NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT, ATTORNEYS'
FEES AND COSTS, ENHANCEMENT
AWARD, AND SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS;
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT THEREOF

Date: May 20, 2026
Time: 9:00 a.m.
Dept: 1

Complaint Filed: August 29, 2024
Trial Date: Not Set

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on May 20, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. in Department 1 of the 3 above-captioned Court located at North Butte County Courthouse, 1775 Concord Avenue, Chico, 4 California 95928, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, Rule 3.769 of the 5 California Rules of Court, and California Labor Code section 2699(1), Rowena Ray (“Plaintiff”) will 6 and hereby does move the Court for an Order granting final approval of the proposed class action and 7 Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.
8 (“PAGA”) settlement between Plaintiff and Defendant Sierra Central Credit Union (“Defendant”).

9 Plaintiff requests that the Court enter an Order:

- 10 1. Granting final approval of the class action and PAGA settlement;
- 11 2. Approving the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the terms as set 12 forth in the Court-approved Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement 13 Agreement” or “Settlement”), including payment by Defendant of the Gross Settlement Amount of 14 Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($850,000.00) equal to the amounts to pay (1) 15 the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Employees pursuant to the terms of the Settlement; (2) the 16 Court-approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs; (3) the Court-approved Enhancement Award; (4) the 17 Court-approved Settlement Administration Costs; and (5) the Court-approved payment to the 18 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) pursuant to PAGA;
- 19 3. Approving Class Counsel’s request for thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross 20 Settlement Amount, i.e., Two Hundred Ninety-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents 21 ($297,500.00) in attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement of actual costs and expenses in the amount of 22 Twenty-Five Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-Two Dollars and Twenty-Nine Cents ($25,842.29);
- 23 4. Approving the Enhancement Award to Plaintiff in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars 24 and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) in recognition of her services to the Class Members;
- 25 5. Approving the Settlement Administration Costs to Apex Class Action LLC in the 26 amount of Eight Thousand Six Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,690.00); and 27 ///

28 ///

6. Approving Thirty-Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($32,500.00) to be paid to the LWDA as sixty-five percent (65%) of the Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00) allocated to civil penalties under PAGA.

This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 and Rule 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which require approval by the Court of a class action settlement and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda.

This Motion is based on the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Settlement Agreement, the Declarations of Class Counsel (Jasmine Y. Kianfard), the Class Representative (Rowena Ray), and the Settlement Administrator (Madely Nava on behalf of Apex Class Action LLC), the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter, and such evidence or oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: April 28, 2026

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Rowena Ray (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) seeks final approval of the class 4 action settlement reached with Defendant Sierra Central Credit Union (“Defendant”). Subject to Court 5 approval, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have settled the Released Class Claims and 6 Released PAGA Claims as defined in the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement
7 (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”) for a total amount of Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars
8 and Zero Cents ($850,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”). (See Declaration of Jasmine Y. Kianfard 9 in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, Attorneys’ 10 Fees and Costs, Enhancement Award, and Settlement Administration Costs [“Kianfard Decl.”], ¶ 11, 11 Exh. 1).

12 The Court conditionally certified, for settlement purposes only, the Class defined as: “All 13 current and former non-exempt, hourly-paid employees who worked for Defendant in California at 14 any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or “Class Members”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.b; 15 Kianfard Decl., ¶ 9). The “Class Period” is defined as the period from August 29, 2020 through 16 October 11, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.f; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 9). The “Settlement Class 17 Members” consist of all Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion.
18 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.mm; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 9). The “PAGA Employees” consist of “all current 19 and former non-exempt, hourly-paid employees who worked for Defendant in California at any time 20 during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.y; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 9). The “PAGA Period” 21 is defined as the period from August 15, 2023 through October 11, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 22 9.aa; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 9).

23 As discussed herein, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for final settlement 24 approval under California law because it is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Kianfard Decl., Exh. 1; 25 See also, Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-30; Dunk v. Ford Motor 26 Company (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 180 1). The response of the Class to the Settlement confirms 27 that final settlement approval is appropriate. There have been no objections to and no requests to opt- 28 out from the Class Settlement. (Declaration of Madely Nava of Apex Class Action, LLC, Regarding 1 Notice and Settlement Administration [“Nava Decl.”], ¶¶ 10 and 11).

2 Because the Settlement achieves outstanding results for the Settlement Class Members, the 3 PAGA Employees, and the State of California, Plaintiff respectfully requests, on behalf of the Class 4 and without opposition from Defendant, that the Court approve the Settlement as fair, adequate, and 5 reasonable, and enter judgment in accordance with the Settlement’s terms.

6 Plaintiff seeks the Court’s approval of an attorneys’ fee award of thirty-five percent (35%) of 7 the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Two Hundred Ninety-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars 8 and Zero Cents ($297,500.00), plus reimbursement of actual litigation costs and expenses in the 9 amount of Twenty-Five Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-Two Dollars and Twenty-Nine Cents 10 ($25,842.29) (together, “Attorneys’ Fees and Costs”). Class Counsel’s request for an award of 11 attorneys’ fees and costs is reasonable and appropriate in light of the outstanding work performed by 12 Class Counsel in the matter, the contingent nature of this action, and the results achieved under the 13 Settlement. (See Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19).

14 Plaintiff also requests the Court’s approval of the amount to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount 15 of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) (“Enhancement Award”) for her services on 16 behalf of the Class. This amount proposed to be awarded to Plaintiff is fair and reasonable for the 17 reasons Plaintiff provided in her declaration. (See Declaration of Plaintiff Rowena Ray in Support of 18 Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, 19 Enhancement Award, and Settlement Administration Costs [“Ray Decl.”] filed concurrently
20 herewith). Courts approve incentive awards to plaintiffs when justified and appropriate to compensate 21 plaintiffs for their time, effort, and inconvenience. (See e.g., Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co.
22 (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294, 299).

