1 Plaintiff, LEILANI T. SILVA, (“Plaintiff”), as a representative of the State of California
2 and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA), and on behalf of herself and other
3 current or former Aggrieved Employees, complains and alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. This is a representative action brought by Plaintiff, as a representative of the State
6 of California and the LWDA, and on behalf of herself and other Aggrieved Employees, to collect
7 civil penalties for Defendant’s Labor Code violations.

8 2. Defendant and employer RALEY’S, (“Defendant”), violated numerous wage and 9 hour laws with respect to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees by failing to provide, for 10 example: accurate and itemized wages statements, payment for all hours worked (including 11 regular wages and overtime), failure to provide a minimum wage, lawful meal periods, lawful
12 rest periods, timely payment during employment, failure to reimburse for expenses incurred
13 during the course and scope of employment, and payment upon separation of employment.

14 PARTIES

15 The Plaintiff

16 3. Plaintiff is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a resident of California,
17 currently residing in Sacramento County.

18 4. Aggrieved Employees are all former and/or current non-exempt employees
19 holding various positions and employed by Defendant within California during the relevant time
20 period who may have been subject to at least one or more Labor Code violations (“Aggrieved
21 Employees”) set forth in the PAGA Notice dated August 20, 2024, and attached hereto as Exhibit
22 A and incorporated herein by reference.

23 The Defendant

24 5. Defendant RALEY’S (“Defendant” or “RALEY’S”) is a California corporation
25 which, at all relevant times mentioned herein, existing, doing business and employing individuals
26 in the County of Yolo, State of California. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant
27 operates at least one business location in Yolo County located at 3925 Seaport Blvd, #110, West
28 Sacramento, California 95691. Plaintiff is informed and thereon alleges that Defendant exercised

1 control over Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' wages, hours, and working conditions.

2 6. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 3 otherwise of Defendants named herein as DOES 1-50, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff at this 4 time and therefore said Defendants are sued by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will seek leave to 5 amend this Complaint to insert the true names and capacities of said Defendants when the same
6 become known to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that each of 7 the fictitiously-named Defendants are responsible for the wrongful acts alleged herein and is 8 therefore liable to Plaintiff as alleged hereinafter.

9 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that at all times
10 relevant, Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, employees, managing agents, 11 supervisors, conspirators, parent corporation, joint employers, alter ego, and/or joint ventures of 12 the other Defendants, and each of them, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting at 13 least in part within the course and scope of said agency, employment, conspiracy, joint 14 employment, alter ego status, and/or joint venture and with the permission and consent of each of 15 the other Defendants.

16 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that Defendants,
17 and each of them, including those Defendants named DOES 1-50, acted in concert with one 18 another to commit the wrongful acts alleged therein, and aided, abetted, incited, compelled,
19 and/or coerced one another in the wrongful acts alleged herein, and/or attempted to do so.
20 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that the Defendants, and 21 each of them, including those Defendants named as DOES 1-50, formed and executed a 22 conspiracy or common plan pursuant to which they would commit the unlawful acts alleged 23 herein, with all such acts alleged herein done as part of and pursuant to said conspiracy, intended
24 to and actually causing Plaintiff harm.

25 9. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this Complaint to any act or failure 26 to act by a defendant or co-defendant, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to 27 mean the acts and/or failures to act by each defendant acting individually, jointly and severally.

11. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction over this matter. The individual claims are under the seventy-five thousand dollar ($75,000.00) jurisdictional threshold for federal court and PAGA penalties cannot be aggregated to meet the minimum jurisdictional amount required for diversity removal. Further, there is no federal question at issue as the issues herein are based solely on California statutes and law, including, but not limited to, the California Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, California Code of Civil Procedure, and California Rules of Court.

12. Defendant is in the business of operating a retail chain grocery market including the production and packaging of baked goods and cakes. Defendant employed Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in California during the relevant PAGA period. Aggrieved Employees are all former and/or current non-exempt employees holding various positions and employed by Defendant within California during the relevant time period who may have been subject to at least one or more Labor Code violations set forth in the PAGA Notice dated August 20, 2024, and attached hereto as Exhibit A.

