1 Plaintiff Deanna Ruth Gordon (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants Humboldt Senior Resource Center,
6 Inc., and Does 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code
7 violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum 8 wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and 9 permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods,
10 failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary business 11 expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations 17 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action brought 19 pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”)) for 20 Defendants’ violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510,
21 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, Business & Professions
22 Code section 17200, et seq., among others, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 23 Orders, including inter alia Wage Orders 4-2001 and 5-2001.

24 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 25 establishment within the State of California, including Humboldt County. As such, and based 26 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants
27 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
28 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

1 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 2 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 3 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
4 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code
5 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 6 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 7 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 8 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 9 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 10 violation occurred;
- 11 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
12 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
13 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 14 period violation occurred;
- 15 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 16 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 17 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within 18 the time period specified by California law when employment terminates; 19 and
- 20 (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked.
- 21 (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
22 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 23 IWC Wage Orders.

24 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 25 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 26 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 27 willful and deliberate.
28

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Humboldt, State of California, as a dispatcher from approximately November 2009 to March 2024.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendants are:

- (a) Business entities with their principal places of business in Humboldt, California.
- (b) Business entities conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Humboldt County; and
- (c) The former employers of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employers of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set

1 forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained,
2 together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

3 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 4 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
5 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

6 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times
7 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 8 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 9 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 10 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
11 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
12 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 13 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 14 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
15 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted 16 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 17 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 18 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

19 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

20 14. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of 21 Humboldt, State of California during the statutory period. During the statutory period,
22 Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from California's overtime requirements, and paid
23 Plaintiff an hourly wage.

24 15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours
25 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with 26 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest
27 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all 28 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish

1 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 2 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

3 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 4 not paying Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked, including all overtime wages. Plaintiff
5 and the Class were required to work "off the clock" and uncompensated. For example, Plaintiff
6 and the Class were required to don and doff, putting on protective gear such as masks prior to 7 clocking into work, and taking off protective gear after clocking out of work, all off the clock and 8 uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Class were required to perform pre-shift activities, such 9 as setting alarms and making coffee prior to clocking into work, uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff
10 and the Class were required to perform post-shift activities such as taking medication to 11 participants after clocking out of work, off the clock and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the 12 Class were required to perform duties such as speaking to others about how to get through 13 programs, and communicating through their cellular telephones while off the clock, including 14 weekends, uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Class were required to wait in line in order to 15 clock into work, off the clock and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Class were required to 16 carry with them their cellular telephones during meal breaks, and to answer work calls during 17 meal breaks, without compensation. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and the Class 18 received non-discretionary bonuses, shift differentials, gift cards, and other remuneration.
19 However, Defendants failed to include all remuneration when calculating the correct overtime
20 rate of pay, meal break premium rate of pay, and sick day rate of pay, leading to underpayment.

21 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 22 Plaintiff and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants sometimes, but not 23 always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without 24 providing 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of 25 work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for meal periods that were not provided by 26 the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not adequately
27 inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of 28 work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Accordingly,

1 Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Class in 2 compliance with California law.

3 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 4 and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants
5 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of four consecutive 6 hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous 7 and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or 8 without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or 9 permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take 10 a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 11 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Class, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or 12 practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or 13 practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Class were taking their required rest periods.
14 Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore 15 Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Class took rest periods during the middle of 16 each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit
17 Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

18 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the 19 Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without 20 reimbursement, such as the use of personal cellular telephones for work purposes and the 21 maintenance of uniforms without reimbursement.

22 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 23 Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross 24 and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, 25 correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in 26 accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and 27 permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address). Further, the wage 28 statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury because, among other things:

- (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were entitled;
- (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;
- (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they were;
- (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had not been;
- (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;
- (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

21. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

22. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

23. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

24. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

25. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

26. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

(a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

(b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former

1 employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
2 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members
3 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 4 for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 5 protected.

6 27. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 7 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 8 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 9 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 10 wages, and overtime wages;
- 11 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 12 Class Members;
- 13 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
14 wages to Class Members;
- 15 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their 16 discharge or resignation;
- 17 (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked,
18 and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- 19 (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses;
20 and
- 21 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 22 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

23 28. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 24 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 25 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 26 question affecting only individual members;
- 27 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 28 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;

- 1 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all 2 members of the class before the Court;
- 3 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain 4 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a 5 class action;
- 6 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and 7 equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate 8 compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are 9 responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members
10 of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- 11 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by 12 individual members of the class would create a risk of:
- 13 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
14 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
15 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
- 16 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
17 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other
18 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially 19 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but 20 not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from 21 those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- 22 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 23 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 24 the class as a whole.

25 29. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 26 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own 27 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 28 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would

1 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 2 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 3 other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

4 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

6 30. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
7 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

8 31. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 9 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 10 not required to do so.

11 32. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 12 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 13 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 14 provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage 15 Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

16 33. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all 17 non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

18 34. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 19 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

20 35. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 21 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class 22 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 23 Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which 24 will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

25 36. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
26 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
27 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.
28

1 37. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are
2 entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum 3 wages.

4 38. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 5 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable
6 to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
7 required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants
8 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due, and failed to 9 pay those wages twice a month.

10 39. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
11 wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 12 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

15 40. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
16 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

17 41. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 18 employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless 19 they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

20 42. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California 21 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 22 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
23 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 24 by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

25 43. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight 26 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

27 44. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class 28 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

45. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

46. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

47. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

48. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

49. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

50. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff and the Class's sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer

1 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
2 violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee
3 to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

4 51. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff
5 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
6 and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact
7 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 8 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 9 the applicable Wage Orders.

10 52. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 11 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 12 plus interest thereon.

13 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

15 53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
16 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

17 54. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 18 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 19 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that 20 the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 21 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten
22 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so 23 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 24 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest
25 period mandated under any Wage Order.