23 Finally, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the payment of Eight Thousand Six Hundred 24 Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,690.00) (“Settlement Administration Costs”) to Apex Class Action 25 LLC (“Apex” or “Settlement Administrator”) as compensation for its administration services it has 26 and will provide in connection with the Settlement. (See, generally, Nava Decl.).

27 ///

28 ///

1 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to 2 grant final approval of the Settlement and award the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement Award, 3 and Settlement Administration Costs, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing of this 4 single consolidated memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California Rules 5 of Court, Rule 3.1113(d), instead of filing several separate motions.

6 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 Defendant is a member-orientated credit union that has served Northern California for over 70 8 years. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Financial Service 9 Associate from approximately October 2022 to January 2024. (Ray Decl., ¶ 2).

10 On August 16, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the Labor and Workforce 11 Development Agency ("LWDA") by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, 12 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specific provisions of the California Labor 13 Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant ("PAGA Letter"). (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 2).

14 On August 29, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint ("Class Operative Complaint")
15 in the action entitled Rowena Ray v. Sierra Central Credit Union, Butte County Superior Court Case 16 No. 24CV02890 ("Class Action"), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant.
17 (Id., ¶ 3).

18 On October 21, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Enforcement Action Under the Private 19 Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698 Et Seq. ("PAGA Operative Complaint") in the action 20 entitled Rowena Ray v. Sierra Central Credit Union, Butte County Superior Court Case No.
21 24CV03571 ("PAGA Action"), which alleged one cause of action under the Private Attorneys General 22 Act of 2004 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2698 et seq. ("PAGA") against Defendant.
23 (Id., ¶ 4). Together, the Class Action and PAGA Action are referred to as the "Actions." (Ibid.)

24 The Class Operative Complaint and PAGA Operative Complaint (together, "Operative 25 Complaints") allege causes of action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay 26 minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and 27 premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant rest periods and premium payments in 28 lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to provide compliant wage

1 statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and failure to reimburse necessary business 2 expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on 3 the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil penalties under PAGA based on 4 the aforementioned California Labor Code violations. (Id., ¶ 5).

5 On August 11, 2025, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Monique 6 Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in 7 complex wage and hour matters, and with the assistance of the Mediator’s evaluations, the Parties 8 were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and representative basis. (Id., ¶ 6).
9 The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the terms in a long form settlement 10 agreement. (Ibid.).

11 On November 26, 2025, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 7 and Exh. 1).

12 On December 19, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and 13 PAGA Settlement (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) and supporting documents. (Id., ¶ 8). On 14 January 21, 2026, the Court entered the Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action and 15 PAGA Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”), thereby preliminary approving the terms of the 16 Settlement Agreement, the Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”), and the proposed 17 administration procedures and associated deadlines. (Id., ¶ 8 and Exh. 2).

18 The Parties agree that the Class described herein may be certified for settlement purposes only.
19 If for any reason the Settlement is not approved, the certification will have no force or effect and will 20 immediately be revoked. The Parties further agree that certification for purposes of approving the 21 Settlement Agreement is in no way an admission that class certification is proper under the more 22 stringent standard applied for litigation and that evidence of this limited stipulation for settlement 23 purposes only will not be admissible for any purpose in this or any other proceeding.

24 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

25 The Parties have agreed to settle the Class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative 26 Complaints for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand 27 Dollars and Zero Cents ($850,000.00), which is exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Settlement 28 Agreement, ¶ 9.q; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 11). The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) Class Counsel’s

1 fees in the amount of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Two 2 Hundred Ninety-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($297,500.00); (2) Class 3 Counsel’s actual litigation costs and expenses, in the amount of Twenty-Five Thousand Eight Hundred 4 Forty-Two Dollars and Twenty-Nine Cents ($25,842.29); (3) Settlement Administration Costs in the 5 amount of Eight Thousand Six Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,690.00); (4) Enhancement
6 Award in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00); and (5) PAGA Penalties
7 in the amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 8 9.q, 12, 13, 14, and 15; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 11). After the above Court-approved amounts are deducted
9 from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Class Members will share in a Net Settlement
10 Amount of approximately Four Hundred Sixty-Seven Thousand Nine Hundred Sixty-Seven Dollars 11 and Seventy-One Cents ($467,967.71). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.v; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 11).

12 The Settlement does not require Settlement Class Members to submit claims as a prerequisite 13 to receiving their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Settlement Share”) nor 14 does it require PAGA Employees to submit claims as a prerequisite to receiving their pro rata share 15 of thirty-five percent (35%) of the PAGA Penalties (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Settlement 16 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.t and 9.r; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 12). Individual Settlement Shares are calculated by the 17 Settlement Administrator by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of weeks worked 18 by all Settlement Class Members for Defendant as non-exempt, hourly-paid employees in California
19 during the Class Period (“Workweeks”) and multiplying the result by each Settlement Class Member’s 20 Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.nn and 17; Kianfard Decl., 21 ¶ 12). Individual PAGA Payments are calculated by the Settlement Administrator by dividing the 22 amount of the PAGA Employees’ 35% share of the PAGA Penalties ($17,500.00) by the total number 23 of pay periods worked by all PAGA Employees for Defendant as non-exempt, hourly-paid employees
24 in California during the PAGA Period (“Pay Periods”) and multiplying the result by each PAGA 25 Employee’s Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.cc and 18; 26 Kianfard Decl., ¶ 12).

