1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Kyle Kellum (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a Class Action and 4 PAGA Action Settlement Agreement (“Settlement”) with Defendant Ace Plumbing & Rooter, 5 Inc. (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”).

6 The Settlement resolves a Class Action and PAGA Action pending before this Court (the 7 “Action”), in which Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay minimum wages, failed to pay 8 overtime wages, and failed to authorize and permit all rest periods. Plaintiff further alleges that 9 as a result of these violations, Defendant failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements, failed 10 to pay all wages on termination of employment, and is liable for civil penalties under the Private 11 Attorneys General act (“PAGA”).

12 Plaintiff now respectfully requests that this Court preliminarily approve this non-13 reversionary, common-fund class action Settlement¹, in which Defendant has agreed to pay 14 $576,000 to the following Settlement Class, which is estimated to consist of approximately 178 15 individuals: All non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California at any time 16 from August 26, 2020 until June 30, 2025.

17 The Settlement was reached after two mediation session. In connection with mediation, 18 Defendant provided Plaintiff with extensive informal discovery, including Class Members’ 19 records, relevant written policies, additional relevant data and information. Defendant also 20 produced relevant financial records to support its defense of financial distress. After extensive 21 research and investigation, including a detailed analysis of Defendant’s potential exposure and 22 financial condition, the Parties attended the first mediation session with wage and hour mediator 23 Craig J. Ackerman, Esq. on March 3, 2025. A resolution was not reached at the first mediation.

24 Thereafter, a second mediation was held on June 13, 2025 with Hon. Mitchel R. Goldberg 25 (Ret.), a respected and well-regarded retired federal bankruptcy judge and wage and hour 26 mediator. At the second mediation, the merits of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s financial 27 condition were debated and considered, and the Parties were able to agree to a mediator’s proposal

28

¹ The Settlement is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Larsen Declaration. The Class Notice and Notice of Estimated Settlement Award, respectively, are attached as Exhibits A and B to the Settlement.

1 to resolve the Action. Over the following months, the Parties negotiated the finer terms of the 2 Settlement, ultimately resulting in the Settlement Agreement before the Court.

3 As noted above, Defendant made representations regarding its financial condition and 4 agreed to produce relevant financial records to Plaintiff. In the opinion Judge Goldberg, 5 Defendant could not pay more than the negotiated $576,000 Gross Settlement Amount and would 6 need to fund the Settlement in an installment payment plan. See Declaration of Hon. Mitchel R.
7 Goldberg (Ret.) (“Goldberg Decl.”), ¶¶ 1-4.

8 Notably, Settlement Class Members need not submit a claim to receive a payment 9 (“Settlement Award”). After deductions for proposed administration costs, attorneys’ fees and 10 costs, Plaintiff’s Class Representative Service Payment, and the LWDA’s share of PAGA civil 11 penalties, the average Settlement Award is estimated to be approximately $1,705.06. For the 12 reasons discussed herein, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary approval 13 of the Settlement.

14 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

15 A. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

16 Defendant is a privately held company that offers plumbing, water heater, and sewer 17 services in and around the San Francisco area. See Declaration of Neil M. Larsen (“Larsen 18 Decl.”), ¶ 7. Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a non-exempt plumber employee from 19 approximately April 2022 to approximately January 2024. Id.

20 On August 23, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a notice letter to Defendant and to the Labor and 21 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), notifying Defendant and the LWDA of his intent 22 to pursue civil penalties for wage statement violations under the Private Attorneys’ General Act 23 (“PAGA”). Larsen Decl., ¶ 8, Exhibit 2.

24 On August 26, 2024, Plaintiff filed the Class Action Complaint alleging causes of action 25 for: (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to authorize 26 and permit rest periods; (4) wage statement violations; (5) failure to timely pay final wages; and 27 (6) violation of the Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”). Larsen Decl., ¶ 8.

28 On October 31, 2024, Plaintiff filed the First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“FAC”), which added a cause of action for civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. Larsen Decl., ¶ 9.

On November 20, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the FAC to the LWDA. Id., Exhibit 3.

B. PLAINTIFF’S CLAIMS AND DEFENDANT’S DEFENSES

1. Commission Claims

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to separately compensate him and other Class Members for all required rest period time they were entitled to when they were compensated on a commission-only basis. Larsen Decl., ¶ 10; see Vaquero v. Stoneledge Furniture LLC, 9 Cal.App.5th 98, 114 (2017) (holding that a commission pay plan was unlawful because it did not separately compensate for rest periods, stating “[w]e agree with Bluford that Wage Order 7 requires employers to separately compensate employees for rest periods if an employer’s compensation plan does not already include minimum hourly wage for such time”).

Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to separately compensate Class Members who were paid on a commission-only basis for “non-productive” time, such as time spent cleaning/repairing work trucks and training new hires. Larsen Decl., ¶ 10; see Gonzalez v. Downtown LA Motors, LP, 215 Cal.App.4th 36, 40-41 (2013) (“DTLA”) (“...we conclude that class members [paid on a piece-rate basis] were entitled to separate hourly compensation for time spent waiting for repair work or performing other non-repair tasks directed by the employer...”); see also Vaquero v. Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc., 824 F.3d 1150 (9th Cir. 2016) (affirming certification of a class of commission-only “sales associates” based on the failure to compensate for “non-sales” time).

Defendant argues that its commission pay plan complies with California law and that it has always compensated its commissioned-based employees for all required rest periods. Larsen Decl., ¶ 10. Defendant argues that at all times throughout the Class Period it has calculated separate rest period compensation for its commissioned based employees in accordance with Labor Code § 226.2. Id. Defendant also argues that employees experienced minimal (if any) uncompensated “non-productive” time. Id., ¶ 11. Additionally, Defendant argues that any

1 questions of non-productive time would be highly individualized, as employees worked in a 2 variety of locations, and there are no records or other common evidence of time spent on 3 potentially non-productive tasks necessary to establish class-wide liability, thereby precluding 4 certification. Id.

5 2. Failure to Pay All Wages Owed – On Call Time

6 Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to pay him and other Class Members all 7 wages owed during the Class Period, because Defendant required employees to remain on-call 8 and subject to Defendant’ control without being compensated. Larsen Decl., ¶ 12. Defendant 9 argues that it consistently pays employees for all hours worked. Id. Defendant further argues that 10 this claim would not be certified, as it would require individual inquiries into each unique event 11 and each employee, as to whether the employee was subject to Defendant’s control, how much 12 on call time each incident consisted of, and whether such uncompensated on call time was 13 reported to Defendant. Id.

14 3. Rest Period Claim

15 Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to authorize and permit rest periods. Larsen 16 Decl., ¶ 13; Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct., 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1028-32 (2012) (discussing 17 rest period requirements). Defendant argues that it has always maintained legally compliant rest 18 period policies, and that, in practice, it has always authorized and permitted all required rest 19 periods to non-exempt employees; that it informs employees of their right to rest periods; and that 20 any failure to take a rest period is the result of employee choice rather than any policy or practice 21 of Defendant. Id. Defendant further argues that this claim is not amenable to class treatment as 22 individualized inquiries would be required to determine whether individual employees were in 23 fact authorized and permitted to take rest periods on any given shift, under various supervisors 24 and time periods, thus precluding class certification. Id. These manageability concerns are 25 particularly present with respect to rest periods, Defendant contend, since rest periods are not (and 26 need not be) recorded. Id.

27 4. Claims Under Lab. Code §§ 203, 226, and the PAGA

28 As a result of its alleged failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, as well as its

1 alleged failure to authorize and permit rest periods, Plaintiff asserts that Defendant failed to 2 comply with its final payment and wage statement obligations, in violation of Cal. Labor Code 3 §§ 203 and 226, respectively. Larsen Decl., ¶ 14. Finally, Plaintiff seeks civil penalties under the 4 PAGA based on the aforementioned claims and also for Defendant’s alleged failure to maintain 5 accurate timekeeping records for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 6 Labor Code §1174. Id.

7 Defendant argues that Plaintiff’s derivative claims fail for the same reasons his underlying 8 claims fail. Id., ¶ 14. Defendant further asserts that it has strong, good-faith defenses to Plaintiff’s 9 underlying claims, precluding waiting time penalties. See 8 Cal. Code Regs. § 13520 (a “good 10 faith dispute that any wages are due will preclude imposition of waiting time penalties”); Kao v.
11 Joy Holiday, 12 Cal.App.5th 947, 963 (2017) (holding “good faith dispute” precluded imposition 12 of waiting time penalties). Defendant further contends that any alleged wage statement violations 13 were not “knowing and intentional,” particularly given its good-faith defenses; that Plaintiff 14 cannot show that he or other employees “suffer[ed] injury” due to alleged wage statement 15 violations, as required by Lab. Code § 226(e); and that employee wage statements always 16 accurately reflect amounts paid to employees. Larsen Decl., ¶ 14; see also Maldonado v. Epsilon 17 Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal.App.5th 1308, 1336-37 (2018) (“The purpose of section 226 is to 18 ‘document the paid wages to ensure the employee is fully informed regarding the calculation of 19 those wages.”) (citing Soto v. Motel 6 Operating, L.P., 4 Cal.App.5th 385, 392 (2016)).