26 55. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 27 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a 28 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as

1 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take 2 these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of 3 the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

4 56. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 5 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s),
6 plus interest thereon.

9 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

11 57. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
12 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

13 58. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by 14 failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiff and the Class for their necessary expenditures and 15 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to 16 directions of Defendants.

17 59. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 18 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

19 60. Plaintiff and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and 20 costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 21 2802(b).

23 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 25 Penalties)

26 61. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
27 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

1 62. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 2 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 3 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment,
4 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter,
5 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 6 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

7 63. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 8 other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 9 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 10 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be 11 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 12 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

13 64. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer
14 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 15 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor
16 Code §§ 201 and 202.

17 65. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 18 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 19 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 20 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

21 66. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 22 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days
23 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

24 67. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the 25 Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs 26 incurred in this action.

27 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

28 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

68. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

69. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

70. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

71. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

72. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

73. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related

1 laws and regulations.

2 74. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual 3 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

4 75. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 5 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor
6 Code § 226(h).

8 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 10 et seq.)

11 76. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
12 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

13 77. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business
14 & Professions Code § 17201.

15 78. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
16 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff
17 seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 18 Procedure § 1021.5.

19 79. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 20 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
21 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22 80. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 23 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 24 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of 25 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, 26 and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of 27 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

28 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

1 81. Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 2 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California
3 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

4 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

5 82. Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation
6 of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
7 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

8 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

9 83. Defendants’ failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 10 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or 11 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

12 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

13 84. Defendants’ failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor
14 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or 15 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

16 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

17 85. Defendants’ failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 18 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 19 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

20 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

21 86. Defendants’ failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 22 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above,
23 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§
24 17200, et seq.

25 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

26 87. Defendants’ failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance 27 with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
28 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

1 88. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
2 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 3 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly 4 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

5 89. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 6 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

7 90. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled 8 to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 9 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 10 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 11 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 12 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

13 91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 14 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair,
15 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
16 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 17 practices in the future.

18 92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no
19 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
20 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
21 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 22 above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and 23 will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained
24 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

25 93. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 26 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 27 withholdings.

28 94. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff

1 and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by
2 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a
3 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 4 Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §
5 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

6 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Against all Defendants for Violation of the Private Attorney General Act of 2024, Labor
8 Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

9 95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein
10 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

11 96. Plaintiff, an "aggrieved employee" within the meaning of Labor Code § 2698, et 12 seq., acting on behalf of herself and other aggrieved employees (collectively, "Aggrieved
13 Employees"), bring this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties
14 due to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California according to proof
15 pursuant to Labor Code § 558 and § 2699(a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for 16 each initial violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent 17 violation or willful or intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code § 210 for each failure to pay
18 each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation
19 and $100 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay 20 period; (3) $100 for each initial violation and $250 for each subsequent violation pursuant to 21 Labor Code § 1197.1 per employee per pay period; (4) $250 for each initial violation and $1,000
22 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; (5)
23 pursuant to Labor Code section 256, a civil penalty in an amount not exceeding 30 days per 24 former employee as waiting time under the terms of Labor Code § 203; and/or (6) $100 for each 25 initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those 26 violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided, based on the 27 following Labor Code violations:
28

- 1 (a) Failing to pay minimum wages for all hours worked to Aggrieved
2 Employees in violation of Labor Code § 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198;
- 3 (b) Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in 4 violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;
- 5 (c) Failing to provide all legally required meal periods, and failure to pay meal
6 period premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of compensation in violation
7 of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198;
- 8 (d) Failing to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods, and failure
9 to pay rest period premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of compensation
10 in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198;
- 11 (e) Failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized
12 wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- 13 (f) Failing to pay all wages due on rest and recovery periods to Aggrieved
14 Employees in violation of Labor Code § 226.2;
- 15 (g) Failing to timely pay all final wages and compensation earned by 16 Aggrieved Employees at the time of separation in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-202;
- 17 (h) Failure to reimburse Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business
18 expenses in violation of Labor Code § 2802;
- 19 (i) Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all earned wages at least twice during 20 each calendar month in violation of Labor Code § 204; and
- 21 (j) Failing to maintain accurate records on behalf of Aggrieved Employees in 22 violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1198.

23 97. Plaintiff Gordon, on or about August 17, 2024, notified Defendants via certified 24 mail, and notified the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via its 25 website, of Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code and Plaintiff; intent to bring claims for civil 26 penalties under Labor Code § 2698, et seq. with respect to the violations of the Labor Code
27 identified in the preceding paragraph. Sixty-five (65) days have passed from Plaintiff notifying
28 Defendants and the LWDA of these violations, and the LWDA has not provided notice that it intends to investigate the violations, Plaintiff have exhausted administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

98. Plaintiff has incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2699(g).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;

2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and

3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

7 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

8 30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
9 Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of 10 termination of the employment;

11 31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former 12 employees who have left Defendants' employ;

13 32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 14 due;

15 33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

16 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

17 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

18 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record
19 keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and 20 willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

21 36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

22 37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
23 Labor Code § 226(h);

24 38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

25 39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

26 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

27 40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
28 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked

(including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

46. For civil penalties due to Plaintiffs, other Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 558 and 2699(a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent violation or willful or intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code § 210 for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and $100 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3) $100.00 for each initial violation and $250.00 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 1197.1 per employee per pay period; (4) $250.00 for each initial violation and $1,000.00 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; (5) pursuant to Labor Code section 256, a civil penalty in an amount not exceeding 30 days per former employee as waiting time under the terms of Labor Code § 203; and/or (6) $100.00 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation

1 per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is 2 specifically provided; and

3 47. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 4 California Labor Code § 2699

5 As to all Causes of Action

6 48. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