14. The position required Plaintiff to work more than 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours per week without lawful compensation. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were regularly not paid for minimum wages and overtime for compensable work time spent under the control of Defendant, including off-the-clock work which was in excess of regularly scheduled, eight-hour daily shifts.

1 15. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid for all compensable work time
2 at the correct rate of pay. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees received non-discretionary pay in
3 the form of “Nt Prem Rx.23” that was not included in overtime compensation and all required
4 premium pay.

5 16. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were subject to not having all their
6 compensable work time recorded due to Defendant’s lack of adequate staffing. Not all of Plaintiff
7 and Aggrieved Employees’ compensable work time spent under the control of Defendant was 8 accounted for and compensated. Specifically, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant
9 (1) adjusted clock in and clock out times to the disadvantage of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
10 Employees by rounding up clock-in times when Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees clocked-in 11 before the scheduled start of their respective shifts and rounded down clock-out times when 12 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees worked past the scheduled end time for their shifts, as well as 13 (2) requiring Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to continue working when ostensibly on duty-
14 free meal periods, or requiring them to return to work before the end of their thirty-minute meal
15 periods but prohibiting them from clocking back in until the legally required thirty-minute mark.
16

17 17. Based on information and belief, Plaintiff believes she and Aggrieved Employees 18 were also not being reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their 19 job duties. Specifically, Defendant required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, regardless of 20 classification, to use slip resistant shoes while performing their respective duties but failed to 21 reimburse them for the purchase of these shoes.

22 18. Defendant failed to authorize and permit all required meal and rest periods for 23 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintained
24 unlawful meal/rest period policies and practices. In order to curtail labor costs, Defendant
25 regularly did not staff enough employees to provide sufficient coverage to maintain their business
26 operations so Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees could not both complete their assigned daily
27 duties and take complete, timely and uninterrupted meal and rest breaks. Defendant prioritized
28 completion of daily duties and customer satisfaction ahead of meal and rest period compliance.

1 Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with an additional hour of
2 premium pay at the regular rate of pay for each meal/rest period violation, as required by Labor
3 Code section 226.7.

4 19. As a result of the violations described above, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees
5 experienced collateral or derivative violations. Specifically, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff
6 and Aggrieved Employees accurate itemized wage statements in writing in compliance with 7 Labor Code section 226 and failed to compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all
8 wages owed at the time employment with Defendant had ended.

9 20. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), any provision of the Labor
10 Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA or any of its 11 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for violation of the code
12 may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on 13 behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in 14 Labor Code section 2699.3.

15 21. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is 16 specifically provided, Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f) imposes upon Defendant a 17 penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the 18 initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
19 for each subsequent pay period if certain conditions are met.

20 22. Defendant's conduct during the PAGA period with respect to Plaintiff and 21 Aggrieved Employees violates numerous Labor Code sections as detailed herein.

22 23. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant has engaged in a systematic pattern of wage and 23 hour violations under the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

24 24. At all relevant times herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff and Aggrieved
25 Employees who were subject to the employment policies described herein, in whole or in part,
26 and therefore suffered at least one or more of the violations set forth herein.

27 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew 28

1 or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive wages for 2 all hours worked, including the applicable minimum, regular, and overtime wages, and that they
3 were not receiving all wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of 4 the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved
5 Employees for all hours worked. Accordingly, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved
6 Employees all earned minimum, regular, and/or overtime compensation.

7 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
8 or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all required
9 meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees'
10 regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty meal period. In
11 violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant had a pattern, practice, and policy
12 of not providing timely meal periods. Defendant failed to pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff
13 and Aggrieved Employees for late meal periods. As a result of Defendant's unlawful policy and 14 practice, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees did not receive all meal periods or payment of one
15 (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when they 16 did not receive a timely, uninterrupted 30 minute off-duty meal period.