20 Finally, Defendant argues that Plaintiff’s PAGA claim fails because the underlying claims 21 fail. See, e.g., Price v. Starbucks Corp., 192 Cal.App.4th 1136, 1147 (2011) (“Because the 22 underlying causes of action fail, the derivative UCL and PAGA claims also fail.”). Defendant 23 further argues that given its strong defenses and its good-faith attempts to comply with the law, 24 the Court would substantially reduce PAGA penalties even if it were to find in Plaintiff’s favor 25 on his claims for civil penalties. Larsen Decl., ¶ 15; see also Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2) (authorizing 26 discretionary reduction in PAGA penalties); Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc., 203 27 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (2012) (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties because, inter alia, “the 28 evidence showed...Defendant took their obligations...seriously and attempted to comply with the law”); Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., No. ED-CV-10-1487-RGK (OPx), 2011 WL 7563047 at *4 (C.D. Cal. 2011) (reducing PAGA penalties by over 82% in part because employer was “not aware” of violations); Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal.App.5th 504, 529 (2018) (affirming PAGA penalty of just $5 per pay period where employer made “good faith attempts” to comply with the law).

C. DISCOVERY AND MEDIATION

In connection with mediation, the Parties engaged in extensive informal discovery. Defendant produced Class Members’ records, relevant written policies, additional relevant data and information, and requested financial records pertaining to Defendant’s financial condition. Larsen Decl., ¶ 16. Plaintiff’s counsel analyzed and extrapolated the data produced by Defendant. Id. This discovery allowed the Parties to assess the merits and value of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, as well as the chances for class certification. Id. Plaintiff’s counsel also analyzed Defendant’s financial records to assess Defendant’s financial condition. Id.

The Parties attended the first mediation session with wage and hour mediator Craig J. Ackerman, Esq. on March 3, 2025, during which they vigorously debated the merits of Plaintiff’s claims, Defendant’s defenses, and Defendant’s financial condition and ability to sustain a class-wide settlement. Larsen Decl., ¶ 17. The Parties did not reach a resolution at the first mediation. Id. Thereafter, a second mediation was held on June 13, 2025 with Hon. Mitchel R. Goldberg (Ret.), a respected and well-regarded retired federal bankruptcy judge and wage and hour mediator. Id. Following a contentious and arms’ length second mediation, in which the merits of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s financial condition were debated and considered, the Parties were able to agree to a mediator’s proposal to resolve the Action. Id. Over the following months, the Parties negotiated the finer terms of the Settlement, ultimately resulting in the Settlement Agreement before the Court. Id.

III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. ESSENTIAL TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

Under the Settlement, Defendant will pay a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”) of $576,000.00. The monetary terms of the Settlement are summarized below:

- Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”): $576,000.00

• Minus Court-approved attorneys' fees (one-third):	$192,000.00
• Minus Court-approved costs (up to):	$20,000.00
• Minus Court-approved Service Payment:	$7,500.00
• Minus Amount Set Aside as PAGA penalties:	$40,000.00
• Minus estimated settlement administration costs:	$13,000.00
Net Settlement Amount ("NSA"):	$303,500.00
PLUS 35% of PAGA penalties ("PAGA Amount"):	$14,000.00
Total Amount Paid to Settlement Class:	$317,500.00

1. The Settlement Provides for Reasonable Monetary Payments

As noted above, after deducting amounts for attorneys' fees, litigation costs, Plaintiff's Class Representative Service Payment, PAGA penalties, and administration costs, the Settlement provides for the total distribution of approximately $317,500.00 to the Settlement Class and PAGA Group. See Settlement, § 15(a).

The NSA shall be distributed to Participating Class Members (i.e., those Settlement Class members who do not opt-out of the Settlement) as follows: The NSA will be distributed to all Participating Class Members based on each Participating Class Member's proportional number of workweeks worked for Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California during the Class Period. See Settlement, §§ 1, 2, 12. The Settlement Administrator will calculate each Participating Class Member's payment from the NSA by multiplying the NSA by a fraction, the numerator of which is the participating Class Member's number of workweeks, and the denominator of which is the total workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members. Id., § 12. There are approximately 178 Settlement Class members. Larsen Decl., ¶ 19. Thus, the average Settlement Award to Class Members is estimated to be $1,705.06. Id.