27 ///

28 ///

1 Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as one-third (1/3) wages and two-thirds 2 (2/3) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 14).
3 The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated to 4 penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the 5 Settlement Administrator. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 14). The Settlement
6 Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages 7 portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their 8 net payment of their Individual Settlement Share ("Individual Settlement Payment"). (Settlement 9 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.s and 19; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 14). The employer's share of taxes and contributions in 10 connection with the wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares will be paid by Defendant 11 separately and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Kianfard 12 Decl., ¶ 14). Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) 13 penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator.
14 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 14).

15 Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 16 negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 17 thereafter, shall be canceled. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 37; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 15). Any funds 18 associated with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the State 19 of California's Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Settlement Class Member and/or 20 PAGA Employee at issue. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 37; Kianfard Decl., ¶ 15).

21 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all 22 Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 23 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of any and all claims, rights, 24 demands, liabilities, and causes of action which were alleged or which could have been reasonably 25 alleged based on the factual allegations in the Class Operative Complaint, arising during the Class 26 Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant's alleged failure to pay overtime and 27 minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely 28 pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage statements, and

1 reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 2 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, the 3 applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, and California Business and Professions Code 4 sections 17200, et seq. (collectively, “Released Class Claims”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.ff and 5 38).

6 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State 7 of California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have 8 fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released 9 Parties of any and all claims for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, 10 California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., which were alleged or which could have been reasonably 11 alleged based on the factual allegations in the PAGA Letter and the PAGA Operative Complaint, 12 arising during the PAGA Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant’s alleged 13 failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated 14 premium payments, timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide compliant 15 wage statements, maintain complete and accurate payroll records, and reimburse necessary business-16 related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 17 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare 18 Commission Wage Order (collectively, “Released PAGA Claims”). (Id., ¶¶ 9.gg and 39).

19 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, 20 individually and on her own behalf, will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 21 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties from any and all claims, debts, 22 liabilities, demands, obligations, guarantees, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, damages, or causes of 23 action of any kind or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or 24 unasserted, arising out of, relating to, or resulting from her employment and/or separation of 25 employment with Defendant, which Plaintiff, at any time up until the execution of the Settlement 26 Agreement, had or claimed to have or may have. (Id., ¶¶ 40). It is agreed that this is a general release 27 and is to be broadly construed as a release of all claims, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, 28 this Paragraph expressly does not include a release of any claims that cannot be released hereunder by

1 law, including workers' compensation claims. (Ibid). Any and all rights granted under any state or 2 federal law or regulation limiting the effect of the Settlement Agreement, including the provisions of 3 Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, ARE HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVED. (Ibid). Section 4 1542 of the California Civil Code reads as follows:

5 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE 6 CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO 7 EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE 8 AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY 9 AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED 10 PARTY.
11 (Ibid).

12 The "Released Parties" means Defendant and its current and former officers, directors, 13 members, employees, insurers, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and 14 assigns. (Id., ¶ 9.hh).

15 IV. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

16 Apex has taken all necessary steps to effectuate the notice and settlement administration 17 process, as set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order.

18 On January 21, 2026, Apex received the Court approved text for the Class Notice from Class 19 Counsel. (Nava Decl., ¶ 4).

20 On February 4, 2026, ILYM received the class data file from Defendant's counsel, which 21 contained the full name, last known mailing address, Social Security number, recorded regular hours 22 worked for Defendant during the Class Period and Pay Periods worked for Defendant during the 23 PAGA Period, and such other information as is necessary for the Settlement Administrator to calculate 24 Workweeks and Pay Periods (collectively, "Class List"). (Id., ¶ 5). Apex reviewed and cleansed the 25 data for duplicates, discrepancies and any potential missing information. (Ibid). The Class List 26 contained 504 individuals identified as Class Members who worked 40,017.01 Workweeks during the 27 Class Period. (Id., ¶ 5).

28 As part of the preparation for mailing, all 504 names and addresses contained in the Class List were then processed against the National Change of Address ("NCOA") database, maintained by the United States Postal Service ("USPS"), for purposes of updating and confirming the mailing addresses of the Class Members before mailing of the Class Notice. (Id., ¶ 6). The NCOA contains requested

1 change of addresses filed with the USPS. (Ibid). To the extent that an updated address was found in 2 the NCOA database, the updated address was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid). To the 3 extent that no updated address was found in the NCOA database, the original address provided by 4 Defendant's counsel was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid).

5 On February 11, 2026, the Class Notice was mailed, via U.S. First Class Mail, to all 504 6 individuals contained in the Class List. (Id., ¶ 7). 29 Class Notices were returned to Apex as 7 undeliverable. (Id., ¶ 8). Apex performed a computerized skip trace on the 29 returned Class Notices 8 that did not have a forwarding address in an effort to obtain an updated address for the purpose of re-9 mailing the Class Notice. (Ibid). This skip trace effort resulted in obtaining 23 updated addresses, 10 and the Class Notice was promptly re-mailed to those Class Members, via U.S First Class Mail. (Ibid).
11 A total of 6 Class Notices have been deemed undeliverable as no updated address was found 12 notwithstanding the skip tracing. (Id., ¶ 9).

13 Class Members had forty-five (45) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator mailed the 14 Class Notices to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or Dispute ("Response 15 Deadline"). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.jj). The Response Deadline was March 28, 2026 and the 16 extended Response Deadline was April 13, 2026. (Nava Decl., ¶¶ 10-12). The Settlement 17 Administrator did not receive any Requests for Exclusion, Notice of Objections, and/or Disputes.
18 (Ibid).