17 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
18 or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all required
19 rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees'
20 regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty rest period. In
21 violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant had a pattern, practice, and policy
22 of not providing timely rest periods. Defendant failed to pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff
23 and Aggrieved Employees for each rest periods were not provided or was interrupted. As a result
24 of Defendant's unlawful policy and practice, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not receive
25 all required rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Aggrieved
26 Employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted 10 minute off-
27 duty rest period.
28

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and certain Aggrieved Employees were entitled to timely payment of wages due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and certain Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages due, within permissible time periods, upon separation of employment.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive itemized wage statements that accurately showed their actual hours worked, total hours worked, number of hours worked at each hourly rate, gross and net wages earned, and correct employer information in accordance with California law. As a result of the wage violations specified above, and in violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements that accurately reported their gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, each applicable rate of pay in effect during the pay period with the corresponding number of hours worked, and the address of the legal entity that is the employer, among other things.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant knew or should have known that Defendant was required to maintain accurate records of the hours worked by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. In violation of the Labor Code, Defendant failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees due to its off-the-clock and/or unfair rounding practices, among other things.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code § 2699 et seq., For Violations of the Labor Code)

31. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

32. By this complaint, Plaintiff brings this case as a representative action seeking penalties for herself, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California in a representative

1 capacity, as provided by the PAGA, Labor Code sections 2698 et seq. Plaintiff is an Aggrieved
2 Employee who was employed by Defendant and subject to at least one of the Labor Code
3 violations set forth in Labor Code section 2699.5. Plaintiff specifically alleged the following in 4 their notice to the LWDA and Defendants: violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204,
5 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198 and 6 2802.

7 33. Under Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), a plaintiff may bring a cause
8 of action under PAGA only after giving the LWDA and the employer notice of the Labor Code
9 sections alleged to have been violated, and after receiving notice from the LWDA of its intention
10 not to investigate, or after 65 days have passed without notice from the LWDA.

11 34. Prior to filing this complaint, on August 20, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice of 12 the specific provisions alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support
13 the alleged violations, as required by Labor Code section 2699.3 to Defendant RALEY'S. The 14 written notice was given via certified mail to Defendant, and the LWDA by electronically filing
15 the notice via the Department of Industrial Relations website. Plaintiff was given an LWDA case
16 number of LWDA-CM- 1046590-24. True and correct copies of Plaintiff's notices to the LWDA
17 and Defendant are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

18 35. The LWDA has not provided Plaintiff with any notice that it intends to investigate
19 the violations as alleged in Plaintiff's notices, and more than 65 calendar days have elapsed since 20 the postmark date on the latter notice.

21 36. California Labor Code §§2698-2699.5, in relevant part provides, "any provision
22 of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and 23 Workforce Development Agency...for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be 24 recovered through a civil action brought by an Aggrieved Employee on behalf of himself or 25 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 26 2699.3."
27

28 37. As an Aggrieved Employee, Plaintiff brings this civil action to recover civil

1 penalties for Defendant's Labor Code violations.

2 First Violation

3 (Failure to Provide Meal Periods, in Violation of Labor Code Section 512)

4 38. Under California Labor Code §512(a), "An employer may not employ an 5 employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with 6 a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 7 employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both 8 the employer and employee."

9 39. Defendant violated Labor Code § 512 by failing to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved
10 Employees who worked shifts of greater than five hours, uninterrupted and/or timely meal periods
11 within the first five hours of the shifts worked.

12 40. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff one hour's pay at Plaintiff's regular rate of pay
13 for each day Defendant failed to provide a meal period in compliance with section 512.

14 Second Violation

15 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods, in Violation of Labor Code Section 226.7)

16 41. Under California Labor Code §226.7(b), "An employer shall not require an 17 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable
18 statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission"

19 42. Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) provides, "Every employer shall authorize 20 and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle 21 of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked 22 daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof."

23 43. Defendant failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to 24 take rest periods and mandated by the Wage Order.

25 44. Under §226.7(c), an employer who violates §226.7(b), "...shall pay the employee
26 one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that 27 the meal or rest or recovery period is not provided."
28

45. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees who were not provided rest periods one hour of pay at their regular rate of pay.

Third Violation

(Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements, in Violation of Labor Code Section 226)

46. Under California Labor Code §226(a), an employer is legally obligated to provide its employees, semi-monthly or at the time of payment of wages, “an accurate itemized statement in writing...”

47. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under Labor Code § 2699.

Fourth Violation

(Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

48. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and IWC Wage Orders, an employer is required to compensate employees for all overtime, which is calculated at one and one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week, and for the first eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive workday, with double time for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any workday and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in any workweek.

49. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under Labor Code § 2699.

Fifth Violation

(Failure to Pay Minimum Wages)

50. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and IWC Wage Orders, payment to an employee of less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in a

1 payroll period is unlawful.

2 51. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
3 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
4 Labor Code § 2699.

5 Sixth Violation

6 (Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment)

7 52. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 204, for all labor performed between the 1st
8 and 15th days of any calendar month, an employer is required to pay its employees between the 9 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed. California Labor Code §
10 204 also provides that for all labor performed between the 16th and 26th days of any calendar
11 month, Defendant was required to pay their employees between the 1st and 15th day of the 12 following calendar month. In addition, California Labor Code § 204 provides that all wages 13 earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday of the 14 next regular payroll period.

15
16 53. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
17 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under 18 Labor Code § 2699.

19 Seventh Violation

20 (Failure to Pay All Wages Due to Discharged and Quitting Employees)

21 54. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 201, 202, and 203, Defendant is required to 22 pay all earned and unpaid wages to an employee who is discharged. California Labor Code § 201
23 mandates that if an employer discharges an employee, the employee's wages accrued and unpaid
24 at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.

25 55. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
26 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under 27 Labor Code § 2699.

28 ///

Eighth Violation

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses in Violation of Labor Code § 2802

(Against all Defendants and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive)

56. Labor Code § 2802 provides that an employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

57. Defendants failed to indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by Plaintiff in direct consequence of the discharge of Plaintiff's job duties.

58. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2802, Plaintiff is entitled to recover business expenses incurred as a result of discharging his duties, including interest.

59. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties for Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under Labor Code § 2699.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

1. For penalties in an amount according to proof;
2. For reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to PAGA; and
3. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,

SUBJECT: LEILANI T. SILVA v. RALEY'S ET AL —NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS UNDER CAL. LABOR CODE §2699.3

Dear Representative:

This office represents LEILANI T. SILVA ("Ms. Silva" or Complainant) with respect to their claims against RALEY'S ("Employer") for violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. This letter is being sent simultaneously to Employers by certified mail.

Employers are a corporation doing business in the State of California. Employers employed Ms. Silva from approximately May 2024, until their last date of employment of approximately July 8, 2024. During their employment with Employers, Ms. Silva was employed as a "combination worker" at Employers' bakery production warehouse located at 3925 Seaport Blvd Suite 110 West Sacramento, CA 95691.

Ms. Silva intends to seek penalties for violations of the California Labor Code which are recoverable under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"). Ms. Silva is seeking penalties on behalf of themselves and in a representative capacity on behalf of the State of California and all current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Employers working within California holding various positions who experienced the same violations as themselves or one or more violations as set forth in this notice. ("Aggrieved Employees"). This letter is being sent in compliance with California Labor Code section 2699.3.

As detailed below, Employers violated several of California's wage and hour laws during Complainant's employment, including but not limited to violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("IWC Wage Order"). The claims made on behalf of Complainant and Aggrieved Employees are based upon the following facts and theories:

1. FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL TIME WORKED AT CORRECT RATES OF PAY, INCLUDING MINIMUM WAGES, STRAIGHT TIME WAGES, AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION.

Employers have engaged in numerous unlawful practices which resulted in the failure to pay Complainant and Aggrieved Employees for all time worked at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were provided non-discretionary pay of "Nt Prem Rx.23"" that was not incorporated in their regular rate of pay thus causing underpayment of wages and premium payments, including but not limited to rest and meal period premiums and overtime compensation.

First, Employers regularly required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock in order to complete their duties and responsibilities. This off-the-clock work included, amongst other things, requiring Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to: (1) respond to Employers and work-related requests and perform work while clocked out for purported meal breaks; (2) perform work before clocking in for the start of their shift; and (3) perform work after clocking out for the end of their shift. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for this off-the-clock work, resulting in a failure to pay minimum wages and straight time wages.