In addition, all Aggrieved Employees (regardless whether they opt-out from the Class Action portion of the Settlement) who worked for Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California at any time between August 26, 2023 until June 30, 2025 (the "PAGA Period"), will receive a portion of the $14,000.00 PAGA Amount, based on their proportionate number of pay periods worked during the PAGA Period. See Settlement, §§ 6, 7, 13. There are approximately 70 Aggrieved Employees. Larsen Decl., ¶ 20. Thus, the average payment to Aggrieved Employees is estimated to be $200.00. Id.

Payments from the NSA will be treated as 20% wages reported on a Form W-2, with the remaining 80% treated as interest and penalties and reported on a Form 1099. See Settlement, §

1 15(c). Payments from the PAGA Amount will be treated as 100% penalties. Id. Defendant will 2 separately pay the employer's share of payroll taxes on the amount designated as "wages," in 3 addition to the GSA. See Settlement, §§ 15, 22.

4 2. Notice Period, Requests for Exclusion, Objections, and Release of Claims

5 Settlement Class members will have sixty (60) days from the Notice mailing to opt-out of 6 or object to the Settlement, or submit disputes, thereby providing ample time to review the Notice 7 without unduly delaying the Settlement. See Settlement, §§ 15-16, page 6.

8 Participating Class Members will be bound by the Settlement and will release and 9 discharge Defendant and any of its directors, officers, members, parents, and subsidiaries (the 10 "Released Parties") from any and all causes of action, claims, rights, damages, and penalties under 11 California law that were alleged in the Complaint, or that could have been alleged based on the 12 facts alleged in the Complaint, including but not limited to: (a) any alleged failure by Ace 13 Plumbing (1) to pay at least the minimum wage for all hours worked, (2) to pay all overtime 14 wages owed, (3) to authorize and permit rest periods or pay rest period premiums, (4) to issue 15 accurate itemized wage statements, or (5) to timely pay all final wages; (b) any claim for unfair 16 business practices based on the alleged failures set forth in (a)(1) through (5) above; and (c) any 17 violation of the California Labor Code arising from or relating to the conduct alleged in (a)(1) 18 through (5) above, including, without limitation, violation of California Labor Code sections 201-19 204, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 510, 516, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, or any other applicable state statute, rule 20 and/or regulation (e.g., Wage Order), arising from Class Member employment with Ace 21 Plumbing during the Class Period ("Released Class Claims"). See Settlement, § 8.

22 In addition, all Aggrieved Employee (regardless whether they opt-out from the Class 23 Action portion of the Settlement) who worked for Defendant as a non-exempt employee in 24 California at any time during the PAGA Period, will release any right or claim for civil penalties 25 or other relief pursuant to the PAGA arising under the California Labor Code or Wage Orders 26 based on the allegations set forth in the PAGA notice letter submitted by Plaintiff to the California 27 Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("L WDA"), including but not limited to civil penalties 28 and other PAGA relief based on the alleged violations set forth in (a)(1) through (a)(5) in the immediately preceding paragraph, arising from Aggrieved Employees' employment with Ace Plumbing during the PAGA Period ("Released PAGA Claims"). See Settlement, § 9.

3. Funding of the Settlement & Payment Schedule of Settlement Proceeds

The Gross Settlement Amount shall be funded by Defendant via a three year installment payment plan, with installment payments beginning to accrue as of July 1, 2025. See Settlement, §19.² Within ten (10) calendar days of the Effective Date, Defendant shall deposit with the Settlement Administrator all installment payments that had been accruing between July 1, 2025 and the Effective Date.³ See Settlement, §§ 11, 19. Defendant shall then continue to fund the remaining outstanding Gross Settlement Amount in quarterly payments, in accordance with the Parties' installment payment plan. Id.