19 In the course of preparing this Motion, it was discovered that the Class List inadvertently 20 included every Class Member as a PAGA Employee and Pay Periods for all Class Members regardless 21 of whether they worked during the PAGA Period. (Id., ¶ 16). Once this was discovered, Defendant's 22 counsel promptly uploaded a corrected Class List that included 311 PAGA Employees who worked a 23 total of 9,063 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Ibid). Therefore, a total of 193 Class Members 24 received a Class Notice stating that they were entitled to an Individual PAGA Payment even though 25 they are not PAGA Employees. (Ibid). For the avoidance of doubt, the number of Class Members 26 and Workweeks remain unchanged. (Ibid). Apex has been directed by the Parties' counsel to include 27 the following statement on each Class Member's check stub that had received the prior erroneous 28 communication that they would receive an Individual PAGA Payment: "Please note: Your Class Notice incorrectly stated you would receive an Individual PAGA Payment. Your check instead represents your Individual Settlement Payment, which is the only payment you will receive.” (Ibid).

Apex’s costs do not increase with this language printed on the check stubs. (Ibid).

The estimated average gross Individual Settlement Share is $900.42, the estimated highest gross Individual Settlement Share is $2,795.86, and the estimated lowest gross Individual Settlement Share is $1.47; the estimated average Individual PAGA Payment is $56.27, the estimated highest Individual PAGA Payment is $111.99, and the estimated lowest Individual PAGA Payment is $1.93. (Id., ¶¶ 15 and 17).¹

V. COMPLIANCE WITH PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS OF PAGA

On December 19, 2025, Class Counsel submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA through its online submission portal in compliance with California Labor Code § 2699(s)(2). (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 16). The LWDA has not objected or otherwise responded to the submissions. (Ibid).

VI. EVALUATION OF SETTLEMENT FOR FINAL APPROVAL

A. The Legal Standard for Final Approval

Before granting final approval of a class action settlement, the Court must review the settlement for fairness. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801). A court must take into account relevant factors, including, for example, the strength of the plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 244-45; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 [“The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case”]; Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625). Considering such factors, a presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245;

¹ The actual average, highest, and lowest Individual Settlement Shares will be larger than the amounts stated in the Nava Decl. because the Net Settlement Amount is larger due to Class Counsel’s request for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in an amount that is less than $30,000 (the difference between the amount sought and the amount authorized under the Settlement, i.e., $4,157.71 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount).

1 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802). “The settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or 2 rehearsal for trial on the merits. [The trial court is not] to reach any ultimate conclusions on the 3 contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, for it is the very uncertainty 4 of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual 5 settlements.” (Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at 625).

6 B. The Settlement Should be Finally Approved

7 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 8 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.
9 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties’ settlement negotiations 10 were at all times made at arm’s-length and were adversarial. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 17). The Parties 11 engaged in extensive informal discovery prior to reaching a settlement at the mediation. (Id., ¶ 18).

12 C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable

13 Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement 14 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 15 Defendant produced a random sampling of putative class members’ time and pay data as well as 16 Defendant’s relevant wage and hour policies, and information regarding the total number of putative 17 class members, the number of current versus former employees, the total workweeks worked by the 18 putative class members, and the average rate of pay for the putative class members. (Kianfard Decl., 19 ¶ 18). This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and analysis of the strengths 20 and weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Ibid). Plaintiff’s investigation 21 was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc.
22 (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 23 129-130 (“Dunk/Kullar”).

24 Based on the information exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class 25 certification and liability and provided their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate 26 the strengths and weakness of their respective positions. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 19). At all times, Plaintiff 27 was willing and prepared to litigate this matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had 28 been unable to reach a favorable resolution. (Ibid). Additionally, settlement negotiations were

1 conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. (Ibid). Class Counsel are respected members 2 of the California State Bar with strong records of vigorous and effective advocacy and are experienced 3 in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Ibid). Accordingly, Class Counsel had 4 sufficient information and experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

5 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 6 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
7 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 8 must consider “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 9 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 10 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and 11 views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to 12 the proposed settlement.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

13 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal 14 and factual grounds for defending the Actions. Based upon Class Counsel’s experience litigating 15 similar complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class 16 certification and the merits of the Class Action absent a settlement.

17 Class Counsel is aware of Defendant’s defenses and arguments and has also taken into account 18 the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in 19 such litigation, including those involved in class and/or representative adjudication. (Kianfard Decl., 20 ¶ 21). Plaintiff further recognizes the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims 21 asserted in the Actions, Defendant’s defenses, and the difficulties in establishing entitlement to 22 monetary recovery. (Ibid). Plaintiff has also considered the Parties’ settlement discussions, as well 23 as the evaluations of the Mediator, who is experienced and well-regarded in complex labor and 24 employment matters. (Ibid).

25 Defendant denied and continues to deny any liability and wrongdoing of any kind associated 26 with the claims alleged in the Actions, and further denies that class certification is appropriate for any 27 purpose other than the Settlement. (Id., ¶ 22). Defendant believes that it would ultimately prevail in 28 the Actions. (Ibid). Defendant proffered defenses to both certification and to the merits of Plaintiff’s

1 claims. (Ibid). Defendant contended that Plaintiff's claims are not suitable for class certification 2 because individual issues would predominate should this case go to trial. (Ibid). As with all class 3 actions, these complex cases raise difficult management and proof issues and, accordingly, there is a 4 significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Ibid).

5 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 6 amount of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and extremely 7 uncertain proposition. (Id., ¶ 23). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel would need 8 to request and analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members' contact 9 information, contact them, and obtain declarations at great expense. (Ibid). Obtaining the cooperation 10 of current employees would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit 11 against a current employer. (Ibid). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the 12 cooperation of its employees. (Ibid). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and 13 trial, possible appeals would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid).