Employers also failed to accurately record the actual time worked by Complainant and Aggrieved Employees. Finally, and as a matter of policy and/or practice, Employers failed to pay overtime to Complainant and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration and all compensable work time.

As a result of the foregoing practices, Employers have failed to pay Complainant and Aggrieved Employees all owed wages for all wages earned at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of the applicable IWC Wage Order; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

2. FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS AND PAY MEAL PERIOD PREMIUMS

Employers required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work more than five (5) hours per day but were not provided with uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods. Further, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted 30-minute meal period when they worked over ten (10) hours per day. Employers regularly required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work through their first and second meal periods, to take their first meal period after their fifth (5th) hour of work, and/or to take their second meal periods after their tenth (10th) hour of work. On the occasions that Complainant and Aggrieved Employees did take a meal period, their meal periods were frequently interrupted or cut short. For instance, even though Complainant was paid $17.40 per hour, her overtime rate was $26.00 and not in compliance with Labor Code 510. This overtime premium payment violation is in addition to the incorrect regular rate violations due to the failure to include other non-discretionary pay made on behalf of Complainant and Aggrieved Employees.

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Complainant and Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, complete and duty-free meal periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of meal periods or systematically disregarded its own purported meal period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all non-exempt/hourly employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant meal period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant meal periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; and (6) Employers' policy and culture prevented Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods.

Accordingly, Employers violated of the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), 512(a) and 1198.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties of the applicable IWC Wage Order; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

3. FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE AND PERMIT REST PERIODS AND PAY REST PERIOD PREMIUMS.

Employers failed to authorize and permit Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant 10-minute periods. Employers required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods when they worked more than four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof. Further, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted, duty-free rest period when they worked more than six (6) hours in a day, or a third uninterrupted, duty-free rest period after working more than ten (10) hours in day. In the rare event that a rest period was taken, it was frequently interrupted or cut short. Moreover, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were never completely relieved of duty as required by Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal.5th 257 (2016).

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and complete rest periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods or systematically disregarded its own purported rest period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all hourly-non-exempt employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant rest period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant rest periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (6) Employers required Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times, including during rest periods, which included responding to in person verbal interruptions; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive rest periods.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for the rest periods which were not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), and 1198.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order; California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

4. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 204(a).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

5. FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE TO DISCHARGED AND QUITTING EMPLOYEES.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Complainant Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 201(a), 202(a) and 203(a).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

6. FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS.

As a result of the practices described above, the wage statements provided to Complainant and Aggrieved Employees never included the actual hours worked the time worked was detrimentally rounded, the correct name and address of the legal employing entity, and the correct rates of pay. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 226(a).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.3; and attorneys' fees and costs.

7. FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE RECORDS.

Employers have failed to maintain accurate records relating to Complainant and Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours worked, and total hours worked per payroll period. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 1198.5 and 1174(d).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant the applicable IWC Wage Order; California Labor Code section 1174.5 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

8. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY EXPENDITURES.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. IWC Wage Order requires employers to provide employees with the tools or equipment necessary for the performance of their job. During the relevant time period, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Employers. These costs include but are not limited to the use of Complainant and Aggrieved Employees requirement to use slip resistant shoes which were not reimbursed for.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order; and attorneys' fees and costs.

9. FAILURE TO PAY VACATION TIME.

Pursuant to California Labor Code section 227.3, “. . .whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served.” During the relevant time period, Employers failed to pay Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees for all earned and unused and accrued vacation time at their final rate of pay at the time of termination of their employment. Accordingly, Employers have violated California Labor Code section 227.3.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; California Labor Code section 227 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

10. FAILURE TO PAY SICK TIME.

Pursuant to California Labor Code section 246(l), all sick pay must be paid at the regular rate of pay. Employers have failed to pay Complainant and Aggrieved Employees their sick pay at the correct rate of pay. Accordingly, Employers have violated California Labor Code section 246(l).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; California Labor Code section 227 penalties; relief under California Labor Code 248.5, and attorneys' fees and costs.

Sincerely,

JUSTIN LO ESQ.