Distribution payments to Participating Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff for the Class Representative Service Payment, the Settlement Administrator, and Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and costs, will be made by the Settlement Administrator in three annual distributions: with the first annual distribution being made within ten (10) business days after Defendant funds the first 4 quarterly installments (i.e. $45,000 per quarter, totaling $180,000) ("Year 1" distribution); the second annual distribution will be made within ten (10) business days after Defendant funds the 5th-8th quarterly installments (i.e. $48,000 per quarter, totaling $192,000) ("Year 2" distribution); and the third annual distribution made within ten (10) business days after Defendant funds the 9th-12th quarterly installments (i.e. $51,000 per quarter, totaling $204,000) ("Year 3" distribution), pursuant to the following schedule (See Settlement, §§ 11, 19(a-c)):

- a) Year 1 Distribution: Defendant will submit a payment to the Settlement Administrator in the amount of $180,000.00: The Year 1 payment will be distributed as follows: (a) one-third of the Settlement Administration Costs, (b) the full amount of approved legal costs, (c) one-third of the PAGA payment that will be sent to the LWDA, (d) one-third of the Service Payment to Plaintiff, and (e) one-third of the approved attorney fees. For instance, if all requested amounts are approved, Defendant would pay: (a) $4,333.33 in ² The payment plan was warranted based on a review and analysis of Defendant's financial condition. See Declaration of Judge Mitchel Goldberg (Ret.).

Administration Costs, (b) $20,000 in legal costs, (c) $8,666.67 to be sent to the LWDA out of an allocation of $26,000.00, (d) $2,500.00 service payment to Plaintiff, (e) $64,000 in attorneys' fees, (f) and the remainder of the Year 1 payment of $80,500.00 to be distributed to the Class for a total payment in Year 1 of $180,000.00.

b) Year 2 Distribution. Defendant will submit a payment to the Settlement Administrator in the amount of $192,000.00, which will cover: (a) one-third of the PAGA payment that will be sent to the LWDA, (b) one-third of the Settlement Administration costs, (c) one-third of the Service Payment to Plaintiff, (d) one-third of the approved attorney fees, and (e) the remainder of the Year 2 payment to be distributed to Class Members. For instance, if all requested amounts are approved, Defendant would pay (a) $8,666.67 to be sent to the LWDA out of an allocation of $26,000.00, (b) $4,333.33 in Administration Costs, (c) $2,500.00 service payment to Plaintiff, (d) $64,000 in attorneys' fees, (e) and the remainder of the Year 2 payment of $112,500.00 to be distributed to the Class, for a total payment in Year 2 of $192,000.00.

c) Year 3 Distribution. Defendant will submit a payment to the Settlement Administrator in the amount of $204,000.00 to cover: (a) one-third of the PAGA payment that will be sent to the LWDA, (b) one-third of the Settlement Administration costs, (c) one-third of the Service Payment to Plaintiff, one-third of the approved attorney fees, and (e) the remainder of the Year 3 payment to be distributed to Class Members. For instance, if all requested amounts are approved, Defendant would pay (a) $8,666.67 to be sent to the LWDA out of an allocation of $26,000.00, (b) $4,333.33 in Administration Costs, (c) $2,500.00 service payment to Plaintiff, (d) $64,000 in attorneys' fees, (e) and the remainder of the Year 3 payment of $124,500.00 to be distributed to the Class, for a total payment in Year 3 of $204,000.00.

Settlement checks paid to Participating Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees, will remain valid and negotiable for 180 days from their issuance. See Settlement, § 17. Within 20 days of the expiration of uncashed Settlement checks, the Settlement Administrator will pay the sum of uncashed checks to the cy pres approved by the Court. Id., § 23. The Parties have agreed to propose Legal Aid at Work as the cy pres for this matter. Id.

4. Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Class Representative Service Payment, and PAGA Payment

At final approval, Plaintiff will apply for a Class Representative Service Payment of $7,500.00. See Settlement, §§ 15(a), 24. "[I]ncentive awards are fairly typical in class action cases...and are intended to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class [and] to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action." In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393-94 (2010).

As will be fully briefed at final approval, Plaintiff's requested Class Representative

1 Service Payment is in recognition of the time and effort he expended on behalf of the Settlement
2 Class, including providing factual information and documents to counsel, discussing with counsel 3 the claims and theories at issue in the litigation, reviewing the settlement agreement, and 4 otherwise actively participating in the prosecution of this case. See Settlement, §§ 15, 24. Plaintiff 5 respectfully submits that the requested service payment is well within the range of approval. See, 6 e.g., Bellinghausen v. Tractor Supply Company, 306 F.R.D. 245, 268 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (approving 7 $15,000 payment to named plaintiff from wage and hour class action settlement, including 8 $10,000 incentive payment and additional $5,000 for his general release, where payments to class 9 members averaged just over $450); Martinez v. Knight Transportation, No. 1:16-cv-01730, 2023 10 WL 5917989 (E.D. Cal. Sept. 11, 2023) (approving $10,000 award to plaintiff in $400,000 wage 11 and hour class action settlement where payments to class members averaged about $127).