14 In light of the Parties' respective legal positions and the risks of continued litigation, the Gross 15 Settlement Amount for resolution of the Class and PAGA claims, is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
16 (Id., ¶ 24).

17 VII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE
18 AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

19 Class Counsel seeks thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., 20 $297,500.00) for fees for the time spent litigating this matter and reimbursement of actual costs and 21 expenses totaling Twenty-Five Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-Two Dollars and Twenty-Nine Cents
22 ($25,842.29) incurred in the prosecution of the Actions. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 25). The requested fees 23 and costs are fair compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming 24 litigation on a contingent fee basis, especially in light of the substantial benefits achieved by Class 25 Counsel for the Class Members. (Ibid).

26 A. Plaintiff's Fee Request of Thirty-Five Percent (35%) of the Gross 27 Settlement Amount is Proper Under the Common Fund Doctrine

28 ///

1 Courts have long recognized the “common fund” or “common benefit” doctrine, under which 2 attorneys who create a common fund or benefit for a group of persons may be awarded their fees and 3 costs to be paid out of the fund. (See Serrano v. Priest (“Serrano III”) (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 4 quoting D’Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees’
5 Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995)
6 15 Cal.3d 162, 167; see also Boeing Co. v. Van Gernert (1980) 444 U.S. 472,478; Mills v. Electric 7 Auto-Lite Co. (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392).

8 The California Supreme Court has held that, “when a number of persons are entitled in 9 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results 10 in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys’ fees 11 out of the fund.” (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D’Amico, 11 Cal.3d 1; see also Boeing, 12 supra, 444 U.S. at 478 (“[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than 13 himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee from the fund as a whole.”); Mills, supra, 14 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common fund approach in class 15 actions)). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter Group) at § 17:172.3 16 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

17 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property benefiting 18 others as well as plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court has inherent 19 equitable power to order plaintiffs attorney fees paid out of the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

20 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees in 21 traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a “certain or easily 22 calculable sum of money,” use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate. (Serrano III, 20 23 Cal. 3d at 35).

24 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court stated:
25 “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive 26 benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” Similarly, 27 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, the California Supreme 28

1 Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when 2 an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.”

3 Numerous appellate courts have similarly found. (See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 4 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a “contingent percentage” award of 5 attorneys’ fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court’s broad equitable powers); 6 Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 1 I Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys’ fees and expenses properly 7 awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); Bank of America v.
8 Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit created by action 9 compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts)).

10 The Supreme Court noted that several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative 11 “lodestar” approach for deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and 12 often indecipherable time records. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th at 503; see Lealao 13 v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 31 n.5 citing In re Activision Sec. Litig. (N.D.
14 Cal 1989) 723 F. Supp. 1373, 1375). The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because:
15 (1) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient 16 resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it 17 reduces the demands on judicial resources. (In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 1378-79). The 18 Ninth Circuit now routinely uses the percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award 19 of attorney’s fees. (Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 30-31; see e.g., In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir.
20 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 (approving attorney’s fee of 33%)).

21 A fee of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $297,500.00) is easily 22 within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have awarded percentage fees in the range of 23 20% to 50%, depending on the circumstances of the case. (See In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F.
24 Supp. at 1378). According to Professor Newberg: “No general rule can be articulated on what is a 25 reasonable percentage of a common fund...Usually 50 per cent of the fund is the upper limit on a 26 reasonable fee award from a common fund, in order to assure that fees do not consume a 27 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, though somewhat larger percentages are 28 not unprecedented.” (Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed.), § 14.6). Class Counsel’s requested fee is

1 reasonable and falls well within the historical range of attorney's fee awards under the common fund
2 theory. Based on Class Counsel's showing of reasonableness, the Court should approve the requested 3 fees pursuant to the common fund approach.

4 B. The Circumstances of this Case Support a Thirty-Five Percent (35%) Fee
5 Award

6 Given the significant results achieved under the circumstances of this litigation, the requested 7 fee award is reasonable. As discussed in Sumitomo Copper Litigation, supra, 74 F. Supp. 2d at 396:

8 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent on the 9 success of his services to charge, when successful, as little as he 10 would charge a client who in advance of the litigation has agreed to 11 pay for his services, regardless of success. Nor, particularly in 12 complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a fee 13 depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

14 In that vein, this Court should consider the contingent nature of this case, the uncertainty of 15 the outcome, the quality of the counsel, and the preclusion from other employment.

16 C. The Contingent Nature of This Matter

17 From the outset of the Actions to the present, prosecution of this matter has involved significant 18 financial risk for Class Counsel. Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, 19 with no guarantee of recovery. Class Counsel has placed its own resources at risk to prosecute this 20 matter with no guarantee of success. The risks of this matter are apparent in that class certification 21 would likely have been a hard-fought issue, especially given the uncertainty regarding certification of 22 cases such as this. Moreover, even if class certification were granted over Defendant's opposition, 23 there was no assurance that Plaintiff would succeed at trial. (Kianfard Decl., ¶¶ 21-23). Despite such 24 challenges, Class Counsel was able to persuade Defendant that it faced significant liability exposure 25 such that it was willing to pay $850,000.00 to settle the Class Members' claims.

26 D. The Experience, Reputation, Ability of Counsel, and Skill in Litigation

27 Class Counsel has substantial experience in wage-and-hour and other class action litigation, 28 including litigation involving the legal issues in this matter. (Kianfard Decl., ¶¶ 28 and 29). Class Counsel's skill in developing a factual record and convincing Defendant of its litigation exposure under California law was essential to achieving the Settlement. Through its skill and reputation, Class Counsel was able to obtain a settlement that provides an outstanding result for Class Members. (See 1 generally Kianfard Decl.).

