience in wage-and-hour 14 litigation was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and 15 the reasonableness of the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 63.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour 16 litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and 17 federal) as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 61.) Based on these and other 18 factors, Plaintiff’s Counsel have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross 19 recovery for the class. (See id. at ¶¶ 53, 58, 59, 60.) Because it is reasonable to compensate counsel 20 commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

21 C. The Enhancement Award to Plaintiff Is Reasonable

22 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 23 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members 24 of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class 25 action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are 26 necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class 27 representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 28 563 F.3d 948, 958–59.) Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage-and-hour cases

1 because they promote the important public policies underlying the wage-and-hour laws. This strong 2 policy is codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this 3 state to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required 4 or permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, 5 the California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory 6 rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect 7 employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, class 8 representatives should be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members.
9 (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

10 Under the Settlement here, subject to the Court’s approval, a Class Representative 11 Enhancement Award of $7,500.00 will go to Plaintiff, in addition to his amount as a Class Member.
12 (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.1.) This award is for his services in support of the Action and General Release. (Id.
13 at ¶ 1.14.) Plaintiff has devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case and 14 communicated with counsel frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 15 45–48; Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 19–22.) The requested award is fair and reasonable, particularly considering 16 the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all Class Members. (Moon Decl., ¶ 44.)

17 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested 18 here is particularly reasonable. A 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class 19 action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was 20 $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive
21 Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1307–08.) 22 The same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an 23 average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other 24 employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id.
25 at p. 1333.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the 26 “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of 27 their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.) 28

1 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

2 A. Legal Standard

3 The proposed Class is well suited for class certification. The claims all derive from a core set 4 of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 3–4.) For 5 the reasons set forth more fully below, the Class, for purposes of Settlement, satisfies the prerequisites
6 for certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382. (Code Civ. Proc. § 382.) Section 382 7 provides that “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when 8 the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may 9 sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Id.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) there must 10 be an ascertainable class[]; and (2) there must be a well defined community of interest in the 11 questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co.
12 (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [internal citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the California 13 Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-14 interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant common questions of law or fact; 15 (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives 16 who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

17 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
18 (Id. at pp. 469–73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 19 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers 20 are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the 21 appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 22 Cal.3d at pp. 473–75.)

23 B. The Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied

24 1. The Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

25 When determining whether a class is ascertainable, California courts focus on the following 26 three factors: “(1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class and (3) the means of identifying class 27 members.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 873.) Here, Plaintiff maintains there is an 28 easily ascertainable Class, defined by objective and precise criteria. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.4, 1.12.) The

1 proposed Class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is ascertainable because (1) the Class definition is 2 sufficiently precise, (2) the Class consists of about 160 individuals, and (3) Class Members can be 3 readily identified by Defendant’s records. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.4, 1.8, 1.12.) Because Class Members are 4 identified using specific criteria in the regular business records of Defendant—their employment by 5 Defendant in California, non-exempt classification, hourly wage, and actual work during the Class
6 Period—the Class is ascertainable. (See Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 7 959–60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is 8 sufficient to make the class ascertainable].) “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 9 that there be ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose 10 v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to 11 ‘many’ persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous 12 and it is in fact practicable to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for 13 the maintenance of a class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing 14 the 10 beneficiaries of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id. [citing Bowles v. Super.
15 Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574]; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a class of 9 16 plaintiffs and 35 members].) Therefore, numerosity is plainly satisfied.

17 2. There Are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

18 To satisfy the community of interest requirement, a proponent must show (1) common 19 questions of law and fact that predominate over individual issues, (2) class representatives have 20 claims or defenses typical of the class, and (3) class representatives adequately represent the class.
21 (Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1806.) This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently 22 cohesive to rationally warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE 23 Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 605, 611–12.)