12 The Parties have also designated $40,000.00 of the GSA as PAGA penalties, of which 13 $26,000.00 (65%) will be paid to the LWDA, with the remaining $14,000.00 (35%) distributed 14 to Aggrieved Employees (see Settlement, §§ 13, 15(a), 25), consistent with the PAGA's 15 requirement that 65% of penalties be allocated to the LWDA with the remaining 35% of penalties 16 allocated to aggrieved employees (Labor Code § 2699(m)). Plaintiff submit that this allocation to 17 the LWDA is appropriate in light of other settlements allocating penalties to the LWDA. See, 18 e.g., Chu v. Wells Fargo Inv., LLC, No. C-05-4526-MHP, 2011 WL 672645 at *1 (N.D. Cal. Feb.
19 16, 2011) (approving PAGA payment of $7,500 to LWDA from $6.9 million settlement).

20 At final approval, Plaintiff's counsel will request attorneys' fees of one-third of the GSA 21 (currently estimated at $192,000), and up to $20,000.00 in litigation costs. See Settlement, § 15(a).
22 The requested fee is fair compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-23 consuming litigation on a contingent basis. Plaintiff's counsel have incurred substantial attorneys' 24 fees conducting pre-filing investigation and legal research; analyzing timekeeping records, 25 payroll records, and other data to create a comprehensive damages model; preparing for and 26 attending mediation; negotiating and preparing the Settlement; preparing this Motion; and 27 otherwise prosecuting this case. Larsen Decl., ¶ 29. Counsel will also incur future attorney fees 28 in overseeing the Notice process, fielding phone calls from Settlement Class members, preparing the Final Approval Motion, and appearing at the Final Approval Hearing. Id.

It is appropriate to award attorney fees as a percentage of the “common fund” created by the settlement. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480 (2016) (holding “the percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases”). Counsels’ fee request is well within the range of reasonableness and is typical for common fund settlements. See, e.g., Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, n.11 (2008) (“regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery”). As will be briefed at final approval, the fee request is reasonable in light of the substantial risks and work undertaken, the results obtained, and the efficiency with which counsel conducted the litigation.

IV. ARGUMENT

A. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL IS WARRANTED

California Rule of Court 3.769 conditions class action settlements on court approval, which is generally evaluated under the same standards as Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23. See Reed v. United Teachers Los Angeles, 208 Cal.App.4th 322, 337 (2012) (Rule 3.769 requires court to determine “that the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned”); Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998) (Rule 23(e) requires court to determine “whether a proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable”). Settlement is the preferred means of dispute resolution, particularly in complex class action litigation. See In re Syncor ERISA Litig., 516 F.3d 1095, 1101 (9th Cir. 2008). The Court’s role is to ensure the settlement agreement taken as a whole is fair and within the range of reasonableness. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027. There is a presumption of fairness when a settlement is negotiated at arm’s length by counsel. See, e.g., Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130 (2008).

1. Standard for Preliminary Approval

To make a fairness determination, the Court should consider several factors, including: “the strength of Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, [and] the experience and views of counsel.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).

1 “The list of factors is not exclusive and the Court is free to engage in a balancing and weighing 2 of the factors depending on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 3 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001). As discussed below, the proposed Settlement is fair, adequate, 4 and reasonable in light of the overall balance of factors in this case.

5 a. The Strength of Plaintiff’s Case

6 Although Plaintiff maintains that his claims are meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that 7 there were substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding with class certification and eventual 8 trial on the merits. As described in section II.B., supra, Defendant presented multiple defenses to 9 Plaintiff’s claims, both on the merits and to class certification, rendering success far from certain.

10 b. Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Duration of Further Litigation

11 The Parties engaged in significant informal discovery. Larsen Decl., ¶¶ 16, 31. However, 12 the Parties still had much formal discovery remaining and Plaintiff still had to file for class 13 certification. Id. Even if Plaintiff obtained certification, the Parties would incur considerable fees 14 and costs through a possible decertification motion, motions for summary judgment, trial, and 15 potential appeals. Id. The Settlement avoids those risks and the accompanying expense.
16 Moreover, as noted above, Judge Goldberg analysed Defendant’s financial records and his 17 opinion is that Defendant could not pay a class-wide settlement of more than $576,000, funded 18 in instalment payments. See Goldberg Decl., ¶¶ 1-4.