2 E. The Results Achieved

3 The excellent results achieved by the Settlement support Class Counsel's request for attorneys' 4 fees. Class Members' support for the results achieved by Class Counsel is demonstrated by the 5 absence of any objections to either the Class Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for fees, both of 6 which were described clearly in the Class Notice. As of the date of this Motion, Settlement Class 7 Members will be paid, on average, approximately $900.42 each, which is intended to compensate them
8 for the alleged wage and hour violations they suffered during their employment. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 9 13). This is a significant benefit for the Settlement Class Members here as it represents a recovery for 10 highly disputed claims. Equally important is the fact that the State of California will receive 11 $32,500.00 for enforcement of labor laws and education of employers. (Id., ¶ 35).

12 Furthermore, the efficiency with which this litigation was conducted and resolved should be 13 rewarded. After preparing and investigating the cases prior to filing the Actions, Class Counsel 14 strongly litigated and then resolved the cases in an efficient manner. The Class Members will directly 15 benefit from the prompt and fair resolution of their claims. They will be receiving a significant award 16 in a relatively short period of time, as opposed to waiting years to recover some undetermined amount 17 if they succeeded at trial, which is an uncertainty in itself.

18 F. Preclusion of Other Employment

19 As California law recognizes, Class Counsel's commitment to this litigation should not be 20 assessed in a vacuum. (See Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 49). A relevant factor in determining 21 attorneys' fees is whether the litigation required Class Counsel to forego other employment. (See 22 ibid). Class Counsel had to consider its workload during this litigation when considering taking on 23 additional work that was available, and which Class Counsel had to forego in order to devote the time 24 necessary to pursue this litigation. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 27).

25 G. The Requested Fees Are Also Justified Under the Lodestar Method

26 Fee calculations under the lodestar method would result in a similar award, demonstrating the 27 fairness of Class Counsel's percentage fee request. Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is 28 calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on the case and the reasonable hourly

1 compensation of the attorney. The base amount is then adjusted by use of a multiplier in light of 2 various factors. (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). Class Counsel's hourly rates are summarized 3 in the Kianfard Decl. at ¶¶ 28-29.

4 One difficulty in determining the hourly rate of attorneys of similar skill and experience in the 5 relevant community is the scarcity of hourly fee-paying clients in class action litigation. (Kianfard 6 Decl., ¶ 29). As a practical matter, few if any employees or consumers pay attorneys' fees on an 7 hourly basis for such extensive litigation, and thus retainer agreements in such cases are based on a 8 stepped-up contingency fee (with the percentage increasing from one third to forty-five – and 9 sometimes even fifty percent, which is on par with personal injury contingency fee agreements – if 10 the case goes to trial). (Ibid). Therefore, there is no customary hourly billing rate for work that is 11 routinely based on a contingent fee relationship, but the nature of class action work should be strongly 12 considered by the Court. (Ibid). Wage and hour work presents a specialized and challenging area of 13 law that is not within the knowledge of many lawyers. (Ibid). This kind of class action work requires 14 specialized learning and the willingness to take large risks. (Ibid).

15 Class Counsel has spent approximately 318.10 total hours litigating these claims to date.²
16 (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 29). Class Counsel expects to spend another 10 hours in connection with the final 17 approval process (including preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing, and managing 18 the Settlement through its conclusion, including anticipated communications with defense counsel, the 19 Settlement Administrator, our client, and Class Members). (Id., ¶ 30). In addition to time spent during 20 litigation, reasonable hours also include the time spent before the Actions were filed, including time 21 spent interviewing the client, investigating the facts and the law, preparing the initial pleadings, as 22 well as litigating the cases. (Webb v. Board of Educ. (1985) 471 U.S. 234). Further, the fee award 23 should include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys' fee claim. (Serrano v. Priest (1982) 24 32 Cal .3d 621, 639 (“Serrano IV”). Based on the rates of Class Counsel, the total fees incurred to 25

26 ² In Martino v. Denevi (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 553, 559, the court addressed the issue of what evidence is required in 27 California to support a fee application. The court held: “Testimony of an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a 28 particular case is sufficient evidence to support an award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time records.”
Id. There is no need to attach the voluminous invoices prepared in a case as a basis for an award of fees and costs. Id.
Through Class Counsel's declaration in support of this application, however, Plaintiff presents a thorough breakdown of the hours spent and costs incurred in prosecuting this class action. Pursuant to Martino, supra, this presentation is sufficient to support the amount requested.

1 date are $275,917. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 29). By the conclusion of this matter, the total fees are estimated 2 to be approximately $281,417. (Id., ¶ 30).

3 In cases where a common fund analysis is not used, once the court establishes the lodestar 4 amount, it should adjust the fee award by a multiplier in order to make an appropriate fee award.
5 (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). In applying the multiplier, Newberg on Class Actions states that 6 “[m]ultiples ranging from one to four frequently are awarded in common fund cases when the lodestar 7 method is applied. A large common fund award may warrant an even larger multiplier.” (4 Newberg 8 on Class Actions 4th (4th ed. 2002) § 14.6). If the class members paid the fees that the market would 9 bear, they would pay a fee of anywhere from one-third to forty-five percent of any recovery. Since 10 this is the market rate, the lodestar calculation should be enhanced to reflect what the class members 11 would pay on the open market. (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48).