24 Here, Plaintiff’s claims satisfy all three requirements. The employment practices at issue 25 include whether Defendant: paid employees all minimum, overtime, double time, and sick pay wages 26 owed; reimbursed employees for necessary business expenses; provided employees with and 27 authorize meal and rest periods or paid premiums for non-compliant breaks; paid all final wages to 28 employees at the time of termination; intentionally failed to pay all final wages; provided inaccurate

1 itemized wage statements and whether Class Members were harmed; engaged in unfair
2 business practices; and violated civil penalty provisions under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 3–4.)
3 Plaintiff contends the factual and legal issues are the same for all Class Members, and further that all 4 Class Members suffered from and seek redress for the same alleged injuries. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 3– 5 7.) Considering Class Members would need to prove the same issues of law and fact to prevail, and 6 their legal remedies are identical, it would be preferable to resolve all claims through a settlement
7 than to force each Class Member to litigate their own individual claims. Thus, the Court should grant 8 conditional class certification for settlement purposes because common questions of law and fact 9 predominate over any individual questions within the Class.

10 3. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

11 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 12 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather, upon the 13 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 14 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“The only requirements a re [sic] that 15 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated” 16 vis-à-vis the class.] [emphasis in original].) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class 17 if they arise from the same event, practice, or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same 18 legal theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant and 19 alleges he was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees.
20 (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 2–8.)

21 4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

22 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: (1) a named 23 plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation, and (2) a named 24 plaintiff’s interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of Am. (1976) 60 25 Cal.App.3d 442, 450.)

26 Here, all requirements are met. Plaintiff retained counsel with extensive experience in 27 prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Moon 28 Decl., ¶¶ 49–64.) Based on their experience, Plaintiff’s Counsel unquestionably are “qualified,

1 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” (Miller, supra, 148 Cal.App.3d
2 at p. 874.) Plaintiff has, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, 3 showing dedication, and with full knowledge and acceptance of duties, he has committed to his role
4 as Class Representative. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 11–22.) In addition, Plaintiff and his Counsel have no
5 conflicts with one another, other Class Members, or the proposed Administrator. (Id. at ¶¶ 8–10;
6 Moon Decl., ¶ 64.)

7 5. A Class Action Is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

8 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class action 9 would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation. (See 10 Leyva v. Medline Indus. Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 514–15.) By consolidating many potential 11 individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the class action device enables it to 12 manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of time, effort, and expense for the 13 litigants and the judicial system. (Id.) Absent class treatment, similarly situated employees with 14 small, but nevertheless meritorious, claims for damages would, as a practical matter, have no means 15 of redress because of the time, effort, and expense required to prosecute individual actions. (Id. at p.
16 515; Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457–62.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority
17 concerns are essentially non-existent. (See generally, e.g., Stamburgh, supra, 62 Cal.App.3d.)

18 V. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND AND 19 SATISFIES RULES OF COURT

20 Class Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 21 rule 3.766(e)–(f), rule 3.769(f).) Here, the proposed Class Notice, in the form attached to the 22 Settlement as Exhibit A, meets all the requirements of California Rules of Court. The Class Notice 23 summarizes the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement in an 24 informative and coherent manner. (Settlement, ¶¶ 6.3, Ex. A.) It also states that the final approval 25 decision has yet to be made, and provides the date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing.
26 (Id.) It explains the right and procedures to opt-out or submit any written objections and/or arrange 27 to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and verbally state any objections. (Id.) It makes clear the 28 Settlement does not constitute an admission of liability by Defendant, who denies all liability, and it

1 recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of the action. (Id.) Thus, the proposed Notice
2 meets all the requirements of California Rule of Court 3.769(f). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(f).)

3 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Newberg, 4 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 8.39.) Accordingly, the Notice complies with the 5 standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification 6 class notice.

7 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 8 program. (Cartt v. Super. Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 970, 973–74.) There is no statutory or due 9 process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, Class Members 10 will receive direct mailed notice, which is the best possible form of notice under the circumstances.
11 (Settlement, ¶ 6.3.) As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a 12 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class Members . . .” (Cartt, 50 13 Cal.App.3d at p. 974.)

14 VI. CONCLUSION

15 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant this motion, enter the 16 proposed order submitted herewith regarding preliminary approval, and set a final approval hearing 17 no earlier than 120 days from the preliminary approval order.

18 Respectfully submitted,