19 c. Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status

20 Plaintiff had not yet filed his motion class certification, and as such, the extent to which 21 Plaintiff’s proposed classes were certifiable is somewhat speculative. Absent settlement, there 22 was a risk there would not be a certified class at trial, or if there were, that it would consist of a 23 significantly smaller group of employees than the proposed Settlement Class, and the expected 24 recovery would be significantly reduced. Moreover, given Defendant’s financial condition, there 25 was a real risk and concern that continued litigation could cause Defendant to file for bankruptcy.
26 In such an event, it is unlikely that this matter would have been able to proceed as a Class Action 27 and Class Members would likely not have received any financial recovery from Defendant. Thus, 28 this factor supports preliminary approval.

2 d. Amount Offered in Settlement Given Realistic Value of Claims

3 The Settlement provides a fair and reasonable monetary recovery for the Settlement Class 4 for disputed claims. As detailed in the Larsen Declaration, Plaintiff conducted an analysis of 5 potential damages due to Defendant's allegedly unlawful policies and practices. After applying 6 reasonable discounts for risks of not obtaining class certification and risks of losing on the merits, 7 Plaintiff estimated the claims had a realistic potential value of approximately $885,556. Larsen 8 Decl., ¶¶ 22-28. The proposed settlement of $576,000 therefore represents about 65% of 9 Plaintiff's reasonably forecasted classwide recovery. Larsen Decl., ¶ 28. As noted above, the 10 average payment to Participating Class Members will be $1,705.06. This is a significant monetary 11 recovery for Class Members, who may not have seen any recovery from Defendant if litigation 12 continued due to Defendant's precarious financial condition.

13 e. The Experience and Views of Counsel

14 "Parties represented by competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a 15 settlement that fairly reflects each party's expected outcome in litigation." In re Pac. Enter.
16 Securities Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir. 1995). Here, counsel has extensive experience 17 litigating wage and hour class actions, and has been appointed class counsel in numerous cases 18 alleging similar claims. See Korobkin Decl., ¶¶ 2-8; Larsen Decl., ¶¶ 2-5. Counsel conducted an 19 in-depth review of Defendant's policies, Class Members' records, other relevant data and 20 information, Defendant's financial records, and drew on their extensive experience to assess 21 Plaintiff's claims. Larsen Decl., ¶¶ 6, 16, 22-28. The Settlement was also reached after a full-day 22 mediation with Hon. Mitchel R. Goldberg (Ret.), a retired federal bankruptcy judge and respected 23 and well-regarded wage and hour mediator. Id., ¶ 18. This strongly supports preliminary approval.
24 Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 130.

25 2. The Preliminary Approval Standard Is Met

26 The Court can grant preliminary approval of a proposed settlement and direct that notice 27 be given if the settlement: (1) falls within the range of possible approval; (2) appears to be the 28 product of serious, informed negotiations; and (3) has no obvious deficiencies. See Manual for 1 Complex Litig., § 30.41 (3rd Ed. 1995); Newberg on Class Actions, §§ 11:24-25 (4th Ed. 2013).

2 a. The Settlement Is Within the Range of Possible Approval

3 As noted above, the Settlement reflects about 65% of the realistic estimated recovery on 4 Plaintiff's claims, and will provide tangible, monetary compensation for hotly disputed wage 5 claims. Accordingly, Plaintiff submits that the Settlement is within the range of possible approval.

6 b. The Settlement Resulted from Serious, Informed Negotiations

7 The Settlement resulted from an exchange of substantial information, arm's-length 8 negotiations, two separate mediations with highly experienced mediators, and months of 9 additional negotiations. Plaintiff carefully vetted the claims at issue and conducted a detailed 10 analysis of the relevant data and information. Larsen Decl., ¶¶ 16, 22-28. The Settlement is thus 11 entitled to a presumption of fairness. Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th at 130.

12 c. The Settlement Is Devoid of Obvious Deficiencies

13 The Settlement provides tangible monetary relief to the Settlement Class, and the amounts 14 proposed for attorneys' fees, costs, Plaintiff's service payment, and PAGA penalties are all 15 reasonable and appropriate based on the facts of this case. Because the Settlement is devoid of 16 obvious deficiencies, this supports preliminary approval.

17 B. THE COURT SHOULD CERTIFY THE PROPOSED CLASS

18 The proposed Settlement Class satisfies the criteria for certification because: (1) the 19 Settlement Class is ascertainable and numerous; (2) common questions of law and fact 20 predominate; (3) Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Settlement Class; and (4) Plaintiff and his 21 counsel will fairly and adequately represent the Settlement Class. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382.