12 In Lealao, the court held that trial courts should award lodestar fees by examining the 13 percentage-of-the-benefit and adjusting the lodestar calculation accordingly. (Id. at 49 and 53). The 14 court indicated that this is an upward adjustment and should be akin to a contingency fee recovery; 15 the court stated, “[a]n adjustment reflecting the amount of the class recovery is not significantly 16 different from an adjustment reflecting a percentage of that amount; and California courts have 17 evaluated a lodestar as a percentage of the benefit.” (Id. at 46). The Lealao method appears 18 particularly appropriate because class actions generally are contingency fee cases for plaintiffs - and 19 the class action clients do not expect to pay an hourly fee.

20 The rationale of Lealao comports with the purpose of the multiplier. The multiplier is 21 “primarily to compensate the attorney for the prevailing party at a rate reflecting the risk of 22 nonpayment in contingency cases.” (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1138). The Lealao 23 court reasoned:

24 Given the unique reliance of our legal system on private litigants to enforce 25 substantive provisions of law through class and derivative actions, attorneys 26 providing the essential enforcement services must be provided incentives 27 roughly comparable to those negotiated in the private bargaining that takes 28 place in the legal marketplace, as it will otherwise be economic for defendants to increase injurious behavior. It has therefore been urged (most persistently by Judge Richard Posner) that in defining a reasonable fee in such representative actions, the law should mimic the market.

In the class action context, that would mean attempting to award the fee that informed private bargaining, if it were truly possible, might have reached.

1 The simplest way for the law to duplicate the bargain that informed parties 2 would reach if agency costs were low is to look to fee award levels in actions 3 brought by sophisticated private parties under the same or comparable 4 statutes.

5 (Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48 (internal citations and quotations omitted)). The court added:

6 [T]rial judges need the flexibility Serrano III provides, as it enables them to 7 relate fee awards to the economic realities that determine the efficacy of the 8 private enforcement contemplated by our civil justice system.

9 Accordingly, we hold that, in cases in which the value of the class recovery 10 can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty and it is not 11 otherwise inappropriate, a trial court has discretion to adjust the basic 12 lodestar through the application of a positive or negative multiplier where 13 necessary to ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely 14 negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.

15 (Id. at 49-50).

16 In looking at similar cases, including those set forth above, Class Counsel's requested fee 17 comports to the market. Based on the reasonable hourly rates suggested by Class Counsel and the 18 collective hours worked in this matter, the requested fee award would represent a modest multiplier of 19 1.08 over the current total fee lodestar. In this regard, Class Counsel's fee request is reasonable.

20 H. No Class Member Objected to the Requested Attorneys' Fee Award

21 Class Counsel's intention to request the Court's approval for payment of attorneys' fees was 22 clearly disclosed to each Class Member in the Court-approved Class Notice. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 31; 23 See also, Nava Decl., Exh. A). As of the filing of this Motion, there has not been a single objection to 24 the request for attorneys' fees. (Nava Decl., ¶ 11). It is fair to conclude that the Class approves of/does 25 not take issue with the requested award of attorneys' fees. Based thereon, Class Counsel's request for 26 thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Two Hundred Ninety-Seven 27 Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($297,500.00), should be granted.

28 I. Plaintiff's Cost Request is Reasonable

Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of a total amount of Twenty-Five Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-Two Dollars and Twenty-Nine Cents ($25,842.29) in costs and expenses in this matter, which includes reasonable future costs for filing the Motion. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 31 and Exh. 4). All costs and expenses were reasonably incurred in prosecution of this matter.

1 VIII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT AWARD TO PLAINTIFF IS 2 REASONABLE

3 The named Plaintiff should be awarded an Enhancement Award in the amount of Ten 4 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) for her services as the Class Representative and the 5 risks in connection with that role. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 33). Enhancement awards in wage and hour 6 cases typically range from $5,000.00 to $20,000.00, although some awards are higher. (Ibid). Often, 7 multiple class representatives receive awards in the above range. (See e.g., Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola 8 Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 [approving an enhancement request of 9 $10,000.00 per named plaintiff in a 188 member class]; Cook v. Niedert, 142 F.3d 1004, 1016 (7th Cir.
10 1998); Thornton v. East Texas Motor Freight, 497 F.2d 416, 420 (6th Cir. 1974) [“We also think there 11 is something to be said for rewarding those drivers who protect and help to bring rights to a group of 12 employees who have been the victims of discrimination.”]). Here, the requested Enhancement Award 13 is modest, reasonable, and should be approved.

14 Plaintiff’s actions establish that: (1) she sought to protect the interests of the Class above her 15 own personal interests; (2) the Settlement Class Members will be benefitted from her actions by 16 receiving a payment without having to do anything; and (3) Plaintiff has put forth a significant amount 17 of time and effort pursuing the litigation and seeing it through to resolution. (See, generally, Ray 18 Decl.; see also Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 19 (discussing the criteria for determining class representative enhancement awards in concluding that a 20 requested award of $25,000 for two class representatives was too high)).

21 The requested award for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the financial and personal risk she 22 took in commencing the Actions, and in light of the benefits that her actions have conferred upon the 23 Class. (Ray Decl., ¶ 7; See also Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co. (N.D.Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 24 299-300). Additionally, in considering a requested class representative enhancement award, courts 25 take into consideration a plaintiff’s reasonable fear of retaliation. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th Cir. 2003) 26 327 F.3d 938, 977). Here, it is easy to see that a potential future employer could expend little effort 27 to discover Plaintiff brought the lawsuit – and based thereon, decline to offer Plaintiff employment.