22 1. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

23 A class is "ascertainable" where members "may be readily identified without unreason-24 able expense or time by reference to official [or business] records." Sevidal v. Target Corp., 189 25 Cal.App.4th 905, 919 (2010). The Settlement Class includes all non-exempt employees who 26 worked for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period, and thus can be readily 27 identified from Defendant's records. There are approximately 178 Settlement Class members, 28 rendering it impracticable to bring them all before the Court. Numerosity is therefore satisfied.

1 2. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

2 The focus on certification is not on the merits of the case, but rather on what types of 3 questions, “common or individual,” are likely to arise in the action. Sav-On Drug Store, Inc. v.
4 Sup. Ct., 34 Cal.4th 319, 327 (2004). Plaintiff’s claims are predicated primarily on Defendant’s 5 allegedly unlawful failure to include bonuses and other payments in the “regular rate” and 6 allegedly unlawful meal and rest period policies/practices. Such claims are commonly held proper 7 for class certification. See, e.g., Carlino v. CHG Medical Staffing, Inc., No. 1:17-cv-01323-DAD-8 JLT, 2019 WL 1005070 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 20, 2019) (certifying regular rate claim); Benton v.
9 Telecom Network Specialists, Inc. 220 Cal.App.4th 701, 726 (2013) (certifying meal and rest 10 period claims).

11 3. The Named Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical

12 The typicality requirement is satisfied where class representatives have claims that are 13 typical of the class. B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v. Owens-Illinois, Inc., 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347
14 (1987). Here, Plaintiff’s claims are typical of those held by Settlement Class members. Plaintiff 15 was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California during the Class Period, and 16 he was injured by the same challenged policies that allegedly injured the Settlement Class as a 17 whole. See Declaration of Kyle Kellum (“Kellum Decl.”), ¶¶ 2-3. Thus, typicality is satisfied.

18 4. Plaintiff and Class Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class

19 The adequacy requirement examines conflicts of interest between named parties and the 20 class(es) Plaintiff seeks to represent. Capital People First v. State Dept. of Developmental Svcs., 21 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 697 (2007). Plaintiff and his counsel will adequately represent the 22 Settlement Class, as there are no known conflicts between Plaintiff or his counsel and the 23 Settlement Class. See McGhee v. Bank of Am., 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 450 (1976) (finding adequacy 24 satisfied where there was no indication that plaintiff’s counsel was not qualified and the named 25 plaintiff had no interests antagonistic to those of the proposed class). Class Counsel also have 26 extensive experience in wage and hour class action litigation, as noted above.

27 C. THE COURT SHOULD ORDER DISTRIBUTION OF THE NOTICE

28 The Court should order distribution of the proposed Notice by U.S. Mail, using last known

1 mailing addresses provided by Defendant. See Settlement, § 29. This is the “best notice 2 practicable” under the circumstances, as it provides “individual notice to all members who can be 3 identified through reasonable effort.” Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 173 (1974).
4 Plaintiff proposes that the Settlement be administered by Phoenix Settlement Administrators, an 5 experienced class action settlement administrator. See Lawrence Declaration and exhibits.
6 Settlement Class members’ addresses will be ascertainable through Defendant’ records. Phoenix 7 will also run all addresses through the U.S. Postal Service National Change of Address database 8 and/or perform “skip traces” to obtain current addresses. See Settlement, § 29.

9 The proposed Notice satisfies Cal. Rule of Court 3.766(d) because it advises Settlement 10 Class members of the nature of the claims; the basic contentions of the parties; the key terms of 11 the Settlement; the 60-day deadline to opt out, object, or submit a dispute and how to do so; 12 explains the recovery formula and expected recovery amount for each Settlement Class member; 13 and explains the releases of claims included in the Settlement. See Larsen Decl., Exhibit A to 14 Exhibit 1. The proposed Notice also includes the final approval hearing date and time, and it 15 provides contact information for Class Counsel and Phoenix in the event Settlement Class 16 members have any questions about the Settlement. Id. This Notice satisfies Cal. Rule of Court 17 3.766(e) as the most reliable and cost-effective method of reaching the Settlement Class.

18 D. THE COURT SHOULD SET A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

19 Finally, the Court should set a hearing for final approval on a date appropriately scheduled 20 to follow Settlement Class members’ response deadline. See Cal. Rule of Court 3.769.

21 V. CONCLUSION

22 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily 23 approve the proposed Settlement, provisionally certify the Settlement Class, and enter the 24 Proposed Order submitted concurrently herewith.

25 Respectfully submitted,