28 ///

1 In sum, Plaintiff has performed considerable services on behalf of the Class during the 2 litigation. (See, generally, Ray Decl.). Class Counsel cannot understate the importance of the role of 3 an employee who is willing to search out an attorney and step forward to assume the risk of litigation 4 and retaliation in order to represent a class and put the interests of the class before their own interests.
5 Plaintiff has understood that this is a class action where she is serving as the Class Representative and 6 must protect the Class Members' interests. (Id., ¶ 10). Plaintiff was the catalyst to the benefit reached 7 for the Class Members, and has actively protected the Class Members' interests during the pendency 8 of this matter and will continue to do so even if the cases were required to go to trial. (Ibid).

9 In contrast, without having to take on any of the risk incurred by Plaintiff or time spent by 10 Plaintiff in litigating this matter, Settlement Class Members will automatically be issued a payment 11 for their claims. It appears that the Settlement Class Members recognize this enhancement was 12 justified because since the time the Class received notice of the requested Enhancement Award, no 13 one has objected to the request. Thus, the Enhancement Award to Plaintiff is warranted to compensate 14 her for her time and effort, the fear and stress associated with assuming the responsibility of serving 15 as the Class Representative, and the concrete risks she assumed as the Class Representative.

16 IX. THE REQUESTED SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE 17 REASONABLE

18 In Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff requested, and the Court approved, 19 Settlement Administration Costs not to exceed Ten Thousand Two Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents 20 ($10,200.00). (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 34). Apex is the approved Settlement Administrator. (Ibid). It is an 21 experienced class administrator and has adequately performed the administration tasks required by the 22 Preliminary Approval Order. Apex's actual costs to administer the Settlement are only Eight 23 Thousand Six Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,690.00). (Nava Decl., ¶ 18 and Exh. B).
24 Based thereon, the requested costs should be approved.

25 X. THE PROPOSED LWDA ALLOCATION IS REASONABLE

26 Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699(s)(1), the Superior Court shall review and 27 approve the settlement of penalties sought under that California Labor Code Section. (Cal. Lab. Code 28 § 2699(s)(1)). For all of the reasons stated above, the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be approved. As part of the Settlement, Defendant has agreed to pay Fifty Thousand Dollars

1 and Zero Cents ($50,000.00) to settle the claims of the PAGA Employees brought pursuant to PAGA, 2 of which the payment of Thirty-Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($32,500.00)
3 (65% of the PAGA Penalties) will be paid to the LDWA for education and enforcement purposes.
4 (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 35).

5 It is extremely common in approved wage and hour class action cases that settle that only a 6 small portion of the total settlement is paid to PAGA penalties “in order to maximize payments to 7 class members.” (Magadia v. Wal-Mart Assocs. (N.D. Cal. May 31, 2019, No. 17-CV-00062-LHK)
8 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 91732, *90-91, citing as examples Ceja-Corona v. CVS Pharm., Inc. (E.D.
9 Cal. Jan. 14, 2015) 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5118, 2015 WL 222500, at *2-3 [preliminarily approving 10 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $900,000]; Thio v. Genji, LLC (N.D.
11 Cal. 2014) 14 F. Supp. 3d 1324, 1330 [preliminarily approving $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a 12 total settlement amount of $1,250,000]; Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2012) 2012
13 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 [granting final approval of $10,000 in PAGA 14 penalties out of a total settlement amount of $2,500,000]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
15 Oct. 31, 2012) 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [granting final approval of 16 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $3,700,000]; Chu v. Wells Fargo Invs.,
17 LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15821, 2011 WL 672645, at *1 [granting final 18 approval of $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $6,900,000]). Like here, 19 in these approved settlements, the parties generally maximized statutory penalties and minimized 20 PAGA penalties to focus on claims to the class members, the persons who actually suffered the 21 California Labor Code violations. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 36).

22 XI. THE CLASS RECEIVED THE BEST PRACTICABLE NOTICE

23 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 24 program. (See California Civil Code § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-25 74). To protect the rights of absent class members, the parties must provide class members with the 26 best notice practicable of a potential class action settlement. (Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts (1985)
27 472 U.S. 797, 811-12; Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin (1974) 417 U.S. 156, 174-76 [individual notice 28 must be sent to all class members who can be identified through reasonable efforts]; Mullane v. Central

1 Hanover Bank & Garretson Company (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314 [best practicable notice is that which 2 is "reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of 3 the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections"). The content and method of 4 the notice should be designed to apprise the class members of the terms of the proposed settlement 5 and of the class members' rights regarding the settlement. (See Mullane, supra, 339 U.S. at 314;
6 Philadelphia Housing Authority v. American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1970) 323 7 F. Supp. 364, 378).

8 The Class Notice approved by the Court met these requirements: it identified the Parties and 9 described the Actions, the Class, the Gross Settlement Amount, the proposed method for distribution 10 of the Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts proposed to be paid as the Enhancement Award to 11 Plaintiff, the Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator, and the Attorneys' Fees 12 and Costs to Class Counsel. (Kianfard Decl., ¶ 37; see also Nava Decl., Exh. A thereto). The Class 13 Notice described the proposed Settlement with enough specificity to allow each Class Member to 14 make an informed choice whether to accept and participate in it. (Ibid). It also explained how and 15 when Class Members may object to or opt out of the Class Settlement. (Ibid). Finally, the Class 16 Notice provided the date for the hearing on final approval of the Settlement and informed Class 17 Members how to obtain additional information about the Settlement. (Ibid).

18 XII. CONCLUSION

19 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff's 20 Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, and approve: (1) the requested 21 attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of $297,500.00; (2) the requested reimbursement of actual costs and 22 expenses to Class Counsel of $25,842.29; (3) the requested Enhancement Award to Plaintiff of 23 $10,000.00; and (4) the requested Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator of 24 $8,690.00; and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
